Re: Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Mr. Goldberger:

Pursuant to the terms of the Non-Prosecution Agreement, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida hereby provides you with notice that the United States Attorney has determined, based on reliable evidence, that Jeffrey Epstein has willfully violated one of the conditions of the Non-Prosecution Agreement. Specifically, on May 26, 2009, Jeffrey Epstein, through his counsel, filed a "Motion to Dismiss the First Amended Complaint or, in the Alternative, for a More Definite Statement," in the matter of Jane Doe No. 101 v. Jeffrey Epstein, Court File No. 09-CV-80591-KAM. "Jane Doe No. 101" was on the list provided to Mr. Epstein's attorneys of individuals whom the United States had identified as victims, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2255, and "Jane Doe No. 101" has elected to proceed exclusively under 18 U.S.C. § 2255. By filing the Motion to Dismiss, Mr. Epstein is contesting liability and, therefore, has violated Term 8 of the Non-Prosecution Agreement.

Based upon Mr. Epstein's breach of that term, the U.S. Attorney's Office will pursue its remedies. The U.S. Attorney's Office also is continuing its review of Mr. Epstein's filings in the civil suits to determine whether additional breaches have occurred. If any are identified, they will be communicated to you in accordance with the terms of the Non-Prosecution Agreement.

Sincerely,

Re: Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Ms. [redacted]:

Thank you for your letter of July 27, 2011 to my co-counsel Martin Weinberg concerning the request by the New York District Attorney for copies of the Non-Prosecution Agreement ("NPA") and the "victim list" in regards to Mr. Epstein. We continue for the reasons stated herein to believe that any such disclosure would violate the confidentiality agreement between your Office and Mr. Epstein as well as the provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e).

As to the NPA, you have repeatedly asserted in Doe v United States, No. 9:08-cv-80736-KAM, that the NPA was a confidential document. For instance, in paragraph 6 of Document 14, your own Declaration, you stated that the NPA contained "an express confidentiality provision." In opposing the Motion to Unseal the NPA that was filed by Jane Doe, you stated that you had informed Judge Marra of the confidentiality provision during an earlier telephonic status conference occurring on August 14, 2008 which "the United States was obligated to honor," Document 29 at 1, and that "the parties who negotiated the Agreement, the United States Attorney's Office and Jeffrey Epstein, determined that the Agreement should remain confidential," Document 29 at 2. Further, you deemed the NPA "confidential," for understandable purposes, in your September 3, 2008 letter to Robert Josefsberg in which you informed him that Judge Marra had set forth procedures for providing the NPA only to those counsel and "victims" who executed a Protective Order preventing its subsequent disclosure.

The New York Assistant District Attorney, Ms. Morse, is representing the prosecution in an appeal regarding a sex offender registration determination, and any disclosure of the NPA to her has the potential to result in its use in that appeal and the real risk that the appellate court will unseal it. We believe it to violate both the spirit and the most logical interpretation of the NPA, paragraph 13, for you to disclose it absent a subpoena -- which we could oppose in the jurisdiction from which it emanated. We further believe that when parol evidence supplements the text of paragraph 13 of the NPA, it is perfectly apparent from your prior submissions that you as well as we believed the NPA to contain "an express confidentiality provision" that your current willingness to disclose absent court process violates.

EFTA00230790

KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP

As to the "victim list," again, not only is it confidential given its nexus to the NPA, but your own prior letters tie the list to the Federal Grand Jury investigation and thus to the non-disclosure provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e). On July 8, 2008, you wrote to Jack A. Goldberger, Esq., and informed him that on June 30, 2008, "the United States Attorney's Office provided [him] with a list of thirty-one individuals 'whom it was prepared to name in an Indictment as victims of an enumerated offense by Mr. Epstein.'" (emphasis added). On July 9, 2008, you wrote in a follow-up letter to Mr. Goldberger that "the U.S. Attorney's modification of the 2255 portion of the Agreement now limits our victim list to those persons whom the United States was prepared to include in an indictment. This means that, pursuant to Justice Department policy, these are individuals for whom the United States believes it has proof beyond a reasonable doubt that each of them was a victim of an enumerated offense." (emphasis added). First Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] used similar language in tying the names of the "victims" to the basis for a potential indictment, see December 6, 2007 letter from Mr. [redacted] to Mr. Lefkowitz at 2, 3; see also your email to Mr. Lefkowitz and Mr. Black on August 14, 2008 at 3:27 p.m., where you state that the list contains "only those 'individuals whom [the United States] was prepared to name in an Indictment...,'" thus clearly providing the nexus between the list and the Grand Jury investigation and its corollary, the protections from non-disclosure enumerated in Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e).

In terms of case law, the names of witnesses that either testified or were identified during Grand Jury proceedings are subject to the secrecy provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e). See, e.g., In re Grand Jury Subpoena, Judith [redacted], 438 F.3d 1138, 1140 (D.C. Cir. 2006) ("Consistent with these purposes, we have recognized that grand jury secrecy covers 'the identities of witnesses or jurors, the substance of testimony as well as actual transcripts, the strategy or direction of the investigation, the deliberations or questions of jurors, and the like.'") (citing In re Dow Jones & Co., Inc., 142 F.3d 496, 500 (D.C. Cir. 1998)); see also SEC v Dresser Industr. Inc., 628 F.2d 1368, 1382 (D.C. Cir. 1980); Fund for Constitutional Gov't v Nat'l Archives & Records Serv., 656 F.2d 856, 869 (D.C. Cir. 1981). Indeed, it is generally recognized that the scope of protection accorded to Grand Jury proceedings under Rule 6(e) is broad and encompasses, among other things, information such as the "victim list" at issue here:

EFTA00230791

KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP

> We construe the secrecy provisions of Rule 6(e) to apply not only to disclosures of events which have already occurred before the grand jury, such as a witness's testimony, but also to disclosures of matters which will occur, such as statements which reveal the identity of persons who will be called to testify or which report when the grand jury will return an indictment.

In re Grand Jury Investigation, 610 F.2d 202, 216-17 (5th Cir. 1980).[1]

We believe that confidentiality applies to the requested information. We believe that any non-compulsory handover of the list or NPA is inconsistent with the positions you have previously taken in related litigation. Accordingly, we request that you reconsider and decline the request of the New York District Attorney.

Sincerely,

Jay P. Lefkowitz, P.C.

RE: Jeffrey Epstein

Dear [redacted]:

Once again I need to send you a note about Jeffrey Epstein, mainly to keep you in the loop [redacted] we don't inadvertently violate any provision of his agreement with your office. As I am sure you are aware, Mr. Epstein has finished the incarceration portion of his sentence and is now serving the one year of community control as mandated by both his state plea and the terms of the non-prosecution agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida.

Mr. Epstein is in compliance with all terms of his community control and is applying for transfer of his supervision from the State of Florida to his primary residence, the Virgin Islands. This transfer is being requested through the Intrastate Compact for Transfer of Adult Supervision (ICAOS). The ICAOS is the mechanism for which transfers of probation and community control are effectuated. The process requires the offender to seek the approval of the sending state (in this case Florida) and, if they agree, the receiving state (in this case the United States Virgin Islands) and the United States Virgin Islands after investigation has pre-approved the transfer under the same exact conditions of supervision as imposed in Mr. Epstein's community control sentence in the State of Florida.

Even though Mr. Epstein is requesting the transfer he is still at the home in Palm Beach following the rules of state community control. As Mr. Epstein's lawyers, we believe that his request to administratively transfer his community control is in full compliance with both his state plea agreement and the non-prosecution agreement with the United States Attorney's Office. Nonetheless we have taken to heart your previous suggestion of erring on the side of caution and thus we are advising you of this request.

I am happy to discuss this with you at any time. I did not want to set an appointment to see you on this issue since I imagine you have more pressing matters to deal with than a transfer of a state community control matter.

Very truly yours,

Roy Black

RE: Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Ms [redacted]:

Thank you for your letter of February 11, 2010. We write to update you about ongoing efforts to reach an agreement with Robert Josefsberg regarding the amount of fees and costs properly owed to him by Mr. Epstein pursuant to the NPA.

On February 16, 2010 Mr. Epstein's principal civil counsel Bob Critton advised Mr. Josefsberg in writing that he and Mr. Epstein would meet with Mr. Josefsberg on two occasions between now and March 1, 2010 to review Mr. Josefsberg's outstanding bills on a line-by-line basis and attempt to reach a non-adversarial resolution of all outstanding fee issues. Mr. Critton also transmitted to Mr. Josefsberg an Agreement for Special Master to Determine Amount of Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Special Master Agreement"), signed by Mr. Epstein, containing terms and conditions previously agreed to by Mr. Josefsberg, which would mandate binding mediation before a neutral third party in the event the proposed settlement discussions did not resolve all outstanding issues in an expeditious manner.

We want to assure you that Mr. Epstein fully intends to fulfill his obligations under the NPA. We regret that issues remain unresolved regarding whether all of the fees and costs being sought by the attorney representative – which now total $1,947,000 exclusive of the $526,466 already paid by Mr. Epstein – meet the criteria set forth by the NPA. We assure you that both Mr. Epstein's prior civil counsel, Jay Lefkowitz, who, with you, was a primary negotiator of the NPA language, and Mr. Critton, each strongly believe that significant amounts of the fees and costs billed by Mr. Josefsberg are outside the scope of Mr. Epstein's fee-related payment obligations under the NPA. We hope that the fee-related issues can be resolved by further settlement discussions or by relying on the Special Master Agreement signed Tuesday February 16, 2010 by Mr. Epstein. Mr. Epstein and his counsel believe that these options are consistent with the NPA, are good [redacted] alternatives to contested litigation, and are reasonable given the unexpected magnitude of the bills and their inclusion of charges for legal work that was clearly related to the preparation of litigation and thus outside Par 7C of the Addendum as well as for extensive work performed by attorneys from outside Mr. Josefsberg's law firm.

Mr. Josefsberg previously advocated for settling outstanding issues through a Special Master Agreement nearly identical to the one executed Tuesday by Mr. Epstein. In fact, Mr. Josefsberg and Mr. Epstein had each agreed in the past to a specific Master as a third-party neutral to conduct proceedings to resolve the fee issues. However, the selected Master withdrew.

We hope that the Special Master Agreement will provide a basis for a prompt resolution of any issue not resolved by the parties through further discussions.

Respectfully submitted,

conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereas [redacted] reportedly told [redacted] that if Jeff asked her age, she should say she was eighteen. It was later confirmed by the [redacted]'s father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted]'s father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Epstein. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. [redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted] [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. [redacted] told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. [redacted] stated Epstein was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room [redacted] she took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein had removed his towel and told the [redacted] to take off everything. [redacted] stated Epstein was nude when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. [redacted] stated she then removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back whereby [redacted]. [redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage him, telling her to go clockwise or counter clockwise. Epstein then turned over and instructed [redacted] to massage his chest. [redacted] was now standing on the ground and resumed massaging Epstein's chest area. [redacted] stated Epstein held onto the small of her back as she massaged his chest and shoulder area. Epstein then turned to his side and started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. [redacted] said she was paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before she left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted]'s cellular telephone [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked [redacted] what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted] voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted] name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted]'s residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted] [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau where I obtained a taped, sworn statement. I began the interview by asking [redacted] how she became acquainted with Epstein. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

[redacted](Unknown last name) and Tony (Unknown last name) picked [redacted] up and she was taken to Epstein's house. Upon her arrival to the house she was introduced to Epstein in the kitchen of the house. She was also introduced to a white female known to her as [redacted]. She was led upstairs to the main bedroom known to her as Jeff Epstein's bedroom. [redacted] arranged the massage table and covered the table with a sheet. She brought out the massage oils and laid them next to the massage bed. [redacted], then left the room and informed [redacted] Jeff would be in, in a minute. Jeff entered the bedroom wearing only a towel. He removed the towel and laid nude on the massage table. He laid on the table onto his stomach and picked a massage oil for [redacted] to rub on him. During the massage, [redacted] stated "He tried to touch me and I stopped him." I asked how he tried to touch her. [redacted] stated that Epstein [redacted] and she felt uncomfortable. [redacted] told Epstein, I'll massage you but I don't want to be touched. [redacted] stated she performed the massage naked. At the conclusion of the massage, Epstein paid [redacted] $200.

After the massage Epstein stated to [redacted] that he understood she was not comfortable, but he would pay her if she brought over some girls. He told her the younger the better. [redacted] stated she once tried to bring a 23 year old female and Epstein stated that the female was too old. [redacted] stated that in total she only remembers six girls that she brought to see Epstein, each time she was paid $200. [redacted] stated she had brought the following girls: [redacted] said that at the time she brought these girls to Epstein's house they were all14 through 16 years of age. I asked [redacted] which one was the youngest. [redacted] advised [redacted] was the youngest as she was fourteen when the massage occurred. [redacted] stated every girl she brought knew what to expect when they arrived. They were told they would provide a [redacted]e, possibly naked, and allow some touching. I asked her if [redacted] was aware. She stated every girl she brought knew what to expect. She explained she knew that [redacted] wanted to make money. She approached [redacted] nd explained about going to work for Jeff, [redacted] agreed and arrangements were made to bring her to Epstein's house on a weekend. [redacted] stated that she and [redacted] (Later identified as [redacted]) picked up [redacted] at her house. [redacted] stated that at that time she was driving a red pickup truck. They traveled to Epstein's house and entered through the kitchen door. They met with the house chef and Epstein's assistant [redacted]. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein while they were in the kitchen area. [redacted] led [redacted] upstairs and Epstein went upstairs. When the massage was over [redacted] returned to the kitchen area. [redacted] stated she was paid $200.00 for bringing [redacted] to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated [redacted] told her she was paid $300.00 for the massage.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] was the last person she brought to Epstein's house. She had changed her cellular number to avoid being contacted by [redacted]. She continued stating that she had no direct contact with Epstein when he was going to travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] said when Epstein announces to his assistant, [redacted], that he is traveling to Palm Beach, [redacted] would then contact [redacted] to arrange girls to "work" for Epstein. [redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call [redacted] house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted] We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for [redacted]. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted] As she was under the age of eighteen, Mrs [redacted] was advised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. We interviewed [redacted] who denied having any inappropriate encounters with Jeff (Epstein). She stated she had gone to Jeff's house with [redacted] approximately eight months ago and sat in the kitchen with the house chef, but nothing happened. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to putting the entire incident behind her. During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted]n Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted] During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted]tated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted] approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may

Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted] At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself . Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who [redacted] nated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house.

Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

Therefore, as Jeffrey Epstein, who at the time of these incidents was fifty one years of age, did have vaginal intercourse either with his penis or digitally with [redacted] who were minors at the time this occurred, there is sufficient probable cause to charge Jeffrey Epstein with four counts of Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, in violation of Florida State Statute 794.05(1), a second degree felony. As Epstein, who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did use a vibrator on the external vaginal area of [redacted] a fourteen year old minor, there is sufficient probable cause to charge him with Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.04 (5), a second degree felony.

During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may massage his feet and calves. [redacted] started the massage with the oils Epstein chose and rubbed his feet and calves. Epstein got off the phone and requested she massage his back as well. [redacted] began rubbing his back and got to the small of his back. During the rubbing of his back, Epstein asked her to get comfortable. He requested she remove her pants and shirt. [redacted] removed her shirt and pulled her pants off. [redacted] stayed in her bra and thong panties. As she finished massaging the small of Epstein's back, he then turned onto his back. Epstein instructed [redacted] to rub his chest and pinch his nipples. As she [redacted], Epstein asked her questions about herself. [redacted] remembered telling him she attended Royal Palm Beach High School. Epstein asked her if she was sexually active. Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. [redacted] stated he [redacted] as he was masturbating. [redacted] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Epstein told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Epstein also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to [redacted] for bringing her there to massage him. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for [redacted] and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

On January 9, 2006, I located and interviewed another victim, [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as a potential victim/witness from information obtained during trash pulls from Epstein's residence. [redacted] stated she met Epstein when she was fifteen years of age. She was approached by a friend from Royal Palm Beach High School, [redacted], to be taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house to work. She was originally told she would be able to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself . Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet

Police Case#: 05-368 (1)

Defendant: Jeffrey Epstein
Race/Sex: White Male
DOB: 01-20-1953
Charges: Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor (4) counts
Lewd and Lascivious Molestation

From March 15, 2005, through February 2006, the Palm Beach Police Department conducted a sexual battery investigation involving Jeffrey Epstein, [redacted] and [redacted]. Sworn taped statements were taken from five victims and seventeen witnesses concerning massages and unlawful sexual activity that took place at the residence of Jeffrey Epstein, 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach. Several of the victims were recruited by and brought to the residence by [redacted] to perform massages for Epstein, for which [redacted] received monetary compensation. During the visit they would be introduced to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, who in turn would record their telephone numbers and name. The victims would be brought to Epstein's bedroom to provide the massage. Epstein would enter the room and order the victims to remove their clothing to provide the massage. As the victims complied and provided the massages, Epstein would [redacted]. On occasion, Epstein would introduce a massager/vibrator and [redacted] as they provided the massage. On three separate occasions, Epstein had intercourse and inserted his penis/fingers in the victims vaginas. At the conclusion of the massages the victims were paid sums of money ranging from $200 - $1,000. The facts, as reported, are as follows:

On 03/15/2005, A fourteen year old white female, hereinafter referred to as "[redacted]," dob [redacted], and her family reported unlawful sexual activity which occurred at a residence within the Town of Palm Beach. [redacted] reported that a subject known to her as "Jeff" had touched her vaginal area with a vibrator/massager while within his residence. "Jeff" was later identified as Jeffrey Epstein through a photo line up.

During a sworn taped interview, [redacted] stated that [redacted], dob 04/09/1986, a cousin of [redacted]'s boyfriend and classmate at Royal Palm Beach High School, worked for a wealthy man and did sexual favors for him. She also admitted that [redacted] had offered her an opportunity to make money. During the beginning of the month of February 2005, [redacted] explained that she was first approached by [redacted] to go with her to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated that [redacted] along with a Hispanic female, later identified at [redacted], pick her up at her father's house on a Sunday. [redacted] was not sure of the exact dates but knew it was a Sunday. [redacted] told her father that they were going shopping but in reality [redacted] drove them to Palm Beach. During the drive a conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereas [redacted] reportedly told [redacted] that if [redacted] asked her age, she should say she was eighteen. It was later confirmed by the [redacted] father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted] father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Epstein. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. [redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted]. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. [redacted] told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. [redacted] stated Epstein was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room [redacted] she took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein had removed his towel and told the [redacted] to take off everything. [redacted] stated Epstein was nude when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. [redacted] stated she then removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back whereby [redacted]. [redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage him, telling her to go clockwise or counter clockwise. Epstein then turned over and instructed [redacted] to massage his chest. [redacted] was now standing on the ground and resumed massaging Epstein's chest area. [redacted] stated Epstein held onto the small of her back as she massaged his chest and shoulder area. Epstein then turned to his side and started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. Epstein then pulled out a purple vibrator and began to [redacted]. [redacted] stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. [redacted] said she was paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before she left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted] cellular telephone [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked [redacted], what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted]'s voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted] name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted] residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau where I obtained a taped, sworn statement. I began the interview by asking [redacted] how she became acquainted with Epstein. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

[redacted] (Unknown last name) and Tony (Unknown last name) picked [redacted] up and she was taken to Epstein's house. Upon her arrival to the house she was introduced to Epstein in the kitchen of the house. She was also introduced to a white female known to her as [redacted]. She was led upstairs to the main bedroom known to her as [redacted] Epstein's bedroom. [redacted] arranged the massage table and covered the table with a sheet. She brought out the massage oils and laid them next to the massage bed. [redacted], then left the room and informed [redacted] would be in, in a minute. [redacted] entered the bedroom wearing only a towel. He removed the towel and laid nude on the massage table. He laid on the table onto his stomach and picked a massage oil for [redacted] to rub on him. During the massage, [redacted] stated "He tried to touch me and I stopped him." I asked how he tried to touch her. [redacted] stated that Epstein [redacted] and she felt uncomfortable. [redacted] told Epstein, I'll massage you but I don't want to be touched. [redacted] stated she performed the massage naked. At the conclusion of the massage, Epstein paid [redacted] $200.

After the massage Epstein stated to [redacted] that he understood she was not comfortable, but he would pay her if she brought over some girls. He told her the younger the better. [redacted] stated she once tried to bring a 23 year old female and Epstein stated that the female was too old. [redacted] stated that in total she only remembers six girls that she brought to see Epstein, each time she was paid $200. [redacted] stated she had brought the following girls: [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted]. (a16 year old female), [redacted] (a 16 year old female) and [redacted]. [redacted] said that at the time she brought these girls to Epstein's house they were all14 through 16 years of age. I asked [redacted] which one was the youngest. [redacted] advised [redacted] was the youngest as she was fourteen when the massage occurred. [redacted] stated every girl she brought knew what to expect when they arrived. They were told they would provide a massage, possibly naked, and allow some touching. I asked her if [redacted] was aware. She stated every girl she brought knew what to expect. She explained she knew that [redacted] wanted to make money. She approached [redacted] and explained about going to work for [redacted], [redacted] agreed and arrangements were made to bring her to Epstein's house on a weekend. [redacted] stated that she and [redacted] (Later identified as [redacted]) picked up [redacted] at her house. [redacted] stated that at that time she was driving a red pickup truck. They traveled to Epstein's house and entered through the kitchen door. They met with the house chef and Epstein's assistant [redacted]. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein while they were in the kitchen area. [redacted] led [redacted] upstairs and Epstein went upstairs. When the massage was over [redacted] returned to the kitchen area. [redacted] stated she was paid $200.00 for bringing [redacted] to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated [redacted] told her she was paid $300.00 for the massage.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] was the last person she brought to Epstein's house. She had changed her cellular number to avoid being contacted by [redacted]. She continued stating that she had no direct contact with Epstein when he was going to travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] said when Epstein announces to his assistant, [redacted], that he is traveling to Palm Beach, [redacted] would then contact [redacted] to arrange girls to "work" for Epstein. [redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call [redacted] house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted]. We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for [redacted]. [redacted] introduced us to her husband and allowed us entry into the home. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted], Date of Birth [redacted]. As she was under the age of eighteen, [redacted] was advised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may massage his feet and calves. [redacted] started the massage with the oils Epstein chose and rubbed his feet and calves. Epstein got off the phone and requested she massage his back as well. [redacted] began rubbing his back and got to the small of his back. During the rubbing of his back, Epstein asked her to get comfortable. He requested she remove her pants and shirt. [redacted] removed her shirt and pulled her pants off. [redacted] stayed in her bra and thong panties. As she finished massaging the small of Epstein's back, he then turned onto his back. Epstein instructed [redacted] to rub his chest and pinch his nipples. As she [redacted], Epstein asked her questions about herself. [redacted] remembered telling him she attended Royal Palm Beach High School. Epstein asked her if she was sexually active. Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. [redacted] said "no, I don't like that." Epstein then removed his towel and laid on the bed naked exposing his penis to [redacted]. He began touching his penis and masturbated as he [redacted]. [redacted] explained Epstein then touched [redacted]. [redacted] tensed up and stated Epstein was aware that she was uncomfortable. [redacted] stated that Epstein said to her, "Relax, I'm not going inside." She further explained Epstein commented to her how beautiful and sexy she was. Epstein then moved her thong panties to one side and began [redacted]. [redacted] said, "He commented how [redacted]." He then [redacted]. She tried pulling back to [redacted]. Epstein [redacted] and apologized for [redacted]. During this time, he kept his [redacted] and continued to rub her vagina. [redacted] stated he [redacted] as he was masturbating. [redacted] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Epstein told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Epstein also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to [redacted] for bringing her there to massage him. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for [redacted] and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

On January 9, 2006, I located and interviewed another victim, [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as a potential victim/witness from information obtained during trash pulls from Epstein's residence. [redacted] stated she met Epstein when she was fifteen years of age. She was approached by a friend from Royal Palm Beach High School, [redacted], to be taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house to work. She was originally told she would be able to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself. Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or utilize the massager/vibrator on [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house.

Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

Therefore, as Jeffrey Epstein, who at the time of these incidents was fifty one years of age, did have vaginal intercourse either [redacted] or digitally with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], who were minors at the time this occurred, there is sufficient probable cause to charge Jeffrey Epstein with four counts of Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, in violation of Florida State Statute 794.05(1), a second degree felony. As Epstein, who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did use a vibrator on the external vaginal area of [redacted], a fourteen year old minor, there is sufficient probable cause to charge him with Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.04 (5), a second degree felony.

From March 15, 2005, through February 2006, the Palm Beach Police Department conducted a sexual battery investigation involving Jeffrey Epstein, [redacted] and [redacted]. Sworn taped statements were taken from five victims and seventeen witnesses concerning massages and unlawful sexual activity that took place at the residence of Jeffrey Epstein, 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach. Several of the victims were recruited by and brought to the residence by [redacted] to perform massages for Epstein, for which [redacted] received monetary compensation. During the visit they would be introduced to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, who in turn would record their telephone numbers and name. The victims would be brought to Epstein's bedroom to provide the massage. Epstein would enter the room and order the victims to remove their clothing to provide the massage. As the victims complied and provided the massages, Epstein would [redacted]. On occasion, Epstein would introduce a massager/vibrator and [redacted] as they provided the massage. On three separate occasions, Epstein had intercourse and inserted his penis/fingers in the victims vaginas. At the conclusion of the massages the victims were paid sums of money ranging from $200 - $1,000. The facts, as reported, are as follows:

On 03/15/2005, A fourteen year old white female, hereinafter referred to as "[redacted]," dob [redacted], and her family reported unlawful sexual activity which occurred at a residence within the Town of Palm Beach. [redacted] reported that a subject known to her as "[redacted]' had touched her vaginal area with a vibrator/massager while within his residence. "[redacted]' was later identified as Jeffrey Epstein through a photo line up.

she should say she was eighteen. It was later confirmed by the [redacted]'s father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted] father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Epstein. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. [redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted]. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. [redacted] told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. [redacted] stated Epstein was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room [redacted] she took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein had removed his towel and told the [redacted] to take off everything. [redacted] stated Epstein was nude when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. [redacted] stated she then removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back whereby [redacted]. [redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage him, telling her to go clockwise or counter clockwise. [redacted] stated Epstein held onto the small of her back as she massaged his chest and shoulder area. Epstein then turned to his side and started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. Epstein then pulled out a purple vibrator and [redacted]

[redacted]. [redacted] stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. [redacted] said she was paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before she left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted] cellular telephone [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked [redacted], what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted]'s voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted]'s name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted] residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau where I obtained a taped, sworn statement. I began the interview by asking [redacted] how she became acquainted with Epstein. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

After the massage Epstein stated to [redacted] that he understood she was not comfortable, but he would pay her if she brought over some girls. He told her the younger the better. [redacted] stated she once tried to bring a 23 year old female and Epstein stated that the female was too old. [redacted] stated that in total she only remembers six girls that she brought to see Epstein, each time she was paid $200. They were told they would provide a massage, possibly naked, and allow some touching. I asked her if [redacted] was aware. She stated every girl she brought knew what to expect. when he was going to travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] said when Epstein announces to his assistant, [redacted], that he is traveling to Palm Beach, [redacted] would then contact [redacted] to arrange girls to "work" for Epstein. [redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call [redacted] house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted]. We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for Jeff. Mrs. S introduced us to her husband and allowed us entry into the home. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted], Date of Birth [redacted]. As she was under the age of eighteen, [redacted] was advised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. We interviewed [redacted], who denied having any inappropriate encounters with Jeff (Epstein). She stated she had gone to Jeff's house with [redacted] approximately eight months ago and sat in the kitchen with the house chef, but nothing happened. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to putting the entire incident behind her. I left my telephone number and advised should she wish to speak with me again to telephone me. Sgt [redacted] and I thanked [redacted] for her time and left the area. She stated she would ask [redacted] again after we left as to what happened at Epstein's house. I informed her that [redacted] had my telephone number and hopefully she would call.

On October 4, 2005, Det [redacted] and I drove to the [redacted] home and met with [redacted] and [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated approximately a year ago when she was seventeen years old, she was taken to a house by [redacted]. [redacted] stated she knows [redacted] because they both attend Royal Palm Beach High School. She was told she could make money working for [redacted]. She was told she would have to provide a massage to [redacted]. [redacted] stated upon her arrival to the house she was brought to the kitchen area by [redacted]. They met with the house chef who was already in the kitchen area. [redacted] stated [redacted] would wait for her in the kitchen. [redacted] was introduced to [redacted], Jeff's assistant, who brought her upstairs to the master bedroom. [redacted] prepared the room and massage table for a massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and she provided a massage. [redacted] stated she kept her clothes on during the massage. She advised sometime during the massage, Epstein [redacted] and pulled her close to him. [redacted] said she was uncomfortable by the incident involving [redacted]. At the conclusion of the massage, she was paid $200.00 for the massage. I asked [redacted] if she has any formal training in massages to which she replied no. I asked her if [redacted] received any monies for taking her to perform the massage. [redacted] stated [redacted] had received money for taking her there but was unsure in the amount. [redacted] stated she returned to Epstein's house on another occasion with [redacted] and another girl, [redacted]. [redacted] stated she waited in the kitchen with [redacted], while [redacted] was taken upstairs by [redacted]. [redacted] stated she only did the massage once as she was uncomfortable with the whole experience.

At the conclusion of the interview, the tape was stopped. I was informed that [redacted] had attempted to reach [redacted] via cell phone. A voice mail message on October 4, 2005 at 10:59 am, revealed a female voice who identified herself as [redacted] who requested [redacted] to call her back reference the police questioning. [redacted] provided the incoming telephone number as [redacted]. [redacted] stated she inadvertently told [redacted] about the police investigation because [redacted] had called her to tell her about how she just received a rental car from [redacted] Epstein. [redacted] had called her to tell her that she was given a rental car, a 2005 Silver Nissan Sentra, to utilize to visit family and visit Epstein. [redacted] asked her what was going on at the house that the police would be asking questions. [redacted] stated [redacted] then called [redacted] and [redacted] and asked what was going on reference the ongoing police investigation. According to [redacted], [redacted] has since then been trying to contact her to ask about the police questions. I instructed [redacted] not to contact [redacted] and do not provide any more information to [redacted] as she would notify [redacted] Epstein and [redacted] what was transpiring.

On October4, 2005, I made telephone contact with [redacted] who had left several messages for me to contact her. During the message, she advised she was not completely truthful when we met in person but would like to speak with me to advise what had happened. She further advised she did not want to speak of this incident in front of her mother. At approximately 3:48 pm I made telephone contact with [redacted]. During a taped recorded statement [redacted] stated the following: approximately a year ago, when she was sixteen years of age, [redacted] took her to Epstein's house twice. She knows [redacted] because they both attend Royal Pal Beach High School. The first time she went, [redacted] drove to the house. They entered through the kitchen area where she was introduced to [redacted] and Epstein. She was taken upstairs to a bedroom by [redacted] who set the room up with a massage bed and brought out the oils to use. Epstein then entered the room wearing a towel. He laid on the table and picked out a lotion for [redacted] to rub on him. At one point during the massage he tried to remove her shirt, at which point she became very upset and discontinued the massage. Both [redacted] and Epstein had a verbal disagreement, at which time she left without being paid. She got with [redacted] who was sitting in the kitchen and told her "let's go." [redacted] advised she received no money for that day. [redacted] also said that [redacted] had told her if she was uncomfortable with what was going on, to let him know and he'll stop. She knew that the more you do the more you get paid. [redacted] advised that several weeks later she agreed to be taken a second time by [redacted]. Once they arrived at the residence, [redacted] sat in the kitchen and [redacted] took her upstairs to the master bedroom again. [redacted] set the room up with a massage bed and brought out the oils to use. Epstein then entered the room wearing a towel. He laid on the table and picked out a lotion for [redacted] to rub on him. At one point during the massage he tried to touch her buttocks. As [redacted] was wearing tight jeans and had a tight belt on Epstein was unable to touch her buttocks. Epstein then rolled onto his back during the massage and then attempted to touch her breasts. [redacted] then became upset again and told Epstein she didn't want to be touched. [redacted] discontinued the massage and was paid $200.00. [redacted] then went downstairs where [redacted] was waiting for her. She told [redacted] she wanted to leave. [redacted] said she never returned to the house. [redacted] stated she is aware that her friend, [redacted] was also at the house and had a problem with Epstein.

I later researched [redacted], dob [redacted], and met with her at her residence. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated the following: on or about November 2004, she was approached at Royal Palm Beach High School by [redacted], a fellow student. [redacted] asked [redacted] if she wanted to make money. She agreed and was told she would provide a massage to wealthy man in Palm Beach. [redacted] picked her up and drove her to a house in Palm Beach. She was brought into the kitchen area of the house. She further stated that fellow Royal Palm Beach High School students [redacted] and [redacted]) came with them. They were brought into the kitchen where she was introduced to Epstein and other females. [redacted] stated she was introduced to a female helper of Epstein, the female was described as white female (unknown name), with blond hair. She stated that the assistant was familiar with [redacted]. The assistant brought her upstairs into a master bedroom area. The assistant set up the massage table and put out lotions to be used. She told [redacted], Epstein would be available in a minute. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein removed his towel, and laid naked on the massage table and picked a lotion to rub on his thighs and back. [redacted] further stated during the massage, Epstein asked her to remove her clothes. She complied and removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] didn't remember if she had removed her bra but feels that she did. [redacted] was certain that she stayed in her thong underwear. [redacted] continued the massage and at one point she climbed onto the massage table, straddling Epstein to massage his back. While doing this [redacted]. [redacted] was instructed to return to the ground at which time Epstein turned to have his chest rubbed. [redacted] got dressed and met with Epstein in the kitchen area. She was paid $200.00 dollars for providing the massage. [redacted] stated she was aware that [redacted] also received monies for the same thing. The second time she went to the house she was again approached by [redacted]. [redacted] advised if she wanted to return to the house to provide another massage. [redacted] agreed and the arrangements were made by [redacted] for her to return to the house. [redacted] stated [redacted] drove her to the house and knocked on the same glass door which leads to the kitchen area. They were allowed entry into the house by one of the staff members. [redacted] led her upstairs to the master bedroom and master bathroom area. [redacted] left [redacted] this time to do the massage alone. Epstein entered the room again wearing only a towel. [redacted] began removing her clothing as she did the last time she was at the house. Epstein instructed her to get naked. He laid on the table onto his stomach as [redacted] began massaging his legs and back. As [redacted] finished with Epstein's back and legs, Epstein then turned over onto his back. [redacted] started to rub his chest and he began masturbating. As [redacted] rubbed his chest, Epstein leaned over and produced a massager/vibrator. He turned it on and began rubbing [redacted] vagina and masturbating himself at the same time. [redacted] stated she [redacted] as this was occurring. She described the vibrator/massager as large grey with a large head. Epstein [redacted] for approximately two to three minutes with the massager/vibrator. He then removed the [redacted] and concentrated on masturbating himself. [redacted] stated Epstein climaxed onto the towel again and informed her that the massage was done. [redacted] got dressed and met with [redacted] who was waiting in the kitchen area. She received $200.00 for the massage. [redacted] said she never returned to the house and had no desire to return to the house. [redacted] was asked if she received any formal massage training. She advised she had no formal training. [redacted] was asked if Epstein knew her real age. [redacted] stated he knew, as he asked her questions about herself and high school. He was aware she attended, and is still attending Royal Palm Beach High School.

During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may massage his feet and calves. [redacted] started the massage with the oils Epstein chose and rubbed his feet and calves. Epstein got off the phone and requested she massage his back as well. [redacted] began rubbing his back and got to the small of his back. During the rubbing of his back, Epstein asked her to get comfortable. He requested she remove her pants and shirt. [redacted] removed her shirt and pulled her pants off. [redacted] stayed in her bra and thong panties. As she finished massaging the small of Epstein's back, he then turned onto his back. Epstein instructed [redacted] to rub his chest and pinch his nipples. As she [redacted], Epstein asked her questions about herself. [redacted] remembered telling him she attended Royal Palm Beach High School. Epstein asked her if she was sexually active. Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. [redacted] said "no, I don't like that." Epstein then removed his towel and laid on the bed naked exposing his penis to [redacted]. He began touching his penis and masturbated as he [redacted]. [redacted] explained Epstein then touched [redacted]. [redacted] tensed up and stated Epstein was aware that she was uncomfortable. [redacted] stated that Epstein said to her, "Relax, I'm not going inside." She further explained Epstein commented to her how beautiful and sexy she was. Epstein then moved her thong panties to one side and began [redacted]. [redacted] said, "He commented how [redacted]." He then [redacted]. She tried pulling back to [redacted]. Epstein [redacted] and apologized for [redacted]. During this time, he kept his [redacted] and continued to rub her vagina. [redacted] stated he [redacted] as he was masturbating. [redacted] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Epstein told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Epstein also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to [redacted] for bringing her there to massage him. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for [redacted] and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

On January 9, 2006, I located and interviewed another victim, [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as a potential victim/witness from information obtained during trash pulls from Epstein's residence. [redacted] stated she met Epstein when she was fifteen years of age. She was approached by a friend from Royal Palm Beach High School, [redacted], to be taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house to work. She was originally told she would be able to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself. Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or utilize the massager/vibrator on [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house.

Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

As Epstein, who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did commit lewd and lascivious molestation on [redacted], a fourteen year old minor, by using a vibrator on her external vaginal area and as [redacted] recruited, set up the appointment and drove to Epstein's residence, knowing that [redacted] was fourteen years old and knowing there would be unlawful sexual activity between [redacted] and Epstein that [redacted] received monetary compensation for taking said fourteen year old female by Epstein, there is sufficient probable cause to arrest [redacted] for Lewd and Lascivious Act on victim under 16 years of age in violation of Florida State Statue 800.04 (6)(2b) a second degree felony.

Several of the victims were recruited by and brought to the residence by [redacted] to perform massages for Epstein, for which [redacted] received monetary compensation. During the visit they would be introduced to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, who in turn would record their telephone numbers and name. The victims would be brought to Epstein's bedroom to provide the massage. Epstein would enter the room and order the victims to remove their clothing to provide the massage. As the victims complied and provided the massages, Epstein would [redacted]. On occasion, Epstein would introduce a massager/vibrator and [redacted] as they provided the massage. On three separate occasions, Epstein had intercourse and inserted his penis/fingers in the victims vaginas. At the conclusion of the massages the victims were paid sums of money ranging from $200 - $1,000. The facts, as reported, are as follows:

On 03/15/2005, A fourteen year old white female, hereinafter referred to as "[redacted]," dob [redacted], and her family reported unlawful sexual activity which occurred at a residence within the Town of Palm Beach. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

[redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call [redacted] house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted]. We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for [redacted]. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to putting the entire incident behind her. I left my telephone number and advised should she wish to speak with me again to telephone me. Sgt [redacted] and I thanked [redacted] for her time and left the area. She stated she would ask [redacted] again after we left as to what happened at Epstein's house. I informed her that [redacted] had my telephone number and hopefully she would call.

[redacted] provided the incoming telephone number as [redacted]. During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself . Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or utilize the massager/vibrator on [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's

bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

Jeffrey Epstein, who at the time of these incidents was fifty one years of age, did have vaginal intercourse either [redacted] or digitally with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], who were minors at the time this occurred, and who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did use a vibrator on the external vaginal area of [redacted], a fourteen year old minor. Therefore, as [redacted] coordinated and aided in the recruitment of minors to frequent Epstein's house so that sexual services were provided to Epstein, scheduled the said minors to return to the work for Epstein, secured their appointments for the purpose of sexual activity and lewd and lascivious acts and arranged the bedroom for said minors, there is sufficient probable cause to charge [redacted] with four counts of Principal in the 1st degree Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, in violation of Florida State Statute 794.05(1) , a second degree felony and there is sufficient probable cause to charge her with Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.04 (5), a second degree felony.

Original Report LO Reported By: [redacted] D. 9/20/05
Entered By.: [redacted] D. 9/20/05

On 03/14/2005, I received a call from a woman who did not wish to identify herself (later identified as [redacted]). She stated that her fourteen year old step daughter (later identified as [redacted]) possibly may have been molested in Palm Beach by a wealthy man. According to [redacted], she learned of the possible molestation by a third party. She explained that she had received a call from the mother of her stepdaughter's friend. The mother claimed to have overheard a conversation between her daughter and a male friend; they were talking about [redacted]. The conversation was about how [redacted] had met with a 45-year-old man and had sex with him and was paid for it. I advised [redacted] that I would like to meet with her to obtain a more detailed statement and facts. [redacted] stated she did not know what to do and had to discuss the matter with her husband. At this point [redacted] did not provide me with a call back number or any other information. She stated that she would contact me once she had spoken with her husband and [redacted] mother.

On 03/14/2005 received a call from Mr. & Mrs. [redacted]. They stated it was all right to speak to their daughter [redacted] via cell phone [redacted]. Her mother [redacted] had been made aware of the case. They agreed to meet me at the police department later this date. [redacted].

On 03/14/2005, Mr. [redacted] accompanied by his wife [redacted] came to the Palm Beach Police Department where they advised me that they believed their fourteen year old daughter may have had some type of sexual relationship with an older male who resided in Palm Beach. Neither knew the suspect's name or address. Both stated that their daughter did not talk to them about the incident, nor would she admit to it.

her sister [redacted] resides with Mr. [redacted]. Both [redacted] and [redacted] are currently attending High Ridge vocational school, which is an involuntary admitted juvenile educational facility. [redacted] stays at the facility during the week and comes home on the weekend. According to [redacted], she was admitted to the school because of disciplinary problems that recently escalated. The facility also coordinates with the families to provide one on one as well as family counseling.

According to Mrs. [redacted], she believes the incident occurred on Sunday, Feb 6, 2005. A friend of [redacted], named [redacted] picked her up at their house and left. They believe [redacted] initiated the relationship with the older gentleman, though they do not have any proof. [redacted] lives close by with her mother. Mrs. [redacted] further explained that [redacted] was introduced to [redacted] by [redacted], a boy she was dating (goes to [redacted]). Mrs. [redacted] continued that on Sunday, [redacted] picked up [redacted], and drove to Palm Beach where they met the man. Supposedly, the man has a lot of money and often has young girls come over to his house. [redacted] offers these girls a way to make fast cash. The man starts with a massage. If he likes them, he keeps them around and does more. The [redacted] did not have any information on [redacted] other than she lives on [redacted], [redacted]).

Mrs. [redacted] talked of a conversation that she had with [redacted], the mother of [redacted], a former friend of [redacted]. She found it strange that they were no longer friends until she received the call from her mother telling her of the conversation she overheard between [redacted] and a boy named Zach.

Mrs. [redacted] told me of an incident that occurred on 02/09/2005. [redacted] got into a fight at school (Royal Palm HS). Mrs. Brown Assistant Principal, found over $300.00 in [redacted] s purse. [redacted] gave different explanations for the large sum of money. Initially the school administration thought it was drug related but then dismissed the claim. Since that day, [redacted] did not return to school; she ran away Thursday, 02/10th or Friday 02/11 and returned to her mother's house later that night after midnight. It was not until after [redacted] received the call from [redacted] mother, [redacted], that she learned [redacted] was the girl that got into the fight with [redacted]. The fight was instigated when [redacted] accused [redacted] of being a prostitute.

[redacted], who has legal joint custody of his daughter [redacted], signed the affidavit of prosecution indicating he wished to prosecute against the inappropriate sexual behavior with his fourteen-year-old daughter.

Mr. [redacted] stated that he had no objections with our agency speaking with his daughter [redacted] about the incident. Mr. [redacted] stated that [redacted] mother [redacted] is aware of the allegations and also was willing to cooperate. According to Mrs. [redacted], she does not believe her daughter had any additional contact with the suspect as she was with her mother and then placed into High Ridge.

I contacted the School Board Police who provided me the information for Sable Palm, also known as High Ridge Family Center 840 - 4540. 4200 N Australian Avenue, West Palm Beach, Florida. Checking the school board records for [redacted] and [redacted], there was no disciplinary record found. I was advised if no disciplinary action was taken for a fight, such as an expulsion or detention, the incident may not have been recorded. This was at the discretion of the individual school security and principal.

03/15/2005, I called the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office and left a message for PBSP Sgt. [redacted], Child Abuse Unit.

On 03/15/2005, I went to High Ridge/Sable Palm where I met with white female [redacted]. Also present was [redacted], [redacted] therapist. During an audiotaped interview, I spoke with [redacted] about the allegations that were made. [redacted] initially denied anything had happened, only admitting to going with [redacted] (later identified as [redacted]) to Palm Beach to pick up money [redacted] was owed. [redacted] identified [redacted] as the cousin of her former boyfriend [redacted]. She ultimately admitted to knowing that [redacted] worked for a wealthy man and possibly did sexual favors for him. She also admitted that [redacted] had offered her an opportunity to make money.

[redacted] identified [redacted] boss as a white male named "Jeff" who lived in Palm Beach (later positively identified as Jeffrey Epstein). [redacted] explained that she was first approached by [redacted] to go with her to Jeff's house, when they were at [redacted] house. According to [redacted], she was not sure exactly what was going on with [redacted] but agreed to go with her. [redacted] ([redacted] boyfriend) became angry when he heard [redacted] inviting [redacted] to accompany her. [redacted] believed it was to pick up money the man owed [redacted]. [redacted] stated [redacted] told her that she would pick her up at her house on Sunday. [redacted] was not sure of the exact dates but knew it was a Sunday. According to [redacted], [redacted] along with an unknown, possibly Hispanic female, picked her up at her father's house on [redacted]. [redacted] told her father that they were going shopping. It was later confirmed by [redacted] that [redacted] picked his daughter up. According to Mr. [redacted], [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] drove [redacted] along with the unknown female to Palm Beach. Sometime on the way there, a conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereby [redacted] told [redacted] that if Jeff asked her ([redacted]) age, she should say she was eighteen.

[redacted] recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. All three girls walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. In fact, [redacted] recalled a male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Jeff. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house.

[redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly after, Epstein and a woman, described as white with blond hair entered the kitchen. [redacted] believed the woman was Epstein's Assistant. [redacted] added that the woman did not seem friendly and kept her responses short and direct. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted] as Jeff . [redacted] got the impression that Epstein and [redacted] friend knew each other. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, a long face, and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] and [redacted] friend alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. While speaking to me, [redacted] became upset and started to cry. [redacted] stated the woman instructed her to follow her upstairs, which she did. According to [redacted], the woman led her to a room that had a massage table in it. The woman started to fix up the room, putting the covers on the table and taking lotions out. She then told [redacted] that Epstein would be up in a second. The woman left the room, and soon after, Epstein walked in and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. As [redacted] was telling me what had happened, she looked away from me, and with a pointed finger, repeatedly pressed it into her thigh. [redacted] stated he was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there. [redacted] took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein, dressed in a towel told her to take off everything. [redacted] stated she removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. Epstein laid on the table, face down. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back. [redacted] stated [redacted]. As [redacted] was giving Epstein the massage, he turned around, and wacked off ([redacted] later explained that wacking off was masturbating). [redacted] stated she was disgusted by Epstein's actions but did not say anything. According to [redacted], Epstein told her that she "had a really hot body." Epstein excused himself and went to the bathroom where she believed he masturbated again. Epstein returned to the room and told [redacted] that he was done and gave her three hundred dollars. They went back down stairs where they met [redacted]. Epstein said good-bye and they left. [redacted] asked [redacted] how did it go and asked what did she ([redacted]) do. When [redacted] told [redacted] that Epstein asked for a massage, [redacted] allegedly stated "I know." [redacted] stated they then went shopping. [redacted] stated [redacted] also got paid, but that she did not know why since she was confident that [redacted] did not do anything.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. There were gates leading into the property. From the kitchen, [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right. [redacted] recalled a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf.

[redacted] stated Epstein did not change in front of her but did take off his towel, exposing himself. [redacted] recalled Epstein being hairy especially on his chest. Epstein also had a hairline that continued to his buttocks. [redacted] admitted to seeing his penis. I asked [redacted] if she knew what being circumcised meant and she stated no. [redacted] then said that she thought Epstein was on steroids because he was a "really built guy and his wee wee was very tiny." [redacted] would explain that when she stated "wee wee" she meant penis. [redacted] stated Epstein exposed himself when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table.

[redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage, telling her to go clockwise, etc. [redacted] recalled that Epstein got up from the table and went to the bathroom where she heard him making, what she believed to be sexual type of noises. (moaning) He then returned to the room where he again laid down on the table. Epstein then turned over and instructed [redacted] to massage his boobs. [redacted], Epstein continued to make moaning noises.

[redacted] resumed massaging his chest area. [redacted] was now standing on the ground. Epstein turned to his side, and with the towel on the ground started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. [redacted] stated Epstein held on to the small of her back as she massaged his chest, back and shoulder area. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. [redacted] also recalled Epstein having a noticeable freckle on his chest.

Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met [redacted] and the unknown white female. [redacted] admitted to getting paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before they left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As they were leaving the house, [redacted] asked [redacted] what had happened and how much she was paid. [redacted] stated [redacted] seemed upset or jealous when she told her that she received three hundred dollars. [redacted] stated received only two hundred dollars that day. [redacted] stated that she believed [redacted] was paid two hundred dollars for bringing her.

I asked [redacted] if she was aware of any video equipment while she was in the room. She stated no.

[redacted] stated she was afraid that [redacted] would retaliate against her or her family if she ever went to the police regarding the incident. [redacted] stated that her father's vehicle was recently vandalized. [redacted] admitted to telling [redacted] what had happened with Epstein. According to [redacted], [redacted] became angry and upset, punching a hole in the wall. [redacted] guessed that it was [redacted] who told [redacted] about the incident, and now there were rumors in school about [redacted] and what she did with Epstein.

I then talked to [redacted] about truth and lying. We talked about the color sweater she was wearing. [redacted] denied having sexual intercourse with Epstein. She denied touching his penis. [redacted] again admitted to observing Epstein masturbate.

[redacted] agreed to cooperating with the police department in placing a phone call to [redacted] in a controlled setting. I met with Ms. Back and advised her of the families' as well as [redacted] willingness to cooperate with this investigation. Copies of this interview were placed into evidence.

I made contact with [redacted], mother of [redacted], I advised her briefly of my investigation. She was aware of the incident and stated that she overheard a portion of a conversation that her daughter was having with a boy named [redacted]. [redacted] stated that it was her opinion that both girls liked [redacted]. [redacted] recalled hearing her daughter calling [redacted] a whore. [redacted] admitted that she did not listen to the entire conversation but did confront her daughter about it later. [redacted] told her mother that something to the effect that [redacted] had slept with an older man for money. [redacted] stated that she would not object to me speaking with her daughter. It was [redacted] s belief that everyone in the school may have known about this because of the fight that her daughter [redacted] and [redacted] had gotten into. I reminded [redacted] that this was an ongoing investigation and requested she not discuss the fact that I had contacted her. She agreed.

On 03/16/2005, PBSO Sgt. [redacted] left a message that he was returning my call. I spoke with [redacted] and discussed the case with him and inquired if he had any open allegations or cases where the suspect resided in Palm Beach. [redacted] stated he was unaware of any. [redacted] offered any assistance if needed. [redacted] stated it was his experience that due to the age of the parties involved, it would be difficult to interview them and expect the investigation to remain confidential.

Because of the time delay, there was no need for the victim to be taken to a medical facility for a physical for the purpose of obtaining evidence. There was also no need to take her to CPT as she was already in a juvenile facility, with an assigned therapist, in which coordinating a day and time to obtain a statement could be made.

On 03/17/2005, I queried Jeffery Epstein on the internet and obtained

a photo of Epstein to be used in a photo line up. I met with [redacted] at which time she viewed the photo line up. She immediately recognized Epstein and pointed to him (Position #5). [redacted] signed the photo line up under Epstein's picture. This signed line up was placed into evidence.

On 03/18/2005, I met with [redacted] at her residence for the purpose of placing a controlled call to [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] and asked if she could arrange another meeting with Jeff. [redacted] stated that she would have to call him and make the arrangements. A copy of this conversation was placed into evidence.

03/19/2005, I spoke with [redacted] and [redacted] and was advised that [redacted] left the state to visit with her aunt and uncle. [redacted] is scheduled to return to Florida on 03/27/2005

03/21/2005, I coordinated with PB BSF Unit and OCVAN to initiate surveillance on 358 El Brillo.

03/21/2005, Coordinated with Det. [redacted] regarding trash pulls from 358 El Brillo. On this same date I called [redacted] to schedule an appointment to speak with [redacted]. She stated the school guidance counselor was reluctant to have police presence at the school. I assured her that I would respond to the school in civilian clothes and an unmarked vehicle.

[redacted] called me back and advised that I did not need to make an appointment to see [redacted].

I received a return phone call from [redacted] stating that [redacted] would be attending the family therapy sessions with [redacted].

I received messages from [redacted].

I conducted a computer query on Epstein. The results of this query indicated the most recent driver's license on file for Epstein was for the state of Florida, which had expired.

A cross reference of Epstein s residence, 358 El Brillo, Palm Beach, revealed the following affiliated names: [redacted], w/f, dob 02/21/1985, Mark L. Epstein, w/m dob [redacted], & Ghislaine N. Maxwell, uk/f, dob 12/25/1961. A computer query for both returned no history.

On 03/23/2005, I spoke with [redacted] cell phone wk [redacted]. I requested that she not discuss the incident with anyone including her daughter [redacted] as I did not want the investigation compromised. I was told at this time, that [redacted] and [redacted] have not been getting along due to the fact that [redacted] has decided to continue living with her father.

On 03/29/2005, I placed telephone calls to both the [redacted] and [redacted] residences requesting to speak with them regarding the investigation. I received return phone calls from Mrs. [redacted] and Mrs. [redacted] and advised them that I would be contacting [redacted], [redacted] family therapist to coordinate a time to meet with [redacted]. This was at the request of both Back and Mrs. [redacted] that [redacted] strict classroom and therapy schedule be disrupted as little as possible. I also updated them to the investigation thus far. Both [redacted] and [redacted] stated they had no objection to my meeting with [redacted]. In speaking with Ms. [redacted], she identified the cell phone number of [redacted] as being the phone assigned to [redacted] [redacted]. Ms. [redacted] had no objections and provided consent to giving it to the police department for the use of placing controlled phone calls from it. [redacted] stated the phone had been taken away from [redacted] as part of her punishment for not doing well in school. According to [redacted], [redacted] used to be an excellent student, but in the past two months has become irritable, verbally abusive to the family and has run away. [redacted] stated her daughter's recent behavior is the opposite of what she normally is. Captain [redacted] to retrieve the cell phone from [redacted] at her place of employment.

I called High Ridge Family Center, [redacted] and requested to speak with Ms. Back. Upon speaking with Ms. Back she advised me that she was in the middle of therapy sessions and would call me back once the sessions were completed. Ms. Back stated the sessions should be concluded by 7:00 PM. At approximately 8:00PM I had called Ms. Back at which time I left a message on her voice mail requesting a return phone call. I spoke with Ms. [redacted] and advised her that I did not meet with her daughter and that I would again attempt to coordinate a time with the counselor [redacted] as not to disrupt [redacted] s school schedule. [redacted] had no objections. Shortly after speaking with Ms. [redacted] I received a call from Ms. Back. I explained the situation and requested a time to meet with [redacted]. [redacted] told [redacted] that they (her parents) did not know anything about Epstein. [redacted] told [redacted] that Epstein needed someone to work tomorrow and asked if she was available. [redacted] stated she would call Epstein and then call [redacted] back.

During the course of these conversations with [redacted], she would at times appear to be articulate and well spoken. She would then start to act in an immature manner, by looking around, not paying attention, drawing on a paper. [redacted] would offer me a high five whenever she claimed to have told me the truth in the details of the afternoon at Epstein's house. On Friday, September 23, 2005 at approximately 1:45 p.m., I began to copy a tape micro cassette, under case number 05-368 and property number 05-243, tape number 1. I placed the tape in the telex copy-et, series 2 machine and began to go through the copying process. Approximately 1/2 through the tape, the tape wrapped around the spindle and became locked and stretched the tape. I examined it and determined that it was in the best interest to leave it as it is as a prior copy had been made and turned over to Sergeant [redacted]. I immediately took the tape to Sergeant [redacted] and allowed him to examine it and then obtained the copy from him and Detective [redacted] and brought the copy of the tape down and made a copy for him based on that. The tape was placed back in the original container and is retained in the evidence bag under the previously mentioned property number of 05-243. It is not advisable to attempt to copy this tape as further damage could result to the recorded material and there is an existing copy anyway.

On 3-24-05 at 11:00 pm, a copy of tape 2 (case number 05-294) had been made for Det. [redacted] by Evidence Specialist [redacted]. The copy was turned over to Detective [redacted].

On Friday, 09-23-05 at approimately 2:15 pm, I was in the process of reproducing audio tapes (micro and standard) to standard size when it was discovered, in the test review process, that tape number 2 was blank. I notified Sgt. [redacted] and Det. [redacted]. I was informed that they had a prior copy and I could use it to make a master tape. I did [redacted] and when reviewing and signing the evidence sheet, I noticed Evidence Specialist [redacted] had written "#2 is blank."

I obtained that copy from Det. [redacted] and made a new copy on a standard size tape. The new copy was placed in the evidence bag under

Copies of the tapes that were submitted into evidence were requested. Additionally, trash pulls were started on September 21, 2005. Sgt. [redacted] made telephone contact with Tony Higgins, Supervisor of the Sanitation Department, and requested that trash be collected at the Epstein House located at 358 El Brillo in Palm Beach. Sgt [redacted] met with Sanitation worker, Jeff [redacted] and observed him enter the property at 358 El Brillo. Shortly thereafter, [redacted] exited the property and placed the three white trash bags in the empty well in the rear of the truck. [redacted] then drove away where he met with Sgt. [redacted] who removed the bags from the well and placed them into one large black trash bag. The bag was returned to the Police Station where I was waiting for him. Upon his arrival, we inspected the bags where several notes and papers were found. These notes contained names of girls with times. Additionally, there was a note from [redacted] and [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein on a notepad, which stated,"For a good time call [redacted] and [redacted] at [redacted]." Also, there was another telephone number on the note [redacted]. Also found was a written note, which stated, [redacted] can not come at 7 p.m. tomorrow because of [redacted]. These items were written on notepads that contain Jeffrey Epstein on the bottom of the notes. These items were placed into evidence for future follow up. I requested subpoenas for subscriber information on the telephone numbers listed above on the note from [redacted] and [redacted]. The cellular telephones [redacted] and [redacted] are both assigned to Cingular Cellular Service. Other notes were found within the trash on Jeffrey Epstein pad, papers that contained telephone numbers. One note had "[redacted]" with [redacted] written on it. This cellular number is assigned to Cingular Cellular Service. Another sheet had written [redacted] which is assigned to Bell South Telecommunications. The subpoenas were picked up and submitted to Cingular and Bell South Telecommunication for subscriber information.

On September 22, 2005, I was informed by Sgt. [redacted] that there would be no trash pick up as it was recycle pick up day. A request for copies of the micro and standard size cassettes were requested from crime scene to familiarize myself with the interviews conducted.

On September 23, 2005, the tapes were received and I began to become familiar with the interviews that were conducted. Det. [redacted] had met with Town of Palm Beach Sanitation worker, Jeff Williams and observed him enter the property of 358 El Brillo. Shortly thereafter, [redacted] exited the property and placed the three white trash bags in the empty well in the rear of the truck. [redacted] then drove away where he met with Det. [redacted] who removed the bags from the well and placed them into one large black trash bag. The bag was returned to the Police Station where I was waiting for him. Upon his arrival, we inspected the bags where several notes and papers were found. The notes will be inspected for future use. The items collected were placed into evidence.

It became evident that some of the recordings were recorded with background noise and some interference. The calls most affected were the control phone calls from the victim to the suspect [redacted]. I obtained the graphic equalizer and discovered that the calls are able to be legible with the use of the equalizer by lowering the background noise and increasing voice gain. I also learned that a tape was broken during the coping of the tape. I returned the copy of the tape marked Property Number 05-243 to have it recopied to have an original in evidence and a working copy with the file.

Upon researching the file, it was discovered that the suspect, [redacted] cellular calls were subpoenaed incorrectly. The suspect telephone number was [redacted] and the original request was for [redacted]. I requested the information through Cingular Cellular Service from February 2005 through the present. The purpose was to have a record of [redacted] making calls to victim, Jeffrey Epstein and the frequency of calls. The request was submitted to the State Attorney's Office.

On October 12, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I traveled to the [redacted] area and made telephone contact with [redacted]. [redacted] agreed to meet with us as we were in the [redacted] area. [redacted] provided directions to her apartment. Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted] who stated, during a sworn taped statement that nothing happened between her and Epstein. [redacted] appeared nervous during the interview. I assured her that I had spoken with other people who advised differently. [redacted] stated she only went a couple of times and provided a massage to Epstein. She stated she was brought to the Epstein house in March of 2005. [redacted] brought her to work. [redacted] has no formal training in providing massages. [redacted] stated she provided a massage, fully clothed for $200.00. As I sensed hesitancy in her answers, I asked [redacted] if she had been contacted by anyone from the house. [redacted] stated she was interviewed already by an investigator for Epstein. He met with her on October 8, 2005, at a Roadhouse in [redacted]. He identified himself as [redacted] and inquired about the police investigation and left his telephone number [redacted] for additional contact. [redacted] provided no additional information, as it appeared her responses were almost scripted. We left the area and returned to Palm Beach Police Department.

Based on the information acquired during the interviews, a search warrant was prepared for entry at the Epstein home. On October 18, 2005, I met with Judge Laura Johnson who reviewed the warrant request. She found there was sufficient probable cause and signed the warrant request. On October 20, 2005, at approximately 9:36 am, members of the Palm Beach Police Investigations Unit executed the search warrant at 358 El Brillo in Palm Beach. Members of the Investigations Unit included Capt [redacted], Sgt [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. As we entered onto the property, we encountered the house manager, Janusz Banasiak who was in the guest portion of the house. The guesthouse section had open doors and no forced entry was made. I made contact with Banasiak, Date of Birth [redacted], Fl DL [redacted], and informed him of the search warrant for the premises. The members of the Police Department entered the residence and announced we had a search warrant. A safety search was done and members exited the home. I read the search warrant to Banasiak as Mgr [redacted] videotaped the search warrant execution. Several interior decorators were located on the property. I spoke with Mark Zeff, of 515 W 20th Street in New York. Mr. Zeff stated he is the designer for Mr. Epstein's homes. He advised he was contacted in March of 2005 to do a complete overhaul on the house. He advised he was on the phone with Mr. Epstein when officers announced the search warrant. Mr. Epstein was then made aware of the search warrant. Mr. Zeff advised, his contact with Epstein is strictly business and he has never witnessed Epstein with any girls except for his assistants, [redacted] or [redacted].

I then interviewed Daniel Estes, of 315 East 14th Street in New York. Mr. Estes stated he has worked for Zeff for seven years. He advised he personally worked on the New York and Palm Beach home for Mr. Epstein. He has previously met with [redacted] and [redacted], Epstein's assistants in New York and in Florida. Estes stated they travel with Epstein everywhere he goes.

I interviewed [redacted] of 35 Riverside Jersey City, New Jersey. [redacted] stated she just arrived from Scotland and has worked with Zeff for only one month. She stated she has never met Epstein and has not seen him. The interview was then concluded.

I then spoke with Douglas Schoettle of 243 Riverside Dr in New York City. Schoettle stated he has been Epstein's Architect for seven years. He further stated he deals with Epstein's assistants and speaks with Epstein on the phone. Schoettle stated he mainly speaks with [redacted] [redacted], Epstein s main assistant, who travels with Epstein. Schoettle stated he only has contact with Epstein when his services are needed.

At approximately 10:30 am, I was informed that the videotaping was concluded. I entered the residence and located two covert (hidden) cameras. The first camera was a covert wall clock in the garage area. I traced the wire behind the clock and removed the RCA wire and unplugged the camera. The other covert camera was located within a desk clock beside Epstein's desk. I traced the wire behind the clock and unplugged the RCA wire. I could not locate another camera. I then began with the search of the residence for the specified evidence.

My search consisted of the second floor. Det. [redacted] and I began in the master bedroom area where several items were located. They were marked to be retrieved by the evidence custodian. In the master desk with Epstein's notepads marked Jeffrey Epstein we located a high school transcript from Royal Palm Beach High School for [redacted]. Also in the room, was the dresser /armoire where we located a bottle of peach flavored Joy Jelly (Sexual Lubricant). Additionally, there were several photographs of young naked teenage girls within the closet, which was consistent with what the witnesses said. The massage table was also located within the master bedroom. Video tapes were located beside the television, which were also collected. An itemized list of the property and locations was prepared on the property receipts. At approximately 2:55 pm, the house was secured; the exit of the residence was videotaped. Upon our exit of the property, I encountered Atty. Guy Fronstein who advised he was representing Mr. Epstein. He provided a business card and provided his assistance with the investigation.

Due to Hurricane Wilma, which struck South Florida causing massive power outages, the courthouse was closed due to the lack of power. I was previously told that the Chief Judge had extended the filing deadlines due to the hurricane and the Courthouse being closed. On October 27, and 28, 2005 the courthouse was closed and I could not file the search warrant and inventory at the clerk's office. On October 31, 2005, I responded to the courthouse and filed the paperwork along with an order to seal, signed by Judge Johnson, to deny any release of any paperwork on this case.

On 102005 at approx 0930hrs I assisted with the execution of a search warrant at 358 El Brillo Ave, Palm Beach.

Initially I was assigned to enter the residence and conduct a sweep of the premises for safety purposes. I then accompanied CSEU tech [redacted] while she photographed the exterior of the house. Once this was complete I was assigned to search certain areas of the house with Det. [redacted] as part of the search warrant.

We began in the garage, searching three Mercedes Benz vehicles, a Harley Davidson motorcycle and adjacent closets in the garage. Nothing of evidentiary value was located.

We then searched two closets off the kitchen area on the east side. These can best be described as pantry or storage closets. Nothing of evidentiary value was obtained.

A small office with adjoining bath was then searched. In the bath area I located a phone message book with recent messages. This item was seized as evidence. Please note this bath and shower area are not used as designed but are storage areas containing a variety of items to include a gun safe in the shower and assorted household items.

We then searched a bath area and closet at the base of the main stairs in the foyer. Inside the closet two massage tables were located as well as partial nude female photographs. These items were later seized as evidence. Nothing of evidentiary value was noted in the bathroom.

We then searched two bedrooms upstairs on the east side of the residence. Located in the bath room of the south bedroom was penis shaped soap. Located in the bedroom of the northern bedroom was penis and vagina shaped soap as well as an adult sex toy. These items were seized as evidence.

We then searched the pool cabana located in the south west corner of the property. Several photographs of nude females were seized as evidence.

I was then assigned to stand by with a person I believe was Douglas Schoettle. Mr. Schoettle was in the residence at the beginning of the search warrant. He was present during the warrant service and subsequent search. I stood by with him until the search was completed and I departed the residence. I had no conversation with him regarding the reason for our presence.

Regarding seized evidence, all items were photographed in place and then collected by CSEU personnel.

This concludes my involvement in this case.

I observed a, Silver in color, CPU with the left side cover removed, exposing the CPU s hardware sitting on floor next to a glass type desk. The CPU had no discernable identifiers or features indicating a make or model. This CPU was powered off with the power cord not plugged in. The keyboard and mouse were atop the CPU. It should be noted that the CPU was not connected to a monitor, printer, or other media device. On the back Panel of the CPU, I observed an A/V card with RCA jacks attached. This type of hardware would allow audio and video to be downloaded onto the CPU s hard disk. The ends of the RCA jacks were unattached at the time of the search and no external camera was located within this room.

The CPU was located on the right side of a desk that held a flat panel LCD screen. The desk also held another keyboard and mouse, indicative of a second computer; however, no other computer was found. It appeared as though a second computer had been recently removed as the cables ends from the monitor, keyboard and mouse were in the same area. A further search of the room revealed no media storage devices, i.e. CD s, Floppy Disks, Zip Disks, etc. This type of media is commonly stored in an area where computers are placed, yet no media was found.

After completing a search of this room, I secured the CPU and turned all items over to the Evidence Custodian for future forensic analysis via a property receipt.

I was then directed by Det. [redacted] to a room designated as the Garden Room, where I observed a wooden desk facing west. The desk held a flat screen LCD monitor, keyboard, mouse, media card reader and printer; however, no CPU was located. All of the cables were removed from an area where a computer had once been. A search of the desk area revealed no signs of any media devices.

Det. [redacted] directed me to a third location designated as the Cabana room, which is detached from the residence and located just south of the pool. In the South East corner of the room, I observed an office type setting, with an L-shaped desk holding a flat screen LCD monitor, keyboard, mouse and printer; however, no CPU was located. All of the cables were removed from an area where a computer had once been. A search of the desk area revealed no signs of any media devices.

Det. [redacted] directed me to a second detached structure located on the South East corner of the property. This area of this structure was assigned with single letters to identify a particular part of the room. In the office area, designated as Room B, I observed a powered on Dell Dimension 2350, attached to an LCD flat panel monitor. The screen displayed an open Microsoft Internet Explorer browser with URL address of http://home.bellsouth.net/. I observed no other active windows in the Start panel window and photographed screen. The power cord was removed from the back of the Dell CPU and I disconnected the cable modem to prevent remote access. At that time, the Dell CPU, marked with Serial Number [redacted], was secured and turned over the evidence custodian for future forensic analysis via property receipt. I also located several media related items within Room B, which were recorded onto a property receipt and turned over the Evidence Custodians.

I then responded to a Bedroom designated as Room F, where I observed a white in color CPU marked Premio. The Premio CPU was in a computer desk which held a white CRT monitor, both of which were powered on. The CRT monitor displayed a message from Norton Antivirus software, warning of an expired subscription. I observed no other active windows in the Start panel window and photographed screen. I removed the power cable from the back of the Premio CPU and shutdown all other media. The Premio CPU, marked with Serial Number [redacted], was secured and turned over the evidence custodian for future forensic analysis via property receipt. I also located several media related items within Room F, which were recorded onto a property receipt and turned over the Evidence Custodians.

This concluded my participation in the search of the residence.

On December 20, 2005, I contacted ASA Daliah Weiss in an attempt to subpoena the Epstein former houseman, Alfredo Rodriguez. Rodriguez, who resides in Miami, had eluded the process servers previously and was not served the investigative subpoena. A telephone message was left as she is not available during the week of 12/19/2005. I made contact with State Attorney Inv [redacted] and requested the same via telephone message.

I then researched the victim's [redacted] cellular telephone subpoena data which had been received from a previous subpoena request. I analyzed the records which depict several calls from [redacted]. The telephone calls start on February 6, 2005 at 12:49 pm.; the same day which the victim and the victim's father stated the incident occurred at Epstein s house. The first incoming call was from [redacted] residence at [redacted]. The second incoming call from [redacted] cellular phone [redacted] occurred at 1:02 pm. The call durations were one minute or less. The time frame was within thirteen minutes apart. It should be noted that [redacted] s residence was in close proximity to the victim's. The next call occurred at 5:50 pm when the victim telephoned [redacted] s residence. Several calls were made after the above mentioned calls both incoming and outgoing to [redacted]. Further analysis showed no telephone calls to either [redacted] cellular telephone or [redacted] residence were registered prior to February 6, 2005.

Additionally, I also conducted an analysis on the telephone calls from [redacted]. The subscriber information confirmed that the number is registered to Paul A Lavery from Hialeah, Florida. The address was crossed referenced to the Office of Kiraly and Riley Private Investigators. I researched the web page www.rileykiraly.com which also showed various cases in which they assisted. I also located another web site under www.coralspringssparklandrotary.org in which Mr. Riley attended a Miami Rotary meeting and confirmed Atty. Roy Black is among his clientele.

The telephone calls revealed Lavery had telephone contact with [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] either just after I attempted to interview them, or just prior. A background was conducted on Lavery which revealed he holds a current Private Investigator License. A criminal arrest record revealed he had been previously arrested for possession of cocaine and solicitation of prostitution.

I also researched the girls using www.myspace.com. This web site is a new social networking service that allows members to create unique personal profiles online in order to find and communicate with old and new friends. The site allows one to establish your own myspace.com page and decorate the page any way one wishes. I found the following people have myspace sites: [redacted], and [redacted].

I received a Cingular Wireless packet which contained a CD which contained the results of the subpoena request for verbatim calls on [redacted]. An analysis will be conducted in the near future on the phone numbers called.

responded to [redacted], also known as the Palm Beach Mall. I located the Simon Youth Foundation. I located [redacted] inside the foundation and informed her that I was investigating a case against Jeffrey Epstein and knew she had been at the house. [redacted] started to cry and advised she had put that part of her life behind her. I explained that although she is seventeen years old I needed to inform her parents that she would be interviewed. She provided her home telephone number. I attempted contact and left voice mail messages at the house to speak with her parents.

Det. [redacted] and I then located [redacted] at her residence located at [redacted] in West Palm Beach. I attempted to interview her about Jeffrey Epstein. She advised she is [redacted] in love with [redacted] Epstein and would do anything for him. She further explained that she would not speak with us about him either negative or positive. She asked us to leave her property. I informed her that although she did not wish to speak with us, I had sufficient information at this point in the investigation to know she was at Epstein's house and provided girls to Epstein to work. I also explained that prior to our arrival at her residence I had telephone contact with her father, [redacted], who was told she would be interviewed. [redacted] is currently seventeen years old and as a juvenile, parental notification would be required. We then left the area and returned to the police station.

While at the police station, I left another telephone message for [redacted] parents. I began an analysis of [redacted] Cellular telephone. The telephone number [redacted] is assigned to [redacted] and the financially responsible party is Jeffrey Epstein of 457 Madison Ave. in New York City, New York. The time frame which was subpoenaed was September 2005, through October 2005. There were eighty seven pages of calls made either to the cell phone or from the cell phone. The local (561) numbers were analyzed. A spread sheet was prepared and placed into the attachment file of who was called.

The unknown numbers were researched using FoneFinder.com and subpoenas were requested to determine subscriber information. This was done to identify additional victims or witnesses. The analysis revealed that [redacted] had called the victim/witnesses frequently when Epstein was in the Town of Palm Beach to "work." This confirms what the girls interviewed had previously stated. [redacted] would notify them when Epstein was in town and their willingness to "work." The CD was placed into evidence.

Center from Cingular Wireless for telephone number [redacted]. This was the telephone number for [redacted] during the time frame when the victim, [redacted], was brought to the Epstein house to "work." An analysis of the phone records, of all incoming and outgoing calls, showed that on February 6, 2005, the day the victim, [redacted], was brought to the house, [redacted] first called [redacted], Epstein's assistant, at [redacted] at 12:50 pm (EST). The next call was made to Epstein's house in Palm Beach, at 12:52 pm (EST). The following call was made to the victim, [redacted], at 1:01 pm (EST) and at 1:02 pm (EST). This confirms the information provided by the victim and victim's father. I photo copied the records and enlarged the page 8 of 10 to show the calls made by [redacted] on February 6, 2005.

To this date, I have not heard from [redacted] parents. I will attempt to establish contact with them during the evening hours. I received a package from Atty. Guy Fronstin, which was hand delivered at the police station. Within the package, was a letter from Alan Dershowitz, and two www.myspace.com profiles. The profiles were that of [redacted] and [redacted]. MySpace.com is a social networking service that allows members to create unique personal profiles online in order to find and communicate with old and new friends. This package was in response to a previous meeting in which Mr. Dershowitz called to assist in the investigation in providing any additional witnesses such as house employees who have been reluctant to speak with law enforcement.

I reviewed the profiles Mr. Dershowitz enclosed. [redacted], who designed her blog to be "[redacted] Fucking [redacted]," still attends Royal Palm Beach High School, sends and receives messages from friends which contain some profanity. Upon reviewing her friends' comments section from Myspace, most of her good friends sent messages to establish contact and invite her to go out.

I then reviewed [redacted] web blog which was provided by Mr. Dershowitz. Ms. [redacted] designed her blog to be "[redacted]." Her blog states that her interests include music, theater and weed (Marijuana). I reviewed her packet in which [redacted] declares her love for her live-in boyfriend. She also describes using marijuana with her boyfriend [redacted].

The letter Mr. Dershowitz sent advised he was looking into the allegation that one of the private investigators used by the private attorneys of Epstein, attempted to impersonate or state that they were police officers from Palm Beach. Mr. Dershowitz advised that the investigators used to interview [redacted] had "quite a distinct speech impediment", did not claim to be nor did they impersonate themselves as a police officer. This package was sent to both ASA Lana Belohlavic and ASA Daliah Weiss at the State Attorney's Office.

I made telephone contact with ASA Weiss to confirm she received the package and request an interview with [redacted], [redacted], and Janusz Banasiak. She advised she would assist in attempting to

On January 3, 2006, I received a telephone call from ASA Weiss who informed me that she made telephone contact with Mr. Dershowitz. She had requested the employees be available the week of January 3, 2006. Mr. Dershowitz informed her that the assistants are out of the country and would require additional time to locate them and make them available.

I made contact with Mr. [redacted], father of [redacted], who was told that I wished to interview his daughter. Mr. [redacted] stated he was aware and had spoken with his daughter about the incident. He stated that his daughter had previously told him that she was hired to model lingerie at a Palm Beach mansion. Mr. [redacted] stated he knew nothing else about what she did when she went to "work." Mr. [redacted] advised he would cooperate with the investigation and make his daughter available for interviews. I asked if she was available for an interview, [redacted] stated she was not at home at the moment. I informed him I would make contact with her at a later time. Mr. [redacted] expressed his interest in the resolution in this matter as he stated this information has affected his daughter emotionally.

On January 4, 2005, I acquired the subpoenas from the State Attorney's Office for Cingular Wireless, Metro PCS, Verizon, Bell South Telecommunications and Sprint for the unknown telephone numbers from [redacted] cellular telephone. The subpoenas were sent to the respective telephone carriers for subscriber information.

I received a telephone call from State Attorney's Office, who informed me that the former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein, Alfredo Rodriguez, was present at the State Attorney's Office for an interview. Rodriguez was issued an investigative subpoena for an interview on the on-goings at Epstein's house during his employ. I responded to the State Attorney's Office and encountered Mr. Rodriguez waiting in the lobby. I brought Mr. Rodriguez to the interview room.

During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months. He was referred by associates and his employment lasted the months of November 2004 through May 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffer, chef, houseman, run errands for Mr. Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. Rodriguez advised he had very limited contact with Mr. Epstein. If Rodriguez needed to relay a message to Mr. Epstein, he would have to notify Epstein's secretary "Leslie" in New York City, who would then notify Epstein's personal assistant, [redacted], who would relay the message to Epstein. Rodriguez stated Epstein did not want to see or hear the staff when he was in residence.

I asked Rodriguez if Epstein received many guests during his stay in Palm Beach. Rodriguez advised he had many guests. I asked specifically about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated he would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them.

Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. He advised he didn't ask their ages but felt they were very young. Rodriguez stated they ate like his own daughter who is in high school. Rodriguez stated they would eat tons of cereal and drink milk all the time. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massager/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed.

Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Rodriguez referred himself as a "human ATM machine" and was ordered by Epstein to maintain a minimum balance of $2,000 dollars on him at all times. When a girl would come by the house and Mr. Epstein was either not in residence or was not at home at the time, Rodriguez was to provide the girl (masseuse) several hundred dollars for their time and to notify Epstein the amount they were given. Epstein also ordered Rodriguez to purchase several gifts and provide them as tips to the girls. I asked what kind of gifts. Rodriguez stated he purchased IPODS, jewelry, anything the girls would want.

Rodriguez stated the amount of girls that came to the house was approximately fifteen. Each of the girls knew each other and all seemed to know at Royal Palm Beach High School who Mr. Epstein was. When asked to identify these girls, Rodriguez stated he could not at the moment but knew he wrote their names down on a journal he kept during his employ with Mr. Epstein. He kept a journal in the event he needed to explain either to Mr. Epstein or his assistants what was done at the house or who visited the house as he stated he was in-charge of Mr. Epstein's personal security while in Palm Beach. I informed him I would need to view this journal to which he stated he would research the book and contact me to provide the book. The interview was concluded and left the area. I returned back to the police station where the micro cassette was placed into evidence. At approximately 7:20 pm, I was notified Rodriguez located the journal and would call me on January 5, 2005 to provide the journal.

On January 5, 2006, I attempted to meet with Alfredo Rodriguez to recover the folder or journal in which he kept the notes that were given to him during his employ with Mr. Jeffrey Epstein. He kept this folder to justify what he did during his employ should the need arise to justify what occurred with the monies he had to keep or any questions as to the petty cash he withdrew from the household account from the bank. At approximately 10:00 pm, I attempted contact with Mr. Rodriguez and discovered he was assisting his wife at her place of employment and would not be able to meet with me. On January 6, 2006, at approximately 9:00 am, I received a telephone call from Mr. Rodriguez who advised he had the file in hand and would be traveling northbound to meet with me in Broward County. After the massage, Epstein ordered his houseman at the time to drive the girls home. The employee was to drop off the girls at their house and watch them go inside their house.

On January 19, 2006, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted] at [redacted] in Palm Beach Gardens. [redacted] was identified as a licensed massage therapist who had previously been seen on Epstein's property when physical surveillance was done. [redacted] was told of the on going investigation and I felt she may have information pertaining to the case. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated she met Epstein three years ago when Ghaline Maxwell approached her while she was attending Palm Beach Atlantic College to work around Epstein's house. Maxwell had told her that they needed some girls to work at the house to answer phones and run errands. [redacted] accepted the job and began working at Epstein's house on El Brillo in Palm Beach. [redacted] stated it was a part time job during the time she went to Palm Beach Atlantic College. She continued going to Epstein's house and would be notified when Epstein would travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] advised she would be notified by Maxwell, Epstein or [redacted], his assistant, when he would travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] stated she began providing massages to Epstein before she became a massage therapist. She continued giving massages not only to Epstein but to [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted], his assistant. [redacted] was asked about what occurred during the massages. [redacted] stated as she was twenty three years old when she met Epstein, anything that happened was between two consenting adults. I explained to her that she was not in any trouble however as part of this investigation, I needed to ask certain questions. [redacted] stated that there were times that Epstein would ask her to perform during the massage. He would instruct her to rub his nipples as he masturbated himself. [redacted] stated she felt "grossed" about the behavior but as she was getting paid, she just continued. [redacted] also advised she would on occasion perform the massages naked. Epstein would on occasion, utilize the vibrator/massager on her vagina area when she performed the massages. [redacted] explained that Epstein never exposed himself to her as he maintained himself covered under the towel he would be wearing. When Epstein would masturbate he would be covered.

I asked if [redacted] ever received any gifts, or any gratuities from Epstein. [redacted] advised aside from being paid well, she advised Epstein took care of her tuition from Palm Beach Atlantic College. She received a rental car for a week when her scooter broke down.

Additionally she received other gifts from Epstein. Epstein also recommended her to another client who resides at Breakers Row in Palm Beach. The client she was referred to was "Glenn" unknown last name, and his wife, who she provided a massages to. The statement was concluded and placed into evidence upon our return to the Palm Beach Police Department.

While at the police station, I researched Florida tag [redacted] which was also previously seen on the property when there was physical surveillance being done at the property. The vehicle is registered to [redacted] of Lake Worth, Florida. Researching Mr. [redacted] and the vehicle revealed that his daughter, [redacted], had been driving the vehicle and was cited for unlawful speed in Lake Clark Shores. The vehicle is a tan, Chevrolet Camaro, 2-door. I researched [redacted], date of birth, [redacted], resides at [redacted] in Lake Worth. [redacted] has a my space page called [redacted]. In her web page, shows various photos of [redacted] photographed at a beach. An interview is forthcoming.

A review of the video disks which was extracted at the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office Computer Crime Unit revealed that only one hidden camera was functional at the time. Several images of Epstein working at his office were seen. Additional footage of [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] was seen. There was other footage of females seen. The identity of the females is unknown at this time, until such time as I meet with certain females to show the video footage to confirm if, in fact, it is them on the video. At this time it appears that [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] are seen sitting with Epstein beside his desk in the evening hours. Due to poor lighting, a direct confirmation cannot be made at this time.

Epstein requested to see what was purchased at the mall. [redacted] took out the undergarments which were purchased. She immediately showed Epstein different sets purchased. Epstein then requested to view what [redacted] purchased. [redacted] was reluctant to show the outfit however since it was Epstein's money that purchased the item, she pulled it out of the bag. A Grand Jury Session was requested during the month of February 2006, in which all the girls that had been interviewed would have been called to testify before the Grand Jury to seek an indictment against Jeffrey Epstein. Due to subsequent meetings with the State Attorney's Office and Defense Attorney Alan Dershowitz the Grand Jury was postponed until a later time. Dershowitz had provided a package of material on the main victims in this case in which they appear on myspace.com and speak about alcohol use and some marijuana use. The State Attorney's Office wanted time to review the material.

I requested additional subpoenas from the State Attorney's Office in which I requested information from Dollar Rent a Car and Jet Aviation. The information requested from Dollar Rent a Car was for the rented vehicle by Alfredo Rodriguez while under the employ of Epstein for one of the victims. The other subpoena requested was for Jet Aviation for dates and times when Epstein's planes were in Palm Beach County.

She advised she was brought there to make money and was told she would have to provide a massage to this Palm Beach guy. She remembered she met Epstein and his assistant [redacted] in the kitchen area. She stated she was taken by one of her friends, [redacted]. She stated she went upstairs with [redacted] while Epstein got ready for the massage. He exited his bathroom naked and [redacted] turned around. Epstein asked her if being naked offended her. Epstein then cut the massage short and became upset with her. Epstein paid her $200.00 for the massage and told her to leave the house. [redacted] never returned to the house. She did advise of one time she went with [redacted], however she waited in the car for [redacted] as she did not want to go into the house. I learned through one of the victims ([redacted]) that she was personally contacted through a source that has maintained contact with Epstein. The source assured [redacted] she would receive monetary compensation for her assistance in not cooperating with law enforcement. [redacted] also stated she was told, "Those who help him will be compensated and those who hurt him will be dealt with." I told [redacted], that tampering with a witness/victim is an arrestable offense and very serious. I asked her who approached her during this encounter. [redacted] originally was reluctant to provide the name of the person who approached her to offer her not to testify because she felt they were still friends.

