Dear Ghislaine,

The Challenged Athletes Foundation has become one of the most important things in my life over the past 10 years. My journey with CAF began after the passing of my father Howard Stackman in 2004. From an early age my father taught me the importance and need of giving back. The values he instilled in me led to beginning of the Heroes Heart and Hope Gala in 2007. Over the last nine years we have raised over $11.2 million dollars to help challenged athletes succeed in the game of life. Just as importantly, we have built a family, a community and a new tradition of philanthropy that can be passed from one generation to the next. I think my father would be proud of our efforts and of your friendship, commitment and generous support, which have made all of this possible.

This year I have agreed to serve as the event's Honoree to celebrate the 10th anniversary gala on June 8, 2016. At the event, we will salute inspirational challenged athletes and re-live their powerful moments of triumph, while recognizing individuals – like you – who have truly made this “A Decade of Difference.”

The funds raised at the gala have allowed CAF to fulfill 3,600 grant requests from worthy challenged athletes in the New York area and all over the world. But we are just scratching the surface. As 2016 is a Paralympic year – and for the first time, the Games will receive long-overdue coverage here in the United States on NBC – we anticipate that demand for the life-changing funding provided by CAF will increase substantially.

This year I am counting on your support more than ever before. My goal is to ensure that 2016 will be the year that no grant goes unfunded.

There are many ways you can help us achieve this goal:

- Commit to a sponsorship level on the attached save the date,
- Engage your company to get involved with CAF,
- Invite your colleagues, friends and family – This is a family event
- Provide ideas and access to auction items

Please help me raise $3 million dollars to help challenged athletes live healthy, active and successful lives and cap off 10 years of success. Together we will make it a most memorable night in New York City for everyone who attends, but especially for the challenged athletes who will gain independence and confidence through sport.

Gratefully,

Scott L. Stackman
