About UBS Fund Advisor, L.L.C.

UBS Fund Advisor, L.L.C. ("Fund Advisor") is a registered investment adviser that provides advisory and administration services to a number of unregistered funds. These funds are primarily structured as "master-feeder" funds which provide brokerage and advisory clients of our affiliate, UBS Financial Services Inc. ("UBSFS"), with access to third party hedge, private equity and real estate managers.

Our parent company, UBS Group AG, a publicly held company, is a global, integrated investment services firm and one of the world's leading banks.

As a registered investment adviser, we complete a Part I of Form ADV, which contains additional information about our business and our affiliates. This information is publicly available through our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

The information in this brochure is current as of the date of this document and is subject to change at our discretion.

ITEM 4. ADVISORY BUSINESS

This brochure describes the services provided by Fund Advisor.

A. Our Firm and Corporate Structure

UBS Fund Advisor, L.L.C. was organized as a Delaware limited liability company on June 25, 1996. It is a wholly owned subsidiary of UBS Americas Inc., a Delaware corporation, which in turn is a wholly owned subsidiary of UBS AG a Swiss stock corporation. Fund Advisor became a registered investment adviser on July 10, 1998.

As of November 28, 2014, UBS AG has a new Group Holding Company, UBS Group AG, that is now the ultimate parent of UBS Americas Inc.

B. Our Advisory Services

As an adviser or administrator, we provide access to various third party managers through a number of funds structured as feeder funds, and as a result, our investment advisory functions are limited to advice with respect to those types of investments and related cash investments. The performance of the respective feeder funds that we advise or administer will be primarily determined by the advisory decisions of the third party manager of the underlying fund. Nevertheless, in this role, Fund Advisor has limited discretion to make a number of decisions that may have some effect on feeder fund performance. For example, Fund Advisor makes decisions with respect to the retention of appropriate reserves; investment of excess cash; valuation procedures with respect to the feeder's investment in the underlying fund; voting the interests of the underlying fund; the treatment of investor defaults in the private equity context; among other things.

We do not hold ourselves out as specializing in a particular type of advisory service or strategy. Instead, our advisory programs and services offer a broad variety of strategies, investment options, asset allocations and features.

Fund Advisor provides all of its advisory or administration services through the efforts of employees of its affiliate, UBSFS, which is also a registered investment adviser limited to advice with respect to those types of investments and related cash investments.

All of Fund Advisor's officers and other personnel are employees of UBSFS. Fund Advisor does not pay overhead or payroll directly. All of Fund Advisor's officers and other personnel are paid fully by UBSFS.

ML281837-MAXWELL

As a result, a reallocation is made internally from Fund Advisor to UBSFS to reimburse it for various expenses that UBSFS covers on behalf of Fund Advisor, including without limitation, salaries, rent, and other applicable overhead expenses.

Generally, the funds advised or administered by Fund Advisor are distributed by UBSFS and its Financial Advisors. Under the distribution agreements, UBSFS and its Financial Advisors receive compensation in connection with the sale and distribution of hedge funds, funds of funds, private equity and real estate funds advised or administered by Fund Advisor.

The amount of fees paid to UBSFS, and its Financial Advisors, may vary depending on the arrangement between UBSFS and Fund Advisor. Fund Advisor pays UBSFS up to 90 bps for distribution of the feeder funds. These payments are shared with UBSFS Financial Advisors. UBSFS may also charge placement fees of up to 2% to its clients, and may receive a one-time service fee from the sponsor of the underlying fund into which a proprietary feeder fund invests.

As a result of the various payments to us or our affiliated companies, the amount of compensation that UBS entities receive with respect to the sale of affiliated or proprietary hedge funds, funds of funds, private equity funds and real estate funds is greater than the amount payable to the organization as a whole from the sale of unaffiliated investments.

C. How We Tailor Our Advisory Services

Fund Advisor provides different types of advisory or administration service depending on the structure of the fund. For example, there are general differences between hedge funds, funds of funds, private equity and real estate funds, and Fund Advisor adapts its approach accordingly.

D. Participation in Wrap Fee Programs

Our services do not include the participation or offering of our services in wrap fee programs.

E. Assets Under Management

Our assets under management as of December 31, 2014 are listed below.