On April 11, 2006, Det [redacted] and I traveled to Tallahassee, Florida and met with the victim, [redacted]. [redacted], identified [redacted], W/F, [redacted], as the person who approached her in Royal Palm Beach while she was home during Spring Break in March 2006. [redacted] also stated she did not want to pursue the intimidation charges on [redacted]. [redacted] was concerned that the defense attorney was given a copy of the report as certain things she had told me in confidence were repeated to her by [redacted]. Prior to our departure, the victim was given a copy of her subpoena for the Grand Jury which was scheduled to commence April 18, 2006.

Upon our return from Tallahassee, I notified the State Attorney's Office of what was told to me. I also notified them that the subpoenas were delivered to the witnesses and they would be calling for arrangements for the date and time needed for the Grand Jury. I spoke with ASA Weiss and informed her of the possible intimidation by the defense.

On April 13, and April 14, 2006 I attempted contact on several occasions with ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic to ascertain when the victims needed to report for Grand Jury testimony. Messages were left on their voicemail. On April 17, 2006, during the hours of 9:00 am and 11:30 am, I again left messages for ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic for either of them to return my call as I had not heard from the State Attorney's Office as to the time and date of the Grand Jury.

At approximately 12:30 pm, I went to the State Attorney's Office and located ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic in their offices. I entered ASA Belohlavic's office who informed me that she was going to return my call. She explained that an offer was made to the defense, Atty Guy Fronstin and Atty Alan Dershowitz. The offer is 1 count of Agg Assault with intent to commit a felony, five years probation, with adjudication withheld. Epstein would have to submit to psychiatric/sexual evaluation and no unsupervised visits with minors. When asked about the all the other victims, ASA Belohlavic stated that was the only offer made as to one victim, [redacted]. ASA Belohlavic cell phone rang and went to voice mail. She checked her voice mail and played the message on speaker. The caller identified himself as Atty Guy Fronstin and acknowledged the deal made between them. Fronstin stated in the message, he spoke with his client, Jeffrey Epstein, and agreed to the deal. Fronstin asked to call off the grand jury as they would accept this deal. Belohlavic stated a probable cause would be needed to book Epstein in the county jail and would let me know as to when it would be needed. I explained my disapproval of the deal and not being consulted prior to the deal being offered. However I expressed that was only my opinion and the final approval would come from the Chief of Police. She explained to have Chief [redacted] call Barry Krisher about the deal. I left the area and returned to the police station where I briefed the Chief about the deal offered.

I checked my voice mail messages and discovered a message from [redacted], stepmother for the victim [redacted]. She was calling because the State Attorney's Office still had not returned any of her calls as to when they are needed for this case. I then called ASA Belohlavic's office and left messages for her to call the victims on this case and explained to them what the State Attorney's Office had done.

On April 17, 2006, at approximately 4:30 pm, State Attorney Investigator [redacted] called to officially notify me of the cancellation of the Grand Jury. He requested I contact the victims that had been served to appear, to notify them of the cancellation. I advised [redacted] that as this Grand Jury session was called based on the State Attorney's Office decision to have the victims heard by the Grand Jury that I felt it was the States Attorney's Office responsibility to contact the victims and advise them of the reason they were no longer needed.

On May 10, 2006, information was received that Epstein's associate, Leslie Wexner, The Limited Inc, CEO's, plane had arrived in West Palm Beach, PBIA. The plane, a Gulfstream 4 bearing a N900LS registration, was on the tarmac at Galaxy Aviation. As Epstein had recently acquired the services of a new attorney, and the fact that Epstein's house is currently under remodeling, it was believed that Epstein may be in Palm Beach. I conducted physical surveillance at the residence, 358 El Brillo Way. I observed a large construction crew conducting remodeling at the house. The contractor, David Norr, was observed driving a Ford Explorer, white in color. The vehicle has a Florida registration of [redacted]. Norr left Epstein's house and traveled north on County Road. We maintained visual surveillance on the plane until 4:57 p.m., when a caravan of Cadillac Escalades drove onto the tarmac. We observed several people exit the vehicles and discovered that they were part of the executive team for Limited Inc. The executives were in Palm Beach County for an executive meeting for the day. I explained to her I had requested arrest warrants for Jeffrey Epstein, [redacted], and [redacted]. I asked that she either issue the warrants or direct file, as [redacted] much time has elapsed since the original request to the Grand Jury. I explained that the Palm Beach Police Department had concluded the case in December of 2005 and has been waiting for the case to go forward. Belohlavek stated the original offer was again offered to the new defense attorney. She was waiting for their answer by Friday May 19, 2006. She stated she would advise me of the answer.

On May 22, 2006, I received several phone calls throughout the day from [redacted], who stated he had been followed aggressively by a private investigator. [redacted] stated that as he drove to and from work and running errands throughout the county, the same vehicle was behind him running other vehicles off the road in an attempt not to lose sight of [redacted] vehicle.

I explained to him as Mr. Epstein had retained new legal council it was possible it would be new private investigators following him to observe his daily activities. I also explained to him that there was a meeting scheduled with ASA Lana Belohlavek and Attorney Jack Goldberger at Mr. Krischer's office scheduled on June 1, 2006 at 9:00 am. I attempted to call ASA Lana Belohlavek to inform her of the private investigators following [redacted] however; she was on her vacation during the week of May 22 through May 30 2006.

On May 23, 2006, I received other phone calls from Mr. and [redacted] who advised they were able to acquire the private investigators license plate information. The subject following them was again driving very aggressively and caused [redacted] to run off the road. [redacted]. stated the vehicle is a green Chevy Monte Carlo bearing Florida tag [redacted]. The vehicle is registered to Zachary Bechard of Jupiter Florida. Bechard is employed with Candor Investigations from Jupiter, Florida. Bechard is a licensed Private Investigator in the State of Florida.

Since the discovery of the threat made against one of the victims in this case ([redacted]), I requested subpoenas for all calls made to and received from [redacted] during the month of March 2006 for her cell phone and home phone. I had confirmed with [redacted] the exact dates of Spring Break for 2006. The Spring Break was from March 4, 2006 through March 12, 2006. I received a subpoena from Sprint/Nextel with all calls made during the month of March 2006. I reviewed the 989 calls made and received during the month of March 2006. I observed on March 7, 2006, [redacted] made and received thirty five calls during that day.

of call in seconds, inbound or outbound calls and calls made to or from [redacted] phone. On March 7, 2006, at 11:03 am, [redacted] made a call to the victim [redacted] which lasted 492 seconds (8 minutes and 2 seconds). The victim then returned the call at 11:16 am which lasted 6 seconds. The victim then made contact with [redacted] at 11:22 am for 877.2 seconds (14 minutes and 6 seconds). These sequences of calls were consistent with what the victim had described to me on the date of the intimidation. Immediately after speaking with the victim, [redacted] makes a call to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, which lasts for forty-eight seconds. A call is then immediately received, a telephone number registered to a Corporation affiliated with Jeffrey Epstein located at 457 Madison Ave in New York. An extensive computer check revealed 457 Madison Ave is a business address in which Epstein has his corporations assigned to. Epstein had corporation attorney, Darren Indyke, register the businesses and register himself as an agent. I also observed Epstein has his El Zorro Ranch Corporation, New York Strategy Group, Ghislaine Corporation, J Epstein and Company and the Financial Strategy Group registered to this same address. Finally, a third call is received by [redacted] at 12:02 pm from the same corporate number which lasts 12 minutes and 1 second. It should be noted that there is no further contact with either the victim during the month of March or April of 2006. I also noted that there was no further contact with [redacted] or Jeffrey Epstein during the remainder of the month of March or April 2006.

On June 1, 2006, ASA Lana Belohlavek telephoned me to inform me of the meeting that occurred with Atty. Jack Goldberger and her reference this case. She advised she would make her determination on whether to file on this case or not by Monday June 5, 2006.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441, 1446, and 1332([redacted]), the defendants, Jeffrey Epstein, [redacted], and [redacted], hereby remove this action[1] from Palm Beach County Circuit Court to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, and respectfully state as follows:

Introduction

Six months ago, this plaintiff filed virtually the identical lawsuit in this Court. See Jane Doe #1 v. Epstein, Case No. 08-cv-80069-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed

[1] Doe v. Epstein et al., Case No. 50 2008 CA 006596 XXXX MB (Fla. 15th Cir. Ct. filed Mar. 6, 2008).

Jan. 24, 2008) (the "First Federal Action"). The First Federal Action named Jeffrey Epstein as the sole tortfeasor, made the identical operative allegations as the instant Amended Complaint, and demanded damages of $50 million. (The amount of the demand against Epstein is evidently the product of recent reports in the press that Epstein is wealthy.)

The First Federal Action was quickly followed by a series of substantially identical "Jane Doe" lawsuits, all filed by the same attorney in a three-month span. Compare Jane Doe #1 v. Epstein, Case No. 08–cv-80069-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed Jan. 24, 2008), with Jane Doe #2 v. Epstein, No. 08-CV-80119-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed Feb. 6, 2008) (asserting identical causes of action based on the same operative allegations), Jane Doe #3 v. Epstein, No. 08-CV-80232-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed Mar. 5, 2008) (same), Jane Doe #4 v. Epstein, No. 08-CV-80380-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed Apr. 14, 2008) (same), and Jane Doe #5 v. Epstein, No. 08-80381-CV-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed Apr. 14. 2008) (same).

On February 20, amid these filings, Jane Doe #1 was deposed in State of Florida v. Jeffrey Epstein, 502006CF009454AXXXMB (Fla. 15th Cir. Ct., filed Jul. 19, 2006), a parallel state-court criminal action. During that deposition, she made numerous admissions that completely undermined the allegations against Epstein that she had pled in her complaint. A copy of her deposition, with names redacted, is attached hereto (Exhibit A). Two days later, counsel for Jane Doe #1 filed a notice of voluntary dismissal without prejudice in the First Federal Action. See Doe #1 v. Epstein, Case No. 08-CV-80069-KAM, DE 9.

Two weeks later (March 6, 2008), having changed lawyers, Jane Doe #1 refiled her complaint in Florida Circuit Court as the instant case, adding two nominal defendants: [redacted], Mr. Epstein's personal secretary, and [redacted], one of Jane Doe #1's contemporaries. These defendants have nothing to do with the plaintiff's case against Mr. Epstein, except that the presence of [redacted] as a defendant in this new case, because she is a citizen of Florida (Am. Compl. ¶ 4), would ostensibly prevent complete diversity.[2]

As discussed below, however, [redacted] was named in the refiled lawsuit only to destroy diversity jurisdiction, and to prevent any application of 18 U.S.C. § 3509(k), a mandatory stay provision applicable in federal court .[3] [redacted]

[2] Defendant [redacted] is a citizen of New York (Am. Compl. ¶ 5), and is therefore a nonresident defendant for purposes of diversity jurisdiction and removal.

[3] Section 3509(k) of Title 18, United States Code, provides as follows:

> If, at any time that a cause of action for recovery of compensation for damage or injury to the person of a child exists, a criminal action is pending which arises out of the same occurrence and in which the child is the victim, the civil action shall be stayed until the end of all phases of the criminal action and any mention of the civil action during the criminal proceeding is prohibited. As used in this subsection, a criminal action is pending until its final adjudication in the trial court.

[redacted], besides having nothing to do with the substantive allegations of the plaintiff's $50,000,000 case, is a community-college student with no assets whatever.

Even if this case purports to identify a new (and strategically nondiverse) tortfeasor, the refiled lawsuit is still directed against only one defendant—Jeffrey Epstein. Then and now, the operative allegations are the same: Jane Doe alleges that Jeffrey Epstein assaulted her "in violation of Chapter 800 of the Florida Statutes."[4] (Am. Compl. ¶ 18.) To sharpen her lawsuit, the plaintiff says she is seeking damages in connection with a "conspiracy" (Am. Compl. ¶ 22), a "plan" (Am. Compl. ¶ 32), a "scheme" (Am. Compl. ¶ 32), and an "enterprise" (Am. Compl. ¶ 32). These theories of liability, however, cannot be supported by the allegations in the Amended Complaint. Even if everything in the Amended Complaint were true, recovery against [redacted], under any formulation, is impossible under Florida law.

Focusing on the real parties to this controversy, the instant case could have (once again) been brought here in federal court—just like the four other "Jane Doe" lawsuits presently pending against Epstein, filed by this plaintiff's former lawyer.

This case is properly removed to federal court, first, because there is complete diversity among the real parties-in-interest, second, because the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, and third, because this Notice complies with the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1446.

Discussion

A. This case is properly removable because it falls within the original jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

A state-court case is properly removable when "it could have been brought, originally, in a federal district court." Lincoln Prop. Co. [redacted]. Roche, 546 U.S. 81, 83 (2005) (citing 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a)). This case was originally filed in federal district court, and it is the same case today. Even though it was reconfigured to look like a state-court lawsuit, this action falls squarely within the bounds of the diversity-jurisdiction statute. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) (establishing that federal district courts have original jurisdiction over cases where the amount in controversy [is more than $75,000] . . . and [when the controversy] is between citizens of different states").

1. The amount in controversy in this action exceeds $75,000.

This case is a duplicate of the First Federal Lawsuit. In that case, Jane Doe pled "damages in excess of $50 million." See Doe v. Epstein, No. 08–80069-KAM (S.D. Fla. filed Jan. 24, 2008) (Compl. ¶ 6). That allegation is now deleted and the Amended Complaint substitutes a generic prayer for relief.[5] It is clear, however, that Jane Doe still seeks more than $75,000 in damages.

This case, precisely like the First Federal Action, seeks damages in connection with an alleged assault. (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 16–19.) The Amended Complaint alleges that Jane Doe "has suffered and will continue to suffer severe and permanent traumatic injuries, including mental, psychological, and emotional damages." (Am. Compl. ¶ 19.) These are the identical injuries Jane Doe asserted in the First Federal Action, and are no less serious simply because pled under a state-court caption. Cf., e.g., Woods v. Southwest Airlines, Co., 523 F. Supp. 2d 812, 820 (N.D. Ill. 2007) (determining, in the context of diversity jurisdiction, that the $75,000 threshold had been satisfied, and "clearly [surpassed]," based on "the nature of the injuries alleged" in the complaint).

[5] The Complaint seeks damages for "[more than] . . . $15,000." (Am. Compl. ¶ 6.) This boilerplate is routinely used in Florida pleading practice to trigger application of section 26.012, Florida Statutes, the statute that establishes the jurisdictional amount required for filing in Florida's Circuit Court (as opposed to County Court).

EFTA00231018

To cement this point, the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals has said that "[w]hen [a] complaint does not claim a specific amount of damages, removal from state court is proper if it is facially apparent from the complaint that the amount in controversy exceeds the jurisdictional requirement." Williams v. Best Buy Co., Inc., 269 F.3d 1316, 1319 (11th Cir. 2001). This case meets that standard, and satisfies the first prong of diversity jurisdiction.

2. There is complete diversity among the real parties to this controversy.

Diversity jurisdiction requires complete diversity. Carden v. Arkoma Assocs., 494 U.S. 185, 187 (1990) ("Since its enactment, we have interpreted the diversity statute to require 'complete diversity' of citizenship." (citing Strawbridge v. Curtiss, 7 U.S. (3 Cranch) 267, 267–68 (1806))). See also MacGinnitie v. Hobbs Group, LLC, 420 F.3d 1234, 1239 (11th Cir. 2005) (stating that "[c]omplete diversity requires that no defendant in a diversity action be a citizen of the same state as any plaintiff"). As demonstrated below, this case satisfies the statutory requirement of complete diversity.

(a) Plaintiff Jane Doe is a citizen of Florida. (Am. Compl. ¶ 1.) [6]

[6] Jane Doe may, in fact, be a citizen of Georgia, not Florida, as she pled in her Amended Complaint. See New York Post, Jul. 1, 2008 (reporting that "On his way into court [for his state-court guilty plea on June 30], Epstein was served with a copy of a lawsuit by Doe, who has since moved to another state."); Jane Doe Depo. at 77, 112 (indicating that

(b) Defendant Jeffrey Epstein is a citizen of the U.S. Virgin Islands.[7]

(c) Defendant [redacted] is a citizen of New York. (Am. Compl. ¶ 5.)

3. Defendant [redacted] was fraudulently joined to defeat diversity.

"A non-diverse defendant who is fraudulently joined does not defeat diversity because his citizenship is excluded from the diversity calculus." Shenkar v. Money Warehouse, Inc., No. 07-20634-CIV, 2007 WL 3023531, at *1 (S.D. Fla.

her twin sister lives with her mother in Georgia); Affidavit of [redacted], at ¶ 1(stating, "I am the mother and natural guardian for Jane Doe #1" with jurat executed in Georgia before a Georgia notary), DE 4-2, Jane Doe No. 1 v. Epstein, Case No. 08-80069-Civ-Marra (1/29/08); Intervenor's Complaint, at ¶ 2 (filed by "Jane Doe's Mother" and stating that "Jane Doe's Mother is a citizen and resident of the State of Georgia."), DE 5-2, Jane Doe No. 1 v. Epstein, Case No. 08-80069-Civ-Marra (1/29/08); Petition for Removal of Disability of Non-Age, at ¶¶ 1, 2, 7 (filed "on behalf of S.D.G.," alleging that "The mother is [redacted], and her address is .... Ga.," and stating that "S.D.G. is also the unnamed party in a lawsuit filed by her father on her behalf in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Case No. 08-80069, which was filed without the consent of the mother"), In re [redacted] (Palm Beach Co. Family Ct.) [redacted]. If this turns out to be the case, there is complete diversity, regardless of [redacted] citizenship. Although the Eleventh Circuit has recently indicated that a district court may not conduct jurisdictional discovery under such circumstances, another division of this Court has since allowed it. Compare Lowery v. Ala. Power Co., 483 F.3d 1184, 1215-16, 1221 (11th Cir. 2007) (holding that jurisdictional discovery to determine citizenship upon removal is inappropriate), with Calixto v. BASF Constr. Chemicals, LLC, slip op., Case No. 07-60077-CIV-ZLOCH, 2008 WL 1840717, *1 (S.D. Fla. Apr. 22, 2008) (ordering that parties "shall engage in jurisdictional discovery for the Court to determine the citizenship of BASF and whether it has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action").

[7] The Amended Complaint erroneously states that Jeffrey Epstein is a citizen of New York.

Oct. 15, 2007) (Moreno, J.) (citing Riley v. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., 292 F.3d 1334, 1337 (11th Cir. 2002)); accord, e.g., Tedder v. F.M.C. Corp., 590 F.2d 115, 117 (5th Cir. 1979) (denying motion to remand where two resident defendants were joined for the fraudulent purpose of defeating federal jurisdiction). In this case, the plaintiff relies on her original allegations to support three causes of action against [redacted]: civil conspiracy (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 20–23); Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 23–28); and civil RICO (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 29–34). These allegations, however, do not support these claims, or any other theory of liability that would allow recovery against [redacted]. Cf. Parks v. The New York Times Co., 308 F.2d 474, 477 (5th Cir. 1962) (observing that "determination of fraudulent joinder is to be based on whether there was a real intention on colorable grounds to procure a joint judgment") (emphasis added).[8]

(a) Nonresident defendants have a right of removal.

The removal statute was enacted specifically "to protect defendants." Legg v. Wyeth, 428 F.3d 1317, 1325 (11th Cir. 2005). Cf., e.g., Picquet v. Amoco Prod. Co., 513 F. Supp. 938, 941 (M.D. La. 1981) (explaining that courts developed the fraudulent-joinder doctrine to protect "the right [of removal] granted to [defendants] by . . . Congress"). In this case, by reconstituting her original federal lawsuit and refiling it in state Court, the plaintiff has clearly sought to avoid the strictures of the mandatory stay of this case that federal law requires under 18 U.S.C. § 3509(k).[9]

In federal court, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3509(k), this action must be automatically stayed pending final disposition of an ongoing parallel criminal action against Mr. Epstein. See 18 U.S.C. § 3509(k) (providing that a parallel civil action arising from an alleged sexual assault of a minor "shall be stayed until the end of all phases of [any] criminal action") (emphasis added). In this case, there is a parallel federal criminal grand jury action pending in the Southern District of Florida, In re Grand Jury, No. FGJ 07-103(WPB) (S.D. Fla.), which arises out of the same allegations pled here. Thus, in resorting to fraudulent joinder, the plaintiff has sought to avoid any application of this otherwise controlling statute. Cf. Doe v. Francis, No. 5:03 CV 260 MCR/WCS, 2005 WL 517847, at *1–2 (N.D. Fla. Feb. 10, 2005) (staying civil diversity action over plaintiffs' objections on grounds that "the language of 18 U.S.C. § 3509(k) is clear that a stay is required in a case . . . where a parallel criminal action is pending which arises from the same occurrence involving minor victims") (emphasis added).

[9] By filing in state court, the plaintiff's attorney has also evidently sought to avoid the clear command of our local rules forbidding public comment about the merits of a pending lawsuit. Compare S.D. Fla. Local Rule 77.2(7) ("A lawyer or law firm associated with a civil action shall not during its investigation or litigation make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement, other than a quotation from or reference to public records, which a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication if there is a reasonable likelihood that such dissemination will interfere with a fair trial and which relates to (a) Evidence regarding the occurrence or transaction involved. EFTA00231022

Even outside the context of a mandatory federal statute, "the Supreme Court [has] admonished [that] 'the Federal courts should not sanction devices intended to prevent a removal to a Federal court where one has that right, and should be equally vigilant to protect the right to proceed in the Federal court.'" Legg, 428 F.3d at 1325 (citing Wecker v. Nat'l Enameling & Stamping Co., 204 U.S. 176, 186 (1907)). See also id. (observing that "Congress 'did not extend [to defendants a right of removal] with one hand, and with the other give plaintiffs a bag of tricks to overcome it'" (quoting McKinney v. Bd. of Trustees of Maryland Cmty. Coll., 955 F.2d 924, 928 (4th Cir. 1992))).

To protect a nonresident defendant's right of removal, a federal court will "determine the matter of jurisdiction" by examining "the true situation both as to parties and causes of action." Bernblum v. Travelers' Inc. Co., 9 F. Supp. 34, 35 (W.D. Mo. 1934) (emphasis added). See also id. (observing that "[t]he federal courts will . . . strike out the fiction injected into a case by a party to prevent removal"). In accordance with these principles, a plaintiff cannot destroy diversity jurisdiction simply by conjuring up a nondiverse defendant; there must be at least some "possibility that the state law might impose liability on [the nondiverse] defendant under the circumstances alleged in the complaint." Florence v. Crescent Res., LLC, 484 F.3d 1293, 1299 (11th Cir. 2007) (citations omitted). See also, Holloway v. Morrow, No. 07-0839-WS-M, 2008 WL 401305, at *5 (S.D. Ala. Feb. 11, 2008) (emphasizing that "'[t]he potential for legal liability must be reasonable, not merely theoretical'" (quoting Legg v. Wyeth, 428 F.3d 1317, 1325 n.5 (11th Cir. 2005))) (emphasis added).

In this case, the plaintiffs have tried to whip Jane Doe's original, one-defendant complaint into a froth that looks non-federal. Cf. Owens v. Swan, 962 F. Supp. 1436, 1439 (D. Utah 1997) (noting that "although plaintiffs' amended complaint contains four claims for relief, the first and second claims state only one cause of action") (emphasis added). Using her original allegations and adding nothing, Jane Doe has tried to add claims against [redacted] for civil conspiracy (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 20–23), Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (Am. Compl. ¶¶ 24–28), and civil RICO (Compl. ¶¶ 29–34) in order to append a nondiverse defendant to her Complaint. These claims, however, are untenable under Jane Doe's own allegations, and therefore cannot be used to destroy diversity jurisdiction.

(b) There is no possibility that the plaintiff can establish a cause of action against [redacted] under Florida law.

(i) The conspiracy claim against [redacted] must fail.

As a general rule, "[a]n actionable conspiracy [under Florida law] requires an actionable underlying tort or wrong." Wright v. Yurko, 446 So. 2d 1162, 1165 (Fla. 5th DCA 1984) (citations omitted) (emphasis added).[10]

[10] This case is governed by the general rule. Cf. Churruca v. Miami Jai-Alai, Inc., 353 So. 2d 547, 550 (Fla. 1977) (noting that while there is "ordinarily . . . no independent tort for conspiracy," there is a narrow exception to this rule when "the plaintiff can show some peculiar power of coercion possessed by the conspirators by virtue of their combination") (emphasis added). See generally Liappas v. Augoustis, 47 So. 2d 582, 583 (Fla. 1950) (observing that "'instances of conspiracy which is in itself an independent tort are rare and should be added to with caution'" (quoting Fleming v. Dane, 22 N.E.2d 609, 611, (Mass. 1939))) (emphasis added). Plainly, this case involves the general rule, not the narrow exception, because only one person could have caused Jane Doe's injuries. Cf. Martin v. Marlin, 529 So. 2d 1174, 1179 (Fla. 3d DCA 1988) (upholding

Here, Jane Doe cannot assert a cause of action for "violation of Chapter 800, Florida Statutes" (Am. Compl. ¶ 18) because there is no private right of action under that Chapter. See generally Am. Home Assurance Co. v. Plaza Materials Corp., 908 So. 2d 360, 374 (Fla. 2005) (observing that "not every statutory violation carries a civil remedy" (citing Villazon v. Prudential Health Care Plan, Inc., 843 So. 2d 842, 852 (Fla. 2003))). See also, e.g., Miami Herald Publ'g Co. v. Ferre, 636 F. Supp. 970 (S.D. Fla. 1985) (King, C.J.) (holding that violation of Florida's criminal extortion statute does not give rise to a civil cause of action for damages); Mantooth v. Richards, 557 So. 2d 646, 646 (Fla. 4th DCA 1990) (per curiam) (affirming dismissal of plaintiff's claim for parental kidnapping where "the mentioned statutes concern only criminal violations and do not afford a civil remedy") (citation omitted) (emphasis added); Wright v. Yurko, 446 So. 2d 1162, 1165 (Fla. 5th DCA 1984) (holding that "[a]n act which does not constitute a basis for a cause of action against one person cannot be made the basis for a civil action for conspiracy").

In this case, Jane Doe's claim under Count II (civil conspiracy) fails because it derives exclusively from Count I (violation of Chapter 800, Florida Statutes). Cf.

grant of summary judgment against claim for independent conspiracy, noting that "[w]hen the concerted acts of the defendants do not create a greater harm than if the acts were committed by one person alone, then there can be no recovery").

EFTA00231026

Buchanan v. Miami Herald Publ'g Co., 230 [redacted]. 2d 9, 12 (Fla. 1969) (holding that where Count I of the complaint had failed to state a cause of action for malicious prosecution, there could be no civil-conspiracy claim in Count II "based on the allegations of Count I"). Because the statute she expressly pleads as the basis for Count I, Chapter 800, Florida Statutes, provides no civil remedy, Jane Doe cannot prevail on Count I. Therefore, she cannot prevail on her claim for conspiracy (Count II) to violate Chapter 800, Florida Statutes (Count I).

(ii) The plaintiff cannot prevail against nondiverse defendant [redacted] on her claim for Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED).

Even if the plaintiff, for the sake of argument, can assert an IIED claim against Jeffrey Epstein, the plaintiff still does not have a cause of action for IIED against [redacted]. First, the plaintiff cannot recover damages in connection with her own illegal conduct; and second, the plaintiff's purported IIED claim fails as a matter of law.

Lewis Tein PL.
3059 Grand Avenue, Suite 340, Coconut Grove, Florida 33133

1. The plaintiff seeks damages in connection with her own illegal conduct.

The plaintiff concedes that she went to Jeffrey Epstein's house "to give Epstein a massage for monetary compensation." (Am. Compl. ¶ 13.) The plaintiff also concedes, in the guise of an allegation, that [redacted] "brought Jane Doe to Epstein's mansion in Palm Beach" to help the plaintiff execute her own plan. (Am. Compl. ¶ 13.) Yet, the plaintiff's plan was illegal: under Florida law, it is a crime "to practice massage" without a license. § 480.047, Fla. Stat. (1997). To say it another way, the plaintiff admits that she went to Mr. Epstein's house to commit a crime.

Based on these allegations, it is clear that the plaintiff seeks damages in connection with her own illegal conduct; this is enough to support a finding of fraudulent joinder. See Florence v. Crescent Resources, LLC, 484 F.3d 1293, 1298 n.3 (11th Cir. 2007) (acknowledging that "under some circumstances, application of an affirmative defense can support a finding of fraudulent joinder). This conclusion is supported by well-established principles.

Under Florida law, a plaintiff cannot recover damages flowing from her own illegal conduct. See Hall v. Hall, 93 Fla. 709, 112 So. 622, 628 (1927) (referring to "the universal rule of our law that one in a court of justice cannot complain . . . of another's wrong whereof he was a partaker") (internal quotation marks and citation omitted) (emphasis added); Turner v. Anderson, 704 So. 2d 748, (Fla. 4th DCA 1998) ("[N]o public policy should allow appellant to recover damages as a result of engaging in criminal conduct such as occurred in this case."). Cf. Ewell v. Daggs, 108 U.S. 143, 149 (1883) (stating that "'[n]o court will lend its aid to a [plaintiff] who founds [a] cause of action upon an immoral or an illegal act'") (quoting Holman v. Johnson, 98 Eng. Rep. 1120 (K.B. 1775)); see also id. (explaining that this policy is "'not for the sake of the defendant, but because [the courts] will not lend their aid to such a plaintiff" (quoting Holman, 98 Eng. Rep. 1120)) (emphasis added); Balas v. Ruzzo, 703 So. 2d 1076, 1082 (Fla. 5th DCA 1997) (Harris, J., concurring) (remarking in the context of an action brought against an alleged prostitution house that "the court should continue its tradition of not interceding in civil conflicts involving transactions that are either illegal or are against public policy").

Based on the foregoing, the plaintiff cannot blame someone else ([redacted]) for the consequences of her own criminal conduct. Cf. Feld & Sons, Inc. v. Pechner, Dorfman, Wolffe, Rounick and Cabot, 458 A.2d 545, 552 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1983) (holding that law-firm clients could not recover damages flowing from their own criminal acts, even though clients' lawyers had suggested the unlawful conduct to begin with). See also Turner v. Anderson, 704 So. 2d 748, 751 (Fla. 4th DCA 1998) (approving reasoning in Feld & Sons, holding that "no public policy should allow [a plaintiff] to recover damages as a result of engaging in criminal conduct" where the plaintiff had provided false testimony at an arbitration proceeding).

2. The plaintiff's IIED claim fails as a matter of law.

To state a cause of action for IIED, a complaint must allege four elements: (1) deliberate or reckless infliction of mental suffering; (2) outrageous conduct; (3) the conduct caused the emotional distress; and (4) the distress was severe. Metro. Life Ins. Co. v. McCarson, 467 So. 2d 277, 278 (Fla. 1985). Whether conduct is outrageous enough to support a claim of intentional infliction of emotional distress is a question of law, not a question of fact. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Steadman, 968 So. 2d 592, 595 (Fla. 2d DCA 2007) (citations omitted).

In this case, without reaching the question of "outrage," the plaintiff has failed to show that [redacted] conduct - - allegedly arranging an illegal sexual massage that the plaintiff herself agreed to perform - - itself caused the plaintiff to suffer any emotional distress. Even if the alleged agreement was fraudulently induced, the plaintiff's IIED claim flows from Epstein's alleged conduct, not the joint conduct of [redacted] and Doe in planning the massage.

(iii) The plaintiff cannot prevail on her claim for civil remedies for criminal practices or racketeering ("civil RICO") pled in Count IV.

A cause of action under section 772.104, Florida Statutes ("Civil Remedies for Criminal Practices") requires a showing of direct injury. Even assuming for the sake of argument that Jane Doe can establish that the defendants engaged in a "pattern of criminal activity," she cannot establish that she was directly injured by those activities.

Section 772.104 allows someone to bring a civil RICO claim only if "he or she has been injured by reason of" any RICO violation. § 772.104, Fla. Stat. (2007). Here, the allegations in Count IV, even if they are true, do not add up to a civil RICO claim because there is no proximate cause between the purported "pattern of criminal activity" and Jane Doe's alleged injuries.

In a doomed attempt to satisfy the extremely high burden of pleading civil RICO under Florida law, the Amended Complaint lists a series of violations rooted in Florida's prostitution statutes. (Am. Compl. ¶ 31.) According to the Amended Complaint, the defendants participated in a criminal enterprise . . . or conspir[acy]" (Am. Compl. ¶ 30) over an unspecified length of time "to repeatedly find and bring [Jeffrey Epstein] underage girls . . . in order for Epstein to solicit, coerce, entice, compel, or force such girls in acts of prostitution and/or lewdness" (Am.

Compl. ¶ 32). The alleged "pattern of criminal activity" comprises violations of Chapter 796, Florida Statutes—the chapter that proscribes various crimes of prostitution.[13]

These allegations do not tie directly into Jane Doe's alleged psychic injuries. In contrast to a cognizable RICO claim, this action concerns only an isolated occurrence. More important, the alleged injuries in this case are pled to have resulted from an alleged sexual assault, an assault "in violation of Chapter 800 of the Florida Statutes" (Am. Compl. ¶ 18)—not anything having to do with the facilitation of prostitution, or more succinctly, the violation of Florida's prostitution law.

Civil RICO claims are extraordinarily difficult to plead successfully. There are examples in the case law of RICO claims stemming from a prostitution enterprise, but they are vastly different from what plaintiff pleads here. They involve, for example, prostitutes who sued a house of prostitution (as an "enterprise") for inflicting systematic and repetitive abuse on them, over time. See Balas v. Ruzzo, 703 So. 2d 1076, 1077 (Fla. 5th DCA 1997) (offering an example of a civil RICO claim against the operators of an alleged "house of prostitution," where petitioners alleged that they had "suffered emotional pain, anguish, humiliation, insult, indignity, loss of self-esteem, inconvenience, hurt and emotional distress" as a result of being forced repeatedly, over time, to "perform sexual acts to retain their employment"). Here, even if the Amended Complaint can be read to plead that the defendants schemed to solicit other massages from other people (see, e.g., Am. Compl. ¶¶ 9, 11, 12, 32), those activities are not alleged in any way to have impacted Jane Doe. Cf., e.g., Palmas Y Bambu, S.A. v. E.I. Dupont De Nemours & Co., Inc., 881 [redacted]. 2d 565, 570 (Fla. 3d DCA 2004) (holding that "'indirect injuries, that is injuries sustained not as a direct result of predicate acts . . . will not allow recovery under Florida RICO.'" (quoting O'Malley v. St. Thomas Univ., Inc., 599 [redacted]. 2d 999, 1000 (Fla. 3d DCA 1992))) (emphasis added).

[13] The Amended Complaint alleges a "pattern of criminal activity" comprising the following criminal violations: §§ 796.03, 796.07(2)(f), 796.07(2)(h), 796.045, and 796.04, Fla. Stat. (Am. Compl. ¶ 31.)

Because the Amended Complaint does not satisfy the direct-injury requirement under Florida's RICO law, Jane Doe has failed to allege a cause of action against [redacted] for violation of section 772.103, Florida Statutes.

B. This Notice satisfies the procedural requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1446.

1. This notice of removal is timely.

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446, this notice of removal is timely. Only defendant Epstein has been served with process. Defendants [redacted] and [redacted] have not yet been served. In a multi-defendant lawsuit, removal is timely when effected within 30 days after the last defendant is served. See Hill Dermaceuticals, Inc. v. RX Solutions, United Health Group, Inc., No. 6:08-cv-330-Orl-31KRS, 2008 WL 1744794, at *3 (M.D. Fla. Apr. 11, 2008) (concluding that removal petition was timely where it was filed within 30 days after the last defendant was served).

2. Notice has been given, and state-court papers have been filed.

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), defendants have served this Notice of Removal on July 18, 2008. All papers filed in State Court are attached to this Removal Petition.

3. There is unanimity among the defendants.

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) the undersigned are authorized to represent that all of the defendants join this Petition and consent to removal.

Conclusion

Because this is a civil action between citizens of different states, excluding any fraudulently joined parties, and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interests and costs, this Court has original jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1).

A. Yes.

Q. How long have you been living with your aunt and uncle?

A. Since my father kicked me out.

Q. That was Thanksgiving of this past year?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Okay. Didn't your firefighter boyfriend [redacted] get an apartment for the two of you?

A. No, sir. He has an apartment, but by himself.

Q. Did he get an apartment for the two of you to live in?

A. No, sir.

Q. Are you planning to move in with him?

A. Maybe one day in the future.

Q. Do you have a plan to move in with him presently?

A. No.

Q. Have you been to the apartment that you and [redacted] have discussed moving in together?

A. I have been to the apartment.

Q. Where is that?
A. Palm Beach Lakes.
Q. Have you spent the night over there?
A. No, sir.
Q. Do you know the address there?
A. I do not.
Q. Isn't your sister [redacted] planning on living with you and [redacted]?
A. No.
Q. [redacted] you know that this court case is a criminal prosecution, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And you know that it's a criminal prosecution against a man who has no criminal background. Do you know that?
A. I do now.
Q. You agree that court is a very serious matter?
A. Yes.
Q. And you're here with your lawyer Mr. Leopold, right?
A. Yes.
Q. And you know that Mr. Leopold recently filed a lawsuit in federal court against Jeffrey Epstein, seeking fifty million dollars.

MR. LEOPOLD: Let me just object. [redacted] let me instruct you. Anything that you have learned through conversations between you and me are protected. [redacted] if you know any of that information outside of those discussions, you may answer. But if the only way you know it is through our discussions, do not answer that question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] you know that Mr. Leopold recently filed a lawsuit in federal court on your behalf against Jeffrey Epstein seeking fifty million dollars?

MR. LEOPOLD: Same objection.

If you know the answer to that outside of our discussions, you may answer. If it is the only way that you know the answer is through our discussions, do not answer that question.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. LEOPOLD: Attorney/client privilege.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You can answer the question unless --

MR. LEOPOLD: Same objection.

MR. TEIN: Let me finish.

MR. LEOPOLD: Excuse me. We're --

MR. TEIN: No. Let me finish.

MR. LEOPOLD: Lewis, we're not going to do that.

MR. TEIN: My name is not Lewis.

I'm going to finish my question. Okay?

MR. LEOPOLD: Do not answer until you hear from me.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Other than conversations that you have had with Mr. Leopold -- I'm not asking about that -- are you aware that Mr. Leopold has filed a lawsuit in federal court seeking fifty million dollars from Jeffrey Epstein on your behalf?

MR. LEOPOLD: Same objection.

Anything that you learn through conversations between you and me, do not answer. Those are protected. If you know through any other realm of knowledge, you may answer.

THE WITNESS: No.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You have no idea that Mr. Leopold filed a fifty million-dollar lawsuit on your behalf against Jeffrey Epstein?

MR. LEOPOLD: Same objection.

Do not answer that question if it's through discussions that you and I had. Outside of that, you may answer. [redacted] do not answer that question if that is the only basis by which you understand that answer.

THE WITNESS: No.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You didn't know that?

MR. LEOPOLD: Don't answer that question. Again, it's attorney/client privilege. Any information you've learned through conversations between you and I are protected. If you know it through any other realm, you may answer.

MR. TEIN: Are you going to say that for every question in the deposition, Mr. Leopold?

MR. LEOPOLD: When you ask improper questions like that without the proper --

MR. TEIN: You're going to stop your speaking objections right now. Okay?

MR. LEOPOLD: Without the proper --

MR. TEIN: You need to stop your speaking objections.

Let's continue.

MR. LEOPOLD: Counsel, you just asked me a question and I'm going to state it on the record --

MR. TEIN: You need to stop your speaking objections. Check your rules.

MR. LEOPOLD: Excuse me. For the record, Counsel asked me a question. I'll state the answer on the record. He asked me the question am I going to be answering that way throughout the deposition. [redacted] long as there's improper foundation and predicate asked by the attorney, I will protect my client and I make the record where appropriate. If counsel wishes to ask an appropriate worded question with the proper foundation and predicate, I will certainly allow the client to answer the question.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Why don't you just state attorney/client privilege and just be done with it?

MR. LEOPOLD: I want the record to be clear.

MR. TEIN: You want to waste time is what you want to do.

You were supposed to be here this morning and you totally broke the deal, the agreement that you had with us if your hearing got cancelled.

But let's move on and maybe you'll stop obstructing this deposition.

MR. LEOPOLD: I think the record is very clear where we stand thus far.

Is there a recording taken of this deposition?

THE COURT REPORTER: Yes.

MR. LEOPOLD: Just make sure that's preserved.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Go to Exhibit 20-01 -- well, before you do that, [redacted] are you aware that a lawyer named Jeffrey Herman filed a lawsuit on your behalf, yes or no?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection.

Any conversations that you and I have had regarding that, if that is the only way by which you understand how to answer that question, do not answer. It's attorney/client privilege, as well as any conversations you may have had with the attorney from Miami. That is also attorney/client privilege. And I'm assuming --

MR. TEIN: You're actually wrong about the attorney/client privilege.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm assuming Counsel is not asking you to divulge attorney/client --

MR. TEIN: Of course not.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] are you aware that Jeffrey Herman, an attorney, filed a fifty-million-dollar lawsuit on your behalf against Jeffrey Epstein, yes or no?

MR. LEOPOLD: Same objection.

MR. TEIN: We've heard the objection 10 times already.

MR. LEOPOLD: Counsel, excuse me.

MR. TEIN: Just say attorney/client privilege. Stop interrupting my questions.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm entitled to make an objection for the record, which I'm doing, and I'll make the same objection. And if it calls for attorney/client privilege, any conversations you and I have had, do not answer the question.

And I think that it might be appropriate, for the record, to ask questions via [redacted] as opposed to [redacted] I think that would be more appropriate for this deposition.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Go ahead. Please answer yes or no.

A. Yes.

Q. Thank you.

In fact, you know that Mr. Herman held a press conference after he filed the fifty-million-dollar lawsuit on your behalf, don't you?

A. After it happened.

Q. You know that he had a press conference, don't you, yes or no?
A. Yes.
Q. In fact, let's go to Exhibit 20-01.
MR. GOLDBERGER: Look behind you. You'll see it.
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. Have you ever seen that picture before?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that a picture of your father, your stepmother and Mr. Herman at the press conference regarding your lawsuit?
A. Yes.
Q. Now you know that this is a very serious matter, don't you?
MR. LEOPOLD: Asked and answered. Objection.
MR. GOLDBERGER: All right. You can object. You're representing a witness here, Mr. Leopold. You can object on privilege grounds. You cannot make legal objections. You have no standing to do so.
MR. LEOPOLD: I'm going to make them and then --
MR. GOLDBERGER: We're --

MR. LEOPOLD: We're going to leave or we're going to take a break, because his demeanor is not appropriate. There's no reason to have this kind of demeanor. If you want to have this kind of demeanor with me --

MR. TEIN: You are obstructing this deposition.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Why don't you guys go outside and just talk about --

MR. LEOPOLD: She -- her job is very difficult and she's not going to be able to take us both talking at the same time.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Off the record.

MR. LEOPOLD: We're not going off the record, Jack. We're not, Jack. Her job is very difficult. I'm going to make the record.

I don't think it is appropriate, especially in the small confines of this room, to be very aggressive with this young lady.

MR. TEIN: That's not happening. Stop, stop actually --

MR. LEOPOLD: If you're going to interrupt me, we're going to cancel this deposition --

MR. TEIN: Stop misrepresenting.

THE COURT REPORTER: I need one at a time, no matter who it is.

MR. LEOPOLD: I think we're going to take a break. Perhaps you might want to talk to your co-counsel --

MR. TEIN: I don't need to talk to him.

MR. LEOPOLD: But we're going to take a break.

MR. TEIN: We're not taking a break unless the witness needs a break.

You're obstructing this deposition, Ted.

MR. LEOPOLD: Come on, [redacted]

You all want to continue in this demeanor --

MR. TEIN: You're obstructing the deposition. Stop making speeches. We're not discussing this with you. The questions are to your client. Go take your five-minute break.

MR. LEOPOLD: Fine. We need to make sure the record's clear and clean.

And I want to make sure, as I've already asked you -- I know that you're one of the best in town -- that this audio -- this needs to be preserved. Okay?

MR. TEIN: Go take your five-minute break, Mr. Leopold, now.

You were supposed to be here at nine a.m.; it's now after two. Take your break and come back.

MR. LEOPOLD: Okay. If the demeanor keeps up, we will not be here beyond those five minutes.

MR. TEIN: Take your break and come back.

MR. LEOPOLD: Okay. So I suggest that you relax.

MR. TEIN: I suggest that you take your break.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Let them take that five-minute break.

MR. LEOPOLD: But I would suggest that you take deep breaths.

MR. TEIN: Suggest whatever you want. Go take a break.

(Thereupon, a recess was taken.)

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] you agree that giving testimony today at your deposition is something very serious, don't you?

A. Yes.

Q. And you respect the court, don't you?

A. Yes.

Q. Let me show you Exhibit 31-001. Can you read that out loud, please.

A. Okay. What do you want?

Q. Will you read that out loud, please.

A. Oh.

Q. Thank you.

A. Lol hah my baddd...lol yah i got some stupid court shit on the 20th...bullshit...and damn you still have court shit with him? Muah xo.

Q. Did you send that message last week to a friend of yours on MySpace?

A. I wouldn't know. There's no dates and I've deleted that MySpace, so --

Q. We're going to talk about that in a second.

A. Okay.

Q. Did you send that message last week --

A. Right.

Q. Let me finish my question.

Did you send that message last week to a friend of yours on MySpace?

A. I wouldn't know the date, but obviously, it's to a friend.

Q. Did you send that message to a friend of yours on MySpace?
A. Sure, yes.
Q. Were you referring to this deposition?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you find the term n-i-g-g-e-r offensive?
A. That's not anywhere in there.
Q. What word did you use in there?
MR. LEOPOLD: Where are you referring to, Counsel? There's 20 plus words in there.
MR. TEIN: Don't make a speaking objection.
THE WITNESS: Are you referring to anything --
MR. LEOPOLD: No, [redacted] Don't -- don't -- let him ask you the question.
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. What question were you asking, [redacted]?
MR. LEOPOLD: She doesn't ask questions. You ask the questions. What is the question pending?
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. [redacted] what is the last word on there in the text of your message before the closing?
A. Niggaa.
Q. Don't you find that term offensive?

A. No.

MR. LEOPOLD: Can you spell it for the record, please.

THE WITNESS: N-i-g-g --

MR. TEIN: No, no, no. You are not going to be asking questions.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm not asking questions. I'm asking for the record the word to be spelled, because we don't have a video here today.

MR. TEIN: These exhibits are part of the record. You --

MR. LEOPOLD: Well, it's not marked as an exhibit.

MR. TEIN: Stop interrupting me, Mr. Leopold. I have marked and identified as an exhibit and you will get it.

MR. LEOPOLD: There has been no identification of this document in the record.

MR. TEIN: Mr. Leopold, stop interrupting this deposition.

MR. LEOPOLD: What is the exhibit number marked for identification?

MR. TEIN: 31-001.

MR. LEOPOLD: Do we have copies? Is it on the record anywhere?

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Let me ask you, [redacted] did you in fact write your friend this message about this deposition?

A. Yes.

Q. So you wrote your friend that this deposition is stupid court s-h-i-t, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Because you think this deposition is stupid court s-h-i-t, don't you?

A. No.

Q. You wrote that to your friend, didn't you?

A. Yes.

Q. You think that court is stupid, don't you?

A. In some cases.

Q. And you think that court is bull s-h-i-t, don't you?

A. No.

Q. And you think this deposition is bull s-h-i-t, don't you?

A. No.

Q. You wrote that to your friend, didn't you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered.

MR. TEIN: That's not an objection.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You wrote that to your friend, didn't you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered, for the fourth time.

MR. TEIN: You are improperly objecting, Mr. Leopold. You have no grounds to object. And that's not an objection.

MR. LEOPOLD: It is an objection.

MR. TEIN: Then terminate the deposition if you think it's been asked and answered.

MR. LEOPOLD: Counsel, I am not precluded from just making an objection to the form of the question. As the courts well know, and if you practice here in West Palm Beach, many of the judges require you to set the objection with specificity. And I will do that. And if you don't want me to, you can make the record. But I will do that.

MR. TEIN: Here's what we'll do, Ted. You can -- I will allow you to reserve an objection to form for every single one of my questions. Otherwise, all you're doing is obstructing.

MR. LEOPOLD: I won't do that.

MR. TEIN: Of course; because you want to obstruct.

MR. LEOPOLD: All right.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] you think that giving testimony today, under oath, is bull s-h-i-t, don't you?

A. No.

Q. And you wrote that to your friend on MySpace last week, didn't you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered.

THE WITNESS: No, I did not.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You didn't write this exhibit?

A. I wrote that, but I didn't write what you said.

Q. You wrote in this exhibit, "I got some stupid court s-h-i-t on the 20th. Bull s-h-i-t." Didn't you write that?

A. Yes.

Q. Referring to this deposition, didn't you?

A. Referring to the court. I was later informed that it was a deposition.

Q. I'm going to ask you some questions now about what happened when you went to Jeff Epstein's house three years ago. Okay?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. When the police interviewed you one month after you went to Epstein's house, you swore on your mother's grave that you and Epstein did not engage in sex of any kind?

A. Yes.

Q. Didn't you tell that to the police?

A. Yes. And I will continue. I have never had sex with him.

Q. Did what happened upstairs at Jeff Epstein's house take you completely by surprise, [redacted]?

A. Yes.

Q. Now the civil complaint that you filed against Mr. Epstein for fifty million dollars alleged that you were totally shocked by what happened when you got there.

A. Yes.

Q. Were you totally shocked by what happened when you got to Epstein's house?

A. Yes.

Q. You didn't expect it at all, did you?

A. No.

Q. You had absolutely no idea why your friend [redacted] was taking you to Epstein's house, right?

A. I was informed it was a massage.

Q. All you thought that it was going to be was a massage, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Before you got to Epstein's house [redacted] never said anything to you on the telephone about sexual activity with Epstein, did she?

A. No.

Q. And before you got to Epstein's house [redacted] never sent you a message over the Internet about sexual activity with Epstein, did she?

A. No.

Q. Did [redacted] ever try to convince you to engage in any sexual activity with Epstein?

A. No.

Q. Did [redacted] every try to convince you to engage in any sexual activity with Epstein?

A. I don't know who [redacted] is.

Q. Do you have a friend [redacted]?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Before you went so Epstein's house did anyone call or e-mail you to induce you to engage in sexual activity with Epstein?

A. No.

Q. So you're sure that before you got to Epstein's house no one tried to persuade you to engage in sexual activity with Jeffrey Epstein?

A. No.

Q. You're sure that -- let me ask the question again.

You're sure that before you got to Epstein's house no one tried to persuade you to engage in sexual activity with Epstein for money. Are you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered.

THE WITNESS: No. And I've already answered that a bazillion times.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. He's coaching you now. So I'm going to ask the question --

MR. LEOPOLD: Counsel, I've made an objection for the record.

MR. TEIN: Stop speaking.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm not going to stop speaking. You can't interrupt me when I'm making the record.

MR. TEIN: You're coaching the witness.

MR. LEOPOLD: Counsel --

MR. TEIN: Stop coaching the witness.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] let me ask you --

MR. LEOPOLD: If you continue to --

MR. TEIN: Stop interrupting my questions.

MR. LEOPOLD: If you do it one more time, we're leaving.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted]

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm going to make the record. You cannot interrupt me when I'm making the record. Out of professional conduct, you cannot do that. I'm entitled to make the record. I made an objection, asked and answered. Your demeanor is inappropriate. You're willing and you are able and you're responsible to ask a question in a professional manner, and ask the question and once you get the answer, to either follow up on it or move on, but not continuously browbeat and ask the same question over and over because you don't like the answer.

MR. TEIN: Calm down, sir.

MR. LEOPOLD: Trust me, I'm very calm here. When I'm not calm, you'll know it. I'm very calm.

So please continue on. But I will not allow you to continue to harass her in the demeanor that you're doing. Ask her a question and move on.

MR. TEIN: Are you done?

MR. LEOPOLD: Thank you. I am.

MR. TEIN: Stop misrepresenting the record and calm down. I'm going to ask my question. Stop it.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] --

MR. LEOPOLD: I think the record is very clear.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Let me just clarify something. When you object to the form of a question, you're not instructing the witness not to answer the question, are you?

MR. LEOPOLD: No. And I'm not making that objection; only on attorney/client privilege.

MR. TEIN: Will you stop speaking now so I can ask my question? Are you done?

Okay. I'm going to ask my question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Listen, [redacted] --

MR. LEOPOLD: Hold on. Stop.

I've been doing this for 20 plus years and have met a lot of attorneys, but I've never had an experience like this where I've --

MR. TEIN: Stop your speeches.

MR. LEOPOLD: If you continue to do this, whether it's with me or with my client, I will not put up with it and I don't need to put up with it and it's not appropriate. And I'm sure Mr. Goldberger knows all this, because I know that he wouldn't do this. So I will not put up with it. And I think it's highly inappropriate to do this with this child sitting here, the way you're acting, primarily towards me, and I will not put up with it.

MR. TEIN: Will you please stop your speech so I can ask questions?

MR. LEOPOLD: So long as you act professionally, I will do so. But if you continue to do it this way, I will leave.

MR. TEIN: Suit yourself.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] are you sure that before you got to Epstein's house no one tried to persuade you to engage in sexual activity with Epstein for money?

MR. LEOPOLD: Asked and answered. Objection.

MR. TEIN: Did you get her answer?

THE COURT REPORTER: No, I did not.

THE WITNESS: I'm sure.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Let me ask you a few questions about your contact with Jeffrey Epstein. Okay?

A. (Witness nods head up and down.)

Q. Jeff never e-mailed you, did he?

A. No.

Q. Jeff never text messaged you, did he?

A. No.

Q. Jeff never chatted in a chat room with you, did he?

A. No.

Q. Before you got to Epstein's house you had never spoken to Jeff, had you?

A. No.

Q. And before you got to Epstein's house you had never met Jeff?

A. Correct.

Q. Before you got to Epstein's house you had never told Jeff that you were under 18, right?

A. No.

Q. Before you got to Epstein's house had you ever told Jeffrey that you were under 18?

A. No. I never spoke to the man before that.

Q. And you only went to Jeff Epstein's house that one time three years ago, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. You never went there again, correct?

A. No.

Q. All right. Let me ask you two final areas of questioning about this and we'll move onto something else. Okay?

A. Uh-huh. Yes. I'm sorry.

Q. Before you got to Epstein's did anyone associated with Epstein ever call you on the phone and try to persuade, induce, entice or coerce you to engage in any sexual activity?

A. No.

Q. Before you got to Epstein's did anybody associated with Epstein ever contact you on the Internet and try to persuade, induce, entice or coerce you to engage in any sexual activity?

A. No.

Q. [redacted] who told you that when you got to Jeff Epstein's house you should lie to Jeff about your age?

A. [redacted].

Q. Was it [redacted] or was it the other girl in the car who you rode over with to Epstein's house?

A. [redacted]

Q. Who was the other girl in the car with you that day?

A. I honestly don't know.

Q. Had you ever seen her before?
A. No, sir.
Q. You told the police that when you rode over to Epstein's you had no idea who she was, right?
A. Correct.
Q. You told the police that you didn't know her name, but she was like really dark, kind of like a Spanish girl?
A. Yes.
Q. Those were your words, right?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you now know who she is?
A. No, sir.
Q. So it was [redacted] who told you to lie about your age to Jeff Epstein?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And [redacted] told you that if you weren't 18, Epstein wouldn't let you into his house, right?
A. That's -- yes, yes.
Q. All right. Let's talk for a minute about when you first met Jeff. Okay?
A. Sure.
Q. When you first met Jeff he tried to find out how old you were, right?
A. Excuse me?

Q. When you first met Jeff he tried to find out how old you were, right?

A. Not when we first introduced each other; when we get upstairs, then, yes.

Q. During the massage Jeff asked you how old you were, correct?

A. Yes, yes.

Q. Now hadn't you already told Jeff's assistant, the one who walked you upstairs, that you went to college and had just moved down here from Ohio?

A. I never spoke to the lady.

Q. Do you want to rethink that answer?

MR. LEOPOLD: Is that a question?

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Do you want to rethink that answer?

A. No. I didn't really speak with her that much.

Q. Do you want to try to refresh your memory on that?

MR. LEOPOLD: Do you have something to refresh her memory with?

MR. TEIN: Do you want to stop making speaking objections?

MR. LEOPOLD: No. But to refresh someone's memory, you show them a document.

MR. TEIN: I know how to do this.

MR. LEOPOLD: Then show her a document.

MR. TEIN: Stop speaking.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm not going to stop speaking. I'm going to continue to make the record.

MR. TEIN: You're obstructing. Please stop.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm not obstructing. But if you want to refresh her recollection, you need to show her something.

That's not a proper question. I object to the foundation and the predicate of that question.

MR. TEIN: Are you done?

MR. LEOPOLD: I am now. Thank you.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Do you want to try to refresh your memory as to whether you had any conversation with the woman who walked you upstairs in Epstein's house in which you told her that you went to college and had just moved down from Ohio?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Object to the form of the question. Lack of foundation and predicate.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You can answer the question.
A. Sure.
Q. Is there anything that would refresh your memory that in fact you told Mr. Epstein's assistant, the one who walked you upstairs, that you went to college and you had just moved down here from Ohio?
A. I don't remember saying that, but if you -- I don't remember saying that myself, so --
Q. That would be a lie, right?
A. No. I really don't remember.
Q. So you told Jeff that you were 18 years old, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you remember Detective [redacted] [redacted] of the Police Department, Palm Beach Police Department?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you remember you spoke to her?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you remember that you told Detective [redacted] that when you lied about your age to Jeff you said it really fast because you didn't want to make it sound like you were lying?
A. I don't remember the words exactly, but I do remember telling her I told him I was 18.
Q. And do you remember telling Detective [redacted] that when you lied to Epstein about your age that you said it really fast so Epstein wouldn't realize you were lying?

A. No, I don't remember saying those words exactly to her. I remember telling her that I told Epstein I was 18.

Q. Does it sound right to you that you told Detective [redacted] that you said your age really fast to Epstein --

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Objection. Asked and answered.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. -- so he wouldn't think that you were lying?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered, lack of foundation, mischaracterization of her earlier testimony. She's already answered that question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You can answer it.

MR. LEOPOLD: Same objection. It's been asked and answered.

You can answer. I've made the objection.

THE WITNESS: I forget the question, now.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Let me put it again.

Does it sound right to you that you told Detective [redacted] that when you lied about your age to Jeffrey Epstein, you said it really fast because you didn't want to make it sound like you were lying?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Lack of foundation, asked and answered.

THE WITNESS: I could have possibly said that, yes.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You didn't want Mr. Epstein to know that you were lying about your age, right?

A. Correct.

Q. You didn't want Mr. Epstein to know that you were not 18 yet, right?

A. Correct.

Q. You wanted Mr. Epstein to believe that you really were 18, right?

A. Correct.

Q. Do you remember when Mr. Epstein asked where you went to school?

A. Yes.

Q. And you told Mr. Epstein you went to Wellington, right?

A. Yes.
Q. Was that the truth?
A. No.
Q. In fact, you went to Royal Palm, right?
A. Yes.
Q. So you lied to Mr. Epstein again, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Is Wellington the college that you told Jeff's assistant that you were attending?
A. I don't remember having that conversation with her, so I wouldn't know if that's what I said.
Q. That was a lie, though, wasn't it?
MR. LEOPOLD: Objection to the form of the question, lack of foundation. You're making an assumption. She just answered you she can't tell you that.
MR. TEIN: Speaking objection. And you well know that, Mr. Leopold.
MR. LEOPOLD: She can't answer that question. The way you phrased that question, you're purposely making her not be honest in her testimony. She can't answer a question like that. She doesn't remember. So then you say, "So you were lying." That's improper and you know that. That's not a proper question. And any attorney that would do that to a witnesses or to a person that's sitting in this chair is not acting professionally. You can't ask a question like that. You can do it, but it's not proper. And I'm sure you weren't trained that way, certainly not ethically.

MR. TEIN: Will you stop?

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm not going to stop, because the way you're asking that question is improper and you know it.

MR. TEIN: You're losing your cool.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Ms. [redacted] --

MR. LEOPOLD: Trust me. I'm very calm. When I lose my cool, you'll know it.

MR. TEIN: I do know it.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Ms. [redacted] Mr. Epstein never asked you to do anything other than massage him, correct?

A. Incorrect; because he asked me to take off my bra, so that would be two things he's asked me to do.

Q. Other than asking you to take your bra off, Mr. Epstein never asked you to do anything with him other than massage, correct?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Foundation, predicate.

THE WITNESS: Correct.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You told the police, in your words, that you did not whack him off, right?

A. Correct.

Q. What does that mean?

A. Whack, like whacking off?

Q. Your term, what does that mean?

A. Masturbating.

Q. Mr. Epstein never tried at any time to grab your hand, did he?

A. No.

Q. Mr. Epstein never tried to put your hand anywhere, did he?

A. No.

Q. At no time did you touch Mr. Epstein's penis, did you?

A. No.

Q. And he did not touch you, correct?

A. Incorrect.

Q. Well, you told the police, "At no time did he touch me." Were you lying to the police then?

A. No. Well, I wasn't being fully truthful, but I wasn't lying.

Q. You told the police twice when you spoke to [redacted] that "at no time did he touch me." Didn't you say that to the police?

A. Yeah.

Q. And you're saying that that was not fully truthful. Is that what you're saying now?

A. Correct.

Q. And you're saying if you're not fully truthful, that's not a lie. Correct?

A. You took that out of context like really bad. I didn't mean like that. Touching my legs and -- he never kept his hands to himself the entire time. That's what I'm trying to say.

Q. You told the police, "At no times did he touch me." You agree with that, correct?

A. No, I don't agree with that, because he did touch me.

Q. Did you tell the police that he did not touch you, yes or no?

A. It's a possibility, but I do not remember.

Q. Okay. And you did not have any type of sex with Jeff, correct?

A. No.

Q. And you did not have any type of oral sex with Jeff, correct?

A. No.
Q. No type of intercourse with Jeff, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. All right. Let's talk about what happened after the massage was over.
A. Okay.
Q. After the massage, you told Epstein that you wanted to bring your twin sister back so she could make some money, correct?
A. Incorrect.
Q. Your twin sister is [redacted] right?
A. Correct.
Q. And you love [redacted] very much, don't you?
A. Yes.
Q. And when you left the house you were joking with the other girls, weren't you?
A. Incorrect.
Q. Well, when [redacted] and the other girl in the car that day made their statements to the police they told the police that you were joking afterwards. Are you saying that they were lying to the police about that?
A. No. But a question or -- questions from [redacted] -- like she asked me questions, but it wasn't joking. She was kind of like in a happy way, like, "Oh, what did you do? What did you do?" Like those kind of things, but it wasn't joking about it at all.

Q. You joked about it, didn't you?

A. No.

Q. You said to [redacted] that if you did this every weekend you'd be rich, didn't you?

A. No. That's what [redacted] told me.

Q. You didn't tell that to [redacted]

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered.

THE WITNESS: No.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. After you left Epstein's house you took the money and you went shopping with [redacted] and the other girl in the car, correct?

A. Incorrect. I didn't spend any of the money.

Q. You went to Marshall's, didn't you?

A. I went along, yes, but I didn't --

Q. You went shopping with them at Marshall's, didn't you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection.

THE WITNESS: I guess you could say that.

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Lack of predicate and foundation. Mischaracterization of earlier testimony.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. And [redacted] bought a purse, right?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were with her the whole time at Marshall's, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Now tell me about when the federal prosecutors told you about getting reimbursed.

A. I have no idea what you're talking about.

Q. Tell me about when the federal prosecutors spoke to you about getting money you feel you're entitled to from Mr. Epstein.

A. I don't know what you're talking about.

Q. Do you know who [redacted] [redacted] is?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever meet with any federal prosecutors?

A. I think -- yeah. I think they were -- I think they were like FBI.

Q. Uh-huh. Did you meet with federal prosecutors?

A. They came to my house one time, yes.

Q. When did they come to your house?

A. Very long ago.

Q. Was it this year, 2008?

A. It was not this year, no.
Q. Was it 2007?
A. I'd have to say at least two years ago or a year ago, yeah. So it would be 2007, 2006; but it was a while ago.
Q. How many federal prosecutors or FBI agents came to your house?
A. I'm trying to remember. I want to say four people came.
Q. Did they give you their business cards?
A. If they did, I don't remember, and they weren't toward me. Maybe my parents have them. I don't know.
Q. Did they give you their cell phone numbers?
A. No.
Q. Did you ever speak to them on their cell phones?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did they speak to your parents?
A. That's something you'd have to ask my parents.
Q. Do you know whether they spoke to your parent's?
A. No, sir.
Q. You have no idea?

A. No, sir.

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Asked and answered.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. So if I say the name to you [redacted], you don't know who that is?

A. No, sir.

Q. How many women and how many men came to your house?

A. I want to say two ladies and two guys.

Q. Did someone named [redacted] come to your house?

A. I don't know names, sir.

Q. Do you know who [redacted] is?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know who Jeffrey Herman is?

A. Yes.

Q. That's the lawyer who first sued Epstein on your behalf, right?

A. Yes.

Q. Has Mr. Herman advanced your family any money?

MR. LEOPOLD: Any conversations that you've had with Mr. Herman regarding that issue, you are not to disclose. If you've learned in some other fashion, you may answer.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

I wouldn't know.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You don't know?

A. No.

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Foundation. Attorney/client privilege.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. And you say you don't know who [redacted] is?

A. No, sir.

Q. Does it refresh your recollection that he's the number two prosecutor at the U.S. Attorney's Office?

A. No.

Q. That he's [redacted] boss?

A. No.

Q. Does it refresh your memory that he's the ex-partner of Jeff Herman, the first lawyer who sued you -- sued Mr. Epstein on your behalf for fifty million dollars?

A. No, sir. I don't know who he is.

Q. Without telling me any conversations that you've had with your lawyers, how is it that you selected Mr. Herman as your lawyer from the 81,000 members of the Florida Bar?

A. I did not select him.

Q. Who did?

A. My father.

Q. Did you ever meet Mr. Herman?

A. Once.

Q. Don't -- don't tell me what you discussed with him. Where did you meet him?

A. I was shopping in my -- he showed up at my friend's house.

Q. Whose house?

A. My friend [redacted].

Q. Is that [redacted] from the Quarterdeck Tavern?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you have a meeting with him at [redacted] house?

A. Yes. I guess you could say that.

Q. And who else was there?

A. My Aunt [redacted].

Q. And what was that meeting about?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. That calls for attorney/client privilege.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. What discussions did you have with

Mr. Herman in the presence of [redacted]?

A. None.

Q. What discussions did you have in the presence of her aunt?

A. Of my aunt?

MR. GOLDBERGER: It's the witness's aunt.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Oh, of your aunt.

A. The only one that we've ever discussed or ever had.

Q. And so you were in a conversation with Mr. Herman and your aunt?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you discussed privileged matters during that conversation?

MR. LEOPOLD: Object to the form. I think you might have to educate her on that question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You discussed the lawsuit?

A. Yes.

Q. Did [redacted] tell you about any conversations that she had with Mr. Herman?

A. As far as I'm concerned, she's never spoken or she's never had a conversation. She only opened the door and then left. She's the one who answered the door.

Q. Why did the meeting take place at [redacted] house?
A. I spent the night that night at her house.
Q. And when was this?
A. A while ago.
Q. How long ago?
A. A month and a half ago. I'm guessing.
Q. A month and a half ago?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. So was it before of after Mr. Herman filed the fifty-million-dollar lawsuit against Epstein?
A. After.
Q. Did you meet with an FBI agent named [redacted], a woman?
A. I don't know.
Q. Did Ms. [redacted] speak to you about getting reimbursed from Mr. Epstein?
A. I've never had a discussion with anyone about getting reimbursed from Mr. Epstein.
Q. Have you met with an agent named [redacted]?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. How about an agent named [redacted]?
A. No, sir.
Q. How about an agent named [redacted] [redacted]?

A. No.

Q. And we've learned that many of the girls, some of whom are as old as 23, were told by the government that they would get money at the end of the criminal prosecution. Does that sound familiar to you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Other than Mr. Leopold here -- I'm not asking about Mr. Herman either --

A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- did anyone ever discuss with you that you could get reimbursement for your damages?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you or any member --

MR. LEOPOLD: Are you referring to a criminal matter or a civil matter?

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Did you or any member --

MR. LEOPOLD: Excuse me. Let me object to the form of the question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Did you or any member of your family ever get a victim notification letter from anyone?

A. I no longer live at that residence and I wouldn't know.

Q. So your testimony is that you have never received a victim notification letter, correct?

rect.

Q. And your testimony is that you don't know if your parents have ever received a victim notification letter, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Have you given any evidence to prosecutors or law enforcement in this case?

A. What do you mean by evidence?

Q. Well. Anything that you can touch or feel.

A. No.

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection to the form of the question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. So you haven't given anything physical --

A. No.

Q. -- any item to any prosecutor, police officer or law enforcement agent, correct?

A. My cell phone four years ago or three years ago, but that's it.

Q. You gave your cell phone to whom?

A. [redacted].

Q. Did she keep it?

A. Ask her.

Q. You gave it to her and then you didn't get

Ph. [redacted] - Fax. [redacted]
1655 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd., Suite 500 - West Palm Beach, FL 33401

it back at the end of the meeting?

A. No. They -- yeah. No. They have it. I'm guessing. I don't have it.

Q. How much money are you hoping to get out of Mr. Epstein?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection to the form of the question. Attorney/client privilege.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. How much money are you hoping to get, you, yourself, hoping to get out of Epstein?

MR. LEOPOLD: Same. Same objection, attorney/client privilege.

Don't answer the question.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. I'm not asking about what your lawyer told you.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm instructing her not to answer the question, because any of those conversations involve her counsel.

MR. TEIN: Certify that.

MR. LEOPOLD: Please.

.....CERTIFIED QUESTION.....

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Now, [redacted] you lied to get out of this deposition, didn't you?

A. No, sir.
Q. You didn't want to come to court today and tell the story that you had told to the police under oath, did you?
MR. LEOPOLD: Object to the form of the question. Lack of foundation, predicate.
THE WITNESS: No. I have no problem coming here and talking to you.
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. And to avoid getting served with a lawful subpoena, you lied about your name, didn't you?
A. No.
Q. And in fact, just lying yourself wasn't enough, was it?
MR. LEOPOLD: Objection to the form of the question.
Don't answer it. It's not a question.
Object to the form of the question. Lack of foundation.
MR. TEIN: Are you instructing her not to answer?
MR. LEOPOLD: I am.
MR. TEIN: Certify it.
MR. LEOPOLD: Please.

.....CERTIFIED QUESTION.....

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You asked your co-workers --

MR. LEOPOLD: It's vague and ambiguous.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You asked your co-workers at the Quarterdeck Tavern to lie for you, didn't you?

A. No. I informed my boss about what was going on and he told me that he would help in any way that he can.

Q. Okay. You got your friend [redacted] to lie by switching name tags with you, correct?

A. Incorrect. It was a coincidence that same night she was not wearing her name tag; she was wearing mine. But I was also not wearing -- I was wearing my name tag. Everyone switches name tags. It just so happens it was a coincidence that same night the people came with the papers.

MR. TEIN: Will you put up Exhibit 18-001?

MR. GOLDBERGER: And mark 18-001 for identification purposes to this deposition.

MR. LEOPOLD: None of them have been marked yet. Can we mark them and put them as attachment to the depositions? Because I think you've shown three photos now. And this is the only one that has been marked for identification yet.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] --

MR. LEOPOLD: Hold on just a second. Just so the record is clear --

MR. TEIN: I'm not speaking to you.

MR. LEOPOLD: Okay. Then don't speak to me then. But I'll speak to Mr. Goldberger, perhaps. But at least for the record, can we put on the record what the previous two photographs were marked for identification?

MR. GOLDBERGER: We will make sure that the record is clear at the end of the deposition so that there's no ambiguity.

MR. LEOPOLD: Thank you.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] I've put a photograph marked 18-001 up on the screen. Do you see that?

A. Yup.

Q. Who is that in the photo?

A. [redacted] on the left and me on the right.

Q. [redacted] right?

A. Yes.

Q. [redacted] your friend at the Quarterdeck Tavern, right?

A. Yes.

Q. [redacted] your friend, who you say the day that the process servers went to serve you with a subpoena for this deposition, just happened -- just by coincidence, was wearing your name tag?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And just by coincidence, you were wearing her name tag, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Your testimony under oath is that's just a coincidence, right?

A. Total honesty.

Q. It just happens to be the day that you were going to be served with a subpoena, correct?

A. That wasn't the first day that --

MR. LEOPOLD: [redacted] just answer the question. It calls for a yes or no.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You said that wasn't the first day you were going to be -- you thought you were being served with a subpoena, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. You knew before the day that you switched name tags with [redacted] that the process servers were looking for you, didn't you?

A. No. I knew --

MR. LEOPOLD: Just answer it. It calls for a yes or no.

THE WITNESS: Okay. No.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Now you can explain the answer that your counsel stopped you from explaining.

A. Okay. I work at Quarterdeck and people were telling me that people were looking for me. So yes, I was aware that people were searching for me. But I had no idea who they were or what their intentions were. But I thought they were just people I didn't want to talk to. So I just didn't want to talk to them. And every time they'd come to work I wasn't there. And so happens the night that they came in me and my friend switched name tags. No big deal.

Q. That's a lie, isn't it?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Don't answer that question. That's harassment and I will not allow it. He could ask the questions and we'll allow a jury to make that determination, but not counsel.

I will not allow her to answer that question.

MR. TEIN: Certify it.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'll certify it.

.....CERTIFIED QUESTION.....

She's answered that question. She's explained it five tines already. The fact that Counsel doesn't like the answer, that's a different query.

MR. TEIN: Stop making speaking objections.

MR. LEOPOLD: I'm not. I'm not going to put up with it, because it's in appropriate, Jack, and you know it. I will not allow Counsel to berate a witness, whether it's in a criminal case or a civil case, whether my client or --

MR. TEIN: Calm down.

MR. LEOPOLD: Excuse me.

No, I'm not going to allow it. That is not proper.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Okay.

MR. LEOPOLD: If he wants to say that she's lying after asking it five times and her explaining in great detail, he can do that. But I'm not going to allow her to answer, nor be harassed by him. It's improper.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Okay. But your response that Counsel doesn't like the question -- or doesn't like the answer -- just let me finish.

MR. LEOPOLD: Absolutely. I wasn't going to interrupt you.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Just requires us to say we like the answer to that question. And it's not you and I or you and Mr. Tein who are testifying here. It's the witness.

MR. LEOPOLD: Fine. But after the sixth time of asking the same question and then coming back and pointing a finger at her and saying, "You're a liar" --

MR. TEIN: That didn't happen.

MR. LEOPOLD: That's fine. But I'm not going to allow her to answer that question, because she's answered that same question and has explained it.

Now Counsel might be sitting there rubbing his head with a migraine. That's his problem. But if he can't ask a question appropriately in a professional manner, we will leave. I will not allow her to be berated like that.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Actually, we're very happy with the answer.

MR. LEOPOLD: That's great.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Do you want us to get into that?

MR. TEIN: Ted --

MR. LEOPOLD: This is really big stuff that you're going through. But that's fine; just ask your question and move on. But do it one time. If you don't understand it, I'll let you follow up, but I'm not going to allow you to ask the same question time and again and then call her a liar. Just ask the question, get the answer and move to the next subject matter.

MR. TEIN: Ted, I'm sitting right across the table from you.

MR. LEOPOLD: Yes, sir.

MR. TEIN: Please be quiet. Don't yell.

MR. LEOPOLD: I will not be quiet.

MR. TEIN: Stop yelling.

MR. LEOPOLD: Lewis, when I'm yelling you'll know it. I will not --

MR. TEIN: My name is not Lewis.

MR. LEOPOLD: I thought your first name was Lewis, Mr. Tein.

MR. TEIN: You watched me for three days at the evidentiary hearing where you sat in the back of the courtroom. You should know who I am.

MR. LEOPOLD: Well, that's the impression you must have made in the courtroom.

I will not be quiet.

MR. TEIN: That's obnoxious. Stop being obnoxious. It's stupid. Let's go ahead with the questions.

MR. LEOPOLD: I will make the record.

MR. TEIN: Let's get on with the questions.

MR. LEOPOLD: Do you need a break?

(Thereupon, a recess was taken.)

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Okay. [redacted] after you told your manager at the Quarterdeck Tavern everything that was going on and he told you he would help you any way he could, he hid you in the kitchen from the process servers, correct?

A. Incorrect.

Q. Isn't it true that lying to avoid service is a meaningless lie to you, [redacted]

A. Incorrect.

Q. What is your manager's name?

A. I have three. Would you like to know all --

Q. Who's the one who lied for you?

A. [redacted]

Q. And what did [redacted] do to lie for you?

A. Said I wasn't there.

Q. And who did he tell wasn't there?

A. Ask him.

Q. Where were you when [redacted] told this someone that you were not at the Quarterdeck Tavern?

A. Eating nachos.

Q. At the Quarterdeck Tavern?

A. Yes.

Q. What did you do so that [redacted] would lie to the process servers for you?

A. Nothing.

Q. You just got him to lie for you, didn't you?

A. No. I had no influence on him saying I wasn't there.

Q. He took that upon himself?

Isn't it true that Mr. Epstein's process servers had to ask the police to get you out of the restaurant so that they could serve you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. Lack of foundation, predicate.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You can answer the question.

MR. LEOPOLD: If you know. Don't guess.

THE WITNESS: No. Can you repeat the question?

MR. TEIN: Don't coach.

MR. LEOPOLD: Don't guess.

MR. TEIN: That's a coaching.

MR. LEOPOLD: No. That's an instruction to the client.

MR. TEIN: No. You don't do that.

THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question?

MR. LEOPOLD: Let me just state for the record --

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Once the police -- isn't it true that Mr. Epstein's process servers had to ask the police to get you out of the restaurant so that they could serve you?

A. Incorrect. My boss called the police.

Q. And once the police showed up, to stop you from lying to avoid service, you made up another lie that the process servers had harassed you. Isn't that correct?

A. Incorrect.

Q. You lie all the time, don't you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection.

THE WITNESS: Incorrect.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. You have a MySpace page, don't you?

A. No longer do I have a MySpace page. I deleted it.

Q. When did you delete your MySpace page?
A. A couple days ago.
Q. Who told you to take your MySpace page down a couple of days ago?
A. Nobody. I'm sick and tired of MySpace.
Q. You all of a sudden got sick and tired of MySpace and just a few days before this deposition you decided to delete your MySpace page, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Is that your testimony under oath?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you take your MySpace page down because you thought the government might subpoena it?
A. Incorrect.
Q. Hadn't your MySpace page been up for over three months before you took it down?
A. Correct. But I also had made tons of MySpaces over the last years. I just get tired of them and delete them because -- drama -- and make new ones.
Q. We're going to talk about that.
So you deleted your MySpace page after you were already under subpoena for this deposition, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. What about the MySpace page didn't you want us to see, [redacted]

A. Nothing.
Q. Well, we're going to come back to MySpace in a second.
A. You do that.
Q. [redacted] I'm going to ask you some questions about why you lie about your age so often, okay?
MR. LEOPOLD: Objection to the form. Argumentative.
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. You lie about your age all the time, don't you?
MR. LEOPOLD: Objection, argumentative.
THE WITNESS: Incorrect.
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. You lie about your age to get body piercings, don't you?
A. Incorrect.
Q. You have body piercings, don't you?
A. Yes.
Q. You have four body piercings; isn't that right?
A. Five.
Q. Other than the piercings on your ears -- I'm not talking about that --
A. Oh, then no; just one.

Q. And where is the one body piercing?
A. Belly.
Q. When did you get that?
A. For my birthday, with my stepmother and my father.
Q. And when was that?
A. When I was 14.
Q. Okay. So you had that body piercing when you met Epstein, correct?
A. It might have been, or maybe that -- yeah, either my 14th birthday or my 15th. I honestly don't remember.
Q. Now you've lied about your age to get into bars by using driver's licenses that aren't yours, correct?
A. Incorrect.
Q. Are you swearing under oath that you've never done that?
A. Yes, I swear under oath.
Q. And you've lied about your age to buy beer, correct?
A. Incorrect.
Q. You're swearing under oath that you've never lied to stores about your age?
A. I've never lied to a store about my age or anything.

Q. You try to look much older than you are, don't you?

A. Incorrect.

Q. And you've lied about your age on your MySpace pages, don't you?

A. Incorrect.

Q. All right. Let's look at Exhibit 26-01 one.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: 26-001?

MR. TEIN: Yes.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. On this page you lied to everyone that you were 18, didn't you?

A. Correct.

Q. Let's go to Exhibit 33.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: That's 33-001?

TEIN: Correct.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. On this page you lied to everyone that you were 19, didn't you?

A. Incorrect.

MR. LEOPOLD: Just answer the question.

THE WITNESS: Oh, incorrect.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Now you can explain your answer.
A. I know that I have seen all of these and I know that this one is mine.
Can you go down?
MR. LEOPOLD: Just for the record, you're pointing to the photo.
THE WITNESS: I'm pointing to --
BY MR. TEIN:
Q. You're pointing to the one where it says your age is 18?
A. Correct.
Q. That's yours, right?
A. Correct. That's mine from a couple years ago that I have not been on, because I don't use that. Please keep going down, please. And I think that's it, because there's no one -- just that one is mine.
Q. So the one you pointed to where it says your age is 18, that's yours, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And when you wrote 18 as your age on your MySpace page, that was a lie, wasn't it?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you lie about your MySpace page back then because you couldn't post on MySpace unless you were 18?

A. Correct. There was a rule many years ago that you had to be 18 to have a MySpace.

Q. So you lied about your age so you could post on MySpace, right?

A. Yes.

Q. Let's go back to the top one on this page, 33-01.

Are you testifying now under oath that this MySpace page where the headline says, "Twins do have more fun," and the location is given as Lox, abbreviation for Loxahatchee, and the age is 19, and it says [redacted] [redacted] is it your testimony that you did not post that?

A. Correct.

Q. Now let's go back to the one that you were pointing to before on this page, where it says your age is 18 and you lied about your age to post MySpace, okay?

A. Uh-huh, yes.

Q. All right. Why did you finally put your true age on your MySpace profile four days before you were scheduled to testify before the Grand Jury?

A. I don't know what you're talking about.

MR. LEOPOLD: If you don't understand, ask him to ask the question again.

MR. TEIN: Don't coach.

THE WITNESS: I don't know which MySpace you're talking about.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. The MySpace page that you're just pointing to, where it says you were 18.

A. Yes.

Q. And you were lying about your age, right?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Why did you finally post your true age on your MySpace profile --

A. Uh --

Q. -- four days before you were scheduled to testify before the Grand Jury?

A. I honestly don't know which MySpace, because I've had like a bazillion MySpaces, and in that year, I had two, that one and another one, and that one's been deleted. So I don't know which one you're referring to.

Q. You remember that you changed your age on your MySpace page from 18 to your true age just four days before you went and testified in the Grand Jury?

A. No.

Q. You don't remember that.

A. No.

Q. Do you remember Detective [redacted]? Did you ever meet a Detective [redacted]?

A. I don't know the names.

Q. How many different detectives have you met with on this case from Palm Beach?

A. Probably a good six or seven, maybe.

Q. Did one of the detectives tell you before you testified in the Grand Jury that you should take your MySpace age and put your true age?

A. No.

Q. Didn't Detective [redacted] have to come to your house to pick you up to get you to testify in front of the Grand Jury?

A. Possibly; maybe because I didn't have a rice; I was only 14 or 15 at the time.

Q. Your mom didn't drive you?

A. No.

Q. Stepmom didn't drive you?

A. I think my dad. Oh, my dad; my dad drove me.

Q. Your dad drove you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. So your testimony is Detective [redacted] did not drive you, correct?

MR. LEOPOLD: Objection. /asked and answered.

THE WITNESS: No. I'm pretty sure my dad drove me, because he was there with me.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. Did any detective tell you to change your age on your MySpace page, to put your true age?

A. No, sir.

Q. Now you also lied on your MySpace page about your income, didn't you?

A. Yes.

Q. And you lied, saying that you made a quarter million dollars a year and higher, correct?

A. As a joke, yes.

Q. That was a lie, wasn't it?

A. Yes.

Q. And you also lied on your MySpace page, saying that you were married, didn't you?

A. Possibly. And that might have been an error on my part.

Q. Now you also lie to the police, don't you?

A. No.

Q. Well, you lied to the police in your tape-recorded statement that you gave to Detective [redacted] three years ago, didn't you?

A. To my knowledge, no, I did not.

Q. Well, you lied to the police when you accused Mr. Epstein of attempting to murder your father, didn't you?

A. No. I never heard a statement saying that Mr. Epstein tried to murder my father.

Q. You made that statement, didn't you?

MR. LEOPOLD: Do you have a statement to show her? That's been asked and answered.

MR. TEIN: I'm sorry. I didn't hear the witness' answer, Mr. Leopold.

BY MR. TEIN:

Q. [redacted] you told the police, didn't you, that Mr. Epstein almost killed your father, didn't you?

A. No.

Q. Three years ago, before Mr. Epstein even knew about this investigation, you told the police that Epstein had "already come to my dad's house and did something to my dad's tires and my dad almost died. I didn't want my dad to get hurt, because Jeff already almost killed him."

Didn't you say that?

A. Not to my knowledge or recollection. I have never said anything like that.

Q. That would have been a complete lie, wouldn't it have been?

A. Yeah.

The Honorable Jeffrey Colbath

Re; State of Florida v. Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Judge Colbath:

On behalf of Mr. Epstein, we strongly object to the proposed order submitted by Deanna Shullman on behalf of the Palm Beach Post. The court has already entered an order dated June 25, 2009 on:

a) Non-party, [redacted].'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records

b) Palm Beach Post's Motions to Intervene and petition for Access

c) [redacted] Motions to Intervene and for an order to Unseal Records

d) Jeffrey Epstein's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential.

The only matter before the court today was Defendant Epstein's Motion for a Stay which the court denied. Contrary to the assertions in the proposed order submitted to you by the Palm Beach Post, the court made a specific finding that the Defendant Epstein has met his burden of irreparable harm. Additionally, all of the other matters contained in the proposed order were addressed in the court's Order of June 25, 2009.

It is the position of Defendant Epstein that the order on today's Motion to Stay should simply state that the Defendant's Motion to Stay is denied. In this way, the court's order of June 25, 2009 on the merits of the issue and the order of the court denying the stay motion can properly be reviewed by the Fourth District Court of Appeal.

