Hi [REDACTED] Sorry to bother you, but we will not be able to do [REDACTED] grand jury testimony on the 17th. I am hoping that [REDACTED] is available either June 24th or, preferably, July 1st. Can you let me know which date works better for her? I will then send you a subpoena with the new date and I will provide you with the contact information for the person here who handles witness travel reservations. The new subpoena also will contain a request for documents and information that [REDACTED] might have – mainly telephone records, gifts, photographs, and the like.

Thank you for your assistance.