- Non-discretionary: N/A
- *Discretionary: 5,375,382,794
- Total: 5, 375,382,794

*Fund Advisor exercises limited discretion in connection with certain administration services it provides to the funds. Fund Advisor does not have discretion to determine how the underlying funds invest.

ITEM 5. FEES AND COMPENSATION

A. Fees

Generally, Fund Advisor charges an advisory or administration fee between .50 and 1.75 bps. Our fees are negotiable, and at our sole discretion, may be waived and may differ for different funds and for different classes within the same fund, based on a number of factors. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- the type and size of the fund,
- the number and type of services selected,
- the scope of the engagement,
- the complexity of the services provided and preferences of the fund

- the expected frequency with which services may be needed, and
- the nature and amount of investor assets involved.

The advisory or administration fee paid to Fund Advisor may be waived in their entirety for certain classes of investors (for example, ERISA plans investing through an advisory program). Our ability to charge a fee less than the maximum or waive the fee may result in one fund paying for the same set of services provided to another fund at a lower fee or free of charge. We also have the discretion to discount fees for specific investors in our funds purchasing multiple funds or investing a large amount in a specific fund.

B. Billing Practices

Valuation and Billing: Fund Advisor generally relies on the value of the underlying fund's assets provided by the underlying fund or other third party service providers, and engages in an internal valuation process with respect to a feeder fund's other assets for purposes of determining or calculating our advisory or administration fees, although, under limited circumstances, Fund Advisor may re-value the underlying fund.

Our fees are generally payable monthly or quarterly in arrears. Fees for certain private equity funds are payable in advance.

C. Fees/Other Charges Not Covered by Our Advisory Fee

The fee you pay covers only our advisory or administration services provided in our agreement with the fund. Our fees do not:

- cover any other services, accounts or products any UBS entity provides to you;
- any fees charged at the UBSFS brokerage account level
- custody fees imposed by other financial institutions if you choose to custody your assets at other financial institutions; or
- any fees charged to the fund by other UBS entities or third party entities, as disclosed in the fund's offering document.

Please review the applicable prospectus and offering documents for the investment vehicles offered in the program carefully for a detailed description of the additional fees associated with these securities.

ITEM 6. PERFORMANCE BASED FEES AND SIDE BY SIDE MANAGEMENT

Fund Advisor receives an approximate 5% performance based fee on four of its private equity feeder funds. While, as described above, Fund Advisor has very little discretion with respect to the funds to which it provides advisory or administration services, performance based compensation may create an incentive for Fund Advisor to recommend an investment that may carry a higher degree of risk to the fund.

ITEM 7. TYPES OF CLIENTS

A. Type of Clients

We provide advisory or administration services exclusively to unregistered investment companies including hedge funds, funds of funds, private equity and real estate funds.

B. Requirements for Receipt of Services

1. Agreements. As part of our engagement, we require that each fund execute an agreement with us that describes the nature of the services we provide, the fees and any restrictions applicable to our services.

2. Investment Recommendations. Our services do not include the recommendation or solicitation of any other types of securities.

3. Termination. Each Fund may terminate its agreement with Fund Advisor by notifying Fund Advisor in writing, generally upon 30 to 60 days notice. Upon termination, we will have no further obligation to advise or administer the fund, as applicable.

ITEM 8. METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

As the advisor or administrator to feeder funds, Fund Advisor's investment advisory or administration functions are limited.

The decision to offer a third party manager on the UBSFS platform is made by Fund Advisor's affiliate, UBSFS, which either acts as the placement agent for the third party manager's fund, or as placement agent for a UBS feeder fund that invests primarily in the third party manager's fund. In the case of a hedge fund feeder, UBSFS has the discretion to cease offering the fund, which will result in Fund Advisor closing the feeder fund.

Before approving the creation of a feeder fund, UBSFS engages in a due diligence process, which begins with an analysis of:

- the manager's investment philosophy and strategy,
- investment process,
- quality and depth of research,
- portfolio construction, and
- risk management and corporate structure.

The due diligence team then performs a more in-depth analysis on the manager, to gather information directly from the manager, through multiple meetings and interviews, documentation requests (including marketing materials and historical client correspondence), personal and professional references, and completion of a due diligence questionnaire.