Very truly yours,

JACK A. GOLDBERGER

vs.
JEFFREY EPSTEIN,
Defendant

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO STAY DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

THIS MATTER came before the Court at a hearing on June 26, 2009, on Jeffrey Epstein's Motion to Stay the Disclosure of the Non-Prosecution Agreement and the Addendum thereto. The Court notes the parties were present and represented by counsel. Based upon argument, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that

1. The Motion to Stay is denied.

2. The Clerk of Court shall make the documents available for disclosure at noon on Thursday, July 2, 2009. It is the intent of the Court to give the Defendant, Mr. Epstein, and his attorney an opportunity to have this Court's orders reviewed by the 4th DCA. If the Clerk gets no direction from the Appellate Court, she shall disclose the documents on the date referred to above.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO. 2008CF009381A
DIVISION W

v.

JEFFREY EPSTEIN,

Defendant.

EPSTEIN'S MOTION TO STAY DISCLOSURE OF THE NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT AND ADDENDUM PENDING REVIEW

Defendant, JEFFREY EPSTEIN ("EPSTEIN"), by and through his undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 9.310, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, moves to stay disclosure of the Non-Prosecution Agreement and Addendum (collectively, the "NPA") pending review, and states:

1. In the event the Court grants Nonparty [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records, grants Palm Beach Post's Motion to Intervene and Petition for Access and/or denies EPSTEIN's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential, EPSTEIN moves to stay the disclosure of the NPA pending review by the Fourth District Court of Appeals.

2. Rule 9.310(a), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, provides in pertinent part, "…a party seeking to stay a final or non-final order pending review shall file a motion in the lower tribunal, which shall have continuing jurisdiction, in its discretion , to grant, modify or deny such relief."

3. A stay pending review is warranted under the circumstances because of the irreparable harm that would be caused by disclosure of the NPA including, but not limited to, substantial injury to a party by disclosing matters protected by common law and privacy rights, substantial injury to a compelling government interest, substantial injury to innocent third parties and a serious imminent threat to the fair, impartial and orderly administration of justice as set forth in the hearing record date June 25, 2009.

4. In Mariner Health Care of Nashville, Inc. v. Baker, 739 [redacted]. 2d 608, 609 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999), defendant Mariner filed a petition for writ of certiorari after the trial court compelled it to produce certain incident reports. Mariner also moved for a stay pending review pursuant to Fla. R. App. Pro. 9.310. The trial court advised the parties that Mariner would be required to submit the incident reports to the court under seal as a prerequisite to a stay. Mariner refused to produce the documents under seal and the trial court denied the motion for stay and imposed daily fines until the documents were produced. Id. The First District Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court's order and noted

> Mariner has failed to explain how the production of the reports under seal would result in any prejudice. To the contrary, the records will be protected from disclosure during the entire course of the certiorari proceeding before this court. No harm can be done if this court ultimately determines that the reports are protected by the work product privilege.

Id. at 610.

5. In the instant case the NPA is already filed under seal. Should the Court grant Nonparty [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records, grant Palm Beach Post's Motion to Intervene and Petition for Access and/or deny

EFTA00231122

EPSTEIN's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential, EPSTEIN requests the Court exercise its discretion under Fla. R. App. Pro. 9.310(a) and enter a stay pending review by the 4th DCA.

6. No harm will be done if the NPA remains under seal pending appellate review. To the contrary, EPSTEIN will suffer irreparable harm if a stay is not entered and the NPA is disclosed to the public.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, respectfully requests that if the Court grants Nonparty [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records, grants Palm Beach Post's Motion to Intervene and Petition for Access and/or denies EPSTEIN's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential, the Court enter a stay pending review and grant any additional relief the Court deems just and proper.

CASE NO. _____

MOTION TO FILE UNDER SEAL

Petitioner/defendant, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, moves this Court for an order allowing him to file the September 24, 2007 Non-Prosecution Agreement ("Agreement") and October 29, 2007 Addendum to the Non-Prosecution Agreement ("Addendum"), which are the subject of his contemporaneously filed emergency petition for certiorari and emergency motion to review denial of stay, under seal.

1. The Agreement and Addendum were executed by petitioner/defendant and the United States Attorney's Office in September 2007. They are attached in the sealed envelope.

2. The Agreement contains a confidentiality clause, precluding it from being disclosed to third parties or made part of any public record. Federal District Judge Marra has twice ordered the documents not disclosed to third parties.

3. Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Judge Deborah Pucillo ordered Mr. Epstein's attorney to file the documents under seal during his plea conference on June 30, 2008.

4. On June 25, 2009, Judge Colbath granted non-parties' motions to vacate the order sealing records and ordered them disclosed.

5. On June 26, 2009, Judge Colbath denied petitioner's motion for stay, and ordered the Clerk of Court to make the documents available for disclosure at noon on Thursday, July 2, 2009, unless this Court granted a stay.

6. It is necessary that this Court review the Agreement and Addendum in conjunction with these proceedings. To protect the purpose of the petition for writ of certiorari pending before this Court, petitioner asks to file the documents under seal.

Accordingly, petitioner requests that this Court grant this motion and allow him to file the Agreement and Addendum, which are separate from the appendix to his emergency petition and motion for review, under seal.

LT. CASE NO. 2008 CF 009381A

PETITIONER'S EMERGENCY MOTION TO REVIEW ORDER DENYING STAY OF DISCLOSURE OF FEDERAL NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT AND ADDENDUM

Petitioner, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, pursuant to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.310(f), requests this Court review the order denying his Motion to Stay Disclosure of Federal Non-Prosecution Agreement and Addendum pending his contemporaneously filed petition for certiorari and grant the stay.[1] Mr. Epstein seeks review of the stay denial on emergency basis. The court stayed disclosure until noon on Thursday, July 2, 2009 [redacted] Mr. Epstein could seek review in this Court. Absent a stay by this Court, the documents will be disclosed and there will be no adequate remedy.

[1] Petitioner, Jeffrey Epstein is referred to by proper name. Non-party interveners, [redacted]., [redacted]. and The Post are referred to as [redacted]., [redacted]. and The Post. All emphasis is supplied unless indicated otherwise. The following symbol is used: A – Petitioner's appendix.

EFTA00231133

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

In 2006, a Florida state grand jury indicted Jeffrey Epstein for felony solicitation of prostitution. He was also charged by information with procuring persons under 18 for prostitution. The United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida began a federal grand jury investigation into allegations arising out of the same conduct.

In September 2007, the United States Attorney's Office and Mr. Epstein negotiated and signed a non-prosecution agreement (A-7:38).[2] The non-prosecution agreement contains an express confidentiality provision and makes specific reference to a grand jury investigation of Mr. Epstein (A-7:38). The United States Attorney's Office agreed to defer the federal criminal action on the condition that Mr. Epstein comply with many obligations, beginning with his pleading guilty to certain state charges in the Florida criminal action (A-7:38). A breach of any condition violates the non-prosecution agreement and criminal charges will resume (A-7:39-40).

On June 30, 2008, Mr. Epstein pled guilty to felony solicitation of prostitution and procuring a minor under 18 for prostitution in the Florida criminal action (A-7; A-

[2] The non-prosecution agreement and addendum are separately filed with a motion to seal.

EFTA00231134

8). Judge Deborah Dale Pucillo, sitting for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, accepted the plea (A-7).

During the plea conference, Judge Pucillo asked Mr. Epstein whether any promises had been made to him besides the terms of the state plea (A-7:37-38). Mr. Epstein's attorney advised the court of the "confidential [non-prosecution agreement with the United States Attorney's Office] that the parties have agreed to." (A-7:38). He informed the court that Mr. Epstein's failure to comply with the terms of the state plea would violate the non-prosecution agreement (A-7:39-40).

Judge Pucillo then instructed Mr. Epstein's attorney that she wanted "a sealed copy of that filed in this case." (A-7:40). When Mr. Epstein's attorney tried to comply and file the non-prosecution agreement with the court, the clerk advised him an order was necessary. On July 2, 2008, the court entered an "Agreed Order Sealing Document in Court File" (A-9). An addendum to the non-prosecution agreement was filed under seal on August 25, 2008.

On July 7, 2008, Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 filed an independent action in the federal court to compel production of the non-prosecution agreement (A-1). Mr. Epstein was not a party to the proceeding, but the United States Attorney's Office opposed disclosure (A-2). On August 16, 2008, Judge Marra of the Southern District ordered the United States Attorney's Office to produce the non-prosecution agreement to the Does' attorneys and to any other victims and their counsel, provided they not disclose the terms to anyone else (A-2). As a result of this order, all victims, including those with civil suits against Mr. Epstein, have access to the non-prosecution agreement and addendum. They just cannot share it with others.

In September 2008, Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 filed motions in the federal action to unseal the non-prosecution agreement and addendum (A-3). The United States Attorney's Office opposed disclosure noting its confidentiality provision, the movant's right to access the agreement, and Judge Marra's protective order to which the movants voiced no objection (A-4). On February 12, 2009,[3] Judge Marra denied the motion, stating in pertinent part:

> Petitioners' mere desire to discuss the Agreement with third parties is insufficient, in and of itself, to warrant the granting of such relief. If and when Petitioners have a specific tangible need to be relieved of the restrictions, they should file an appropriate motion. If a specific tangible need arises in a civil case Petitioners or other alleged victims are pursuing against Epstein, relief should be sought in that case, with notice to the United States, the other party to the Agreement.

(A-6).

[3] The order is mistakenly dated February 12, 2008 (A-6).

EFTA00231136

Rather than seeking relief from Judge Marra in federal court, non-party [redacted]., a victim of Mr. Epstein, filed a motion in the state criminal action on May 12, 2009, seeking to intervene and unseal the non-prosecution agreement and addendum pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420(d)(5) (A-10). E.W. alleged that the proper procedures had not been followed in sealing the documents (A-10). [redacted]. claimed these documents are relevant to her civil action against Mr. Epstein; that she, as a member of the public, has a right to have them unsealed; and that continued sealing violates public policy (A-10).

On June 1, 2009, Palm Beach Newspapers d/b/a The Palm Beach Post ("The Post") moved in the state criminal action to intervene and access the non-prosecution agreement and addendum (A-11). The Post alleged that the procedures for sealing had not been followed and that "good cause exists for unsealing the documents because of their public significance." (A-11:3).

Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Judge Jeffrey Colbath heard [redacted].'s and The Post's motions in the state criminal action on June 10, 2009 (A-13). The court granted both motions to intervene, but deferred ruling on the motions to unseal pending a later hearing (A-13).

EFTA00231137

The next day, June 11, 2009, Mr. Epstein filed a Motion to Make Court Records Confidential (A-13). Mr. Epstein alleged that the documents should remain confidential to prevent a serious imminent threat to the fair, impartial, and orderly administration of justice; to protect a compelling government interest; to avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties; and to avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law and privacy right, not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed (A-13).

Also on June 11, non-party [redacted]. filed motions to intervene and for an order unsealing the records, alleging grounds similar to non-parties [redacted]. and The Palm Beach Post (A-12).

Judge Colbath heard [redacted].'s, The Post's, and [redacted].'s motions to unseal and Mr. Epstein's motion for confidentiality on June 25, 2009 (A-16). The court granted [redacted].'s, The Post's, and [redacted].'s motions and denied Mr. Eptsein's (A-16:2). The court concluded:

> At the time the State court took these matters under seal, the proper procedure for sealing such documents had not been followed. Neither the State of Florida nor the U.S. Government nor Mr. Epstein have [sic] presented sufficient evidence to warrant the sealing of documents currently held by the Court.

(A-16:2; A-18:43). The court ruled that "[t]his Order is in no way to be interpreted as permission to not comply with U.S. District Court Kenneth Marra's previous Orders." (A-16:3). Subsequent to this oral ruling, Mr. Epstein provided the court with a Motion to Stay (A-14). The court stayed disclosure until it could hear Mr. Epstein's motion to stay, scheduled for the next day (A-16:3).

The court heard Mr. Epstein's stay motion on June 26, 2009 (A-19). Mr. Epstein alleged that he will be irreparably harmed by disclosure of the non-prosecution agreement and addendum (A-14). No harm will be done if the documents remain under seal pending review by this Court (A-14). The court denied the motion, but stayed disclosure until noon on Thursday, July 2, [redacted] Mr. Epstein could seek emergency review of the denial in this Court (A-17).

ARGUMENT

Whether to grant a stay is discretionary with the trial court. See Pabian v. Pabian, 469 [redacted]. 2d 189, 191 (Fla. 4th DCA 1985). Factors courts consider in deciding whether to grant a stay pending appellate proceedings include the likelihood of success on the merits, the likelihood of harm if not stay is granted, and the remedial quality of any such harm. See Perez v. Perez, 769 [redacted]. 2d 389, 391 n.4 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999); see also State ex rel. Price v. McCord, 380 [redacted]. 2d 1037, 1038 n.3 (Fla. 1980). The trial court agreed that Mr. Epstein had established irreparable harm (A-17:16), denied a stay.

The trial court abused its discretion by denying a stay. As set forth in the contemporaneously filed petition for certiorari, Mr. Epstein will likely succeed on the merits. The trial court departed from the essential requirements of law in granting the motions to unseal the confidential federal non-prosecution agreement and addendum between the United States Attorney's Office and Mr. Epstein.

These documents are subject to confidentiality provisions, which the federal court recognized and enforced when it permitted disclosure to the attorneys for Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 and to any other victims and their counsel, provided they not disclose the terms to anyone else. Disclosure violates a condition of the agreement, thereby vitiating the agreement between Mr. Epstein and the United States Attorney. Disclosure also violates Judge Marra's two orders in the federal district court, denying disclosure to the parties. Judge Colbath paid lip service to this principle in stating that his "Order is in no way to be interpreted as permission to not comply with U.S. District Court Kenneth Marra's previous Orders." (A-16:3). But there is no way disclosure does not inherently violate Judge Marra's orders.

The principle of supremacy required that the state court defer to the federal court on this issue. U.S. Const. Art. I § 8. These documents reference federal grand jury proceedings, which are protected under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e)(2)--an attorney for the government "must not disclose a matter occurring before the grand jury." As a consequence of the confidentiality provisions of the non-prosecution agreement, information that disclosed the existence and the subject matter of a federal grand jury proceeding which itself is protected by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e) remains non-public, thus effectuating the privacy concerns addressed by the United States Supreme Court in Douglas and other cases. See e.g. Douglas Oil Co. v. Petrol Stops Northwest, 441 U.S. 211, 228-30 (1979). Under Rule 6(e), only a federal court can, absent findings, order the unsealing of federal grand jury proceedings. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(3)(F), (G). Judge Colbath did not address this principle. Nor did Judge Colbath address the principle of comity, which required that the state court defer to the federal court, which has twice denied disclosure to third parties, on this issue.

The court erred in concluding that the non-prosecution and agreement were not properly sealed. The non-parties filed their motions to unseal pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420(d) (A-10, A-11, A-12). They alleged that Judge Pucillo failed to properly seal the documents under the procedure set forth in that rule (Id.). By its terms, however, the procedures for sealing in Rule 2.420(d) (titled, "Request to Make Circuit and County Court Records in Non-Criminal Cases

Confidential") do not apply to criminal cases. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420, 2007 Court Commentary ("New subdivision (d) applies to motions that seek to make court records in non-criminal cases confidential in accordance with subdivision (c)(9)."); see also In re Amendments to Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420--Sealing of Court Records & Dockets, 954 [redacted]. 2d 16, 17 & 23 (Fla. 2007) (declining to adopt specific procedure regarding the sealing of court records in criminal cases and referring the matter to rules committees for further study). Under the version of rule 2.420 in effect when the documents were sealed, there is no procedure for criminal proceedings.

Even under the prior version of rule 2.420, Judge Pucillo was not required to give prior notice of her intent to seal documents during the plea hearing. Committee Notes on the 1995 amendments discussing a prior version of Rule 2.420(c)(9)(D), make clear that advance notice is not always required:

> Unlike the closure of court proceedings, which has been held to require notice and hearing prior to closure, see Miami Herald Publishing Co. v. Lewis, 426 [redacted]. 2d 1 (Fla. 1982), the closure of court records has not required prior notice. Requiring prior notice of closure of a court record may be impractical and burdensome in emergency circumstances or when closure of a court record requiring confidentiality is requested during a judicial proceeding.

The local administrative rule the non-parties cite, 15th Judicial Circuit

EFTA00231142

Administrative Order 2.303, is not applicable either. This Administrative Order addresses the procedures for sealing criminal and non-criminal court records, but was not adopted until September 29, 2008--months after Judge Pucillo sua sponte ordered the non-prosecution agreement and its addendum filed and sealed. The Administrative Order in effect when Judge Pucillo sealed these documents was 2.032-10/06. As explained above, the procedures designated therein would not apply since Judge Pucillo filed and sealed the documents sua sponte, not by motion. To the extent that the Administrative Order conflicts with the version of rule 2.420 then in effect, the rule prevails. Judge Pucillo was not required to follow Administrative Order 2.032 when she sealed the documents in June 2008.

Assuming compliance with procedures for confidentiality was required, Mr. Epstein met them. At all times, the rules of judicial administration provided that court records "shall be confidential" if a court has determined that confidentiality is required. Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9). Rule 2.420(c)(9) provides:

> . . . .
>
> (9) Any court record determined to be confidential in case decision or court rule on the grounds that
>
> (A) confidentiality is required to

EFTA00231143

> (v) avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties;
>
> (vi) avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed;
>
> (vii) comply with established public policy set forth in the Florida or United States Constitution or statutes or Florida rules or case law;
>
> (B) the degree, duration, and manner of confidentiality ordered by the court shall be no broader than necessary to protect the interests set forth in subdivision (A); and
> (C) no less restrictive measures are available to protect the interests set forth in subdivision (A).

Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9). Thus, courts are required to seal court records upon a finding that closure is need to "prevent a serious and imminent threat to the fair, impartial, and orderly administration of justice," to "avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties" or to "avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed." Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9)(i), (v), (vi).

Mr. Epstein's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential satisfied these requirements; thus, the court erred in denying it. Mr. Epstein alleged three separate grounds for confidentiality. He first argued that confidentiality is necessary to protect a compelling government interest. He satisfied this prong since the United States Attorney's Office has a compelling interest in having the confidentiality provision of its contract with Mr. Epstein honored. Judge Marra already balanced that interest against arguments for disclosure and struck a balance by requiring disclosure to plaintiffs and their lawyers, but not to third parties. Secondly, Mr. Epstein contended that maintaining confidentiality will avoid injury to innocent third parties, i.e., the other persons the United States Attorney's Office agreed not to prosecute who will be harmed if the documents are unsealed. Thirdly, Mr. Epstein demonstrated that confidentiality is necessary to avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed. Disclosure of these documents is not generally inherent in a state court plea hearing and will violate Mr. Epstein's common law right to confidentiality.

Granting a stay would vindicate the values and purposes of grand jury secrecy which will be implicated, if a stay is denied, by the public disclosure of a confidential agreement that references matters related to a federal grand jury investigation. There is no prejudice to non-parties/interveners [redacted]., [redacted]. and The Post, if disclosure is stayed pending the outcome of Mr. Epstein's emergency petition for certiorari. Mr. Epstein, on the other hand, will suffer irreparable harm once the documents are produced--a fact the trial court recognized (A-19:16).

CONCLUSION

This Court should grant review and order the trial court to stay the order unsealing the non-prosecution agreement and addendum pending certiorari review.

CERTIFICATION OF EXISTENCE OF EMERGENCY

Undersigned counsel certifies that the subject of this motion constitutes an emergency. The trial court's order at noon on July 2, 2009, provides that the confidential federal non-prosecution agreement and addendum will be disclosed. Once these documents are disclosed, irreparable harm will result.

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

_____/

CASE NO. _____
PALM BEACH
LT. CASE NO. 2008 CF 009381A

EMERGENCY PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Petitioner, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, seeks a writ of certiorari pursuant to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.100(c)(1), to review an order compelling disclosure of a confidential federal non-prosecution agreement and addendum, pursuant to motions to unseal, filed by non-parties, [redacted]., [redacted]. and Palm Beach Newspapers d/b/a The Palm Beach Post ("the Post").[1] The confidential federal non-prosecution agreement and addendum between the United States Attorney's Office and Mr. Epstein were filed under seal in state court at the express directive of the judge who heard Mr. Epstein's guilty plea--"I want a sealed copy of that filed in this case"--and not by motion of any party (A-7:40). Federal Court Judge Marra has twice denied public access to these documents.

Mr. Epstein seeks certiorari review on an emergency basis.[2] The court stayed disclosure until noon on Thursday, July 2, 2009. Once the documents are produced, there will be no adequate remedy.

I. JURISDICTION

Mr. Epstein seeks to invoke the certiorari jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure 9.030(b)(2)(A) and 9.100. Certiorari review is appropriate where, as here, an order unsealing a court record departs from the essential requirements of law and causes material injury that cannot be remedied on appeal after final judgment. See Allstate Ins. Co. v. Langston, 655 [redacted]. 2d 91, 94 (Fla. 1995).

This Court should exercise its certiorari jurisdiction to quash the order unsealing the non-prosecution agreement and addendum. Production of these documents will cause irreparable harm ("cat out of the bag") to Mr. Epstein. The order departs from the essential requirements of law because [2] Mr. Epstein has contemporaneously filed an emergency motion to review denial of stay.

the court failed to recognize principles of supremacy and comity and failed to apply the correct law as to sealing these records.

Alternatively, Mr. Epstein appeals the order under Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.140(b)(1)(D) as an order entered after a finding of guilt in a criminal case. See Fla. R. App. P. 9.040(c) ("If a party seeks an improper remedy, the cause shall be treated as if the proper remedy had been sought . . . .").

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

In 2006, a Florida state grand jury indicted Jeffrey Epstein for felony solicitation of prostitution. He was also charged by information with procuring persons under 18 for prostitution. The United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida began a federal grand jury investigation into allegations arising out of the same conduct.

In September 2007, the United States Attorney's Office and Mr. Epstein executed a non-prosecution agreement (A-7:38).[3] The non-prosecution agreement contains an express confidentiality provision (A-

[3] The non-prosecution agreement and addendum are separately filed with a motion to seal.

EFTA00231150

7:38). The United States Attorney's Office agreed to defer the federal criminal action on the condition that Mr. Epstein comply with many obligations, beginning with his pleading guilty to certain state charges in the Florida criminal action (A-7:38). A breach of any condition violates the non-prosecution agreement and criminal charges will resume (A-7:39-40).

On June 30, 2008, Mr. Epstein pled guilty to felony solicitation of prostitution and procuring a minor under 18 for prostitution in the Florida criminal action (A-7; A-8). Judge Deborah Dale Pucillo, sitting for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, accepted the plea (A-7).

During the plea conference, Judge Pucillo asked Mr. Epstein whether any promises had been made to him besides the terms of the state plea (A-7:37-38). Mr. Epstein's attorney advised the court of the "confidential [non-prosecution agreement with the United States Attorney's Office] that the parties have agreed to." (A-7:38). He informed the court that Mr. Epstein's failure to comply with the terms of the state plea would violate the non-prosecution agreement (A-7:39-40).

Judge Pucillo then instructed Mr. Epstein's attorney that she wanted

"a sealed copy of that filed in this case." (A-7:40). When Mr. Epstein's attorney tried to comply, and file the non-prosecution agreement with the court, the clerk advised him an order was necessary. On July 2, 2008, the court entered an "Agreed Order Sealing Document in Court File" (A-9). An addendum to the non-prosecution agreement was filed under seal on August 25, 2008.

On July 7, 2008, Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 filed an independent action in federal court to compel production of the non-prosecution agreement (A-1). Mr. Epstein was not a party to the proceeding, but the United States Attorney's Office opposed disclosure (A-2). On August 16, 2008, Judge Marra of the Southern District ordered the United States Attorney's Office to produce the non-prosecution agreement to the Does' attorneys and to any other victims and their counsel, provided they not disclose the terms to anyone else (A-2). As a result of this order, all victims, including those with civil suits against Mr. Epstein, have access to the non-prosecution agreement and addendum. They just cannot share it with others.

In September 2008, Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 filed motions in the federal criminal action to unseal the non-prosecution agreement (A-3). The United States Attorney's Office opposed disclosure noting its confidentiality provision, the movant's right to access the agreement, and Judge Marra's protective order to which the movants voiced no objection (A-4). On February 12, 2009,[4] Judge Marra denied the motion, finding in pertinent part:

EFTA00231152

> Petitioners' mere desire to discuss the Agreement with third parties is insufficient, in and of itself, to warrant the granting of such relief. If and when Petitioners have a specific tangible need to be relieved of the restrictions, they should file an appropriate motion. If a specific tangible need arises in a civil case Petitioners or other alleged victims are pursuing against Epstein, relief should be sought in that case, with notice to the United States, the other party to the Agreement.

(A-6).

Rather than seeking relief from Judge Marra in federal court, non-party E.W., a victim of Mr. Epstein, filed a motion in the state criminal action on May 12, 2009, seeking to intervene and unseal the non-prosecution agreement and addendum pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420(d)(5) (A-10). [redacted]. alleged that the proper procedures had not been followed in sealing the documents (A-10). [redacted]. claimed these documents are relevant to her civil action against Mr. Epstein and that she,

[4] The order is mistakenly dated February 12, 2008 (A-6).

as a member of the public, has a right to have them unsealed; and that continued sealing violates public policy (A-10).

On June 1, 2009, Palm Beach Newspapers d/b/a The Palm Beach Post ("The Post") also moved in the state criminal action to intervene and access the agreement and addendum (A-11). The Post alleged the procedures for sealing had not been followed and that "good cause exists for unsealing the documents because of their public significance." (A-11:3).

Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Judge Jeffrey Colbath heard [redacted]'s and The Post's motions in the state criminal action on June 10, 2009 (A-13). The court granted both motions to intervene, but deferred ruling on the motions to unseal pending a later hearing (A-13).

The next day, Mr. Epstein filed a Motion to Make Court Records Confidential (A-13). Mr. Epstein alleged that the documents should remain confidential to prevent a serious imminent threat to the fair, impartial, and orderly administration of justice; to protect a compelling government interest; to avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties; and to avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law and privacy right, not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed (A-13).

Also on June 11, non-party [redacted]. filed motions to intervene and for an order unsealing the records, alleging grounds similar to non-parties [redacted]. and The Palm Beach Post (A-12).

Judge Colbath heard [redacted].'s, The Post's, and [redacted].'s motions to unseal, and Mr. Epstein's motion for confidentiality, on June 25, 2009 (A-16). The court granted [redacted].'s, The Post's, and [redacted].'s motions and denied Mr. Eptsein's (A-16:2). The court concluded:

> At the time the state court took these matters under seal, the proper procedure for sealing such documents had not been followed . . . [and that] [n]either the State of Florida nor the U.S. Government nor Mr. Epstein have [sic] presented sufficient evidence to warrant the sealing of documents currently held by the court.

(A-16:2; A-18:43). The court ruled that "[t]his Order is in no way to be interpreted as permission to not comply with U.S. District Court Kenneth Marra's previous Orders." (A-16:3). Subsequent to this oral ruling, Mr. Epstein provided the court with a Motion for Stay (A-14). The court stayed disclosure until it could hear Mr. Epstein's motion to stay, scheduled for the next day (A-16:3).

The court heard Mr. Epstein's stay motion on June 26, 2009 (A-19). Mr. Epstein alleged that he will be irreparably harmed by disclosure of the non-prosecution agreement and addendum (A-14). No harm will be done if the documents remain under seal pending review by this Court (A-14). The court denied the motion, but stayed disclosure until noon on Thursday, July 2, 2009, [redacted] Mr. Epstein could seek review of the denial in this Court (A-17). Mr. Epstein has filed an emergency motion to review denial of stay in this Court, contemporaneously with this motion.

III. NATURE OF RELIEF SOUGHT

Mr. Epstein seeks to quash the June 25, 2009 order granting non-parties' motions to unseal the confidential non-prosecution agreement and addendum between Mr. Epstein and the United States Attorney's Office.

IV. ARGUMENT

The trial court departed from the essential requirements of law in granting the motions to unseal the confidential federal non-prosecution agreement and addendum between the United States Attorney's Office and

EFTA00231156

Mr. Epstein. These documents are subject to confidentiality provisions, which the federal court recognized and enforced when it permitted disclosure to the attorneys for Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2, and to any other victims and their counsel, provided they not disclose the terms to anyone else. Disclosure violates a condition of the agreement, thereby vitiating the agreement between Mr. Epstein and the United States Attorney. Disclosure also violates Judge Marra's two orders in the federal district court, denying disclosure to the parties. Judge Colbath paid lip service to this principle in stating that his "Order is in no way to be interpreted as permission to not comply with U.S. District Court Kenneth Marra's previous Orders." (A-16:3). But there is no way disclosure does not inherently violate Judge Marra's orders.

The principle of supremacy required that the state court defer to the federal court on this issue. U.S. Const. Art. I § 8. These documents reference federal grand jury proceedings, which are protected under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e)(2)--an attorney for the government "must not disclose a matter occurring before the grand jury." As a consequence of the confidentiality provisions of the non-prosecution agreement, information that disclosed the existence and the subject matter of a federal grand jury proceeding which itself is protected by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e) remains non-public, thus effectuating the privacy concerns addressed by the United States Supreme Court in Douglas and other cases. See e.g. Douglas Oil Co. v. Petrol Stops Northwest, 441 U.S. 211, 228-30 (1979). Under Rule 6(e), only a federal court can, absent findings, order the unsealing of federal grand jury proceedings. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(3)(F), (G). Judge Colbath did not address this principle. Nor did Judge Colbath address the principle of comity, which required that the state court defer to the federal court, which has twice denied disclosure to third parties, on this issue.

The court erred in concluding that the non-prosecution and agreement were not properly sealed. The non-parties filed their motions to unseal pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420(d) (A-10, A-11, A-12). They alleged that Judge Pucillo failed to properly seal the documents under the procedure set forth in that rule (Id.). By its terms, however, the procedures for sealing in Rule 2.420(d) (titled, "Request to Make Circuit and ~~County Court Records in Non-Criminal Cases Confidential"~~) do not apply to criminal cases. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420, 2007 Court Commentary ("New subdivision (d) applies to motions that seek to make court records in non-criminal cases confidential in accordance with subdivision (c)(9)."); see also In re Amendments to Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420--Sealing of Court Records & Dockets, 954 [redacted]. 2d 16, 17 & 23 (Fla. 2007) (declining to adopt specific procedure regarding the sealing of court records in criminal cases and referring the matter to rules committees for further study). Under the version of rule 2.420 in effect when the documents were sealed, there is no procedure for criminal proceedings.

Even under the prior version of rule 2.420, Judge Pucillo was not required to give prior notice of her intent to seal documents during the plea hearing. Committee Notes on the 1995 amendments discussing a prior version of Rule 2.420(c)(9)(D), make clear that advance notice is not always required:

> Unlike the closure of court proceedings, which has been held to require notice and hearing prior to closure, see Miami Herald Publishing Co. v. Lewis, 426 [redacted]. 2d 1 (Fla. 1982), the closure of court records has not required prior notice. Requiring prior notice of closure of a court record may be impractical and burdensome in emergency circumstances or when closure of a court record requiring confidentiality is requested during a judicial proceeding.

The local administrative rule the non-parties cite, 15th Judicial Circuit

EFTA00231159

Administrative Order 2.303, is not applicable either. This Administrative Order addresses the procedures for sealing criminal and non-criminal court records, but was not adopted until September 29, 2008--months after Judge Pucillo sua sponte ordered the non-prosecution agreement and its addendum filed and sealed. The Administrative Order in effect when Judge Pucillo sealed these documents was 2.032-10/06. As explained above, the procedures designated therein would not apply since Judge Pucillo filed and sealed the documents sua sponte, not by motion. To the extent that the Administrative Order conflicts with the version of rule 2.420 then in effect, the rule prevails. Judge Pucillo was not required to follow Administrative Order 2.032 when she sealed the documents in June 2008.

Assuming compliance with procedures for confidentiality was required, Mr. Epstein met them. At all times, the rules of judicial administration provided that court records "shall be confidential" if a court has determined that confidentiality is required. Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9). Rule 2.420(c)(9) provides:

> . . . .
>
> (9) Any court record determined to be confidential in case decision or court rule on the grounds that

EFTA00231160

> (A) confidentiality is required to
>
> (i) prevent a serious and imminent threat to the fair, impartial, and orderly administration of justice;
>
> (ii) protect trade secrets;
>
> (iii) protect a compelling governmental interest;
>
> (iv) obtain evidence to determine legal issues in a case;
>
> (v) avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties;
>
> (vi) avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed;
>
> (vii) comply with established public policy set forth in the Florida or United States Constitution or statutes or Florida rules or case law;
>
> (B) the degree, duration, and manner of confidentiality ordered by the court shall be no broader than necessary to protect the interests set forth in subdivision (A); and
> (C) no less restrictive measures are available to protect the interests set forth in subdivision (A).

Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9). Thus, courts are required to seal court records upon a finding that closure is need to "prevent a serious and imminent threat to the fair, impartial, and orderly administration of justice," ~~to "avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties" or to "avoid~~ substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed." Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9)(i), (v), (vi).

Mr. Epstein's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential satisfied these requirements; thus, the court erred in denying it. Mr. Epstein alleged three separate grounds for confidentiality. He first argued that confidentiality is necessary to protect a compelling government interest. He satisfied this prong since the United States Attorney's Office has a compelling interest in having the confidentiality provision of its contract with Mr. Epstein honored. Judge Marra already balanced that interest against arguments for disclosure and struck a balance by requiring disclosure to plaintiffs and their lawyers, but not to third parties. Secondly, Mr. Epstein contended that maintaining confidentiality will avoid injury to innocent third parties, i.e., the other persons the United States Attorney's Office agreed not to prosecute who will be harmed if the documents are unsealed. Thirdly, Mr. Epstein demonstrated that confidentiality is necessary to avoid substantial injury to a party by disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in the specific type of proceeding sought to be closed. Disclosure of these documents is not generally inherent in a state court plea hearing and will violate Mr. Epstein's common law right to confidentiality.

EFTA00231162

There is no prejudice to non-parties/interveners [redacted]., [redacted]. and The Post, if disclosure is stayed pending the outcome of Mr. Epstein's emergency petition for certiorari. Mr. Epstein, on the other hand, will suffer irreparable harm once the documents are produced--a fact the trial court recognized (A-19:16).

CONCLUSION

This Court should grant certiorari and quash the June 25, 2009 order granting non-parties' motions to unseal the confidential non-prosecution agreement and addendum between Mr. Epstein and the United States Attorney's Office.

CERTIFICATION OF EXISTENCE OF EMERGENCY

Undersigned counsel certifies that the subject of this petition constitutes an emergency. The trial court's order at noon on July 2, 2009, provides that the confidential federal non-prosecution agreement and addendum will be disclosed. Once these documents are disclosed, irreparable harm will result.

ORDER

This matter came before the Court on Defendant Jeffrey Epstein's Motion to Stay Disclosure of the Non-Prosecution Agreement and Addendum Pending Review and upon further consideration of this Court's June 26, 2009 Order unsealing certain records in this case. A hearing was conducted on these matters on June 26, 2009.

On June 26, 2009, this Court entered an order unsealing the non-prosecution agreement and an addendum on file in this case. Having inspected the documents, this Court finds that they do not name any victims and do not contain any material subject to confidentiality pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6. Thus, the Court declines to make any redactions to the records before releasing them to the public.

The Court further finds that Defendant has not demonstrated that a stay pending appeal is warranted. Defendant has not shown any irreparable harm or likelihood of success on the merits on appeal. These documents were not properly closed in the first instance, no present basis for closure exists, and good cause supports disclosure given the public interest in these proceedings and the lack of compelling interest in closure.

Accordingly, it is ordered and adjudged as follows:

1. Effective at noon on July 2, 2009, the non-prosecution agreement (docketed July 2, 2008) and addendum (docketed August 25, 2008) are unsealed;

2. Defendant's Motion for Stay pending appellate review is DENIED;

3. The Clerk of Court is directed to release the documents to the public at noon on Thursday, July 2, 2009.

Done and ordered this _____ day of June, 2009 in Palm Beach County, West Palm Beach, Florida.

CASE NO.:

IN RE: JANE DOE,

Petitioner.

Emergency VICTIM'S PETITION FOR ENFORCEMENT OF CRIME VICTIM'S RIGHTS ACT, 18 U.S.C. SECTION 3771

COMES NOW the Petitioner, JANE DOE (hereinafter "Petitioner"), by and through her undersigned attorneys, pursuant to the Crime Victim's Rights Act, 18 U.S.C. Section 3771 ("CVRA"), and files this Petition for Enforcement in the above styled action as follows:

1. Petitioner, an adult, as a minor child was a victim of federal crimes committed by JEFFREY EPSTEIN (hereinafter "Defendant"). These crimes included sex trafficking of children by fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1591, use of a means of interstate commerce to entice a minor to commit prostitution, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422, as well as wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343. The Defendant committed these crimes within the jurisdiction of the Southern District of Florida in Palm Beach County, Florida.

2. Upon information and belief, the Defendant is the subject of a federal criminal investigation conducted by the United States of America in the Southern District of Florida. The Defendant has recently been prosecuted and pleaded guilty, on June 30, 2008, in the Circuit Court for Palm Beach County to various similar state offenses including solicitation of minors for prostitution.

3. Upon information and belief, the Defendant is engaged in plea negotiations with the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida concerning federal crimes which he is alleged to have committed against minor children, including the Petitioner. Such negotiations may likely result in a disposition of the charges in the next several days.

4. Under the CVRA, before any charges are filed against the Defendant, the Petitioner has the rights (among others) to notice of her rights under the CVRA, to confer with the prosecutors, and to be treated with fairness. As soon as charges are filed, the Petitioner has the rights (among others) to timely notice of court proceedings, the right not to be excluded from such proceedings, the right to be heard at such public proceedings regarding conditions of release, any plea, and any sentence, the right to confer with the attorney for the government, the right to restitution, and the right to be treated with fairness and with respect for her dignity and privacy.

5. The Petitioner has been denied her rights in that she has received no consultation with the attorney for the government regarding the possible disposition of the charges, no notice of any public court proceedings, no information regarding her right to restitution, and no notice of rights under the CVRA, as required under law.

6. The Petitioner is in jeopardy of losing her rights, as described above, if the government is able to negotiate a plea or agreement with the Defendant without her participation and knowledge.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons outlined above, the Petitioner respectfully requests this Court to grant her Petition, and to order the United States Attorney to comply with the provisions of the CVRA prior to and including any plea or other agreement with the Defendant and any attendant proceedings.

EFTA00231178

MEMORANDUM

I. THE CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT MAKES CRIME VICTIMS INDEPENDENT PARTICIPANTS THROUGHOUT THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROCESS.

In October 2004, Congress passed and the President signed into law the Crime Victims' Rights Act, Pub. L. No. 108-405, 118 Stat. 2251 (codified at 18 U.S.C. § 3771). Because this appears to be the first case involving the Act to come before this Court, a bit of background may be in order.

A. The CVRA Gives Crime Victims Rights to Participate in the Criminal Justice Process.

Congress passed the CVRA "to give crime victims enforceable rights to participate in federal criminal proceedings." Opinion at 14. Congress was concerned that in the federal system crime victims were "treated as non-participants in a critical event in their lives. They were kept in the dark by prosecutors too busy to care enough ... and by a court system that simply did not have a place for them." 150 CONG. REC. S4262 (Apr. 22, 2004) (statement of Sen. Feinstein). To remedy this problem, Congress gave victims "the simple right to know what is going on, to participate in the process where the information that victims and their families can provide may be material and relevant ... ." Id.

The CVRA gives victims of federal crimes a series of rights, including the right to notice of court proceedings, to be heard at plea and sentencing hearings, and to reasonably "confer with the attorney for the Government in the case." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a). Victims also have a "right of access to the terms of a plea agreement ... ." In re Interested Party 1, 530 F.Supp. 2d 136, 2008 WL 134233 at *7 (D.D.C. 2008). The CVRA also assures victims broadly that they will "be treated with fairness." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(8).

EFTA00231179

Of course, these rights would be of little use to most crime victims unless they were told about them. To ensure that victims are notified of their rights, the CVRA directs employees of the Justice Department "and other departments and agencies of the United States engaged in the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime" to use their "best efforts to see that crime victims are notified of ... the rights described [in the CVRA]." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(c)(1) (emphasis added).1

B. The CVRA Gives Victims Rights During the Investigation of a Crime.

The CVRA gives victims rights during the investigation of a crime. The Fifth Circuit recently reached this conclusion, holding:

> The district court acknowledged that "[t]here are clearly rights under the CVRA that apply before any prosecution is underway." BP Prods., 2008 WL 501321 at *11, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 12893, at *36. Logically, this includes the CVRA's establishment of victims' "reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(5). At least in the posture of this case (and we do not speculate on the applicability to other situations), the government should have fashioned a reasonable way to inform the victims of the likelihood of criminal charges and to ascertain the victims' views on the possible details of a plea bargain.

In re Dean, 527 F.3d 391, 394 (5th Cir. 2008).

The position that CVRA rights apply before charges have been filed is consistent with the Justice Department regulations under the CVRA, which explain that government officials "must advise a victim [about their rights under the CVRA] ... at the earliest opportunity at which it may be done without interfering with an investigation." A.G. GUIDELINES FOR VICTIM AND WITNESS

1 Further supporting this requirement is another statute, 42 U.S.C. § 10607(c)(3), which directs government officials to provide victims with "the earliest possible notice of," among other things, "the filing of charges against a suspected offender."

EFTA00231180

ASSISTANCE 23 (May 2005). And the plain language of the CVRA undergirds this conclusion, as it applies not simply to prosecutors but to government agencies "engaged in the detection [and] investigation ... of crime ... ." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(c)(1). Indeed, if there were any doubt, the plain language of the CVRA extends victims' right to situations "in which no prosecution is underway." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(d)(3).

II. PETITIONER IS A "VICTIM PROTECTED BY THE CVRA.

Under the CVRA the crime victim is defined as "a person directly and proximately harmed as a result of the commission of a Federal offense ... ." 18 U.S.C. Section 3771(e). In particular, Defendant called Petitioner when she was a minor over a telephone (a means of interstate communication) requesting that she perform a massage in exchange for payment. As Defendant well knew, that request was fraudulent, as he not only intended to receive a massage, but also intended to have her perform sexual acts in exchange for a cash payment to Petitioner. Only when Petitioner arrived at a Defendant's mansion as directed by Defendant, did Defendant reveal his true purpose of obtaining sexual favors in exchange for payment. This conduct violated 18 U.S.C. § 2422, which forbids using a means of interstate commerce to knowingly "induce" or "entice" a minor "to engage in prostitution." In addition, this conduct was both a use of "fraud" to obtain a commercial sex act, in violation of 18 U.S.C § 1591, and use of wire communications to perpetrate a "scheme and artifice to defraud," in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343.

It appears obvious that Petitioner was "directly and proximately" harmed by these crimes, thereby making her a victim under the CVRA. It should be emphasized that the CVRA "was designed to be a 'broad and encompassing' statutory victims' bill of rights." United States

Degenhardt, 405 F.Supp.2d 1341, 1342 (D. Utah 2005) (quoting 150 Cong. Rec. S4261 (daily ed. Apr. 22, 2004) (statement of Sen. Feinstein)). Congress intended the CVRA to dramatically rework the federal criminal justice system. In the course of construing the CVRA generously, the Ninth Circuit observed: "The criminal justice system has long functioned on the assumption that crime victims should behave like good Victorian children -- seen but not heard. The Crime Victims' Rights Act sought to change this by making victims independent participants in the criminal justice process." Kenna v. U.S. Dist. Court for C.D. Cal., 435 F.3d 1011, 1013 (9th Cir. 2006). Accordingly, because the CVRA is remedial legislation, courts should interpret it "liberally to facilitate and accomplish its purposes and intent." Elliott Industries Ltd. Partnership v. BP America Production Co., 407 F.3d 1091, 1118 (10th Cir. 2005) (noting remedial legislation should be "interpreted liberally to facilitate and accomplish its purposes and intent"). The CVRA itself suggests this conclusion by requiring that courts must treat crime victims with "fairness." United States v. Patkar, 2008 WL 233062 at *3 (D. Haw. 2008) (citing United States v. Turner, 367 F.Supp.2d 319, 335 (E.D.N.Y. 2005)).

Not only must the CVRA as a whole be interpreted liberally, but its definition of "crime victim" requires a generous construction. After reciting the direct-and-proximate-harm language at issue here, one of the Act's two co-sponsors -- Senator Kyl -- explained that "[t]his is an intentionally broad definition because all victims of crime deserve to have their rights protected ... ." 150 Cong. Rec. S10912 (Oct. 9, 2004) (emphasis added). The description of the victim definition as "intentionally broad" was in the course of floor colloquy with the other primary sponsor of the CVRA and therefore deserves significant weight. See Kenna, 435 F.3d at 1015-16 (discussing significance of CVRA sponsors= floor statements).

The definition of "crime victims" must thus be construed broadly in favor of Petitioner. She obviously qualifies as a "victim" under the CVRA.

III. PETITIONER IS ENTITLED TO NOTICE OF HER RIGHTS, AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONFER WITH THE PROSECUTORS AND TO BE TREATED WITH FAIRNESS.

Because Petitioner is a "victim" under the CVRA, she has certain protected rights under the Act. Most important, the Act promises that she will have an opportunity to "confer with the attorney for the Government in the case." To date, Petitioner has not been given that right. This raises that very real possibility that the Government may negotiate and conclude a plea agreement with the Defendant without giving Petitioner her protected rights.2

Petitioner is entitled to have this conference with prosecutors before any final plea agreement is reached. The Fifth Circuit reached exactly this conclusion in a very recent case. In In re Dean, 527 F.3d 391 (5th Cir. 2008), the Government negotiated a plea agreement with the well-heeled corporate defendant without conferring with the victims. When the Government's failure was challenged in the Fifth Circuit, the Fifth Circuit concluded that the Government had indeed violated the CVRA. The Fifth Circuit observed: "In passing the [CVRA], Congress made the policy decision-which we are bound to enforce-that the victims have a right to inform the plea negotiation process by conferring with prosecutors before a plea agreement is reached." Id. at 394.

This Court is obligated to protect the rights of Petitioner. The CVRA directs that "[i]n any court proceeding involving an offense against a crime victim, the court shall ensure that the crime victim is afforded the rights described in [the CVRA]." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(b)(1). The CVRA also confers on crime victims the right to "assert the rights described in [the CVRA]." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(d)(1). Therefore, this Court has its own independent obligation to intercede and ensure that the Government respects the rights of Petitioner under the CVRA.

2 On information and belief, roughly the same crimes were committed against several other young females. These victims, too, are in danger of losing their right to confer under the CVRA.

EFTA00231183

CONCLUSION

The Petitioner requests the intervention of this Court to ensure that her rights are respected and accorded, as promised in the Crime Victims' Rights Act.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

NO. 08-80736-CIV-MARRA/JOHNSON

IN RE: JANE DOES 1 AND 2,

Petitioners.

ORDER TO COMPEL PRODUCTION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on the Petitioners' ore tenus motion seeking the production of the Non-Prosecution Agreement between the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida ("USAO") and Jeffrey Epstein ("Epstein"). After consideration of the Motion, the arguments of the parties, and the record, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Petitioners' Motion is GRANTED. The USAO shall produce the Non-Prosecution Agreement, including any modifications and addenda thereto, in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The USAO shall produce a copy of the Non-Prosecution Agreement, including any modifications and addenda thereto (collectively referred to as the "Agreement"), to the attorneys for Petitioners.

(b) Petitioners and their attorneys shall not disclose the Agreement or its terms to any third party absent further court order, following notice to and an opportunity for Epstein's counsel to be heard.

(c) Before counsel for petitioners show the Agreement to their clients or discuss the specific terms with them, they must provide a copy of this Order to petitioners, who must review and acknowledge their receipt of, and agreement to abide by, the terms of the Order. Counsel for petitioners must promptly provide a copy of that acknowledgment to the USAO.

(d) If any individuals who have been identified by the USAO as victims of

Epstein and/or any attorney(s) for those individuals request the opportunity to review the Agreement, then the USAO shall produce the Agreement to those individuals, [redacted] long as those individuals also agree that they shall not disclose the Agreement or its terms to any third party absent further court order, following notice to and an opportunity for Epstein's counsel to be heard

(e) Prior to producing the documents to any other individuals who have been identified by the USAO as victims of Epstein and/or any attorney(s) for those individuals, a copy of this Order must be provided to said individuals, who must review and acknowledge their receipt of, and agreement to abide by, the terms of this Order. Counsel for petitioners must promptly provide a copy of that acknowledgment to the USAO.

CASE NO.: 08-80736-CIV-MARRA/JOHNSON

JANE DOE #1 AND JANE DOE #2,

Petitioners,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

VICTIM'S MOTION TO UNSEAL NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT

COMES NOW the Petitioners, Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2, by and through their undersigned attorneys, pursuant to the Crime Victim's Rights Act, 18 U.S.C. Section 3771 ("CVRA"), and file this motion to unseal the non-prosecution agreement that has been provided to their attorneys under seal in this case. The agreement should be unsealed because no good cause exists for sealing it. Moreover, the Government has inaccurately described the agreement in its publicly-filed pleadings, creating a false impression that the agreement protects the victims. Finally, the agreement should be unsealed to facilitate consultation by victims' counsel with others involved who have information related to the case.

BACKGROUND

As the court is aware, this action was brought by two crime victims (hereinafter referred to as "the victims") seeking protection of their rights under the Crime Victim's Rights Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3771. At the center of this action is an agreement between the United States and Jeffrey Epstein that (as described in earlier court pleadings publicly filed by the Government) involved

EFTA00231191

Epstein's entry of guilty pleas to various state charges and an 18-month jail sentence, in exchange for which the U.S. Government apparently agreed to defer all federal prosecution – including any federal prosecution for the federal crimes committed against the victims.

At a hearing held on August 14, 2008, the court ordered the Government to produce to counsel for the victims the non-prosecution agreement. That production, however, was to be done under protective order in the first instance. The agreement has now been produced. At the earlier hearing, the court recognized that the victims' counsel might at a later date seek to have the sealing lifted. That date has now arrived.

ARGUMENT

As the court envisioned might well happen, counsel for the victims now believe that sealing of the agreement is no longer appropriate. The non-prosecution agreement should now be unsealed for three reasons.

1. No Good Cause Has Been Shown for Sealing the Agreement.

Having now reviewed the agreement, counsel for the victims can find no legitimate basis for the document to be sealed. Because it stands at the center of this litigation (as well as several related civil suits), the burden should fall on those who would keep the document sealed to show cause for doing [redacted]. No good cause has yet been shown. Cf. United States v. Ochoa-Vasque, 428 F.3d 1015 (11th Cir. 2005) (to justify sealing of court records "a court must articulate the overriding interest along with findings specific enough that a reviewing court can determine whether the closure order was properly entered").

2. The Government Has Inaccurately Described the Agreement.

In its publicly-filed pleadings in this case, the Government has inaccurately described the non-prosecution agreement, creating the false impression that it is more favorable to the victims than it actually is. Accordingly, the non-prosecution agreement should be unsealed [redacted] that the true state of affairs is reflected in the court's file.

In its response to the victims' petition, the Government states that the non-prosecution agreement contains the following provision:

> Any person, who while a minor, was a victim of a violation of an offense enumerated in Title 18, United states Code, Section 2255; will have the same rights to proceed under Section 2255 as she would have had, if Mr. Epstein had been tried federally and convicted of an enumerate offense. For purposes of implementing this paragraph, the United States shall provide Mr. Epstein's attorneys with a list of individuals whom it was prepared to name in an Indictment as victims of an enumerated offense by Mr. Epstein. Any judicial authority interpreting this provision, including any authority determining which evidentiary burdens if any a plaintiff must meet, shall consider that it is the intent of the parties to place these identified victims in the same position as they would have been had Mr. Epstein been convicted at trial. No more; no less.

Govt's Resp. to Victim's Emergency Petition for Enforcement of Crime Victim's Right at 4. The sworn declaration of the Assistant U.S. Attorney handling this matter also recounts the same language. See Declaration of [redacted] in Support of United States' Response to Victims' Emergency Petition at 3-4. The sworn declaration also states that victims were told about this language in October 2007. See Declaration of [redacted] at 4 ("In October 2007, shortly after the agreement was signed, four victims were contacted and these provisions were discussed"). On July 9, 2008, the victims received notice from the Government that the above-described provision was negotiated on behalf of the victims for their protection and was thus contained in the non-prosecution agreement.1

Having now reviewed the non-prosecution agreement, the Government's response to the victims' motion and the accompanying sworn declaration are simply untrue. The above-quoted provision simply does not appear in the agreement anywhere. It is true that the non-prosecution agreement contains a provision bearing on the same subject. However, this provision has a number of qualifying provisos that make it far less favorable to the victims than the above-described provision. (To avoid filing a separate, sealed pleading laying out the differences, counsel for the victims have simply described the differences in general terms. We trust that the Government, in its response, will agree that it has erroneously described the agreement to the court and the victims.)

The Government should be required to correct its previously-filed pleadings to accurately recount the non-prosecution agreement that it reached with Epstein. Moreover, the Government should also be required to state forthrightly whether through the last nine months, it gave the victims (like the court) inaccurate information about what the non-prosecution agreement entailed. But most important, because the current sealing of the non-prosecution agreement creates a false and deceptive appearance about the agreement that the Government has actually reached with Epstein, the agreement should be unsealed.

Indeed, it should be noted that sealing of materials in this case appears to operate in a rather peculiar fashion. The Government apparently feels free to disclose to the victims one provision in the non-prosecution agreement that it believes it is to its advantage to disclose, but not others. The Government should not be permitted to pick and choose, particularly where it has inaccurately described the provision that it has chosen to disclose.

1 The Government has recently provided a new notice to the victims, containing different language.

3. The Non-Prosecution Agreement Should be Unsealed To Facilitate Effective Representation of the Victims in this Action and Related Civil Actions.

The sealing order bars the victims' counsel from "disclos[ing] the Agreement or its terms to any third party absent further court order, following notice to and an opportunity for Epstein's counsel to be heard." Order to Compel Production and Protective Order at 1. Victims' counsel have scrupulously abided by that restriction. Victims' counsel would, however, now like to discuss the terms of the non-prosecution agreement with third parties in making a determination about how best to proceed in this action, including what remedies to seek for the violations of victims' rights that have occurred. Counsel, therefore, respectfully seek the "further court order" that the sealing order envisions.

In particular, victims' counsel would like to discuss the agreement with other victims of Epstein and their attorneys to determine whether they were likewise provided with inaccurate information about the nature of the plea agreement. Victims' counsel would also like to discuss possible legal responses to the Government with other victims' rights attorneys, including in particular the National Alliance of Victims' Rights Attorneys for possible legal approaches. See http://www.ncvli.org/navra.html. The sealing order would apparently block these forms of consultation, or perhaps require such burdensome non-disclosure obligations as to make the consultation difficult or impractical. Finally, victims' counsel would like to refer to the non-prosecution agreement in a parallel civil suit that is pending before this court. See Jane Doe v. Jeffrey Epstein, United States District Court, Southern District of Florida, Case No.: 08-CIV-80893-MARRA-JOHNSON. To facilitate all these discussions, the non-prosecution agreement should be unsealed.

NOTICE TO EPSTEIN

It is possible that Jeffrey Epstein will object to the unsealing of the agreement. Accordingly, the court should provide notice of this motion to Jeffrey Epstein, through counsel. Jeffrey Epstein's counsel has entered an appearance in several related civil suits, including Jane Doe v. Jeffrey Epstein, United States District Court, Southern District of Florida, Case No.: 08-CIV-80893-MARRA-JOHNSON. Although Epstein's counsel has not entered an appearance in this matter, as a courtesy to them, counsel for the victims' will provide a copy of this pleading at the address indicated in the related civil suit.

CONCLUSION

The non-prosecution agreement should be unsealed.

DATED this 25th day of September, 2008.

Petitioners,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

_____/

RESPONDENT'S OPPOSITION TO VICTIMS' MOTION TO UNSEAL NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT

Respondent, by and through its undersigned counsel, files its Opposition to Victims' Motion to Unseal Non-Prosecution Agreement, and states:

I. THE MOTION TO UNSEAL SHOULD BE DENIED BECAUSE THE NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT HAS NEVER BEEN FILED UNDER SEAL IN THIS COURT.

Petitioners have filed their motion to unseal the non-prosecution agreement, claiming that no good cause exists for sealing it. As an initial matter, the motion should be denied because the non-prosecution agreement entered into between the United States Attorney's Office and Jeffrey Epstein was never filed in the instant case by the United States, either under seal or otherwise. On August 14, 2008, this Court held a telephonic hearing to discuss petitioners' request for a copy of the non-prosecution agreement. The United States advised the Court that the Agreement had a confidentiality provision, which the United States was obligated to honor. The United States requested that, if the Agreement was to be produced to petitioners, it should be done pursuant to a protective order, to ensure that further dissemination of the Agreement would not occur. At that time, petitioners had no objection to such a procedure.

On August 21, 2008, this Court entered its Order to Compel Production and Protective Order (DE 26). Subpart (b) of the Order provides that, "Petitioners and their attorneys shall not disclose the Agreement or its terms to any third party absent further court order, following notice to and an opportunity for Epstein's counsel to be heard." (DE 26 at 1.) Presumably, petitioners' motion to unseal is an effort to modify the terms of the Protective Order, to enable them to disclose the Agreement to third parties.

Since the Agreement has not been filed under seal with this Court, the legal authority cited by petitioners regarding sealing of documents, United States v. Ochoa-Vasque, 428 F.3d 1015 (11th Cir. 2005), is inapposite. The parties who negotiated the Agreement, the United States Attorney's Office and Jeffrey Epstein, determined that the Agreement should remain confidential. They were free to do [redacted], and violated no law in making such an agreement. Since the Agreement has become relevant to the instant lawsuit, petitioners have been given access to it, upon the condition that it not be disclosed further.[1] Petitioners have no legal right to disclose the Agreement to third parties, or standing to challenge the confidentiality provision.

[1]It is unclear whether the Petitioners themselves (as opposed to their attorneys) have actually reviewed the Non-Prosecution Agreement. The Court's Order to Compel Production required petitioners' counsel to review and agree to the Protective Order and to do the same with

In order to have standing, petitioners must show: (1) an injury in fact, meaning an injury that is concrete and particularized, and actual or imminent; (2) a causal connection between the injury and the causal conduct; and (3) a likelihood that the injury will be redressed by a favorable decision. Granite State Outdoor Advertising, Inc. v. City of Clearwater, Fla., 351 F.3d 1112, 1116 (11th Cir. 2003). Petitioners already have obtained access to the agreement, [redacted] they cannot claim a denial of access as an injury in fact. Their motion to unseal refers to their stated desire to confer with other victims of Epstein and their attorneys "to determine whether they were likewise provided with inaccurate information about the nature of the plea agreement." (DE 28 at 5.)

This asserted reason for needing to unseal the Agreement is baseless given that the Protective Order, at the Court's direction, specifically provides for a very simple procedure to allow other victims and their lawyers to see the Agreement. (See DE 26 at 1-2, subpart (d).) All that is required is for any victims and/or their attorneys to review and agree to the terms of the Protective Order, and to provide the signed acknowledgment of that agreement to the United States.

Petitioners' claim that they wish to discuss with others the "possible legal responses" to the Government, including the National Alliance of Victims' Rights Attorneys, also provides no basis for vacatur of the Protective Order. Petitioners contend that the "sealing order would apparently block these forms of consultation . . ." (DE 28 at their clients. Copies of those signed acknowledgements to abide by the Protective Order were then to be provided "promptly" to the United States. To date, only Attorney Brad Edwards has provided a signed acknowledgement.

5.) First, there is no sealing order. Second, the Protective Order does not prevent petitioners from consulting with anyone; it only prevents them from disclosing the Agreement. Petitioners fail to mention why it is necessary for the National Alliance of Victims' Rights Attorneys to have the Agreement in hand, in order to meaningfully consult with them.

Petitioners also assert that they would like to be able to reference the Agreement "in a parallel civil suit that is pending before this Court." (DE 28 at 5.) Given that the suit names Jeffrey Epstein as a defendant and is pending before the same district judge, it seems that litigation regarding the production and use of the Agreement should occur in that case, where the true party in interest, Jeffrey Epstein, is present and represented by counsel, rather than in a suit that was originally filed in July as an "Emergency Petition" under the various victims' rights laws.

II. THE GOVERNMENT ACCURATELY DESCRIBED THE PROVISIONS OF THE AGREEMENT, AT THE TIME THE RESPONSES WERE FILED WITH THE COURT.

Petitioners castigate the Government for inaccurately describing the non-prosecution agreement. (DE 28 at 2-5.) They contend a particular provision cited by the Government does not appear in the copy of the Agreement produced to them.

During the telephonic hearing on August 14, 2008, Government counsel advised the Court and petitioners' counsel that there was an ongoing dispute between the Government and Epstein's attorneys over what constituted the Agreement. Government counsel advised that, in its opinion, the Agreement had three parts. The first part was executed in September 2007, the second part, an addendum, was executed in October 2007, and the third part was a December 2007 letter from the United States Attorney to Epstein's attorneys, suggesting a further modification of the Agreement. The Government advised the Court that it believed that all three parts comprised the Agreement, while it appeared that Epstein's attorneys were contending the Agreement was comprised only of parts one and two.

At the commencement of the instant litigation, in July 2008, the Government believed the Agreement was comprised of all three parts mentioned above. This belief was expressed in victim notification letters, including one sent to Jane Doe #1,[2] the Government's July 9, 2008 response to the Emergency Petition for Enforcement of Victims Rights Act, as well as the Declaration of [redacted], Assistant U.S. Attorney, which accompanied the Government's response. This belief continued until August 2008, when the Government advised Epstein's attorneys that the victims had [2]The victim notification letter was provided to Epstein's attorneys prior to being sent, who approved the language of which the petitioners now complain. Thus, petitioners' repeated assertions that the Government made these errors intentionally and/or negligently are meritless. (See, e.g., DE 28 at 4-5 ("The Government apparently feels free to disclose to the victims one provision in the non-prosecution agreement that it believes it is to its advantage to disclose, but not others. The Government should not be permitted to pick and choose, particularly where it has inaccurately described the provision that it has chosen to disclose.") The Government seeks no "advantage" in this suit brought by the two victims. Furthermore, the petitioners' original emergency petition focused on their concern about the amount of jail time that Epstein would serve. The provision that they complain of now has no relation to jail time. Furthermore, petitioners aver that the October 2007 disclosure to Jane Doe #1 contained inaccurate information, but that disclosure was made before the December 2007 letter and, therefore, did not include anything related to the U.S. Attorney's now-defunct proposed amendment to the Agreement.

EFTA00231205

demanded disclosure of the Agreement to them, and discussions ensued about what constituted the Agreement. Epstein's attorneys then told the Government that Epstein believed the Agreement consisted only of the first and second parts. These were the parts disclosed to petitioners pursuant to the Protective Order in compliance with the Court's order to compel production. The fact that an erroneous disclosure was inadvertently made to one petitioner after Epstein had already entered his guilty plea, was sentenced, and surrendered to begin serving his sentence does not create an injury where one did not exist before.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the United States respectfully requests that the Court deny Petitioners' Motion to Unseal the Non-Prosecution Agreement.

VICTIMS' REPLY TO RESPONDENT'S OPPOSITION TO VICTIMS' MOTION TO UNSEAL NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT

COME NOW the Petitioners, Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 ("the victims"), by and through undersigned counsel, and reply to the Government's Opposition to Victims' Motion to Unseal Non-Prosecution Agreement.

The victims have moved for a lifting of the protective order barring them from publicly disclosing or discussing the terms of the non-prosecution agreement between Jeffrey Epstein and the United States Government. Jeffrey Epstein has made no response to this motion. The Government, however, contends that the victims' motion should be denied because the victims cannot show any injury from the protective order. The Government's position is wrong for three reasons. First, the Government bears the burden of showing some good cause for a protective order. It has utterly failed to even offer any such cause – much less show that it is good cause. Second, the Government – with the apparent contrivance of Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys – has made inaccurate representations about the nature of the non-prosecution agreement in its notices to the victims and in its filing before the Court. To set the record straight, therefore, the victims should be allowed to publicly discuss the agreement. Finally, the victims are burdened by provisions in the protective order. For all these reasons, the protective order should be lifted.

1. No Good Cause Has been Shown for Sealing the Agreement.

In their motion to unseal the agreement, the victims argued that there was no good reason for the protective order requiring them not to further disseminate the agreement. Curiously, the Government's response does not offer any substantive reason for the agreement to remain under seal or under a protective order.[1] Instead, the Government contends that victims have "no legal right to disclose the Agreement to third parties, or standing to challenge the confidentiality provision." Gov't Response at 2. But this argument has things backwards. It is not the victims' task to show some reason for not entering a protective order; rather, it is the Government's task to show some affirmative reason for entering the order in the first place. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) (allowing for entry of a protective order upon motion for a party "for good cause shown"); see also In re Alexander Grant & Co. Litigation, 820 F.2d 352, 356 (11th Cir. 1987) ("good cause" for a protective order "generally signifies a sound basis or legitimate need to take judicial action"). Having been given the opportunity to explain why the document has to remain confidential, the Government chose not to do [redacted]. And Jeffrey Epstein was served with the victims' motion, but chose not to respond. Presumably this was because Jeffrey Epstein had no real interest at stake in the confidentiality of the agreement. Therefore, the protective order should be lifted because it lacks any articulated justification – much less any justification that constitutes good cause.

[1] The Government prefers to view the issues in this case as involving not the sealing of a document but rather the entry of a protective order preventing the disclosure of a document. To simplify the dispute in this case, we will proceed on the Government's view of the situation.

2. The Government, With the Apparent Aid of Epstein, Has Provided Inaccurate Information to the Victims (and to the Court).

The victims also asked that the protective order be lifted to help clarify the record in this case. The Government has made public representations in its pleadings in this case about the civil remedy provision in the non-prosecution agreement. It also specifically sent notices to Jane Doe #1 and other victims of Jeffrey Epstein's crimes describing this provision in the agreement. Those representations were inaccurate – as the Government now seemingly admits. See Gov't Response at 6 (referring to "erroneous disclosure" that was "inadvertently made" to Jane Doe #1). Indeed, the Government now takes the position that the responsibility for those inaccurate representations to the victim – as well as to the Court – lies with Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys'. See Gov't Response at 5 ("the [inaccurate] victim notification letter was provided to Epstein's attorneys prior to being sent, who approved the language of which the petitioners now complain.").

The apparent approval by Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys of inaccurate information being sent to crime victims (and possibly their approval of inaccurate information being provided, as a result, to the Court) raises very significant issues under the Crime Victim's Rights Act. The victims have, therefore, sent a letter to the U.S. Attorney's Office requesting clarification of exactly how Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys participated in misleading the victims. See Attachment 1 (Oct. 9, 2008, Letter from Brad Edwards, Esq. to AUSA [redacted]). Indeed, it appears that the Government may have provided an inaccurate description of another feature of the non-prosecution agreement to the victims. See Attachment 2 (Oct. 15, 2008 Letter from Brad Edwards, Esq. to AUSA [redacted] (noting Government's representation to victims of a right to recover at least $150,000 in damages from Jeffrey Epstein while Jeffrey Epstein's lawyers take the position that the agreement allows automatic recovery of only $50,000). In light of all these apparent misrepresentations about precisely what the non-prosecution agreement entails, the victims should not be bound by a protective order barring their public disclosure of the agreement.

3. The Protective Order Unfairly Burdens the Victims.

In their motion, the victims also explained how the protective order burdened their efforts to confer with other victims' rights attorneys regarding how best to proceed in light of the non-prosecution agreement. The Government does not seriously contest the victims' representations about the burdens imposed by the protective order. Instead, it takes the truly remarkable position that "the Protective Order does not prevent [the victims] from consulting with anyone; it only prevents them from disclosing the Agreement." Gov't Response at 4. But the whole point of the victims' motion was that the protective order places burdens on the victims in consulting with other attorneys about the agreement. Obviously, it is of no help to the victims to be able to consult with other attorneys on that issue if the agreement itself cannot be disclosed.

CONCLUSION

The provision in the protective order barring the victims and their attorneys from publicly disclosing the non-prosecution agreement should be lifted.

EFTA00231214

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

NO. 08-80736-CIV-MARRA/JOHNSON

JANE DOES #1 AND #2,

Petitioners,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

ORDER

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on the Petitioners' Motion to Unseal Non-Prosecution Agreement (DE 28), filed September 25, 2008. Respondent filed its response (DE 29), on October 8, 2008, and Petitioners filed their reply (DE 30) on October 16, 2008. The Court has carefully considered the motion and the record and is otherwise fully advised in the premises.

Petitioners motion seeks the Court to enter an order unsealing the Non-prosecution Agreement, including any modifications and addenda thereto (collectively referred to as the "Agreement"), between the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida ("USAO") and Jeffrey Epstein ("Epstein"). At a hearing held on August 14, 2008, the Court ordered the USAO to produce the Agreement to counsel for the Petitioners and to any other victims identified by the USAO and their counsel, pursuant to the terms of the Court's Order. (See DE 26, August 21, 2008). Petitioners argue that the Agreement "should now be unsealed."

First, as Respondent points out, the Agreement was not filed in this case, under seal or otherwise. Petitioners also assert that the Agreement should be "unsealed" because the victims and/or their attorneys believe the Government has mischaracterized some of its provisions. If and when such alleged mischaracterizations become relevant to an issue to be decided by the Court, the parties will be given the opportunity to advance their positions and the Court will resolve the issue. If disclosure of the Agreement will be required for the Court to resolve the issue, appropriate disclosure will be ordered.

Furthermore, to the extent Petitioners are seeking modification of the restrictions placed upon their use of the Agreement by the Court's August 21, 2008 order, Petitioners have not met their burden to justify a modification. Petitioners' mere desire to discuss the Agreement with third parties is insufficient, in and of itself, to warrant the granting of such relief. If and when Petitioners have a specific tangible need to be relieved of the restrictions, they should file an appropriate motion. If a specific tangible need arises in a civil case Petitioners or other alleged victims are pursuing against Epstein, relief should be sought in that case, with notice to the United States, the other party to the Agreement. Accordingly, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Petitioners' Motion to Unseal Non-Prosecution Agreement (DE 28) is DENIED.

DONE and ORDERED in Chambers, in West Palm Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida, this 12th day of February, 2008.

PHYLLIS A. DAMES, OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

BE IT REMEMBERED that the following proceedings were had in the above-entitled cause before the HONORABLE DEBORAH DALE PUCILLO, one of the judges of the aforesaid court, at the Palm Beach County Courthouse, located in the City of West Palm Beach, State of Florida on June 20, 2008 beginning at 8:40 o'clock, a.m. with appearances as hereinbefore noted, to wit:

THEREUPON:

MR. GOLDBERGER: Good morning, Judge, Jack Goldberger on behalf of Jeffrey Epstein.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, we are here for a plea conference.

THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

THEREUPON:

JEFFREY EPSTEIN,

after being called as a witness by the Defense and after being first duly sworn by the Court, was examined and testified as follows:

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Is this one case or two?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Two.

THE COURT: May I see the PC

EFTA00231219

affidavit in both cases, please?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: There are no PC affidavits. There was originally an Indictment, the second charge was filed arising out of the booking. It was all testimony presented to the grand jury.

THE COURT: Let me see the Indictment then?

I have one Indictment, one Information?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: [redacted] one case is charged by Indictment, one is charged by Information?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: In case 2006036744 you are charged with procuring a person under 18 for prostitution, a second degree felony, maximum penalty of fifteen years Department of Corrections; minimum, some period of probation. No mandatory minimum apply, is that correct, State?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: And in case number 06 9454CF, you are charged with felony solicitation to prostitution, a third degree felony, punishable by a maximum penalty of five years in the Department of Corrections, and a minimum, probation. No mandatory minimums, correct?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: The defendant has no prior criminal record?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You checked the NCIC as well as State records?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: And the guideline score sheet I have before me shows 21.5 months in the Department of Corrections as the lowest permissible prison sentence in months. Both sides agree to the preparation of the guideline score sheet?

MR. GOLDBERGER: We [redacted] agree, Your Honor.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: What is proposed -- it goes on for pages.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, much of the documentation is acknowledgement by my client to community control, sex offender status.

THE COURT: I understand.

Okay. What is proposed -- those are the maximums and minimums, Mr. Epstein. What is proposed is that you will be pleading guilty to felony solicitation to prostitution and procuring a person under 18 for prosecution. A PSI would be waived, you would be adjudicated guilty of both felonies, is that correct?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: And on 06 9454, the defendant to be sentenced to 12-months in the Palm Beach County -- detention facility? He's going to do time in the jail?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: With credit for one day served. And on 08 9381, he is to be sentenced to six months in the Palm Beach County jail detention facility, with credit for one day served. And the six month sentence is to be served consecutive to the 12 month sentence?

EFTA00231222

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct..

THE COURT: Following the six months sentence, the defendant will be placed on 12-months of community control one. The conditions of the community control are attached hereto and incorporated herein.

As a special condition of community control, he's to have no unsupervised contact with minors and the supervising adult must be approved -- and I would say, pre-approved, approved ahead of time, not after the fact by the Department of Corrections. And you would mean by that his community control officer?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: The defendant is designated as a sexual offender pursuant to Florida Statute 943.0435 and must abide by all the corresponding requirements of the statute, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein. The defendant must provide a DNA sample in court at the time of this plea. Is this the -- and the attachments are the terms and conditions of community control. There are some squiggles on the bottom of the page, what would those squiggles be?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you, Your Honor, those are my client's signature acknowledging that we have gone over all the conditions.

THE COURT: One page after the plea sheet that really spells out the terms and conditions of community control, Florida Statute 948.101, Mr. Epstein, is that squiggle at the bottom your squiggle?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Would those be your initials?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Did you read all of that page?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Can you read?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: How far did you go in school?

THE DEFENDANT: High school.

THE COURT: That's your highest degree?

EFTA00231224

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: And is this your signature on the plea sheet that recites the terms of the plea I just read?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Did you read that document as well?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: You understand once you do your 12 months followed by your six months all in the Palm Beach County jail you will then be put on community control which involves having an electronic monitor attached to you and --

MR. GOLDBERGER: Actually Your Honor, the agreement of the parties is to, it's community control one which is not monitor.

THE COURT: Oh, community control one, is that spelled out in here?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, it is, Your Honor.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: He does not fall under the Jessica Lunsford Act which requires the bracelet.

THE COURT: Community control two.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: Community control one -- that would be no electronic monitor?

MR. GOLDBERGER: That is correct.

THE COURT: Now which of the terms and conditions of community control one are you incorporating?

MR. GOLDBERGER: I can go through them with Your Honor.

THE COURT: None of the them appear to be articulated in the plea sheet which is why I'm asking.

MR. GOLDBERGER: These are the standard conditions of community control by statute would apply to anyone that goes on community control and out of an abundance of caution, we simply memorialized those standard conditions in the plea sheet agreement.

THE COURT: The Court shall require intensive supervision and surveillance for an offender placed on community control which may include but is not limited to specified contact with the parole and probation officer, specified by who?

PROBATION OFFICER: Specified by you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I don't see that in the plea sheet. That's why I'm asking the questions. No one has specified how often, how frequently he is to have contact with his parole and probation officer. Confinement to an agreed upon residence during the hours away from employment and public service activity, has that been articulated?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I believe Judge McSorley has a standard order somewhere on the bench up there regarding this, I'm told by the prosecutor.

MS. LENHARDT: Judge, usually this is the probation sheet she hands out to folks.

THE COURT: I have seen those sheets -- I have seen them incorporated in plea agreements which is why I'm asking.

MR. GOLDBERGER: I see.

THE COURT: Is there some reason you didn't use this particular document in this case?

EFTA00231227

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I didn't realize until Ms. Lenhardt just told me that Judge McSorley has that.

MR. GOLDBERGER: We'd be happy to execute that document, Your Honor. We were -- we overreacted by just having him sign off on all conditions of community control.

THE COURT: Well, this is --

MR. GOLDBERGER: Perhaps the better practice would be --

THE COURT: This is, the reason Judge McSorley does this which makes ultimate sense is we're going to be here half the morning if we're going to decide among ourselves now what the --

MR. GOLDBERGER: That makes sense.

THE COURT: I'm not going to leave this just unspecified.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: We can take care of that right now if you could give us a few minutes.

THE COURT: All right.

These are the standard conditions that Judge McSorley normally uses. If you like them, you need to circle the ones that apply and everyone must initial them. We will go over it. If you wish to change -- you understand there is quite a bit of latitude given the court in putting somebody on community control. If you agree to some change, let me know, but understand at the outset that I'm a big fan of specificity. I want to know what he will be doing for employment. I want to know exactly where he is going to be living and I want it on the record now. It can change but it can only change with preapproval by DOC. I want it crystal clear. I don't want the community control officer who gets this case the day he walks out the Palm Beach County to have any doubt or confusion as to exactly what this defendant is supposed to do, where he is supposed to be when, exactly what I am requesting that officer to supervise.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Absolutely.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLDBERGER: We will work on it. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We will recall that case.

EFTA00231229

(Brief recess.)

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, we are back on Jeffrey Epstein, actually it worked, we had an opportunity to go through Judge McSorley's conditions of community control and we asked the Department of Corrections representative to assist us to make sure we did everything properly. They were very helpful and we executed the document.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes, and Your Honor, this defendant doesn't fall under the sex offender probation but we have included special sex offender conditions as part of the community control and they are all circled there.

THE COURT: The plea agreement stated the defendant is designated as a sexual offender pursuant to Florida Statute 942.035.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct. But the sex offender probation, the statute is different and only applies to certain offenses and this one was not enumerated.

THE COURT: Okay. I want to make sure both I and the defendant are clear. The sexual offender statute you are referring to in the plea sheet is the one that requires registration?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Correct.

THE COURT: And we will talk about that.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Okay.

THE COURT: But it is not the one that requires the special conditions of sex offender probation?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: Now, rather than 948, do you want me to disregard 948? He's read it?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: He's read it.

THE COURT: We will leave it in there. But these conditions we are going to go over right now are going to be viewed in my mind, yes, and they have been signed by the defendant and we will go over that in a second as a part of the whole plea.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: [redacted] circled are conditions, A, you will remain confined to your residence except one half hour before and after your approved employment, community service work or any other activity approved by your probation officer.

B, you will maintain an hourly accounting of all your activities on a daily log which you will submit to your supervising officer upon request.

My understanding about the daily log, maybe I'm just confused from other cases I've heard, is the daily log is a weekly log, I guess it is submitted ahead of time, is that correct?

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: [redacted] part A, where he has to stay in his residence except for one hour before and after the approved employment, community service work and other activity. All that's information that will be recorded in writing and the defendant will have a copy and he will know exactly where he is supposed to be when.

EFTA00231232

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: As will his supervising probation officer. And then to document that he's supposedly done all that he himself will be keeping a daily log?

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And the log form will be provided by the department and he will be turning that in every time he meets with the probation officer?

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. [redacted] that applies and F applies. Does E apply? No.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Did I circle E?

THE COURT: No. F -- made one up, the defendant will be residing at 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, Florida, 33480. He knows now that that's where he will be living when he is released after his 12 months and six months.

MR. GOLDBERGER: That is correct, Your Honor.

EFTA00231233

THE COURT: That's a private residence?

MR. GOLDBERGER: That is his home.

THE COURT: Does he own the residence?

MR. GOLDBERGER: He does, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Is there any possibility that he no longer owns the residence?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Not anticipated, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Should he not be for whatever reason -- 18-months is a long time, should he not be owning that residence or able to reside there, he will have the obligation of notifying his probation officer prior, and I emphasize this, prior to his release from custody. I assume that the department will be notified prior to, to his release?

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And then you would need to send someone to meet with him before he walks out of the Palm Beach County jail and verify his address and employment information?

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct.

THE COURT: All address -- I assume all of this to and from work and any other approved activities restricts him to Palm Beach County, is that correct?

PROBATION OFFICER: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: [redacted] let's be clear, everything, from the day he walks out occurs in Palm Beach County, is that clear?

MR. GOLDBERGER: We understand, Your Honor. That's correct.

THE COURT: Then the additional condition of his probation, they are not sex offender standard conditions, they are just conditions that are being imposed especially in this case?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: They are as follows, you shall submit to a mandatory curfew from 10 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. regardless of any other restrictions regarding work or approved activity, there will be no exceptions to being at home in house from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m., is that correct?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: If the victim was under age of 18 years which I gather is the case because it's circled, you shall not live within 1000 feet of a school, day care center, park, playground or other place where children regularly congregate.

Has someone verified that 358 El Brillo is such a place?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: No, but that will be done prior to his release.

THE COURT: [redacted] 358 El Brillo will not be approved if it should happen to be one thousand feet from a school, day care center, park, playground or other place -- this is rather open.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Where children gather.

THE COURT: Where children regularly congregate.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Right.

THE COURT: The Court knows 358 El Brillo Way is a residential neighborhood, are there areas there where children regularly congregate?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I personally do not know.

THE COURT: Neither do I, which is why I'm asking. Has that been investigated?

MR. GOLDBERGER: We have done our due diligence, for what it's worth, there is a residential street. There are not children congregating on that street. We think the address applies, if it doesn't, we fully recognize that he can't live there.

THE COURT: Okay. D is, you shall not have any contact with the victim, are there more than one victim?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: There's several.

THE COURT: Several, all of the victims. [redacted] this should be plural. I'm making that plural. You are not to have any contact direct or indirect, and in this day and age I find it necessary to go over exactly what we mean by indirect. By indirect, we mean no text messages, no e-mail, no Face Book, no My Space, no telephone calls, no voice mails, no messages through carrier pigeon, no messages through third parties, no hey would you tell [redacted] and [redacted] for me, no having a friend, acquaintance or stranger approach any of these victims with a message of any sort from you, is that clear?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am

THE COURT: And then it states, unless approved by the victim, the therapist and the sentencing court. Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

THE COURT: And the sentencing court. [redacted], if there is a desire which, I would think would be a bit strange to have contact with any of the victims the court must approve it.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: If the victim was under the age of 18, which was the case, you shall not until you have successfully attended and completed the sex offender program. [redacted], is this sex offender program becoming a condition of probation?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: That is not. I don't believe I circled that one.

EFTA00231238

THE COURT: You did.

MR. GOLDBERGER: That's a mistake on our part. Actually the statute that he is pleading guilty to does not require the --

THE COURT: I understand that, but you circled it.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I apologize, that one is not. He has already been in treatment with a private psychiatrist.

THE COURT: Which you find to be an adequate substitute for sex offender program?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I -- it is not required and based upon the evaluation and my contact with that doctor, I don't believe it's necessary at this point.

THE COURT: Has that been -- I assume you have a law degree and do not have a Ph.D in a psychology or [redacted] in psychiatry?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: That is correct, I don't.

THE COURT: [redacted] it is just your judgement --

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: -- that his treatment

EFTA00231239

with some fancy private psychiatrist or psychologist in his case is okay?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: That is correct.

THE COURT: [redacted] you are not imposing E?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: F, if the victim was under the age of 18, you shall not work or play or as a volunteer in any school, day care center, park, play ground or other place where children regularly congregate, is that understood?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Children will be defined as anyone under the age of 18. There are a lot of places where children regularly congregate. What kind of work do you do?

THE DEFENDANT: Banking.

THE COURT: Here in Palm Beach County?

THE DEFENDANT: Virgin Islands, ma'am.

THE COURT: You understand you will not travel from Palm Beach County for the duration of this?

EFTA00231240

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, I'm sorry to interrupt, we do cover the employment later in the agreement as to what he is going to be doing during the one year that he is on community control.

THE COURT: Okay. And let me -- condition G, which is circled, unless otherwise indicated in the treatment plan provided by sexual offender treatment program.

MR. GOLDBERGER: That's not in there.

THE COURT: Is that what you want?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: No.

THE COURT: But you do want the, you will not view, own or possess any obscene pornographic --

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: Okay. But are you saying that this therapist can okay him to own certain pornographic material?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: No, not at all.

MR. GOLDBERGER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Would be really helpful if people read these things before they signed them thoroughly.

Unless otherwise indicated in the treatment plan. I'm just going to strike out, provided by the sexual offender treatment program. Is that what you intend, that his therapist can --

MS. BELOHLAVEK: No.

THE COURT: No?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: No.

THE COURT: Unless otherwise indicated.

MR. GOLDBERGER: The parties have agreed that during the period that he is -- cannot be --

THE COURT: Condition G will now read, you shall not view, own, possess any obscene, pornographic or sexually stimulating visual or auditory material including telephonic, electronic media, computer program or computer services that are relevant to your deviant behavior pattern. And who is going to enforce that?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: The community control officer.

THE COURT: How?

EFTA00231242

MS. BELOHLAVEK: They have the obligation and included in there for warrantless search to check at any time his home, his computer, anything he has contact with.

THE COURT: And do they regularly do that?

PROBATION OFFICER: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Since we have the pleasure of having someone from the Department of Corrections here.

Okay. H, you shall submit two specimens of blood to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement to be registered in the DNA data bank.

J, you shall submit to a warrantless search by your probation officer or community control officer of your person, residence or vehicle.

G -- where is the G?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: That was under the original part, not under the sex offender one.

THE COURT: Okay. Defendant to have contact with the community control officer at a minimum one time a week.

Defendant to work at Florida Science Foundation, 250 Australian Avenue, West Palm Beach, Florida. Is that volunteer work or work for pay?

MR. GOLDBERGER: It is a 501C corporation that he has formed, Your Honor, that will be doing charitable work.

THE COURT: That he has formed?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes.

THE COURT: What exactly is Florida Science Foundation?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Do you want to explain?

THE DEFENDANT: It funds science programs around the state and the country.

THE COURT: How long has it been in existence?

THE DEFENDANT: Fifteen years.

THE COURT: How many programs has it funded?

THE DEFENDANT: Numerous, more than 50.

THE COURT: What is your position with the organization?

EFTA00231244

THE DEFENDANT: President.

THE COURT: Is there a board of directors?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Who's on the board of directors?

THE DEFENDANT: Two attorneys.

THE COURT: What exactly do you do?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm an investment banker but my --

THE COURT: No, no, I mean with the science foundation.

THE DEFENDANT: We fund science programs --

THE COURT: I don't want to know what we do, I want to know what you do. How often are you there?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm there every day, I research, I take in people who want to make presentations about why they need money for funding medical research, advanced science research. My background is in physics. I go through all the programs in detail, review the science work potentials, I follow through on a daily basis with what they have been given money to do.

THE COURT: Who are some recent grantees?

