

More to sea.

—
Daima was launched in late 2009 by Arkin Pruva Yachts. She was built to fulfil her owner's dreams of enjoying a yacht that was big enough for the whole family whilst being agile and easy to handle on the water.

Her large well-appointed cabins, generous outside spaces, ample storage and state-of-the-art entertainment systems make the yacht ideal for the Mediterranean lifestyle.