After collecting this information, the due diligence team may consider a number of other factors, including background checks, government filings, audited financial statements, public information searches and reference calls to former employees and/or former investors. The due diligence team reviews both qualitative and quantitative considerations, including the background and experience of the manager and team, portfolio construction and risk management discipline, strategy viability through a complete economic cycle, relevant metrics appropriate for the strategy, such as absolute historical level of returns, volatility, correlation, and drawdowns, performance comparison of the fund to other similar funds, peer universe, and relevant indexes, and maturity of the investment fund, including strength of the control environment. Initial and ongoing due diligence is conducted on all open and currently offered funds advised or administered by Fund Advisor. Ongoing due diligence may or may not be conducted on closed funds and funds not currently offered and if conducted, may be limited in scope.

- Alternative Investments

All investments carry the significant risk of loss.

Feeder funds have certain specific risks, which are disclosed in each fund's offering memorandum. For example, the investment performance of a feeder fund depends almost entirely on the performance of the underlying fund, over which Fund Advisor has no control. Generally, Fund Advisor does not hedge the risks of the underlying fund's investments or take any defensive actions in the event of declining performance or asset losses at the underlying fund, and a feeder fund's investment performance could be materially worse than would be the case if Fund Advisor diversified investments among asset classes or hedged investment risks. Furthermore, investors in a UBS feeder fund bear two levels of fees, and investments by investors in the feeder fund are not investments in the underlying fund on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

Interests of alternative investment funds are sold only to qualified investors, and only by means of offering documents that include information about the risks, performance and expenses of the Funds, and which clients are urged to read carefully before subscribing.

Investments in alternative investment funds are speculative and involve significant risks as the funds:

- are not registered investment funds and are not subject to the same regulatory requirements or protections under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as registered investment funds, also known as mutual funds;
- may fluctuate in value, performance may be volatile, and investors may lose all or a significant amount of their investment in a fund;
- may engage in leveraging and other speculative investment practices that may increase the risk of investment loss;
- interests are typically illiquid and subject to restrictions on transfer; and the fund may not be required to provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors;
- investment programs generally involve complex tax strategies and there may be delays in distributing tax information to investors;
- are subject to high fees, and layering of fees, including management fees and other fees, and as such expenses, all of which will reduce fund return
- are structured as feeder funds that are usually created for the purpose of investing in the master fund, as such, the feeder fund has no operating history;
- is a long-term investment as there is generally no secondary market for the interests of the Fund, and none is expected to develop; and
- interests are not deposits or obligations of, or guaranteed or endorsed by, any bank or other insured depository institution, and are not federally insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Reserve Board, or any other governmental agency.

Prospective investors should understand these risks and have the financial ability and willingness to accept them for an extended period of time before making an investment in a fund. Investors should consider a fund as a supplement to an overall investment program.

ITEM 9. DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Below is a summary of the material legal and disciplinary events against Fund Advisor during the last ten years. As of the date of this brochure, there are no reportable legal and disciplinary events for our senior management personnel or those individuals in senior management responsible for determining the general investment advice or services available to clients of Fund Advisor.

ITEM 11. CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

A. Code of Ethics

We maintain and enforce a written code of ethics in accordance with Rule 204A-1 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended ("Advisers Act"). The Fund Advisor Code of Ethics incorporates and adopts both the UBSFS Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct. The UBSFS Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct (including any and all subsequent amendments), is provided to all officers of Fund Advisor and each officer is responsible for acknowledging receipt. All Fund Advisor Officers, as employees of UBSFS, are thereby subject to both the UBSFS Code of Ethics as well as the UBSFS Code of Conduct.

The Code of Ethics, incorporating both the UBSFS Code of Ethics as well as the UBSFS Code of Conduct, has a dual purpose:

- To set forth standards of conduct that apply to all employees of the firm, including the firm's fiduciary obligation to its clients
- To address conflicts of interest associated with the personal trading activities of a subset of employees defined as "access persons."

Employees are required to promptly report any suspected violation of the code. Violations of the code may result in discipline, up to and including termination. Clients or prospective clients may obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics upon request.