THE DEFENDANT: Harvard University. There is a full program of Evolutionary Dynamics, Neuro Science Institute of California, the Physics Institute, MIT.

THE COURT: Do you ever have occasion to deal with anyone under the age of eighteen?

THE DEFENDANT: Not very often. It is, if someone is in college -- sorry.

THE COURT: Right, that's why I'm asking the question.

THE DEFENDANT: Most of the people I fund are all usually professors.

THE COURT: Thank you. You understand that you can't have contact with anyone if -- this organization, do they ever have any involvement with high schools?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Students or teachers?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

EFTA00231246

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Those are duplicates, you will see those are the same as the ones on the previous page, however, it was reproduced.

THE COURT: The next condition, you shall maintain a driving log. You shall not drive a motor vehicle while alone without prior approval of your supervising officer.

If there was sexual contact, you shall submit to at probationer's or community controllee's expense an HIV test with results to be released to the victims, victim's parent or guardian -- will be victims, plural. Has that been done?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Not yet.

THE COURT: Do we have a time frame on that? I would think ASAP might be good on something like that.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I believe they can actually do that at the jail.

THE COURT: At his expense?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: I would request that that

be done within 48 hours?

You shall not obtain or use a post office box without prior approval of the supervising officer.

Okay. Are all those conditions you two have agreed to?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. GOLDBERGER: With the court's amendments, yes.

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein, do you understand?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: I need the defendant to sign number D where I had an s added to victim, and G, we struck out the otherwise indicated language. Otherwise, it is as you agreed.

Mr. Epstein, do you understand this is a somewhat complicated terms of the plea that you've agreed to?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am

THE COURT: Do you have any questions about the terms of the plea?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Can I ask the State why

EFTA00231248

you choose -- or defense and the State together, why twelve months in the Palm Beach County jail followed by six months? Why not just send him to DOC?

MR. GOLDBERGER: It was the agreement of the parties, Your Honor. We just decided that was the best way to accomplish what needed to be done here and the parties agreed that that sentence satisfied everyone's requirements.

THE COURT: The taxpayers of Palm Beach County is going to pay 18 months to house this guy instead of DOC?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Right.

THE COURT: You understand we're losing positions left and right in county government because we haven't got enough money but you want -- okay.

His requirement to register there is many, many -- there is nine pages outlining the sexual offender's requirement to register with the department and penalty, have you read all those, Mr. Epstein?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

EFTA00231249

THE COURT: Do you understand you will be required to register and this will be an ongoing life long obligation?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And this registration occurs when?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Within 48-hours of release.

THE COURT: [redacted] when he gets out of the Palm Beach County jail, he needs to register? Okay. And the department -- who is going to provide him with the form?

MR. GOLDBERGER: He actually registers out at the Sheriff's Office, Your Honor, we can do it out there.

THE COURT: Okay. It has been brought to my attention that FDLE is the one who is statutorily required to handle these registrations but some of our municipal jurisdictions have taken it upon themselves to impose additional requirements, y'all understand that?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Right.

THE COURT: What you are telling him

EFTA00231250

he has to do is the official State of Florida registration?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein, I need to make sure you understand that that's what's required by this plea. Anyone on probation, community control is required to live and abide by the laws. [redacted] if a jurisdiction you choose to reside in should have some additional municipal requirements you will be required in order to comply with the law of living there, just like you can't get a parking ticket or speeding ticket, to comply with those regulations but I want to make sure you understand because I have seen some defendants who have been confused about this. If you don't, for example, if the Town of Palm Beach has you register that does not take care of your requirement. Your requirement to register with FDLE through the Sheriff's office is separate, distinct and must be done on their form according to their schedule.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

EFTA00231251

THE COURT: And if my experience the last few months is of any value, they are very serious about enforcing this. They will be tracking you for the rest of your life. Do not move. Do not go -- I don't care when you are done with community control, they need to know exactly where you are and if you go anywhere without registering, they will find and you will be locked up.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Any questions about that?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Did you read the plea in the circuit court form that describes all the rights you are giving up by entering this plea?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: I think I asked you before, can you read?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Are you under the influence of alcohol, drugs or medication today?

EFTA00231252

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Normally taking any prescribed medication?

THE DEFENDANT: Only for cholesterol.

THE COURT: Does that interfere with your mental ability?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Do you understand you have an attorney, you have a right to trial by jury, there is not going to be a jury trial. There won't be witnesses called. That your attorney and you would have a right to confront and cross examine, do you understand you have a right to call witnesses of your own and the court would issue subpoenas to compel their attendance just like any other witness called by the State, that you have the right -- absolute right to remain silent and that you would not have to say or do anything at the trial if there were a trial, do you understand those rights?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Do you understand if you are not a United States citizen your plea could subject you to deportation pursuant to the laws and regulations governing the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service and this court has no jurisdiction or authority in such matters, do you understand that?

EFTA00231253

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Has anybody threatened you, coerced you or promised you anything other than the terms of this plea to get you to enter this plea?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Do you understand this is a plea in criminal court?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: This has -- in criminal court in Palm Beach County, State of Florida. I have absolutely nothing to do with any civil matters or matters in any other jurisdiction, do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Is this plea in any way tied to any promises or representations by any civil attorneys or other jurisdictions?

MR. GOLDBERGER: May we come sidebar

EFTA00231254

on that, Your Honor?

THE COURT: It is going to be recorded.

MR. GOLDBERGER: That's fine.

THE COURT: Defendant needs to approach as well.

(Whereupon, there was a conference at the bench.)

MR. GOLDBERGER: The reason why I asked to come sidebar, there is a nonprosecution agreement with the United States Attorney's office that triggers as a result of this plea agreement. In other words, they have signed off and said they will not prosecute Mr. Epstein in the Southern District of Florida for any offense upon his successful taking of this plea today. That is a confidential document that the parties have agreed to. Just in an abundance of caution, I wanted to tell the court.

THE COURT: I understand, that would also be invalidated should he violate his community control?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Absolutely. That

nonprosecution agreement --

MS. BELOHLAVEK: They spell all that out.

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein needs to come closer.

Mr. Epstein, your attorney has told me that in addition to everything, we talked about another Inducement, shall we say, to your taking this plea is that the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of the State of Florida, federal prosecutor, has agreed to a nonprosecution agreement with you, meaning that if you successfully complete probation and do everything you're supposed to, they have, have agreed not to prosecute you federally, did you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And I would view that as a significant inducement in accepting this plea.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: They are actually in court here today, also.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLDBERGER: And the plea

agreement very carefully spelled out if there was a breach that would violate this agreement, [redacted] we are well aware of it.

THE COURT: Okay. I would request that a sealed copy of that -- Mr. Epstein has signed that document?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, I would like to seal the copy.

THE COURT: I want a sealed copy of that filed in this case. That is the only other condition of the agreement that is influencing this defendant to make this decision?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Absolutely. I think that's the right idea.

(Return to open court.)

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein, is there anything else?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Because I don't take these pleas unless they are freely and voluntarily made.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that.

THE COURT: I also don't want somebody or anybody coming back a year,

EFTA00231257

two years from now saying, oh no, no, they beat me over the head or if there is anything else that is influencing you to make this decision, then I need to know about it.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you.

THE DEFENDANT: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

(Return to open court.)

THE COURT: All right, Mr. Epstein, any questions about the rights you are giving up by entering this plea?

THE DEFENDANT: No ma'am.

THE COURT: State, please give me a factual basis.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: In 069454 CF AMB, between August 1, 2004 and October 31, 2005, the defendant in Palm Beach County did solicit or procure someone to commit prosecution on three or more occasions.

And in 08 CF 9381 CF AMB between August 1, 2004 and October 9, 2005, the defendant did procure a minor under the age of 18 to commit prostitution in Palm Beach

EFTA00231258

County also.

THE COURT: I find a sufficient factual basis to support the pleas.

Are all of the victims in both of these cases in agreement with the terms of this plea?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I have spoken to several myself and I have spoken to counsel, through counsel as to the other victim, and I believe, yes.

THE COURT: And with regard to the victims under age eighteen, is that victim's parents or guardian in agreement with the plea?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: That victim is not under age 18 any more and that's why we spoke with her counsel.

THE COURT: And she is in agreement with the plea?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: And community control will be given information concerning how to contact these victims?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: Confidentially. That information will not be related to the defendant but will be used exclusively for purposes of verifying compliance with this agreement?

EFTA00231259

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Yes.

THE COURT: Is there anything else from anybody else before I accept this plea?

MR. GOLDBERGER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Goldberger, if it is your desire, you may enter your client's plea.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you, Your Honor, at this time we would withdraw our previously entered pleas of not guilty, enter pleas of guilty pursuant to negotiations with the State.

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein, I am going to accept those pleas on your behalf. I find you are intelligent, alert, you understand what is going on here and the consequence of entering this plea, you are doing it freely and voluntarily.

Pursuant to the plea, I am waiving a PSI, I will sentence you at this time pursuant to it. I will adjudicate you guilty of felony solicitation of prostitution, a third degree felony, case number 06 CF 00945A -- 454 AMB, and procuring a person under 18 for prostitution, a second degree felony 08 CF 009381AMB.

With respect to the solicitation of prosecution, I will sentence you to twelve months in the Palm Beach County detention facility with credit for the one day served.

With respect to 08 CF 009381, I will sentence you to six months in the Palm Beach County detention facility, with credit for the one day served. That six month sentence is to be served consecutive to the twelve month sentence.

Following the six month sentence you will be placed on 12 months of community control. That will be on both cases, I assume, to run concurrently, correct?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Only on the 08 case.

THE COURT: Only on the second degree felony?

EFTA00231261

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct, the one that designates him a sexual offender.

THE COURT: Okay. [redacted] only on case number 08 CF 009381AMB will you be on one year community control which would then invoke a potential penalty of fifteen years were you to violate.

The special conditions are that you are to have no unsupervised contact with minors and the supervising adult must be approved by the Department of Corrections. You are to be designated a sexual offender pursuant to Florida Statute 943.0435 and you must abide by all requirements of that statute which I have read and we have discussed.

You will remain confined to your residence except one half hour before and after your approved employment, community service work or other activities approved by your probation officer. You will maintain an hourly accounting of all your activity on a daily log which you submit to the supervising officer upon request.

EFTA00231262

You will be residing at 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, Florida 33480. Should you desire to move or go to a different location upon release from custody, you will get preapproval of that location from the Department of Corrections. You will have to contact your community control officer a minimum of once a week, it can be more often at their discretion and you are to work at the Florida Science Foundation at 250 Australian Avenue in West Palm Beach, Florida. You will submit to a mandatory curfew of 10 p.m. to 6 a.m.

You shall not live within a thousand feet of a school, day care center, park, playground or other place where children congregate. You shall not have any contact with the victims, directly or indirectly including through a third person unless approved by victim's therapist and the sentencing court.

You shall not work for pay or as a volunteer at any school, day care center park, play ground, other place where children may congregate. You shall not view, own or possess any obscene pornographic or sexually stimulating or visual, auditory material including telephone, electronic media, computer programs, computer services that are relevant to deviant behavior.

You shall submit two specimens of blood to Florida Department of Law Enforcement to be registered with the DNA data bank. You shall submit to a warrantless search by the probation officer or community control officer of your person, residence or vehicle.

You shall maintain a driving log. You shall not drive a motor vehicle while alone without prior approval of the supervising officer.

You shall submit to, at probationer or community control expense a HIV test, the result of which is to be released to the victims or victim's parent or guardian. That has to be done within 48 hours.

You shall not obtain or a use post office box without the prior approval of the supervising officer.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: You forgot one that you may not possess, own or view sexually stimulating -- I don't believe you read that outloud just now.

THE COURT: Yes, I did.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: I'm sorry, I didn't hear it. I just wanted to make sure.

THE COURT: And the warrantless search by the community control officer of the person, residence or vehicle -- understand the person, residence or vehicle includes anything you might possess like computer, a cell phone and whatever other elaborate devices there are to communicate electronically these days, okay. Good luck.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Thank you.

THE COURT: Is there a judgment?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, there should be judgments.

THE COURT: Was there a condition of community control that he pay or is he paying it?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Actually there is a cash bond posted, court cost can be deducted from the cash bond.

THE COURT: $574 is the total?

MS. BELOHLAVEK: Correct.

THE COURT: Is that to cover both cases?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you, Your Honor.

(Whereupon, at 9:48 o'clock a.m. the proceedings before the Court concluded.)

948.101 Terms and conditions of community control and criminal quarantine community control.--

(1) The court shall determine the terms and conditions of community control. Conditions specified in this subsection do not require oral pronouncement at the time of sentencing and may be considered standard conditions of community control.

(a) The court shall require intensive supervision and surveillance for an offender placed into community control, which may include but is not limited to:

1. Specified contact with the parole and probation officer.

2. Confinement to an agreed-upon residence during hours away from employment and public service activities.

3. Mandatory public service.

4. Supervision by the Department of Corrections by means of an electronic monitoring device or system.

5. The standard conditions of probation set forth in s. 948.03.

(b) For an offender placed on criminal quarantine community control, the court shall require:

1. Electronic monitoring 24 hours per day.

2. Confinement to a designated residence during designated hours.

(2) The enumeration of specific kinds of terms and conditions does not prevent the court from adding thereto any other terms or conditions that the court considers proper. However, the sentencing court may only impose a condition of supervision allowing an offender convicted of s. 794.011, s. 800.04, s. 827.071, or s. 847.0145 to reside in another state if the order stipulates that it is contingent upon the approval of the receiving state interstate compact authority. The court may rescind or modify at any time the terms and conditions theretofore imposed by it upon the offender in community control. However, if the court withholds adjudication of guilt or imposes a period of incarceration as a condition of community control, the period may not exceed 364 days, and incarceration shall be restricted to a county facility, a probation and restitution center under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, a probation program drug punishment phase I secure residential treatment institution, or a community residential facility owned or operated by any entity providing such services.

(3) The court may place a defendant who is being sentenced for criminal transmission of HIV in violation of s. 775.0877 on criminal quarantine community control. The Department of Corrections shall develop and administer a criminal quarantine community control program emphasizing intensive supervision with 24-hour-per-day electronic monitoring. Criminal quarantine community control status must include surveillance and may include other measures normally associated with community control, except that specific conditions necessary to monitor this population may be ordered.

[1]943.0435 Sexual offenders required to register with the department; penalty.--

(1) As used in this section, the term:

2. In the county where he or she was convicted within 48 hours after being convicted for [redacted] qualifying offense for registration under this section if the offender is not in the custody or control of, or under the supervision of, the Department of Corrections, or is not in the custody of a private correctional facility.

Any change in the sexual offender's permanent or temporary residence, name, any electronic mail address and any instant message name required to be provided pursuant to paragraph (4)(d), after the sexual offender reports in person at the sheriff's office, shall be accomplished in the manner provided in subsections (4), (7), and (8).

(b) Provide his or her name, date of birth, social security number, race, sex, height, weight, hair and eye color, tattoos or other identifying marks, occupation and place of employment, address of permanent or legal residence or address of any current temporary residence, within the state and out of state, including a rural route address and a post office box, any electronic mail address and any instant message name required to be provided pursuant to paragraph (4)(d), date and place of each conviction, and a brief description of the crime or crimes committed by the offender. A post office box shall not be provided in lieu of a physical residential address.

1. If the sexual offender's place of residence is a motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home, as defined in chapter 320, the sexual offender shall also provide to the department through the sheriff's office written notice of the vehicle identification number; the license tag number; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home. Each change in enrollment or employment status shall be reported in person at the sheriff's office, within 48 hours after any change in status. The sheriff shall promptly notify each institution of the sexual offender's presence and any change in the sexual offender's enrollment or employment status.

When a sexual offender reports at the sheriff's office, the sheriff shall take a photograph and a set of fingerprints of the offender and forward the photographs and fingerprints to the department, along with the information provided by the sexual offender. The sheriff shall promptly provide to the department the information received from the sexual offender.

(3) Within 48 hours after the report required under subsection (2), a sexual offender shall report in person at a driver's license office of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, unless a driver's license or identification card that complies with the requirements of s. 322.141(3) was previously secured or updated under s. 944.607. At the driver's license office the sexual offender shall:

(a) If otherwise qualified, secure a Florida driver's license, renew a Florida driver's license, or secure an identification card. The sexual offender shall identify himself or herself as a sexual offender who is required to comply with this section and shall provide proof that the sexual offender reported as required in subsection (2). The sexual offender shall provide any of the information specified in subsection (2), if requested. The sexual offender shall submit to the taking of a photograph for use in issuing a driver's license, renewed license, or identification card, and for use by the department in maintaining current records of sexual offenders.

(b) Pay the costs assessed by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles for issuing or renewing a driver's license or identification card as required by this section. The driver's license or identification card issued must be in compliance with s. 322.141(3).

(c) Provide, upon request, any additional information necessary to confirm the identity of the sexual offender, including a set of fingerprints.

(4)(a) Each time a sexual offender's driver's license or identification card is subject to renewal, and, without regard to the status of the offender's driver's license or identification card, within 48 hours after any change in the offender's permanent or temporary residence or change in the offender's name by reason of marriage or other legal process, the offender shall report in person to a driver's license office, and shall be subject to the requirements specified in subsection (3). The Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles shall forward to the department all photographs and information provided by sexual offenders. Notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in s. 322.142, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles is authorized to release a reproduction of a color-photograph or digital-image license to the Department of Law Enforcement for purposes of public notification of sexual offenders as provided in this section and ss. 943.043 and 944.606.

(b) A sexual offender who vacates a permanent residence and fails to establish or maintain another permanent or temporary residence shall, within 48 hours after vacating the permanent residence, report in person to the sheriff's office of the county in which he or she is located. The sexual offender shall specify the date upon which he or she intends to or did vacate such residence. The sexual offender must provide or update all of the registration information required under paragraph (2)(b). The sexual offender must provide an address for the residence or other location that he or she is or will be occupying during the time in which he or she fails to establish or maintain a permanent or temporary residence.

(c) A sexual offender who remains at a permanent residence after reporting his or her intent to vacate such residence shall, within 48 hours after the date upon which the offender indicated he or she would or did vacate such residence, report in person to the agency to which he or she reported pursuant to paragraph (b) for the purpose of reporting his or her address at such residence. When the sheriff receives the report, the sheriff shall promptly convey the information to the department. An offender who makes a report as required under paragraph (b) but fails to make a report as required under this paragraph commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(d) A sexual offender must register any electronic mail address or instant message name with the department prior to using such electronic mail address or instant message name on or after October 1, 2007. The department shall establish an online system through which sexual offenders may securely access and update all electronic mail address and instant message name information.

(5) This section does not apply to [redacted] offender who is also a sexual predator, as defined in s. 775.21. A sexual predator must register as required under s. 775.21.

(6) County and local law enforcement agencies, in conjunction with the department, shall verify the addresses of sexual offenders who are not under the care, custody, control, or supervision of the Department of Corrections in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of the federal Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 and any other federal standards applicable to such verification or required to be met as a condition for the receipt of federal funds by the state. Local law enforcement agencies shall report to the department any failure by a sexual offender to comply with registration requirements.

(7) A sexual offender who intends to establish residence in another state or jurisdiction other than the State of Florida shall report in person to the sheriff of the county of current residence within 48 hours before the date he or she intends to leave this state to establish residence in another state or jurisdiction. The notification must include the address, municipality, county, and state of intended residence. The sheriff shall promptly provide to the department the information received from the sexual offender. The department shall notify the statewide law enforcement agency, or a comparable agency, in the intended state or jurisdiction of residence of the sexual offender's intended residence. The failure of a sexual offender to provide his or her intended place of residence is punishable as provided in subsection (9).

(8) A sexual offender who indicates his or her intent to reside in another state or jurisdiction other than the State of Florida and later decides to remain in this state shall, within 48 hours after the date upon which the sexual offender indicated he or she would leave this state, report in person to the sheriff to which the sexual offender reported the intended change of residence, and report his or her intent to remain in this state. The sheriff shall promptly report this information to the department. A sexual offender who reports his or her intent to reside in another state or jurisdiction but who remains in this state without reporting to the sheriff in the manner required by this subsection commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(9)(a) A sexual offender who does not comply with the requirements of this section commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) A sexual offender who commits any act or omission in violation of this section may be prosecuted for the act or omission in the county in which the act or omission was committed, the county of the last registered address of the sexual offender, or the county in which the conviction occurred for the offense or offenses that meet the criteria for designating a person as a sexual offender.

(c) [redacted] arrest on charges of failure to register when the offender has been provided and advised of his or her statutory obligations to register under subsection (2), the service of an information or a complaint for a violation of this section, or an arraignment on charges for a violation of this section constitutes actual notice of the duty to register. A sexual offender's failure to immediately register as required by this section following such arrest, service, or arraignment constitutes grounds for a subsequent charge of failure to register. A sexual offender charged with the crime of failure to register who asserts, or intends to assert, a lack of notice of the duty to register as a defense to a charge of failure to register shall immediately register as required by this section. A sexual offender who is charged with a subsequent failure to register may not assert the defense of a lack of notice of the duty to register.

(d) Registration following such arrest, service, or arraignment is not a defense and does not relieve the sexual offender of criminal liability for the failure to register.

(10) The department, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Juvenile Justice, any law enforcement agency in this state, and the personnel of those departments; an elected or appointed official, public employee, or school administrator; or an employee, agency, or any individual or entity acting at the request or upon the direction of any law enforcement agency is immune from civil liability for damages for good faith compliance with the requirements of this section or for the release of information under this section, and shall be presumed to have acted in good faith in compiling, recording, reporting, or releasing the information. The presumption of good faith is not overcome if a technical or clerical error is made by the department, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the personnel of those departments, or any individual or entity acting at the request or upon the direction of any of those departments in compiling or providing information, or if information is incomplete or incorrect because a sexual offender fails to report or falsely reports his or her current place of permanent or temporary residence.

(11) Except as provided in s. 943.04354, [redacted] offender must maintain registration with the department for the duration of his or her life, unless the sexual offender has received a full pardon or has had a conviction set aside in a postconviction proceeding for any offense that meets the criteria for classifying the person as a sexual offender for purposes of registration. However, a sexual offender:

(a)1. Who has been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or sanction, whichever is later, for at least 25 years and has not been arrested for any felony or misdemeanor offense since release, provided that the sexual offender's requirement to register was not based upon an adult conviction:

a. For a violation of s. 787.01 or s. 787.02;

b. For a violation of s. 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10);

c. For a violation of s. 800.04(4)(b) where the court finds the offense involved a victim under 12 years of age or sexual activity by the use of force or coercion;

d. For a violation of s. 800.04(5)(b);

e. For a violation of s. 800.04(5)c.2. where the court finds the offense involved unclothed genitals or genital area;

f. For any attempt or conspiracy to commit any such offense; or

g. For a violation of similar law of another jurisdiction, may petition the criminal division of the circuit court of the circuit in which the sexual offender resides for the purpose of removing the requirement for registration as a sexual offender.

2. The court may grant or deny relief if the offender demonstrates to the court that he or she has not been arrested for any crime since release; the requested relief complies with the provisions of the federal Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 and any other federal standards applicable [redacted] the removal of registration requirements for a sexual offender or required to be met as a condition for the receipt of federal funds by the state; and the court is otherwise satisfied that the offender is not a current or potential threat to public safety. The state attorney in the circuit in which the petition is filed must be given notice of the petition at least 3 weeks before the hearing on the matter. The state attorney may present evidence in opposition to the requested relief or may otherwise demonstrate the reasons why the petition should be denied. If the court denies the petition, the court may set a future date at which the sexual offender may again petition the court for relief, subject to the standards for relief provided in this subsection.

3. The department shall remove an offender from classification as a sexual offender for purposes of registration if the offender provides to the department a certified copy of the court's written findings or order that indicates that the offender is no longer required to comply with the requirements for registration as a sexual offender.

(b) As defined in sub-subparagraph (1)(a)1.b. must maintain registration with the department for the duration of his or her life until the person provides the department with an order issued by the court that designated the person as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in the state or jurisdiction in which the order was issued which states that such designation has been removed or demonstrates to the department that such designation, if not imposed by a court, has [redacted] removed by operation of law or court order in the state or jurisdiction in which the designation was made, and provided such person no longer meets the criteria for registration as a sexual offender under the laws of this state.

(12) The Legislature finds that sexual offenders, especially those who have committed offenses against minors, often pose a high risk of engaging in sexual offenses even after being released from incarceration or commitment and that protection of the public from sexual offenders is a paramount government interest. Sexual offenders have a reduced expectation of privacy because of the public's interest in public safety and in the effective operation of government. Releasing information concerning sexual offenders to law enforcement agencies and to persons who request such information, and the release of such information to the public by a law enforcement agency or public agency, will further the governmental interests of public safety. The designation of a person as a sexual offender is not a sentence or a punishment but is simply the status of the offender which is the result of a conviction for having committed certain crimes.

(13) Any person who has reason to believe that a sexual offender is not complying, or has not complied, with the requirements of this section and who, with the intent to assist the sexual offender in eluding a law enforcement agency that is seeking to find the sexual offender to question the sexual offender about, or to arrest the sexual offender for, his or her noncompliance with the requirements of this section:

(a) Withholds information from, or does not notify, the law enforcement agency about the sexual offender's noncompliance with the requirements of this section, and, if known, the whereabouts of the sexual offender;

(b) Harbors, or attempts to harbor, or assists another person in harboring or attempting to harbor, the sexual offender; or

(c) Conceals or attempts to conceal, or assists another person in concealing or attempting to conceal, the sexual offender; or

(d) Provides information to the law enforcement agency regarding the sexual offender that the person knows to be false information, commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(14)(a) A sexual offender must report in person each year during the month of the sexual offender's birthday and during the sixth month following the sexual offender's birth month to the sheriff's office in the county in which he or she resides or is otherwise located to reregister.

(b) However, a sexual offender who is required to register as a result of a conviction for:

1. Section 787.01 or s. 787.02 where the victim is a minor and the offender is not the victim's parent or guardian;

2. Section 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10);

3. Section 800.04(4)(b) where the court finds the offense involved a victim under 12 years of age or sexual activity by the use of force or coercion;

4. Section 800.04(5)(b);

5. Section 800.04(5)(c)1. where the court finds molestation involving unclothed genitals or genital area;

6. Section 800.04(5)c.2. where the court finds molestation involving unclothed genitals or genital area;

7. Section 800.04(5)(d) where the court finds the use of force or coercion and unclothed genitals or genital area;

8. Any attempt or conspiracy to commit such offense; or

9. A violation of a similar law of another jurisdiction, must reregister each year during the month of the sexual offender's birthday and every third month thereafter.

(c) The sheriff's office may determine the appropriate times and days for reporting by the sexual offender, which shall be consistent with the reporting requirements of this subsection. Reregistration shall include any changes to the following information:

1. Name; social security number; age; race; sex; date of birth; height; weight; hair and eye color; address of any permanent residence and address of any current temporary residence, within the state or out of state, including a rural route address and a post office box; any electronic mail address and any instant message name required to be provided pursuant to paragraph (4)(d); date and place of any employment; vehicle make, model, color, and license tag number; fingerprints; and photograph. A post office box shall not be provided in lieu of a physical residential address.

2. If the sexual offender is enrolled, employed, or carrying on a vocation at an institution of higher education in this state, the sexual offender shall also provide to the department the name, address, and county of each institution, including each campus attended, and the sexual offender's enrollment or employment status.

3. If the sexual offender's place of residence is a motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home, as defined in chapter 320, the sexual offender shall also provide the vehicle identification number; the license tag number; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home. If the sexual offender's place of residence is a vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat, as defined in chapter 327, the sexual offender shall also provide the hull identification number; the manufacturer's serial number; the name of the vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the vessel, live-aboard vessel or houseboat.

4. Any sexual offender who fails to report in person as required at the sheriff's office, or who fails to respond to any address verification correspondence from the department within 3 weeks of the date of the correspondence or who fails to report electronic mail addresses or instant message names, commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(d) The sheriff's office shall, within 2 working days, electronically submit and update all information provided by the sexual offender to the department in a manner prescribed by the department.

NONPARTY [redacted]'S MOTION TO VACATE ORDER SEALING RECORDS AND UNSEAL RECORDS

[redacted]., a nonparty, moves pursuant to the Rules of Judicial Administration Rule 2.420(d)(5) to vacate the order sealing records and unseal two documents in these files on the following grounds:

1. EW is a victim of sexual abuse by defendant who was convicted of procuring a person under 18 for prostitution and felony solicitation of prostitution. See attached judgments of conviction (Exhibit "A".) E.W. presently has a pending civil action in this court against defendant for damages. Case number 502008CA028058XXXXMB AB.

2. On June 30, 2008 and August 25, 2008, this Court sealed two documents, a non-prosecution agreement and an addendum to non-prosecution agreement. See attached copies of envelopes containing the sealed documents and also an Agreed Order Sealing Document In Court File entered July 2, 2008 (Exhibit "B".)

3. The sealing of these documents was done without written motion required by Rule 2.420(d)(1) or notice to the public, the media, the record newspaper and the victims of defendant required by Rule 2.420(d)(2). The Agreed Order does not set forth the grounds set forth in Rule 2.420(d)(3). The clerk of court did not post a copy of the notice of the order as required by Rule 2.420(d)(4).

4. The sealing of these documents was also done contrary to the Administrative Orders of this Court, AO 2.104, 2.032, 2.303 and 11.046.

5. The request to seal the first document was made orally at the plea hearing on June 30, 2008. A copy of the relevant portion of the transcript is attached (see pages 38-40) (Exhibit "C".)

6. It is against public policy for these documents to have been sealed and hidden from public scrutiny. As a member of the public, [redacted]. has a right to have these documents unsealed. Furthermore, these documents are relevant and material to E.W.'s civil action against defendant. As stated in the plea colloquy, they were an inducement for defendant to enter into his guilty pleas. They are proper objects of discovery. However, unless they are unsealed, E.W. is unable to obtain them or utilize them in her case.

7. Pursuant to Rule 2.420(d)(5), the Court must hold a hearing on this motion in open court.

WHEREFORE movant requests the Court vacate the order sealing records and unseal the two documents.

on that, Your Honor?

THE COURT: It is going to be recorded.

MR. GOLDBERGER: That's fine.

THE COURT: Defendant needs to approach as well.

(Whereupon, there was a conference at the bench.)

MR. GOLDBERGER: The reason why I asked to come sidebar, there is a nonprosecution agreement with the United States Attorney's office that triggers as a result of this plea agreement. In other words, they have signed off and said they will not prosecute Mr. Epstein in the Southern District of Florida for any offense upon his successful taking of this plea today. That is a confidential document that the parties have agreed to. Just in an abundance of caution, I wanted to tell the court.

THE COURT: I understand, that would also be invalidated should he violate his community control?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Absolutely. That

nonprosecution agreement --

MS. BELOHLAVEK: They spell all that out.

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein needs to come closer.

Mr. Epstein, your attorney has told me that in addition to everything, we talked about another Inducement, shall we say, to your taking this plea is that the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of the State of Florida, federal prosecutor, has agreed to a nonprosecution agreement with you, meaning that if you successfully complete probation and do everything you're supposed to, they have, have agreed not to prosecute you federally, did you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: And I would view that as a significant inducement in accepting this plea.

MS. BELOHLAVEK: They are actually in court here today, also.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLDBERGER: And the plea

agreement very carefully spelled out if there was a breach that would violate this agreement, [redacted] we are well aware of it.

THE COURT: Okay. I would request that a sealed copy of that -- Mr. Epstein has signed that document?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, I would like to seal the copy.

THE COURT: I want a sealed copy of that filed in this case. That is the only other condition of the agreement that is influencing this defendant to make this decision?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Absolutely. I think that's the right idea.

(Return to open court.)

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein, is there anything else?

THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

THE COURT: Because I don't take these pleas unless they are freely and voluntarily made.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that.

THE COURT: I also don't want somebody or anybody coming back a year,

PALM BEACH POST'S MOTION TO INTERVENE AND PETITION FOR ACCESS

Palm Beach Newspapers, Inc., d/b/a The Palm Beach Post (the "Post") moves to intervene in this action for the limited purpose of seeking access to documents filed under seal. The documents relate directly to the Defendant's guilty plea and sentence. Thus, the sealed documents go to the heart of the disposition of this case. But in requesting that Judge Pucillo seal these documents, the parties failed to comply with Florida's strict procedural and substantive requirements for sealing judicial records. In addition, continued sealing of these documents is pointless, because these documents have been discussed repeatedly in open court records. For all of these reasons, the documents must be unsealed. As grounds for this Motion, the Post states:

1. The Post is a daily newspaper that has covered this matter and related proceedings. In an effort to inform its readers concerning these matters, the Post relies upon (among other things) law enforcement records and judicial records.

2. As a member of the news media, the Post has a right to intervene in criminal proceedings for the limited purpose of seeking access to proceedings and records. See Barron v. Florida Freedom Newspapers, Inc., 531 So. 2d 113, 118 (Fla. 1988) (news media have standing to challenge any closure order); Miami Herald Publ'g Co. v. Lewis, 426 So. 2d 1, 7 (Fla. 1982) (news media must be given an opportunity to be heard on question of closure).

3. The particular documents under seal in this case are a non-prosecution agreement that was docketed on July 2, 2008, and an addendum docketed on August 25, 2008. Together, these documents apparently restrict any federal prosecution of the Defendant for offenses related to the conduct to which he pleaded guilty in this case. Judge Pucillo accepted the agreement for filing during a bench conference on June 30, 2008. The agreement, Judge Pucillo found, was "a significant inducement in accepting this plea." Such agreements and related documents typically are public record. See Oregonian Publishing Co. v. United States District Court, 920 F.2d 1462, 1465 (9th Cir. 1990) ("plea agreements have typically been open to the public"); United States v. Kooistra, 796 F.3d 1390, 1390-91 (11th Cir. 1986) (documents relating to defendant's change of plea and sentencing could be sealed only upon finding of a compelling interest that justified denial of public access).

4. The Florida Constitution provides that judicial branch records generally must be open for public inspection. See Art. I, § 24(a), Fla. Const. Closure of such records is allowed only under narrow circumstances, such as to "prevent a serious and imminent threat to the fair, impartial and orderly administration of justice," or to protect a compelling governmental interest. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.420(c)(9)(A). Additionally, closure must be effective and no broader than necessary to accomplish the desired purpose, and is lawful only if no less restrictive measures will accomplish that purpose. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2. 420(c)(9)(B) & (C); Lewis, 426 So. 2d at 3.

5. In this case, the non-prosecution agreement and, later, the addendum were sealed without any of the requisite findings. Rather, it appears from the record, the documents were sealed merely because the Defendant's counsel represented to Judge Pucillo that the non-prosecution agreement "is a confidential document." See Plea Conference Transcript page 38

(June 30, 2008). Such a representation falls well short of demonstrating a compelling interest, a genuine necessity, narrow tailoring, and that no less restrictive measures will suffice. Consequently, the sealing was improper and ought to be set aside.

6. In addition, at this time good cause exists for unsealing the documents because of their public significance. Since the Defendant pleaded guilty to soliciting a minor for prostitution, he has been named in at least 12 civil lawsuits that – like the charges in this case – allege he brought and paid teenage girls to come his home for sex and/or "massages."[1] At least 11 cases are pending. In another lawsuit, one of the Defendant's accusers has alleged that federal prosecutors failed to consult with her regarding the disposition of possible charges against the Defendant.[2] State prosecutors also have been criticized: The Palm Beach Police Chief has faulted the State Attorney's handing of these cases as "highly unusual" and called for the State Attorney's disqualification. Consequently, this case – and particularly the Defendant's agreements with prosecutors – are of considerable public interest and concern.

7. The Defendant's non-prosecution agreement with federal prosecutors also was important to Judge Pucillo. As she noted in the June 2008 plea conference, "I would view [the non-prosecution agreement] as a significant inducement in accepting this plea." See Plea Conference Transcript page 39. Florida law recognizes a strong public right of access to documents a court considers in connection with sentencing. See Sarasota Herald Tribune, Div.

of the New York Times Co. v. Holtzendorf, 507 So. 2d 667, 668 (Fla. 2d DCA 1987) ("While a judge may impose whatever legal sentence he chooses, if such sentence is based on a tangible proceeding or document, it is within the public domain unless otherwise privileged."). In this case, no interest justifies continued sealing of these "significant" documents that Judge Pucillo considered in accepting the plea and sentencing the Defendant. The lack of any such compelling interest – as well as the parties' failure to comply with the standards for sealing documents initially – provide good cause for unsealing the documents at this time.

8. Finally, continued closure of these documents is pointless, because many portions of the sealed documents already have been made public. For example, court papers quoting excerpts of the agreement have been made public in related federal proceedings.[3] As the Florida Supreme Court has noted, "there would be little justification for closing a pretrial hearing in order to prevent only the disclosure of details which had already been publicized." Lewis, 426 So. 2d at 8. Similarly, in this case, to the extent that information already has been made public, continued closure is pointless and, therefore, unconstitutional.

9. The Post has no objection to the redaction of victims' names (if any) that appear in the sealed documents. In addition, insofar as the Defendant or State Attorney seek continued closure, the Post requests that the Court inspect the documents in camera in order to assess whether, in fact, continued closure is proper.

[3] See, e.g., "Defendants Jeffrey Epstein and Sarah Kellen's Motion for Stay," C.M.A. v. Epstein, Case No. 08-80811 (S.D. Fla. July 25, 2008) (filed publicly Jan. 7, 2009).

EFTA00231308

WHEREFORE, the Post respectfully requests that this Court unseal the non-prosecution agreement and addendum and grant the Post such other relief as the Court deems proper.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION TO INTERVENE AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

COMES NOW, Applicant, [redacted]. and requests this Court, pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.230, for leave to intervene as a party in Mr. Epstein's criminal matter for the following reasons:

1. Applicant's intervention is in subordination to, and in recognition of, the propriety of the main proceeding.
2. Applicant stands to either gain or lose by the court's direct legal operation and effect of judgment in the pending matter.
3. Applicant is not injecting a new issue into the pending matter.
4. Applicant's motion to intervene is timely.

5. Defense counsel, Robert Critton, Jr. in the civil matter, does not object to Applicant's motion, but Plaintiff's counsel has not heard back from Defendant Epstein's criminal counsel, Jack Goldberger as to whether he opposes this motion.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Anyone claiming an interest in pending litigation may at any time be permitted to assert a right by intervention, but the intervention shall be in subordination to, and in recognition of, the propriety of the main proceeding, unless otherwise ordered by the court in its discretion. Fla.R.Civ.P. 1.230. "A person seeking leave to intervene must claim an interest of such a direct and immediate character that the intervenor will either gain or lose by the direct legal operation and effect of the judgment." Litvak v. Scylla Properties, LLC, 946 [redacted].2d 1165, 1172 (Fla. 5th DCA 2006). Additionally, "an intervenor my not inject a new issue into the case." Environmental Confederation of Southwest Florida, Inc., v. IMC Phosphates, Inc., 857 [redacted].2d 207, 211 (Fla.1st DCA 2003). "An intervention is thus only appropriate where the issue the intervenor raises are related to the case being litigated." Racing Properties, L.P., v. Baldwin, 885 [redacted].2d 881, 883 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2004).

Once the trial court determines that the intervenor's interest is sufficient, it exercises its discretion to determine whether to permit intervention. Union Cent. Life Ins. Co. v. Carlisle, 593 [redacted].2d 505, 507 (Fla. 1992). "In deciding this question the court should consider a number of factors, including the derivation of the interest, any pertinent contractual language, the size of the interest, the potential for conflicts or new issues, and any other relevant circumstance." Id. Finally, an intervention is generally considered timely if it is made before a final decree has been entered. See Technical Chemicals And Products, Inc., v. Porchester Holdings, Inc., 748 [redacted].2d 1090, 1091 (Fla. 4th DCA 2000).

EFTA00231312

Applicant's proposed intervention is subordinate and in recognition of the propriety of the main proceeding. Additionally, Applicant will not inject any new issue into Mr. Epstein's criminal case. In fact, Applicant's intervention is for the limited purpose of joining already intervening parties "[redacted]." and "the Palm Beach Post" in their arguments regarding the sealed Federal non-prosecution agreement in Mr. Epstein's criminal file. Finally, Applicant's interest is of such a direct and immediate character that the Applicant stands to either gain or lose by the court's judgment in the pending matter. The Applicant currently has a civil complaint against Mr. Epstien regarding allegations similar to those in this pending criminal mater. The sealed document may contain discoverable information or may lead to the discovery of new relevant information. See Fla.R.Civ.P. 1.280(b)(1). Additionally, the document may contain valuable impeachment information that the Applicant would intend to use if the Applicant's civil case proceeded to trial.

WHEREFORE, Applicant, [redacted]., respectfully requests the Court grant [redacted].'s motion to intervene in the pending criminal matter.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

DIVISION W

v.

JEFFREY EPSTEIN,

Defendant.

EPSTEIN'S MOTION TO STAY DISCLOSURE OF THE NON-PROSECUTION AGREEMENT AND ADDENDUM PENDING REVIEW

Defendant, JEFFREY EPSTEIN ("EPSTEIN"), by and through his undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 9.310, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, moves to stay disclosure of the Non-Prosecution Agreement and Addendum (collectively, the "NPA") pending review, and states:

1. In the event the Court grants Nonparty [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records, grants Palm Beach Post's Motion to Intervene and Petition for Access and/or denies EPSTEIN's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential, EPSTEIN moves to stay the disclosure of the NPA pending review by the Fourth District Court of Appeals.

2. Rule 9.310(a), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, provides in pertinent part, "...a party seeking to stay a final or non-final order pending review shall file a motion in the lower tribunal, which shall have continuing jurisdiction, in its discretion , to grant, modify or deny such relief."

3. A stay pending review is warranted under the circumstances because of the irreparable harm that would be caused by disclosure of the NPA including, but not limited to, substantial injury to a party by disclosing matters protected by common law and privacy rights, substantial injury to a compelling government interest, substantial injury to innocent third parties and a serious imminent threat to the fair, impartial and orderly administration of justice as set forth in the hearing record date June 25, 2009.

4. In Mariner Health Care of Nashville, Inc. v. Baker, 739 [redacted]. 2d 608, 609 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999), defendant Mariner filed a petition for writ of certiorari after the trial court compelled it to produce certain incident reports. Mariner also moved for a stay pending review pursuant to Fla. R. App. Pro. 9.310. The trial court advised the parties that Mariner would be required to submit the incident reports to the court under seal as a prerequisite to a stay. Mariner refused to produce the documents under seal and the trial court denied the motion for stay and imposed daily fines until the documents were produced. Id. The First District Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court's order and noted

> Mariner has failed to explain how the production of the reports under seal would result in any prejudice. To the contrary, the records will be protected from disclosure during the entire course of the certiorari proceeding before this court. No harm can be done if this court ultimately determines that the reports are protected by the work product privilege.

Id. at 610.

5. In the instant case the NPA is already filed under seal. Should the Court grant Nonparty [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records, grant Palm Beach Post's Motion to Intervene and Petition for Access and/or deny

EFTA00231321

EPSTEIN's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential, EPSTEIN requests the Court exercise its discretion under Fla. R. App. Pro. 9.310(a) and enter a stay pending review by the 4th DCA.

6. No harm will be done if the NPA remains under seal pending appellate review. To the contrary, EPSTEIN will suffer irreparable harm if a stay is not entered and the NPA is disclosed to the public.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, respectfully requests that if the Court grants Nonparty [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records, grants Palm Beach Post's Motion to Intervene and Petition for Access and/or denies EPSTEIN's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential, the Court enter a stay pending review and grant any additional relief the Court deems just and proper.

INTERVENER'S RESPONSE TO MOTION TO STAY AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

COMES NOW, Intervener, [redacted]. and files this Response to Defendant Jeffrey Epstein's Motion to Stay, and states:

In their motion, Defendant asks the Court to stay its ruling on the production of the NPA agreement pending review by the Fourth DCA. Since this NPA was never properly sealed in the first place, a Stay is improper because this document is a public record until such time as it has been properly sealed. Furthermore, as Defendant EPSTEIN has failed to demonstrate that he is likely to succeed on the merits of his appeal or describe how he will be harmed by this disclosure, Intervener [redacted]. respectfully requests the Court deny their Motion.

Pursuant to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.310(a), a trial court has the discretion to enter a stay pending interlocutory review of a non-final order. The burden to satisfy the requirements for a stay rests with the party requesting the stay. A trial court is not obligated, or even encouraged, to enter such a stay as the Appellate Rules specifically provide, "In the absence of a stay, during the pendency of a review of a non-final order, the lower tribunal may proceed with all matters, including trial or final hearing; provided that the lower tribunal may not render a final order disposing of the cause pending such review." Fla. R. App. P. 9.130(f) (emphasis added).

Defendants ask the Court to stay disclosure of a public document which was never properly sealed. Factors to be considered by a court when deciding whether to enter a stay "include the moving party's likelihood of success on the merits, and the likelihood of harm should a stay not be granted." Perez v. Perez, 769 [redacted]2d 389, 391 n.4 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999). Defendants fail to adequately address these factors in their motion. In fact, Defendant completely ignores the likelihood of success analysis. Likely this is because there is no likelihood that the Fourth District would reverse this court's ruling since the proper procedures for sealing the NPA were never followed.

As to likelihood of harm, the only reference Defendant B.B. makes to this issue is in paragraph 3 of his motion. Here, Defendant merely makes a broad assertion that there will be "irreparable harm caused by the disclosure of the NPA." There is no explanation of who will be harmed or what harm will be caused. How can a public document which redacts the names of the minor victims cause harm? This necessary question is never answered. Defendant's broad and vague assertion is insufficient to grant a stay.

Finally, since there has been no showing by Defendant EPSTEIN that the proper procedure for sealing court documents were ever followed, the NPA is a public record.

Deborah PEREZ, Appellant,
v.
Jorge M. PEREZ, Appellee.
No. 99-2182.

Oct. 27, 1999.
Rehearing Denied Dec. 7, 1999.

Following divorce, parties agreed to modification of marital settlement agreement which specifically provided that mother could permanently relocate children to Utah. Father petitioned for modification of custody. The Circuit Court, Dade County, Eugene J. Fierro, J., split custody of children, and mother appealed. Parties and guardian ad litem filed various motions. Mother moved to prohibit further involvement in appellate proceedings by guardian ad litem and counsel appearing on behalf of guardian. The District Court of Appeal, Gersten, J., held that: (1) guardian did not have authority to submit brief or motions at appellate level of child custody proceeding, and (2) there was no authority permitting guardian ad litem to retain counsel on behalf of herself in appeal.

Motion granted.

Before GERSTEN, SHEVIN, and SORONDO, JJ.

ON APPELLANT'S RENEWED MOTION TO PROHIBIT FURTHER INVOLVEMENT IN THESE APPELLATE PROCEEDINGS BY THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM AND/OR COUNSEL APPEARING ON BEHALF OF THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM

GERSTEN, Judge.

Appellant, Deborah M. Perez ("the Former Wife"), moves this Court to prohibit further involvement in these appellate proceedings by the Guardian ad Litem ("Guardian") and counsel appearing on behalf of the Guardian. We grant the Former Wife's motion and write further to discuss our serious concerns regarding the proceedings in this case, and to clarify that there is no statutory basis for a Guardian to file motions and a brief in a child custody appeal.[FN1]

FN1. Initially, we denied the Former Wife's motion to prohibit further involvement by the Guardian ad Litem. However, we cautioned in our ruling that the denial was "without prejudice to renew if necessary." At this stage of the proceedings, and during a flurry of emergency motions filed by the appellee, the Guardian had filed only two documents; one entitled "Guardian ad Litem's Emergency Motion for Rehearing of Stay" and one entitled "Guardian ad Litem's Emergency Motion to Relinquish Jurisdiction." Both were denied. Thereafter, the Guardian advised counsel for the Former Wife that a brief would be filed with this Court. The Former Wife then renewed her motion correctly observing that the Guardian intended to continue her wholly unauthorized and improper conduct.

Background Facts

The Former Wife and appellee Jorge M. Perez, ("the Former Husband") divorced in 1995. The Former Wife became primary residential parent of the parties' three minor children. In November of 1996, the parties agreed to a modification of the marital settlement agreement which specifically provided that the Former Wife could permanently relocate the children to the State of Utah in June of 1998.

In accordance with the 1996 agreement, the Former Wife purchased property in Utah, sold the home where she and the children were living in Miami, enrolled the children in a Utah school, and notified the Former Husband that she and the children would be relocating to Utah on June 18, 1998. However, two weeks prior to the scheduled and agreed upon departure date, the Former Husband filed a petition for modification of custody and attempted on an emergency basis to enjoin the Former Wife from relocating the children. The trial court denied the emergency motion determining the parties had agreed to the relocation, and the Former Wife and children moved to Utah.

Thereafter, pursuant to the parties' visitation agreement, the children spent the *391 summer of 1999 visiting with the Former Husband. The children having been enrolled in school in Utah, were to be returned to the Former Wife on August 21, 1999. During this agreed summer visitation, the Former Husband's petition for modification proceeded to trial. On July 30, 1999, the trial court entered an order modifying custody which is the subject of the main appeal.

The order split custody of the children, awarding custody of the two sons to the Former Husband, and custody of the parties' daughter to remain with the Former Wife.[FN2]The trial court's basis for splitting custody was the expressed preference of the two sons to live in Miami.

> FN2. We note that the Former Husband's petition did not seek an award of split custody.

In its order, the court noted that the Guardian, Jacqueline Valdespino, testified there was a substantial change in circumstances in accord with the Former Husband's position. However, the court explained that it did not base its decision solely on the Guardian's testimony and report, because "part of her testimony at trial, as well as part of her conclusions in the Guardian Ad Litem's report ... are based partly on evidence which is clearly hearsay...."

On August 9, 1999, the Former Wife filed a Motion for Rehearing and Motion For Stay Pending Appeal which was denied by the trial court on August 20, 1999.[FN3] On August 23, 1999, the Former Wife filed her notice of appeal, and the next day filed an emergency motion seeking a stay of the trial court order, pending review in this Court.

> FN3. The children had been enrolled in school in Utah for over a year, and the agreement provided that they were to be returned to the Former Wife on August 21st. In spite of the fact that the trial court's custody modification order had been suspended by the filing of the Former Wife's Motion for Rehearing, the Former Husband placed the children in school in Miami on August 18th. The children were not returned to the Former Wife, although the primary residence of the children remained with the Former Wife at the time the Former Husband enrolled them in school.

Appellate Proceedings: A Barrage of Motions

[1][2][3] On August 24, 1999, the Former Wife filed an Emergency Motion for Stay Pending Review and a Motion to Expedite Appeal. The Former Wife's motion for stay alleged a likelihood of success on the merits, and that the best interests of the children required maintaining the status quo. Pursuant to her agreement with the Former Husband, the Former Wife requested that the children resume school in Utah pending a final decision on appeal. This Court granted the Former Wife's motions ordering a stay pending appeal, and that the appeal be expedited.[FN4]

> FN4. This Court has authority to issue a stay under Rule 9.310(f), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, for the purpose of preserving the status quo during an appellate proceeding. See Hirsch v. Hirsch, 309 [redacted].2d 47 (Fla. 3d DCA 1975). Once a stay is issued, the stay remains in effect until the appellate court mandate is issued. Rule 9.310(e), Fla. R.App. P. Factors which are considered by this Court in deciding whether to grant a stay include the moving party's likelihood of success on the merits, and the likelihood of harm should a stay not be granted. See State ex rel. Price v. McCord, 380 [redacted].2d 1037 (Fla.1980).
> During the course of the trial court proceedings, the children had been spending the summer with the Former Husband pursuant to the parties' visitation arrangements. The Former Husband did not return the children to the Former Wife, see supra note 3, and the Former Wife's motions contain facts and arguments indicating the Former Husband used this summer time as a means to manipulate the children's custody prefer- ence.

These facts and others were sufficient to establish the Former Wife had a likelihood of success on the merits. Coupled with our additional concerns regarding the children's schooling and their best interests, greater harm could result if the status quo were not preserved. See Offerman v. Offerman, 643 [redacted].2d 1184 (Fla. 5th DCA 1994)(granting motion to stay temporary custody order). The facts raised by the Former Wife in support of her motion for a stay are most troubling, and we emphasize that this Court will not tolerate the improper use of visitation to manipulate a child's custody preference.

392 This Court's order granting the stay resulted in a flood of motions, including an "Emergency Motion For Rehearing of Stay" filed by the Guardian advocating the Former Husband's position, and a "Notice of Appearance filed by an attorney on behalf the Guardian".[FN5] Not surprisingly, the Former Husband also filed an emergency motion for review of the order granting the stay.[FN6] On August 26, 1999, this Court denied both the Former Husband's and the Guardian's motions.

FN5. The Notice of Appearance filed by the attorney stated she appeared "on behalf of the Guardian." A Notice of Appearance was also filed by the Guardian "on behalf of the minor children as Guardian Ad Litem."

FN6. The Former Husband's motion has the rather lengthy title of "Emergency Motion For Rehearing and For En Banc Review of the Court's Ex Parte Order Granting the Wife's Motion to Stay Execution of a Child Custody Order, Without Waiting for the Husband's Response to That Motion." It incorrectly states that this Court's ruling constitutes an "ex parte judicial determination ... [which] is simply and flatly a violation of due process." There is no authority for an "en banc review" of an order issued by an appellate panel granting a stay pending review. More importantly, this Court has the inherent authority in its discretion to enter a ruling on a motion at any time, with or without a responsive pleading. In any event, the Former Husband's Emergency Motion was thoroughly considered at the time it was filed, and was denied by this Court.

In accordance with this Court's mandate, the parties' two sons were sent to Utah on August 27, 1999. Three days later, on August 30th, the oldest son traveled to Miami where he was met at the airport by the Former Husband. This prompted the Guardian and the Former Husband to once again attempt to evade the stay order.

The Former Husband first filed an emergency motion in the trial court where the trial judge held an emergency hearing by telephone. The Former Husband told the trial court that the Guardian had "advised" him not to return the child to the Former Wife in Utah "before [the child sees] a professional counselor who can address his present state of mind." The trial court denied the motion finding that this Court had "effectively taken jurisdiction" over the matter, and ordered the child be returned to Utah to "comply with the law that is now the law of this case; i.e. the stay of these proceedings."

Instead of returning the child, however, both the Guardian and the Former Husband then decided to file motions again in this Court. The Guardian's emergency motion asked this Court to "relinquish jurisdiction" to the trial court to consider testimony as to possible emotional damage to the parties' eldest son. The Former Husband filed a similar motion entitled "Father/Appellee's Response in Support of Guardian Ad Litem's Emergency Motion to Relinquish Jurisdiction." Both the Former Husband's and the Guardian's motions were denied. Our denial of these motions was based upon what should be an obvious theorem-that parents and their minor children must obey court orders.

We are extremely concerned over this type of motion practice and caution counsel that "appellate motion practice is not a game of ping-pong in which the last lawyer to serve wins." See Sarasota County v. Ex, 645 [redacted].2d 7 (Fla. 2d DCA 1994). To an even greater extent, we are extremely concerned with the impact of such behavior on children. Children should not be "played" as if in a game of ping-pong where the parent with the greater resources to serve the greatest number of motions wins.

Apparently, the Former Wife was also disturbed by the Guardian's involvement in the appellate proceedings, and moved to prohibit further involvement by the Guardian when she filed her response to the Guardian's second emergency motion on September 1, 1999. Although we denied the motion to prohibit at this time, see infra note 1, the denial was "without prejudice to renew if necessary." When the Guardian notified counsel for the Former 393 Wife of her intent to file an appellate brief with this Court, the Former Wife renewed her motion. For the reasons that follow, we grant the motion and prohibit further involvement of the Guardian in these appellate proceedings.

The Role of a Guardian Ad Litem In Child Custody Appellate Proceedings

[4][5][6] The universally recognized function of a guardian ad litem in a custody dispute is to protect the best interests of children. Litigation involving custody issues can be particularly acrimonious and, unfortunately, children are particularly vulnerable to the harms commonly associated with hostility and conflict between parents. Guardians ad litem serve an important role, under limited circumstances, by acting as representatives of children and promoting society's interest in protecting children from the traumas commonly associated with divorce and custody disputes. See Scaringe v. Herrick, 711 [redacted].2d 204 (Fla. 2d DCA 1998); Representing Children: Standards For Attorneys and Guardians Ad Litem In Custody or Visitation Proceedings (With Commentary), 13 J. Am. Acad. Matrim. Law. 1 (Summer 1995).

[7] Once appointed, the powers and authority of a guardian ad litem include investigation, discovery matters, requesting necessary examinations of the parties or the child, obtaining impartial examinations and making recommendations to the court. See§ 61.403 Fla. Stat. (1997). However, the duties and responsibilities of a guardian ad litem are not coextensive with those of an attorney. See Roski v. Roski, 730 [redacted].2d 413 (Fla. 2d DCA 1999); see also Representing Children: Standards For Attorneys and Guardians Ad Litem In Custody or Visitation Proceedings (With Commentary), 13 J. Am. Acad. Matrim. Law. 1 (Summer 1995)(a guardian ad litem who is also an attorney should not combine the roles of counsel and guardian; Standard 3.1). In fact, Section 61.401, Florida Statutes (1997) specifically provides that the role of a guardian ad litem is "to act as next friend of the child, investigator or evaluator, not as attorney or advocate." See also,§ 61.403 Fla. Stat. (1997).

And [redacted] we come to the crux of our concerns in these proceedings. Section 61.401 states that the guardian shall not act as an advocate and the Guardian's role is defined as limited to the specific litigation in which the Guardian is appointed. See Roski v. Roski, 730 [redacted].2d at 413; Black's Law Dictionary 70 (6th ed.1990). Section 61.403 delineates the Guardian's powers and authority in the context of trial court proceedings. Nowhere is there any reference to appellate court proceedings in the statutes pertaining to the responsibilities of guardians ad litem.[FN7]

FN7. The Former Husband contends that

EFTA00231333

> Section 61.401 should be interpreted broadly as permitting guardians ad litem to participate in appellate proceedings, because this Section states the guardian "shall be a party to any judicial proceeding." We disagree for the reasons discussed throughout this opinion, and based upon our conclusion that the statute's reference to the guardian's status as a party in judicial proceedings, refers to the trial court proceedings in which the guardian was appointed. Our interpretation is consistent with the prohibition against guardian's acting as advocates contained within this very same section, and with common sense.

[8] An appellate court is not a fact-finding court and there is simply no proper role for a Guardian at the appellate level. The Guardian fulfilled her statutorily defined duty when she completed her investigation and report to the trial court-the court in which she was appointed.[FN8]

> FN8. We note that the Guardian's report is part of the appellate record and is at the disposal of both the Former Husband and the Former Wife in this proceeding.

[9][10] When attorneys are appointed to serve as guardians ad litem, their roles in the litigation process are significantly different than the roles they would otherwise assume as lawyers. Guardians ad litem are required to act in the best interests394 of children even if this conflicts with the children's wishes, and must serve as independent fact investigators. The filing of motions and a brief by the Guardian in appellate proceedings conflicts with these functions, and violates the statutory prohibition against Guardians acting as advocates. See § 61.403 Fla. Stat. (1997); Scaringe v. Herrick, 711 [redacted].2d at 204. Simply, the Guardian does not have a statutory right to appear in these proceedings. See Betz v. Betz, 254 Neb. 341, 575 N.W.2d 406, 410 (1998).[FN9]

> FN9. Although Betz involved the role of the guardian ad litem at the trial court level, we find many of the observations made by the court as to the proper function of the guardian relevant to our analysis. The Betz court noted that the primary function of a guardian is to provide the appointing court with necessary information by way of admissible evidence.
> The court further cautioned that: "A guardian ad litem may be an attorney, but an attorney who performs the functions of a guardian ad litem does not act as an attorney and is not to participate in the trial in an adversarial fashion such as calling or examining witnesses or filing pleadings or briefs." Betz v. Betz, 575 N.W.2d at 409 (emphasis added). For purposes of this decision, we agree with Betz that it is improper for a guardian ad litem to file a brief in an appellate proceeding. Such participation on appeal violates the proscription against a guardian ad litem assuming the role of an advocate, and exceeds the bounds of the guardian's limited duties toward the appointing trial court.

The Guardian is further prohibited from appearing in these proceedings because she is not a proper party under Rule 9.020, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. It is well established that only parties (or their representatives) who have suffered an adverse affect in the lower tribunal cause of action are entitled to participate in an appeal. See Stas v. Posada, 760 [redacted].2d 954 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999); Orange County, Fla. v. Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, 397 [redacted].2d 411 (Fla. 5th DCA 1981); Florida Civil Practice Guide, Vol. 6, § 143.03 (Lexis Publishing 1998).

[11] Rule 9.020 defines the "parties" to an appeal as the "appellant" and the "appellee." Neither the Former Husband nor the Former Wife sought relief against the children. Further, minor children in a custody proceeding are not considered as "necessary parties" to the action. See Shienvold v. Habie, 622 [redacted].2d 538 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993). Therefore, it is manifestly obvious that the minor children in this case are not "parties" to this proceeding, and thus the Guardian cannot appear on their behalf.

[12] We are also disturbed by the Guardian's retention of an attorney to represent the Guardian in the appellate proceedings. As noted earlier, on the same day the Guardian filed her notice of appearance "on behalf of the children," an attorney filed a notice of appearance "on behalf of the Guardian." However, this attorney had never been appointed by any court to serve in any capacity in this case. There is no authority permitting a Guardian to retain counsel on behalf of herself in an appeal, where the Guardian is not a party to the proceedings, and where the Guardian is purportedly appearing on behalf of children who are also not parties in the appellate proceedings. See generally Betz v. Betz, 254 Neb. 341, 575 N.W.2d 406, 410 (1998)(a guardian who feels the need to retain an attorney should apply to the appointing court for permission).

In conclusion, there is no authority for a Guardian, or an attorney purportedly representing a Guardian, to submit motions or a brief in a child custody appeal.[FN10] Guardians395 render an important service to the courts of this state, and we recognize that the lines separating the functions of an attorney as Guardian and an attorney as advocate, can become easily blurred. We hope the line has now become more distinct.

> FN10. Nothing in this opinion shall be construed as affecting the role of a Guardian in other types of cases, or in the obvious situation where a child is the real party interest. See generally, S.A.P. v. State, Dep't of Health and Rehabilitative Servs., 704 [redacted].2d 583, 585 (Fla. 1st DCA 1997)(minor may not bring action on her own behalf, and can only sue by and through a guardian ad litem, next friend or other duly appointed representative); *Kingsley v. R. Civ. P., Rule 1.210(b) (minors do not have legal capacity to initiate legal proceedings in their own names).

The Former Wife's motion is granted. The motions filed by the Guardian are stricken, and the Guardian, as well as counsel appearing on behalf of the Guardian, are prohibited from filing an appellate brief as a party in these proceedings.[FN11]

SHEVIN, Judge, concurs.SORONDO, J. (specially concurring).
I agree with the majority that the guardian ad litem does not have standing to file a brief in this case. I write separately because I arrive at the same conclusion through a somewhat different analysis.

Deborah Perez (the mother), argues that the statute's mandate that the guardian "act as next friend of the child, investigator or evaluator, not as attorney or advocate," in section 61.401, Florida Statutes (1997), precludes the guardian from taking a position in this appeal because the guardian's arguments will place her in the role of advocate.[FN12] The mother further argues that the appointment of the guardian by the lower court does not authorize her to file pleadings in this Court.

> FN12. Needless to say, the guardian's position in this case is contrary to that of the mother.

Jorge M. Perez (the father), responds that the statute is ambiguous because although it sets forth the language cited above, the statute also makes the guardian a "party." This elevates the guardian to the same level as the other parties in the case, the father and the mother. As such the guardian has the right to file pleadings with this Court in furtherance of the best interest of the children.

When first passed by the Florida Legislature, section 61.401 Florida Statutes (Supp.1990), as pertinent here, read as follows:

Appointment of guardian ad litem.-In an action for dissolution of marriage, modification, parental responsibility, custody, or visitation, if the court finds it is in the best interest of the child, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child.

As relevant to the issues before us, section 61.403, Florida Statutes (Supp.1990), stated:
Guardians ad litem; powers and authority.-A guardian ad litem when appointed shall act as a representative of the child and shall act in the child's best interest.

In 1994, the Legislature amended both statutes. Section 61.401 was amended to read:
Appointment of guardian ad litem.-In an action for dissolution of marriage, modification, parental responsibility, custody, or visitation, if the court finds it is in the best interest of the child, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to act as next friend of the child, investigator or evaluator, not as attorney or advocate. The court in its discretion may also appoint legal counsel for the child to act as attorney or advocate; however, the guardian and the legal counsel shall not be the same person. ...The guardian ad litem shall be a party to any judicial proceeding from the date of the appointment until the date of discharge.

Ch. 94-204, § 3, Laws of Fla. (amending § 61.401, Fla. Stat. (1993))(emphasis added).396 Section 61.403, as pertinent here, was also amended:
Guardians ad litem; powers and authority. A guardian [redacted] litem when appointed shall act as next friend of the child, investigator or evaluator, not as attorney or advocate but shall act in the child's best interest.

Ch. 94-204, § 5, Laws of Fla. (amending § 61.401, Fla. Stat. (1993)) (emphasis added).

In 1994, the legislature excised all language concerning the "representation" of the child, and included language specifically stating that the guardian was not to act as "attorney or advocate." The amended statute went on to provide that the trial court could appoint counsel for the child to serve that function. The legislature clearly intended that the function of the guardian be one of "next friend" to the child. This role includes the power to investigate and evaluate the case, and to make recommendations to the trial judge which are consistent with the best interest of the child. See§ 61.403(5), (8), Fla. Stat. (1997). In short, the guardian's role is to discover, analyze and communicate facts to the judge which will assist the trial court in the performance of its duty to determine the best interest of children in divorce proceedings. The role of advocate for the child, the legislature reserved for counsel, which the court can appoint if it considers appropriate and necessary. The trial judge in this case did not appoint counsel.

The father's argument that the guardian's elevation to the status of "party" gives her the right to file pleadings in this Court is unpersuasive. First, it is clear that the guardian is not a party to this action in the strict and acknowledged sense of the word. In defining the word, Black's Law Dictionary 1122 (6th ed.1990) states:

"Party" is a technical word having a precise meaning in the legal parlance; it refers to those by or against whom a legal suit is brought, whether in law or equity, the party plaintiff or defendant, whether composed of one or more individuals and whether natural or legal persons; all others who may be affected by the suit, indirectly or consequently, are persons interested but not parties.

EFTA00231336

*See also*59 Am.Jur.2d Parties § 7 (1987)(The word party or parties "designates the opposing litigants in a judicial proceeding-the persons seeking to establish a right and those upon whom it is sought to impose a corresponding duty or liability ..."). Under this definition the guardian in this case is not a party. Accordingly, the guardian is a "party" in this judicial proceeding only because the legislature has made her such. Because this status is created by statute it can be defined by statute, and the statutes in question do just that. The legislature first chose to limit the guardian's role as a "party" by forbidding her from acting in a certain way, i.e. as an advocate for the child. Next, in section 61.403(2), (3), and (6), the legislature required the guardian to petition the court and file pleadings only through counsel-a "true" party could do [redacted] pro se. Finally, the guardian does not become a party at the inception of the litigation or because she has a personal interest, she attains that status by judicial appointment and retains her identity as such only until discharged by the judge. Thus, although the legislature has created this special class of "party," it has also defined its limitations. As I read the statute, the guardian does not have a party's right to file pleadings in this Court because this will, mandatorily, require her to become an advocate.

The majority correctly observes that there is no role for the guardian to play in this Court because all factual issues and determinations have been fully developed below. This Court is in a position to read the record of the lower court, which contains all of the guardian's contributions to this lawsuit. A brief review of that record indicates that the guardian's position is the same as that of the father in this case and has been repeatedly and zealously expressed in both the lower court and this 397 Court. Indeed, the father relies heavily on the recommendations of the guardian. The guardian's presence in this appellate proceeding is therefore superfluous.

I do acknowledge that in certain cases the guardian may serve a valuable role on appeal. Usually, the guardian's recommendations will bolster the legal position of one of the parents. There are extraordinary cases, however, where the guardian's conclusions could be detrimental to both parents. I refer specifically to cases which contain issues concerning the parents' mental and emotional stability and cases involving domestic violence and/or child abuse. In such cases, a guardian could recommend that neither parent be awarded custody or that custody should be predicated upon a particular parent's participation in some type of psychological counseling. These cases may call for a guardian to file a brief in an appeal and this Court has the authority, which the majority has chosen to exercise in this case, to allow the guardian to appear as amicus curiae pursuant to rule 9.370 of the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.[FN13] I do not believe that this appeal calls for the guardian's participation.

> FN13. Even under these circumstances the guardian must seek leave of court to hire counsel. I join the majority in its conclusion that the guardian's sua sponte decision to hire counsel in this case, presumably at the expense of the parties, was highly improper.

THIS MATTER came before the Court on the following:

a) Non-party [redacted]'s Motion to Vacate Order Sealing Records and Unseal Records

b) Palm Beach Post's Motions to Intervene and Petition for Access

c) B.B.'s Motions to Intervene and for an Order to Unseal Records

d) Jeffrey Epstein's Motion to Make Court Records Confidential

A hearing was conducted on these matters on June 25, 2009. The Court notes that Mr. Goldberger, Esq. and Mr. Critton, Esq. were present on behalf of Jeffrey Epstein. Ms. Shullman, Esq. was present on behalf of the Palm Beach Post, Mr. Berger, Esq. and Mr. Edwards, Esq. were present on behalf of [redacted], Mr. Kuvin, Esq. was present on behalf of [redacted], Assistant State Attorney Barbara Burns was present on behalf of the State of Florida. No appearance was filed on behalf of the United States. After giving an opportunity for all parties to be heard, the Court finds as follows:

1. The State of Florida charged the Defendant, Jeffrey Epstein, with Felony Solicitation of Prostitution.

2. The State of Florida and Mr. Epstein came to a negotiated resolution of the charges. Part of that resolution included an agreement entered into between Mr. Epstein and the United States. At the plea conference in State court Mr. Epstein plead guilty to the State charges. At the plea conference the agreement between Mr. Epstein and the United States were made part of this Court's record. The agreement was sealed in two separate filings. At the time the State court took these matters under seal, the proper procedure for sealing such documents had not been followed. The June 25th hearing was to give Mr. Epstein, the State, and/or the United States an opportunity to comply with the well-defined and narrow parameters for sealing such documents. After hearing argument of counsel, the Court makes the following findings and rulings:

1) Neither the State of Florida nor the U.S. Government nor Mr. Epstein have presented sufficient evidence to warrant the sealing of documents currently held by the Court.

2) The Motions to seal the Court records are denied.

3) The Motions to intervene are granted.

4) The Motion to unseal the documents is granted.

5) The originals will not be disclosed, however the undersigned will do an in-camera inspection and redact the names of the underage victims, if any, [redacted] their identity will be indicated by their initials.

6) This Order is in no way to be interpreted as permission to not comply with U.S. District Court Kenneth Marra's previous Orders.

7) The disclosure of the sealed documents shall be stayed at least until June 26, 2009, at 9:00 a.m., at which time the Court will hear "Epstein's Motion to Stay Disclosure of Non-Prosecution Agreement and Addendum Pending Review".

Beginning at 1:50 o'clock, p.m.

SUSAN WIGGINS, R.P.R. AND OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

BE IT REMEMBERED that the following proceedings were had in the above-entitled cause before the HONORABLE JEFFREY COLBATH, one of the judges of the aforesaid court, at the Palm Beach County Courthouse, located in the City of West Palm Beach, State of Florida on June 25, 2009 beginning at 1:50 o'clock, p.m. with appearances as hereinbefore noted, to wit:

THEREUPON:

THE COURT: Let me call up the case of the state of Florida versus Jeffrey Epstein. Let me have counsel announce their appearances for the record.

MS. SHULLMAN: Deanna Shullman of Thomas, LoCicero & Bralow on behalf of the Palm Beach Post.

THE COURT: Ms. Shullman, nice to see you again, good morning.

MS. SHULLMAN: You too.

MR. GERBER: William J. Berger for EW, the intervener.

MR. EDWARDS: Brad Edwards also on behalf of the EW.

MR. KUVIN: Spencer Kuvin on behalf of EB, motion intervener's pleading.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Good afternoon, Judge, Jack Goldberger and Robert Critton on behalf of Jeffrey Epstein.

THE COURT: And I'm guessing that, Mr. Kuvin, if I grant the motion to unseal that which has been sealed, your motion to intervene will be moot.

MR. KUVIN: Will be.

THE COURT: I thought [redacted]. This is what I'm thinking and -- oh, we've got more.

MS. BURNS: One more appearance, excuse me, Judge, Barbara Burns on behalf of the state of Florida, the state attorney's office of the 15th Judicial Circuit.

THE COURT: All right. Procedurally, I think the way that this came to us is that at the conclusion or at some point during a plea conference between the state of Florida and Mr. Epstein, the state and the defense hand an agreed order to Judge Puccillo.

MS. BURNS: Puccillo.

THE COURT: And asked her to sign an agreement to seal some portion of some documents, which she signed off on and now it is the intervener's and the Post's motion to unseal those documents; is that kind of procedurally where we are?

EFTA00231350

MR. GOLDBERGER: Procedurally not exactly correct, I don't know if you want me to clarify that.

THE COURT: Please do.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, this started during the course of a plea colloquy in Mr. Epstein's state proceeding before Judge Puccillo, who is a retired senior judge who was filling in for Judge McSorley on that day, who was the judge assigned to this division. It was a plea agreement with the state attorney's office and it is normal and consistent with any plea colloquy Judge Puccillo asked the defense whether there were any other promises or inducements for Mr. Epstein to enter into his plea agreement other than what was contained in the state standard plea agreement that we had. I felt obligated under the circumstances to alert to the Court that there was a confidential agreement between Mr. Epstein's -- Mr. Epstein's attorneys and the United States attorney's office for the Southern District of Florida which would have been triggered upon the successful taking of the plea by Judge Puccillo.

In other words, if the plea was accepted by Judge Puccillo, there's a confidential agreement between U.S. attorney's office and the defense that would be triggered and they would agree not to take some actions against Mr. Epstein. I advised Judge Puccillo of that, and at that time she said she would like to see the matter sealed in the court file. I said fine, and then we later -- I then filed that document, and the clerk's office notified me and said we need an order sealing this, and we submitted an order to seal the document.

THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody here from the U.S. attorney's office? Has anybody notified them, or is there a dog in this fight or do they care?

EFTA00231352

If they're a party to this confidential thing, wouldn't you think that they might be.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, they have been noticed. They have taken a position in parallel proceedings that this matter should remain confidential, and they have done that in federal court, and I believe that is their position still.

MR. EDWARDS: Your Honor, I have been in communication with the U.S. attorney's office, and they are not taking a position on this issue, which is why they're not in court right now.

THE COURT: What's going on in federal court?

MR. GOLDBERGER: There are a number of civil cases that are pending right now.

THE COURT: And they're talking about the same documents that are under seal here in our court?

MR. EDWARDS: Yes.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, your Honor, and I will address that at the appropriate time what's going on here.

EFTA00231353

THE COURT: All right. [redacted] thank you, Mr. Goldberger for getting that straightened out.

MR. GERBER: Judge, just to clarify one other point.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. GERBER: I think actually there's an additional step because Mr. Goldberger on behalf of Mr. Epstein or Mr. Critton I believe filed motion, and I think that that will tell us who goes first today and who has the burden today.

THE COURT: This is -- and I'm thinking outloud that my take on that is that my review of the file shows that the appropriate steps to seal these documents wasn't followed initially. I'm looking at it as it would be whoever's moving to have them sealed, it's their burden to prove the steps that you have to prove to get things sealed by the Court, and [redacted] that's -- I hinted last meeting that we all had together but that's where I'd go, [redacted] I'd shift the burden over to the federal government and to Mr. Epstein, that's what

I'm thinking. Let me ask first go over to the Post, Ms. Shullman, what are your thoughts on that procedure?

MS. SHULLMAN: Your Honor, I think that's the correct procedure here. I think Mr. Epstein's motion to make court records confidential tacitly admits what we suspected last time, which was that the initial closure of the documents was not done pursuant to the acceptable procedures.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Berger, Mr. Edwards, that's all right with you?

MR. EDWARDS: We agree.

MR. GERBER: That's what my point was, yes, your Honor, thank you.

THE COURT: Mr. Goldberger, what do you think?

MR. GOLDBERGER: That's fine, your Honor, with the -- I'll wait until after the proceeding.

THE COURT: All right. You may proceed.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Judge, as I said to clarify the record, this matter started during the course of Mr. Epstein's plea colloquy in state court and just [redacted] that the record was clear that all inducements for Mr. Epstein's plea was on the record when Judge Puccillo asked me if there had been any promises made to Mr. Epstein, I think properly and ethically we told the Court that there was an agreed -- confidential agreement with the federal government that was in place that basically said we will not prosecute Mr. Epstein for federal offenses if the state plea agreement is accepted by the Court and Mr. Epstein's sentence is imposed.

The state proceeding was over at the time that I advised Judge Puccillo that, in other words, we had gone through the plea colloquy and I simply was advising her of this other agreement. It was Judge Puccillo who then asked us to approach, and the Court has a copy of that transcript, I believe. It was Judge Puccillo that said I'd like to have that document sealed in the court file, and I acquiesced to that, I said that's fine.

[redacted], first, as a preliminary matter, it wasn't like we were coming into court on that day and asking to seal something, [redacted] it would have been presumptuous of me to file something to request to have something sealed when it came up during the course of the proceeding, and, in fact, the committee notes on the rule of judicial administration talk about that and say matters come up all the time during the course of hearings and the fact that something is not filed in advance does not necessarily taint the entire process, [redacted] we agreed to come forward and file our motion to seal after the fact, because we didn't know this matter would be coming up.

But having said that, Judge, this confidential agreement was not part of any state plea agreement, it's not part of the proceedings, it was ancillary to the state proceedings and it had nothing to do with the state proceedings. As an accommodation to Judge Puccillo, we filed it in the court file. Quite frankly, it's unnecessary, it doesn't need to be there, and the simplest approach would be to simply remove it from the court file at this point. We didn't have for it to be there. It's not part of the plea, it's not part of the state resolution of the case, and that would be the simple logical approach to that.

If the Court is inclined not do that or if the parties object to that, then I think we move onto some other very, very important issues in this case and for both the intervenors in this case as well as the Palm Beach Post motion for access to this proceeding for really two very, very significant reasons, they are in the wrong place and they're attempting to march up the wrong hill here, your Honor.

This matter needs to -- has to be litigated in federal court before Judge Marra who has already heard hearings on this matter. Now, at our last abbreviated hearing two weeks ago, I told you for the first time that there have been two hearings in front of Judge Marra on this very issue, whether this nonprosecution agreement and that's the matter that is sealed in your court file, whether this nonprosecution agreement should be released to the plaintiffs for their use.

Judge Marra heard two hearings on this matter and the court has those orders. And in the first hearing Judge Marra very, very, carefully balanced the confidentiality issues of the nonprosecution agreement, the intent of the parties as well of the rules of criminal procedure that I will talk about in a moment, with the plaintiff's right to know what's going on and to have access to this agreement. And Judge Marra crafted an order and in the nature of a protective order and said, plaintiffs, you can have this nonprosecution agreement, you can use it, you can review it, you cannot give it to anyone else other than your clients, and if you want to use it or you want to give it to your clients, you need to tell them about this order that is not to be disclosed to anybody else. And these plaintiffs that are sitting here will tell you that from day one they have had this nonprosecution agreement, they have it for their use, they know every clause that's in that nonprosecution agreement, and I suggest to the Court as to their motions why are we here; they have an agreement already.

They went back to Judge Marra sometime thereafter and asked the Court to expand their use of the nonprosecution agreement, and they said, Judge Marra, we have the nonprosecution agreement but we would like to be able to disclose that agreement to other sides, and Judge Marra in another carefully crafted order said, nuh-uh, no, you have not satisfied your burden, you cannot disseminate this to anyone else, and the order that I have entered remains in place, but most significantly he said, you know what, this is without prejudice.

If you have some basis, you have some need that you have not briefed, you have not litigated with me yet concerning dissemination of nonprosecution agreement, come back to me and I'll review it for you.

EFTA00231360

And they have every right to do [redacted], and they have not done [redacted], and it is this motion to intervene that they filed in this court is simply an effort to skirt and to avoid and to go behind the order of Judge Marra that dealt with this issue already.

And I think just for the purpose of our hearing, we need to have the two orders of Judge Marra entered into the record of this proceeding. I know I gave copies to the Court, but I have additional copies.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, I believe there is no objection from either of the parties.

THE COURT: Thank you [redacted] much. Let's go ahead and mark these as Defendant's Exhibits No. 1 and 2 for identification purposes. Anybody object to me taking judicial notice of Judge Marra's order? By hearing no objection, I'll go ahead and take judicial notice of it.

MR. GOLDBERGER: [redacted], your Honor, Judge Marra has dealt with this issue squarely, there's a procedure in place and these matters should be litigated in front of the district court judge that has already heard these matters.

THE COURT: Well, let's say that may be true as it relates to these individual plaintiffs in the federal litigation, what about the Post's and the press's -- the media's right to take a look at these things?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, and this is the second reason why not only the plaintiffs but the Post appear to be marching up the wrong hill here. The Palm Beach Post has filed a motion for access to these documents and they certainly do have first amendment rights and no one would dispute that they have first amendment rights to access to public records, however, most significantly in this case is that the nonprosecution agreement which we gave the court permission to review two weeks ago and presumably the Court has had an opportunity to take a look at it, the nonprosecution agreement talks about and relates to a grand jury matter that is absolutely 100 percent protected from disclosure by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure Six. I have a copy of that rule for the Court.

THE COURT: Let me take a look of that, please.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Give us one moment, your Honor, we have it here somewhere.

MR. KUVIN: Your Honor, just briefly while they're looking on behalf of the plaintiff EB, I just wanted to point out on my client motion to intervene, we are not party to the federal action. She only has a state court claim. She's not bound by any federal court order, she is not with the federal court on their claim, [redacted] as to that issue, my client stands here synonymous with the Post.

THE COURT: Thank you for pointing that out to me.

MR. GOLDBERGER: We'll have it for you in one moment, your Honor.

Your Honor, Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure Six is a rule that deals with grand jury proceedings, and it confers in the federal system secrecy of all grand jury matters and it's pretty clear in this case that the nonprosecution agreement specifically talks about a grand jury investigation of Mr. Epstein, there's specific reference to a grand jury investigation in the nonprosecution agreement.

The rule does not prevent us from telling the Court that there was a grand jury investigation of Mr. Epstein, but what it prevents us from doing, what it prevents this Court from doing, I believe, is disclosing the content of the grand jury investigation, and the agreement itself is very specific as to the grand jury investigation of Mr. Epstein.

However, all is not lost for the Palm Beach Post and the intervenors, for that matter. The rule has a specific procedure that allows you to go to the district court where the grand jury is convened, in this case it would be in the Southern District of Florida before Judge Marra and that is under Rule 6E, your Honor, I think it's 6E

3E actually. It says: In limited circumstances the Court may authorize disclosure of grand jury matters under request made in connection with the judicial proceeding, [redacted] -- and the rule goes onto clearly say, that request must be filed in the district where the grand jury is proceeding.

[redacted] the first -- you know the Palm Beach Post may have first amendment rights to access but those first amendment rights cannot circumvent the federally protected secrecy of grand jury proceedings and that's what the Post is doing by making this request before this Court.

This matter has been sealed for almost a year now, 11 months and some days and the Palm Beach Post has not filed anything in this matter until most recently, and their remedy is to go into the federal court and invoke the process of Rule Six and asked Judge Marra to make a limited disclosure of the nonprosecution agreement and the grand jury matters that are contained therein. Who knows whether he will do it, but that's where this need to be fought.

As a matter of comity, your Honor this Court should defer to Judge Marra because, A, he has already ruled on the disclosure of the nonpros agreement - even more importantly, the supremacy requires you to defer to the federal of criminal procedure that say these matters should be protected and should be disclosed unless the district court [redacted].

If the Court is going to go on and wants to go to the issues that would be contained if it were not dealing with a grand jury proceeding, obviously there's test that the Court must then use under Rules of Judicial Administration and it says matters can be sealed but they shall be sealed if there's a compelling government interest or if the sealing important to the administration of justice. There's a couple other criteria, but the ones obviously that would apply in this case are the compelling government he will do it, but that's where this battle need to be fought.

As a matter of comity, your Honor, this Court should defer to Judge Marra because, A, he has already ruled on the disclosure of the nonpros agreement, but even more importantly, the supremacy clause requires you to defer to the federal laws of criminal procedure that say these matters should be protected and should not be disclosed unless the district court says [redacted].

If the Court is going to go on and wants to go to the issues that would be contained if it were not dealing with a grand jury proceeding, obviously there's a test that the Court must then use under the Rules of Judicial Administration and it says matters can be sealed but they should be sealed if there's a compelling government interest or if the sealing is important to the administration of justice. There's a couple other criteria, but the ones obviously that would apply in this case are the compelling government interest, and the importance to the administration of justice.

Again, we are dealing with a secret grand jury matter. We cannot circumvent that secrecy by asking the Court to invoke its unsealing power.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: Let me go over to the other parties and we'll get back to Mr. Goldberger and his client. Post, who wants to go first?

MS. SHULLMAN: Mr. Edwards.

THE COURT: Mr. Edwards.

MR. EDWARDS: Your Honor, inasmuch as Mr. Epstein is relying on Judge Marra's order to support the argument that the nonprosecution agreement needs to remain sealed, I'd like to address that if you are inclined to be persuaded by that argument at all.

The orders that have now been moved into evidence are in case No. 80736, and just to put that order in context in actuality, the order says -- specifically puts it back on this Court and confers authority on this Court over this particular document, when in the second page of the February 12th, 2009 order, it's misdated 2009 but it's a 2009 order, and the last two sentences read: If and when petitioners have a specific tangible need to be relieved of the restrictions, they should file an appropriate motion, which we believe we have done in this case, if a specific tangle need arises in the civil cases, which are in circuit court in Palm Beach County, then relief should be sought there and notice to all parties, [redacted] to give the Court context for that order, there was a state court plea taken June 30th, 2008, where Mr. Epstein pled guilty to the state court cases as it related to two victims.

