Thank you, Jay. I have forwarded your message only to Alex, [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. I don't anticipate it going any further than that. When I receive the originals, I will sign and return one copy to you. The other will be placed in the case file, which will be kept confidential since it also contains identifying information about the girls.

When we reach an agreement about the attorney representative for the girls, we can discuss what I can tell him and the girls about the agreement. I know that [REDACTED] promised Chief [REDACTED] an update when a resolution was achieved. (Something I wouldn't have promised in light of what happened last year.) [REDACTED] is calling, but [REDACTED] knows not to tell Chief [REDACTED] about the money issue, just about what crimes Mr. Epstein is pleading guilty to and the amount of time that has been agreed to. [REDACTED] also is telling Chief [REDACTED] not to disclose the outcome to anyone.

[REDACTED] - Please do whatever you can to keep this from becoming public.

thanks -- Jay

Subject Do you have a signed copy?

Hi Jay – Sorry to be a bother, but do you have a copy that at least contains Mr. Epstein's signature? I need to pass it along to the powers that be. Thanks.