B. Participation or Interests in Client Transactions

In addition, our affiliates receive trading commissions and other compensation from mutual funds and insurance companies whose products we distribute.

UBSFS or our affiliates may engage in a variety of transactions with (or provide other services to) the investment managers, mutual funds, their affiliates or service providers with which you are doing business. We may, in turn, receive compensation from these entities. Those transactions and services that we provide may include:

- Executing transactions in securities or other instruments
- Broker-dealer services for our own account
- Research services
- Consulting services
- Performance evaluation services
- Investment banking services
- Banking or insurance services

Credit Lines

Fund Advisor does not extend credit to the funds that it advises or administers, as applicable. To the extent permissible under applicable law, its affiliates may extend credit to those funds under limited circumstances. As creditor, our affiliate may earn interest on the loans it provides and has the ability to exercise certain rights in the event of defaults. As a result, as creditors, our affiliates may have interests adverse to those of the funds.

Advice/Services to Other Clients and Activities in our Proprietary Accounts

We and/or our affiliates provide investment banking, research, brokerage, investment advisory and other services for different types of clients. In providing those services, we and our affiliates may:

- give advice to or take actions for those clients or for our accounts or our affiliates accounts that differs from advice given to, or the timing and nature of actions taken for you.
- buy and sell securities for our own or other accounts,
- act as a market maker or an underwriter for securities recommended, purchased or sold.

UBSFS and our affiliates occasionally may not be free to divulge or act upon certain information in their possession on behalf of advisory or other clients. We are not obligated to execute any transaction for your account that we believe to be improper under applicable law or rules or contrary to our own policies. In particular, you should note that some of our programs may recommend asset allocations or analyze markets and the economy in a different way than would be recommended by some of our research, trading or other departments. Fund Advisor generally makes a small investment in the funds that it advises or administers.

We have adopted policies and procedures that limit transactions for our proprietary accounts and the accounts of our employees. These policies and procedures are designed to prevent, among other things, improper or abusive conduct when there may be a potential conflict with the interests of a client.

Trading Activity

The vast majority of our exchange-listed securities and over-the-counter orders are executed through our affiliate, UBS Securities LLC—which executes orders as either principal or as agent, depending on the circumstances and type of program involved and receives compensation for those services.

ITEM 12. BROKERAGE PRACTICES

Our advisory services do not include the review or recommendation of broker-dealers for client transactions. We do not participate in soft dollar arrangements or require our clients to direct brokerage to us or our affiliates.

ITEM 13. REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

We have various policies and procedures applicable to the review and supervision of our services. Those policies are designed to comply with the requirements of the Advisers Act, and where applicable, ERISA and other applicable rules and regulations.

There are general policies applicable to all advisory activities as well as individually tailored guidelines for the specific requirements of a fund.

ITEM 14. CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

Arrangements with affiliates: We have referral agreements with our affiliates that outline how they refer prospective investors to us. Under those agreements, we share fees with, or receive fees from, our affiliates for the referral or solicitation of investors in our funds. These payments may vary, depending on the type of agreement, product or the nature and extent of the services provided, and may continue as long as the client account is maintained with UBS or our affiliate or for an agreed upon period. Arrangements may also be based on a percentage of revenue received.

It is our practice to disclose to the investor being referred the general terms of the arrangement.

ITEM 15. CUSTODY

Fund Advisor is deemed to have custody of client assets as it serves as member designee, or a similar capacity, for several funds.

ITEM 16. INVESTMENT DISCRETION

Fund Advisor's investment discretion over the funds is limited. See Item 4.B.

ITEM 17. VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

Fund Advisor has voting authority for the funds we advise, administer and/or sponsor, or act as member designee. Because each fund invests almost entirely in the securities of a single alternative fund issuer, it is unusual that a fund receives a request to vote its interests. Nevertheless, when a vote is requested, management of Fund Advisor considers the best interests of the fund and votes pursuant to the powers designated to it in the fund documents. In certain cases, when the fund's vote would not make a difference to the result, Fund Advisor may have the fund abstain from voting.

Copies of our proxy voting policies will be provided upon request.

ITEM 18. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

- As of the date of this Brochure, there is no financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual commitment to our clients.
- Our Firm has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time during the last ten years.