Now, parallel to that, there was an investigation in federal court where the United States attorney's office and the FBI had more than 30 victims of sex abuse of Mr. Epstein's and they were working with these girls and their cases. Now, several of those girls came to me and said, hey, we're worried that there's a secret deal going on between Epstein and the U.S. attorney's office, so I filed an emergency petition against the U.S. attorney's office asking the federal court to intervene and get in the middle of this and not let this deal go forward without meaningfully conferring with these girls because I was alleging it violated the Crimes Victim's Rights Act; these girls have a right to be heard. That emergency motion was filed July 7th, 2008, and I have that for the Court, and I'd like to enter that into evidence as well.

THE COURT: We'll mark that as EW's Exhibit No. 1.

MR. EDWARDS: And an emergency hearing was held four days later in front of Judge Marra, who was randomly assigned to this case at the time the plea was taken and the prosecution agreement was sealed. Judge Marra had nothing to do with the agreement, with Epstein, he didn't know anything about it.

[redacted] four days later now we're in front of him and the United States attorney's office says for the first time, sorry, girls, you are too late, the deal has already been done as to all of your federal cases and it resulted in the nonprosecution agreement that is attached in the state court case. Judge Marra turned to us and said, what is your remedy.

At that point in time I said we don't know because we don't know what protections are inside that agreement, [redacted] we want you to unseal it, that's where the motion for protective order came about where he gave us the agreement [redacted] we can look at it and determine what remedy, if any, was available. Once we had that agreement under the caveat that we were not able to disseminate to third parties and reviewed it and saw there is very little protection for the girls, we asked to unseal it completely, [redacted] that we can talk to third parties, to victim's rights groups and get some insight as to what our possible remedy would be.

EFTA00231371

And [redacted] our reason for wanting him to unseal it at that time was we want to be able to talk to other people, and that's where this order from February 12th, 2009, came in, and he denied that motion to unseal it for three reasons.

First and foremost, this nonprosecution agreement was not sealed in my Court, you are talking to the wrong judge, you need to go back, [redacted] we're getting the back and forth here and it's not in my court, I can't mess with some other judge's order. Obviously, there was a hearing held and that document was sealed for a reason, I'm not privy for those reasons, [redacted] I'm not going to override whatever that judge was thinking when they sealed that document.

Second, your reason is you just want to talk to other people about them, and if I'm going to override some other judge's order, I need to have a more compelling reason than you just want to talk to people about.

Third, if and when a specific need arises in any of the civil cases, which by the time this order was coming about they were stacking up in state and federal court against Mr. Epstein, petition that court, petition the appropriate court, and he implies that appropriate court is this court where it was initially sealed, which we've done in this case.

This court has none of the problems that Judge Marra had in that it was sealed in this courtroom. We have noticed Mr. Epstein to be heard at this hearing, which is one of the requirements that Judge Marra placed on us, and a specific need has arisen. It has been sealed for over a year now, correct, Mr. Goldberger is correct, but the specific need is arising because we are in the middle of discovery. And this document is, as Mr. Goldberger said, a great inducement to Mr. Epstein pleaing guilty to sex crimes in state court, and to ultimately being labeled a sex offender, and the only document that pertains to my clients, my client as a victim of Mr. Epstein's sex crime, [redacted] at the very least, we should be allowed to ask people in deposition and do discovery about how this document came about. There is a need here.

THE COURT: I don't quite get -- I don't think it's relevant to what my task is here, but I don't get how it's relevant in the civil cases what the federal government did or didn't do with regard to prosecuting Mr. Epstein. I don't get that, but I don't know that I need to.

MR. EDWARDS: The standard for discovery is just reasonably calculated to lead to discovery of admissible evidence and without going in depth we do have intention --

MR. GERBER: Your Honor, can I --

MR. EDWARDS: And with respect to the grand jury argument, you've seen the document, it's only page five and six that it's even referred to.

THE COURT: All right. Let me turn it over to -- does the Post want to speak?

MS. SHULLMAN: I do, but I think he wants to go first [redacted] whenever.

THE COURT: I haven't considered your motion to intervene yet.

MR. KUVIN: I don't believe it was an objection. When it was filed, there was no objection by Mr. Goldberger or Mr. Critton.

THE COURT: Are you going to advocate by motion to intervene or are you going to be jumping into the merits of the sealing?

MR. KUVIN: I'll jump right into the merits, I'm not going to duplicate anything that was just raised or anything that the press is going to raise, I have an individual interest.

THE COURT: All right. Go ahead Mr. Kuvin.

MR. KUVIN: Very briefly, your Honor. I represent [redacted] who has filed only a state court action, she is not under the federal jurisdiction of Judge Marra, she does not subject herself to the federal jurisdiction of Judge Marra, she was never provided an opportunity to brief any issues before Judge Marra with respect to that order that was entered by Judge Marra or either order. In addition, what's also very important is she has never seen this document, so she does not know what is in the contents of the order, so the issue is raised by Mr. Goldberger about the girls are able to see the document and evaluate how they might need to evaluate this document does not apply to my client because she has never seen it and, frankly, without subjecting herself voluntarily to the jurisdiction of Judge Marra, which she chooses not to do, then she cannot get this document, otherwise she would have to go to federal court, submit herself to the jurisdiction of the federal court to then see a state court document, which does not make any sense because if it is a state court document in state court, as previously stated under Judge Marra's order, it is within your purview and your jurisdiction to rule on a state court document.

Finally, with respect to why the document may be relevant, the contents of that document speak to the issues of whether or not Mr. Epstein can or cannot assert his fifth amendment right against self incrimination, and we believe on a good faith believe that on the contents of that document speak to the issues of whether or not he can or cannot deny the claims that have been brought against him both in state and federal court. In other words, whether or not he must, in fact, admit that he molested these 14 year old girls, so, therefore, the content of that document is paramount as to the issues in the civil proceedings that are currently pending in state court which is why we would like that document.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Thank you so very much. Ms. Shullman from the Post.

MS. SHULLMAN: Thank you, your Honor. I feel a little bit like I have stepped into the twilight zone here, so I'd like to address a couple of the things we've addressed and get us to what we are really here to do today.

THE COURT: I don't know if you are referring specifically to the courtroom or the convoluted situation that brings us to the courtroom.

MS. SHULLMAN: Just this whole federal state situation. There is no hill for the public and the press to march up in Judge Marra's court as Mr. Edwards pointed out, Judge Marra has specifically held the agreement was not filed in this case under seal or otherwise, so were I to march into Judge Marra's courtroom and do my whole public access spiel, he would say take it to you, your Honor, because it's not a record in my court. It is a record here, and in the state court as we talked about the last time, we were here, there's a presumption of openness. The burden is on Mr. Epstein to overcome that presumption. While he filed a very brief memorandum after our last hearing, which identified for interest, he has by no means met the test of either establishing those interest or establishing the remainder of that test which would be that closures no broader than necessary ineffective no other reasonable alternatives, so if I could, I'd like to sort of focus us back to the inquiry we're here to make today in this court, and that is whether your Honor is going to provide public access to two records that are, I think, indisputably in your Honor's court file in this court's file.

It's a plea agreement and an addendum; those are historically and typically open records.

Mr. Goldberger mentioned that the plea agreement was sort of incidentally filed in this court file, and that it was sort of an afterthought that happened. He never came into court intending that it even be part of the court file, but Judge Pucillo specifically said, this is a significant inducement to accepting the plea in my court. This agreement that you have with federal prosecutors is significantly the reason why you're entering this plea before me. And she took those records into the court file presumably because they are significant to this litigation. Even if there was an incidental filing, which cannot possibly be the case here, there is no mechanism in Florida law to call a Mulligan and to pull it out of the court file. As you know, the Floridians have a constitutional right of access, there's no mechanism in that law to just say, oopsy, let's take it out of the file, so they have to meet their burden and they have to show under Rule 2.420 that one of those interests is satisfied. They have identified four here. I have not heard them discuss them at any great length. But I will go through them quickly.

The imminent threat to the fair, impartial orderly administration of justice, or to protect a compelling government interest. As your Honor is aware, the federal government is not here today. I have spoken with the state attorney's office who has indicated that their only interest is in protecting to the extent necessary because I've not seen these documents the identity of the victims of these crimes.

The Post in its motion to intervene has already set forth that we have no objection to redacting the victim's names if, in fact, that is required because we haven't seen the agreement. To avoid substantial injury to innocent third parties, again, absolutely no showing on that test. I have no burden at this point, but I will simply state that the law in Florida is clear that Mr. Epstein doesn't have standing to assert that interest.

And, finally, something else I heard nothing about to avoid substantial injury to a party which, I guess, presumably would be Mr. Epstein by disclosure of matters protected by a privacy right not generally inherent in this specific type of proceedings. Again, I have not heard any attempt to meet the burden on that issue, however, Florida law is equally clear that participants in crimes lose their privacy interest in the matters and facts and circumstances of the commission of those crimes, so Mr. Epstein surely cannot establish that there is a separate privacy interest not inherent in a criminal prosecution regarding the molestation of young girls.

The circumstances under which closure is allowed in Florida are exceedingly narrow. We first -- and before we do anything else -- have to find that one of those interests is met here, that it exists and that the movant has met its burden in demonstrating that it's significant enough to require the court to consider closure. That's not the end of inquiry. And, of course, I have not yet heard anything else about that second half of the test which talks about the idea that closure is no broader than necessary to protect that interest and that it would be effective and that there are no other alternatives.

In speaking of the federal litigation there are instances when both Mr. Epstein's lawyers and the federal prosecutors have placed portions of the agreement into the public court file. There are -- thus attempts to seal those records in the federal litigation have been unsuccessful, so part of this agreement the cat is already out of the bag. But there is also an enormous public interest in what's going on here, apart from the idea that this man is accused of having many, many victims who were all young children which, of course, in itself creates a lot of public concern, the chief of police at the time sent a letter to the state prosecutors and said, what are you guys doing, how are you handling this, this is highly unusual; I don't like what I'm seeing here. And even went so far as to say, state attorney's office, should you all step away from this case.

So we have public interest from the perspective of the police chief questioning the state attorney's office about whether it's doing its job. We have public interest that's spurned by the idea that some of the victims in the federal prosecution -- in the federal court claimed they weren't aware of it, we just heard Mr. Edwards talk about the fact that his clients weren't aware of the agreement unless it all went down, so we have a significant public interest about how everybody in this litigation is doing their job. There is nothing more fundamentally important than the ability of the public and the press to observe how its government, all branches of its government, do its job.

There are multiple, as Mr. Edwards also mentioned, multiple civil lawsuits that have spurned as a result of Mr. Epstein's conduct, and, again, the public has an interest in what's going on in civil litigation matters.

In short, this matter involves a major public interest from a lot of different levels. There is no basis for closure that has been asserted here. It's a heavy burden to meet. We start with the idea that openness is the right thing to do but there is essentially no purpose served at this point by keeping these agreements sealed in this case.

Unless your Honor has any questions, I think that's it.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you so very much. Ms. Burns, on behalf of the state of Florida, anything you'd like to add or advocate?

EFTA00231384

MS. BURNS: If I may, your Honor.

THE COURT: Sure.

MS. BURNS: Good afternoon, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

MS. BURNS: Your Honor, the State is not here to take a position on whether or not this court should seal -- continue to seal the records or unseal the records. We are here merely to uphold the state laws which require all of us as members of the judicial system to protect the rights of the confidentiality of the victims. I do see two issues here, your Honor.

One is if you decide to unseal the records based upon the arguments that have been presented to you, then the State would ask that the court first do an incamera viewing, not just merely open up that portion of the file for viewing by all interested parties, first, that the Court do an incamera viewing to make two evaluations.

Number one, does the document, in fact, have a relationship to the criminal case in the state matter. And, number two, evaluate the right of public access versus the victim's right to confidentiality. If this Court does decide to unseal those records, then the State would ask that this Court before making the document public access, then make certain that in place is that the victim's identities are amended to initials if their names are used.

The State does have a concern regarding the argument of the Federal Rule Six in that is this Court bound by a federal rule which perhaps has been made unenforcible by virtue of making it a part of the state file, so I think the Court also would need to address that issue before making its ruling.

THE COURT: All right, great. Thank you so much.

MS. BURNS: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: One last chance for the federal government, they're not here and

EFTA00231386

I'll let rebuttal of any other presentation, Mr. Goldberger, or, Mr. Critton, you'd like to make.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you, your Honor. As to the last argument made by Ms. Burns as to the applicability of Federal Rule 6 of the Rules of Federal Criminal Procedure it's something that we learned in the law school that the supremacy clause controls and to the extent there's a conflict between the federal doctrine and the state doctrine, the supremacy clause requires the federal rule of law to apply and to control. And certainly in this case you cannot use a state procedure to circumvent a federal rule of criminal procedure that confers secrecy to a grand jury proceeding.

And the Palm Beach Post response to the argument never made note of the grand jury rule, they simply avoided that issue and that in our mind is equally important as the fact in the interest of comity this Court should defer to the rulings of Judge Marra already.

EFTA00231387

As to Mr. Kuvin's argument that he has a client that is in state court and is not in federal court and therefore he doesn't have a remedy in federal court. With all due respect to Mr. Kuvin, that's similarly wrong. Judge Marra's order specifically dealt with a class of individuals who were identified as victims of Mr. Epstein's conduct, and Judge Marra's order says that anyone who's been identified by the United States attorney's office as a victim has right to the nonprosecution agreement under the same rules.

Just so the Court understands, I know we are talking like the Court understands everything about this case. There was a list of victims that was created at the time that the nonprosecution agreement was entered into and Mr. Kuvin's client is on that list. That list was created by the U.S. attorney's office. He has the same rights to the nonprosecution agreement as if he filed this case in federal court and he knows that we've told him that he has that access.

As to the fact that the nonprosecution agreement is presumably not filed in the federal case in our last hearing in front of Judge Marra on June 5th -- I'm sorry, June 12th, Mr. Edwards advised Judge Marra that he had, in fact, filed a nonprosecution agreement to no one's surprise under seal in the federal file, so the nonprosecution agreement according to Mr. Edwards' declaration at that hearing is contained in the federal court system.

For all of those reasons, your Honor, and the reasons that I previously indicated to the Court, we would ask the Court to defer to the federal court in this matter.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. Here is what I'm planning on doing, so you know where I'm going on this. I'll make an oral announcement and I'll follow it up with a written order so that you all can have something to take to wherever you want to take it.

I find that the appropriate procedure to seal or close these documents has not been met, so I'll deny the motion to seal the documents. I'll grant the motion to unseal them. I will take a look at the documents. I will redact out of them the -- what I'll do is, I'll leave the originals intact sealed in the court file to protect the names of any underage victims.

I will make copies of those. I'll redact out the names leaving -- expose the initials of any of the individuals. I'll get that done -- I'll get my written order out granting and denying the respective motions hopefully by the end of today. If not today, tomorrow. I plan on releasing the redacted versions probably Monday, so that those will be available for public consumption on Monday.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, thank you. Thank you for the oral pronouncement. Your Honor, based on the Court's ruling, we do have a motion to stay disclosure of the nonprosecution agreement. The rules of appellate procedure require us to file that before, your Honor.

Your Honor, we do intend to take certiorari on this to the Fourth District Court.

THE COURT: That's why I figure between the written rule and the disclosure give you a chance to catch your breath and do that. I guess you might want that. Is Monday 5 p.m. enough time for you to get over to the DCA?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Actually, your Honor, the Rule of Appellate Procedure maintains jurisdiction with you on this matter to entertain the motion to stay.

THE COURT: So I need to handle the motion to stay?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Correct, your Honor.

THE COURT: Do you want to argue that now? Do you want to take a look at that, catch your breath, come back and see me Monday sometime; what's your pleasure?

MR. GOLDBERGER: We're ready to do it now, your Honor. We're ready to do it now.

THE COURT: All right. Interveners, your thoughts.

EFTA00231391

MR. KUVIN: Matter of procedure point, I just want to make sure that the motion to intervene is, in fact, granted.

THE COURT: You're [redacted] motion to intervene is granted. Do you have a written order for me to sign off on there?

MR. KUVIN: I can submit that.

THE COURT: Why don't you catch your breath and come back tomorrow and I'll hear argument. It will give me a chance to read the motion, check out the rules, take a look, got to get myself gassed up. Anybody want to drop anything off for me to read before the hearing, please do that. Why don't we do that tomorrow morning, and why don't we reconvene here tomorrow at 1:30 on the motion to stay.

MR. GOLDBERGER: That's fine.

THE COURT: How does your schedule look?

MR. GERBER: Your Honor, is it possible to have it a little later, perhaps an hour later tomorrow?

THE COURT: 2:30.

MR. GERBER: If possible.

EFTA00231392

THE COURT: How about a little later than that still, let me take a look at our official calendaring system here.

MR. CRITTON: Judge Colbath, I'm gone tomorrow, I'm going to Gainesville at one or 12:30-ish. I told my wife I would be home at one. My daughter's birthday, 21, she's having a party, I plan to be there. Can we do it tomorrow morning any time, it would be great.

THE COURT: Tomorrow morning is ugly. This isn't going to take long.

MS. BURNS: This is a five-minute motion.

THE COURT: Why don't we do this, meet at 8:15?

MS. SHULLMAN: Your Honor, I'm not going to be able to get my kids to school if I have to be here at 8:15. My husband is in California right now.

MR. GOLDBERGER: I don't mean to jump in. I wonder if we can do some of this telephonically.

MS. SHULLMAN: Yes, I can appear by phone or I can have one of my partners.

EFTA00231393

THE COURT: In the morning what would be a good start time for you?

MS. SHULLMAN: Nine would be getter. I can't drop them off before eight.

THE COURT: It's going to be brief argument, let's do it 9:00 tomorrow morning; 9:00 work for you?

MR. CRITTON: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Just very briefly, the Court is going to look at the nonprosecution agreement and do some redacting, I believe. I just need to advise the court in addition to Mr. Epstein and perhaps victims mention the nonprosecution agreement, there are third parties who the Court needs to look about redacting their names also, and that's contained in the nonprosecution agreement.

In other words, there are other people beside Mr. Epstein and Mr. Victims whose names are mentioned in the nonprosecution agreement, and I would ask the Court to look at those names also for the purpose of redacting.

THE COURT: I'll like a look.

EFTA00231394

MR. EDWARDS: Your Honor, those are not names of victims, those are co-conspirators as listed in the agreement and we would object to any redaction of those names. I don't think there's any standing to ask for that.

THE COURT: I'll take a look. All right. See you all tomorrow morning at nine. If you want to send anything to me later this afternoon or tomorrow morning before we take the bench, I'm happy to receive it. Have a good afternoon.

(Proceedings concluded.)

SUSAN S. WIGGINS. R.P.R. and OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

BE IT REMEMBERED that the following proceedings were had in the above-entitled cause before the HONORABLE JEFFREY COLBATH, one of the judges of the aforesaid court, at the Palm Beach County Courthouse, located in the City of West Palm Beach, State of Florida, on June 26, 2009, beginning at 9:59 o'clock, a.m., with appearances as hereinbefore noted, to wit:

THEREUPON:

THE COURT: Epstein.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Let me call up the State of Florida versus Epstein. Let's have everyone announce their appearance, please, name on the record.

MR. CRITTON: Robert Critton and Jack Goldberger on behalf of Mr. Epstein as well as Barbara Compiani from the office of Jane Walsh.

MS. SHULLMAN: Deanna Shullman of Thomas, LoCicero and Bralow on behalf of the Palm Beach Post.

MR. KUVIN: Spencer Kuvin on behalf of the intervener [redacted].

MS. BURNS: Barbara Burns on behalf of the State of Florida.

EFTA00231400

THE COURT: That's it.

MR. CRITTON: That's it, it's a wrap.

THE COURT: Okay. Orders. Who's not here that I have to mail it to?

MR. GOLDBERGER: Mr. Edwards is not here, your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Berger, Mr. Edwards. Did I give you enough copies of the order?

MR. GOLDBERGER: I ran out. I have just enough. Do you want me to get a copy to Mr. Edwards?

THE COURT: Yes, if you'd mail a copy to Mr. Edwards. I got spares if anybody's interested. Anybody need a spare?

MR. GOLDBERGER: We're good, your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Motion to Stay, Mr. Goldberger.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Critton.

MR. CRITTON: Good morning, Judge Colbath, do you have a copy of our Motion to Stay?

EFTA00231401

THE COURT: I do, the one that was handed up to me yesterday?

MR. CRITTON: Yes, sir, and I have a proposed order in the event the Court chooses to grant; may I provide that to the Court as well?

Your Honor, as you know, Mr. Goldberger and I represent Mr. Epstein. We have hired Ms. Walsh and Ms. Compiani as appellate counsel to assist in the filing of a writ of certiorari. I know that comes as no surprise to the Court in that whoever prevailed and lost yesterday, I think the Court recognized we probably filed a writ of certiorari.

THE COURT: Let me ask real quick. Anybody objecting to the defendant having the ability to have my decision reviewed by the appellate court before I release these things? I mean, it seems pretty straight forward.

MS. SHULLMAN: We have an objection, your Honor, to some extent. The -- you know, the procedure in place here is very similar to that for which they would have to obtain a preliminary injunction.

THE COURT: Right.

MS. SHULLMAN: So to demonstrate likelihood of success and irreparable harm, I don't think they can do that. I think the plan that you put in -- proposed yesterday is a good one, that is you redact and you release on Monday and that gives them today and Monday to get to the Fourth, otherwise, we're stuck in a position where we have a 30-day window to appeal, and we are all delay, delay, delay.

THE COURT: What if I do that? I don't know if it's a difference with that or distinction, but, procedurally, I was thinking I was leaning yesterday towards issuing the order that I just issued. I think that that's a fairly accurate rendition of the written version of my oral pronouncement yesterday, but I order that nothing -- that the redacted orders not be released until -- I'll make it, you know, five of five Monday. That will give you Monday to get down to the Fourth to get them to stop this from being released; what do you think?

MR. CRITTON: Here's what the problem is, Judge, is Ms. Compiani and Ms. Walsh spoke to them yesterday and today, we need a transcript from the hearing yesterday which has not yet been obtained. They need the underlying motions, they need some time to research. It's not a matter of simply filing a writ of petition and that stays the release of the order. There would have to be a separate motion that would be filed with the Appellate Court. The Motion to Stay that we file under Appellate Rule 9.310, subsection A, it provides that the party that seeks review shall come to the lower tribal, which is the trial court, which is you, in this instance, and then it's within your discretion either to stay or not to stay under the circumstances, and we simply don't have the time within which to file the appeal under those circumstances.

There are two criteria that have to be met here, one is the likelihood of harm where no stay is granted, and the second criteria, not necessary mutually exclusive; that is, you don't have to have both of them, but you certainly have to give an indicia of both of them. The second one is the likelihood of success on the merits.

We believe that based upon the Court decision, respectfully, that the Court, that the Appellate Court, will quash your order, for the reasons Judge Puccillo was the one who requested that the document in this -- this was argued yesterday, so I'm going to be very brief. She is the one who requested post sentencing, that the document be filed under seal. It was her request that the defense seceded to that under the circumstances. That certainly was inadvertent, could have just as easily remained under seal with Mr. Goldberger or with the State Attorney under those circumstances.

Secondly, that it relates to the portions of it, specifically, within the MPA to deal with the grand jury proceeding, that would be a violation of Federal Rule Six. I note you just handed us your order about two minutes ago, Judge, so no one's had an opportunity to review it, certainly appellate counsel has not had an opportunity to review it. I don't know if you dealt with the appellate rule, but I do note that within your written order, that you, basically, said that in the second to last page, you said this order is no way to be interpreted as permission not to comply with U.S. District Court Judge Marra's previous orders.

We respectfully submit that it would not comply with Judge Marra's previously issued orders. We also believe that the supremacy clause, as Mr. Goldberger argued yesterday in conjunction with comity principle, that we think that there's a substantial likelihood on success of the merits on this.

With regard to the likelihood of harm, this is a paramount issue here. It's undisputed that this was a confidential agreement. It's a confidential contract between Mr. Epstein and the United States. United States vigorously defended Mr. Edwards when he came into federal court and filed an action to have the MPA released, Judge Marra subsequently entered an order. Another attempt that was made to make the MPA public again.

All plaintiffs' counsel has it. The only ones that don't have it is the Post, under the circumstances, and public under the circumstances, but all the plaintiffs' lawyers of the alleged victims, they either have the MPA and the addendum, which I will refer to as the MPA, or they have the ability to get that. That is very clear from Judge Marra's order.

So there's certainly no harm to the plaintiffs from under these circumstances. And the harm in this instance is only to Mr. Epstein under the circumstances because as Judge Letz (phonetic) once said, it's very much like an attorney/client privilege or a privilege document where once the proverbial horse is out of the barn, you can't get him back in.

EFTA00231407

We cited a case called Mariner versus Baker 3 -- So. 39, So.2d 608 First District 1989. In the Mariner case, this was not a usual incident report and the Court, I know your Honor previously did a great deal of personal injury work and related work, you're very familiar. In fact, you commented yesterday and said, I don't see how the MPA is going to be admissible in a civil proceeding anyway. Again, you're not ruling on that ultimately, the judges in both the State and federal court cases will do that.

In the Mariner case, the judge ordered that the defendants object at the direction of incident reports. The judge said, sorry, you've got to produce those incident reports. And the Court said, give them to me under seal because, again, we are talking about incident reports as distinct from an agreement between two parties which was deemed to be confidential between the United States government and Mr. Epstein. Only irreparable harm here as to Mr. Epstein because if it's released, you cannot remedy that harm on appeal.

And in the Mariner case, if the judge said, if you put the documents under seal, which is exactly the situation we have now is, I will grant the stay and let the appellate court determine whether or not incident reports, which have a much lower threshold for production or for discovery reasons, and, again, there's no harm in an instance like that, even in an incident report came out in the Mariner cases, so what. It won't be used, you can't use any of the information you obtained. In this particular instance, because it is confidential, there is no way the Court can remedy the harm.

With regard to the defendants in this case, again, I think we've demonstrated both irreparable harm, and we believe a substantial likelihood on the success. Again, how do you demonstrate a substantial likelihood on the success? The fact that we would -- if this Court thought that we should prevail, my guess, you would not have ruled as you did, but as the Court is aware, oh, surprise to all of the lawyers here. Sometimes judges get reversed. I know that's a shock to most of the lawyers in this room and most of the courts, but that happens on occasion, and, therefore, we believe we can show through the supremacy clause, the grand jury reference that we will prevail and that your order will be quashed.

With regard to alleged harm by any other party, the Post in this instance reported at the sentencing of Mr. Epstein on or about June 30th of 2008. They waited until June 1st of '09. This was such a pressing issue, the Post wanted to get this desperately out to the public, they were so anxious to do it, that they waited 11 months before they did anything.

Mr. Edwards, who is not here today, filed a federal court action and those issues were talked about and discussed at some length with regard to Judge Marra's two orders.

Judge Marra's rule, you can't get them, if you want to get them, go to that case, that would be Judge Hafele or two of Mr. Edwards' cases are where is Mr. Kuvin's case is or Judge Marra, where Mr. Edwards' case is. Judge Marra can certainly control whether or not they should be released, and I've covered Mr. -- oh, and Mr. Edwards because he could have gone back to Judge Marra because he's got one federal court case -- did he try for that form and get it -- no, they came in here. He tried to do it in a run around Judge Marra.

He didn't file his motion until late May of '09. My guess is it was Mr. Edwards who probably said to the Post, gee, why don't you join in this, you haven't been here for 11 months, why don't you come in now, maybe intervene. And then Mr. Kuvin, on behalf of his client, [redacted] estate court case, came in on June 11th, again, almost a year to the date after Mr. Epstein's sentence.

It's no burning issue, there's no fire here to put out, giving us 30 days, or at least a reasonable period of time to file petition for writ, and then if the Court denies our stay at least asking the appellate court for stay under the circumstances. There's no harm to them. The harm is only to Mr. Epstein, and we think as a substantial likelihood, that we would succeed.

Therefore, we would request the Court grant a stay as I've suggested in my proposed order for 30 days of giving Ms. Walsh and Ms. Compiani an opportunity to actually do their job under the circumstances, so the court reporter doesn't have to work over the weekend to expedite transcripts for us, and secondly, if we file within the 30 days, then let the appellate court determine whether or not the stay remains or not.

THE COURT: Thank you much.

Ms. Shullman, don't worry about responding to the issue of motive or seeking this relief or the timing of your request or party's request. I don't think that bears upon the merits of either parties.

MS. SHULLMAN: The constitutional right of access doesn't have a waiver provision, your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, go ahead. Let me hear -- I'm on board so far with Mr. Critton's version of, Judge, if you let it out, you let it out, so irreparable harm is kind of easy. I think that it is a two-prong test. I think he's got to jump over both hurdles. I think he's got to show some likelihood of success. If you want to spend some energy arguing that there's no irreparable harm, you may do so, but if I hand it out today and everybody gets to see it, you can't fix that tomorrow.

MS. SHULLMAN: Sure.

THE COURT: So I think they've established that.

MS. SHULLMAN: Let me address that very briefly first, your Honor, to remind you in meeting this burden that they failed to meet yesterday, they identified four interests which they liken now to the motion to stay to the four harms.

One, of -- for the first three of them, they mentioned they have no standing to assert the compelling government interest, the government didn't show up, the imminent threat to the administration of justice, again, that's the government's issue. The innocent third party privacy rights, they have no standing. The only one is, he's not really articulated today it's some sort of invasion of Mr. Epstein's privacy rights.

Florida law is clear that those who are participants in crimes do not have privacy rights with respect to the facts and circumstances surrounding those crimes. So unless I'm going hear something outside of the context of Mr. Epstein's criminal prosecution, he has no privacy right in this agreement.

THE COURT: Let me share with you what I'm thinking about doing, even at the conclusion of Mr. Critton's presentation, and that is deny the motion to stay, but delay the release of the records in question until noon Friday. That will give them a little bit of time to see if the Fourth sees this case from a different vantage point, a different light, and maybe they'll look down and say, oh, Judge Colbath, you missed it and, you know, stay the matter. That will give them a reasonable amount of time to get the transcripts to go to the Fourth because I'm a big fan of appellate review and making case law.

MS. SHULLMAN: And I understand, your Honor, if you are suggesting a week from today, that's a little bit long. Remember the status quo here, we are in sort of a strange procedural posture because your Honor decided that the initial closure was improper, but the recent request for closure was denied, so instead of a status quo where we have a document that should be released, it's under seal where it shouldn't be, so any moment that it is kept under seal is a serious deprivation of the public and the press's right to access, which you have already determined they have, we think you are correct, of course, so I would ask that any stay --

EFTA00231415

MR. CRITTON: She's pandering, your Honor.

MS. SHULLMAN: I will say he respectfully disagreed with you, so I think a week is too long. I do this day in and day out, I have spent many a weekend on these matters in my career. If you want to give them till Tuesday, I'll be kind, but the Fourth will act quickly on this. I don't think that a week's delay is necessary. I think, in fact, it under minds the public purpose here.

THE COURT: All right. Any other respondents want to go anything further?

MS. SHULLMAN: The State Attorney's office also advises me that Friday is a holiday and the courts are closed.

THE COURT: Thank you for telling me that. Friday is a holiday.

MR. KUVIN: July 4th.

THE COURT: The day of the birth of our constitution.

MR. KUVIN: Good morning, your Honor. On behalf of intervenor [redacted], obviously, the Court is inclined to delay the disclosure of this, but under Rule 9.310, if your Honor were to issue such a stay, we would point out the provision C of the rule, which requires a posting of the bond.

We not only agree with your Honor's ruling, but we believe such appeal they are filing is absolutely frivolous and we are going to be requesting fees and cost for the filing of that appeal, so as a result, we are requesting a bond be posted if a stay of any type is issued in this case because of the fact that we want to make sure that our attorneys' fee and costs are covered for the frivolous nature of the appeal. And it's dictated strictly in subsection A. It gives the Court the authority. It says:

A stay pending review may be conditioned upon a good and sufficient bond, other conditions or both. Therefore, we believe your Honor does have the authority to issue such a requirement that the posting of a bond be issued.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much. I will deny the motion to stay.

EFTA00231417

I will delay the release of the documents until noon Thursday. I will deny the request to compel the movant, the defendant, Mr. Epstein, to post a bond, and I'll let the appellate court tell us and teach us what the law on this case will be.

It's always interesting how these cases unfold and come to us a little different than everyone else. Now, let me have the attorneys come up here and approach.

(The following proceedings were held sidebar, out of the hearing of the jury.)

THE COURT: I reviewed the two documents, I didn't see any kids' names in there. Everybody was hinting the children's names or the initials' names. I had my big black highlighter out, I don't see anything worth redacting, so.

MR. GOLDBERGER: It's the plaintiff's document that identifies the children's names. It's a letter to me actually.

THE COURT: I was wondering if everybody thought there was something in there that wasn't in there.

EFTA00231418

MR. CRITTON: It's a test of your skills, your Honor.

THE COURT: You're right, exactly. One is page one through seven, and the second one is just two pages that's not even signed by everybody.

MR. GOLDBERGER: While we're all up here chatting, there are references to other names up here.

THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Goldberger, and no one has identified in the document says these are people that are not going to be prosecuted. Mr. Kuvin made the argument that these are co-conspirators. These are innocent people that have nothing to do with these proceedings. They have nothing to do with --

MS. SHULLMAN: They have a standing.

THE COURT: I will renew my ruling that I gave you yesterday, and deny your request to redact those names out of there. All right, so I'll hang on to these till Thursday at noon, and anybody that comes -- wants to come and get them, I don't know if there's a mechanism for -- I stand on the courthouse steps and pass them out.

MS. SHULLMAN: If there are no redactions to be made.

THE COURT: No redaction.

MS. SHULLMAN: I would do an order directing the Court to release them and they may become unsealed. You don't need --

MS. COMPIANI: Your Honor, are you going to write up a written order denying --

MR. GOLDBERGER: Are you going to do that?

THE COURT: Put together a written order?

MS. SHULLMAN: Denying the stay?

THE COURT: Yes, A, denying the stay; B, delaying the disclosure or unsealing of these documents until noon Thursday; C, denying the motion for bond.

MR. GOLDBERGER: And you'll need that order quickly.

THE COURT: Yeah, fax that and we'll get it signed quick today.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Are you forcing the court reporter to work over the weekend so we can get a transcript?

MR. CRITTON: Thank you, your Honor, for moving us this morning.

(Side bar conference held outside the hearing of the jury concluded.)

We thank you for providing notice of the intended disclosure but we do object to any disclosure of the Non-Prosecution Agreement and the related list of witness/victims on the basis of the confidentiality provisions of paragraph 13. Absent an enforceable subpoena - which we would have the right to move to quash in the Court from which it was issued - there exists no right or duty to disclose the confidential Non-Prosecution Agreement or the non-public witness/victim list which was referenced in paragraph 7 of the NPA. Further, given that the witness/victim list was compiled based on the federal grand jury investigation, we object under Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e) to its disclosure absent an appropriate court order.

Re: Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Mr. Weinberg:

Thank you for your letter of July 22, 2011. In order to review and address the objections that you raised in that letter, the Office deferred making its planned disclosure to the District Attorney of the County of New York of the Non-Prosecution Agreement ("Agreement") and the list of identified victims that was provided to Mr. Epstein pursuant to the Agreement. Nonetheless, after completing a full review of your objections, the Office still intends to proceed with the planned disclosures.

The Agreement requires the Office only to provide Mr. Epstein with notice prior to a disclosure of the Agreement "[i]f the United States receives a Freedom of Information Act request or any compulsory process"; the Agreement does not require Mr. Epstein's concurrence in any disclosure. Contrary to your suggestion, the Agreement (including paragraph 13) also does not make the Agreement itself "confidential." On the contrary, the Agreement expressly contemplates that disclosures of the Agreement may be made, and the Agreement further contemplates, contrary to your suggestion, that such disclosures of the Agreement may be made other than in response to "compulsory process." Here, moreover, the District Attorney of the County of New York, as a local law enforcement agency, has provided a legitimate request for disclosure of the requested information, as well as a promise to maintain the confidentiality of the information, particularly the names of the minor victims.

Your objection pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e) also does not impact the planned disclosures. The victim list itself is not grand jury material, and, thus, disclosure of that list to the District Attorney's Office will not violate Rule 6(e).

If you wish to supply any additional authority (other than citation to Rule 6(e) and to paragraph 13 of the Agreement) for your claims that the Office cannot disclose the Agreement and the victim list to the District Attorney of the County of New York, we would be willing to consider those authorities before making any disclosure, provided that any such authorities are furnished to us before 5:00 p.m. on July 29, 2011. Otherwise, seeing no obstacle to the previously-planned disclosures, the Office will be disclosing copies of both the Non-Prosecution Agreement and the list of identified victims that was provided to Mr. Epstein to the District Attorney of the County of New York at 5:00 p.m. on July 29, 2011.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. [redacted],

As we have discussed, I am currently working on the appeal brought by defendant Jeffrey Epstein in which he challenges his risk-offender designation under New York State's Sexual Offender Registration Act.

The non-prosecution agreement between defendant and your Office would be of assistance to us in fashioning our response on appeal. I would appreciate it if you would send us a copy of that agreement, including the list of victims.

Please let me know if you need any further information in order to make this material available. I appreciate your assistance, and courtesy, in this matter.

Dear Ms. [redacted],

As I explained during our telephone conversation last week, I am currently working on an appeal brought by defendant Jeffrey Epstein. Defendant Epstein challenges the designation that he was given under New York State's Sexual Offender Registration Act. The underlying sexual misconduct at issue was the subject of an investigation and/or prosecution by your Office, as well as the Florida State's Attorney Office in Palm Beach County.

I know that you handled the matter on behalf of your office when the case was presented to the federal grand jury. Those grand jury proceedings would be of assistance to us in fashioning our response on appeal, and I would appreciate it if you would send us a transcript of those proceedings. If we furnish the minutes to the appellate court, we would do [redacted] under seal for the purpose of an in camera review.

Please let me know if you need any further information in order to make the materials available. I appreciate your assistance, and courtesy, in this matter.

Yours truly,

Deborah L. Morse

8. GROUNDS FOR SEEKING REVERSAL, ANNULMENT, OR MODIFICATION: The Court's designation of appellant Jeffrey E. Epstein as a Level 3 sexual offender was an abuse of discretion and constituted reversible legal error based, in part, on the following: (1) the Court improperly relied on untrustworthy double and triple hearsay contained in the recommendation of the Board of Examiners of Sex Offenders, even though the District Attorney, as the party appearing on behalf of the State, rejected much of the Board's recommendation as not constituting clear and convincing evidence to support a Level 3 designation where such hearsay allegations were rejected as a basis for state prosecution; (2) the Court failed to provide the parties with an opportunity to present evidence on contested issues, as required by statute, and instead relied wholesale upon the recommendation of the Board, over the objection of the District Attorney, without any inquiry; (3) the Court did not apply the guidelines established by the Board, as required by statute; and (4) the Court failed to set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which its determinations in support of a Level 3 designation were based, as required by statute.

conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereas [redacted] reportedly told [redacted] that if [redacted] asked her age, she should say she was eighteen. It was later confirmed by the [redacted] that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted] father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that [redacted] house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Epstein. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. [redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted]. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. [redacted] told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

[redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room [redacted] she took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein had removed his towel and told the [redacted] to take off everything. [redacted] stated Epstein was nude when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. [redacted] stated she then removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted] cellular telephone [redacted] 2. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked Robson, what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted] voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted] name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted] residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau where I obtained a taped, sworn statement. I began the interview by asking [redacted] how she became acquainted with Epstein. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

Upon her arrival to the house she was introduced to Epstein in the kitchen of the house. She was also introduced to a white female known to her as [redacted]. She was led upstairs to the main bedroom known to her as Jeff Epstein's bedroom. [redacted] arranged the massage table and covered the table with a sheet. She brought out the massage oils and laid them next to the massage bed. [redacted], then left the room and informed [redacted] Jeff would be in, in a minute. Jeff entered the bedroom wearing only a towel. He removed the towel and laid nude on the massage table. He laid on the table onto his stomach and picked a massage oil for [redacted] to rub on him. During the massage, [redacted] stated "He tried to touch me and I stopped him." I asked how he tried to touch her. [redacted] stated that Epstein [redacted] and she felt uncomfortable. [redacted] told Epstein, I'll massage you but I don't want to be touched. [redacted] stated she performed the massage naked. At the conclusion of the massage, Epstein paid [redacted] $200.

After the massage Epstein stated to [redacted] that he understood she was not comfortable, but he would pay her if she brought over some girls. He told her the younger the better. [redacted] stated she once tried to bring a 23 year old female and Epstein stated that the female was too old. [redacted] stated that in total she only remembers six girls that she brought to see Epstein, each time she was paid $200. [redacted] stated she had brought the following girls: [redacted]. I asked her if [redacted] was aware. She stated every girl she brought knew what to expect. She explained she knew that [redacted] wanted to make money. when he was going to travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] said when Epstein announces to his assistant, [redacted], that he is traveling to Palm Beach, [redacted] would then contact [redacted] to arrange girls to "work" for Epstein. [redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call Robson's house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment, "I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted]. We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for Jeff. [redacted] introduced us to her husband and allowed us entry into the home. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted], Date of Birth [redacted]. As she was under the age of eighteen, [redacted] was advised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. We interviewed [redacted], who denied having any inappropriate encounters with Jeff (Epstein). She stated she had gone to Jeff's house with [redacted] approximately eight months ago and sat in the kitchen with the house chef, but nothing happened. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to putting the entire incident behind her. I left my telephone number and advised should she wish to speak with me again to telephone me. Sgt [redacted] and I thanked [redacted] for her time and left the area. She stated she would ask [redacted] again after we left as to what happened at Epstein's house. I informed her that [redacted] had my telephone number and hopefully she would call.

On October 4, 2005, Det [redacted] and I drove to the [redacted] home and met with [redacted] and [redacted], dob [redacted]. During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with ML, dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach so that [redacted] may [redacted] began rubbing his back and got to the small of his back. During the rubbing of his back, Epstein asked her to get comfortable. He requested she remove her pants and shirt. [redacted] removed her shirt and pulled her pants off. [redacted] stayed in her bra and thong panties. As she finished massaging the small of Epstein's back, he then turned onto his back. Epstein instructed [redacted] to rub his chest and pinch his nipples. As she began to rub his chest, Epstein asked her questions about herself. [redacted] remembered telling him she attended Royal Palm Beach High School. Epstein asked her if she was sexually active. Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. [redacted] said "no, I don't like that." Epstein then removed his towel and laid on the bed naked exposing his penis to [redacted]. He began touching his penis and masturbated as he [redacted]. [redacted] explained Epstein then touched [redacted]. [redacted] tensed up and stated Epstein was aware that she was uncomfortable. [redacted] stated that Epstein said to her, "Relax, I'm not going inside." She further explained Epstein commented to her how beautiful and sexy she was. Epstein then moved her thong panties to one side and began [redacted]. [redacted] said, "He commented how [redacted]s." He then [redacted] She tried pulling back to [redacted] Epstein [redacted] and apologized for [redacted]. During this time, he kept his [redacted] and continued to rub her vagina. [redacted] stated he rubbed her really hard as he was masturbating. [redacted] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Epstein told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Epstein also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to YL for bringing her there to massage him. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for [redacted] and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

On January 9, 2006, I located and interviewed another victim, [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as a potential victim/witness from information obtained during trash pulls from Epstein's residence. [redacted] stated she met Epstein when she was fifteen years of age. She was approached by a friend from Royal Palm Beach High School, [redacted], to be taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house to work. She was originally told she would be able to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. CL stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself. Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or utilize the [redacted]

[redacted] He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, so that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after AH high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach. [redacted]

Jeffrey Epstein, who at the time of these incidents was fifty one years of age, did have vaginal intercourse either [redacted] or digitally with [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], who were minors at the time this occurred, and who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did use [redacted] of SG, a fourteen year old minor. Therefore, as [redacted] coordinated and aided in the recruitment of minors to frequent Epstein's house so that sexual services were provided to Epstein, scheduled the said minors to return to the work for Epstein, secured their appointments for the purpose of sexual activity and lewd and lascivious acts and arranged the bedroom for said minors, there is sufficient probable cause to charge [redacted] with four counts of Principal in the 1st degree Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, in violation of Florida State Statute 794.05(1) , a second degree felony and there is sufficient probable cause to charge her with Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.04 (5), a second degree felony.

(a) The court shall require intensive supervision and surveillance for an offender placed into community control, which may include but is not limited to:

(b) For an offender placed on criminal quarantine community control, the court shall require:

However, if the court withholds adjudication of guilt or imposes a period of incarceration as a condition of community control, the period may not exceed 364 days, and incarceration shall be restricted to a county facility, a probation and restitution center under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, a probation program drug punishment phase I secure residential treatment institution, or a community residential facility owned or operated by any entity providing such services.

When the sheriff receives the report, the sheriff shall promptly convey the information to the department. An offender who makes a report as required under paragraph (b) but fails [redacted] make a report as required under this paragraph commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(d) A sexual offender must register any electronic mail address or instant message name with the department prior to using such electronic mail address or instant message name on or after October 1, 2007. The department shall establish an online system through which sexual offenders may securely access and update all electronic mail address and instant message name information.

(5) This section does not apply to a sexual offender who is also a sexual predator, as defined in s. 775.21. A sexual predator must register as required under s. 775.21.

(6) County and local law enforcement agencies, in conjunction with the department, shall verify the ad[redacted]es of sexual offenders who are not under the care, custody, control, or supervision of the Department of Corrections in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of the federal Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 and any other federal standards applicable to such verification or required to be met as a condition for the receipt of federal funds by the state. Local law enforcement agencies shall report [redacted] the department any failure by a sexual offender to comply with registration requirements.

(7) A sexual offender who intends to establish residence in another state or jurisdiction other than the State of Florida shall report in person to the sheriff of the county of current residence within 48 hours before the date he or she intends to leave this state to establish residence in another state or jurisdiction. The notification must include the address, municipality, county, and state of intended residence. The sheriff shall promptly provide to the department the information received from the sexual offender. The department shall notify the statewide law enforcement agency, or a comparable agency, in the intended state or jurisdiction of residence of the sexual offender's intended residence. The failure of a sexual offender to provide his or her intended place of residence is punishable as provided in subsection (9).

(8) A sexual offender who indicates his or her intent to reside in another state or jurisdiction other than the State of Florida and later decides to remain in this state shall, within 48 hours after the date upon which the sexual offender indicated he or she would leave this state, report in person to the sheriff to which the sexual offender reported the intended change of residence, and report his or her intent to remain in this state. The sheriff shall promptly report this information [redacted] the department. A sexual offender who reports his or her intent to reside in another state or jurisdiction but who remains in this state without reporting to the sheriff in the manner required by this subsection commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(9)(a) A sexual offender who does not comply with the requirements of this section commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) A sexual offender who commits any act or omission in violation of this section may be prosecuted for the act or omission in the county in which the act or omission was committed, the county of the last registered address of the sexual offender, or the county in which the conviction occurred for the offense or offenses that meet the criteria for designating a person as a sexual offender.

(c) An arrest on charges of failure to register when the offender has been provided and advised of his or her statutory obligations to register under subsection (2), the service of an information or a complaint for a violation of this section, or an arraignment on charges for a violation of this section constitutes actual notice of the duty to register. A sexual offender's failure to immediately register as required by this section following such arrest, service, or arraignment constitutes grounds for a subsequent charge of failure to register. A sexual offender charged with the crime of failure to register who asserts, or intends to assert, a lack of notice of the duty to register as a defense to a charge of failure to register shall immediately register as required by this section. A sexual offender who is charged with a subsequent failure to register may not assert the defense of a lack of notice of the duty to register.

(d) Registration following such arrest, service, or arraignment is not a defense and does not relieve the sexual offender of criminal liability for the failure to register.

(10) The department, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Juvenile Justice, any law enforcement agency in this state, and the personnel of those departments; an elected or appointed official, public employee, or school administrator; or an employee, agency, or any individual or entity acting at the request or upon the direction of any law enforcement agency is immune from civil liability for damages for good faith compliance with the requirements of this section or for the release of information under this section, and shall be presumed to have acted in good faith in compiling, recording, reporting, or releasing the information. The presumption of good faith is not overcome if a technical or clerical error is made by the department, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the personnel of those departments, or any individual or entity acting at the request or upon the direction of any of those departments in compiling or providing information, or if information is incomplete or incorrect because a sexual offender fails to report or falsely reports his or her current place of permanent or temporary residence.

(11) Except as provided in s. 943.04354, a sexual offender must maintain registration with the department for the duration of his or her life, unless the sexual offender has received a full pardon or has had a conviction set aside in a postconviction proceeding for any offense that meets the criteria for classifying the person as a sexual offender for purposes of registration. However, a sexual offender:

(a)1. Who has been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or sanction, whichever is later, for at least 25 years and has not been arrested for any felony or misdemeanor offense since release, provided that the sexual offender's requirement to register was not based upon an adult conviction:

a. For a violation of s. 787.01 or s. 787.02;

b. For a violation of s. 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10);

c. For a violation of s. 800.04(4)(b) where the court finds the offense involved a victim under 12 years of age or sexual activity by the use of force or coercion;

d. For a violation of s. 800.04(5)(b);

e. For a violation of s. 800.04(5)(c)2. where the court finds the offense involved unclothed genitals or genital area;

f. For any attempt or conspiracy to commit any such offense; or

g. For a violation of similar law of another jurisdiction, may petition the criminal division of the circuit court of the circuit in which the sexual offender resides for the purpose of removing the requirement for registration as a sexual offender.

2. The court may grant or deny relief if the offender demonstrates to the court that he or she has not been arrested for any crime since release; the requested relief complies with the provisions of the federal Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 and any other federal standards applicable to the removal of registration requirements for a sexual offender or required to be met as a condition for the receipt of federal funds by the state; and the court is otherwise satisfied that the offender is not a current or potential threat to public safety. The state attorney in the circuit in which the petition is filed must be given notice of the petition at least 3 weeks before the hearing on the matter. The state attorney may present evidence in opposition to the requested relief or may otherwise demonstrate the reasons why the petition should be denied. If the court denies the petition, the court may set a future date at which the sexual offender may again petition the court for relief, subject to the standards for relief provided in this subsection.

3. The department shall remove an offender from classification as a sexual offender for purposes of registration if the offender provides to the department a certified copy of the court's written findings or order that indicates that the offender is no longer required to comply with the requirements for registration as a sexual offender.

(b) As defined in sub-subparagraph (1)(a)1.b. must maintain registration with the department for the duration of his or her life until the person provides the department with an order issued by the court that designated the person as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in the state or jurisdiction in which the order was issued which states that such designation has been removed or demonstrates to the department that such designation, if not imposed by a court, has been removed by operation of law or court order in the state or jurisdiction in which the designation was made, and provided such person no longer meets the criteria for registration as a sexual offender under the laws of this state.

(12) The Legislature finds that sexual offenders, especially those who have committed offenses against minors, often pose a high risk of engaging in sexual offenses even after being released from incarceration or commitment and that protection of the public from sexual offenders is a paramount government interest. Sexual offenders have a reduced expectation of privacy because of the public's interest in public safety and in the effective operation of government. Releasing information concerning sexual offenders to law enforcement agencies and to persons who request such information, and the release of such information to the public by a law enforcement agency or public agency, will further the governmental interests of public safety. The designation of a person as a sexual offender is not a sentence or a punishment but is simply the status of the offender which is the result of a conviction for having committed certain crimes.

(13) Any person who has reason to believe that a sexual offender is not complying, or has not complied, with the requirements of this section and who, with the intent to assist the sexual offender in eluding a law enforcement agency that is seeking to find the sexual offender to question the sexual offender about, or to arrest the sexual offender for, his or her noncompliance with the requirements of this section:

(a) Withholds information from, or does not notify, the law enforcement agency about the sexual offender's noncompliance with the requirements of this section, and, if known, the whereabouts of the sexual offender;

(b) Harbors, or attempts to harbor, or assists another person in harboring or attempting to harbor, the sexual offender; or

(c) Conceals or attempts to conceal, or assists another person in concealing or attempting to conceal, the sexual offender; or

(d) Provides information to the law enforcement agency regarding the sexual offender that the person knows to be false information,

commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(14)(a) A sexual offender must report in person each year during the month of the sexual offender's birthday and during the sixth month following the sexual offender's birth month to the sheriff's office in the county in which he or she resides or is otherwise located to reregister.

(b) However, a sexual offender who is required to register as a result of a conviction for:

1. Section 787.01 or s. 787.02 where the victim is a minor and the offender is not the victim's parent or guardian;

2. Section 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10);

3. Section 800.04(4)(b) where the court finds the offense involved a victim under 12 years of age or sexual activity by the use of force or coercion;

4. Section 800.04(5)(b);

5. Section 800.04(5)(c)1. where the court finds molestation involving unclothed genitals or genital area;

6. Section 800.04(5)c.2. where the court finds molestation involving unclothed genitals or genital area;

7. Section 800.04(5)(d) where the court finds the use of force or coercion and unclothed genitals or genital area;

8. Any attempt or conspiracy to commit such offense; or

9. A violation of a similar law of another jurisdiction, must reregister each year during the month of the sexual offender's birthday and every third month thereafter.

(c) The sheriff's office may determine the appropriate times and days for reporting by the sexual offender, which shall be consistent with the reporting requirements of this subsection. Reregistration shall include any changes to the following information:

1. Name; social security number; age; race; sex; date of birth; height; weight; hair and eye color; address of any permanent residence and address of any current temporary residence, within the state or out of state, including a rural route address and a post office box; any electronic mail address and any instant message name required to be provided pursuant to paragraph (4)(d); date and place of any employment; vehicle make, model, color, and license tag number; fingerprints; and photograph. A post office box shall not be provided in lieu of a physical residential address.

2. If the sexual offender is enrolled, employed, or carrying on a vocation at an institution of higher education in this state, the sexual offender shall also provide to the department the name, address, and county of each institution, including each campus attended, and the sexual offender's enrollment or employment status.

3. If the sexual offender's place of residence is a motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home, as defined in chapter 320, the sexual offender shall also provide the vehicle identification number; the license tag number; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the motor vehicle, trailer, mobile home, or manufactured home. If the sexual offender's place of residence is a vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat, as defined in chapter 327, the sexual offender shall also provide the hull identification number; the manufacturer's serial number; the name of the vessel, live-aboard vessel, or houseboat; the registration number; and a description, including color scheme, of the vessel, live-aboard vessel or houseboat.

4. Any sexual offender who fails to report in person as required at the sheriff's office, or who fails to respond to any address verification correspondence from the department within 3 weeks of the date of the correspondence or who fails to report electronic mail addresses or instant message names, commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(d) The sheriff's office shall, within 2 working days, electronically submit and update all information provided by the sexual offender to the department in a manner prescribed by the department.

If you were adjudicated guilty of a felony offense, your name will be submitted to the Florida Parole Commission for consideration for restoration of the civil rights that you lost as a result of your felony conviction (right to vote, right to hold public office, and the right to serve on a jury). If your rights are restored, a certificate of restoration of civil rights will be mailed by the Office of Executive Clemency to your last mailing address of record usually within one year following the termination of supervision. RE: Jeffrey E. Epstein

To Whom It May Concern:

The undersigned represented Jeffrey E. Epstein in the investigation that lead to his entry of a guilty plea on June 30, 2008 to a felony charge in the State of Florida that required sex offender registration. The purpose of this letter is to clarify the level of registration that was applicable to Mr. Epstein's case

Under Florida's registration scheme there are two levels of registration available based on a risk assessment. Florida characterizes these two levels as sexual predator and sexual offender. The sexual predator designation is obviously the more serious classification.

Mr. Epstein, based on the offense on which his guilty plea was entered, was classified as a sexual offender, Florida's lowest level of sexual registration. In fact, within the sexual offender designation there are two sub-levels of reporting requirements. One classification requires reporting to the local Sheriff's Office twice a year and one requires reporting four times a year. In Mr. Epstein's case he is required to report at the lowest level, two times per year. Accordingly, under the Florida registration scheme, Mr. Epstein's registration requirements are at the lowest level for a person for whom registration is required.

During the incarcerative portion of Mr. Epstein's sentence, he was allowed to participate in the Sheriff's Office work release program, an option that would not have been available to him had he been at a higher registration level. Additionally, while Mr. Epstein was in probationary status, he was allowed to travel on a limited basis for business purposes. This would not have been available to him had he been classified as a sexual predator.

I hope this information assists your department in determining the registration requirements for Mr. Epstein. Should you desire to speak to me or need any further information, please feel free to contact me.

Re: Jeffrey Epstein
NYSID # OS1909

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter and the accompanying materials are submitted to the Board pursuant to its notice of August 2, 2010, concerning the risk level and designation determination to be made with respect to Jeffrey Epstein. Their purpose is to demonstrate to the Board that, based upon Mr. Epstein's history and personal characteristics, the circumstances of the offense which triggered the registration requirement, his acceptance of responsibility, his successful completion of his sentence and subsequent supervision, and the extraordinary unlikelihood of his ever again reoffending, the appropriate risk level designation is level 1.

Overview

Mr. Epstein, who is presently 58 years old, is a successful and respected financial advisor who also founded and heads a philanthropic organization, the C.O.U.Q. Foundation, Inc. which funds medical, educational, and advanced scientific research. The offense which led to the requirement that he register as a sex offender in Florida, which in turn triggered this state's reporting requirement, ended almost five years ago and involved an exchange of money and consensual conduct with a young woman who, for all but a few months of the prostitution offense charged, was over the age of 17. Notably, as addressed in greater detail, infra, the conduct which occurred after A.D. reached the age of 17 would not even have been a misdemeanor under the cognate New York statute at the time the offense was committed.

Mr. Epstein pled guilty to that offense in the Circuit Court for Palm Beach County, Florida, and has fully and sincerely accepted responsibility for his conduct. There have been no subsequent incidents of criminal misconduct of any description.

Florida has classified Mr. Epstein as its lowest level sex offender, with the lowest level of reporting requirement, as verified by the attorney who represented Mr. Epstein in the Florida proceedings:

> Under Florida's registration scheme there are two levels of registration available based on a risk assessment. Florida characterizes these two levels as sexual predator and sexual offender. The sexual predator designation is obviously the more serious classification.
> Mr. Epstein, based on the offense on which his guilty plea was entered was classified as a sexual offender, Florida's lowest level of sexual registration. In fact, within the sexual offender designation there are two-sub-levels of reporting requirements. One classification requires reporting to the local Sheriff's Office twice a year and one requires reporting four times a year. In Mr. Epstein's case, he is required to report at the lowest level, two times per year. Accordingly, under the Florida registration scheme, Mr. Epstein's registration requirements are at the lowest level for a person for whom registration is required.

Letter of Jack A. Goldberger, Esq., Ex. A. That Florida authorities did not – and do not – believe that Mr. Epstein presented a risk of reoffense is evidenced not just by Mr. Epstein's lowest-level reporting designation but also by the fact that he was permitted, while serving his sentence in the West Palm Beach County Jail, to leave the jail on a daily basis on work release for most of the period of his 13-month incarceration and that during his subsequent year of community control supervision (a probationary-type sentence), both the court and his probation officer agreed to permit him to travel outside Florida for business purposes on a significant number of occasions. He has now completed his year of community control supervision, having fully complied with all the requirements and obligations imposed on him.

In addition, Mr. Epstein has participated in therapy with a clinical psychologist, Stephen R. Alexander, Psy. D., who, based on his evaluation of, and therapy sessions with, Mr. Epstein and his long experience as a forensic psychologist, attests that Mr. Epstein presents no threat to the community and that the risk of his reoffending is "negligible":

> Since my initial assessment of Mr. Epstein he has been extremely cooperative with all of the services provided to him. He has spent a great deal of time and energy focusing on his behavior and the attitudes, beliefs and expectations that undergird his approach to life. He has examined his priorities and undergone a comprehensive self-exploration on more than one occasion, primarily because of the vast changes that have occurred in his life and the upheaval these events have caused. Throughout it all Mr. Epstein has remained willing to focus on himself and how to turn even the most dire personal circumstances into productive experiences to the fullest extent possible. In my opinion Mr. Epstein has been highly cooperative with and benefited from the treatment provided. Relying upon my 25 years of experience as a forensic psychologist and the plethora of data gathered by me, I state with confidence that Mr. Epstein poses no threat to himself or the community. It is abundantly clear that he has learned his lesson and the probability of his reoffending is negligible. Mr.

EFTA00231500

> Epstein poses no threat to either himself or the general community, and he requires no additional intervention or treatment for his no-risk/low-risk status to be maintained into the future.

Letter of Stephen R. Alexander, Psy. D., submitted herewith as Ex. B.[1]

All of these circumstances – Mr. Epstein's low-risk classification in Florida, the state where the offense was committed, the low-risk assessment inherent in the decisions of Florida authorities responsible for the protection of the community, who knew him first-hand, to admit him to work release during his period of incarceration and to permit him to travel outside of Florida during his period of community control supervision, Dr. Alexander's well-supported judgment that Mr. Epstein presents little or no risk of reoffense, the fact that the offense ended almost five years ago, and there has been no subsequent criminal misconduct of any kind, and the fact that Mr. Epstein is a mature, responsible, professional adult who uses neither alcohol nor drugs all support the conclusion that the supervision which accompanies a level 1 designation will more than suffice to serve the purposes of SORA. That conclusion is supported by the calculation of Mr. Epstein's risk assessment guidelines score.

The Conduct Underlying the Offense Triggering the Florida Registration Requirement Would For the Most Part Not Even Have Been a Registerable Offense in New York Had the Conduct Occurred in New York

The offense which required Mr. Epstein to register as a sex offender in the state of Florida was a violation of Fla. Stat. §796.03, which criminalizes procuring a person under the age of 18 (the age of consent in Florida) for prostitution, specifically, here, one "A.D." The nearest New York cognate among the registerable offenses listed in N.Y. Correction Law §168-a is N.Y. Penal Law §230.04 (patronizing a prostitute). The information to which Mr. Epstein pled guilty charged that the offense occurred between August 1, 2004, and October 9, 2005, see Information, Ex. C, that latter date being the day before A.D.'s 18th birthday. Thus, for almost all of the duration of the charged offense, A.D. was over the age of 17, and the wholly consensual conduct in exchange for money which occurred between the two would not even have been a registerable offense in New York. See §168-a(2)(a)(i)(§230.04 a registerable offense only if "person patronized" is in fact under 17 years old). Indeed, at the time of the offense at issue, the conduct which occurred after A.D. turned 17 years of age would not even have been a crime under that statute if the conduct had taken place in New York.[2] Mr. Epstein's offense ranks among the least serious of those which trigger the requirement of SORA registration. The single Florida offense which required registration involved only one woman, and there was no force or violence involved at any time, nor did A.D. suffer from any mental disability, mental incapacity, or physical helplessness. The points attributable to the Current Offense factors (factors 1-7) total less than 70.

[2] In 2007, §230.04 was amended to extend its coverage to prostitution offenses involving individuals of any age, not just those under the age of 17, as the statute was written when Mr. Epstein's offense was committed in 2004-05. Under §230.04 as written in 2004-05, the offense, to the extent that A.D. was in the last three months of her 16th year, would only have been a misdemeanor had it been committed in New York.

Criminal History

Prior to the offense at issue, Mr. Epstein had no prior criminal history whatsoever. Mr. Epstein's date of birth is January 20, 1953, and he was, accordingly, more than twenty years of age when the offense at issue was committed. Mr. Epstein does not use alcohol or illegal drugs and has no history of either drug or alcohol abuse. Accordingly, Mr. Epstein should be scored at zero for the Criminal History factors (factors 8-11).

Post-Offense Behavior

On June 30, 2008, Mr. Epstein pled guilty to the offense which subjected him to the requirement that he register as a sex offender in Florida and has fully accepted responsibility for his conduct. Mr. Epstein served approximately 13 months in a West Palm Beach County jail (rather than in a state correctional facility). During most of his period of confinement, from October 10, 2008, through July 22, 2009, the date of his release, Mr. Epstein participated in the jail's work release program, see Letter of Deputy [redacted], Ex. D, which permitted him to leave the jail in the morning six days a week for his place of employment, the Florida Science Foundation, and return in the evening. That Mr. Epstein satisfactorily complied with the requirements of the program is evidenced by the fact that he remained in the work release program up to the time of his release from custody.

After his release on July 22, 2009, Mr. Epstein was subject to a one-year period of community control, which required, among other conditions, that he maintain contact with the probation office as required, that he be confined to his residence during the hours when he was not working or performing public service, that he not leave his county of residence without the consent of his probation officer, that he commit no further violations of the law, and that he maintain employment. During Mr. Epstein's period of community control from July 22, 2009, through July 21, 2010, he was permitted by the court, with the assent of his probation officer and without opposition by the state's attorney, to travel (including overnight stays) to New York and to the Virgin Islands for business purposes on a number of occasions, thus demonstrating a substantial level of trust by both the court and his supervising probation officer in Mr. Epstein's ability to refrain from unlawful conduct of any kind and to conform his conduct to the terms of his community control order and to the orders authorizing his travel, which he did on every such occasion.[3] Mr. Epstein successfully completed his term of community control on July, 21, 2010, see Florida Department of Corrections Termination of Supervision notice, Ex. F, having at all times fully complied with all obligations and restrictions imposed upon him.

Mr. Epstein has never refused or been expelled from any treatment since the time of his sentencing (factor 12(2)). See pages 2-3, supra. Based on his professional expertise and the substantial time he has spent with Mr. Epstein, Dr. Alexander is able to state unequivocally that Mr. Epstein has learned his lesson, that he presents no threat to the community, and that there is negligible risk that he will ever reoffend. Accordingly, Mr. Epstein should be scored at zero for the Post-Offense Behavior factors (factors 12-13).

[3] One such travel order is attached as Ex. E.

EFTA00231502

Release Environment

Factor 14 contemplates that the risk level assessment will be made, as required under New York law, prior to the offender's release from incarceration. Here, as the preceding section shows, Mr. Epstein was released from jail more than a year ago and was subject to close supervision for a period of one year afterwards. During the same time, he continued to meet with Dr. Alexander. The score for factor 14 should, accordingly, be zero.

Mr. Epstein maintains a vacation residence in Manhattan, which he owns, as well as residences in Florida and the Virgin Islands. Mr. Epstein's interactions in connection with both his employment and philanthropic work are with adult business professionals, scientists, and educators. There is nothing in either Mr. Epstein's living or employment situations which could even remotely be considered "inappropriate." The score on factor 15 too should be zero.

Overrides

None of the listed factors are of any relevance or applicability to Mr. Epstein's risk level designation.

Conclusion

Based on all the relevant factors, Mr. Epstein should be classified as a level 1 sex offender. Even should the Board somehow conclude that Mr. Epstein's risk assessment guidelines score exceeds 70, the circumstances addressed in this letter differentiate this case [redacted] markedly from the norm of level 2 sex offenders that the Board should recommend a level 1 classification, as it is empowered to do under the Sex Offender Guidelines. The ultimate issue is the risk that the offender will reoffend, and the information provided to the Board with this letter persuasively demonstrates that such a risk is virtually nonexistent in this case.

Very truly yours,

Martin G. Weinberg

Re.: Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Mr. Goldberger:

Since my initial assessment of Mr. Epstein he has been extremely cooperative with all of the services provided to him. He has spent a great deal of time and energy focusing on his behavior and the attitudes, beliefs and expectations that undergird his approach to life. He has examined his priorities and undergone a comprehensive self-exploration on more than one occasion, primarily because of the vast changes that have occurred in his life and the upheaval these events have caused. Throughout it all Mr. Epstein has remained willing to focus on himself and how to turn even the most dire personal circumstances into productive experiences to the fullest extent possible. In my opinion Mr. Epstein has been highly cooperative with and benefited from the treatment provided. Relying upon my 25 years of experience as a forensic psychologist and the plethora of data gathered by me, I state with confidence that Mr. Epstein poses no threat to himself or the community. It is abundantly clear that he has learned his lesson and the probability of his reoffending is negligible. Mr. Epstein poses no threat to either himself or the general community, and he requires no additional intervention or treatment for his no-risk/low-risk status to be maintained into the future.

If any questions remain or I can be of additional assistance, please contact my office.

Sincerely,

Stephen R. Alexander, Psy.D.

DATE: 8/23/2010

CASE SUMMARY

This assessment is based upon a review of the inmate's file which may include but is not limited to the pre-sentence investigation, prior criminal history and post-offense behavior.

Jeffrey Epstein is a 57-year-old sex offender who pled guilty in the state of Florida on 6/30/2008 to two felony sex offenses, Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution and Felony Solicitation of Prostitution. He was sentenced to12 months in jail followed by 12 months of Community Control.

It would appear he was convicted in London England of Unlawful Possession of an Offensive Weapon, a Sword Stick, and was sentenced to a Conditional Discharge on 1/4/1973.

Regarding the instant offense, Epstein was approximately 51 years of age on or about the year 2005 when he sexually assaulted numerous females between the approximate ages of 14 and 17. Most of the victims were recruited by one of Epstein's female employees from a local high school in the Palm Beach Florida area. Some of the female participants were age 18 or older. The contact included [redacted], the [redacted]. The available police reports from the Palm Beach Police Department include conversations with numerous female victims who in most cases, did not know Epstein when they were victimized. Most of the females were embarrassed to speak with police regarding what had happened to them while they were at Epstein's home. Sworn statements were taken from at least five victims and seventeen witnesses concerning massages and unlawful sexual activity that took place at the residence of Jeffrey Epstein. Most of the victims were paid at least $200.00 each time they performed a massage.

The victims were told they would be giving Epstein a massage and they were escorted to his bedroom. Most victims noted numerous pictures of naked young females, (some of the photos depicted females who would be eventually interviewed by police), on display throughout the home. The offender would enter the room only wearing a towel. In most cases he would remove the towel and ask the victim to remove her clothing. In some cases he would masturbate into a towel while receiving a massage. In other cases he would [redacted] of the victim with his hands or [redacted]. One 14 year old described how Epstei[redacted] and thereafter, when contacted by law enforcement, she had to identify the offender through the use of a photo array. Another 16-year-old victim described giving Epstein massages for two years and at times, he [redacted] and [redacted] as she gave him a massage. Another 16-year-old described going to the offender's home at least 100 times. He would [redacted] and sometimes [redacted] on her while masturbating. He would also pay this underage victim to [redacted] with a female friend while he watched. Occasionally, he would [redacted] and [redacted] on both. This 16-year-old victim described for police how one time, Epstein turned her over on the massage table and [redacted]. When she screamed, "NO," he stopped and subsequently apologized for his actions.

The offenders conduct while on Community Control will be considered satisfactory and he does not have a history of substance abuse. Based upon his plea of guilty, Epstein will be credited with accepting responsibility for his actions. He will be scored for sexual and deviate sexual intercourse, forcible compulsion, numerous victims and their ages, a continued course of sexual misconduct, a prior misdemeanor conviction in England absent specific information, for his stranger relationship to most victims and for establishing a relationship with these underage girls for the purpose of victimization.

The Board acknowledges correspondence received from the offender's attorney.

Dear Mr. Epstein:

Please be advised that pursuant to the 1996 Sex Offender Registration Act, the court must conduct a hearing to determine whether you will be classified as a level 1, 2 or 3 sex offender and if you will be designated as a sexual predator, a sexually violent offender or a predicate sex offender. The court's decision will determine how long you must register as a sex offender and how much information can be provided to the public concerning your registration. The court's determination may be higher, lower or the same as the one recommended by the Board of Examiners.

Your hearing has been scheduled for September 15, 2010 at 9:30 a.m., before the Hon. Ruth Pickholz in part 66 located at 111 Centre Street, New York, N.Y. You have a right to attend this hearing. If you wish to waive your appearance for the hearing enclosed is a waiver form which must be notarized and returned to this office within ten days of receipt. A request has been made for an attorney to represent you at this hearing.

If you fail to appear at this proceeding, without sufficient excuse, it shall be held in your absence. Failure to appear may result in a longer period of registration or a higher level of community notification because you are not present to offer evidence or contest evidence offered by the District Attorney.

CASE SUMMARY

This assessment is based upon a review of the inmate's file which may include but is not limited to the pre-sentence investigation, prior criminal history and post-offense behavior.

Jeffrey Epstein is a 57-year-old sex offender who pled guilty in the state of Florida on 6/30/2008 to two felony sex offenses, Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution and Felony Solicitation of Prostitution. He was sentenced to12 months in jail followed by 12 months of Community Control.

It would appear he was convicted in London England of Unlawful Possession of an Offensive Weapon, a Sword Stick, and was sentenced to a Conditional Discharge on 1/4/1973.

Regarding the instant offense, Epstein was approximately 51 years of age on or about the year 2005 when he sexually assaulted numerous females between the approximate ages of 14 and 17. Most of the victims were recruited by one of Epstein's female employees from a local high school in the Palm Beach Florida area. Some of the female participants were age 18 or older. The contact included [redacted], the [redacted]. The available police reports from the Palm Beach Police Department include conversations with numerous female victims who in most cases, did not know Epstein when they were victimized. Most of the females were embarrassed to speak with police regarding what had happened to them while they were at Epstein's home. Sworn statements were taken from at least five victims and seventeen witnesses concerning massages and unlawful sexual activity that took place at the residence of Jeffrey Epstein. Most of the victims were paid at least $200.00 each time they performed a massage.

The victims were told they would be giving Epstein a massage and they were escorted to his bedroom. Most victims noted numerous pictures of naked young females, (some of the photos depicted females who would be eventually interviewed by police), on display throughout the home. The offender would enter the room only wearing a towel. In most cases he would remove the towel and ask the victim to remove her clothing. In some cases he would masturbate into a towel while receiving a massage. In other cases he would [redacted] of the victim with his hands or [redacted]. One 14 year old described how Epstein [redacted], when contacted by law enforcement, she had to identify the offender through the use of a photo array. Another 16-year-old victim described giving Epstein massages for two years and at times, he [redacted] and [redacted] as she gave him a massage. Another 16-year-old described going to the offender's home at least 100 times. He would [redacted] and sometimes [redacted] on her while masturbating. He would also pay this underage victim to [redacted] with a female friend while he watched. Occasionally, he would [redacted] and [redacted] on both. This 16-year-old victim described for police how one time, Epstein turned her over on the massage table and [redacted]. When she screamed, "NO," he stopped and subsequently apologized for his actions.

The offenders conduct while on Community Control will be considered satisfactory and he does not have a history of substance abuse. Based upon his plea of guilty, Epstein will be credited with accepting responsibility for his actions. He will be scored for sexual and deviate sexual intercourse, forcible compulsion, numerous victims and their ages, a continued course of sexual misconduct, a prior misdemeanor conviction in England absent specific information, for his stranger relationship to most victims and for establishing a relationship with these underage girls for the purpose of victimization.

The Board acknowledges correspondence received from the offender's attorney.

Re: SCID No. 30129-2010

Dear Justice Pickholz:

I am writing regarding the hearing for Mr. Jeffrey Epstein in the above-referenced matter, which is currently scheduled for 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, September 15, 2010.

We respectfully request a continuance of the hearing. Kirkland & Ellis was only recently retained by Mr. Epstein to represent him in this matter and due to the holidays this week and because the matter arises out of Florida, we will need some time in order to collect information to prepare for the hearing.

We are available on or after October 4, 2010 for a hearing on this matter if that would be acceptable to the Court. We are available to discuss at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

COURT CLERK: This is number two on the calendar, matter of Jeffrey Epstein.

Your appearances please.

MS. GAFFNEY: Jennifer Gaffney for the People.

Good afternoon, Your Honor.

MR. LEFKOWITZ: Jay Lefkowitz and Sandra Musumeci for Mr. Epstein.

THE COURT: Mr. Epstein is not here.

MR. LEFKOWITZ: That's correct.

THE COURT: Are you waiving his appearance?

MR. LEKWOWITZ: Yes.

MS. GAFFNEY: Your Honor, this case is on for a SORA hearing this afternoon.

The People did receive the board's recommendation of a Level Three. However, we received the underlying information from them and also had some contact with Florida, and we don't believe that we can rely on the entire probable cause affidavit.

I don't know if the board sent that to you as well.

THE COURT: I don't know why you cannot rely on it.

MS. GAFFNEY: Because in Florida of all of the victims in that probable cause affidavit, they actually only went forward on one case. There was only an indictment for one victim and that is what the defendant plead to.

So it is unlike a situation where everything was indicted and then we get to sort of assess points for all of the victims, if it was part of a plea bargain. They did not actually choose to go forward on any except for the one victim.

So under the board guidelines, the risk assessment interim guidelines, it actually says, you know, by way of contrast if an offender is not indicted for an offense, it is strong evidence that the offense did not occur and I don't think --

THE COURT: Do you find that if somebody is not indicted it is strong evidence that it did not occur?

MS. GAFFNEY: I don't know that we can rely on it as clear and convincing evidence if the prosecutor's office never went forward on it. The prosecution said that the victims, although they spoke to the police early on, did not cooperate with them. So we don't have any follow up information.

THE COURT: But the board found a Level Three.

I have to tell you, I am a little overwhelmed because I have never seen the prosecutor's office do anything like this. I have never seen it. I had a case with one instance it was a marine who went to a bar, and I wish I had the case before me, but he went to a bar and a 17 year old, he was an adult obviously, he was a Marine, a 17 year old came up to him and one thing lead to another and he had sex with her and the People would not agree to a downward modification on that.

So I am a little overwhelmed here because I see -- I mean I read everything here, I am just a little overwhelmed that the People are making this application.

I could cite many many, I have done many SORAs much less troubling than this one where the People would never make a downward argument like this.

MS. GAFFNEY: I agree with Your Honor, it is incredibly unusual for us to make a downward argument. But the problem is the one thing that we have from the board is it seems to be in contradiction to their own guidelines which if something was not indicted, you are not supposed to rely on it.

THE COURT: They obviously took that into consideration.

MS. GAFFNEY: And I tried to reach -- I reached the authorities in Florida to try to see if they had all the interview notes or other things that we can then subsequently rely on that might be considered clear and convincing evidence, if they had interviewed these women on their own, and they never did. No one was cooperative and they did not go forward on any of the cases and none of them were indicted. So I don't know.

THE COURT: And you spoke to the prosecutor?

MS. GAFFNEY: The actual prosecutor left the office. I spoke to the prosecutor that took over the case.

THE COURT: Maybe you can find the prosecutor that left the office.

You have done more in other cases looking into it. I have never seen the prosecutor's office do this. I have to tell you, I am shocked.

MS. GAFFNEY: Right, but I spoke to the prosecutor that took over the case and they don't have anything, any affidavits, any statements, any notes.

THE COURT: Why don't you speak to the prosecutor that did do the case, I am sure you could find that prosecutor.

MS. GAFFNEY: I can find her, but based upon what the other prosecutor said, they did not speak to that prosecutor either.

THE COURT: You did not speak to the prosecutor yourself, you did not speak to them, that is hearsay. You did not speak to the prosecutor that handled the case.

MS. GAFFNEY: That's right.

THE COURT: I don't think you did much of an investigation here.

MS. GAFFNEY: I mean I called the prosecutor.

EFTA00231532

Even though the first prosecutor left, presumably the prosecutor's office has the file.

THE COURT: I would still call the prosecutor.

MS. GAFFNEY: Anything from these women they would have forwarded it to us.

THE COURT: I don't know that, I think you have to speak to the prosecutor.

But be that as it may, I hear your argument.

Anything else?

MS. GAFFNEY: I mean that is why I don't think we can, I don't think we are entitled to rely on this because they did not go forward.

THE COURT: The board made a recommendation.

MS. GAFNEY: Correct.

MS. MUSUMECI: May I speak, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. MUSUMECI: Good afternoon.

I would like to bring a few additional points to Your Honor's attention that don't come across in the board recommendation.

The first is that Mr. Epstein is not a resident of New York, unlike most of these out of state, he has not changed his address and moved to New York, he maintains a vacation home in New York. His primary residence is the U.S. Virgin Islands.

EFTA00231533

He is registered in the U.S. Virgin Islands, he has been since his release from jail. He notifies the Virgin Island authorities every time he leaves that jurisdiction. Virgin Island authorities rated him at the lowest level of registration.

He also registered in Florida, which is the state of this particular offense, and the only reason that this conviction is even before Your Honor.

The offense for which he was convicted is not a registrable offense in New York. He is only registrable here arguably because based on the provision of SORA that says if a crime is registrable in the state of conviction, then it is registrable here in New York. And the Florida authorities that considered that rated him at the lowest level of their SORA statute.

He additionally has a vacation home in New Mexico and is registered in New Mexico. The New Mexican authorities when they considered his offenses, determined he need not register at all. Nevertheless, he has voluntarily registered with New Mexico and maintains that registration.

Additionally, because of his possession of a vacation home in New York, he has been voluntarily registered with New York SOMU, the Sex Offender Monitoring Unit since May of this year. He notifies them whenever he comes to travel to New York. He never comes to New York for more than seven days or at least he has not since he has been registered. He has no intention to ever be here for longer than a period of ten days.

Like I said, he does notify the authorities when he is here. He fully understands the reason for voluntary registration, he wants to be compliant with the Federal SORA law which requires wherever you own a property to register.

To require Mr. Epstein to register as a Level Three offender in New York would actually require him to come to New York more than he does normally, it would require him to come every 90 days and renew his registration.

He is very diligent in registering with New York authorities.

All of the other jurisdictions that have considered his case have determined that he either not register at all or register at the lowest level, and he has been more than compliant with all of those requirements.

Your Honor, we would join in the prosecutor's application.

THE COURT: I am sure you would.

MS. MUSUMECI: By way of background, we have been in contact with the prosecutor's office on this matter since I believe certainly since Mr. Epstein got his notification, which I believe was in August. We have met with the prosecutor and provided numerous materials for the prosecutor to consider. We have included in that a deposition from the detective who headed this investigation who acknowledged in a sworn deposition that the lead prosecutor who originally had the case, whose name I cannot pronounce, Lanna Belohlavek, I apologize for the mispronunciation, said to the detective after her investigation, there are no real victims here.

All of the alleged conduct that is cited in the board's write up was commercial conduct. All of the alleged conduct the women went voluntarily, there are no allegations of force certainly none.

THE COURT: There was no allegation of force in the marine either, who met a girl in a bar, a young girl 17, there was no force there.

MS. MUSUMECI: It is our understanding that the prosecutor in Florida conducted a full investigation, as full as she was able with the cooperation afforded by these complainants, and determined that the only case that she could present to the grand jury was this indictment for a non registrable offense then --

THE COURT: But it is registrable here.

I don't know what you mean non registrable offense.

MS. MUSUMECI: Let me explain, Your Honor.

EFTA00231536

Mr. Epstein plead to two charges, one was an indictment which is an offense that is not registrable, it is a Florida indictment for --

THE COURT: Then why does he have to register here?

MS. MUSUMECI: It was a second offense that he plead to --

THE COURT: That is registrable.

MS. MUSUMECI: That is registrable.

That offense was by information and that is the only registrable offense, that is what the DA's office is considering in doing their scoring.

The indictment which was the only case that the prosecutor even prosecuted through grand jury is not even a registrable offense.

THE COURT: He plead guilty to a registrable offense.

MS. MUSUMECI: Yes.

THE COURT: What did he plead guilty to?

MS. GAFFNEY: He plead guilty to the procuring a person under 18 for prostitution.

THE COURT: Procuring a person under 18 for prostitution.

MS. GAFFNEY: Right.

THE COURT: How old was she?

MS. GAFFNEY: It appears the first time they met she was either 16 or 17, then for the remainder of their relationship she was probably 17.

THE COURT: How long was their relationship?

MS. GAFFNEY: She met, she gave him approximately 15 massages, including with sexual contact, and ultimately when she is 17 had intercourse with him.

THE COURT: She is a child.

MS. MUSUMECI: Your Honor, I would note that under SORA it is clear that prostitution offenses are only registrable when in fact by clear and convincing evidence the women or victim is 17, is under 17.

THE COURT: Well, she met him at 16, he procured her at 16 from what I read.

MS. MUSUMECI: There is evidence we challenged.

THE COURT: He plead guilty to that, didn't he?

MS. MUSUMECI: He plead guilty to under 18, which is the law in Florida, which is a different standard than what the law is in New York. And there is no evidence, there is no clear and convincing evidence as to her specific age at the time of the specific conduct.

THE COURT: Well, the DA just told me she was most likely 17, she just said it on the record.

MS. MUSUMECI: Your Honor, we agree that the evidence is that she was 17 on the one occasion she had consensual intercourse with him and 17 is not registrable or criminal under New York law.

And the prostitution aspect of having intercourse with a 17 year old is not registrable conduct.

THE COURT: Why does he have to register here?

MS. GAFFNEY: Because it is a register able offense in Florida, New York State board of examiners --

THE COURT: Recognizes it.

MS. GAFFNEY: Recognizes it, yes.

THE COURT: I have had many cases like that where it was not registrable here but it was in the state where the person came from and New York recognized that.

MS. MUSUMECI: Your Honor, we are not saying that he should not register. Mr. Epstein has already registered and recognizes his duty to register.

THE COURT: I am glad of that, very glad of that.

I am sorry he may have to come here every 90 days.

He can give up his New York home if he does not want to come every 90 days.

Anything else?

I rely on the board.

MS. MUSUMECI: Your Honor, we would reserve our right to appeal Your Honor's ruling.

THE COURT: Of course, do so.

MS. GAFFNEY: For the record, Your Honor, he is

EFTA00231547

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Appellant Jeffrey E. Epstein seeks to vacate the final decision and order of the New York Supreme Court, Criminal Term, New York County, determining him to be a Level 3 sex offender, without designation, under New York's Sexual Offender Registration Act (SORA), Correction Law Article 6-C, based on a 2008 Florida conviction by plea of guilty to Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution, Fla. Stat. § 796.03, and Felony Solicitation of Prostitution, Fla. Stat. § 796.07(2)(f), for which Appellant was sentenced to consecutive terms of 12 months and 6 months incarceration, followed by 12 months of Community Control. (Pickholz, J. at SORA hearing). Appellant seeks to vacate the Order because the Court's risk level determination was not supported by clear and convincing evidence, was based on improper considerations, and was made without affording the parties an opportunity to present evidence concerning disputed relevant issues. More specifically, in making its determination, the Court summarily adopted the recommendation of the Board of Examiners of Sex Offenders (the "Board"), notwithstanding the position of the District Attorney's Office that the Board's recommendation was legally infirm and not supported by provable evidence. Additionally, the Court issued a facially defective Order that fails to set forth findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by law. Accordingly, the Order determining Appellant to be a Level 3 offender should be vacated, and Appellant's risk level should be recalculated based solely on those factors that may be properly considered under SORA and which are proven by clear and convincing evidence.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. May the Court determine Appellant's risk level under SORA based on factors that are not proven by clear and convincing evidence?

