Scott,

We will have the analysis run and send it over once complete.

Have a great weekend,

Matt

Thanks Sean. Possible to run a quick analysis of the monthly return correlations between the other two funds where we are already invested; Millennium and Graham, over the past few years?

We'll pull the trigger for $1M into this Blackrock alternative if the correlations with these other two fund performances are low.

Scott,

As discussed with Lyle, please see attached a factsheet and flipbook for the Blackrock European Long/Short Fund. I have included a small description of the fund below.

Blackrock European Long/Short Fund

AUM: $4.2B

Fees: Class E ($1,000,000 minimum) 1.75% mgmt. fee and 20% incentive. Class D ($100,000 minimum) 2.25% mgmt. fee and 20% incentive fee

Liquidity: Monthly upon 30 days written notice

Drawdown in '08: N/A

Annualized Return: 15.5%

Standard Deviation: 9.59%

Fund Inception: 2011

Fund Description:

The European L/S Hedge Fund is a high conviction portfolio of approximately 100 – 180 names across all market capitalizations. The Fund is primarily invested in Pan European companies with a target net exposure of -30% to +40%. BlackRock employs a bottom-up, fundamental approach with a strong macro overlay when constructing the portfolio, complemented by rigorous and sophisticated risk management tools.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Sean
