Alexander Acosta, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida, prosecution in this District for these offenses shall be deferred in favor of prosecution by the State of Florida, provided that Epstein abides by the following conditions and the requirements of this Agreement set forth below.

If the United States Attorney should determine based on reliable evidence that Epstein has violated any of the conditions of this Agreement, then the United States Attorney may ~~at any time~~ initiate prosecution against Epstein for any offense listed above for the duration of this Agreement. In this case, the United States Attorney will furnish Epstein with notice specifying the condition(s) of the Agreement that he has violated.

After timely fulfilling all the terms and conditions of the Agreement, no prosecution for the offenses set out on pages 1 and 2 of this Agreement, nor any other offenses that have been the subject of the joint investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Attorney's Office, nor any offenses that were being investigated by the federal Grand Jury will be instituted in this District, and the charges against Epstein if any, will be dismissed.

Terms of the Agreement:

2. Epstein and the State Attorney's Office shall make a joint, binding recommendation that the Court impose a thirty (30) month sentence to be divided as follows:
 - (a) Epstein shall begin by serving ~~at least~~ eighteen (18) months in county jail for all charges, without any opportunity for withholding adjudication or sentencing, and without probation or community control in lieu of imprisonment; and sentence.

4. Epstein shall provide to the U.S. Attorney's Office copies of all proposed agreements with the State Attorney's Office prior to entering into those agreements.
5. After Epstein has signed this agreement and has been sentenced, the United States shall provide Epstein's attorneys with a list of individuals created on [INSERT DATE] whom it has identified as and who have a cause of action under Florida Statutes Section 796.09 victims, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2255, after Epstein has signed this agreement and been sentenced. Upon the execution of this agreement, the United States District Attorney of Palm Beach will file a motion with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida State Court in Palm Beach County for the appointment of a guardian ad litem for these persons. Epstein's counsel may contact the identified individuals through that guardian.
6. If any of the individuals referred to in paragraph (5), supra, elect to file suit pursuant to Florida Statutes Section 796.09, in any such suit by any such individual(s) 18 U.S.C. § 2255, Epstein will not contest the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida State Court over his person and/or the subject matter, and Epstein will agree (without admitting liability, whether under such statute or otherwise) to settle such suit by paying each such individual's reasonable attorneys fees and court costs, plus aggregate damages, including compensatory and punitive damages, to each such individual in an amount of $50,000.00 excluding reasonable attorneys fees and court costs. waives his right to contest liability and also waives his right to contest damages up to an amount as agreed to between the identified victim and Epstein. Neither Epstein's signature on this agreement, nor any such waiver provided herein nor any settlement by Epstein of any such suit shall require, or is to be construed as, an admission, or as any evidence whatsoever, of civil or criminal liability, whether under federal law or state law, as to any person, including, but not limited to, any individual whose name appears on the list provided by the United States. Epstein's signature on this agreement is not to be construed as an admission of civil or criminal liability as to any person whose name does not appear on the list provided by the United States. [Marie, we would like to address the restitution issue with you over the phone.]

7. Epstein shall enter his guilty plea and be sentenced not later than October ~~19~~27, 2007, and shall self-report to begin serving his sentence not later than December 10, 2007.
8. ~~With credit for gain time, Epstein shall serve at least 450 days in the county jail.~~ Epstein will not be afforded any benefits with respect to gain time, other than the rights, opportunities and benefits as any other inmate, including but not limited to, eligibility for gain time credit based on standard rules and regulations that apply in the state of Florida.

Epstein understands that the United States Attorney has no authority to require the State Attorney's Office to abide by any terms of this agreement. Epstein understands that it is his obligation to undertake discussion with the State Attorney's Office to ensure compliance with these procedures, which compliance will be necessary to satisfy the United States' interest, pursuant to the Petite policy.

In consideration of Epstein's agreement to plead guilty and to provide compensation in the manner described above ~~to victims~~, if Epstein successfully fulfills all of the terms and conditions of this agreement, the United States also agrees that it will not institute any criminal charges against any potential co-conspirators of Epstein, including but not limited to [REDACTED]. Further, upon execution of this agreement and a plea agreement with the State Attorney's Office, the federal Grand Jury investigation will be suspended, and all pending federal Grand Jury subpoenas will be held in abeyance, and no new subpoenas will be issued, unless and until the defendant violates any term of this agreement. Upon completion of the Agreement, the subpoenas reference above will be withdrawn with prejudice and not reissued. The defendant likewise agrees to withdraw his pending motion to intervene and to quash certain grand jury subpoenas. Both parties agree to maintain their evidence, including certain computer equipment, inviolate until all of the terms of this agreement have been satisfied.

By signing this agreement, Epstein asserts and certifies that each of these terms is material to this agreement and is supported by independent consideration and that a breach of any one of these conditions allows the United States to elect to terminate the agreement and to investigate and prosecute Epstein and any other individual or entity for any and all federal offenses.

By signing this agreement, Epstein asserts and certifies that he is aware of the fact that the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial. Epstein further is aware that Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that the Court may dismiss an indictment, information, or complaint for unnecessary delay in presenting a charge to the Grand Jury, filing an information, or in bringing a defendant to trial. Epstein hereby requests that the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida defer such prosecution. Epstein agrees and consents that any delay from the date of this Agreement to the date of initiation of prosecution, as provided for in the terms expressed herein, shall be deemed to be a necessary delay at his own request, and he hereby waives any defense to such prosecution on the ground that such delay operated to deny him rights under Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to a speedy trial or to bar the prosecution by reason of the running of the statute of limitations for a period of months equal to the period between the signing of this agreement and the breach of this agreement for the offenses listed on pages 1 and 2 infra. Epstein further asserts and certifies that he understands that the Fifth Amendment and Rule 7(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provide that all felonies must be charged in an indictment presented to a grand jury. Epstein hereby agrees and consents that, if a prosecution against him is instituted for the offenses listed on pages 1 and 2 infra, it may be by way of an Information signed and filed by the United States Attorney, and hereby waives his right to be indicted by a grand jury.

By signing this agreement, Epstein asserts and certifies that the above has been read and explained to him. Epstein hereby states that he understands the conditions of this Non-Prosecution Agreement and agrees to comply with them.