2. Is the Court entitled to adopt the Board's recommendation in full, without hearing any further evidence, where Appellant disputes numerous unprosecuted allegations contained therein and the District Attorney, as representative of the State, disclaims the Board's recommendation as unreliable, based on allegations that were determined to be not prosecutable, and not provable by clear and convincing evidence?

3. In calculating Appellant's risk level under SORA, may the Court score points for consensual prostitution-related conduct involving women who were seventeen years of age or over, particularly where SORA provides that such conduct is only registerable where the person patronized "is in fact less than seventeen years of age," Correction Law § 168-a(2)(a)(i)?

4. Where the Court's Order assigning Appellant a risk level of 3 under SORA does not include any findings of fact or conclusions of law to support a Level 3 determination, must that Order be vacated?

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Defendant-Appellant Jeffrey E. Epstein is a 58-year old financial advisor and philanthropist whose primary residence is in the U.S. Virgin Islands and who also maintains vacation properties in New York and Florida. See A.53 (Letter of M. Weinberg of Aug. 16, 2010).[1] Appellant does not live in New York, and since the commission of the Florida offense that forms the basis of this matter, he has not stayed at his New York property for periods of ten days or more at a time. See A.53 (Letter of M. Weinberg of Aug. 16, 2010); A.87:21-25, 88:21-89:3_(Tr.).[2]

I. The Underlying Offense

On June 30, 2008, Appellant pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court for Palm Beach County, Florida under an Information to the charge of Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution, Fla. Stat. § 796.03, an offense which required him to register under Florida's sexual offender registration statute, Fla. Stat. § 943.0435. See A.31 (Information for Procuring Person Under 18 for Prostitution, dated June 26, 2008); A.32 (Guilty Plea, dated June 30, 2008). This single registerable charge was brought in connection with a consensual, commercial arrangement in which Appellant received massages and engaged in sexual conduct with A.D., a young woman who was over the age of consent under New York law but just under 18 when the offense in the Information occurred back in 2005. See A.53 (Letter from M. Weinberg, dated Aug. 16, 2010, at 1, 3). Appellant concurrently pleaded guilty to an Indictment charging him with one count of Felony Solicitation for Prostitution, Fla. Stat. §§ 796.07(2)(f), (4)(c) -- a solicitation offense which does not include any elements of sexual contact with underage women and which is not registerable under either Florida or New York law. See A.26 (2006 Grand Jury Indictment of Felony Solicitation of Prostitution); A.32

EFTA00231551

(Guilty Plea, dated June 30, 2008); Fla. Stat. § 943.0435; Correction Law § 168-a(2)(a). Despite an extensive investigation by Florida prosecutors regarding various other complaints alleged against him and reported in police paperwork, Appellant was never charged with any other crimes or prosecuted on allegations made by any other complainants. See A.26 (2006 Grand Jury Indictment of Felony Solicitation of Prostitution); A.31 (Information for Procuring Person Under 18 for Prostitution, dated June 26, 2008); A.83:23-84:6, 85:19-86:1, 90:16-91:15, 95:14-18 (Tr.).

As a result of his two concurrent Florida convictions -- the first and only criminal convictions of his life -- Appellant was sentenced to consecutive terms of 12 months and 6 months incarceration in a Palm Beach County Detention Facility, followed by 12 months of Community Control supervision. See A.32 (Guilty Plea, dated June 30, 2008); A.34 (Sentence, dated Jun. 30, 2008). Appellant satisfactorily served 13 months of incarceration (during which time he was granted permission to participate in the Sheriff's work release program) and completed a subsequent period of 12 months Community Control (during which the Court trusted him, for business purposes, to travel outside of Florida with prior notice and approval by his supervising probation officer) without incident. See A.49 (Letter from Florida Department of Corrections, dated Jul. 21, 2010); A.50 (Letter from Palm Beach Sheriff's Office, dated Aug. 12, 2010); A.51 (Letter from J. Goldberger, dated Aug. 12, 2010); A.48 (Order Granting Motion for Travel, dated Dec. 18, 2009); A.53 (Letter from M. Weinberg, dated Aug. 16, 2010, at 4). Appellant has had no subsequent instances of misconduct of any kind. See A.53 (Letter from M. Weinberg, dated Aug. 16, 2010, at 1).

II. Sex Offender Registration

As required under Florida law in connection with his conviction for Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution, Fla. Stat. § 796.03, Appellant registered as a sex offender with Florida authorities and was designated at the lowest level under that state's sex offender registration act. See A.88:6-15 (Tr.); see also A.51 (Letter from J. Goldberger, dated Aug. 12, 2010); Fla. Stat. §§ 775.21, 943.0435. Appellant also registered in his home jurisdiction of the U.S. Virgin Islands (where Appellant maintains his primary residence and actually lives), where authorities reviewed Appellant's Florida offenses and determined that he is only subject to that jurisdiction's lowest reporting obligations. See A.88:1-5 (Tr.); see also 14 V.I.C. §§ 1722(b), 1724(d), (e).

Although he does not actually reside in New York, before the completion of his term of Community Control, Appellant notified the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services ("the Division") of his registerable Florida conviction and his ownership of a secondary residence in New York. See A.88:21-24 (Tr.). Since May 2010, Appellant has been registered with the Sexual Offender Monitoring Unit (SOMU) of the New York Police Department. See A.88:21-89:3 (Tr.).

III. The Board's Recommendation

On or about August 26, 2010, Appellant received notice that a SORA hearing had been scheduled to determine a risk assessment level, accompanied by a copy of the recommendation of the Board. See A.67 (Letter from Supreme Court, dated Aug. 26, 2010); A.65 (Recommendation of Board of Examiners of Sex Offenders ("Board Recommendation").). In stark contrast to the other jurisdictions to have considered Appellant's Florida convictions (including Florida), the Board recommended that Appellant be assigned the highest risk level --

EFTA00231554

Level 3, representing a high risk of repeat offense -- without further designation.[3] See A.67 (Letter from Supreme Court, dated Aug. 26, 2010); A.65 (Board Recommendation); see also Correction Law § 168-l(6)(c).

The Board's recommendation included a Risk Assessment Instrument (RAI) that improperly calculated a total risk factor score of 130. See A.65 (Board Recommendation). Almost all of the points scored by the Board were based on "Current Offense" factors,[4] including: 10 points for "Use of Violence" (forcible compulsion); 25 points for "Sexual Contact with Victim" (sexual intercourse and deviate sexual intercourse); 30 points for "Number of Victims" (3 or more); 20 points for "Duration of Offense Conduct with Victim" (continuing course of sexual misconduct); and 20 points for "Age of Victim" (11 through 16). See A.65 (Board Recommendation). The Board's RAI did not assign Appellant

[3] SORA requires the Board to recommend an offender's notification level of 1, 2, or 3, pursuant to Correction Law § 168-l(6), and to recommend whether any designations defined in Correction Law § 168-a(7) apply. See Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2).

[4] The Board also assessed Appellant 5 points for "Criminal History," even though the Board itself noted that it was assessing points "absent specific information." See A.65 (Board Recommendation). Appellant submits that this scoring is unsupported by the Record.

EFTA00231555

any points under the "Post-Offense Behavior" and "Release Environment" categories. See A.65 (Board Recommendation).

In its "Case Summary," the Board noted that Appellant was convicted of just two Florida sex offenses: (1) Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution, and (2) Felony Solicitation of Prostitution.[5] See A.65 (Board Recommendation). The Board then aggregated into just over a single page a host of uncharged allegations made by "numerous females," including "female participants [who] were age 18 or older," regarding "massages and unlawful sexual activity" that allegedly took place at Appellant's Florida residence. See A.65 (Board Recommendation). The case summary referred to "vaginal intercourse" and various other forms of sexual contact allegedly taking place without connecting specific females to such allegations, and more significantly, without identifying the age of the participants -- some of whom the Board noted were "age 18 or older" -- specifically at the time of such alleged conduct. See A.65 (Board Recommendation). Although Appellant was only convicted of two prostitution-related offenses and was neither charged with nor convicted of any rape, sexual abuse, or violent offenses,[6] the case summary highlighted hearsay-based claims in police paperwork -- namely a probable cause affidavit signed by a Palm Beach Police detective that did not result in any of the charges sought -- involving alleged sexual abuse of underage girls and an alleged forcible rape (which claims were found by the Florida prosecutors to be unreliable to support charges against Appellant), and assessed points against Appellant based on these unprosecuted allegations. See A.65 (Board Recommendation).

[5] Only one of these charges -- the procurement charge -- is registerable under SORA, and that charge is registerable under SORA only because it is registerable in Florida. See Correction Law § 168-a(2)(d)(ii). (Notably, the New York cognate of this offense, Promoting Prostitution in the Third Degree, N.Y. Penal Law § 230.25, is not itself a registerable offense under SORA. See Correction Law § 168-a(2).) The charge of Felony Solicitation of Prostitution, Fla. Stat. § 796.07(2)(f), (4)(c) -- which does not include any age-related elements and pertains solely to consensual, commercial conduct -- is not a registerable offense under either Florida or New York law. See Fla. Stat. § 943.0435; Correction Law § 168-a(2)(a).

The Board recognized Appellant's conduct on Community Control as satisfactory and noted that he has no history of substance abuse. See A.65 (Board Recommendation). The Board also credited Appellant with accepting responsibility for his actions. See A.65 (Board Recommendation).

[6] The only registerable charge for which Appellant was prosecuted and convicted pertained to consensual, commercial, non-violent interaction with one woman, A.D., who was 17 years old (and therefore over the age of consent in New York but not in Florida) at the time of the relevant conduct. See A.31 (Information for Procuring Person Under 18 for Prostitution, dated June 26, 2008); A.53 (Letter of M. IV. Pre-Hearing Investigation By the District Attorney

The SORA hearing, originally scheduled for September 15, 2010, was adjourned on consent of the parties until January 18, 2011 to provide the New York District Attorney ("the People"), which represented the State of New York at the SORA hearing, an opportunity to investigate Appellant's Florida convictions and assess the validity of the Board's recommendation. See A.81 (Handwritten Notations on Court Jacket); A.89:22-90:8 (Tr.). As part of their investigation, the People were in contact with members of the Palm Beach County State's Attorney's Office to understand the investigation and prosecution of the allegations at issue in this SORA matter. See A.83:14-84:19 (Tr.). Based on these interactions with Florida prosecutors, the People determined that they could not rely on the Board's recommendation and the underlying probable cause affidavit (which the Florida prosecutors determined not to be reliable, and which therefore certainly could not satisfy the heightened standard of clear and convincing evidence), and would score Appellant based only on the conduct for which he was actually prosecuted, and not on the unprosecuted allegations in the probable cause affidavit cited by the Board. See A.83:14-84:19 (Tr.).

Although the People presented Appellant a new SORA risk assessment instrument (RAI) immediately before the SORA hearing itself, scoring Appellant as a Level 1, the People apparently did not present their proposed alternative RAI or any other written submission setting forth their departure from the Board's recommendation to the Court, as no such statement is in the Court's file. See Appendix generally.

[redacted]. SORA Hearing

On January 18, 2011, a SORA hearing was conducted in New York Supreme Court, Criminal Term, New York County, Part 66 before Hon. Ruth Pickholz. See A.81 (Handwritten Notations on Court Jacket); A.82 (Tr. generally). At the hearing, the People made a record that based on their investigation and contact with the Florida authorities who handled Appellant's prosecution, the probable cause affidavit underlying the Board's recommendation could not be relied upon. See A.83:14-18 (Tr.). Specifically, the People informed the Court that many of the women referenced as complainants in the police affidavit were not cooperative with Florida prosecutors, and accordingly, the Florida authorities chose not to prosecute any allegations other than those reflected by the two offenses to which Appellant ultimately pleaded guilty. See A.84:2-6, 14-19 (Tr.). The People further noted that in light of Florida's decision not to prosecute the majority of the allegations in the affidavit, (and under the SORA statute and guidelines), only the conduct pertaining to the sole registerable crime for which Appellant was charged and to which he pleaded -- Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution, involving a single complainant -- could be proven and should be considered in evaluating Appellant's SORA score. See A.85:11-16, 85:24-86:1 (Tr.).

Counsel for Appellant corroborated the record made by the People that the Florida Assistant State Attorney who prosecuted Appellant determined, after a full investigation, that there were "no victims" and that the only crime that could be presented to the grand jury was the single solicitation offense to which Appellant pleaded guilty. See A.89:22-90:21, 95:12-18 (Tr.). Appellant disputed many of the allegations contained in the Board's case summary, both with respect to specific facts (such as the suggestion of any forcible compulsion and the exact age of complainant A.D. at the time of specific conduct) and more broadly by noting that the Board's recommendation was based on police documentation that was not credible and that contained hearsay allegations that the lead sex crimes prosecutor in Florida decided not to prosecute. See A.90:9-12, 92:13-21, 95:12-18 (Tr.). Further, Appellant advised the Court that there was sworn testimony from many of the women referenced in the police paperwork and the Board's case summary which expressly disclaimed allegations attributed to them. See A.95:19-23 (Tr.).

Notwithstanding the clear record that facts underlying the Board's recommendation were disputed, the Court announced that it was relying on the Board's case summary and adopting the Board's calculation and recommendation in full. See A.93:21, 94:6-95:9 (Tr.). The Court did not conduct any factual hearing as to specific claims for which points were assessed. See A.82 (Tr. generally). The Court scored Appellant for factors such as number of victims, use of violence / forcible compulsion, duration of offense, and sexual intercourse, based on allegations that the People -- as the party bearing the burden of proof -- asserted on the record could not be supported by clear and convincing evidence. See A.94:7-95:9 (Tr.). Despite the legal and factual position of the People that the Board's recommendation could not be relied on and that allegations concerning all complainants but the one in the Information could not be proven, the Court ruled that it was relying on the Board's recommendation in full and adjudicating Appellant a Level 3 sex offender with no additional designation. See A.93:21, 93:25-94:3 (Tr.).

On the record, the Court recited the scoring of the Board in abbreviated form, without identifying any particular facts or allegations to support each factor. See A.94:6-95:9 (Tr.). In its written Order, the Court indicated a final risk level determination of Level 3 by merely circling a pre-printed form. See A.4 (Order Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011). The Court failed to articulate any findings of fact or conclusions of law, as required under SORA. See A.4 (Order Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011); A.82 (Tr. generally).

Appellant was served with a copy of the Court's Order on or about January 19, 2011. See A.78 (Letter from Supreme Court, dated Jan. 19, 2011). Appellant served a Notice of Entry of the Court's Order on February 9, 2011, and on the same day filed a Notice of Appeal to invoke this Court's jurisdiction. See A.4 (Order of Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011, with Notice of Entry); A.3 (Appellant's Notice of Appeal, dated Feb. 9, 2011). Appellant now respectfully files this appeal as of right, pursuant to Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2) and CPLR 5513, 5515, to vacate the legally erroneous and factually unsupportable Order and re-calculate Appellant's SORA risk level based solely on those factors that may properly be considered under SORA and that have been proven by clear and convincing evidence.[7]

ARGUMENT

The Court's reliance on allegations that were flatly rejected by the Florida prosecutors who investigated them and which, by the People's own admission, could not be proven by clear and convincing evidence, constitutes clear legal error and a violation of Appellant's due process rights, warranting vacatur of the Court's Order. Specifically, the Court calculated a risk assessment score based on untrustworthy double and

---

[7] Appellant asks this Court to render its own findings of fact and conclusions of law -- assigning a risk Level 1 -- based on an appropriate consideration of the undisputed facts in the Record proven by clear and convincing evidence concerning Appellant's conviction. To the extent this Court is unable to issue findings of fact and conclusions of law based on the present Record, Appellant seeks remand to the lower court before a different Justice for a recalculation in which the parties are afforded an opportunity to present evidence regarding contested relevant issues, if necessary. See Section II(B), infra.

EFTA00231563

triple hearsay allegations cited in the Board's recommendation that were squarely rejected as a basis for state prosecution in Florida, were disputed by Appellant, and did not constitute registerable conduct under New York law, all in violation of SORA and its guidelines and Appellant's constitutionally guaranteed right to due process. Moreover, the Court abused its discretion and failed to abide by the guidelines and mandates set forth in SORA, including by improperly considering factors outside the record and issuing a legally deficient Order that fails to set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which the Court's determination was based.

I. THE COURT'S LEVEL 3 DETERMINATION IS NOT SUPPORTED BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE AS REQUIRED BY SORA AND AS A MATTER OF FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

The SORA statute sets forth a formal procedure to determine the required level of notification for those individuals convicted of a qualifying out-of-state offense,[8] based on a systematic assessment of the risk of reoffense posed by the particular individual. See Correction Law § 168-k. After the Board generates an initial recommendation based on [8] Appellant's Florida conviction for Procuring a Person Under 18 for Prostitution is a qualifying "sex offense" under SORA solely pursuant to Correction Law § 168-a(2)(d)(ii), which makes an out-of-state offense registerable under SORA if that particular offense is registerable in the jurisdiction where it was committed.

its review of the out-of-state offense and other factors, the Court has the duty of conducting a hearing to consider the Board's recommendation and other evidence presented in order to reach its own independent determination of an offender's SORA registration level. See Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2); People v. Johnson, 11 N.Y.3d 416, 421 (2008) (holding that "the Board's duty is to make a recommendation to the sentencing court... and the court, applying a clear and convincing evidence standard, is to make its determination after considering that recommendation, and any other materials properly before it") (internal statutory citation omitted); see also New York State Bd. of Sex Exam'rs v. Ransom, 249 A.D.2d 891, 891-92 (4th Dep't 1998) (holding the "Board ... serves only in an advisory capacity ... similar to the role served by a probation department in submitting a sentencing recommendation."); see also People v. Jimenez, 178 Misc. 2d 319, 322-23, 679 N.Y.S.2d 510, 513 (Sup. Ct. Kings Cty. 1998) (observing "the Legislature did not intend to place upon the criminal courts of this State a burden to act merely as a regulatory body to confirm the determination of the Board," and noting that a SORA hearing is a "judicial proceeding in which the court must make a de novo determination."). Yet the Court's authority to determine a SORA risk level is not unfettered; instead, SORA requires the Court to determine an offender's risk level based on an evaluation of evidence in accordance with the guidelines promulgated by the Board. See Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2) ("It shall be the duty of the court applying the guidelines established [by the Board under SORA] to determine the level of notification...."). Moreover, the Court's determination must be wholly based on facts that are provable by clear and convincing evidence. See Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2).

Under New York law, "clear and convincing evidence" is defined as evidence that makes it "'highly probable' that the alleged activity actually occurred." People v. Dominie, 42 A.D.3d 589, 590 (3d Dep't 2007); see also Prince, Richardson on Evidence § 3-205, at 104 (Farrell 11th ed.). Clear and convincing evidence is "a higher, more demanding standard" than the preponderance standard, Rossi v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., 103 A.D.2d 771, 771 (2d Dep't 1984), in that it is evidence "that is neither equivocal nor open to opposing presumptions." Solomon v. State of New York, 146 A.D.2d 439, 440 (1st Dep't 1989). Under SORA, the "burden of proving the facts supporting the determinations sought by clear and convincing evidence" is assigned to the District Attorney, which represents the State in the proceeding. Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2).

In the instant case, the Court did not conduct its own inquiry of relevant facts to determine Appellant's risk level in accordance with the SORA guidelines. Instead, as described further below, the Court improperly adopted a Board recommendation that had been rejected by both the People and Appellant as unreliable. Without any meaningful consideration of other evidence, the Court made its risk assessment determination based on allegations that did not -- and indeed could not, as a matter of law -- constitute clear and convincing evidence. Such a determination was made in contravention of SORA and its guidelines and violated Appellant's federal due process rights under the U.S. Constitution. For these reasons, the Court's determination should be vacated.

A. The People's Investigation Revealed That The Board's Recommendation Could Not Be Proven By Clear and Convincing Evidence.

The People began the SORA hearing by advising the Court that their own investigation and communications with the Florida State

EFTA00231567

Attorney's Office that handled Appellant's case revealed that the majority of allegations in the Board's recommendation (and in the police affidavit on which the recommendation was based[9]) were not prosecuted by Florida authorities and could not be proven by other evidence. See A.83:14-84:19 (Tr.). In relevant part, the People made the following record:

> I tried to reach -- I reached the authorities in Florida to try to see if they had all the interview notes or other things that we can then subsequently rely on that might be considered clear and convincing evidence, if they had interviewed these women on their own, and they never did. No one was cooperative and they did not go forward on any of the cases and none of them were indicted. So I don't know.

A.85:19-86:1 (Tr.). As explained by the People, Appellant's Florida case was not one where a host of allegations were encompassed within a plea deal, but rather, the only charges that were determined to be [9] It bears noting that the police affidavit upon which the Board based its case summary and recommendation appears not even to have been drafted to sustain charges against Appellant, but instead, recited numerous allegations based on double and triple hearsay directed toward filing charges against a defendant named [redacted]. See A.6 (Palm Beach Police Department - Probable Cause Affidavit of [redacted], dated May 1, 2006). Furthermore, the Florida State Attorney expressly rejected the claims asserted in the police affidavit (which sought to charge [redacted] as an accomplice to Appellant) by determining that there was not sufficient probable cause and not charging Appellant with the serious second-degree felony offenses which the affidavit sought to support, to wit, Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, Fla. Stat. § 794.05(1), and Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, Fla. Stat. § 800.04(5).

---

prosecutable were the charges for which Appellant was ultimately convicted:

> So it is unlike a situation where everything was indicted and then we get to sort of assess points for all of the victims, if it was part of a plea bargain. They did not actually choose to go forward on any except for the one victim.

A.84:2-6 (Tr.). Given this history, the People advised the Court that it should depart from the Board's recommendation, both as a matter of fact and as a matter of law, in accordance with the SORA guidelines. See A.83:14-84:19, 85:11-16, 87:10-12 (Tr.).

The SORA guidelines are intended to provide clear guidance to the Court and the parties with respect to how various potential risk factors should be evaluated, including allegations that have not been prosecuted. While, in general, conduct not directly encompassed by the crime of conviction may be considered in scoring for given factors on the RAI, the SORA guidelines deem, "Points should not be assessed for a factor… unless there is clear and convincing evidence of the existence of that factor." Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006), at 5, ¶ 7 (emphasis added). Indeed, in deciding how to evaluate allegations outside of the crime of conviction, the SORA guidelines expressly caution, "the fact that an offender was arrested or indicted for an offense is not, by itself, evidence that the offense occurred." Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006), at 5, ¶ 7. More to the point here, the guidelines emphasize, "[T]he fact that an offender was not indicted for an offense may be strong evidence that the offense did not occur," amplified with a relevant example:

> For example, where a defendant is indicted for rape in the first degree on the theory that his victim was less than 11 [years old], but not on the theory that he used forcible compulsion, the Board or court should be reluctant to conclude that the offender's conduct involved forcible compulsion.

Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006), at 5, ¶ 7 (emphasis in original, internal statutory citations omitted).[10]

In other words, SORA and its guidelines clearly prescribe that where allegations were reported to and investigated by law enforcement but not prosecuted (and not encompassed within a broader plea

---

[10] Of note, at one point during the SORA proceeding, the Court seemingly dismissed out of hand the SORA guidelines concerning uncharged allegations. See A.84:7-13 (Tr.) (Court expressing skepticism toward the Board's guidelines that "if somebody is not indicted it is strong evidence that it did not occur.").

bargain), they should not be scored on the RAI or factored into a risk determination in the absence of other evidence to corroborate their validity. See Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006), at 5, ¶ 7*; see also People v. Smith*, 66 A.D.3d 981, 983 (2d Dep't 2009) (holding that defendant's alleged use of knife was not proven by clear and convincing evidence and could not be scored against defendant in SORA hearing where testimony about use of knife was presented to grand jury but grand jury did not indict on weapons charge); People v. Coffey, 45 A.D.3d 658 (2d Dep't 2007) (holding that it was improper for court to consider allegations concerning a charge that was dismissed in evaluating defendant's SORA risk level); People v. Arotin, 19 A.D.3d 845 (3d Dep't 2005) (holding that defendant could not be scored under SORA for deviate sexual intercourse where defendant was not indicted for such an offense and the only evidence of such conduct came from triple hearsay in a police report used by the Board).

Significantly, here, the People did not merely apply the SORA guideline suggesting that uncharged allegations may not be reliable evidence of an offense. Instead, the People had actual information from the Florida State Attorney's Office that the complainants referenced by the Board in connection with uncharged claims were not cooperative with authorities, prompting the Florida State Attorney's Office to decide not to pursue charges in connection with those unsupported allegations. See A.84:14-19, 85:19-86:1, 86:10-12 (Tr.). Moreover, the People acknowledged that they had no corroborating materials -- such as interview notes, sworn statements, or affidavits -- which would permit them to meet their burden of proving disputed allegations by clear and convincing evidence. See A.84:14-19, 85:19-86:1, 86:10-12 (Tr.). As a result, the People advanced the position that the law compelled they take -- advising the Court that the Board's recommendation was wrong and that a Level 3 determination was not supported by the provable evidence.

B. The Court Improperly Relied on the Board's Recommendation Where the Facts Cited Therein Were Disputed and No Further Evidence Was Presented.

Notwithstanding the reasoned, evidence-based disavowal by the People of the Board's recommendation (based on the People's communications with the Florida prosecutor), the SORA Court relied wholesale upon the Board's recommendation. See A.93:21, 94:6-95:9

(Tr.). The Court improperly overlooked the burden of proof statutorily imposed on the People and its own duty to evaluate the evidence, and adopted the Board's recommendation, seemingly as a per se matter. See A.85:11-18 (Tr.) (the Court opining, without factual basis, that the Board "obviously took [their own guidelines] into consideration" when assessing points for uncharged conduct). Indeed, although the Court cited no specific information to suggest that the Board itself communicated with Florida prosecutors in preparing the case summary, the Court attempted to justify its blind reliance on the Board's recommendation by stating, "I feel the board looked into all of this, made their recommendation, found him to have 130 points and I see no reason to disturb that." A.96:11-13 (Tr.).

While the Court of Appeals has recognized that a Board-generated case summary may constitute "reliable hearsay" upon which the Court may base a SORA risk calculation, the law is equally clear that a Board's case summary is not per se reliable, particularly in the face of countervailing evidence. See People v. Mingo, 12 N.Y.3d 563, 572-73, (2009) ("Of course, information found in a case summary ... need not always be credited -- it may be rejected when it is unduly speculative or its accuracy is undermined by other more compelling evidence"); see also People v. Mabee, 69 A.D.3d 820 (2d Dep't 2010) (finding Board's case summary did not constitute clear and convincing evidence to support scoring under SORA where it provided only very limited information pertaining to the particular factor). Indeed, information contained in a Board's case summary does not by itself clear the hurdle of "clear and convincing evidence" -- a higher standard than mere "reliable evidence" -- where the offender disputes the relevant contents of that evidence. See People v. Judson, 50 A.D.3d 1242 (3d Dep't 2008) (holding that case summary alone could not satisfy state's burden of proving factors by clear and convincing evidence to support level 3 determination where defendant contested certain factual allegations related to those factors); cf. People v. Wasley, 73 A.D.3d 1400, 1401 (3d Dep't 2010) (holding "evidence included in the case summary may provide clear and convincing evidence in determining a defendant's risk assessment level where defendant did not dispute its contents insofar as relevant.") (emphasis added); People v. Curthoys, 77 A.D.3d 1215, 1216 (3d Dep't 2010) (noting that the "uncontested contents of a case summary can satisfy the People's burden of demonstrating . . . clear and convincing evidence") (emphasis added). Thus, it certainly follows that a Board's case summary cannot, as a matter of law, constitute the sole requisite "clear and convincing evidence" required to support a SORA determination where the People, as the party representing the Board, also expressly disclaim the reliability of that case summary.

Here, the Board's case summary was based almost entirely on double and triple hearsay allegations described in an affidavit submitted by police to the Florida prosecutor. See A.65 (Board Recommendation); A.6 (Palm Beach Police Department - Probable Cause Affidavit of [redacted], dated May 1, 2006). The allegations, even when aggregated, were not deemed by the Florida prosecutor who reviewed them to constitute sufficient "probable cause" to warrant the return of a complaint, information, or indictment as to any of the charges that the affidavit sought.[11] And, of course, because the requested charges were never brought, no court ever reviewed or authorized the affidavit's allegations to make a judicial finding of "probable cause" as to any such allegations. Even had the Florida [11] Although the affidavit considered by the Board was submitted with respect to a defendant other than Appellant, it appears that the allegations in the affidavit were intended to establish probable cause to charge Appellant with Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, Fla. Stat. § 794.05(1), and Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, Fla. Stat. § 800.04(5) -- charges that were never brought.

prosecutor decided to arrest and charge Appellant based on allegations contained in the affidavit, the mere fact of an arrest or charge is not sufficiently trustworthy by itself to support the assessment of points against Appellant under SORA. See Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006), at 5, ¶ 7 ("the fact that an offender was arrested or indicted for an offense is not, by itself, evidence that the offense occurred"). Such allegations cannot be deemed reliable -- never mind satisfying the elevated standard of clear and convincing evidence -- where, as here, the People had specific information from the Florida prosecutor that Florida made the decision not to pursue such charges based precisely on the insufficiency of the evidence. See A.83:23-84:19, 85:19-86:1 (Tr.).

In short, the People directly disputed the reliability of the Board's case summary and recommendation, based on information that was not before the Board following communications with the Florida prosecutor. See A.83:14-84:19, 85:11-87:12 (Tr.); see also A.65 (Board Recommendation) (noting that Board's assessment was based on review of "inmate's file" and not citing specific contact with Florida authorities). Appellant also disputed the validity of many of the allegations contained therein, both generally and with regard to specific allegations. See A. 90:9-12, 92:13-21, 95:12-18 (Tr.). Notwithstanding the obvious existence of disputed relevant issues, the Court did not provide the parties with any opportunity to present evidence on contested issues, nor did the Court conduct any factual inquiry on its own.

Even though there was no sufficient evidentiary basis to support the Board's recommendation, the Court announced that it was relying on the Board's case summary and adopting the Board's calculation and SORA determination in full. See A.93:21, 96:11-13 (Tr.). Indeed, at one point in adopting the Board's scoring, the Court openly acknowledged that it was assessing points against Appellant in the face of the People's position that the evidence of that factor was "not reliable":

> Number of victims, three or more. He only plead [sic] guilty to one, but apparently there were more than one and I think the People concede that although they say it was not reliable.

A.94:10-13 (Tr.). This reliance on alleged conduct that the People, as the party bearing the burden of proof, expressly stated they could not prove by clear and convincing evidence, was plainly erroneous as a matter of law. See Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2) (stating that the facts supporting the court's determination shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence). Accordingly, the Court's Level 3 determination, based specifically on unproven alleged conduct, cannot stand, and the Court's Order should be vacated.[12]

---

[12] Even if the Court had a lawful evidentiary basis to adopt the Board's case summary in full (which it did not), the case summary does not establish by clear and convincing evidence all of the factors for which points were assessed against Appellant. For example, the facts alleged in the case summary, even if taken as true, do not set forth, by clear and convincing evidence, a continuing course of sexual misconduct, which requires a specific finding of either "(i) two or more acts of sexual contact, at least one of which is an act of sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct, anal sexual conduct, or aggravated sexual contact, which acts are separated in time by at least 24 hours, or (ii) three or more acts of sexual contact over a period of at least two weeks" with an underage victim. See Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006), at 10 ("Factor 4: Duration of Offense Conduct with Victim"); see also People v. Redcross, 54 A.D.3d 1116 (3d Dep't 2008) (holding that continuing course of sexual misconduct was not supported by clear and convincing evidence where record was silent as to dates that incidents of sexual conduct occurred in relation to each other); People v. Donk, 39 A.D.3d 1268, 1269 (4th Dep't 2007) (modifying SORA risk assessment where there was not clear and convincing evidence to establish continuing course of sexual misconduct under specific definition set forth by SORA); People v. Boncic, 15 Misc. 3d 1139(A), 841 N.Y.S.2d 281 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Cty. 2007) (holding that there must be a finding of "actual sexual contact" with the underage victim to score for the continuing course of conduct factor under SORA). Here, the case summary only speaks of certain allegations generally and provides no detail regarding the timing of specific alleged acts of sexual contact, the number of times Appellant allegedly engaged in specific acts with individual complainants, or the age of the complainants at the time of the relevant acts. Similarly, the case summary does not establish by clear and convincing evidence several other factors for which points were assessed against Appellant, including the "use of violence" (e.g. case summary provides only conclusory allegations of "forcible rape" without establishing the element of "forcible compulsion"); "sexual contact with victim" (e.g. case summary does not specify the age of each complainant at the time of alleged relevant sexual contact to determine whether each complainant was underage and therefore a "victim"); "number of victims" (same); and "age of victim" (same).

C. Determining Appellant To Be a Level 3 Offender Based on Factors That Were Not Proven by Clear and Convincing Evidence Violated Appellant's Federal Due Process Rights.

In addition, the Court's assessment of points against Appellant based on allegations that were not and could not be proven by clear and convincing evidence constituted a clear violation of Appellant's federal due process rights.

It is settled as a matter of federal constitutional law that those persons convicted of a sex offense and required to register under a state registration and notification scheme like SORA have a protected liberty interest that entitles them to procedural due process. See Doe v. Pataki, 3 F. Supp. 2d 456, 468 (S.D.N.Y. 1998); see also People v. David W., 95 N.Y.2d 130, 138 (2000) (holding that the imposition of a Level 3 SORA determination implicates liberty interests and triggers due process safeguards). Courts evaluating that liberty interest under the procedural due process analysis articulated by the U.S. Supreme Court in Matthews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976) (balancing the private interest affected by state action, the risk of erroneous deprivation of that interest, and the interests of the state) have determined that "the nature of the [sex offender] classification proceeding is serious enough" and "carries with it a high risk of error," such that the state must afford an individual facing such a risk classification a constitutionally-mandated minimum level of due process. Doe, 3 F. Supp. 2d at 469, 471 (citing Doe v. Poritz, 142 N.J. 1, 662 A.2d 367 (1995)). While "the due process protections required for a risk level classification proceeding are not as extensive as those required in a plenary criminal or civil trial," Id. at 470, federal due process is only satisfied when a person being assessed under SORA is afforded a "pre-notification hearing accompanied by a comprehensive set of procedural safeguards," including each of the following:

> (1) a judicial determination of his risk level classification [by hearing];
>
> (2) notice of the classification proceeding, sufficiently in advance of the hearing to... prepare a challenge;
>
> (3) notice of the proceeding must contain a statement of [its] purpose and the Board's recommended risk level classification;
>
> (4) an opportunity to retain counsel;
>
> (5) pre-hearing discovery;
>
> (6) the state must prove the facts supporting each risk factor by clear and convincing evidence; and
>
> (7) the right to appeal.

EFTA00231580

See id. at 471-72 (articulating the above seven procedures as essential to satisfy procedural due process when assigning risk levels under SORA) (emphasis added); see also People v. Brooks, 308 A.D.2d 99, 103 (2d Dep't 2003) (same).

This sixth constitutional factor -- the requirement that the State bear the burden of proof and prove the facts supporting each risk factor upon which a risk assessment is based by the elevated standard of clear and convincing evidence -- is of particular significance, in that it is a recognition of the severe injurious impact upon liberty, reputation, and opportunity that an unjustified notification level can have on an offender:

> Because "the possible injury to the individual [registrant] is significantly greater than any possible harm to the state," the registrant, consistent with due process, cannot "be asked to share equally with society the risk of error" . . . . It necessarily follows that the Due Process Clause requires that the state prove its case by clear and convincing evidence in a Megan's Law proceeding.

E.B. v. Verniero, 119 F.3d 1077, 1111 (3d Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 522 U.S. 1109 (1998) (citing Addington v. Texas, 441 U.S. 418, 427 (1979)); see also Brooks, 303 A.D.2d at 105 (observing "a SORA determination undeniably has a profound impact on a defendant's liberty interest due to the registration and community notification provisions"). In other words, because a SORA hearing "threaten[s] the individual involved with a significant deprivation of liberty or stigma," due process demands "more than average certainty on the part of the factfinder." E.B., 119 F.3d at 1110-11 (citing Santosky v. Kramer, 455 U.S. 745, 756-58 (1982)). Accordingly, "registrants are entitled to have the burden of persuasion placed on the state, with the state obligated to prove the proposed level and manner of notification by clear and convincing evidence." Doe, 3 F. Supp. 2d at 471; see also David W., 95 N.Y.2d at 140 (holding "Due process requires that the State bear the burden of proving, at some meaningful time, that a defendant deserves the classification assigned.").

Here, the Court's Level 3 determination, made without regard to the People's presentation and advocacy at the hearing and unsupported by clear and convincing evidence, failed to satisfy these basic constitutional requirements regarding both the allocation of the burden of persuasion (upon the People) and the standard of proof (by clear and convincing evidence) for a SORA hearing. The Court's complete reliance on the unsupported, unprosecuted, and disputed hearsay allegations in the Board's case summary to buttress a Level 3 determination violated Appellant's due process rights, as set forth by Doe v. Pataki, and accordingly, the Court's Order should be reversed.

II. THE COURT BASED ITS LEVEL 3 DETERMINATION UPON IMPROPER CONSIDERATIONS.

In addition to basing Appellant's risk level determination on uncharged allegations that, both in fact and as a matter of law could not be proven by clear and convincing evidence, the Court improperly assessed Appellant as a Level 3 offender based on additional factors and considerations that should not have weighed into its RAI calculation. Namely, the Court improperly penalized Appellant for conduct that was not scoreable under SORA, even with respect to the complainant from his single registerable crime of conviction. In addition, the record lays bare that the Court allowed personal bias and irrelevant factors outside the record in Appellant's case to influence the Court's SORA determination.

A. The Court Improperly Assessed Points Against Appellant for Conduct That Is Not Scoreable Under SORA.

First, the SORA Court improperly scored Appellant for alleged conduct that is not registerable, and in some cases is not even criminal, under New York law with respect to the sole complainant at issue in Appellant's single registerable Florida conviction. For example, the Court adopted the Board's assessment of points for "sexual intercourse," even though the People themselves conceded that the complainant at issue was 17 (and therefore over New York's age of consent) when she allegedly engaged in consensual intercourse with Appellant. See A.92:1-7 (Tr.). This scoring for sexual intercourse was in clear contravention to the SORA statute, which states that prostitution offenses are only registerable under SORA where there is clear and convincing evidence that the prostitute was "in fact" under 17 at the time of the alleged sexual conduct. Correction Law § 168-a(2)(a)(i).[13]

EFTA00231583

Additionally, the Court appears to have scored Appellant 20 points for this same complainant under the "age of victim" factor, even though the People made a record that the complainant was "either 16 or 17" when she met Appellant for the first time. A.92:1-3 (Tr.). The fact that, even in the People's view, the specific age of the complainant when [13] Of course, the exact allegations for which the Court assessed points against Appellant are nearly impossible to identify given the Court's failure to articulate findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting its scoring of particular factors. See A.4 (Order Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011); A.82 (Tr. generally); see also Section III, infra. Nor did the Board's recommendation tie its scoring to particular facts in its case summary, which lumped a host of facts together in the aggregate. See A.65 (Board Recommendation).

EFTA00231584

she first met Appellant -- no less when she may have engaged in sexual conduct with him -- could not be ascertained precludes a finding that this element was proven by clear and convincing evidence. See Solomon v. State of New York, 146 A.D.2d 439, 440 (1st Dep't 1989) (defining clear and convincing evidence as evidence "that is neither equivocal nor open to opposing presumptions"). Yet the Court disregarded the burden of proof and made clear that it was scoring Appellant for this factor.[14] See A.92:13-93:12 (Tr.). These improper assessments of points on the RAI should render the Court's Level 3 determination invalid.

B. The Court Improperly Allowed Personal Feelings and Matters Outside the Record to Influence Its SORA Determination.

Next, the Court abused its discretion by allowing an apparent personal distaste for Appellant, the nature of the crime for which he pleaded guilty and was convicted, and the quantity and nature of unproven, unprosecuted allegations cited in the Board's recommendation to impinge upon the Court's duty to follow the law. The Court demonstrated a remarkable disdain and lack of judicial [14] Again, the specific basis upon which the Court scored Appellant for certain factors cannot be ascertained from the legally deficient Order, see A.4 (Order Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011), although the Court's comments at the hearing revealed the Court's belief that points should be assessed against Appellant for "procuring" this complainant when "she was either 16 or 17." See A.92:1-23 (Tr.).

---

EFTA00231585

objectivity in its response to hearing the District Attorney disavow the reliability of the Board's recommendation, in receiving the arguments of counsel for Appellant, and in rendering its Order as a whole.

First, although the SORA statute clearly contemplates that the District Attorney may depart from the Board's recommendation based upon its own evaluation of the evidence,[15] see Correction Law §§ 168-

[15] For example, SORA expressly provides, "If the district attorney seeks a determination that differs from the recommendation submitted by the board, at least ten days prior to the determination proceeding the district attorney shall provide to the court and the sex offender a statement setting forth the determinations sought by the district attorney together with the reasons for seeking such determinations." Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2). While the more common application of this provision involves the People seeking a higher risk level than the Board, the provision clearly encompasses any deviation from the Board's recommendation, including the People's discretion to recommend a lower risk level. See, e.g., People v. Ferguson, 53 A.D.3d 571, 572 (2d Dep't 2008) (holding that 10-day notice requirement applies not only to changes in RAI scoring, but to changes in factual predicates for RAI scoring).

Incidentally, it bears noting that the People failed to comply with these procedural mandates, constituting a further procedural flaw in these proceedings. See Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2). While the People provided Appellant with a written alternative RAI immediately prior to the SORA hearing -- and not ten days prior to the hearing, as required by SORA -- it appears that the People failed to submit their RAI to the Court at all. See Appendix generally. Before rejecting out of hand the People's stance that a Level 3 determination could not be supported by sufficient evidence, the Court should have adjourned the matter to receive and review a written statement of the People's recommended determination and supporting reasons. See People v. Ferguson, 53 A.D.3d at 572 (reversing SORA order where defendant and court did not receive proper 10-day notice of People's revised RAI); cf. People v. Jordan, 31 A.D.3d 1196, 1196 (4th Dep't 2006) (holding People's failure to provide sufficient notice of revised RAI was cured where Court adjourned matter to allow meaningful opportunity to consider revised RAI). The Court's failure to enforce the procedural mandates of the SORA statute was prejudicial to Appellant, in that the Court did not have sufficient opportunity to k(2), 168-n(2), here, the Court rejected the investigation and advocacy of the People. Indeed, the Court went so far as to express "shock" that the People would support a lower risk level determination than that recommended by the Board, almost as a matter of principle. See A.86:9 (Tr.). The Court disregarded the detailed evidentiary investigation and careful parsing of allegations that the People undertook in evaluating the Board's recommendation. Ignoring the record at issue concerning Appellant and the evidence pertaining to him, the Court focused instead on the irrelevant facts of some unidentified case completely unrelated to Appellant's:

> I have to tell you, I am a little overwhelmed because I have never seen the prosecutor's office do anything like this. I have never seen it. I had a case with one instance it was a marine who went to a bar, and I wish I had the case before me, but he went to a bar and a 17 year old, he was an adult obviously, he was a Marine, a 17 year old came up to him and one thing lead [sic] to another and he had sex with her and the People would not agree to a downward modification on that.

---

understand the compelling reasons for the alternative RAI calculation that the People promoted. See id.

EFTA00231587

> So I am a little overwhelmed here because I see -- I mean I read everything here, I am just a little overwhelmed that the People are making this application.
> I could cite many many, I have done many SORAs much less troubling than this one where the People would never make a downward departure like this.[16]

A.84:21-85:10 (Tr.). Later, when Appellant's counsel disputed that there were any credible -- much less prosecuted -- allegations that Appellant ever used force, the Court again began comparing Appellant's case to the same irrelevant case about "a marine" -- a matter completely unknown to Appellant and having no connection whatsoever to Appellant's case -- seemingly to suggest that Appellant should nevertheless be scored as Level 3 under SORA:

> There was no allegation of force in the marine either, who met a girl in a bar, a young girl 17, there was no force there.

---

[16] Notably, the People were not asking the Court to make a downward departure from the RAI calculation, but were advising the Court that the evidence required a recalculation of Appellant's risk level based on the RAI factors. See Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006) at 4-5, ¶¶ 5, 6.

EFTA00231588

A.90:13-15 (Tr.).[17] The Court's subjective comparison of Appellant's case to some unidentified, unrelated case was improper and highly irregular, and it clearly interfered with the Court's duty to make an assessment based on the law.

Similarly, in response to an argument by counsel regarding the implications that a Level 3 assignment would have on Appellant, who does not actually reside in New York, the Court abandoned any semblance of judicial objectivity by dismissively suggesting that he should "give up his New York home if he does not want to come every 90 days." A.93:18-19 (Tr.). Rather than giving reasoned consideration to whether Appellant's residence outside of New York might be a relevant factor in its overall risk assessment (such as for a downward departure from an RAI calculation), the Court improperly allowed its judgment to be clouded by apparent personal disdain for Appellant.

Furthermore, the Court's apparent distaste for Appellant has eliminated any likelihood that Appellant will receive a fair redetermination hearing should this matter be remanded back to the [17] Significantly, the Court in fact scored 10 points against Appellant for forcible compulsion, despite the parties' agreement that there was no legitimate evidentiary basis to score Appellant for the use of force or violence. See A.94:7-8 (Tr.).

EFTA00231589

same Justice. Indeed, this Court has recognized that reassignment of a matter to a different Justice following appeal is warranted and appropriate where the apparent impartiality of the lower court has been legitimately questioned, as it most certainly has here. See, e.g., People v. Rampino, 55 A.D.3d 348, 349 (1st Dep't 2008) (remanding resentencing matter to a different Justice where the "appearance of fairness and impartiality [was] compromised by the actions of the Justice to whom defendant's application was assigned"); Fresh Del Monte Produce N.V. v. Eastbrook Caribe, 40 A.D.3d 415, 421 (1st Dep't 2007) (remanding matter to a different Justice where "a reasonable concern about the appearance of impartiality" had been raised on appeal). Accordingly, should this Court deem remand the only appropriate mechanism for recalculating Appellant's risk assessment level, Appellant respectfully asks that the SORA proceeding be reassigned to a different Justice.

In sum, a court only has discretion to go beyond the factors outlined in the SORA guidelines in evaluating a person's risk level where justified by clear and convincing evidence. See People v. Sherard, 73 A.D.3d 537, 537 (1st Dep't 2010) (citing People v. Miller, 854 N.Y.2d 138 (2008), lv. denied 10 N.Y.3d 711, 860 N.Y.S.2d 483 (2008)) (holding that where a court exercises discretion to depart from the evidence-based scoring of an RAI, the court must base such departure on "clear and convincing evidence of aggravating factors to a degree not taken into account" in the RAI); see also Sex Offender Registration Act: Risk Assessment Guidelines and Commentary, Commentary (2006) at 4-5, ¶¶ 5, 6. Here, the Court's SORA determination, made in the express absence of clear and convincing evidence, [18] constituted an abuse of discretion, warranting reversal of the Court's Level 3 determination and Order. Moreover, given the Court's demonstrated lack of judicial objectivity toward Appellant, should remand be required, Appellant respectfully requests that this matter be reassigned to a different Justice in the Supreme Court.

---

[18] The Court did not -- and could not -- cite any factors within or outside of the Board's consideration, proven by clear and convincing evidence, that would justify a Level 3 determination under RAI scoring or constitute lawful grounds for an upward departure. See A.82 (Tr. generally). Instead, the Court fully adopted the Board's calculation, scoring Appellant a presumptive rating of Level 3, without meaningful inquiry into any of the underlying allegations or any consideration of other evidence which could bear upon Appellant's risk level. See A.93:21, 94:6-95:9, 96:11-13 (Tr.).

EFTA00231591

III. THE COURT'S ORDER DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THE MANDATES OF SORA AND CONSTITUTIONAL DUE PROCESS AND MUST BE VACATED.

Finally, the Court's Order determining Appellant to be a Level 3 sex offender is itself facially defective in numerous regards and should be vacated as legally invalid. In addition, the Court's failure to set forth any factual basis for its Level 3 determination renders the Order constitutionally infirm, warranting reversal on federal due process grounds as well.

SORA provides that it is the "duty of the court" to determine, pursuant to the SORA guidelines, both the "level of notification" required of an offender and whether any designations defined in section 168-a(7) apply. Correction Law §§ 168-k(2), 168-n(2). In addition, SORA mandates that the court "render an order" which sets forth "its determinations and the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which the determinations are based." Correction Law §§ 168-k, 168-n.

Here, the Court's compliance with these requirements fell woefully short. The only order issued by the Court in this matter was a standard boilerplate form where the Court circled a pre-printed number and provided a signature and date. See A.4 (Order Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011). Indeed, upon close examination of the only "order" in this matter, it appears that the form Order is actually intended to be a cover sheet to accompany a more formal order, with written findings of fact and conclusions of law, upon submission to the Division. See A.4 (Order Appealed From, dated Jan. 18, 2011) (stating, "A copy of the order setting forth the risk level and designation determinations, and the findings and conclusions of law on which such determinations are based, shall be submitted to the Division of Criminal Justice Services' Sex Offender Registry Unit by the Court. In addition, please complete and attach this form indicating the offender's risk level and designation to the Court's order."). Yet this legally insufficient Order was served on Appellant following the SORA proceeding and was sent to the Division so that the Level 3 determination could be executed and enforced. See A.78 (Letter of Supreme Court, dated Jan. 19, 2011).

The appellate courts have consistently held that cursory, non-specific "findings" issued after SORA hearings -- including the wholesale adoption of a Board recommendation or recitation of RAI factors without further explanation, as the Court offered here -- are legally insufficient under SORA. See, e.g. People v. Strong, 77 A.D.3d 717, 717-18 (2d Dep't 2010) (reversing SORA order issued without findings of fact and conclusions of law, where court relied on RAI but failed to introduce the RAI in evidence or indicate any evidence relied upon); People v. Gilbert, 78 A.D.3d 1584, 1584 (4th Dep't 2010) (holding that the SORA court's conclusory recitation that it reviewed the parties' submissions and was adopting the Board's case summary and recommendation was insufficient to fulfill SORA's statutory mandate); People v. Miranda, 24 A.D.3d 909, 910-11 (3d Dep't 2005) (holding that the court's adoption of the Board's RAI scores and "generic listing of factors" failed to "fulfill the statutory mandate" of SORA and precluded "meaningful appellate review of the propriety of the court's risk level assessment").

In addition, the Order in this case is constitutionally deficient, in that the Court's failure to set forth any factual or legal bases for its Level 3 determination falls short of the minimum due process rights guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution. In the landmark case of Goldberg v. Kelly, the U.S. Supreme Court held that, in relevant part, to demonstrate compliance with the procedural due process requirement that the decision maker's conclusion rest solely on the legal rules and evidence adduced at hearing, "[the] decision maker should state reasons for his determination and indicate evidence he relied on, though his statement need not amount to a full opinion or even formal findings of fact and conclusions of law." Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 271 (1970) (internal citations omitted).[19] In short, the minimal due process requirement that the order set forth the basis for the court's determination is designed to provide some assurance that the court's conclusion rested on sufficient reliable evidence--which in Appellant's case, it did not.

The utterly deficient Order issued by the Court in this matter itself provides an independent basis for reversal of the Court's Level 3 determination, on both state statutory and federal constitutional grounds.

[19] SORA, by specifically requiring the Court to issue findings of fact and conclusions of law to support its determination, therefore sets forth a higher standard than is required by federal due process. See Correction Law §§ 168-k, 168-n (requiring the court to "render an order setting forth its determinations and the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which the determinations are based").

EFTA00231595

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated herein, Appellant Jeffrey E. Epstein respectfully submits that the January 18, 2011 Order of the New York Supreme Court determining Appellant Jeffrey E. Epstein to be a Level 3 sex offender, without designation, should be vacated, and Appellant's SORA level should be recalculated -- either by this Court based on the present record or upon remand to a different Justice in the lower court -- in accordance with the law, based solely on the evidence that can be proven by clear and convincing evidence, to wit, the undisputed conduct encompassed by Appellant's registerable crime of conviction.

Attorneys for Defendant-Appellant Jeffrey E. Esptein.

EFTA00231600

March 20, 2011

To whom it may concern:

I served as U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida from 2005 through 2009. Over the past weeks, I have read much regarding Mr. Jeffrey Epstein. Some appears true, some appears distorted. I thought it appropriate to provide some background, with two caveats: (i) under Justice Department guidelines, I cannot discuss privileged internal communications among Department attorneys and (ii) I no longer have access to the original documents, and as the matter is now nearly 4 years old, the precision of memory is reduced.

The Epstein matter was originally presented to the Palm Beach County State Attorney. Palm Beach Police alleged that Epstein unlawfully hired underage high-school females to provide him sexually lewd and erotic massages. Police sought felony charges that would have resulted in a term of imprisonment. According to press reports, however, in 2006 the State Attorney, in part due to concerns regarding the quality of the evidence, agreed to charge Epstein only with one count of aggravated assault with no intent to commit a felony. That charge would have resulted in no jail time, no requirement to register as a sexual offender and no restitution for the underage victims.

Local police were dissatisfied with the State Attorney's conclusions, and requested a federal investigation. Federal authorities received the State's evidence and engaged in additional investigation. Prosecutors weighed the quality of the evidence and the likelihood for success at trial. With a federal case, there were two additional considerations. First, a federal criminal prosecution requires that the crime be more than local; it must have an interstate nexus. Second, as the matter was initially charged by the state, the federal responsibility is, to some extent, to back-stop state authorities to ensure that there is no miscarriage of justice, and not to also prosecute federally that which has already been charged at the state level.

After considering the quality of the evidence and the additional considerations, prosecutors concluded that the state charge was insufficient. In early summer 2007, the prosecutors and agents in this case met with Mr. Epstein's attorney, Roy Black. Mr. Black is perhaps best known for his successful defense of William Kennedy Smith. The prosecutors presented Epstein a choice: plead to more serious state felony charges (that would result in 2 years' imprisonment, registration as a sexual offender, and restitution for the victims) or else prepare for a federal felony trial.

What followed was a year-long assault on the prosecution and the prosecutors. I use the word assault intentionally, as the defense in this case was more aggressive than any which I, or the prosecutors in my office, had previously encountered. Mr. Epstein hired an army of legal superstars: Harvard Professor Alan Dershowitz, former Judge and then Pepperdine Law Dean Kenneth Starr, former Deputy Assistant to the President and then Kirkland & Ellis Partner Jay Lefkowitz, and several others, including prosecutors who had formally worked in the U.S.

Attorney's Office and in the Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section of the Justice Department. Defense attorneys next requested a meeting with me to challenge the prosecution and the terms previously presented by the prosecutors in their meeting with Mr. Black. The prosecution team and I met with defense counsel in Fall 2007, and I reaffirmed the office's position: two years, registration and restitution, or trial.

Over the next several months, the defense team presented argument after argument claiming that felony criminal proceedings against Epstein were unsupported by the evidence and lacked a basis in law, and that the office's insistence on jail-time was motivated by a zeal to overcharge a man merely because he is wealthy. They bolstered their arguments with legal opinions from well-known legal experts. One member of the defense team warned me that the office's excess zeal in forcing a good man to serve time in jail might be the subject of a book if we continued to proceed with this matter. My office systematically considered and rejected each argument, and when we did, my office's decisions were appealed to Washington. As to the warning, I ignored it.

The defense strategy was not limited to legal issues. Defense counsel investigated individual prosecutors and their families, looking for personal peccadilloes that may provide a basis for disqualification. Disqualifying a prosecutor is an effective (though rarely used) strategy, as eliminating the individuals most familiar with the facts and thus most qualified to take a case to trial harms likelihood for success. Defense counsel tried to disqualify at least two prosecutors. I carefully reviewed, and then rejected, these arguments.

Despite this army of attorneys, the office held firm to the terms first presented to Mr. Black in the original meeting. On June 30, 2008, after yet another last minute appeal to Washington D.C. was rejected, Epstein pled guilty in state court. He was to serve 18 months imprisonment, register as a sexual offender for life and provide restitution to the victims.

Some may feel that the prosecution should have been tougher. Evidence that has come to light since 2007 may encourage that view. Many victims have since spoken out, filing detailed statements in civil cases seeking damages. Physical evidence has since been discovered. Had these additional statements and evidence been known, the outcome may have been different. But they were not known to us at the time.

A prosecution decision must be based on admissible facts known at the time. In cases of this type, those are unusually difficult because victims are frightened and often decline to testify or if they do speak, they give contradictory statements. Our judgment in this case, based on the evidence known at the time, was that it was better to have a billionaire serve time in jail, register as a sex offender and pay his victims restitution than risk a trial with a reduced likelihood of success. I supported that judgment then, and based on the state of the law as it then stood and the evidence known at that time, I would support that judgment again.

Epstein's treatment, while in state custody, likewise may encourage the view that the office should have been tougher. Epstein appears to have received highly unusual treatment while in jail. Although the terms of confinement in a state prison are a matter appropriately left to the State of Florida, and not federal authorities, without doubt, the treatment that he received while in state custody undermined the purpose of a jail sentence.

Some may also believe that the prosecution should have been tougher in retaliation for the defense's tactics. The defense, arguably, often failed to negotiate in good faith. They would obtain concessions as part of a negotiation and agree to proceed, only to change their minds, and appeal the office's position to Washington. The investigations into the family lives of individual prosecutors were, in my opinion, uncalled for, as were the accusations of bias and / or misconduct against individual prosecutors. At times, some prosecutors felt that we should just go to trial, and at times I felt that frustration myself. What was right in the first meeting, however, remained right irrespective of defense tactics. Individuals have a constitutional right to a defense. The aggressive exercise of that right should not be punished, nor should a defense counsel's exercise of their right to appeal a U.S. Attorney to Washington, D.C. Prosecutors must be careful not to allow frustration and anger with defense counsel to influence their judgment.

After the plea, I recall receiving several phone calls. One was from the FBI Special Agent-In-Charge. He called to offer congratulations. He had been at many of the meetings regarding this case. He was aware of the tactics of the defense, and he called to praise our prosecutors for holding firm against the likes of Messrs. Black, Dershowitz, Lefkowitz and Starr. It was a proud moment. I also received calls or communications from Messrs. Dershowitz, Lefkowitz and Starr. I had known all three individuals previously, from my time in law school and at Kirkland & Ellis in the mid 90s. They all sought to make peace. I agreed to talk and meet with each of them after Epstein pled guilty, as I think it important that prosecutors battle defense attorneys in a case and then move on. I have tried, yet I confess that has been difficult to do fully in this case.

The bottom line is this: Mr. Jeffrey Epstein, a billionaire, served time in jail and is now a registered sex offender. He has been required to pay his victims restitution, though restitution clearly cannot compensate for the crime. And we know much more today about his crimes because the victims have come forward to speak out. Some may disagree with the prosecutorial judgments made in this case, but those individuals are not the ones who at the time reviewed the evidence available for trial and assessed the likelihood of success.

Re: Follow-up on Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Mr. Ferrer:

As you know, Brad Edwards and I represent Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 in their efforts to protect their rights under the Crime Victims' Rights Act. You were nice enough to meet with Jane Doe #1 in December 2010 on that case, and we appreciate that. At the conclusion of that meeting, I also provided you with a letter presenting my grave concerns about possible improper influences being brought to bear on your Office during its negotiation of the Jeffrey Epstein non-prosecution agreement. (For your convenience, I attach a copy of that letter.) It was my understanding that you deemed my allegations serious enough to forward my letter to the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) for further investigation, and it was my impression that OPR was going to look into the allegations raised in my letter.

I must say that I was surprised to receive a letter five months later from OPR indicating that my concerns were not being investigated. On May 6, 2011, OPR stated that it was their policy "to refrain from investigating issues or allegations that were, are being, or could have been addressed in the court of litigation, unless a court has made a specific finding of misconduct by a DOJ attorney . . . or there are present other circumstances." OPR stated that my allegations fell into the category of allegations that were being litigated because Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 were raising these issues in their CVRA case. Accordingly, OPR indicated it was not going to review the allegations that I presented.

I am writing now to request the opportunity to meet with you further and to pass along additional information in support of my concerns. I wanted to follow up with you to make sure that someone was looking into my allegations about improper influences affecting your Office's decision to accord Jeffrey Epstein an extraordinarily lenient plea. It may well be that OPR has some policy precluding an investigation. But will your Office then investigate these issues?

I am also writing to alert you to additional information that continues to lead me to believe that something was rotten with the way this case was handled.

As you may know, [redacted] was a senior prosecutor and supervisor in your Office when the non-prosecution agreement with Jeffrey Epstein was approved. It is our impression that he was directly involved in supervising the Epstein investigation as the former Chief of the Criminal Division of your Office. It has been our understanding for quite some time that he frequently corresponded with Epstein's attorneys, especially Lily Ann Sanchez, during the plea discussions, and it is our understanding that he left your Office around the time the non-prosecution agreement was signed.

Our private investigator has recently learned that [redacted] left your office to work at a New York law firm representing white collar criminals. He also learned that [redacted]'s quite expensive apartment in New York City is located in close proximity to real estate properties (specifically condos) owned by Jeffrey Epstein. The location of [redacted]'s apartment, his role during the Epstein negotiations, and his departure immediately after the NPA was signed, leads us to believe that [redacted] and Epstein may have had a business or other relationship either during or after [redacted] time in the Office. If that is the case, then we would appreciate you providing the information that you have in that regard voluntarily, as opposed to us having to conduct formal discovery to get it.

As you also know, Judge Marra has recently ordered discovery to proceed in this case. We obviously would like for that process to go as smoothly as possible and want to avoid becoming involved in true adversary litigation with your Office. On behalf of our clients, we just want to get to the bottom of this, and we feel safe in assuming that you do too at this point.

For all these reasons, I am writing to request another chance to meet with you about our concerns and about making the discovery process go smoothly. Thank you in advance for considering this request. I would be happy to provide any other additional information that would be useful to you.

Sincerely,

Paul G. Cassell

Re: Request for Investigation of Jeffrey Epstein Prosecution

Dear Mr. Ferrer:

I am writing as someone with extensive experience in the federal criminal justice system – as a former Associate Deputy Attorney General, Assistant United States Attorney, federal judge, and currently criminal law professor – to alert you to what seems to be the most suspicious criminal case I have ever encountered. I ask that you investigate whether there were improper influences and actions during your office's criminal investigation of Jeffrey Epstein, particularly regarding the decision to enter into a binding non-prosecution agreement blocking his prosecution for numerous federal sex offenses he committed over many years against more than thirty minor girls.

As I am sure you are well aware, in 2006 your office opened a criminal investigation with the FBI into allegations that for years Jeffrey Epstein sexual abused dozens of minor girls in his West Palm Beach mansion. The FBI soon developed compelling evidence that Epstein had in fact committed numerous federal sex offenses with more than 30 minor girls. And yet, your office ultimately entered into a plea arrangement which allowed Epstein escape with a non-prosecution agreement that ensured he would have no federal criminal liability and would spend no more than 18 months in state jail. For sexual offenses of this magnitude – in a case with more than 30 witnesses providing interlocking testimony, all made automatically admissible by virtue of Fed. R. Evid. 414 – this is an extraordinary outcome.

Why did your office enter into this highly unusual non-prosecution arrangement with Epstein? Suspicion begins with the point that Epstein is a politically-connected billionaire. But that wouldn't be troubling without considerable other evidence that something went terribly wrong with the prosecution for other, improper reasons. Consider the following highly unusual facts:

First, it appears that Epstein was tipped off before the execution of a search warrant at his home. We know that lead state police officers -- Detective [redacted] and Police Chief [redacted] -- complained that the house was "sanitized" by the time they arrived to serve a search warrant for child pornography. This sanitation was evident by the various computer wires hanging with no computers attached. Housekeeper Janusz Banasiak later testified in a civil deposition that Epstein's assistant, [redacted] ([redacted]) and another man (unknown) were instructed to remove, and did in fact remove, multiple computers from Epstein's home shortly before the search warrant was served. The fact that there could well have been a tip off is apparently suspected by federal authorities.

Second, there is evidence that one of the senior prosecutors in your office joined Epstein's payroll shortly after important decisions were made limiting Epstein's criminal liability -- and improperly represented people close to Epstein. During the federal investigation of Epstein, Bruce Reinhart was a senior Assistant U.S. Attorney in your office. As we understand things, he was a direct supervisor of the line prosecutor handling the case and thus was well aware of details of the Epstein investigation and plea negotiations. We further believe that he was consulted on issues related to the prosecution of Epstein and Epstein's co-conspirators, including specifically issues related to whether Epstein employees and pilots should be prosecuted for their involvement in Epstein's sexual offense. We further believe that he personally and substantially participated in making such decisions about the course of the criminal investigation.

Within months after the non-prosecution agreement was signed by your office, Reinhart left your office and immediately went into private practice as a white collar criminal defense attorney. His office coincidentally happened to be not only in the same building (and on same floor) as Epstein's lead criminal defense counsel, Jack Goldberger, but it was actually located right next door to the Florida Science Foundation -- an Epstein-owned and -run company where Epstein spent his "work release."

While working in this office adjacent to Epstein's, Reinhart undertook the representation of numerous Epstein employees and pilots during the civil cases filed against Epstein by the victims – cases that involved the exact same crimes and exact same evidence being reviewed by the U.S. Attorney's office when he was employed there. Specifically, he represented [redacted] ([redacted] (Epstein's number one co-conspirator who was actually named as such in the NPA), his housekeeper (Louella Ruboyo), his pilots Larry Morrison, Larry Visoski, David Rogers, William Hammond and Robert Roxburgh. (Hammond and Roxburgh were not deposed but the others were.) Our understanding is that his representation of these individuals was paid for, directly or indirectly, by Epstein.

Reinhart was well aware of what evidence your office and federal investigator had collected against Epstein and about the minor girls who were his victims. As a consequence, he knew what evidence the attorneys for the victims were using. He also knew what each of those witnesses had said, if anything, to federal and state investigators during the criminal investigation.

We have been unable to place our fingers on the federal regulations governing such later representation. We do know, however, that such actions appear to be in direct contravention of the Florida ethical rules regarding attorneys who leave government employment. For example, Florida R. Prof. Conduct 4-1.11(a) provides "[a] lawyer shall not represent a private client in connection with a matter in which the lawyer participated personally and substantially as a public officer or employee unless the appropriate government agency consents after consultation." Similarly, Florida R. Prof. Conduct 4-1.11(b) provides that "[a] lawyer having information that the lawyer knows is confidential government information about a person acquired when the lawyer was a public officer or employee may not represent a private client whose interests are adverse to that person in a matter in which the information could be used to the material disadvantage of that person." Both these rules appear to have been violated. But entirely apart from the details of ethical rules, the fact that one of your prosecutors was involved in making important decisions about the scope of criminal liability for Epstein and his associates and then – after criminal liability was significantly limited – representing numerous people at Epstein's behalf raises serious questions. At the very least, there is the strong appearance that Reinhard may have attempted to curry favor with Epstein and then reap his reward through favorable employment. At the very worst, there may have been advance discussions – we simply don't know at this point.

Third, Epstein appears to have deliberately kept from victims in the case correspondence with your office and the Justice Department that might have shed light on improper influences. Along with other capable attorneys, I was involved in representing one of Epstein's victims ([redacted]) who filed a federal civil case against Epstein. Suspecting that Epstein may have improperly influenced your office, we immediately served discovery requests on Epstein for all the correspondence with your office regarding the plea negotiations. Eleven months of hard litigation ensued, in which Epstein made every conceivable argument against production. Finally, late in June of this year, his appeals exhausted, Epstein produced the correspondence to us. However, in violation of the court order, he redacted the correspondence so that he provided only emails and other statements from your office – not his emails and statements to your office. More significantly, even though he was under court order to produce all correspondence between his attorneys and your office, Epstein secretly withheld correspondence by several of his most high-powered attorneys – namely Ken Starr and Lilly Ann Sanchez. Epstein settled the case with [redacted] within days after this limited production, and we did not realize the absence of what must have been critical discussions between your office and Starr and Snachez (among others). Epstein's refusal to allow us to see that information raises the suspicion in our minds that there must have been unusual pressures being brought to bear during the plea discussions that would have been revealed had Epstein complied with his production obligations.

Fourth, there appears to have been an unprecedented level of secrecy between your office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation during this case. The FBI was responsible, along with state and local police agencies, for building the case against Epstein. They appear to have developed an overwhelming criminal against him. And yet, when your office signed the non-prosecution agreement with him, it is not clear to us that the FBI was consulted about this decision. Indeed, we have suspicions that the FBI was not informed of this decision until, perhaps, months later.

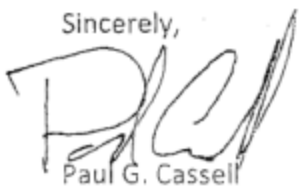
EFTA00231608

Supporting this suspicion is our on-going litigation regarding the treatment of the victims in this case. As you know from our draft pleadings that we have discussed with your office, we believe there is compelling evidence that the victims and their attorneys were deceived about the existence of a non-prosecution agreement for months in order to avoid what certainly would have been a firestorm of controversy about such lenient treatment of a repeat sex offender. Our impression from the evidence we have been able to obtain so far is that the FBI was similarly kept in the dark – not consulted about or even told about the NPA. While a certain amount of tension has always existed between federal prosecuting and investigating agencies, not even informing the FBI about the Epstein NPA seems highly unusual.

All of these strange facts -- as well as the facts that we are alleging in our crime victims' litigation – lead us to think that there was something rotten with the way this case was handled. Epstein could have faced years and years in prison for numerous federal sex offenses. And yet he managed to contrive to walk away with no federal time at all (and only minimal state time). We respectfully ask you to investigate through appropriate and independent channels the handling of the Epstein (non)prosecution.

Thank you in advance for considering this request. I would be happy to provide any other additional information that would be useful to you.

Sincerely,



Paul G. Cassell

Re: Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 vs. United States, No. 09-80736

Dear Mr. Ferrer:

We are writing to you personally on behalf of Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 in one last effort to try and narrow our range of difference in the pending Crime Victims Rights Act case regarding Jeffrey Epstein. We make two requests: First, we are requesting that you agree to our proposal for narrowing the range of disputes between your Office and the victims, Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2. Second, if you are unable to agree to our proposal, we request that you agree not to withhold information in your Office's possession that would support their claims under the Crime Victims Rights Act (CVRA).

By way of background, as you know, we have been attempting to work with your Office for more than two-and-a-half years to reach a stipulated set for facts in this CVRA case that would avoid the need for any public battle between your Office and the victims . Indeed, we reached out to you for a personal meeting to try to avoid a fight, and you were kind enough to meet with Jane Doe #1 and her undersigned attorneys. During that meeting, we expressed our intention to go the extra mile to try and avoid any fight with your Office and to see if there was a way to fight only Jeffrey Epstein the sex offender, rather than the prosecutors who work for you.

Today we had a telephone conference call with two of your attorneys, [redacted] and [redacted], in which they told us that we would not be receiving any cooperation from your Office on our CVRA case and that, in short, we would have to "see you in court." We were also told that your Office was taking the position that it could, and would, withhold from the victims information in your Office's possession that would support their claims under the CVRA. After receiving approval from [redacted] and [redacted], we wanted to write to you personally in one last effort to see if we can narrow our differences on these two issues and avoid a disappointing battle.

Narrowing the Issues in Dispute

During today's conference call, it appeared that there was some confusion from [redacted] and [redacted] as to precisely what the victims were proposing. Our proposal is simply this: that www.law.utah.edu • Main Office [redacted] • Facsimile [redacted] 332 South 1400 East, Room 101 • Salt Lake City, Utah 84112-0730

your Office and Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 would stipulate to a set of facts to provide context for the Court while we litigate the legal issue in dispute, that is whether the CVRA applies even though no federal charges were ultimately filed. If your Office prevails on that issue, the victims would obviously have no claim under the CVRA. The victims would then pursue their appellate rights in the Eleventh Circuit. If, however, the victims prevail on that issue, then your Office would take "no position" on the remedy sought by the victims for the violation of their rights afforded them under the Act. Your Office would essentially stand aside and agree not to take any position on the victims' request to set aside the NPA as a remedy for that violation of the victims' rights.

We understood from our meeting with you in December that you wanted to do what you could to help the victims in this case. Yet as we understood [redacted] and [redacted] today, they were taking the position that we would receive no cooperation of any sort from your Office. And we further understood from them that your Office was now going to take the position that even if the victims' congressionally-mandated rights were violated, there is simply no remedy for those violations and thus the victims should have no recourse for the violations.

On behalf of our clients, we want to once again reach out and make sure that your Office wants to move to an adversarial litigation posture on these issues. We simply don't understand why your Office is now going to take a litigating position hostile to ours on issues beyond the legal question of when CVRA rights attached in this case. We appreciate that the Department has institutional concerns about the timing of CVRA rights. But we don't understand why your Office is now going to fight against the victims in their efforts seeking to overturn a NPA that by any measure is unfair. This is not simply our view – the unfairness of the NPA has now attracted comment literally throughout the world, including serving as the basis for an unfavorable portrayal in a recent Law and Order: Special Victim Episode and a feature story yesterday in the London-based Sunday Mail. We are not asking your Office to join us in our efforts to throw out this unjust agreement. But can't your Office simply stand on the sidelines and let us make our case against Epstein. Fighting a politically well-connected billionaire is difficult enough, without having the weight of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida thrown against us too. We respectfully make one last request for you to move forward with our proposal for narrowing differences between us.

Withholding Favorable Evidence

If you feel that your Office must fight us in court on every possible issue, then we are respectfully writing to request that we resolve one issue outside of court: Whether your Office can withhold from the victims evidence in its possession that is favorable to their CVRA case. During our conference call with [redacted] and [redacted], we pointed out that if we were criminal defense attorneys representing criminals, your Office would promptly turn over to us all information in its possession that was helpful to these criminals under the Brady and Giglio decisions. We asked your Office to extend to the victims the same assistance that it would provide to criminals – i.e., we asked [redacted] and [redacted] to voluntarily provide to us information in your Office's possession that was helpful the victims' CVRA case. We were informed that your Office will be taking the position in Court that it can and will withhold from the victims such information, apparently on the theory that victims lack due process or other "discovery" rights under the CVRA.

We believe that the position that your Office can suppress relevant evidence is legally unfounded for four reasons and, in any event, is unsound policy at odds with promises that the Attorney General has made to crime victims and to the public. With regard to the legal problems in this position, first, the CVRA promises victims of crime that they will be "treated with fairness." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(8). The clear intent of Congress in passing this provision was to provide a substantive "due process" right to crime victims. As one of the CVRA's co-sponsors (Senator Kyl) explained, "The broad rights articulated in this section are meant to be rights themselves and are not intended to just be aspirational. One of these rights is the right to be treated with fairness. Of course, fairness includes the notion of due process. Too often victims of crime experience a secondary victimization at the hands of the criminal justice system. This provision is intended to direct Government agencies and employees, whether they are in executive or judiciary branches, to treat victims of crime with the respect they deserve." 150 CONG. REC. S4269 (Apr. 22, 2004) (emphasis added).

Because the CVRA extends a "due process" right to crime victims like Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2, victims have a right to fair access to evidence to prove their case. The very foundation of the Brady obligation is due process: "[T]he suppression by the prosecution of evidence favorable to an accused . . . violates due process where the evidence is material either to guilt or to punishment." Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83, 87 (1963). It would similarly violate due process for the prosecution to suppress evidence favorable to a crime victim where the evidence is material either to proving a CVRA violation or to the remedy for a violation.

Second, entirely apart from whether the victims have a right to obtain such information, your Office has an affirmative obligation to disclose it to victims. The CVRA directly commands that "[o]fficers and employees of the Department of Justice and other departments and agencies of the United States engaged in the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime shall make their best efforts to see that crime victims are notified of, and accorded, the rights described in [the CVRA]." 18 U.S.C. § 3771(c)(1) (emphasis added).[1] It is simply impossible for [1] As you can see from this language, the CVRA applies not only to the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida but also to the relevant office of the FBI. We are "cc'ing" a copy of this letter to the FBI so that they can be informed of our view that they should provide assistance to the victims in this matter as well, rather than join your Office in any effort to withhold evidence. We understand that your Office represents the FBI on these issues, and are happy to continue our discussions with you regarding the FBI obligations in this area. At the appropriate time, however, if we are unable to reach agreement, we would like to have this discussion with a representative of the FBI to see whether they are in accord with your position. It is our understanding that the appropriate person would be the "special agent-in-charge of the division having primary responsibility for conducting the investigation." ATTORNEY GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR VICTIM AND WITNESS ASSISTANCE 11 (May 2005).

your Office to make its "best efforts" to accord victims their rights while simultaneously withholding evidence that would help them obtain those rights in court.

Third, the attorneys in your Office have duties of candor to the Court that would not permit it to present evidence or testimony that is known to be false. Fla. Bar Rule 4-3.3(a)(4). Allowing the victims access to evidence favorable to their claim will insure compliance with this rule. Similarly, in an ex parte proceeding, a lawyer must inform the court of all material facts known to the lawyer that will enable the court to make an informed decision "whether or not the facts are adverse." Fla. Bar. Rule 4-3.3(d). If your Office is correct that we are not entitled to access to favorable evidence, then the proceedings involving that evidence are essentially ex parte – requiring your Office to make disclosure to the Court. Surely the more appropriate way to proceed is to simply disclose those materials in the first instance to the victims.

Fourth and finally, your Office has previously taken the position that the CVRA petition filed by the victims is covered by the civil rules. If so, then the victims can serve discovery requests as in any other civil cases. The victims can likewise take depositions of witnesses who possess relevant evidence to their claims. Indeed, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A), your Office would be required to automatically produce such information.

For all these reasons, it is our considered opinion that your Office does not have a legally well-founded position to withhold evidence from the victims in this case. Even if the Office did have such a position, however, we are mystified as to why your Office would want to assert such a position. Attorney General Holder has recently publicly discussed the Department's obligations regarding production of exculpatory information to criminals, explaining "We're not here to win cases, but to do justice." Attorney General Holder Discusses Efforts to Improve Prosecutor Training, WALL ST. J., Apr. 30, 2010. With all respect, we submit that your Office should seek to do justice not merely for criminals, but also for the victims of those criminals. We therefore respectfully request that you simply provide this information to us as a matter of justice, avoiding the need for us to litigate this question. To avoid burdening your Office, we would be happy to provide a specific list of the information that we believe is material to the victims' CVRA case – a limited amount of information that could be swiftly located by your Office.

Conclusion

We frankly believe we have been very patient on this case and have gone to the extra mile to avoid an unnecessary fight with your Office. But our clients are asking us what the status of their case is, and we have an obligation to proceed diligently. Our first choice is to work something out with you. But if your Office is for some reason unwilling or unable to do that, we believe we have an overwhelming case of clear cut CVRA violations – a case that we will present to the Court.

EFTA00231613

As we told [redacted] and [redacted], even though your Office has refused to provide any accommodations to us, we will continue to discuss with them our proposed statement of facts, with the aim of removing information that they believe is damaging to your Office and that we can leave out as unessential to our case. We hope that you will favorably consider our requests in this letter and try to find an approach that will minimize our need to become embroiled in a court dispute between crime victims and the prosecutors who aim to protect them. If we are unable to do so, our intention is to file our "summary judgment" pleadings (which we provided in their entirety to your Office as a courtesy six months ago) on March 18, 2011.

Sincerely,

Dear [redacted] and [redacted],

We are writing to inquire about the government's position on a motion that we will be filing on March 18 along with our "summary judgment" motion. As you know, the summary judgment motion will contain quotations from e-mails that are under the magistrate judge's order requiring prior notice to the court before they are disclosed. Accordingly, on March 18, we will be filing a full, unredacted summary judgment motion under seal with Judge Marra and, for the public PACER file, a summary judgment motion with quotations from the e-mails redacted.

We will be filing simultaneously a motion for with the court for unsealing of the unredacted motion. We will provide (at least) three ground for unsealing. First, the confidentiality order was only based on an agreement to give advance notice to Epstein before using materials. Once advance notice has been given, there is no basis for confidentiality. Second, there is truly world-wide interest in the handling of the Epstein prosecution, and [redacted] our pleading should not remain under seal – instead the public should have access to it [redacted] that they can assess how this case was handled. Third, keeping the pleading under seal complicates the ability of Jane Does' attorneys to consult with victims' rights specialist about how best to proceed in the case.

We are writing to determine the Government's position on our motion to unseal the redacted pleading [redacted] that we can include that position in our motion. We hope that you will not oppose the motion, which might produce the need for further litigation. As you know, Judge Marra has promptly unsealed other pleadings in this matter when the Government tried to object.

Sincerely,

MR. LEFKOWITZ: Jay Lefkowitz. Good morning, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning.

I scheduled this hearing for very limited issues which, as you all know, there's been a motion by Mr. Epstein to stay the civil proceedings against him. The one issue I have concern about is Mr. Epstein's contention or assertion that by defending against the allegations in the civil proceedings, he may expose himself to an allegation by the United States in the non-prosecution agreement that he's violated that agreement and therefore would subject himself to potential federal charges.

I had asked for some briefing on this. I asked the United States to present its position to me. And I received the Government's written response, which I frankly didn't find very helpful. And I still am not sure I understand what the Government's position is on it.

[redacted] first let me hear from Mr. Epstein's attorneys as to what do you believe the concern is. I don't believe the non-prosecution agreement has ever been filed in this Court; am I correct?

MR. CRITTON: To my knowledge, Your Honor, it has not.

THE COURT: [redacted] I don't believe I've ever seen the entire agreement. I've seen portions of it.

MR. EDWARDS: Your Honor, I believe that it was filed under Jane Doe 1 and 2 vs. United States of America, case under seal in your court.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. EDWARDS: In a separate case.

THE COURT: In that case, okay. Was it actually filed in that case?

MR. EDWARDS: I filed it under seal.

THE COURT: In any event, what's Mr. Epstein's concern about if you defend the civil actions, you're going to expose yourself to a claim for a breach by the United States of the non-prosecution agreement?

MR. CRITTON: Robert Critton.

Your Honor, our position on this case is, I'd say is somewhat different. When this issue originally came before the Court, as you are aware prior to my firm's involvement in the case, there was a motion filed on behalf of Mr. Epstein seeking a stay. And I think it was in Jane Doe 102 and then subsequently Jane Doe 2 through 5 because all of those cases were filed on or about the same time.

And at that time the Court looked at the issue and it was based upon a statutory provision at that time. And the Court said I don't find that it's applicable, or for whatever reason I think the Court said I don't consider that to be a pending proceeding or a proceeding at that particular time.

In that same order, which was in Jane Doe 2, I believe it's -- not I believe, I know it's docket entry 33, the Court also went on to talk about at that particular point in time dealt with the issue of the discretionary stay.

And the Court said at that time, I'm paraphrasing, but the Court also does not believe a discretionary stay is warranted. And what the Court went on to say is that if defendant does not breach the agreement, then he should have no concerns regarding his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination.

The fact that the U.S. Attorney or other law enforcement officials may object to some discovery in these civil cases is not in and of itself a reason to stay the civil litigation, [redacted] that any such issue shall be resolved as they arise in the course of the litigation.

And I would respectfully submit to the Court that the position that the Government has taken in its most recent filings changes the playing field dramatically. Because what the Government in essence has said as distinct from the U.S. saying is, well, we object to some discovery, or we may object to some discovery in the civil cases.

What they have, in essence, said is if you take some action, Mr. Epstein, that we believe unilaterally, and this is on pages 13 and 14 of their pleading or of their response memo to the Court's inquiry, they say if Mr. Epstein breaches the agreement. They said it's basically like a contract, and if one side breaches, the other side can sue.

In this instance what the Government will do is if we believe that Mr. Epstein has breached the agreement, we'll indict him. We will indict him. And his remedy under that circumstance, which is an incredible and catastrophic catch 22 is, we'll indict him and then he can move to dismiss. That's a great option.

In this particular instance my mandate in defending -- and that's a dramatic change in the Government's position, because the Government is not saying, and the Court was pretty specific in what you asked the Government for in its response is, in essence, and it's the same question in a more limited fashion you're posing today is whether Mr. Epstein's defense of the civil action violates the NPA agreement, the non-prosecution agreement, between the U.S. and Mr. Epstein.

And the Government refuses to answer that question. They won't come out and say, yes, it will, or no, it won't. What they're doing is they want to sit on the sideline, and as their papers suggest is, they want us to lay in wait and that if, in fact, they believe he violates a provision of the NPA as it relates to the defense of this case or these multitude of cases, then they can come in and indict him -- no notice, no opportunity to cure.

We don't think that's what the NPA says, but that's certainly what their papers say. We'll indict him, no notice, no opportunity to cure. We will indict him, and his remedy under that circumstance is that he can move to dismiss the indictment.

Well, that's great except Mr. Epstein, his mandate to me and I know his mandate to his criminal lawyers, is: Make certain I don't do anything, in particular in these civil cases that would in any way suggest that I am in willful violation of the NPA.

Now, in the Court's prior ruling in the docket entry

33, certainly some aspects of the NPA are within Mr. Epstein's control. There's no question about that. But aspects that relate to the defense of these cases, either in terms of the civil lawyers who are defending these, I think there's 12 or 13 pending cases in front of you, there's another four cases in the state court, is the risk is substantial, it's real, and it presents a chilling effect for the civil lawyers in moving forward to determine whether or not we're taking some action that in some way may be a violation of the NPA.

And the Government's, again, refusal or non-position with regard to past acts that have been taken in the civil case with regard to the defense or future acts that we may take with regard to these contested litigation casts an extraordinary cloud of doubt and uncertainty and fear that the defense of these cases could jeopardize Mr. Epstein and put him in the irreparable position of violating the NPA and then subsequently being indicted.

In this particular instance, again, Mr. Epstein has no intention of willfully violating the NPA, but it's of great concern to him. And I'd say with the position that the Government has taken, no notice, no cure period, no opportunity to discuss. Again, we think that's not what the NPA provides, it's not what the deal was between the two contracting parties, the United States and Mr. Epstein. But that's clearly what their papers say under the circumstances, and it would create this irreparable harm to Mr. Epstein under the circumstances.

In essence, we're left with a catch 22 in defending the civil cases. We have a mandate to take no action, to take any action which may be deemed to be a violation of the NPA, either in the past or in the future, which would in any way risk Mr. Epstein being indicted by the United States.

He has the clear risk of an indictment based upon the papers that the Government filed. It's real, it's not remote, and it's not speculative. It chills the action of the defense in this instance of both Mr. Epstein and his attorneys in trying to defend these cases and decide under the circumstances can we do this, can we take this position with regard to depositions, can we take this legal position with regard to motions to dismiss, with regard to responses, with regard to replies?

