Hi [REDACTED] What is the word with you? My word is growing ever more bizarre. JE's lawyers have demanded a meeting with the head of CEOS with the understanding that CEOS will do an "independent review" of the case and then will play no role in the litigation thereafter (so when I am swamped with silly motions I will not be able to reach out to them for help). This meeting is supposed to happen next week. In the meantime, we keep finding more and more girls.

On the DC/JE front, I have found a somewhat shady business connection. I am reviewing JE's Federal Express records from the past 5 years (a treasure trove of info) and found a package sent by JE to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I googled those two names and came up with this article.

I like the obscure reference to "rumors" about Copperfield's personal life. Maybe [REDACTED] is someone to talk to?

I hope all is well.
