Y1 XXX68	UBS Strategic Advisor	11/29/2016
Y1 XXX74	UBS Strategic Advisor	11/29/2016

What this means to you

We have converted your Investment Advisory program account to a brokerage account. Moving forward, we will act as your broker— not your investment adviser. Investment Advisory programs and brokerage services are separate and distinct ways to participate in the financial markets, and each is governed by different laws and separate contracts with you.

Your Financial Advisor can help you determine whether to continue holding these assets in a brokerage account or to participate in another Investment Advisory program, now or in the future. To learn more about the differences between brokerage and advisory services, please visit our website at www.ubs.com/workingwithus.

Thank you for allowing us to continue serving your investment needs.