And we send out paper discovery. Is this in some way if we contact someone who may be an associate of these individuals as part of our investigation, is that potentially in any way a violation of the NPA? Again, we don't think [redacted].

And, obviously, again, my direction has been from my client: Don't take any action that would result in me being indicted under the NPA. Well, that's great. But, generally, civil lawyers or civil lawyers in defending a personal injury case or a tort case, which is exactly what these are, and from a practical standpoint, we use various tools to do discovery.

They're standard. They're specific. They're very temporary. Very typical.

But in this instance, as the Court knows, things are not typical with regard to this case in any way, shape or form. We can't even serve subpoenaes, there's objections and there's -- we can't even serve objections to third parties [redacted] we can obtain documents unless we have to filter it through the plaintiffs' attorneys. They won't allow us to use their clients' names, even in a subpoena that would never be filed in the court.

How do we do a deposition of a third party? We wanted to take the deposition of Jane Doe 4. Well, who is she? Well, we can't tell you that. Well, who's the defendant? Well, we can't tell you that because nobody wants anybody to know anything about the case. They want to present it strictly through rose-colored glasses.

And in this particular instance, we simply can't defend this case or take certain action with the spector hanging over us that, in fact, the Government may deem it to be a violation of the NPA, because very clearly in their response papers, they don't say. They say we don't take the position, and then they take a substantial position is we think there's not all that substantial factors that would entitle him to a stay.

Except for the one major issue which the Court posed in the question is, is can he defend these cases? That's what I really want to know. Can he defend these cases and, in essence, what he has done in the past or what his defense team has done in the past and what they're going to do in the future, can you give him, Epstein, assurances that the Government under this situation, whatever he does, based on advice of counsel, that that cannot be a willful violation of the NPA, which they can -- they, the U.S. -- can then turn around and say that's a violation of the agreement and, therefore, we're going to go proceed to indict you under the circumstances.

Our position is, Your Honor, is that the U.S. has now cavalierly suggested that, as they did in picking up on the court's docket entry or prior order, is, look, compliance with the NPA is solely up to Mr. Epstein. In this type of balance of equities, it doesn't speak in favor of a stay.

Well, that's great. And maybe that was the position back in '08, on August 5th of '08, when the issue came up in front of the Court with regard to the initial stay.

But the Government's papers under these circumstances suggested a very different set of circumstances. Their own unilateral, which is the issue that we argued in the motion for stay, is that the Government's position is that we can unilaterally indict this man if we think he's breached the NPA.

We don't think that's right, but we have no buffer between us and the Government. They'll say, and as the Court knows, the Government has substantial power. The Government does what it wants. Most of the time hopefully they're right. Sometimes they make mistakes.

But in this particular instance, my client has rights. We think that there's notice provisions, we think there's cure provisions under the NPA. That's not what their paper says under the circumstances.

And what we'd like to know from the Government, and maybe the answer is basically what the Court asks is, let the Government come forward today and say, based on the knowledge that we have, or as of today's date, June 12th, 2009, we, the Government, agree that there is no set of circumstances, not that we're not aware of, but as of today's date, there is nothing that exists that would be a violation of the NPA.

THE COURT: Well, that's way beyond what I'm interested in. I don't know what Mr. Epstein may have done outside the context of defending this case that may constitute a violation. And if he has done something outside the context of defending this case that's a violation, I don't care. That's between the United States and Mr. Epstein.

I'm only concerned about whether anything he does in defending these civil actions is going to be a violation of the non-prosecution agreement. If he has done something else, it's none of my business, and I don't care, and I'm not going to even ask the Government to give you an assurance that he hasn't done anything that might have violated the agreement up till today. I'm only interested in defending these civil actions.

MR. CRITTON: Then I would respectfully submit to the Court that the Government be asked in that limited context, are they as of today, whether there were or not, but as of today is there anything that has been done or will you take the position, the United States, that any position that Mr. Epstein has taken with regard to defending these civil cases is in any way a violation of the NPA?

THE COURT: Well, I'm not sure what they're going to say, but that might -- that cures the problem up to this point. But then we have to deal with what's going to happen from here on in. And that's another issue that we have to deal with.

[redacted] I understand your position.

But has anyone suggested to you on behalf of the United States that there is something that you've done in defending this case that they believe may or could be construed as a violation of the non-prosecution agreement? Has anyone pointed to anything that you've done? For example, the fact that you've wanted to take their -- I don't know if you've noticed depositions or not in this case, but if you've sent notice of taking deposition, if you sent requests for production of documents, if you sent interrogatories, if you issued third party subpoenas? Is anything you've done thus far in the context of this case been brought to your attention as a potential violation?

MR. CRITTON: I have received no notification nor am I aware that we've received any notification of any action that we have taken today. As I suggested to the Court, I don't know when they've done or not. And in their papers they suggested, well, we don't know everything that's gone on in the civil litigation.

But from a practical standpoint, it was a number of comments that were made in their papers is, we can indict, we can see if there's a breach.

Judge, I may have some --

THE COURT: Before you go on.

MR. CRITTON: I'm sorry.

THE COURT: You've focused a great deal on the Government's response to my inquiry as supporting your position that you're in jeopardy. But you've made the suggestion, even before this brief was filed, that defending the case was going to potentially result in an assertion or allegation that you breached the non-prosecution agreement.

[redacted] what was it that caused you to make that initial assertion? Because that's what caught my attention, was not -- this brief that the Government has filed was in response to something that you filed initially in your most recent motion for a stay which raised the issue.

[redacted] what was it that gave you some concern to even raise the issue that defending this case is going to constitute a breach?

MR. CRITTON: Because there are other instances where counsel other than myself, not in the civil aspects, where allegations have been made and letters have been sent by the United States suggesting that there's been a violation of the NPA. And under those circumstances, some notification was provided.

THE COURT: Did it have anything to do with defending the civil actions?

MR. CRITTON: It did not.

THE COURT: [redacted] then why was that issue raised by you in the first instance?

MR. CRITTON: Because of the prospect that the defendant could take, that the U.S. would take the position under the circumstances that a position that we took with regard to the contested litigation may well impact, that the Government may have a very different view of what the interpretation of the agreement is.

And as an example is a number of the parties, and I know the Court doesn't want to get into a discussion, the issue is, is under 2255 is that from the defendant's perspective the deal that was cut on that, it was a very specific deal. It dealt with both consensual and contested litigation. It dealt with a secret list of individuals who we had no idea who was on the list, and a commitment that he would under certain circumstances be required to pay a minimum amount of damages, which our position is under 2255 based upon the statute that was in effect at the time, a $50,000 as to anyone who wanted -- who came forward who was on the list and met certain criteria.

The position that now has been asserted by a number of the plaintiffs under the circumstances, and it's been pled, and actually a number of the complainants is, is Epstein agreed, and they cite to a letter that was sent by Ms. [redacted] from the Government, that says he has to plead guilty or he can't contest liability. That may be true under very, very limited or specific circumstances.

But what the plaintiffs have done in a number of the cases, and these are pending motions, is they've said is, well, we think C.M.A. cases is a good example, they've pled 30 separate counts of 2255 alleged violations. And they're saying under the circumstances is, therefore, we have 2255 violations, there's 30 of them, [redacted] 30 times 150, or should be, or whether it's 150, that's the amount of money that we want, [redacted] maybe $15 million, or whatever the number is.

Some of the other plaintiffs' lawyers have been even more creative. They've said is, well, we'll agree that it's only one cause of action but that each number of violations; that is, if 20 alleged incidents occurred, that we would consider to be, or that we will argue are violations, then we can take 20 times the 50, or the 150, depending on which statute is applicable.

[redacted] the Government under that set of circumstance could say, and, again, this is one of the reasons that we raised it, they could say, look, our deal with you was that you couldn't contest liability, that you were waiving liability, or your ability to contest an enumerated offense under 2255.

Again, part of the deal was as to an enumerated offense. Okay. Well, what's that mean? What did he plead to? Well, he really didn't plead to anything, which is another issue associated with the 2255. But if the Government comes in and says, no, wait a minute, our position was, is that you're stuck with 2255 and the language within the NPA. And, therefore, whether it's an offense or whether it's multiple offenses or violations or each one represents an individual cause of action, if the Government takes the position that's adverse to what we think the clear reading of the agreement was under those circumstances, they could claim a violation.

And as a result -- and that's one of the reasons we put -- that was the most glaring one to us, [redacted] we raised that issue. And then when the Government's response came with regard to, is we can just proceed to indict if we think that there's been a breach of the agreement.

That puts us at substantial risk and chills our ability to move forward. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Who wants to be heard from the plaintiffs first?

Is there any plaintiff's attorney who is contending that the defense of these civil actions by Mr. Epstein is going to constitute a breach of the non-prosecution agreement?

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Your Honor, this is Bob Josefsberg. May I speak?

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: We're not quite confident that any breaches of any agreement, which were third-party beneficiaries, should be resolved by you. We're not saying it shouldn't. But we have not raised any breach of agreement. We think that is between the United States and Mr. Epstein.

What I find incredulous and disingenuous is that Mr. Epstein is saying that he wants a stay because he may be forced into taking actions in the defense of this case that would violate the agreement.

And let me make our position clear on that. If he wants to move to take depositions, interrogatories, production, and they are according to your rulings appropriate, not invasive of the privacy of someone, and they are relevant, then I don't know how those could in any way be violations of the agreement.

What I find hypocritical is that there are two parts to the agreement that I am a beneficiary of. One of them is that he has agreed that on any action brought in the 2255, he will admit to liability.

And I received on May 26 a motion to dismiss, which we're prepared to respond to and disagree with, but totally contesting liability, saying that the statute doesn't apply because the girls are no longer minors and saying, and this is the great one, saying that the predicate of the conviction under 2255 has not been satisfied.

Now, the understanding that I have is the agreement between the Government and Mr. Epstein was that the Government desired to see these victims made whole, and wanted them to be in the same position as if Mr. Epstein had been prosecuted and pled or convicted. And they would be able to have the predicate of that criminal conviction, which just as a matter of liability would just be introduced as proof that he's done this.

They, under the agreement, are supposed to admit to liability on limited something that's under 2255. He has filed, but since there is no conviction, there can be no civil suit under 2255, with which we disagree. But it is totally in opposite of the NPA.

The second part is there are many young ladies, and this perhaps he can use this to his great advantage, who are humiliated about this entire situation. Some of them won't come forward.

We were appointed by Judge [redacted] as a Special Master to represent these young ladies. And some of them don't even want to file suit. They don't even want to be known as Jane Doe 103. They don't want any of the risks for these motions that are pending.

And part of the agreement was that if we represented them and they settle, Mr. Epstein would pay our fees. And he has written us as of yesterday that he is under no obligation to pay our fees on settling cases.

Now, those two matters, I believe, may be breaches. But I am not asking this Court at this time to do anything about them. Nor am I telling the Government, I'm not running to the Government and saying indict him because I want you to pressure him to do what he agreed to.

I'm a third-party beneficiary for that agreement, and I may move to enforce certain parts of it. But as far as the issue of staying the litigation, that is the exact opposite of the intent and the letter of the NPA. The purpose of the NPA was [redacted] that these 34 young ladies, these victims who have been severely traumatized, may move on with their lives.

And to stay this action would be the exact opposite of the purpose of that agreement and would be horrible psychologically for all of my clients.

THE COURT: Mr. Josefsberg, I understand your position. And I don't want to argue the merits of whether a stay should or should not be granted.

I'm just trying to understand what the ground rules are going to be if I grant a stay or if I deny a stay. And I've already denied a stay once. I have to decide this current motion, and I just want to know what is going to happen if I deny the stay in terms of Mr. Epstein's exposure under the non-prosecution agreement. That's my concern.

[redacted] if you're telling me that you're not going to urge the United States, on behalf of any of your clients, to take the position that he's breached the agreement because he's taking depositions, because he's pursuing discovery, because he's conducting investigations that anyone in any other type of civil litigation might conduct with respect to plaintiffs that are pursuing claims against a defendant, that those typical types of actions, in your judgment, are not breaches of the agreement and that he can go forward and defend the case as any other defendant could defend, and you're not going to run to the United States and say, hey, he's breaching the agreement by taking depositions and he's breaching the agreement by issuing subpoenas to third parties in order to gather information necessary to defend, then I don't have a problem. But if he's going to be accused of breaching the agreement because he sends out a notice of deposition of one of your clients, how is he supposed to defend the case?

EFTA00231637

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Your Honor, you're totally correct. He can depose my client. That's not a problem. But the problem is that these are not typical clients and this is not a typical case. He has written in his pleadings that he wants to publish the names of these girls in the newspapers [redacted] that other people may come forward to discuss their sexual activities with these different plaintiffs. That's not your typical case. But are rulings that you'll make in this case, and they're not part of the NPA.

As far as my going to the Government is concerned, I find it very uncomfortable for me to use the Government to try to pursue my financial interest in litigation. And I know that Mr. Epstein and his counsel will make much ado about it. [redacted] I am not going to be running there.

However, if they start taking depositions regarding liability, I will consider that to be a breach because they're supposed to have admitted liability.

THE COURT: But, again, I don't have the agreement and I don't remember reading the agreement. But what I'm being told is the part of the agreement that admits liability is only as to a 2255 claim, and there are numerous other personal injury tort claims other than 2255 claims.

And there's a limit of damages on the 2255 claim, as I understand it, but I presume that all the plaintiffs are going to seek more than the limited or capped amount of damages in the non-prosecution agreement as to the other claims.

And [redacted] why aren't they entitled to defend and limit the amount of damages that your client is seeking on the non-2255 tort claims?

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Your Honor, you are correct. On non-2255 tort claims, they are permitted to do the defense, whatever is appropriate.

My cases are pure 2255 on which liability under the agreement is supposed to be admitted. Now, as to the amount of damages, there are legal issues that will be before you and under the C.M.A. cases that are getting before you, as to whether it is 50 or 150. That has nothing to do with the NPA.

There are legal issues that are before you as to whether it is per statute, per count or per incident or per plaintiff. Those have nothing to do with the NPA. There is no amount in NPA. Those will be resolved.

Anyone who has brought a case that is outside of 2255, the defense is permitted to contest liability under the NPA. That's no violation.

Under the NPA if someone brought a case under just 2255, Mr. Epstein, if he is to keep his word, cannot contest liability. And there would no need to stay this. Because it is a self-fulfilling agreement. He can contest liability. And as far as the amount of damages, anyone that wants to go over the statutory minimums, of course, he can contest that in any way that is proper under the Rules of Evidence and your rulings. The NPA has no limitation on his contesting damages above the minimum statutory amount.

The only thing that he has done is in his actions of refusing to pay for settling defendants, and in his saying that he has no liability under 2255, those appear to be contrary to what's in the NPA.

But I'm not in any position right now to claim a breach, and I don't know whether I'd be claiming a breach or enforcing it in front of you, suing him for fees, asking you to have him admit liability, or complaining to the Government. And that's why I'm not that helpful in this situation because I think it's the Government's role.

But I do not waive the right to be a third-party beneficiary because pursuant to my appointment, which was agreed to by Mr. Epstein, I and my clients have certain rights, and we want to enforce them.

But his defending this lawsuit will not in any way be a violation. His getting this lawsuit stayed would be a violation of the spirit of taking care of these girls, and there would be other issues. Like if there is a stay, Your Honor, would he be posting a bond?

THE COURT: We don't need to talk about those issues. That's not my concern.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: I agree, Your Honor, we don't.

THE COURT: That's not my concern. [redacted], again, I just want to make sure that if the cases go forward and if Mr. Epstein defends the case as someone ordinarily would defend a case that's being prosecuted against him or her, that that in and of itself is not going to cause him to be subject to criminal prosecution.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: I agree, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any other plaintiff's counsel want to chime in?

MR. WILLITS: Richard Willits on behalf of C.M.A.. I would join, to weigh in on what Mr. Josefsberg said.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Your Honor, I could not hear.

THE COURT: We'll get him to a microphone. Mr. Willits is speaking.

MR. WILLITS: On behalf of my client, C.M.A., we join in what Mr. Josefsberg said, and we also want to point out something to the Court.

First, we want to make a representation to the Court, we have no intention of complaining to the U.S. Attorney's Office, never had that intention, don't have that intention in the future, but, of course, subject to what occurs in the future.

I want to point out to the Court that Mr. Epstein went into this situation with his eyes wide open, represented by counsel, knowing that civil suits had to be coming. If he didn't know it, his lawyers knew it.

He appears to be having second thoughts now about he could have negotiated this way or he could have negotiated that way with the U.S. Attorney's Office. And they want to impose their second thoughts on the innocent plaintiffs. We don't think that's fair. We think it's in the nature of invited error, if there was any error whatsoever.

Thank you.

THE COURT: You agree he should be able to take the ordinary steps that a defendant in a civil action can take and not be concerned about having to be prosecuted?

MR. WILLITS: Of course. And we say the same thing Mr. Josefsberg said. It's all subject to your rulings and the direction of this Court as to what is proper and what is not proper. And we're prepared to abide by the rulings of this Court, and we have no intention of running to the State's Attorney.

THE COURT: The U.S. Attorney?

MR. WILLITS: I'm sorry. The U.S. Attorney.

THE COURT: Mr. Garcia.

MR. GARCIA: Thank you, Your Honor.

If I may briefly, I think perhaps defense counsel forgot about this, but on pages 17 and 19 of my memorandum of law in opposition to the motion to dismiss, I did make reference to the non-prosecution agreement, and I did say that the contesting of the jurisdiction of this Court was a potential breach of the non-prosecution agreement.

[redacted] my client happens to have, and they have filed with the Court a copy of her state court complaint, given the fact that the non-prosecution agreement limits the non-contesting of jurisdiction to claims exclusively brought under the federal statute.

I'm going to go ahead and withdraw those contentions on pages 17 and 19 of my memo of law because it doesn't apply to my case. [redacted] to the extent that I raised this issue with defense counsel and the Court, I'm going to withdraw that aspect of it.

THE COURT: Can you file something in writing on that point with the Court?

MR. GARCIA: Yes.

THE COURT: What do you say about this issue that we're here on today?

MR. GARCIA: I think that the problem that I have with it is that this non-prosecution agreement is being used by defense counsel for the exact opposite purpose that it was intended. My perception of this thing, and I wasn't around, is that Mr. Epstein essentially bought his way out of a criminal prosecution, which is wonderful for the victims in a way, and wonderful for him, too.

Now he's trying to use the non-prosecution agreement as a shield against the plaintiffs that he was supposed to make restitution for.

And, certainly, he can take my client's depo. He's done extensive discovery in the state court case -- very intrusive, I might add. And we don't care, because we can win this case with the prosecution agreement or without the prosecution agreement. We are ready to go forward.

THE COURT: You're not going to assert to the United States Government that what he's doing in defending the case is a violation for which he should be further prosecuted?

MR. GARCIA: Absolutely not.

THE COURT: Anyone else for the plaintiffs?

MR. HOROWITZ: Judge, Adam Horowitz, counsel for plaintiffs Jane Doe 2 through 7.

I just wanted to address a point that I think you've articulated it. I just want to make sure it's crystal clear, which is that we can't paint a broad brush for all of the cases.

The provision relating to Mr. Epstein being unable to contest liability pertains only to those plaintiffs who have chosen as their sole remedy the federal statute. My clients, Jane Doe 2 through 7, have elected to bring additional causes of action, and it's for that reason we were silent when you said does anyone here find Mr. Epstein to be in breach of the non-prosecution agreement. That provision, as we understand it, it doesn't relate to our clients.

THE COURT: Okay. But, again, you're in agreement with everyone else [redacted] far that's spoken on behalf of a plaintiff that defending the case in the normal course of conducting discovery and filing motions would not be a breach?

MR. HOROWITZ: Subject to your rulings, of course, yes.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Anyone else have anything to say from the plaintiffs?

Ms. [redacted], if you would be [redacted] kind as to maybe help us out. I appreciate the fact that you're here, and I know you're not a party to these cases and under no obligation to respond to my inquiries. But as I indicated, it would be helpful for me to understand the Government's position.

MS. [redacted]: Thank you, Your Honor. And we, of course, are always happy to try to help the Court as much as possible. But we are not a party to any of these lawsuits, and in some ways we are at a disadvantage because we don't have access. My access is limited to what's on Pacer. [redacted] I don't really know what positions Mr. Epstein may have taken either in correspondence or in discovery responses that aren't filed in the case file.

But your first order was really just what do you think about a stay, and then the second order related to this hearing and asked a much more specific question, which is whether we believe that Mr. Epstein's defense was a breach of the agreement.

And I've tried to review as many of the pleadings as possible. As you know, they're extremely voluminous. And I haven't been through all of them. But we do believe that there has been a breach in the filing that Mr. Josefsberg referred to, and contrary to Mr. Critton, we do understand that we have an obligation to provide notice, and we are providing notice to Mr. Epstein today.

The pleading that we found to be in breach -- the non-prosecution agreement, sought to do one thing, which was to place the victims in the same position they would have been if Mr. Epstein had been convicted of the federal offenses for which he was investigated.

And that if he had been federally prosecuted and convicted, the victims would have been entitled to restitution, regardless of how long ago the crimes were committed, regardless of how old they were at the time, and how old they are today, or at the time of the conviction.

And it also would have made them eligible for damages under 2255.

And so our idea was, our hope was that we could set up a system that would allow these victims to get that restitution without having to go through what civil litigation will expose them to.

You have a number of girls who were very hesitant about even speaking to authorities about this because of the trauma that they have suffered and about the embarrassment that they were afraid would be brought upon themselves and upon their families.

[redacted] we did through the non-prosecution agreement tried to protect their rights while also protecting their privacy. [redacted], pursuant to the non-prosecution agreement -- on the other hand, we weren't trying to hand them a jackpot or a key to a bank. It was solely to sort of put them in that same position.

[redacted] we developed this language that said if -- that provided for an attorney to represent them. Most of the victims, as you know from the pleadings, come from not wealthy circumstances, may not have known any attorneys who would be in a position to help them.

[redacted] we went through the Special Master procedure that resulted in the appointment of Mr. Josefsberg, and the goal was that they would be able to try to negotiate with Mr. Epstein for a fair amount of restitution/damages. And if Mr. Epstein took the position, which apparently he has, which is that the $50,000 or $150,000 floor under 2255 also would be a cap. That if they were to proceed to file suit in Federal Court to get fair damages under 2255, Mr. Epstein would admit liability, but he, of course, could fight the damages portion, which means that, of course, he would be entitled to depositions; of course, he would be entitled to take discovery, and we don't believe that any of that violates the non-prosecution agreement.

The issue with the pleading that he filed, the motion to dismiss the case, I believe it's Jane Doe 101, represented by Mr. Josefsberg, is that that is a case that was filed exclusively under 18 U.S.C., Section 2255. She met that requirement. Mr. Epstein is moving to dismiss it, not on the basis of damages, he is saying that he cannot be held liable under 2255 because he was not convicted of an offense.

The reason why he was not convicted of an offense is because he entered into the non-prosecution agreement. [redacted] that we do believe is a breach.

The issue really that was raised in the motion to stay and that I addressed in our response to the motion to stay is that Mr. Epstein's -- Mr. Epstein wants to stay the litigation in order to leave, in order to sort of attack the cases of the victims whether they are fully within the non-prosecution or not, non-prosecution agreement or not, and leave the Government without a remedy if he does, in fact, breach those terms. And that is why we opposed the stay.

THE COURT: I'm not sure what you mean by that last statement.

MS. [redacted]: Well, because this issue related to the motion to dismiss on Mr. Josefsberg's client came up after we had filed that response. And what we said in the response to the motion to stay is that the reason why he wants to stay the litigation is [redacted] that the non-prosecution agreement terminates based on a period of time, as he puts it. And then afterwards he would be able to come in here and make all of these arguments that clearly violate the non-prosecution agreement but we would be without remedy.

THE COURT: But you're not taking the position that other than possibly doing something in litigation which is a violation of an express provision of the non-prosecution agreement, any other discovery, motion practice, investigations that someone would ordinarily do in the course of defending a civil case would constitute a violation of the agreement?

MS. [redacted]: No, Your Honor. I mean, civil litigation is civil litigation, and being able to take discovery is part of what civil litigation is about. And while there may be, for example, if someone were to try to subpoena the Government, we would obviously resist under statutory reasons, all that sort of stuff. But, no, Mr. Epstein is entitled to take the deposition of a plaintiff and to subpoena records, etc.

THE COURT: And even if he seeks discovery from a Government agency, you have the right to resist it under the rules of procedure but that would not constitute a violation, again unless there's a provision in the prosecution agreement that says I can't do this?

MS. [redacted]: Correct.

THE COURT: That's your position?

MS. [redacted]: Yes.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. [redacted]: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Critton, did you want to add anything?

MR. CRITTON: Yes, sir. Just a few responses to some of the issues that have been raised.

The most glaring, at least from our perspective, is both Mr. Josefsberg's comments that he believes that there's a violation of the NPA as well as Ms. [redacted] with regard to Jane Doe 101.

Mr. Josefsberg, while he was the attorney rep who was selected by Judge [redacted] to represent a number of individuals, alleged victims that may have been on the list, he represents many of them. And the type of response that was filed in 101 would probably be very similar to what we will file if he files -- and he filed 102 as well. But if he files 103, 104 and 105, or whatever number he files, we may well take that same legal position in our motions and in our response or in reply.

And what we've been, in essence, told today is we consider that to be a violation of the NPA under the circumstances.

EFTA00231650

102 is a perfect example that he filed is, we have e-mails going back and forth between the Government and my clients' attorneys at the time that suggested that 102 probably doesn't even fit within the statute of limitations.

[redacted] under Mr. Josefsberg's argument is as well, we've only brought a 2255 claim. We don't care whether she's within or is outside the statute of limitations. Because she was on the list and under the circumstances, he has to admit liability, which we contest is under that set of circumstances you're stuck with it. You can fight damages if you can, but she's a real person and you can't raise statute of limitations.

The other point that kind of strikes out is there's probably a difference. And I'm happy to provide a copy of the NPA or a redacted portion of the NPA which deals with the civil issues, which are paragraphs 7, 8, 9 and 10, and the entire addenda in camera for the Court to look at, if plaintiff's counsel and the Government, I guess, really, because they're not a party, is if they have no objection because they all have access based on a prior court order to the non-prosecution agreement.

[redacted] I'm happy to provide that to the Court today and show it to counsel so that the Court can review that.

But our position with regard to the 2255 claims is that -- there were two types of claims that could be filed, one was consensual litigation, the second was contested litigation.

And under the consensual, in essence, which Mr. Epstein did, is he's offered $50,000 of the statutory minimum for that time period to all of those individuals.

THE COURT: Can I interrupt you a second?

MR. CRITTON: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: I'm not here, and I don't believe it's my role to decide whether or not there is or is not a breach of the agreement. I'm just trying to understand what the Government's position is regarding your defending these cases.

Now, I'm just saying this as an example. If, for example, in the non-prosecution agreement there was a provision that said explicitly: Jeffrey Epstein shall not move to dismiss any claim brought under 2255 by any victim no matter how long ago the allegations or the acts took place, period.

If that was in the agreement and you filed a motion to dismiss by someone who brought a claim, it might sound like it might be a violation.

MR. CRITTON: I agree.

THE COURT: [redacted] you would know that when you filed your motion because it was right there for you to read.

And [redacted] to stay the case because I want to do something that the contract expressly prohibits me from doing, [redacted] stay the case until the agreement expires [redacted] then I can do something that the agreement said I couldn't do [redacted] you won't be in fear of prosecuting, I'm not sure that that is what I'm concerned about.

I'm concerned about discovery, investigation, motion practice, that's not prohibited by a provision of the agreement. If there's something that's prohibited by the agreement that you, knowing what the agreement says, go ahead and do, anyway, I guess that's a risk you're going to have to take. If there's a legitimate dispute about it, I guess some arbiter is going to decide whether it's a breach or not.

But, again, that's something you and Mr. Burman, Mr. Goldberger, and you are all very good lawyers, and he's got a whole list of lawyers representing him, and you've got the agreement and you're going to make legal decisions on how to proceed, and you're going to have to go and make your own decisions.

I'm concerned about things that aren't in the agreement, that aren't covered, that you're going to be accused of violating because, again, you take depositions, you send out subpoenas, you file motions that are not prohibited by the agreement. And that's what I'm concerned about.

MR. CRITTON: And I understand that, Your Honor.

But at the same time, it's as if the lawyers and the clients, based upon our interpretation of the agreement, and, believe me, we would not have filed 101, the motion to dismiss, but for believing that there was a good [redacted] basis to do that under the circumstances.

And now, in essence, we're being accused not only by -- not accused, but it's been suggested that there's a breach of the NPA, not only by Mr. Josefsberg on behalf of 101, but as well Ms. [redacted] on behalf of the United States.

That's the perfect example. They're basically saying we think you violated. We may send you notice under the circumstances. [redacted] does that mean that on 101 we have to back off of it because we think in good [redacted] that it's a motion and is that something that this Court ultimately will rule?

THE COURT: I don't know that I'm the one who is going to make that decision. Again, that's not the kind of thing that I was concerned about. I was more concerned about the normal, ordinary course of conducting and defending a case that would not otherwise expressly be covered under the agreement, that you're going to then have someone say, [redacted], he's sent a notice of deposition, he's harassing the plaintiffs. I don't know if there's a no contact provision in the agreement or no harassment type of provision in the agreement. [redacted], this is a breach because you sent discovery, or he's issuing subpoenas to third parties trying to find out about these victims' backgrounds, he's breaching the agreement.

Those are the kind of things that I was worried about.

MR. CRITTON: The concern that we have is as part of doing this general civil litigation, it's not just the discovery process. And I understand the issues that the Court has raised.

But part of it is that often cases are disposed of either on a summary basis or certainly legal issues that come before the Court during the course of the case, just like in a criminal case. That's clearly part of the, I'd say the defense of the case under the circumstances; and if, in fact, an individual can't legally bring a cause of action for certain reasons, such as has been suggested in 101, and may be suggested in 102 when that pleading is filed, that certainly is a position that puts my client at risk.

As another example that I use with C.M.A., that they filed this 30-count complaint. Now, they have the state court claims as well. But they, in essence, have said they filed another pleading with the Court that says depending on what the Court rules, in essence, on whether we can file multiple claims or one cause of action with multiple violations, we may dump the state court claims and, therefore, we'll just ride along on that. That's a very different --

Mr. Epstein would never have entered into, nor would his attorneys have allowed him to enter into that agreement under those circumstances where he had this unlimited liability. That clearly was never envisioned by any of the defendants -- by the defendant or any of his lawyers under the circumstances.

And if that's claimed to be a violation, either by the attorneys; i.e., he's not recapitulating on liability under the 2255, and that's all we have now. That's our exclusive remedy.

And the Government says, yeah, that's right, that's a violation of the NPA. It again chills us from moving forward, filing the necessary motion papers and taking legal positions that may put my client at risk for violating the NPA and then creating the irreparable harm of, after having been in jail, after having pled guilty to the state court counts, after registering on release as a sex offender, he's complied and done everything, taken extraordinary efforts to comply with the NPA, puts him at substantial risk. And that's what our worry is moving forward.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Your Honor, may I be heard. May I make three comments? It will take less than a minute.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Mr. Critton refers to the alleged victims. I want you to know that our position is that pursuant to the NPA they're not alleged victims. They are actual, real victims, admitted victims.

Secondly, he argues about the statute of limitations on 102. I know that you don't want to hear about that, and I'm not going to comment about it. But please don't take our lack of argument about this as being we agree with anything.

Last and most important, we totally agree with Mr. Critton in his suggestion that he hand you a copy of the

EFTA00231656

NPA. I think that many of the questions you asked will be answered when you read the NPA, and I think it's very unfair of everyone who is sitting in front of you who have the NPA to be discussing with you whether it's being breached, whether there should be a stay when you're not that familiar with it.

If we would give you a copy of it, I think it would be much more helpful in making your ruling.

THE COURT: Maybe Judge Colvat will resolve this issue for me.

MR. JOSEFSBERG: Even if he doesn't, Your Honor, I believe we are allowed to show it to you.

THE COURT: I'll tell you what: I'll wait for Judge Colvat to rule, and then if he rules that it should remain sealed, then I'll consider whether or not I want to have it submitted to me in camera.

Anything else, Mr. Josefsberg?

MR. JOSEFSBERG: No. I thank you on behalf of myself and the other counsel on the phone for permitting us to appear by phone.

THE COURT: All right. Anyone else have anything they want to add?

MR. EDWARDS: Brad Edwards on behalf of Jane Doe.

I only had one issue here, and when I read your motion that you wanted to hear on the narrow issue of just defense in the civil actions filed against him violates the non-prosecution agreement, I was expecting that we were going to hear something from the Government similar to the affidavit that was filed by Mr. Epstein's attorneys wherein he indicates as of the day of this affidavit attached to the motion to stay, the U.S. Attorney's Office has taken the position that Epstein has breached the non-prosecution agreement and it names specifically investigation by Epstein of this plaintiff and other plaintiffs, Epstein's contesting damages in this action. Epstein, or his legal representatives, making statements to the press. And we didn't hear any of those things.

So that's what I was expecting that the U.S. Attorney's Office was going to expound on and say, yes, we've made some communications to Epstein. He's violating.

What we're hearing right now, today, just so that I'm clear, and I think the Court is clear now, is that the non-prosecution agreement is what it is. There have been no violations, but for maybe what Mr. Josefsberg brought up.

But there are very few restrictions on Mr. Epstein. He went into this eyes wide open. And whether or not I agree with the agreement, how it came to be in the first place, is neither here nor there.

But there have been no violations or breaches up to this point. And his affidavit that was filed, I'm just troubled by where it even came from. I mean, it's making specific allegations that the U.S. Attorney's Office is threatening a breach, and this is part of the motion to stay, which we're all battling here.

So I just wanted to indicate to the Court or remind the Court that there have been specific allegations made, the United States Attorney's Office is making these allegations of breach, which we haven't heard any of the evidence of.

Thank you.

THE COURT: All right.

Ms. [redacted], did you want to respond to that suggestion that there were other allegations of breach besides the one that you've just mentioned today?

MS. [redacted]: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. I appreciate your giving me the information, which I think has been very helpful today, and I'll try and get an order out as soon as possible.

[Court adjourned at 11:10 a.m.].

Re: Request for Investigation of Jeffrey Epstein Prosecution

Dear Mr. Ferrer:

I am writing as someone with extensive experience in the federal criminal justice system – as a former Associate Deputy Attorney General, Assistant United States Attorney, federal judge, and currently criminal law professor – to alert you to what seems to be the most suspicious criminal case I have ever encountered. I ask that you investigate whether there were improper influences and actions during your office's criminal investigation of Jeffrey Epstein, particularly regarding the decision to enter into a binding non-prosecution agreement blocking his prosecution for numerous federal sex offenses he committed over many years against more than thirty minor girls.

As I am sure you are well aware, in 2006 your office opened a criminal investigation with the FBI into allegations that for years Jeffrey Epstein sexual abused dozens of minor girls in his West Palm Beach mansion. The FBI soon developed compelling evidence that Epstein had in fact committed numerous federal sex offenses with more than 30 minor girls. And yet, your office ultimately entered into a plea arrangement which allowed Epstein escape with a non-prosecution agreement that ensured he would have no federal criminal liability and would spend no more than 18 months in state jail. For sexual offenses of this magnitude – in a case with more than 30 witnesses providing interlocking testimony, all made automatically admissible by virtue of Fed. R. Evid. 414 – this is an extraordinary outcome.

Why did your office enter into this highly unusual non-prosecution arrangement with Epstein? Suspicion begins with the point that Epstein is a politically-connected billionaire. But that wouldn't be troubling without considerable other evidence that something went terribly wrong with the prosecution for other, improper reasons. Consider the following highly unusual facts:

First, it appears that Epstein was tipped off before the execution of a search warrant at his home. We know that lead state police officers -- Detective [redacted] and Police Chief Michael [redacted] -- complained that the house was "sanitized" by the time they arrived to serve a search warrant for child pornography. This sanitation was evident by the various computer wires hanging with no computers attached. Housekeeper Janusz Banasiak later testified in a civil deposition that Epstein's assistant, [redacted] [redacted] ([redacted]) and another man (unknown) were instructed to remove, and did in fact remove, multiple computers from Epstein's home shortly before the search warrant was served. The fact that there could well have been a tip off is apparently suspected by federal authorities.

Second, there is evidence that one of the senior prosecutors in your office joined Epstein's payroll shortly after important decisions were made limiting Epstein's criminal liability – and improperly represented people close to Epstein. During the federal investigation of Epstein, Bruce Reinhart was a senior Assistant U.S. Attorney in your office. As we understand things, he was a direct supervisor of the line prosecutor handling the case and thus was well aware of details of the Epstein investigation and plea negotiations. We further believe that he was consulted on issues related to the prosecution of Epstein and Epstein's co-conspirators, including specifically issues related to whether Epstein employees and pilots should be prosecuted for their involvement in Epstein's sexual offense. We further believe that he personally and substantially participated in making such decisions about the course of the criminal investigation.

Within months after the non-prosecution agreement was signed by your office, Reinhart left your office and immediately went into private practice as a white collar criminal defense attorney. His office coincidentally happened to be not only in the same building (and on same floor) as Epstein's lead criminal defense counsel, Jack Goldberger, but it was actually located right next door to the Florida Science Foundation -- an Epstein-owned and -run company where Epstein spent his "work release."

While working in this office adjacent to Epstein's, Reinhart undertook the representation of numerous Epstein employees and pilots during the civil cases filed against Epstein by the victims – cases that involved the exact same crimes and exact same evidence being reviewed by the U.S. Attorney's office when he was employed there. Specifically, he represented [redacted] Kellen (Epstein's number one co-conspirator who was actually named as such in the NPA), his housekeeper (Louella Ruboyo), his pilots Larry Morrison, Larry Visoski, David Rogers, William Hammond and Robert Roxburgh. (Hammond and Roxburgh were not deposed but the others were.) Our understanding is that his representation of these individuals was paid for, directly or indirectly, by Epstein.

Reinhart was well aware of what evidence your office and federal investigator had collected against Epstein and about the minor girls who were his victims. As a consequence, he knew what evidence the attorneys for the victims were using. He also knew what each of those witnesses had said, if anything, to federal and state investigators during the criminal investigation.

We have been unable to place our fingers on the federal regulations governing such later representation. We do know, however, that such actions appear to be in direct contravention of the Florida ethical rules regarding attorneys who leave government employment. For example, Florida R. Prof. Conduct 4-1.11(a) provides "[a] lawyer shall not represent a private client in connection with a matter in which the lawyer participated personally and substantially as a public officer or employee unless the appropriate government agency consents after consultation." Similarly, Florida R. Prof. Conduct 4-1.11(b) provides that "[a] lawyer having information that the lawyer knows is confidential government information about a person acquired when the lawyer was a public officer or employee may not represent a private client whose interests are adverse to that person in a matter in which the information could be used to the material disadvantage of that person." Both these rules appear to have been violated. But entirely apart from the details of ethical rules, the fact that one of your prosecutors was involved in making important decisions about the scope of criminal liability for Epstein and his associates and then – after criminal liability was significantly limited – representing numerous people at Epstein's behalf raises serious questions. At the very least, there is the strong appearance that Reinhard may have attempted to curry favor with Epstein and then reap his reward through favorable employment. At the very worst, there may have been advance discussions – we simply don't know at this point.

Third, Epstein appears to have deliberately kept from victims in the case correspondence with your office and the Justice Department that might have shed light on improper influences. Along with other capable attorneys, I was involved in representing one of Epstein's victims ([redacted]) who filed a federal civil case against Epstein. Suspecting that Epstein may have improperly influenced your office, we immediately served discovery requests on Epstein for all the correspondence with your office regarding the plea negotiations. Eleven months of hard litigation ensued, in which Epstein made every conceivable argument against production. Finally, late in June of this year, his appeals exhausted, Epstein produced the correspondence to us. However, in violation of the court order, he redacted the correspondence so that he provided only emails and other statements from your office – not his emails and statements to your office. More significantly, even though he was under court order to produce all correspondence between his attorneys and your office, Epstein secretly withheld correspondence by several of his most high-powered attorneys – namely Ken Starr and Lilly Ann Sanchez. Epstein settled the case with [redacted] within days after this limited production, and we did not realize the absence of what must have been critical discussions between your office and Starr and Snachez (among others). Epstein's refusal to allow us to see that information raises the suspicion in our minds that there must have been unusual pressures being brought to bear during the plea discussions that would have been revealed had Epstein complied with his production obligations.

Fourth, there appears to have been an unprecedented level of secrecy between your office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation during this case. The FBI was responsible, along with state and local police agencies, for building the case against Epstein. They appear to have developed an overwhelming criminal against him. And yet, when your office signed the non-prosecution agreement with him, it is not clear to us that the FBI was consulted about this decision. Indeed, we have suspicions that the FBI was not informed of this decision until, perhaps, months later.

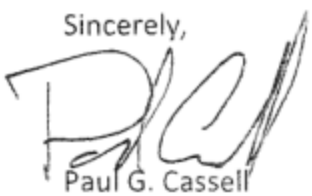
Supporting this suspicion is our on-going litigation regarding the treatment of the victims in this case. As you know from our draft pleadings that we have discussed with your office, we believe there is compelling evidence that the victims and their attorneys were deceived about the existence of a non-prosecution agreement for months in order to avoid what certainly would have been a firestorm of controversy about such lenient treatment of a repeat sex offender. Our impression from the evidence we have been able to obtain so far is that the FBI was similarly kept in the dark – not consulted about or even told about the NPA. While a certain amount of tension has always existed between federal prosecuting and investigating agencies, not even informing the FBI about the Epstein NPA seems highly unusual.

All of these strange facts -- as well as the facts that we are alleging in our crime victims' litigation – lead us to think that there was something rotten with the way this case was handled. Epstein could have faced years and years in prison for numerous federal sex offenses. And yet he managed to contrive to walk away with no federal time at all (and only minimal state time). We respectfully ask you to investigate through appropriate and independent channels the handling of the Epstein (non)prosecution.

Thank you in advance for considering this request. I would be happy to provide any other additional information that would be useful to you.

Sincerely,



Paul G. Cassell

Re: Jeffrey Epstein/[redacted], Shawna Rivera, and [redacted]: Notification of Work Release

Dear Mr. Edwards:

By virtue of this letter, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida asks that you provide the following notice to your clients, [redacted], Shawna Rivera, and [redacted]. The U.S. Attorney's Office has learned that Jeffrey Epstein has applied to participate in the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office's ("PBSO") work release program, and PBSO has granted that application. Mr. Epstein is reportedly working for The Florida Science Foundation at 250 South Australian Avenue, Suite 1404, West Palm Beach, FL 33401. After work each day, Mr. Epstein returns to the Palm Beach County Stockade. While outside the Stockade, Mr. Epstein is electronically monitored via a GPS system and an ankle bracelet. Pursuant to the work release rules, Mr. Epstein is to go directly from the Stockade to his office, remain at the office throughout the work day, and then return directly to the Stockade.

We regret that we were unable to inform your client of these developments prior to Mr. Epstein's release, but our Office was never notified of Mr. Epstein's application, and we only learned of his release more than six weeks after he began participating in the program. Should you or your client have any questions regarding the work release program, please direct your inquiries to Captain David [redacted], Palm Beach Sheriff's Office, 561-688-3595.

Sincerely,

R. Alexander Acosta

Re: Work Release Application of Jeffrey Epstein

Dear Captain [redacted]:

The U.S. Attorney's Office recently learned that Inmate Jeffrey Epstein applied for and was approved for participation in the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office's ("PBSO") work release program. Through a request for public records, I have received a copy of Mr. Epstein's work release file. After doing some internet research of public records and making a few telephone calls, I discovered some inaccuracies and omissions in Mr. Epstein's file that I wanted to bring to your attention. During a recent meeting, Roy Black, one of Mr. Epstein's attorneys, invited us to share our concerns with PBSO.

Eligibility for Participation

I understand that Mr. Epstein would be ineligible for participation in the work release program if he committed three violations of F.S.S. 796 within the past five years. Mr. Epstein has been charged with and convicted of a felony violation of F.S.S. 796.07. In order to be convicted of a felony violation of that statute, one must commit "a third or subsequent violation." In other words, Mr. Epstein has committed at least three violations of Section 796.07, and in his "Alternative Custody Program Placement Synopsis," Mr. Epstein's charges are described as "Recommit: Prostitution."

In addition to those three violations, Mr. Epstein also has been convicted of violating F.S.S. 796.03, procuring a person under the age of 18 for prostitution. Throughout his paperwork, this violation is referred to simply as "prostitution." The charge is not a solicitation of prostitution charge, it is a procurement of a minor to engage in prostitution. Florida courts have defined the offense as "inducing a victim to engage in sexual activity" for money and "persuading, inducing, or prevailing upon a person to do something sexual" for financial gain. In other words, the statute addresses the recruiting of minors who have not previously been involved in prostitution to engage in sexual activity for commercial gain to a recruiter or "pimp"/"madame." The Florida Legislature has acknowledged the significant difference between solicitation under F.S.S. 796.07 and procurement of minors under F.S.S. 796.03 by requiring persons convicted of violating F.S.S. 796.03 to register as sex offenders. The distinction may be meaningful to the victims of Mr. Epstein's offenses, who could feel that they are being stigmatized as "prostitutes."

Inaccuracies and Omission in Work Release Application and Related Documents

Throughout the records related to Mr. Epstein's work release placement, he is alternatively referred to as working for "The Florida Science Foundation" or "self-employed," and Mr. Epstein lists his salary as $250,000. Mr. Epstein describes himself as "returning to work" and "eligible for re-employment" at The Florida Science Foundation. Please be advised that the only W-2 that Mr. Epstein provided is from Financial Trust Company, Inc., which shows that Mr. Epstein was employed in the U.S. Virgin Islands at a salary of $180,785.62, not $250,000.

Mr. Epstein provided to you no documentation regarding his pre-incarceration employment with "The Florida Science Foundation" or its corporate alter-ego, "The C.O.U.Q. Foundation, Inc." As you will see, the Foundation, its offices, and Mr. Epstein's purported job schedule were all created on the eve of Mr. Epstein's incarceration in order to provide him with a basis for seeking work release.

The Florida Science Foundation was not registered with the State of Florida and had no office space or telephone number until after Mr. Epstein was already incarcerated. The application filed with the State of Florida and signed under penalty of perjury by Richard Kahn lists Mr. Kahn's and the Foundation's telephone number as "[redacted]." That is the telephone number of Atterbury, Goldberger and Weiss–one of the law firms representing Mr. Epstein. Richard Kahn is a partner at the law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell in New York and has no association with the Atterbury firm.

Checking public records available on the internet, I located the IRS returns of "The C.O.U.Q. Foundation, Inc." for fiscal years 1999 through 2006 (which covers the period through 2/28/07).[1] These sworn filings show that Mr. Epstein worked for the Foundation for only one hour per week and earned no compensation. (See page 6 of each return.) All of these returns were signed under penalty of perjury by either Mr. Epstein or Darren Indyke, who is listed in Mr. Epstein's work release file as Mr. Epstein's "supervisor." Mr. Epstein's representations concerning his prior work duties and salary may violate the salary and employment verification requirements of C.O.P. #926.01(V)(C)(7) and (8).

In response to your requirement of "a detailed work schedule," Mr. Indyke has provided the following two sentences:

> [Mr. Epstein's] duties will require him to work six days a week, Monday through Saturday, at the Foundation's office located at 250 S. Australian Avenue, Suite 1404, West Palm Beach, Florida from the hours of 8:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M.
>
> As President of the Foundation, Mr. Epstein will be responsible for the general oversight and management of the Foundation, and particularly, to seek out, evaluate and determine worthy charitable causes to which the Foundation may make contributions.

Mr. Indyke did not disclose that Mr. Epstein only worked one hour per week prior to his incarceration and has provided no explanation of why Mr. Epstein could perform these duties in one hour per week before he was incarcerated but now needs to spend 72 hours each week to do the same job. Again, this appears to be inconsistent with C.O.P. #926.01([redacted])(C)(7).

Mr. Indyke has signed the "Alternative Custody Unit Program Agreement" as Mr. Epstein's "employer." In that Agreement, Mr. Indyke promises to "notify the Alternative Custody Unit immediately if the Participant: (1) Fails to appear for work at the scheduled time; and (2) Leaves the place of employment prior to the scheduled time." Both in this form and in Mr. Indyke's letter in support of Mr. Epstein's application, Mr. Indyke neglects to inform the Sheriff's Office of two significant facts. First, Mr. Indyke lives and works in the New York metropolitan area. He likely will not be present at Mr. Epstein's workplace, so he may not know if Mr. Epstein "fails to appear for work" or "leaves the place of employment." In that event, Mr. Indyke also will not be able to supervise Mr. Epstein's actual work to determine whether he is truly doing the work of The Florida Science Foundation.[2] Second, Mr. Indyke does not "employ" Mr. Epstein. Instead, Mr. Epstein "employs" Mr. Indyke. Mr. Epstein is the President and founder of The Florida Science Foundation and Mr. Indyke is its Vice President. More importantly, Mr. Epstein is also the founder and President of the Financial Trust Company, his for-profit corporation. Mr. Indyke is Mr. Epstein's subordinate at that entity as well.

One of Mr. Epstein's attorneys has suggested that Mr. Epstein is using his time on work release to manage investments resulting in investment income of millions of dollars. If that is true, then Mr. Epstein is acting outside of the scope of his employment with The Florida Science Foundation. Instead, that would be in keeping with Mr. Epstein's work for his for-profit corporation, which would inure to the benefit of Mr. Indyke. Because that work would result in a financial benefit to him, and because he is Mr. Epstein's subordinate at that corporation, Mr. Indyke may be reluctant to inform the Sheriff's Office of this violation of the terms of Mr. Epstein's Work Release contract.

The "references" listed by Mr. Epstein all appear to have the same conflict of interest. Mr. Epstein did not list any past or present co-workers, supervisors, or clients. Instead, he has listed four attorneys who are currently retained–and paid–by Mr. Epstein. Their attorney-client privilege obligations might further restrain them from notifying the Sheriff's Office if Mr. Epstein was not abiding by the work release rules.

As I previously mentioned to Colonel Gauger, the decision regarding work release is completely within the discretion of the Sheriff's Office. The purpose of this letter is simply to provide you with information concerning Mr. Epstein's offenses and his work situation. Judge Pucillo, who conducted the change of plea and sentencing, heard the factual proffer and imposed Mr. Epstein's sentence. She has not been consulted regarding Mr. Epstein's application for work release. I understand that Judge McSorley's standing order states that she "takes no position with respect to the eligibility of any inmate sentenced in this Division unless specifically stated at time of sentencing." Because of her absence, Judge McSorley did not conduct the sentencing and, therefore, did not have the opportunity to weigh any objections to work release at that hearing. It is unclear whether Judge Pucillo was aware of Judge McSorley's standing order when she imposed sentence. In utilizing your discretion, you may or may not choose to consult with the appropriate judge on this matter.

[2]On the application for registration of the Florida Science Foundation with Florida's Department of State, Mr. Indyke lists his true address in Livingston, New Jersey.

Request for Notification

As I had previously asked of Colonel Gauger, I would appreciate if you would keep me informed of any changes to Mr. Epstein's release status so that I may fulfill my obligations to keep the victims identified through the federal investigation informed of Mr. Epstein's status. I have informed all of the known victims of Mr. Epstein of the change in his incarceration status and that you are the contact person if they have any questions. Some may ask that their locations be amongst the "Exclusionary Zones" programmed into Mr. Epstein's GPS unit. If you need their addresses, please let me know.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Custody Unit immediately if the Participant: (1) Fails to appear for work at the scheduled time; and (2) Leaves the place of employment prior to the scheduled time." Both in this form and in Mr. Indyke's letter in support of Mr. Epstein's application, Mr. Indyke neglects to inform the Sheriff's Office of two significant facts. First, Mr. Indyke lives and works in the New York metropolitan area. He likely will not be present at Mr. Epstein's workplace, so he may not know if Mr. Epstein "fails to appear for work" or "leaves the place of employment." In that event, Mr. Indyke also will not be able to supervise Mr. Epstein's actual work to determine whether he is truly doing the work of The Florida Science Foundation.[2] Second, Mr. Indyke does not "employ" Mr. Epstein. Instead, Mr. Epstein "employs" Mr. Indyke. Mr. Epstein is the President and founder of The Florida Science Foundation and Mr. Indyke is its Vice President. More importantly, Mr. Epstein is also the founder and President of the Financial Trust Company, his for-profit corporation. Mr. Indyke is Mr. Epstein's subordinate at that entity as well.

One of Mr. Epstein's attorneys has suggested that Mr. Epstein is using his time on work release to manage investments resulting in investment income of millions of dollars. If that is true, then Mr. Epstein is acting outside of the scope of his employment with The Florida Science Foundation. Instead, that would be in keeping with Mr. Epstein's work for his for-profit corporation, which would inure to the benefit of Mr. Indyke. Because that work would result in a financial benefit to him, and because he is Mr. Epstein's subordinate at that corporation, Mr. Indyke may be reluctant to inform the Sheriff's Office of this violation of the terms of Mr. Epstein's Work Release contract.

The "references" listed by Mr. Epstein all appear to have the same conflict of interest. Mr. Epstein did not list any past or present co-workers, supervisors, or clients. Instead, he has listed four attorneys who are currently retained–and paid–by Mr. Epstein. Their attorney-client privilege obligations might further restrain them from notifying the Sheriff's Office if Mr. Epstein was not abiding by the work release rules.

As I previously mentioned to Colonel Gauger, the decision regarding work release is completely within the discretion of the Sheriff's Office. The purpose of this letter is simply to provide you with information concerning Mr. Epstein's offenses and his work situation. Judge Pucillo, who conducted the change of plea and sentencing, heard the factual proffer and imposed Mr. Epstein's sentence. She has not been consulted regarding Mr. Epstein's application for work release. I understand that Judge McSorley's standing order states that she "takes no position with respect to the eligibility of any inmate sentenced in this Division unless specifically stated at time of sentencing." Because of her absence, Judge McSorley did not conduct the sentencing and, therefore, did not have the opportunity to weigh any objections to work release at that hearing. It is unclear whether Judge Pucillo was aware of Judge McSorley's standing order when she imposed sentence. In utilizing your discretion, you may or may not choose to consult with the appropriate judge on this matter.

Request for Notification

As I had previously asked of Colonel Gauger, I would appreciate if you would keep me informed of any changes to Mr. Epstein's release status so that I may fulfill my obligations to keep the victims identified through the federal investigation informed of Mr. Epstein's status. I have informed all of the known victims of Mr. Epstein of the change in his incarceration status and that you are the contact person if they have any questions. Some may ask that their locations be amongst the "Exclusionary Zones" programmed into Mr. Epstein's GPS unit. If you need their addresses, please let me know.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

R. Alexander Acosta

Original Report LO Reported By: [redacted] D. 9/20/05
Entered By.: [redacted] D. 9/20/05

On 03/14/2005, I received a call from a woman who did not wish to identify herself (later identified as [redacted]). She stated that her fourteen year old step daughter (later identified as [redacted]) possibly may have been molested in Palm Beach by a wealthy man. According to [redacted], she learned of the possible molestation by a third party. She explained that she had received a call from the mother of her stepdaughter's friend. The mother claimed to have overheard a conversation between her daughter and a male friend; they were talking about [redacted]. The conversation was about how [redacted] had met with a 45-year-old man and had sex with him and was paid for it. I advised [redacted] that I would like to meet with her to obtain a more detailed statement and facts. [redacted] stated she did not know what to do and had to discuss the matter with her husband. At this point [redacted] did not provide me with a call back number or any other information. She stated that she would contact me once she had spoken with her husband and [redacted] mother.

On 03/14/2005 received a call from Mr. & Mrs. [redacted]. They stated it was all right to speak to their daughter [redacted] via cell phone [redacted]. Her mother [redacted] had been made aware of the case. They agreed to meet me at the police department later this date. [redacted].

On 03/14/2005, Mr. [redacted] accompanied by his wife [redacted] came to the Palm Beach Police Department where they advised me that they believed their fourteen year old daughter may have had some type of sexual relationship with an older male who resided in Palm Beach. Neither knew the suspect's name or address. Both stated that their daughter did not talk to them about the incident, nor would she admit to it.

her sister [redacted] resides with Mr. [redacted]. Both [redacted] and [redacted] are currently attending High Ridge vocational school, which is an involuntary admitted juvenile educational facility. [redacted] stays at the facility during the week and comes home on the weekend. According to [redacted], she was admitted to the school because of disciplinary problems that recently escalated. The facility also coordinates with the families to provide one on one as well as family counseling.

According to Mrs. [redacted], she believes the incident occurred on Sunday, Feb 6, 2005. A friend of [redacted]'s, named Haley picked her up at their house and left. They believe [redacted] initiated the relationship with the older gentleman, though they do not have any proof. [redacted] lives close by with her mother. Mrs. [redacted] further explained that [redacted] was introduced to [redacted] by [redacted], a boy she was dating (goes to [redacted], plays baseball). Mrs. [redacted] continued that on Sunday, [redacted] picked up [redacted], and drove to Palm Beach where they met the man. Supposedly, the man has a lot of money and often has young girls come over to his house. [redacted] offers these girls a way to make fast cash. The man starts with a massage. If he likes them, he keeps them around and does more. The [redacted] did not have any information on [redacted] other than she lives on [redacted], [redacted]).

Mrs. [redacted] talked of a conversation that she had with [redacted], the mother of [redacted] [redacted], a former friend of [redacted]. She found it strange that they were no longer friends until she received the call from her mother telling her of the conversation she overheard between [redacted] and a boy named Zach.

Mrs. [redacted] told me of an incident that occurred on 02/09/2005. [redacted] got into a fight at school (Royal Palm HS). Mrs. Brown Assistant Principal, found over $300.00 in [redacted] s purse. Sage gave different explanations for the large sum of money. Initially the school administration thought it was drug related but then dismissed the claim. Since that day, [redacted] did not return to school; she ran away Thursday, 02/10th or Friday 02/11 and returned to her mother's house later that night after midnight. It was not until after [redacted] received the call from [redacted] mother, [redacted] [redacted], [redacted], that she learned [redacted] was the girl that got into the fight with [redacted]. The fight was instigated when [redacted] accused [redacted] of being a prostitute.

[redacted], who has legal joint custody of his daughter [redacted], signed the affidavit of prosecution indicating he wished to prosecute against the inappropriate sexual behavior with his fourteen-year-old daughter.

Mr. [redacted] stated that he had no objections with our agency speaking with his daughter [redacted] about the incident. Mr. [redacted] stated that [redacted] mother [redacted] is aware of the allegations and also was willing to cooperate. According to Mrs. [redacted], she does not believe her daughter had any additional contact with the suspect as she was with her mother and then placed into High Ridge.

I contacted the School Board Police who provided me the information for Sable Palm, also known as High Ridge Family Center [redacted]. 4200 N Australian Avenue, West Palm Beach, Florida. Checking the school board records for [redacted] and [redacted], there was no disciplinary record found. I was advised if no disciplinary action was taken for a fight, such as an expulsion or detention, the incident may not have been recorded. This was at the discretion of the individual school security and principal.

03/15/2005, I called the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office and left a message for PBSP Sgt. [redacted], Child Abuse Unit.

On 03/15/2005, I went to High Ridge/Sable Palm where I met with white female [redacted]. Also present was [redacted], [redacted] therapist. During an audiotaped interview, I spoke with [redacted] about the allegations that were made. [redacted] initially denied anything had happened, only admitting to going with [redacted] (later identified as [redacted]) to Palm Beach to pick up money [redacted] was owed. [redacted] identified [redacted] as the cousin of her former boyfriend [redacted]. She ultimately admitted to knowing that [redacted] worked for a wealthy man and possibly did sexual favors for him. She also admitted that [redacted] had offered her an opportunity to make money.

[redacted] identified [redacted] boss as a white male named "Jeff" who lived in Palm Beach (later positively identified as Jeffrey Epstein). [redacted] explained that she was first approached by [redacted] to go with her to [redacted] house, when they were at [redacted] house. According to [redacted], she was not sure exactly what was going on with [redacted] but agreed to go with her. [redacted] ([redacted] boyfriend) became angry when he heard [redacted] inviting [redacted] to accompany her. [redacted] believed it was to pick up money the man owed [redacted]. [redacted] stated [redacted] told her that she would pick her up at her house on Sunday. [redacted] was not sure of the exact dates but knew it was a Sunday. According to [redacted], [redacted] along with an unknown, possibly Hispanic female, picked her up at her father's house on [redacted]. [redacted] told her father that they were going shopping. It was later confirmed by [redacted] that [redacted] picked his daughter up. According to Mr. [redacted], [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] drove [redacted] along with the unknown female to Palm Beach. Sometime on the way there, a conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereby [redacted] told [redacted] that if Jeff asked her ([redacted]) age, she should say she was eighteen.

[redacted] recalled that [redacted]'s house was on a dead end street. All three girls walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. In fact, [redacted] recalled a male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see [redacted]. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house.

[redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly after, Epstein and a woman, described as white with blond hair entered the kitchen. [redacted] believed the woman was Epstein's Assistant. [redacted] added that the woman did not seem friendly and kept her responses short and direct. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted] as [redacted] . [redacted] got the impression that Epstein and [redacted] friend knew each other. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, a long face, and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] and [redacted] friend alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. While speaking to me, [redacted] became upset and started to cry. [redacted] stated the woman instructed her to follow her upstairs, which she did. According to [redacted], the woman led her to a room that had a massage table in it. The woman started to fix up the room, putting the covers on the table and taking lotions out. She then told [redacted] that Epstein would be up in a second. The woman left the room, and soon after, Epstein walked in and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. As [redacted] was telling me what had happened, she looked away from me, and with a pointed finger, repeatedly pressed it into her thigh. [redacted] stated he was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there. [redacted] took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein, dressed in a towel told her to take off everything. [redacted] stated she removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. Epstein laid on the table, face down. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back. [redacted] stated [redacted]. As [redacted] was giving Epstein the massage, he turned around, and wacked off ([redacted] later explained that wacking off was masturbating). [redacted] stated she was disgusted by Epstein's actions but did not say anything. According to [redacted], Epstein told her that she "had a really hot body." Epstein excused himself and went to the bathroom where she believed he masturbated again. Epstein returned to the room and told [redacted] that he was done and gave her three hundred dollars. They went back down stairs where they met [redacted]. Epstein said good-bye and they left. [redacted] asked [redacted] how did it go and asked what did she ([redacted]) do. When [redacted] told [redacted] that Epstein asked for a massage, [redacted] allegedly stated "I know." [redacted] stated they then went shopping. [redacted] stated [redacted] also got paid, but that she did not know why since she was confident that [redacted] did not do anything.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. There were gates leading into the property. From the kitchen, [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right. [redacted] recalled a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf.

[redacted] stated Epstein did not change in front of her but did take off his towel, exposing himself. [redacted] recalled Epstein being hairy especially on his chest. Epstein also had a hairline that continued to his buttocks. [redacted] admitted to seeing his penis. I asked [redacted] if she knew what being circumcised meant and she stated no. [redacted] then said that she thought Epstein was on steroids because he was a "really built guy and his wee wee was very tiny." [redacted] would explain that when she stated "wee wee" she meant penis. [redacted] stated Epstein exposed himself when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table.

[redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage, telling her to go clockwise, etc. [redacted] recalled that Epstein got up from the table and went to the bathroom where she heard him making, what she believed to be sexual type of noises. (moaning) He then returned to the room where he again laid down on the table. Epstein then turned over and instructed [redacted] to massage his boobs. [redacted], Epstein continued to make moaning noises.

[redacted] resumed massaging his chest area. [redacted] was now standing on the ground. Epstein turned to his side, and with the towel on the ground started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. [redacted] stated Epstein held on to the small of her back as she massaged his chest, back and shoulder area. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. [redacted] also recalled Epstein having a noticeable freckle on his chest.

Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met [redacted] and the unknown white female. [redacted] admitted to getting paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before they left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As they were leaving the house, [redacted] asked [redacted] what had happened and how much she was paid. [redacted] stated [redacted] seemed upset or jealous when she told her that she received three hundred dollars. [redacted] stated received only two hundred dollars that day. [redacted] stated that she believed [redacted] was paid two hundred dollars for bringing her.

[redacted] told [redacted] that if they do this every Saturday, they could be rich; [redacted] agreed. They then went shopping, though she is not sure where. Possibly at TJ Maxx or [redacted] [redacted] stated she never saw [redacted] again as she got into a fight at school. She had not spoken with [redacted] either as her mother took away her cell phone.

I asked [redacted] if she was aware of any video equipment while she was in the room. She stated no.

[redacted] stated she was afraid that [redacted] would retaliate against her or her family if she ever went to the police regarding the incident. [redacted] stated that her father's vehicle was recently vandalized. [redacted] admitted to telling [redacted] what had happened with Epstein. According to [redacted], [redacted] became angry and upset, punching a hole in the wall. [redacted] guessed that it was [redacted] who told [redacted] about the incident, and now there were rumors in school about [redacted] and what she did with Epstein.

I then talked to [redacted] about truth and lying. We talked about the color sweater she was wearing. [redacted] denied having sexual intercourse with Epstein. She denied touching his penis. [redacted] again admitted to observing Epstein masturbate.

[redacted] agreed to cooperating with the police department in placing a phone call to [redacted] in a controlled setting. I met with Ms. Back and advised her of the families' as well as [redacted] willingness to cooperate with this investigation. Copies of this interview were placed into evidence.

I made contact with [redacted], mother of [redacted], I advised her briefly of my investigation. She was aware of the incident and stated that she overheard a portion of a conversation that her daughter was having with a boy named [redacted]. [redacted] stated that it was her opinion that both girls liked [redacted]. [redacted] recalled hearing her daughter calling [redacted] a whore. [redacted] admitted that she did not listen to the entire conversation but did confront her daughter about it later. [redacted] told her mother that something to the effect that [redacted] had slept with an older man for money. [redacted] stated that she would not object to me speaking with her daughter. It was [redacted] s belief that everyone in the school may have known about this because of the fight that her daughter [redacted] and [redacted] had gotten into. I reminded [redacted] that this was an ongoing investigation and requested she not discuss the fact that I had contacted her. She agreed.

On 03/16/2005, PBSO Sgt. [redacted] left a message that he was returning my call. I spoke with [redacted] and discussed the case with him and inquired if he had any open allegations or cases where the suspect resided in Palm Beach. [redacted] stated he was unaware of any. [redacted] offered any assistance if needed. [redacted] stated it was his experience that due to the age of the parties involved, it would be difficult to interview them and expect the investigation to remain confidential.

Because of the time delay, there was no need for the victim to be taken to a medical facility for a physical for the purpose of obtaining evidence. There was also no need to take her to CPT as she was already in a juvenile facility, with an assigned therapist, in which coordinating a day and time to obtain a statement could be made.

On 03/17/2005, I queried Jeffery Epstein on the internet and obtained

a photo of Epstein to be used in a photo line up. I met with [redacted] at which time she viewed the photo line up. She immediately recognized Epstein and pointed to him (Position #5). [redacted] signed the photo line up under Epstein's picture. This signed line up was placed into evidence.

On 03/18/2005, I met with [redacted] at her residence for the purpose of placing a controlled call to [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] and asked if she could arrange another meeting with Jeff. [redacted] stated that she would have to call him and make the arrangements. A copy of this conversation was placed into evidence.

03/19/2005, I spoke with [redacted] and [redacted] and was advised that [redacted] left the state to visit with her aunt and uncle. [redacted] is scheduled to return to Florida on 03/27/2005

03/21/2005, I coordinated with PB BSF Unit and OCVAN to initiate surveillance on 358 El Brillo.

03/21/2005, Coordinated with Det. [redacted] regarding trash pulls from 358 El Brillo. On this same date I called [redacted] to schedule an appointment to speak with [redacted]. She stated the school guidance counselor was reluctant to have police presence at the school. I assured her that I would respond to the school in civilian clothes and an unmarked vehicle.

[redacted] called me back and advised that I did not need to make an appointment to see [redacted].

I received a return phone call from [redacted] stating that [redacted] would be attending the family therapy sessions with [redacted].

I received messages from [redacted].

I conducted a computer query on Epstein. The results of this query indicated the most recent driver's license on file for Epstein was for the state of Florida, which had expired.

A cross reference of Epstein s residence, 358 El Brillo, Palm Beach, revealed the following affiliated names: [redacted], w/f, dob 02/21/1985, Mark L. Epstein, w/m dob [redacted], & Ghislaine N. Maxwell, uk/f, dob 12/25/1961. A computer query for both returned no history.

On 03/23/2005, I spoke with [redacted] cell phone wk [redacted]. I requested that she not discuss the incident with anyone including her daughter [redacted] as I did not want the investigation compromised. I was told at this time, that [redacted] and [redacted] have not been getting along due to the fact that [redacted] has decided to continue living with her father.

On 03/29/2005, I placed telephone calls to both the [redacted] and [redacted] residences requesting to speak with them regarding the investigation. I received return phone calls from Mrs. [redacted] and Mrs. [redacted] and advised them that I would be contacting [redacted], [redacted] family therapist to coordinate a time to meet with [redacted]. This was at the request of both Back and Mrs. [redacted] that [redacted] strict classroom and therapy schedule be disrupted as little as possible. I also updated them to the investigation thus far. Both [redacted] and [redacted] stated they had no objection to my meeting with [redacted]. In speaking with Ms. [redacted], she identified the cell phone number of [redacted] as being the phone assigned to [redacted] [redacted]. Ms. [redacted] had no objections and provided consent to giving it to the police department for the use of placing controlled phone calls from it. [redacted] stated the phone had been taken away from [redacted] as part of her punishment for not doing well in school. According to [redacted], [redacted] used to be an excellent student, but in the past two months has become irritable, verbally abusive to the family and has run away. [redacted] stated her daughter's recent behavior is the opposite of what she normally is. [redacted] stated they are going through family therapy sessions with the school but none of this had come up. Arrangements were made for Det. Captain [redacted] to retrieve the cell phone from [redacted] at her place of employment.

I called High Ridge Family Center, [redacted] and requested to speak with Ms. Back. Upon speaking with Ms. Back she advised me that she was in the middle of therapy sessions and would call me back once the sessions were completed. Ms. Back stated the sessions should be concluded by 7:00 PM. At approximately 8:00PM I had called Ms. Back at which time I left a message on her voice mail requesting a return phone call. I spoke with Ms. [redacted] and advised her that I did not meet with her daughter and that I would again attempt to coordinate a time with the counselor so as not to disrupt [redacted] s school schedule. [redacted] had no objections. Shortly after speaking with Ms. [redacted] I received a call from Ms. Back. I explained the situation and requested a time to meet with [redacted]. Back reviewed [redacted] s schedule and advised that [redacted] would be available after 3:00PM.

On 03/30/2005, I met with Ms. Back and [redacted] [redacted] at High Ridge Family Center. I reminded [redacted] of her conversation with [redacted]. During this time [redacted] initiated a conversation with me in which she admitted that she was not telling me everything that had happened during the time she was alone with Epstein. According to [redacted], while she and Epstein were alone on the second floor, Epstein used [redacted] stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. I asked [redacted] if Epstein ever asked her age and she stated he had. [redacted] stated she told him she was eighteen. When Epstein asked what school she was in, [redacted] responded she was in the twelfth grade at Wellington. During the course of this incident, [redacted] stated Epstein told her that [redacted] had worked for him for years.

We then continued with the controlled call to [redacted]. At approximately 3:35pm [redacted], from her cell phone, made a call to [redacted] s home, [redacted]. [redacted] was not home. [redacted] was told that [redacted] was at working a double and could be reached on her cell phone, [redacted]. W/F, [redacted] is employed at The Olive Garden Restaurant, located on Forest Hills Blvd in Wellington.

[redacted] called [redacted]. During the conversation between [redacted] and [redacted], [redacted] asked [redacted], what happened, stating that she had heard rumors that [redacted] was going to press charges. [redacted] asked if they, meaning [redacted] parents, knew about Jeffery. [redacted] claimed to have heard that [redacted] father had found out about Jeffrey. [redacted] told [redacted] that they (her parents) did not know anything about Epstein. [redacted] told [redacted] that Epstein needed someone to work tomorrow and asked if she was available. [redacted] stated she would call Epstein and then call [redacted] back.

During the course of these conversations with [redacted], she would at times appear to be articulate and well spoken. She would then start to act in an immature manner, by looking around, not paying attention, drawing on a paper. [redacted] would offer me a high five whenever she claimed to have told me the truth in the details of the afternoon at Epstein's house. [redacted] would sit in the chair, with her knees propped up to her chest as she admitted that she did not tell me the all the details of her encounter with Epstein during our first meeting. As a means of positive reinforcement I would high five [redacted].

On 03/31/2005, subpoena requests for T-Mobile Wireless [redacted] and Cingular Wireless, [redacted]. ([redacted] and [redacted] phone numbers) were drafted.

On 04/01/2005, I met with members of PB BSF Unit for the purpose of conducting surveillance on 358 El Brillo. Cross-reference supplement.

On 04/01/2005, I met with Det. [redacted] of the Palm Beach Police Department who provided me a copy of the concealed weapons permit for Mr. Epstein. It revealed Epstein had a valid permit. There was no current photo attached to the renewal notice.

On Friday, September 23, 2005 at approximately 1:45 p.m., I began to copy a tape micro cassette, under case number 05-368 and property number 05-243, tape number 1. I placed the tape in the telex copy-et, series 2 machine and began to go through the copying process. Approximately 1/2 through the tape, the tape wrapped around the spindle and became locked and stretched the tape. I examined it and determined that it was in the best interest to leave it as it is as a prior copy had been made and turned over to Sergeant [redacted]. I immediately took the tape to Sergeant [redacted] and allowed him to examine it and then obtained the copy from him and Detective [redacted] and brought the copy of the tape down and made a copy for him based on that. The tape was placed back in the original container and is retained in the evidence bag under the previously mentioned property number of 05-243. It is not advisable to attempt to copy this tape as further damage could result to the recorded material and there is an existing copy anyway.

On 3-24-05 at 11:00 pm, a copy of tape 2 (case number 05-294) had been made for Det. [redacted] by Evidence Specialist [redacted]. The copy was turned over to Detective [redacted].

On Friday, 09-23-05 at approimately 2:15 pm, I was in the process of reproducing audio tapes (micro and standard) to standard size when it was discovered, in the test review process, that tape number 2 was blank. I notified Sgt. [redacted] and Det. [redacted]. I was informed that they had a prior copy and I could use it to make a master tape. I did [redacted] and when reviewing and signing the evidence sheet, I noticed Evidence Specialist [redacted] had written "#2 is blank."

I obtained that copy from Det. [redacted] and made a new copy on a standard size tape. The new copy was placed in the evidence bag under

Copies of the tapes that were submitted into evidence were requested. Additionally, trash pulls were started on September 21, 2005. Sgt. [redacted] made telephone contact with Tony Higgins, Supervisor of the Sanitation Department, and requested that trash be collected at the Epstein House located at 358 El Brillo in Palm Beach. Sgt [redacted] met with Sanitation worker, [redacted] and observed him enter the property at 358 El Brillo. Shortly thereafter, [redacted] exited the property and placed the three white trash bags in the empty well in the rear of the truck. [redacted] then drove away where he met with Sgt. [redacted] who removed the bags from the well and placed them into one large black trash bag. The bag was returned to the Police Station where I was waiting for him. Upon his arrival, we inspected the bags where several notes and papers were found. These notes contained names of girls with times. Additionally, there was a note from [redacted] and [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein on a notepad, which stated,"For a good time call [redacted] and [redacted] at [redacted]." Also, there was another telephone number on the note [redacted]. Also found was a written note, which stated, [redacted] can not come at 7 p.m. tomorrow because of soccer. These items were written on notepads that contain Jeffrey Epstein on the bottom of the notes. These items were placed into evidence for future follow up. I requested subpoenas for subscriber information on the telephone numbers listed above on the note from [redacted] and [redacted]. The cellular telephones [redacted] and [redacted] are both assigned to Cingular Cellular Service. Other notes were found within the trash on Jeffrey Epstein pad, papers that contained telephone numbers. One note had "[redacted]" with [redacted] written on it. This cellular number is assigned to Cingular Cellular Service. Another sheet had written [redacted] which is assigned to Bell South Telecommunications. The subpoenas were picked up and submitted to Cingular and Bell South Telecommunication for subscriber information.

On September 22, 2005, I was informed by Sgt. [redacted] that there would be no trash pick up as it was recycle pick up day. A request for copies of the micro and standard size cassettes were requested from crime scene to familiarize myself with the interviews conducted.

On September 23, 2005, the tapes were received and I began to become familiar with the interviews that were conducted. Det. [redacted] had met with Town of Palm Beach Sanitation worker, [redacted] and observed him enter the property of 358 El Brillo. Shortly thereafter, [redacted] exited the property and placed the three white trash bags in the empty well in the rear of the truck. [redacted] then drove away where he met with Det. [redacted] who removed the bags from the well and placed them into one large black trash bag. The bag was returned to the Police Station where I was waiting for him. Upon his arrival, we inspected the bags where several notes and papers were found. The notes will be inspected for future use. The items collected were placed into evidence.

It became evident that some of the recordings were recorded with background noise and some interference. The calls most affected were the control phone calls from the victim to the suspect [redacted]. I obtained the graphic equalizer and discovered that the calls are able to be legible with the use of the equalizer by lowering the background noise and increasing voice gain. I also learned that a tape was broken during the coping of the tape. I returned the copy of the tape marked Property Number 05-243 to have it recopied to have an original in evidence and a working copy with the file.

Upon researching the file, it was discovered that the suspect, [redacted] cellular calls were subpoenaed incorrectly. The suspect telephone number was [redacted] and the original request was for [redacted]. I requested the information through Cingular Cellular Service from February 2005 through the present. The purpose was to have a record of [redacted] making calls to victim, Jeffrey Epstein and the frequency of calls. The request was submitted to the State Attorney's Office.

[redacted] provided directions to her apartment. Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted] who stated, during a sworn taped statement that nothing happened between her and Epstein. [redacted] appeared nervous during the interview. I assured her that I had spoken with other people who advised differently. [redacted] stated she only went a couple of times and provided a massage to Epstein. She stated she was brought to the Epstein house in March of 2005. [redacted] brought her to work. [redacted] has no formal training in providing massages. [redacted] stated she provided a massage, fully clothed for $200.00. As I sensed hesitancy in her answers, I asked [redacted] if she had been contacted by anyone from the house. [redacted] stated she was interviewed already by an investigator for Epstein. He met with her on October 8, 2005, at a Roadhouse in [redacted]. He identified himself as Paul and inquired about the police investigation and left his telephone number [redacted] for additional contact. [redacted] provided no additional information, as it appeared her responses were almost scripted. We left the area and returned to Palm Beach Police Department.

Based on the information acquired during the interviews, a search warrant was prepared for entry at the Epstein home. On October 18, 2005, I met with Judge Laura Johnson who reviewed the warrant request. She found there was sufficient probable cause and signed the warrant request. On October 20, 2005, at approximately 9:36 am, members of the Palm Beach Police Investigations Unit executed the search warrant at 358 El Brillo in Palm Beach. Members of the Investigations Unit included Capt [redacted], Sgt [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], Det. [redacted], the crime scene unit and myself.

As we entered onto the property, we encountered the house manager, Janusz Banasiak who was in the guest portion of the house. The guesthouse section had open doors and no forced entry was made. I made contact with Banasiak, Date of Birth [redacted], Fl DL [redacted], and informed him of the search warrant for the premises. The members of the Police Department entered the residence and announced we had a search warrant. A safety search was done and members exited the home. I read the search warrant to Banasiak as Mgr [redacted] videotaped the search warrant execution. Several interior decorators were located on the property. I spoke with Mark Zeff, of 515 W 20th Street in New York. Mr. Zeff stated he is the designer for Mr. Epstein's homes. He advised he was contacted in March of 2005 to do a complete overhaul on the house. He advised he was on the phone with Mr. Epstein when officers announced the search warrant. Mr. Epstein was then made aware of the search warrant. Mr. Zeff advised, his contact with Epstein is strictly business and he has never witnessed Epstein with any girls except for his assistants, [redacted] or [redacted].

I then interviewed Daniel Estes, of 315 East 14th Street in New York. Mr. Estes stated he has worked for Zeff for seven years. He advised he personally worked on the New York and Palm Beach home for Mr. Epstein. He has previously met with [redacted] and [redacted], Epstein's assistants in New York and in Florida. Estes stated they travel with Epstein everywhere he goes.

I interviewed [redacted] of 35 Riverside Jersey City, New Jersey. [redacted] stated she just arrived from Scotland and has worked with Zeff for only one month. She stated she has never met Epstein and has not seen him. The interview was then concluded.

I then spoke with Douglas Schoettle of 243 Riverside Dr in New York City. Schoettle stated he has been Epstein's Architect for seven years. He further stated he deals with Epstein's assistants and speaks with Epstein on the phone. Schoettle stated he mainly speaks with [redacted] [redacted], Epstein s main assistant, who travels with Epstein. Schoettle stated he only has contact with Epstein when his services are needed.

At approximately 10:30 am, I was informed that the videotaping was concluded. I entered the residence and located two covert (hidden) cameras. The first camera was a covert wall clock in the garage area. I traced the wire behind the clock and removed the RCA wire and unplugged the camera. The other covert camera was located within a desk clock beside Epstein's desk. I traced the wire behind the clock and unplugged the RCA wire. I could not locate another camera. I then began with the search of the residence for the specified evidence.

My search consisted of the second floor. Det. [redacted] and I began in the master bedroom area where several items were located. They were marked to be retrieved by the evidence custodian. In the master desk with Epstein's notepads marked Jeffrey Epstein we located a high school transcript from Royal Palm Beach High School for [redacted]. Also in the room, was the dresser /armoire where we located a bottle of peach flavored Joy Jelly (Sexual Lubricant). Additionally, there were several photographs of young naked teenage girls within the closet, which was consistent with what the witnesses said. The massage table was also located within the master bedroom. Video tapes were located beside the television, which were also collected. An itemized list of the property and locations was prepared on the property receipts. At approximately 2:55 pm, the house was secured; the exit of the residence was videotaped. Upon our exit of the property, I encountered Atty. Guy Fronstein who advised he was representing Mr. Epstein. He provided a business card and provided his assistance with the investigation.

Due to Hurricane Wilma, which struck South Florida causing massive power outages, the courthouse was closed due to the lack of power. I was previously told that the Chief Judge had extended the filing deadlines due to the hurricane and the Courthouse being closed. On October 27, and 28, 2005 the courthouse was closed and I could not file the search warrant and inventory at the clerk's office. On October 31, 2005, I responded to the courthouse and filed the paperwork along with an order to seal, signed by Judge Johnson, to deny any release of any paperwork on this case.

On November 15, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I traveled to [redacted] in Royal Palm Beach. We met with [redacted], a seventeen-year old juvenile who was not in school this day due to a cold from which she was suffering. [redacted] was told that I needed to speak with her in reference to an ongoing investigation involving a subject she would know as Jeffrey Epstein. Prior to speaking with her, I explained that because of the fact that she is a minor, I needed to speak with her parents prior to speaking with her. She telephoned her father, Mr. [redacted], on his cell phone and explained to him that Det. [redacted] and I were there to speak with her. I spoke with Mr. [redacted] on the telephone and informed him I needed to speak with his daughter in reference to an ongoing investigation. Mr. [redacted] advised he had no problem with us speaking with his daughter.

During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated she met Jeffrey Epstein over a year ago. She was sixteen years of age and was approached by [redacted] who informed her that she could make monies providing a massage to Epstein for $200.00. [redacted] had informed her that she would have to provide this massage topless. [redacted] made the arrangements with Epstein and his assistants and took [redacted] to the house. [redacted] stated [redacted] and she entered through a glass door that led into a kitchen. [redacted] took her upstairs, to a master bedroom and master bathroom. She recalled the bathroom had a large pink couch, sauna and matching shower. Epstein entered into the room wearing only a towel. [redacted] and [redacted] removed their clothing remaining only in thong underwear. She further stated that Epstein lay on his chest on the table. Epstein selected which oils to use for the massage. Both [redacted] and [redacted] provided the massage on his legs, back and feet. Forty minutes into the massage, Epstein turned over onto his back and requested [redacted] wait downstairs in the kitchen area for [redacted]. Epstein instructed [redacted] to finish the massage. As [redacted] got dressed, [redacted] left the room, and Epstein began masturbating himself as [redacted]. [redacted] stated he continued masturbating until he climaxed on the towel he was wearing. When asked if he had removed the towel she stated he turned the towel around [redacted] that the opening would allow him to expose himself. After he cleaned himself off with the towel, he instructed [redacted] the massage was done and to get dressed and met with him downstairs. [redacted] got dressed and met with Epstein in the kitchen area. She was paid $200.00 dollars for providing the massage. [redacted] stated she was aware that [redacted] also received monies for the same thing.

The second time she went to the house she was again approached by [redacted]. [redacted] asked if she wanted to return to the house to provide another massage; [redacted] agreed and the arrangements were made by [redacted] for her to return to the house. [redacted] stated [redacted] drove her to the house and knocked on the same glass door that leads to the kitchen area. They were allowed entry into the house by one of the staff members. [redacted] led her upstairs to the master bedroom and master bathroom area. [redacted] left [redacted] this time to do the massage alone. Epstein entered the room again wearing only a towel. [redacted] began removing her clothing as she did the last time she was at the house. Epstein instructed her to get naked. He lay on the table on his stomach as [redacted] began massaging his legs and back.

As [redacted] finished with Epstein's back and legs, Epstein then turned over onto his back. [redacted] started to rub his chest and he began masturbating himself. I also spoke with ASA Daliah Weiss reference the previous employees, Juan and Maria Alessi. She advised that they had been served through a subpoena process server. They were both scheduled to appear on Monday November 21, 2005 at 12:00 p.m.

On November 21, 2005, I met with ASA Weiss, Atty. Donnie Murrell and Juan and Maria Alessi at the State Attorney Office. ASA Weiss had requested a court reporter to be present to take the statement of the Alessi s. I spoke with Maria Alessi, in the presence of her attorney, Donnie Murrell. She advised she had worked for Epstein for eight years, from the period of 1994 through 2002. She advised she had never had any direct conversations with him. She stated it was her husband who spoke directly with Epstein. Her work consisted of doing house cleaning, shopping and other preparations when Epstein would arrive in town. Alessi stated the preparations consisted of preparing the house and bathrooms for his arrival. She advised she did view several masseuses that arrived at the house. She advised that two or three girls would come during a day and provide the massages. The girls that arrived looked young in age. Mrs. Alessi did not know any of the girls personally and were always different. She was told that when Epstein was in residence he did not want to encounter the Alessis during his stay in Palm Beach.

I then spoke with Mr. Alessi in the presence of his attorney, Donnie Murrell. Mr. Alessi stated that he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein. He originally was hired as a part time employee and then moved up into a full time position. His duties included everything. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. He remembered dealing with his girlfriend, Ms. Maxwell originally and then dealt with Epstein directly.

When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. There were times he recalled that he would set up the massage tables either in Epstein s bedroom or in his bathroom. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage. Alessi was never privy to what went on during the

He was asked if he remembered any names of the girls that massaged Epstein. He tried to remember and was unable to provide any exact names of any girls. Alessi was asked about any contact with anyone from the Epstein organization. Alessi said he did speak with Mr. Epstein shortly after my initial contact with him to find out what was going on. Alessi also stated that approximately on November 11, 2005, he was contacted by a private investigator from the Law Office of Roy Black. The investigator had called him to meet with him to ascertain what he was going to tell the police. Alessi stated they met at the Carrabba s Restaurant in Boynton Beach and discussed the same questions I was asking him. I informed Mr. Alessi and Mr. Morrell that as this is an ongoing investigation and anything we discuss should be confidential. They both acknowledged the fact that the information would be kept confidential. It should be noted that a court reporter was present during the interviews and would be providing a copy of the statements to me when they become available.

On November 21, 2005, I received a voice mail from Mr. Fronstin who advised he would not be making Mr. Epstein available for any statements. He did have some words that he wanted to relay on behalf of Mr. Epstein. I telephoned his office and left a message for him to return my call.

A review of the telephone message books, which were obtained during the search warrant, was conducted in which various messages from different dates were made to Jeffrey Epstein. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages was time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted] for Jeffrey Epstein. Based on the context of the body of the messages, I requested subpoenas for subscriber information on the telephone numbers and the time frame involved. Copies of the messages were made for evidentiary purposes.

I obtained Royal Palm Beach High School yearbooks for 2005, 2004 and 2003. I first reviewed the 2005 yearbook and located most of the girls I had spoken with. Additionally, I located [redacted]. Based on the corrected name spelling, I was able to locate her to her residence in Loxahatchee. On December 8, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I responded to [redacted] in Loxahatchee. The telephone number was registered to [redacted] of [redacted]. A query of [redacted] revealed that she is the daughter of [redacted] and is currently residing at [redacted] in West Palm Beach. Det. On December 12, 2005, due to a conflict with schedules, arrangements were made to meet with [redacted] [redacted] on Tuesday, December 13, 2005 at 5:00 pm. On December 13, 2005, Det. On 102005 at approx 0930hrs I assisted with the execution of a search warrant at 358 El Brillo Ave, Palm Beach.

Initially I was assigned to enter the residence and conduct a sweep of the premises for safety purposes. I then accompanied CSEU tech [redacted] while she photographed the exterior of the house. Once this was complete I was assigned to search certain areas of the house with Det. [redacted] as part of the search warrant.

We began in the garage, searching three Mercedes Benz vehicles, a Harley Davidson motorcycle and adjacent closets in the garage. Nothing of evidentiary value was located.

We then searched two closets off the kitchen area on the east side. These can best be described as pantry or storage closets. Nothing of evidentiary value was obtained.

A small office with adjoining bath was then searched. In the bath area I located a phone message book with recent messages. This item was seized as evidence. Please note this bath and shower area are not used as designed but are storage areas containing a variety of items to include a gun safe in the shower and assorted household items.

We then searched a bath area and closet at the base of the main stairs in the foyer. Inside the closet two massage tables were located as well as partial nude female photographs. These items were later seized as evidence. Nothing of evidentiary value was noted in the bathroom.

We then searched two bedrooms upstairs on the east side of the residence. Located in the bath room of the south bedroom was penis shaped soap. Located in the bedroom of the northern bedroom was penis and vagina shaped soap as well as an adult sex toy. These items were seized as evidence.

We then searched the pool cabana located in the south west corner of the property. Several photographs of nude females were seized as evidence.

I was then assigned to stand by with a person I believe was Douglas Schoettle. Mr. Schoettle was in the residence at the beginning of the search warrant. He was present during the warrant service and subsequent search. I stood by with him until the search was completed and I departed the residence. I had no conversation with him regarding the reason for our presence.

Regarding seized evidence, all items were photographed in place and then collected by CSEU personnel.

This concludes my involvement in this case.

On Thursday, October 20, 2005 at approximately 0936 hours, I assisted in the execution of a search warrant located at 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, Florida, residence of Jeffrey Epstein. I was instructed by Case Agent Det. [redacted], to secure all computer and media related material from the residence.

Upon my arrival I was directed by Det. [redacted] to a room designated as the Kitchen Staff Office. I observed a, Silver in color, CPU with the left side cover removed, exposing the CPU s hardware sitting on floor next to a glass type desk. The CPU had no discernable identifiers or features indicating a make or model. This CPU was powered off with the power cord not plugged in. The keyboard and mouse were atop the CPU. It should be noted that the CPU was not connected to a monitor, printer, or other media device. On the back Panel of the CPU, I observed an A/V card with RCA jacks attached. This type of hardware would allow audio and video to be downloaded onto the CPU s hard disk. The ends of the RCA jacks were unattached at the time of the search and no external camera was located within this room.

The CPU was located on the right side of a desk that held a flat panel LCD screen. The desk also held another keyboard and mouse, indicative of a second computer; however, no other computer was found. It appeared as though a second computer had been recently removed as the cables ends from the monitor, keyboard and mouse were in the same area. A further search of the room revealed no media storage devices, i.e. CD s, Floppy Disks, Zip Disks, etc. This type of media is commonly stored in an area where computers are placed, yet no media was found.

After completing a search of this room, I secured the CPU and turned all items over to the Evidence Custodian for future forensic analysis via a property receipt.

I was then directed by Det. [redacted] to a room designated as the Garden Room, where I observed a wooden desk facing west. The desk held a flat screen LCD monitor, keyboard, mouse, media card reader and printer; however, no CPU was located. All of the cables were removed from an area where a computer had once been. A search of the desk area revealed no signs of any media devices.

Det. [redacted] directed me to a third location designated as the Cabana room, which is detached from the residence and located just south of the pool. In the South East corner of the room, I observed an office type setting, with an L-shaped desk holding a flat screen LCD monitor, keyboard, mouse and printer; however, no CPU was located. All of the cables were removed from an area where a computer had once been. A search of the desk area revealed no signs of any media devices.

Det. [redacted] directed me to a second detached structure located on the South East corner of the property. This area of this structure was assigned with single letters to identify a particular part of the room. In the office area, designated as Room B, I observed a powered on Dell Dimension 2350, attached to an LCD flat panel monitor. The screen displayed an open Microsoft Internet Explorer browser with URL address of http://home.bellsouth.net/. I observed no other active windows in the Start panel window and photographed screen. The power cord was removed from the back of the Dell CPU and I disconnected the cable modem to prevent remote access. At that time, the Dell CPU, marked with Serial Number [redacted], was secured and turned over the evidence custodian for future forensic analysis via property receipt. I also located several media related items within Room B, which were recorded onto a property receipt and turned over the Evidence Custodians.

I then responded to a Bedroom designated as Room F, where I observed a white in color CPU marked Premio. The Premio CPU was in a computer desk which held a white CRT monitor, both of which were powered on. The CRT monitor displayed a message from Norton Antivirus software, warning of an expired subscription. I observed no other active windows in the Start panel window and photographed screen. I removed the power cable from the back of the Premio CPU and shutdown all other media. The Premio CPU, marked with Serial Number [redacted], was secured and turned over the evidence custodian for future forensic analysis via property receipt. I also located several media related items within Room F, which were recorded onto a property receipt and turned over the Evidence Custodians.

This concluded my participation in the search of the residence.

On December 20, 2005, I contacted ASA Daliah Weiss in an attempt to subpoena the Epstein former houseman, Alfredo Rodriguez. Rodriguez, who resides in Miami, had eluded the process servers previously and was not served the investigative subpoena. A telephone message was left as she is not available during the week of 12/19/2005. I made contact with State Attorney Inv [redacted] and requested the same via telephone message.

I then researched the victim's [redacted] cellular telephone subpoena data which had been received from a previous subpoena request. I analyzed the records which depict several calls from [redacted]. The telephone calls start on February 6, 2005 at 12:49 pm.; the same day which the victim and the victim's father stated the incident occurred at Epstein s house. The first incoming call was from [redacted] residence at [redacted]. The second incoming call from [redacted] cellular phone [redacted] occurred at 1:02 pm. The call durations were one minute or less. The time frame was within thirteen minutes apart. It should be noted that [redacted] s residence was in close proximity to the victim's. The next call occurred at 5:50 pm when the victim telephoned [redacted] s residence. Several calls were made after the above mentioned calls both incoming and outgoing to [redacted]. Further analysis showed no telephone calls to either [redacted] cellular telephone or [redacted] residence were registered prior to February 6, 2005.

Additionally, I also conducted an analysis on the telephone calls from [redacted]. The subscriber information confirmed that the number is registered to Paul A Lavery from Hialeah, Florida. The address was crossed referenced to the Office of Kiraly and Riley Private Investigators. I researched the web page www.rileykiraly.com which also showed various cases in which they assisted. I also located another web site under www.coralspringssparklandrotary.org in which Mr. Riley attended a Miami Rotary meeting and confirmed Atty. Roy Black is among his clientele.

The telephone calls revealed Lavery had telephone contact with [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] either just after I attempted to interview them, or just prior. A background was conducted on Lavery which revealed he holds a current Private Investigator License. A criminal arrest record revealed he had been previously arrested for possession of cocaine and solicitation of prostitution.

I also researched the girls using www.myspace.com. This web site is a new social networking service that allows members to create unique personal profiles online in order to find and communicate with old and new friends. The site allows one to establish your own myspace.com page and decorate the page any way one wishes. I found the following people have myspace sites: [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], and [redacted].

I received a Cingular Wireless packet which contained a CD which contained the results of the subpoena request for verbatim calls on [redacted]. An analysis will be conducted in the near future on the phone numbers called.

responded to [redacted], also known as the Palm Beach Mall. I located the Simon Youth Foundation. I located [redacted] inside the foundation and informed her that I was investigating a case against Jeffrey Epstein and knew she had been at the house. [redacted] started to cry and advised she had put that part of her life behind her. I explained that although she is seventeen years old I needed to inform her parents that she would be interviewed. She provided her home telephone number. I attempted contact and left voice mail messages at the house to speak with her parents.

Det. [redacted] and I then located [redacted] at her residence located at [redacted] in West Palm Beach. I attempted to interview her about Jeffrey Epstein. She advised she is so in love with Jeff Epstein and would do anything for him. She further explained that she would not speak with us about him either negative or positive. She asked us to leave her property. I informed her that although she did not wish to speak with us, I had sufficient information at this point in the investigation to know she was at Epstein's house and provided girls to Epstein to work. I also explained that prior to our arrival at her residence I had telephone contact with her father, [redacted], who was told she would be interviewed. [redacted] is currently seventeen years old and as a juvenile, parental notification would be required. We then left the area and returned to the police station.

While at the police station, I left another telephone message for [redacted] parents. I began an analysis of [redacted] Cellular telephone. The telephone number [redacted] is assigned to [redacted] and the financially responsible party is Jeffrey Epstein of 457 Madison Ave. in New York City, New York. The time frame which was subpoenaed was September 2005, through October 2005. There were eighty seven pages of calls made either to the cell phone or from the cell phone. The local (561) numbers were analyzed. A spread sheet was prepared and placed into the attachment file of who was called.

The unknown numbers were researched using FoneFinder.com and subpoenas were requested to determine subscriber information. This was done to identify additional victims or witnesses. The analysis revealed that [redacted] had called the victim/witnesses frequently when Epstein was in the Town of Palm Beach to "work." This confirms what the girls interviewed had previously stated. [redacted] would notify them when Epstein was in town and their willingness to "work." The CD was placed into evidence.

Center from Cingular Wireless for telephone number [redacted]. This was the telephone number for [redacted] during the time frame when the victim, [redacted], was brought to the Epstein house to "work." An analysis of the phone records, of all incoming and outgoing calls, showed that on February 6, 2005, the day the victim, [redacted], was brought to the house, [redacted] first called [redacted], Epstein's assistant, at [redacted] at 12:50 pm (EST). The next call was made to Epstein's house in Palm Beach, at 12:52 pm (EST). The following call was made to the victim, [redacted], at 1:01 pm (EST) and at 1:02 pm (EST). This confirms the information provided by the victim and victim's father. I photo copied the records and enlarged the page 8 of 10 to show the calls made by [redacted] on February 6, 2005.

To this date, I have not heard from [redacted]'s parents. I will attempt to establish contact with them during the evening hours.

I received a package from Atty. Guy Fronstin, which was hand delivered at the police station. Within the package, was a letter from Alan Dershowitz, and two www.myspace.com profiles. The profiles were that of [redacted] and [redacted]. MySpace.com is a social networking service that allows members to create unique personal profiles online in order to find and communicate with old and new friends. This package was in response to a previous meeting in which Mr. Dershowitz called to assist in the investigation in providing any additional witnesses such as house employees who have been reluctant to speak with law enforcement.

I reviewed the profiles Mr. Dershowitz enclosed. [redacted], who designed her blog to be "[redacted] Fucking [redacted]," still attends Royal Palm Beach High School, sends and receives messages from friends which contain some profanity. Upon reviewing her friends' comments section from Myspace, most of her good friends sent messages to establish contact and invite her to go out.

I then reviewed [redacted] web blog which was provided by Mr. Dershowitz. Ms. [redacted] designed her blog to be "[redacted]." Her blog states that her interests include music, theater and weed (Marijuana). I reviewed her packet in which [redacted] declares her love for her live-in boyfriend. She also describes using marijuana with her boyfriend [redacted].

The letter Mr. Dershowitz sent advised he was looking into the allegation that one of the private investigators used by the private attorneys of Epstein, attempted to impersonate or state that they were police officers from Palm Beach. Mr. Dershowitz advised that the investigators used to interview [redacted] had "quite a distinct speech impediment", did not claim to be nor did they impersonate themselves as a police officer. This package was sent to both ASA Lana Belohlavic and ASA Daliah Weiss at the State Attorney's Office.

I made telephone contact with ASA Weiss to confirm she received the package and request an interview with [redacted], [redacted], and Janusz Banasiak. She advised she would assist in attempting to

On January 3, 2006, I received a telephone call from ASA Weiss who informed me that she made telephone contact with Mr. Dershowitz. She had requested the employees be available the week of January 3, 2006. Mr. Dershowitz informed her that the assistants are out of the country and would require additional time to locate them and make them available.

I made contact with Mr. Preston [redacted], father of [redacted], who was told that I wished to interview his daughter. Mr. [redacted] stated he was aware and had spoken with his daughter about the incident. He stated that his daughter had previously told him that she was hired to model lingerie at a Palm Beach mansion. Mr. [redacted] stated he knew nothing else about what she did when she went to "work." Mr. [redacted] advised he would cooperate with the investigation and make his daughter available for interviews. I asked if she was available for an interview, [redacted] stated she was not at home at the moment. I informed him I would make contact with her at a later time. Mr. [redacted] expressed his interest in the resolution in this matter as he stated this information has affected his daughter emotionally.

On January 4, 2005, I acquired the subpoenas from the State Attorney's Office for Cingular Wireless, Metro PCS, Verizon, Bell South Telecommunications and Sprint for the unknown telephone numbers from [redacted] cellular telephone. The subpoenas were sent to the respective telephone carriers for subscriber information.

I received a telephone call from State Attorney's Office, who informed me that the former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein, Alfredo Rodriguez, was present at the State Attorney's Office for an interview. Rodriguez was issued an investigative subpoena for an interview on the on-goings at Epstein's house during his employ. I responded to the State Attorney's Office and encountered Mr. Rodriguez waiting in the lobby. I brought Mr. Rodriguez to the interview room.

During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months. He was referred by associates and his employment lasted the months of November 2004 through May 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffer, chef, houseman, run errands for Mr. Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. Rodriguez advised he had very limited contact with Mr. Epstein. If Rodriguez needed to relay a message to Mr. Epstein, he would have to notify Epstein's secretary "Leslie" in New York City, who would then notify Epstein's personal assistant, [redacted], who would relay the message to Epstein. Rodriguez stated Epstein did not want to see or hear the staff when he was in residence.

I asked Rodriguez if Epstein received many guests during his stay in Palm Beach. Rodriguez advised he had many guests. I asked specifically about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated he would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them.

Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. He advised he didn't ask their ages but felt they were very young. Rodriguez stated they ate like his own daughter who is in high school. Rodriguez stated they would eat tons of cereal and drink milk all the time. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massager/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed.

Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Rodriguez referred himself as a "human ATM machine" and was ordered by Epstein to maintain a minimum balance of $2,000 dollars on him at all times. When a girl would come by the house and Mr. Epstein was either not in residence or was not at home at the time, Rodriguez was to provide the girl (masseuse) several hundred dollars for their time and to notify Epstein the amount they were given. Epstein also ordered Rodriguez to purchase several gifts and provide them as tips to the girls. I asked what kind of gifts. Rodriguez stated he purchased IPODS, jewelry, anything the girls would want.

Rodriguez stated the amount of girls that came to the house was approximately fifteen. Each of the girls knew each other and all seemed to know at Royal Palm Beach High School who Mr. Epstein was. When asked to identify these girls, Rodriguez stated he could not at the moment but knew he wrote their names down on a journal he kept during his employ with Mr. Epstein. He kept a journal in the event he needed to explain either to Mr. Epstein or his assistants what was done at the house or who visited the house as he stated he was in-charge of Mr. Epstein's personal security while in Palm Beach. I informed him I would need to view this journal to which he stated he would research the book and contact me to provide the book. The interview was concluded and left the area. I returned back to the police station where the micro cassette was placed into evidence. At approximately 7:20 pm, I was notified Rodriguez located the journal and would call me on January 5, 2005 to provide the journal.

After the massage, Epstein ordered his houseman at the time to drive the girls home. The employee was to drop off the girls at their house and watch them go inside their house.

three years old when she met Epstein, anything that happened was between two consenting adults. I explained to her that she was not in any trouble however as part of this investigation, I needed to ask certain questions. [redacted] stated that there were times that Epstein would ask her to perform during the massage. He would instruct her to rub his nipples as he masturbated himself. [redacted] stated she felt "grossed" about the behavior but as she was getting paid, she just continued. [redacted] also advised she would on occasion perform the massages naked. Epstein would on occasion, utilize the vibrator/massager on her vagina area when she performed the massages. [redacted] explained that Epstein never exposed himself to her as he maintained himself covered under the towel he would be wearing. When Epstein would masturbate he would be covered.

I asked if [redacted] ever received any gifts, or any gratuities from Epstein. [redacted] advised aside from being paid well, she advised Epstein took care of her tuition from Palm Beach Atlantic College. She received a rental car for a week when her scooter broke down.

Additionally she received other gifts from Epstein. Epstein also recommended her to another client who resides at Breakers Row in Palm Beach. The client she was referred to was "Glenn" unknown last name, and his wife, who she provided a massages to. The statement was concluded and placed into evidence upon our return to the Palm Beach Police Department.

While at the police station, I researched Florida tag [redacted] which was also previously seen on the property when there was physical surveillance being done at the property. The vehicle is registered to [redacted] of Lake Worth, Florida. Researching Mr. [redacted] and the vehicle revealed that his daughter, [redacted], had been driving the vehicle and was cited for unlawful speed in Lake Clark Shores. The vehicle is a tan, Chevrolet Camaro, 2-door. I researched [redacted], date of birth, [redacted], resides at [redacted] in Lake Worth. [redacted] has a my space page called www.myspace.com/pinkpetals. In her web page, shows various photos of [redacted] photographed at a beach. An interview is forthcoming.

A review of the video disks which was extracted at the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office Computer Crime Unit revealed that only one hidden camera was functional at the time. Several images of Epstein working at his office were seen. Additional footage of [redacted] and [redacted] was seen. There was other footage of females seen. The identity of the females is unknown at this time, until such time as I meet with certain females to show the video footage to confirm if, in fact, it is them on the video. At this time it appears that [redacted] and [redacted] are seen sitting with Epstein beside his desk in the evening hours. Due to poor lighting, a direct confirmation cannot be made at this time.

He requested to see her modeling portfolio and explained that he could help her with modeling jobs. [redacted] had her book with her to show [redacted] and showed the book to Epstein. He commented negatively about her photographs and portfolio. [redacted] felt uncomfortable with the comments made as she had been working with other professional modeling companies who had offered her work from her photographs. Epstein requested to see what was purchased at the mall. [redacted] took out the undergarments which were purchased. She immediately showed Epstein different sets purchased. Epstein then requested to view what [redacted] purchased. [redacted] was reluctant to show the outfit however since it was Epstein's money that purchased the item, she pulled it out of the bag. Epstein asked her to try it on. [redacted] looked at [redacted] who told her "yeah, try it on." Feeling compelled to try the undergarment outfit on; she went to another room and put on the bra and panty set. She walked out to the living room where they were sitting, and modeled the suit. She then went back into the other room and changed back into her clothes. [redacted] returned into the room and told [redacted] she would be going home. On January 27, 2006, I made telephone contact with Christina [redacted], at [redacted]. [redacted] is a licensed massage therapist who had frequented the home of Jeffrey Epstein. Ms. [redacted] has been unable to meet with me in Palm Beach County, and because she lives and works in Port St. Lucie, a telephone interview was conducted. [redacted] stated she knows Epstein and has been employed by him for approximately three years. Epstein has paid [redacted] to perform Swedish Massages (Deep Tissue) on him and other guests. [redacted] explained that approximately three year ago she met Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein through a mutual friend. Epstein and Maxwell were looking for a massage therapist. She never was approached for anything else. I asked if Epstein ever asked her to rub his chest she stated she would not rub his chest as that is not part of her massage. [redacted] explained that she was not Epstein's type. The girls she would see at Epstein's house were very thin, beautiful and without tattoos. [redacted] explained she has several tattoos that are visible. Maxwell and Epstein have commented negatively about her tattoos previously when she has provided massages.

On February 13, 2006, I met with David Rodgers at 7318 Heathley Drive in Lake Worth. Rodgers was identified as Epstein's pilot. I spoke with Rodgers who advised he has been employed with Epstein since 1991. He flies both planes for Epstein depending where he wants to fly to. Rodgers was asked about passengers in the plane he flies. Rodgers stated unless Epstein flew to his island off of St Thomas, there would be no way of knowing who the passengers were. I mentioned a recent flight to Ohio, where Rodgers flew to Ohio to pick up [redacted]. Rodgers stated he recalled flying on several occasions and did remember [redacted]. Rodgers stated once he is in the cockpit, he does not know who the passengers are. When he prepares the passenger manifests, he lists Epstein and his assistants he knows by name, [redacted] and [redacted]. A Grand Jury Session was requested during the month of February 2006, in which all the girls that had been interviewed would have been called to testify before the Grand Jury to seek an indictment against Jeffrey Epstein. Due to subsequent meetings with the State Attorney's Office and Defense Attorney Alan Dershowitz the Grand Jury was postponed until a later time. Dershowitz had provided a package of material on the main victims in this case in which they appear on myspace.com and speak about alcohol use and some marijuana use. The State Attorney's Office wanted time to review the material.

I requested additional subpoenas from the State Attorney's Office in which I requested information from Dollar Rent a Car and Jet Aviation. The information requested from Dollar Rent a Car was for the rented vehicle by Alfredo Rodriguez while under the employ of Epstein for one of the victims. The other subpoena requested was for Jet Aviation for dates and times when Epstein's planes were in Palm Beach County.

I continued to research other names that were acquired either from interviews or intelligence gathered during the investigation. I

She advised she was brought there to make money and was told she would have to provide a massage to this Palm Beach guy. She remembered she met Epstein and his assistant [redacted] in the kitchen area. She stated she was taken by one of her friends, [redacted]. She stated she went upstairs with [redacted] while Epstein got ready for the massage. He exited his bathroom naked and [redacted] turned around. Epstein asked her if being naked offended her. [redacted] stated it made her uncomfortable. Epstein then put on a towel and lay on the table. [redacted] stated she rubbed his back and feet. She stated she had no massage training or experience. [redacted] stated during the massage, Epstein attempted to touch her buttocks. [redacted] pulled away as [redacted]. She told him again she was uncomfortable with him touching her. Epstein then cut the massage short and became upset with her. Epstein paid her $200.00 for the massage and told her to leave the house. [redacted] never returned to the house. She did advise of one time she went with [redacted], however she waited in the car for [redacted] as she did not want to go into the house. At the conclusion of [redacted]'s visit with Epstein they left the area. [redacted] stated she had heard from other girls that have gone to the house that Epstein now required them to do the massage naked and allow him to touch them in their private areas for monies. The interview was concluded as [redacted] did not have any other information to provide.

I then learned from the original victim, [redacted], the defense attorney had learned of her identity. I spoke with the father of the victim, who stated there has been a private investigator on his house photographing his family and chasing visitors who come to the house. He provided a Florida License of [redacted]. This vehicle is registered to Ivan Robles of West Palm Beach. Robles is a private investigator intern who is licensed by the state. 10, 2006, at approximately 2:30 p.m., I served [redacted] at her residence in Royal Palm Beach. The subpoena was given to her mother, [redacted].

I learned through one of the victims ([redacted]) that she was personally contacted through a source that has maintained contact with Epstein. The source assured [redacted] she would receive monetary compensation for her assistance in not cooperating with law enforcement. [redacted] also stated she was told, "Those who help him will be compensated and those who hurt him will be dealt with." I told [redacted], that tampering with a witness/victim is an arrestable offense and very serious. I asked her who approached her during this encounter. [redacted] originally was reluctant to provide the name of the person who approached her to offer her not to testify because she felt they were still friends.

On April 11, 2006, Det [redacted] and I traveled to Tallahassee, Florida and met with the victim, [redacted]. [redacted], identified [redacted], W/F, [redacted], as the person who approached her in Royal Palm Beach while she was home during Spring Break in March 2006. [redacted] also stated she did not want to pursue the intimidation charges on [redacted]. [redacted] was concerned that the defense attorney was given a copy of the report as certain things she had told me in confidence were repeated to her by [redacted]. Prior to our departure, the victim was given a copy of her subpoena for the Grand Jury which was scheduled to commence April 18, 2006.

Upon our return from Tallahassee, I notified the State Attorney's Office of what was told to me. I also notified them that the subpoenas were delivered to the witnesses and they would be calling for arrangements for the date and time needed for the Grand Jury. I spoke with ASA Weiss and informed her of the possible intimidation by the defense.

On April 13, and April 14, 2006 I attempted contact on several occasions with ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic to ascertain when the victims needed to report for Grand Jury testimony. Messages were left on their voicemail. On April 17, 2006, during the hours of 9:00 am and 11:30 am, I again left messages for ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic for either of them to return my call as I had not heard from the State Attorney's Office as to the time and date of the Grand Jury.

At approximately 12:30 pm, I went to the State Attorney's Office and located ASA Weiss and ASA Belohlavic in their offices. I entered ASA Belohlavic's office who informed me that she was going to return my call. She explained that an offer was made to the defense, Atty Guy Fronstin and Atty Alan Dershowitz. The offer is 1 count of Agg Assault with intent to commit a felony, five years probation, with adjudication withheld. Epstein would have to submit to psychiatric/sexual evaluation and no unsupervised visits with minors. When asked about the all the other victims, ASA Belohlavic stated that was the only offer made as to one victim, [redacted]. ASA Belohlavic cell phone rang and went to voice mail. She checked her voice mail and played the message on speaker. The caller identified himself as

Atty Guy Fronstin and acknowledged the deal made between them. Fronstin stated in the message, he spoke with his client, Jeffrey Epstein, and agreed to the deal. Fronstin asked to call off the grand jury as they would accept this deal. Belohlavic stated a probable cause would be needed to book Epstein in the county jail and would let me know as to when it would be needed. I explained my disapproval of the deal and not being consulted prior to the deal being offered. However I expressed that was only my opinion and the final approval would come from the Chief of Police. She explained to have Chief [redacted] call Barry Krisher about the deal. I left the area and returned to the police station where I briefed the Chief about the deal offered.

I checked my voice mail messages and discovered a message from [redacted], stepmother for the victim [redacted]. She was calling because the State Attorney's Office still had not returned any of her calls as to when they are needed for this case. I then called ASA Belohlavic's office and left messages for her to call the victims on this case and explained to them what the State Attorney's Office had done.

On April 17, 2006, at approximately 4:30 pm, State Attorney Investigator [redacted] called to officially notify me of the cancellation of the Grand Jury. He requested I contact the victims that had been served to appear, to notify them of the cancellation. I advised [redacted] that as this Grand Jury session was called based on the State Attorney's Office decision to have the victims heard by the Grand Jury that I felt it was the States Attorney's Office responsibility to contact the victims and advise them of the reason they were no longer needed.

On May 10, 2006, information was received that Epstein's associate, Leslie Wexner, The Limited Inc, CEO's, plane had arrived in West Palm Beach, PBIA. The plane, a Gulfstream 4 bearing a N900LS registration, was on the tarmac at Galaxy Aviation. As Epstein had recently acquired the services of a new attorney, and the fact that Epstein's house is currently under remodeling, it was believed that Epstein may be in Palm Beach. The victim then returned the call at 11:16 am which lasted 6 seconds. The victim then made contact with [redacted] at 11:22 am for 877.2 seconds (14 minutes and 6 seconds). These sequences of calls were consistent with what the victim had described to me on the date of the intimidation. Immediately after speaking with the victim, [redacted] makes a call to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, which lasts for forty-eight seconds. A call is then immediately received, a telephone number registered to a Corporation affiliated with Jeffrey Epstein located at 457 Madison Ave in New York. An extensive computer check revealed 457 Madison Ave is a business address in which Epstein has his corporations assigned to. Epstein had corporation attorney, Darren Indyke, register the businesses and register himself as an agent. I also observed Epstein has his El Zorro Ranch Corporation, New York Strategy Group, Ghislaine Corporation, J Epstein and Company and the Financial Strategy Group registered to this same address. Finally, a third call is received by [redacted] at 12:02 pm from the same corporate number which lasts 12 minutes and 1 second. It should be noted that there is no further contact with either the victim during the month of March or April of 2006. I also noted that there was no further contact with [redacted] or Jeffrey Epstein during the remainder of the month of March or April 2006.

On June 1, 2006, ASA Lana Belohlavek telephoned me to inform me of the meeting that occurred with Atty. Jack Goldberger and her reference this case. She advised she would make her determination on whether to file on this case or not by Monday June 5, 2006.

Inv Continues.

NA Reported By: [redacted] 7/12/06
Entered By.: [redacted] 7/12/06

On June 29, 2006, I had spoken to ASA Lana Belohlavic who informed me that the case would be sent to the Grand Jury for charges. She informed me that the grand jury would convene on July 19, 2006 to hear the Epstein case. Belohlavic stated State Attorney Barry Krisher made the determination to go the Grand Jury to hear the case.

On July 12, 2006, I spoke with [redacted], mother of the victim, [redacted], who inquired about the status of the case. I explained to her that I was told we would be going to the Grand Jury during the week of July 19, 2006. She stated she had not been contacted as of yet by the State Attorney's Office for any information. I provided her with the telephone numbers to the State Attorney's Office.

Investigation continues...

That the facts establishing the grounds for this application and the probable cause for believing that such facts exist are as follows:

On 03/15/2005, Det [redacted] went to High Ridge/Sable Palm where she met with a fourteen year old white female. The female will hereinafter referred to as "The Victim." Also present was [redacted], the victim's therapist. During an audio taped interview, [redacted] spoke with the victim who admitted to knowing that [redacted] worked for a wealthy man and possibly did sexual favors for him. She also admitted that [redacted] had offered her an opportunity to make money.

The victim identified [redacted] boss as a white male named "Jeff who lived in Palm Beach (Later positively identified as Jeffrey Epstein). The victim explained that she was first approached by [redacted] to go with her to Jeff's house. The victim stated [redacted] told her that she would pick her up at the victims house on Sunday. The victim was not sure of the exact dates but knew it was a Sunday. According to the victim, [redacted] along with a Hispanic female, later identified as [redacted], picked her up at her father s house on 76th Lane. The victim told her father that they were going shopping. It was later confirmed by the victim's father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to the victim's father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck. [redacted] drove the victim to Palm Beach. Sometime on the way there, a conversation occurred between [redacted] and the victim whereas [redacted] reportedly told the victim that if Jeff asked her (the victim) age, she should say she was eighteen. The victim recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. The victim described Epstein's house as a two story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in driveway. The girls walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. In fact, the victim recalled a male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Jeff. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. The victim stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly after, Epstein and a woman, described as white with blond hair entered the kitchen. The victim believed the woman was Epstein's assistant. The victim added that the woman did not seem friendly and kept her responses short and direct. Epstein introduced himself to the victim as Jeff . The victim described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, a long face, and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving the victim alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. The victim stated the woman instructed her to follow her upstairs, which she did. The victim recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right. The victim recalled a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. The victim recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. According to the victim, the woman led her to a room that had a massage table in it. The woman started to fix up the room, putting the covers on the table and taking lotions out. She then told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

The woman left the room, and soon after, Epstein walked in wearing only a towel and told the victim to take off her clothes. The victim stated he was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. The victim said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room. The victim took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein, had removed his towel and told the victim to take off everything . The victim stated Epstein exposed himself when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. The victim stated she removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As the victim began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. The victim stated she straddled herself on Epstein s back. The victim stated [redacted].

The victim said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage, telling her to go clockwise, etc. Epstein then turned over and instructed the victim, to massage his boobs. The victim resumed massaging his chest area. The victim was now standing on the ground. Epstein turned to his side, started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. The victim stated Epstein held on to the small of her back as she massaged his chest and shoulder area. Epstein pulled out a purple vibrator and [redacted]. The victim stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. The victim recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table.

Epstein then left the room and the victim got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. The victim admitted to getting paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before they left, Epstein asked the victim to leave her phone number. As they were leaving the house, [redacted] stated she received only two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

EFTA00231832

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I responded to the address of [redacted] and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home.

Upon [redacted] entry in the unmarked Detective vehicle, I placed a tape recorder within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the ride back to the police station, [redacted] advised she is attending [redacted] in the [redacted] and is majoring in journalism.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau. I explained to [redacted], that I appreciated her willingness to assist us and informed her that should she desire to leave at any time she may do so. I further explained the interview room door is only closed for privacy. [redacted] stated she understood. During the taped sworn [redacted] was asked how she became in contact with Epstein. [redacted] stated back when she turned 17 years of age she was approached by a friend "[redacted]" in the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money.

She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey. [redacted] (Unknown last name) and [redacted] (Unknown last name) picked her up and she was taken to Epstein's house. Upon her arrival to the house she was introduced to Epstein in the kitchen of the house. She was also introduced to a white female known to her as [redacted]. She was led upstairs to the main bedroom known to her as Jeff Epstein's bedroom . [redacted] arranged the massage table and covered the table with a sheet. She brought out the massage oils and laid them next to the massage bed. [redacted], then left the room and informed her Jeff would be in, in a minute. Jeff entered the bedroom wearing only a towel. He laid on the table onto his stomach and picked a massage oil for [redacted] to rub on him. During the massage, [redacted] stated "He tried to touch me and I stopped him." I asked how did he tried to touch her. He [redacted] and she felt uncomfortable. [redacted] also stated Epstein has a vibrator which is large and white in color. [redacted] told Epstein, I'll massage you but I don't want to be touched.

[redacted] stated she performed the massage naked. At the conclusion of the massage, Epstein paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. He explained, I know you're not comfortable, but I'll pay you if you bring some girls. He told her the younger the better. [redacted] stated she once tried to bring a 23 year old female and Epstein stated that the female was too old. [redacted] was asked how many girls did she bring in total to Epstein. [redacted] stated six that she can remember. [redacted] stated she brought [redacted], [redacted], [redacted]. (16 female), [redacted] (16 female), [redacted] and at the time they were brought to Epstein's house, all the girls were 14 through 16 years of age.

I asked [redacted] which one was the youngest. [redacted] advised the victim was the youngest as she was fourteen when the massage occurred. [redacted] stated every girl she brought knew what to expect when they arrived. They were told they would provide a massage, possibly naked, and some touching. I asked her if the victim was aware. She stated every girl she brought knew what to expect. She explained she knew the victim wanted to make money . She approached the victim and explained about going to work for Jeff. The victim agreed and arrangements were made to bring the victim to Epstein's house on a weekend. [redacted] stated that she and [redacted] (Later identified as [redacted]) picked up the victim at the victim's house. They traveled to Epsteins House and entered through the kitchen door. They met with the house chef and Epstein's assistant [redacted]. The victim was introduced to Epstein while they were in the kitchen area. [redacted] led the victim upstairs and Epstein went upstairs. When the massage was over, the victim returned to the kitchen area.

EFTA00231833

[redacted] stated she was paid $200.00 for bringing the victim to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated the victim told her she was paid $300.00 for the massage. Back in the vehicle, [redacted] asked the victim what happened. The victim told her about the massage and they went shopping. [redacted] stated the victim was the last person she brought to Epstein. She further stated that she had changed her cellular number to avoid ng contacted by [redacted]. She continued that when Epstein announces to his assistant that he is traveling to Palm Beach, [redacted] would contact [redacted] to arrange girls for Epstein.

[redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call the house and leaves messages. With the assistance of [redacted], we were able to identify [redacted], DOB [redacted], [redacted] [redacted] DOB [redacted], [redacted] DOB [redacted], and [redacted] DOB [redacted].

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epsteins house. [redacted] was aware of what she had stated and wished to assist further in hopes to receive a lesser charge . [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived. As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fliess". (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted]. We met with [redacted] ([redacted] Mother) at the front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and felt that [redacted] may have additional information as we had information that she had "worked" for [redacted]. [redacted] introduced us to her husband and allowed us entry into the home. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted] Date of Birth [redacted]. As she was under the age of eighteen, [redacted] was 'vised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. As we interviewed [redacted] she denied having any inappropriate encounters with Jeff (Epstein).

She stated she had gone to Jeff's House with [redacted] approximately eight months ago, and sat in the kitchen with the house chef, but nothing happened. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to she has put the entire incident behind her. I left my direct telephone number and advised should she wish to speak with me again to telephone me. Sgt [redacted] and I thanked [redacted] for her time and left the area. She stated she would ask her again after we left as to what happened at Epstein's house. I informed her that [redacted] had my telephone number and hopefully she would call.

On October 4, 2005, Det [redacted] and I drove to the [redacted] home and met with [redacted] and [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated she was taken to house by [redacted]. She was told she could make money working for Jeff. She was told she would have to provide a massage to Jeff. [redacted] stated upon her arrival to the house she was brought to the kitchen area by [redacted]. They met with the house chef who was already in the kitchen area. [redacted] stated [redacted] would wait for her in the kitchen. She was introduced to [redacted], Jeff's assistant, and was brought upstairs to the mater bedroom. [redacted] prepared the room and massage table for a massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and she provided a massage. [redacted] stated she kept her clothes on during the massage.

She advised sometime during the massage, Epstein [redacted] and pulled her close to him. [redacted] said she was uncomfortable by the incident involving Jeff. At the conclusion of the massage, she as paid $200.00 for the massage. I asked [redacted] if she has any formal training in massages to which she replied no. I asked her if [redacted] received any monies for taking her to perform the massage.

EFTA00231834

[redacted] stated [redacted] also received money for taking her there but was unsure in the amount of monies [redacted] received for bringing her to Epstein. [redacted] stated she returned to Epstein's house on another occassion with [redacted] and another girl, [redacted]. [redacted] stated she waited in the kitchen with [redacted], while [redacted] was taken upstairs by [redacted]. [redacted] stated she only did the massage once as she was comfortable with the whole experience. At the conclusion of the interview, the tape was stopped. I was informed that [redacted] had attempted to reach [redacted] via cell phone. A voice mail message on October 4, 2005 at 10:59 am, revealed a female voice who identified herself as [redacted] who requested [redacted] to call her back reference the police questioning. This voice mail message was recorded onto a micro cassette.

[redacted] provided the incoming telephone number as [redacted]. [redacted] stated she inadvertently told [redacted] about the police investigation because [redacted] had called her to tell her about how she just received a rental car from Jeff Epstein. [redacted] had called her to tell her that she was given a rental car, a 2005 Silver Nissan Sentra, to utilize to visit family and visit Jeff. [redacted] asked her what was going on at the house that the police would be asking questions. [redacted] stated [redacted] then called Jeff and [redacted] and asked what was going on reference the ongoing police investigation. According to [redacted], [redacted] has since then been trying to contact her to ask about the police questions. I instructed [redacted] not to contact [redacted] and do not provide any more information to [redacted] as she would notify Jeff Epstein and [redacted] what was transpiring.

On October4, 2005, I made telephone contact with [redacted] who had left several messages on voice mail. During the message, she advised she was not completely truthful when we met in person but would like to speak with me to advise what had happened. She further advised she did not want to speak of this incident in front of her mother. At approximately 15:48 pm I made telephone contact with [redacted] During a taped recorded statement, [redacted] stated the following: Approximately a year ago, when she was sixteen years of age, [redacted] took her to [redacted] house twice. The first time she went, [redacted] drove to the house. They entered through the kitchen area where she was introduced to [redacted] and Jeff. She was taken upstairs to a bedroom by [redacted] and set the room up with a massage bed and brought out the oils to use. [redacted] then entered the room wearing a towel . He laid on the table and picked out a lotion for J to rub on him. At one point during the massage, he tried to remove her shirt at which point she became very upset and discontinued the massage. Both [redacted] and Jeffrey had a verbal disagreement at which time she left without being paid.

She got with [redacted] who was sitting in the kitchen and told her "let's go." [redacted] advised she received no money for that day. [redacted] also said that [redacted] had told her if she was uncomfortable with what was going on, to let him know and he'll stop. She knew that the more you do the more you get paid.

[redacted] advised that several weeks later, she agreed to be taken a second time by [redacted]. Once they arrived at the residence, [redacted] sat in the kitchen, and [redacted] took her upstairs to the master bedroom again. [redacted] set the room up with a massage bed and brought out the oils to use. Jeff then entered the room wearing a towel. He laid on the table and picked out a lotion for [redacted] to rub on him. At one point during the massage, he tried to touch her buttocks.

As [redacted] was wearing tight jeans and had a tight belt on Jeff was unable to touch her buttocks. Jeff then rolled onto his back during the massage, he attempted to touch her breasts. [redacted] then became upset again and told she didn't want to be touched. [redacted] discontinued the massage and was paid $200.00. [redacted] then went downstairs where [redacted] was waiting for her. She told [redacted] she wanted to leave. [redacted] said she never returned to the house. [redacted] stated she is aware that her friend, [redacted] was also at the house and had a problem with [redacted]. She provided a telephone number for [redacted]. The interview was concluded and the micro cassettes were turn in as evidence.

EFTA00231835

I later researched [redacted] and discovered she resides in Royal Palm Beach. Det [redacted] and I drove to Royal Palm Beach and met with [redacted] at her residence [redacted] in Royal Palm Beach.

[redacted] agreed to speak with us in the kitchen area. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated the llowing: On or about November 2004, She was approached by [redacted] and asked if she wanted to make money. She agreed and was told she would provide a massage to wealthy man in Palm Beach. [redacted] picked her up and drove her to a house in Palm Beach. She was brought into the kitchen area of the house. She further stated that [redacted]. and [redacted])came with them. They were brought into the kitchen where she was introduced to Jeff and other females. [redacted] stated she was introduced to a female helper of Jeff, the female was described as white female (unknown name), with blond hair. She stated that the assistant was familiar with [redacted]. The assistant brought her upstairs into a master bedroom area. The assistant set up the massage table and put out lotions to be used. She told [redacted], Jeff would be available in a minute. Jeff entered the room wearing only a towel. Jeff removed his towel, exposing himself , laid on the massage table and picked a lotion to rub on his thighs and back. [redacted] further stated during the massage, Jeff asked her to remove her clothes. She complied and removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] didn't remember if she had removed her bra but feels that she did. [redacted] was certain that she stayed in her thong underwear. [redacted] continued the massage and at one point she straddled him to massage his back, [redacted]. [redacted] was instructed to return to the ground at which Jeff turned to have his chest rubbed. [redacted] advised she was unsure if he was masturbating. [redacted] did not want to look at his penis area because she was uncomfortable. Jeff removed a large white vibrator which was next to the bed and turned it on. [redacted] stated he began [redacted] thong underwear on her vagina area. Shortly thereafter, [redacted] ejaculated and removed himself from the table. He walked over to where the shower was and opened the glass door. She waited as he was taking a shower in her direct view. When I asked [redacted] how old she was when this occurred, she stated she had just turned seventeen. At the conclusion of the shower, [redacted] was paid either $350.00 or $400.00. She stated she 'asn't sure , but knows it was close to $400.00. At the conclusion of the interview, [redacted] stated she never returned to provide a massage for Jeff. She advised she was ashamed and uncomfortable with the situation.

At approximately 2:10 pm, Det [redacted] and I met with [redacted] at her residence. As [redacted] was only seventeen years of age, I had notified her mother [redacted], that she would be interviewed reference an ongoing investigation in Palm Beach. I assured her that her daughter was not a suspect. I explained the possibility of her being either a witness or victim. [redacted] advised she wanted [redacted] to cooperate and consented to the interview. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated the following: at the age of sixteen, during the month of September 2004, she was approached by [redacted] for a chance to make money. [redacted] was friends with the friends of [redacted] and knew the same people. [redacted] had been previously told by her friends what [redacted] did for Jeff. [redacted] called a person known to [redacted] as [redacted] and scheduled the appointment. [redacted] picked [redacted] up and drove her to Palm beach to a street called Brillo Way. They drove to the end of the street and entered a large driveway. They entered the kitchen area of the house and met with Jeff. [redacted] was introduced to Jeff.

[redacted] stated she observed numerous photographs of naked young girls throughout the house. [redacted] led [redacted] upstairs to the main bedroom area and set up the room with a massage table and set out the oils. [redacted] dimmed the lights and turned on soft music. [redacted] exited the room and Jeff entered the room wearing only a towel. Jeff picked a oils and instructed her to rub his legs, under his buttocks, back and chest area. Jeff asked her to get comfortable. [redacted] advised she did not remove her clothes. She was wearing tight jeans and a cropped tank top exposing her belly area.

EFTA00231836

During the massage, Jeff removed his towel and laid on the massage table naked. As [redacted], Jeff attempted to reach down her pants through the buttocks area however was unable to due to the tightness of the jeans and a tight belt. [redacted] advised Jeff began to masturbate as she rubbed his chest. [redacted] moaned as she rubbed his chest. She observed he was continuing to masturbate and attempted to reach up [redacted]r tank top and touch her breasts. [redacted], pulled back and Jeff stopped. However, he kept masturbating until [redacted]e climaxed. He cleaned himself with the towel he was previously wearing. I asked [redacted] if she knew the difference about circumcised and not circumcised meant. She explained she knew and advised [redacted] was circumcised. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. And left the area. She met with [redacted] who was waiting in the kitchen area and left the house.

[redacted] then explained she never provided another massage for [redacted]. She did however, go to the house with [redacted] and [redacted]) as they took another friend of [redacted]. [redacted] advised she was present when [redacted] went to work for Jeff. She advised she rode over and sat in the kitchen area with [redacted] to wait for [redacted]. [redacted] advised while they waited for [redacted], the house chef prepared lunch for them as it was almost lunchtime when they went. As [redacted] was finished with the massage, they left the area. I asked [redacted] if [redacted] ever told her what would be expected when she provided a massage. [redacted] stated yes, [redacted] told her that a massage would be expected possibly naked and possibly some touching involved. [redacted] has no formal training in providing massages.

[redacted] spoke about a third and last time she went to Jeff's house. [redacted] drove another girl, [redacted], who is [redacted] friend, to Jeff's house. [redacted] stated [redacted] knew that [redacted] had made money, massaging [redacted] and wanted to make money herself. [redacted] took them in the kitchen area of the house and introduced [redacted] to [redacted]. [redacted] and [redacted] took [redacted] upstairs to the main bedroom. [redacted] advised she doesn't know what happened as [redacted] did not speak about what happened in the room. [redacted] received $100.00 from [redacted] for going with her to Jeff's house and recommending [redacted]. [redacted] was unable to remember [redacted]acotta's telephone number. The interview was concluded and we left the area.

On October 6, 2005, at 11:45 am, I met with [redacted] at [redacted] and explained to her why we there to interview her. She advised she was aware of the ongoing investigation. [redacted] stated she had previously spoken with [redacted] who told her she was interviewed by detectives. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated she knew that [redacted] worked for Jeff in Palm Beach. [redacted] advised she has been there a lot of times for massages. I asked her if she had formal training in providing massages, which [redacted] stated she had not. [redacted] advised she was told what was expected of her by providing massages and would have to remove clothing but if she felt uncomfortable just to say so and Jeff would stop pushing the issue. [redacted] began providing massages and advised she kept her clothes on. She considered Jeff a pervert and he kept pushing to go further and further. [redacted] explained she would keep telling him she had a boyfriend and would not be right to her boyfriend. It wasn't until recently, [redacted] admitted to removing her clothes and staying in her thong underwear to provide a massage. [redacted] explained he wanted to be rubbed on his back and recently he began turning over and have her rub his chest as he masturbated. He would try to touch her breasts as she rubbed his chest.

[redacted] stated "Jeff would try to get away with more and more on each massage". Originally, [redacted] drove her to the house for the original massage. [redacted] left [redacted] her cell phone number and every time Jeff would come into town, [redacted] would call her for an appointment. Each time she went, [redacted] would meet her at the kitchen door area. She would bring her upstairs and prepare the massage table. [redacted] advised [redacted] would ask her questions about her. He knew she was [redacted] and would be attending [redacted]. I asked [redacted] if he knew her real age, [redacted] stated Jeff didn't care. The most recent massage she provided was [redacted]n October 1, 2005.

EFTA00231837

During the massage, she asked Jeff if she could borrow one of his vehicles to visit her family and boyfriend in [redacted]. Jeff had told her she could borrow one of his vehicles but later stated he would rent her a car. She continued with the massage as Jeff [redacted] and caressed the buttocks checks. I asked [redacted] if she was wearing undergarments to which she replied her thong underwear. Once he tried to touch her breasts, she would pull away from him and he would stop. [redacted] was asked if he ever used a vibrator on her. [redacted] was aware of the vibrator but advised she never would allow him to [redacted] on her. She described the vibrator as the large white vibrator with a huge head on the tip of the vibrator. She stated he kept the vibrator in a closet near the massage table. [redacted] advised she had been doing the massage for approximately two years which meant she would have started doing massages for Jeff at the age of sixteen.

[redacted] stated she was contacted by [redacted] on October 3, 2005. [redacted] had informed her that Jeff had rented her a new Nissan Sentra and she should come by the house to pick it up. [redacted] informed [redacted] she would have the car for a month. [redacted] stated Jeff knew her car was not working properly and had missed appointments in the past because of her car being inoperable. [redacted] explained the car is currently parked next to the Gym field. I asked her if she ever took any one to the house. [redacted] explained she took [redacted], a friend of hers who has returned to [redacted] to attend college. I asked if she ever allowed another female in the room. [redacted] advised no one was brought into the room with her. At the conclusion of the interview, Det [redacted] and I went to the Gym area of [redacted] and located the Silver Nissan Sentra bearing Florida tag [redacted]. The vehicle is registered to Dollar rent a car out of the Palm Beach International Airport.

On October, 11, 2005, Det [redacted] and I had traveled to [redacted] and met with [redacted], date of birth, [redacted]. [redacted] explained she had gone to Epsteins house since she was sixteen. She explained she was brought to the house to perform a massage by Shasty [redacted]. Once she began explaining that the massage immediately escalated to other things, she further explained she had gone to the house hundreds of times. [redacted] stated she became his "number one girl." She would enter the house and get naked in the bedroom. She would then start with a back massage. Epstein would roll on to his back and allow her to massage his chest area. [redacted] stated Epstein would then began to masturbate himself and at the same time would [redacted] with his fingers. [redacted] explained Epstein would continue this process until he ejaculated. He would then utilize a vibrator/massager on her vagina until [redacted] ejaculated. [redacted] advised that during her frequent visits, Epstein asked for her real age, [redacted] stated she was sixteen. Epstein advised her not to tell anyone her real age. [redacted] advised that things escalated within the home as Epstein would pay [redacted] to [redacted] with his assistant, [redacted]. Epstein would watch and masturbate as he was watching. Occasionally, Epstein would then join in during the intercourse and provide oral sex to both [redacted] and [redacted]. This occurred during the time [redacted] was sixteen years of age.

[redacted] advised this continued to escalate and occurred during two years. The routine became familiar to [redacted]. Epstein's assistant [redacted] would telephone her every time Epstein was in the Town of Palm Beach and would place appointments for her to visit and work for Epstein. [redacted] stated Epstein would photograph them [redacted] and proudly display the photographs within the home.

[redacted] continued to come to the house and was paid approximately $400.00 to $600.00 every time she went. [redacted] stated during a massage involving [redacted], Epstein turned [redacted] on to her stomach on the massage bed and [redacted]. [redacted] stated Epstein began to [redacted]. [redacted] became upset over this .

EFTA00231838

She said [redacted]. She screamed no and Epstein stopped. She told him that she did not want to [redacted]. Epstein apologized for his actions and subsequently paid her a thousand dollars for that visit. [redacted] stated she knows he still displays her photographs through out the house.

Your affiant recalled working a previous case within Epstein's residence on October 5, 2003, when Epstein reported a theft from within his house. A former, disgruntled houseman was suspected in stealing monies from the house. At that time, I observed several covert cameras which, would capture and record images of anyone within the residence. Epstein had purchased covert cameras which were built in wall clocks and table clocks. These images were then downloaded onto a proprietary spy ware.software for later viewing.

WHEREOF, affiant make this affidavit and pray the issuance of a search warrant in due form of law for the search of the above described premises for the said property, heretofore described, and for the seizure and safe keeping of the property, subject to the order of this Honorable Court or such other Court having jurisdiction over the offense, by the duly constituted officers of the law.

It was later confirmed by the [redacted] father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted] father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted]. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted]. [redacted] stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. [redacted] said she was paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before she left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted] cellular telephone [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked [redacted], what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted]'s voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted] name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted] residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau where I obtained a taped, sworn statement. I began the interview by asking [redacted] how she became acquainted with Epstein. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

[redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call [redacted] house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted]. We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for [redacted]. [redacted] introduced us to her husband and allowed us entry into the home. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted], Date of Birth [redacted]. As she was under the age of eighteen, [redacted] was advised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. We interviewed [redacted], who denied having any inappropriate encounters with [redacted] (Epstein). She stated she had gone to Jeff's house with [redacted] approximately eight months ago and sat in the kitchen with the house chef, but nothing happened. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to putting the entire incident behind her. I left my telephone number and advised should she wish to speak with me again to telephone me. Sgt [redacted] and I thanked [redacted] for her time and left the area. She stated she would ask [redacted] again after we left as to what happened at Epstein's house. I informed her that [redacted] had my telephone number and hopefully she would call.

[redacted] stated she returned to Epstein's house on another occasion with [redacted] and another girl, [redacted]. [redacted] stated she waited in the kitchen with [redacted], while [redacted] was taken upstairs by [redacted]. At the conclusion of the interview, the tape was stopped. I was informed that [redacted] had attempted to reach [redacted] via cell phone. A voice mail message on October 4, 2005 at 10:59 am, revealed a female voice who identified herself as [redacted] who requested [redacted] to call her back reference the police questioning. [redacted] provided the incoming telephone number as [redacted]. [redacted] stated she inadvertently told [redacted] about the police investigation because [redacted] had called her to tell her about how she just received a rental car from Jeff Epstein. [redacted] had called her to tell her that she was given a rental car, a 2005 Silver Nissan Sentra, to utilize to visit family and visit Epstein. [redacted] asked her what was going on at the house that the police would be asking questions. [redacted] stated [redacted] then called Jeff and [redacted] and asked what was going on reference the ongoing police investigation. According to [redacted], [redacted] has since then been trying to contact her to ask about the police questions. I instructed [redacted] not to contact [redacted] and do not provide any more information to [redacted] as she would notify Jeff Epstein and [redacted] what was transpiring.

On October4, 2005, I made telephone contact with [redacted] who had left several messages for me to contact her. During the message, she advised she was not completely truthful when we met in person but would like to speak with me to advise what had happened. During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may Epstein [redacted] and apologized for [redacted]. During this time, he kept his [redacted] and continued to rub her vagina. [redacted] stated he [redacted] as he was masturbating. [redacted] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Epstein told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Epstein also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to [redacted] for bringing her there to massage him. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for [redacted] and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

On January 9, 2006, I located and interviewed another victim, [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as a potential victim/witness from information obtained during trash pulls from Epstein's residence. [redacted] stated she met Epstein when she was fifteen years of age. She was approached by a friend from Royal Palm Beach High School, [redacted], to be taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house to work. She was originally told she would be able to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself. Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or utilize the massager/vibrator on [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house.

Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

Therefore, as Jeffrey Epstein, who at the time of these incidents was fifty one years of age, did have vaginal intercourse either [redacted] or digitally with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], who were minors at the time this occurred, there is sufficient probable cause to charge Jeffrey Epstein with four counts of Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, in violation of Florida State Statute 794.05(1), a second degree felony. As Epstein, who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did use a vibrator on the external vaginal area of [redacted], a fourteen year old minor, there is sufficient probable cause to charge him with Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.04 (5), a second degree felony.

Police Case#: 05-368 (2)

Defendant: [redacted]
Race/Sex: White Female
DOB: [redacted]
Charges: Principal in the 1st Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor (4) counts
Principal in the 1st Lewd and Lascivious Molestation (1) count

From March 15, 2005, through February 2006, the Palm Beach Police Department conducted a sexual battery investigation involving Jeffrey Epstein, [redacted] and [redacted]. Sworn taped statements were taken from five victims and seventeen witnesses concerning massages and unlawful sexual activity that took place at the residence of Jeffrey Epstein, 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach. Several of the victims were recruited by and brought to the residence by [redacted] to perform massages for Epstein, for which [redacted] received monetary compensation. During the visit they would be introduced to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, who in turn would record their telephone numbers and name. The victims would be brought to Epstein's bedroom to provide the massage. Epstein would enter the room and order the victims to remove their clothing to provide the massage. As the victims complied and provided the massages, Epstein would [redacted]. On occasion, Epstein would introduce a massager/vibrator and [redacted] as they provided the massage. On three separate occasions, Epstein had intercourse and inserted his penis/fingers in the victims vaginas. At the conclusion of the massages the victims were paid sums of money ranging from $200 - $1,000. The facts, as reported, are as follows:

On 03/15/2005, A fourteen year old white female, hereinafter referred to as "[redacted]," dob [redacted], and her family reported unlawful sexual activity which occurred at a residence within the Town of Palm Beach. [redacted] reported that a subject known to her as "Jeff" had touched her vaginal area with a vibrator/massager while within his residence. "Jeff" was later identified as Jeffrey Epstein through a photo line up.

During a sworn taped interview, [redacted] stated that [redacted], dob [redacted], a cousin of [redacted] boyfriend and classmate at Royal Palm Beach High School, worked for a wealthy man and did sexual favors for him. She also admitted that [redacted] had offered her an opportunity to make money. During the beginning of the month of February 2005, [redacted] explained that she was first approached by [redacted] to go with her to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated that [redacted] along with a Hispanic female, later identified at [redacted], pick her up at her father's house on a Sunday. [redacted] was not sure of the exact dates but knew it was a Sunday. [redacted] told her father that they were going shopping but in reality [redacted] drove them to Palm Beach. During the drive a conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereas [redacted] reportedly told [redacted] that if Jeff asked her age, she should say she was eighteen. It was later confirmed by the [redacted] father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted] father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Epstein. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. [redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted]. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. [redacted] told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. [redacted] stated Epstein was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room [redacted] she took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein had removed his towel and told the [redacted] to take off everything. [redacted] stated Epstein was nude when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. [redacted] stated she then removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back whereby [redacted]. [redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage him, telling her to go clockwise or counter clockwise. Epstein then turned over and instructed [redacted] to massage his chest. [redacted] was now standing on the ground and resumed massaging Epstein's chest area. [redacted] stated Epstein held onto the small of her back as she massaged his chest and shoulder area. Epstein then turned to his side and started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. Epstein then pulled out a purple vibrator and began to [redacted]. [redacted] stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. [redacted] said she was paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before she left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted] cellular telephone 561-308-0282. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked [redacted], what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted] voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted] name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted] residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may

Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for [redacted] and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's

On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, [redacted] that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

Jeffrey Epstein, who at the time of these incidents was fifty one years of age, did have vaginal intercourse either [redacted] or digitally with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], who were minors at the time this occurred, and who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did use a vibrator on the external vaginal area of [redacted], a fourteen year old minor. Therefore, as [redacted] coordinated and aided in the recruitment of minors to frequent Epstein's house so that sexual services were provided to Epstein, scheduled the said minors to return to the work for Epstein, secured their appointments for the purpose of sexual activity and lewd and lascivious acts and arranged the bedroom for said minors, there is sufficient probable cause to charge [redacted] with four counts of Principal in the 1st degree Unlawful Sexual Activity with a Minor, in violation of Florida State Statute 794.05(1) , a second degree felony and there is sufficient probable cause to charge her with Lewd and Lascivious Molestation, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.04 (5), a second degree felony.

The foregoing instrument was sworn to or affirmed before me this 1st day of May, 2006 by Det [redacted], who is personally known to me.

Defendant: [redacted]
Race/Sex: White Female

Charges: Lewd and Lascivious Act on a child under 16 years of age 800.04(6)(2b)

From March 15, 2005, through February 2006, the Palm Beach Police Department conducted a sexual battery investigation involving Jeffrey Epstein, [redacted] and [redacted]. Sworn taped statements were taken from five victims and seventeen witnesses concerning massages and unlawful sexual activity that took place at the residence of Jeffrey Epstein, 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach. Several of the victims were recruited by and brought to the residence by [redacted] to perform massages for Epstein, for which [redacted] received monetary compensation. During the visit they would be introduced to [redacted], Epstein's assistant, who in turn would record their telephone numbers and name. The victims would be brought to Epstein's bedroom to provide the massage. Epstein would enter the room and order the victims to remove their clothing to provide the massage. As the victims complied and provided the massages, Epstein would [redacted]. On occasion, Epstein would introduce a massager/vibrator and [redacted] as they provided the massage. On three separate occasions, Epstein had intercourse and inserted his penis/fingers in the victims vaginas. At the conclusion of the massages the victims were paid sums of money ranging from $200 - $1,000. The facts, as reported, are as follows:

On 03/15/2005, A fourteen year old white female, hereinafter referred to as "[redacted]," dob [redacted], and her family reported unlawful sexual activity which occurred at a residence within the Town of Palm Beach. [redacted] reported that a subject known to her as "Jeff" had touched her vaginal area with a vibrator/massager while within his residence. "Jeff" was later identified as Jeffrey Epstein through a photo line up.

During a sworn taped interview, [redacted] stated that [redacted], dob [redacted], a cousin of [redacted] boyfriend and classmate at Royal Palm Beach High School, worked for a wealthy man and did sexual favors for him. She also admitted that [redacted] had offered her an opportunity to make money. During the beginning of the month of February 2005, [redacted] explained that she was first approached by [redacted] to go with her to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated that [redacted] along with a Hispanic female, later identified at [redacted], pick her up at her father's house on a Sunday. [redacted] was not sure of the exact dates but knew it was a Sunday. [redacted] told her father that they were going shopping but in reality [redacted] drove them to Palm Beach. During the drive a conversation occurred between [redacted] and [redacted] whereas [redacted] reportedly told [redacted] that if Jeff asked her age, she should say she was eighteen. It was later confirmed by the [redacted]'s father that [redacted] picked his daughter up on February 6, 2005. According to [redacted] father, [redacted] drove a pick up truck.

[redacted] described Epstein's house as a two-story pink house with a Cadillac Escalade parked in the driveway. She recalled that Jeff's house was on a dead end street. Upon arriving at the house [redacted] stated that they walked up a driveway, past what appeared to be a small guard/security room. A male approaching them asking what they wanted. [redacted] stated they were there to see Epstein. The male allowed them to continue walking up to the house. [redacted] stated the man told them that Epstein was not there but was expected back. He allowed them to enter the house, via the kitchen. He offered them something to drink while they waited inside. Shortly thereafter, Epstein and his assistant, described as white female with blond hair and later identified as [redacted], entered the kitchen. Epstein introduced himself to [redacted]. [redacted] described Epstein as being approximately forty-five years old, having a long face and bushy eyebrows, with graying hair.

[redacted] and Epstein left the kitchen leaving [redacted] alone in the kitchen. They returned a short time later. They all spoke briefly in the kitchen. [redacted] was instructed to follow [redacted] upstairs. [redacted] recalled walking up a flight of stairs, lined with photographs, to a room that had a massage table in it. Upon entering the room there was a large bathroom to the right and a hot pink and green sofa in the room. There was a door on each side of the sofa. [redacted] recalled there being a mural of a naked woman in the room, as well as several photographs of naked women on a shelf. [redacted] told the victim that Epstein would be up in a second.

Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and told [redacted] to take off her clothes. [redacted] stated Epstein was stern when he told her to take off her clothes. [redacted] said she did not know what to do as she was the only one there in the room [redacted] she took off her shirt leaving her bra on. Epstein had removed his towel and told the [redacted] to take off everything. [redacted] stated Epstein was nude when he took his towel off, placing it on the floor as he laid down on the table. [redacted] stated she then removed her pants leaving her thong panties on. Epstein then instructed her to give him a massage pointing to a specific lotion for her to use. As [redacted] began to give Epstein the massage, he told her to get on his back. [redacted] stated she straddled herself on Epstein's back whereby [redacted]. [redacted] said Epstein was specific in his instruction to her on how to massage him, telling her to go clockwise or counter clockwise. Epstein then turned over and instructed [redacted] to massage his chest. [redacted] was now standing on the ground and resumed massaging Epstein's chest area. [redacted] stated Epstein held onto the small of her back as she massaged his chest and shoulder area. Epstein then turned to his side and started to rub his penis in an up and down motion. Epstein then pulled out a purple vibrator and began to [redacted]. [redacted] stated there was no penetration as the [redacted]. [redacted] recalled Epstein ejaculating because he had to use the towel to wipe himself as he got off the table. Epstein then left the room and [redacted] got dressed. She went back downstairs where she met with [redacted]. [redacted] said she was paid three hundred dollars in cash from Epstein. Before she left, Epstein asked [redacted] to leave her phone number. As [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] were leaving the house, [redacted] told [redacted] she received two hundred dollars that day for bringing her.

During the course of the investigation, parental consent was granted for [redacted] to assist with the investigation. At our direction [redacted] conducted controlled taped phone calls to [redacted] cellular telephone [redacted]. [redacted] spoke with [redacted] in an attempt to arrange another meeting with Epstein. [redacted] asked [redacted], what did she need to do to make more money. [redacted] stated, "the more you do, the more you get paid." [redacted] had subsequently called back [redacted] and left a voice mail message for her indicating that she had set up an appointment for [redacted] to go to Epstein's house at 11:00 am on April 5, 2005. This message was recorded from [redacted]'s voice mail.

Based on the above, trash pulls were established at Epstein's residence with Supervisor Tony Higgins of the Sanitation Bureau of the Town of Palm Beach. The trash pull from April 5, 2005 revealed a telephone message for Epstein which stated [redacted] and [redacted] name at 11:00 am. This was the time frame [redacted] had informed [redacted] to be ready to go work at Epstein's house.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to [redacted] residence and viewed her vehicle parked in the driveway, a red Dodge Neon. Sgt. [redacted] and I knocked on the door and met with [redacted]. [redacted] was told that we were investigating a claim involving Jeffrey Epstein of El Brillo Way, in Palm Beach. [redacted] was asked if she would accompany us back to the police station for further questioning. She was also told that at the conclusion of the interview she would be returned home. [redacted] voluntarily came with us back to the Palm Beach Police Department.

Upon our arrival at the police station, [redacted] was brought to the interview room in the Detective Bureau where I obtained a taped, sworn statement. I began the interview by asking [redacted] how she became acquainted with Epstein. [redacted] stated that approximately two years ago, just after she turned 17 years of age, she was approached by a friend named [redacted] at the Canopy Beach Resort in Rivera Beach. [redacted] was asked if she wanted to make money. She was told she would have to provide a massage and should make $200.00. [redacted] thought about the offer and agreed to meet with Jeffrey.

Upon her arrival to the house she was introduced to Epstein in the kitchen of the house. She was also introduced to a white female known to her as [redacted]. She was led upstairs to the main bedroom known to her as Jeff Epstein's bedroom. [redacted] arranged the massage table and covered the table with a sheet. She brought out the massage oils and laid them next to the massage bed. [redacted], then left the room and informed [redacted] Jeff would be in, in a minute. Jeff entered the bedroom wearing only a towel. He removed the towel and laid nude on the massage table. He laid on the table onto his stomach and picked a massage oil for [redacted] to rub on him. During the massage, [redacted] stated "He tried to touch me and I stopped him." I asked how he tried to touch her. [redacted] stated that Epstein [redacted] and she felt uncomfortable. [redacted] told Epstein, I'll massage you but I don't want to be touched. [redacted] stated she performed the massage naked. At the conclusion of the massage, Epstein paid [redacted] $200.

After the massage Epstein stated to [redacted] that he understood she was not comfortable, but he would pay her if she brought over some girls. He told her the younger the better. [redacted] stated she once tried to bring a 23 year old female and Epstein stated that the female was too old. [redacted] stated that in total she only remembers six girls that she brought to see Epstein, each time she was paid $200. [redacted] stated she had brought the following girls: [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted]. (a16 year old female), [redacted] (a 16 year old female) and [redacted]. [redacted] said that at the time she brought these girls to Epstein's house they were all14 through 16 years of age. I asked [redacted] which one was the youngest. [redacted] advised [redacted] was the youngest as she was fourteen when the massage occurred. [redacted] stated every girl she brought knew what to expect when .hey arrived. They were told they would provide a massage, possibly naked, and allow some touching. I asked her if [redacted] was aware. She stated every girl she brought knew what to expect. She explained she knew that [redacted] wanted to make money. She approached [redacted] and explained about going to work for Jeff, [redacted] agreed and arrangements were made to bring her to Epstein's house on a weekend. [redacted] stated that she and [redacted] (Later identified as [redacted]) picked up [redacted] at her house. [redacted] stated that at that time she was driving a red pickup truck. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein while they were in the kitchen area. [redacted] led [redacted] upstairs and Epstein went upstairs. When the massage was over [redacted] returned to the kitchen area. [redacted] stated she was paid $200.00 for bringing [redacted] to Epstein's house. [redacted] stated [redacted] told her she was paid $300.00 for the massage.

when he was going to travel to Palm Beach. [redacted] said when Epstein announces to his assistant, [redacted], that he is traveling to Palm Beach, [redacted] would then contact [redacted] to arrange girls to "work" for Epstein. [redacted] stated that once her parents discovered that she was visiting Epstein, they disapproved of the encounters with him and she stopped. [redacted] further stated that [redacted] still tries to call [redacted] house and leaves messages.

Sgt [redacted] entered the room and explained to [redacted] that based on her own statements, she had implicated herself by bringing underage girls to Epstein's house. [redacted] provided cellular telephone numbers for the girls she had mentioned previously. Additionally, she also provided possible addresses and areas in which they lived.

As [redacted] was being taken home in the vehicle, a tape recorder was placed within the vehicle to record any conversations within the vehicle. During the drive back to her home, [redacted] made the comment " I'm like a Heidi Fleiss." (Hollywood Madam who sent girls to clients for sexual favors in California). [redacted] was dropped off at her house without incident.

On October 3, 2005, Sgt [redacted] and I went to speak with [redacted], a sixteen year-old female who was brought to Epstein's residence by [redacted]. We met with [redacted] mother at their front door. We explained the ongoing investigation and asked to speak with [redacted] as we had information that she had "worked" for [redacted]. Mrs. S introduced us to her husband and allowed us entry into the home. We sat in the dining room and met with [redacted], Date of Birth [redacted]. As she was under the age of eighteen, [redacted] was advised we would be speaking with her. She expressed if her daughter had information, she wanted to assist. We interviewed [redacted], who denied having any inappropriate encounters with Jeff (Epstein). She stated she had gone to Jeff's house with [redacted] approximately eight months ago and sat in the kitchen with the house chef, but nothing happened. As the parents were present during the interview, we felt that [redacted] was withholding information from us. She made several comments as to putting the entire incident behind her. I left my telephone number and advised should she wish to speak with me again to telephone me. Sgt [redacted] and I thanked [redacted] for her time and left the area. She stated she would ask [redacted] again after we left as to what happened at Epstein's house. I informed her that [redacted] had my telephone number and hopefully she would call.

On October 4, 2005, Det [redacted] and I drove to the [redacted] home and met with [redacted] and [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated approximately a year ago when she was seventeen years old, she was taken to a house by [redacted]. [redacted] stated she knows [redacted] because they both attend Royal Palm Beach High School. She was told she could make money working for Jeff. She was told she would have to provide a massage to [redacted]. [redacted] stated upon her arrival to the house she was brought to the kitchen area by [redacted]. [redacted] was introduced to [redacted], Jeff's assistant, who brought her upstairs to the master bedroom. [redacted] prepared the room and massage table for a massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel and she provided a massage. [redacted] stated she kept her clothes on during the massage. She advised sometime during the massage, Epstein [redacted] and pulled her close to him. [redacted] said she was uncomfortable by the incident involving Jeff. At the conclusion of the massage, she was paid $200.00 for the massage. I asked [redacted] if she has any formal training in massages to which she replied no. I asked her if [redacted] received any monies for taking her to perform the massage. [redacted] stated [redacted] had received money for taking her there but was unsure in the amount. During the course of the investigation a search warrant was executed at Jeffrey Epstein's home located at 358 El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. While in the home I observed the pink and green couch within the master bedroom area just as the girls previously mentioned. The stairway, which is located from the kitchen area to the master bedroom area, is lined with photos of naked young girls. Additionally, numerous photographs of naked young females, some of which appeared to be the girls I previously interviewed, were on display throughout the house. Also located in the house were various phone message books. The telephone message books have a duplicate copy (Carbon Copy) which, once a phone message is written into the book, the top copy is then torn on the perforated edge and the carbon copy is left in the book. First names of girls, dates and telephone numbers were on the copy of the messages. I recognized various numbers and names of girls that had already been interviewed. The body of the messages were time of the day that they called for confirmation of "work." Other names and telephone numbers were located in which the body of the messages were, "I have girls for him" or "I have 2 girls for him." These messages were taken by [redacted], who signed the bottom of the messages. During the execution of the warrant, I located a Royal Palm Beach High School transcript for [redacted] in Epstein's bedroom desk. This desk had stationary marked Jeffrey E Epstein. I located a wood colored armoire beside Epstein's bed that contained a bottle of "Joy Jelly," which is used to provide a warm massage. Several massage tables were located throughout the second floor of the residence, including a massage table found in Epstein's bedroom. On the first floor of the residence I found two covert cameras hidden within clocks. One was located in the garage and the other located in the library area on a shelf behind Epstein's desk. A computer was located which was believed to contain the images from the covert cameras. The computer's hard drive was reviewed which showed several images of [redacted] and other witnesses that have been interviewed. All of these images appeared to come from the camera positioned behind Epstein's desk.

On December 13, 2005, Det. [redacted] and I met with [redacted], dob [redacted]. During a sworn taped statement, [redacted] stated that when she was sixteen years old she was taken to Epstein's house to provide a massage for money. [redacted] stated it was before Christmas last year (2004) when an associate, [redacted], approached her and asked if she needed to make money for Christmas. [redacted] made arrangements to take [redacted] to the house and drove [redacted] to the house to "work." They were encountered by a white female with long blond hair. [redacted] was unable to remember the name of the white female with blond hair but knew she was Epstein's assistant. She was led upstairs by the white female who explained that there would be lotions out already and Epstein would choose the lotion he wanted her to use. She was led through a spiral staircase which led to a master bedroom and bathroom. The massage table was already set up in the bathroom. [redacted] described the bathroom as a large spacious bathroom with a steam room and shower beside it. [redacted] was introduced to Epstein who was on the phone when she entered the room. Epstein was wearing a white towel and laid on his stomach [redacted] that [redacted] may massage his feet and calves. [redacted] started the massage with the oils Epstein chose and rubbed his feet and calves. Epstein got off the phone and requested she massage his back as well. [redacted] began rubbing his back and got to the small of his back. During the rubbing of his back, Epstein asked her to get comfortable. He requested she remove her pants and shirt. [redacted] removed her shirt and pulled her pants off. [redacted] stayed in her bra and thong panties. As she finished massaging the small of Epstein's back, he then turned onto his back. Epstein instructed [redacted] to rub his chest and pinch his nipples. As she [redacted], Epstein asked her questions about herself. [redacted] remembered telling him she attended Royal Palm Beach High School. Epstein asked her if she was sexually active. Before [redacted] could answer, he also asked what sexual position does she enjoy. [redacted] stated she was shy and didn't like talking about those things. She continued [redacted]. Epstein reached up and unsnapped her bra from the front. [redacted] explained the bra she used had a front snapping device. Epstein [redacted] and asked her if she like having [redacted]. [redacted] said "no, I don't like that." Epstein then removed his towel and laid on the bed naked exposing his penis to [redacted]. He began touching his penis and masturbated as he [redacted]. [redacted] explained Epstein then touched her vaginal area by rubbing her vagina with his fingers on the outside of her thong panties. [redacted] tensed up and stated Epstein was aware that she was uncomfortable. [redacted] stated that Epstein said to her, "Relax, I'm not going inside." She further explained Epstein commented to her how beautiful and sexy she was. Epstein then moved her thong panties to one side and began [redacted]. [redacted] said, "He commented how [redacted]." He then [redacted]. She tried pulling back to [redacted]. Epstein [redacted] and apologized for [redacted]. During this time, he kept his [redacted] and continued to rub her vagina. [redacted] stated he [redacted] as he was masturbating. [redacted] said he climaxed onto the towel he had been previously wearing and got up from the table. Epstein told her there was $200.00 dollars for her on the dresser within the master bathroom. Epstein also told her that there was an additional $100.00 that was to be given to [redacted] for bringing her there to massage him. Epstein told her to leave her telephone number with his assistant as he wanted to see her again. Epstein stated his assistant would contact her to work again soon. I asked her if she ever received any formal massage training to which [redacted] stated she did not. [redacted] stated it was the only time she ever went to work for Jeff and knew what happened to her was wrong. She further stated that she had never been contacted for any additional work.

On January 9, 2006, I located and interviewed another victim, [redacted], dob [redacted]. [redacted] was identified as a potential victim/witness from information obtained during trash pulls from Epstein's residence. [redacted] stated she met Epstein when she was fifteen years of age. She was approached by a friend from Royal Palm Beach High School, [redacted], to be taken to Jeffrey Epstein's house to work. She was originally told she would be able to model lingerie for a wealthy Palm Beacher. [redacted] was taken to Epstein's house located on El BrilloWay. [redacted] introduced [redacted] to Jeffrey Epstein. Epstein had his personal chef prepare dinner for [redacted] and [redacted]. At the conclusion of dinner, [redacted] and Epstein brought [redacted] upstairs into a master bedroom area. [redacted] observed a large massage table with a sheet on it. Epstein entered through a door and exited wearing only a towel. [redacted] informed [redacted] that they were going to provide a massage on Epstein. [redacted] asked why were they doing this instead of modeling lingerie. [redacted] explained to [redacted] that this was his routine and to rub his calves and feet. Epstein had told [redacted] to get comfortable. [redacted] removed her pants and blouse. [redacted] stated she stayed only in panties as she did not wear a bra that evening. [redacted] stated while rubbing his calves and feet, Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein told [redacted] to rub his chest and rub his nipples. [redacted] stated that as she started [redacted], Epstein began masturbating himself. Epstein [redacted] and [redacted] with his fingers. Epstein continued to masturbate himself as he [redacted]. Epstein ejaculated on his towel and paid [redacted] $200.00 for the massage. Epstein told [redacted] that if she told anyone what happened at his house that bad things could happen. [redacted] and [redacted] were brought home by Epstein's houseman and [redacted] was afraid that Epstein knew where she lived. [redacted] stated that several days later she received a telephone call from [redacted] who coordinated for [redacted] to return to "work." [redacted] returned to the house and was brought to Epstein's bedroom area by [redacted] who prepared the room for the massage. Epstein entered the room wearing only a towel. Epstein had [redacted] remove her clothing and provide the massage naked. [redacted] began rubbing his feet and calves and Epstein turned over onto his back. Epstein [redacted]. Epstein began to masturbate himself with an upwards and downward motion on his penis. Epstein continued [redacted] with one hand and masturbate with the other hand. Once Epstein ejaculated onto the towel he was wearing, the massage was over. [redacted] was paid $200.00 for the massage. Epstein again told [redacted] not to speak of what happened at his house or bad things would happen. [redacted] wanted to notify authorities however she was afraid of what would happen to either her or her family.

During the course of the investigation, several subjects were identified as a potential witness/victim through information obtained during the trash pulls, physical surveillance and telephone message books retrieved from the search warrant. While conducting research on the subjects, I discovered that the females were age eighteen or older. Interviews were conducted on the consenting adults whose statements provided the same massage routine when they went to "work" for Epstein. The females would be notified by [redacted], and made appointments for the females to "work" for Epstein. The females would come to Epstein's house and were led upstairs, through a stairwell from the kitchen area, by [redacted] to Epstein's bedroom. Epstein would then enter the room wearing only a towel, and ask them to get comfortable. The females would then provide the massage naked as Epstein would either [redacted] and/or utilize the massager/vibrator on [redacted]. He would masturbate during the massage and upon his climaxing, the massage would end. The girls were then paid two or three hundred dollars for the massage.

On November 21, 2005 I interviewed Jose Alessi, a former houseman for Jeffrey Epstein. Alessi stated he was employed for eleven years with Mr. Epstein, from approximately 1993 through 2004. Alessi stated he was the house manager, driver and house maintenance person. It was his responsibility to prepare the house for Epstein s arrival. When asked about cooks or assistants, Alessi stated they traveled with Epstein on his private plane. I asked Mr. Alessi about the massages that have occurred at Epstein's home. Alessi stated Epstein receives three massages a day. Each masseuse that visited the house was different. Alessi stated that towards the end of his employment, the masseuses were younger and younger. When asked how young, Mr. Alessi stated they appeared to be sixteen or seventeen years of age at the most. The massages would occur in Epstein's bedroom or bathroom. He knew this because he often set up the massage tables. I asked if there were things going on other than a massage. Alessi stated that there were times towards the end of his employment that he would have to wash off a massager/vibrator and a long rubber penis, which were in the sink after the massage. Additionally, he stated the bed would almost always have to be made after the massage.

On January 4, 2006 I interviewed another former houseman, Mr Alfredo Rodriguez. During a sworn taped statement, Mr. Rodriguez stated he was employed by Jeffrey Epstein for approximately six months, from November 2004 through May of 2005. His responsibilities as house manager included being the butler, chauffeur, chef, houseman, run errands for Epstein and provide for Epstein's guests. I asked Rodriguez about masseuses coming to the house. Rodriguez stated Epstein would have two massages a day. Epstein would have one massage in the morning and one massage in the afternoon everyday he was in residence. Rodriguez stated he would be informed to expect someone and make them comfortable until either [redacted] or Epstein would meet with them. Rodriguez stated once the masseuses would arrive, he would allow them entry into the kitchen area and offer them something to drink or eat. They would then be encountered by either [redacted] or Epstein. They would be taken upstairs to provide the massage. I asked Rodriguez if any of the masseuses appeared young in age. Rodriguez stated the girls that would come appeared to be too young to be masseuses. He stated one time under Epstein's direction, he delivered a dozen roses to Royal Palm Beach High School for one of the girls that came to provide a massage. He knew the girls were still in high school and were of high school age. I asked Rodriguez about the massages. He felt there was a lot more going on than just massages. He would often clean Mr. Epstein's bedroom after the alleged massages and would discover massagers/vibrators and sex toys scattered on the floor. He also said he would wipe down the vibrators and sex toys and put them away in an armoire. He described the armoire as a small wood armoire which was on the wall close to Epstein's bed. On one occasion Epstein ordered Rodriguez to go to the Dollar rent a car and rent a car for the same girl he brought the roses to, so that she could drive her self to Epstein's house without incident. Rodriguez said the girl always needed rides to and from the house.

Rodriguez produced a green folder which contained documents, and a note with Mr. Epstein's stationary with direction to deliver a bucket of roses to Royal Palm Beach High School after [redacted] high school drama performance. Also in that same note was direction to rent a car for [redacted] and direction to extend the rental contract.

During the course of the investigation, subpoenas were obtained for cell phone and home phone records from several victims and witnesses along with the cell phone records of [redacted]. An analysis of these records was conducted which found numerous telephone calls were made between [redacted] and the victims. These records indicate the dates the calls were made are consistent with the dates and times they victims/witnesses stated they were contacted. Specifically, The phone records showed [redacted] called [redacted] during the exact times and dates when victim [redacted] advised the incident occurred. [redacted] also coordinated the encounters with [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] during the time frame the girls stated they occurred.

Pursuant to a lawful subpoena I obtained Epstein's private plane records for 2005 from Jet Aviation. The plane records show arrival and departure of Epstein's plane at Palm Beach International airport. These records were compared to the cell phone records of [redacted] This comparison found that all the phone calls [redacted] made to [redacted] and the victims were made in the days just prior to their arrival or during the time Epstein was in Palm Beach.

As Epstein, who at the time of the incident was fifty two years of age, did commit lewd and lascivious molestation on [redacted], a fourteen year old minor, by using a vibrator on her external vaginal area and as [redacted] recruited, set up the appointment and drove to Epstein's residence, knowing that [redacted] was fourteen years old and knowing there would be unlawful sexual activity between [redacted] and Epstein that [redacted] received monetary compensation for taking said fourteen year old female by Epstein, there is sufficient probable cause to arrest [redacted] for Lewd and Lascivious Act on victim under 16 years of age in violation of Florida State Statue 800.04 (6)(2b) a second degree felony.
