Ghislaine,

We spoke with our back office team and they confirmed that UBS does not have an IBAN for incoming USD wire transfers. As an alternative, they advised to use the UBS Financial Services Inc. account number, without the "WA" letters. The UBS account number should be entered as, [REDACTED]

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you!

Thank you. I can't imagine it is that hard - of course it could be the bank Mgr in London. But you saw his response bellow
Thx

Morning Elly
Barclays from London are still having difficult wiring the funds
Here is what they said bellow

I have tried saying it's an IBAN as it states below in the details but an IBAN starts with two letter which is normally the country code, so it won't allow me to do this.

I have then tried saying it's an account number but with this its stating that it can't have letters in the middle.

Can you please send another instruction sheet with any additional information
Seems this should not be that hard but it is!

Thank

Hi Ghislaine,

We do not have AMEX ACH/payment instructions on file to send funds from your UBS account to AMEX. The AMEX auto payments seem to have been set up externally to pull funds directly from your UBS account. Please confirm if you would like us to transfer $130,000 from your cash/savings account to your check/card account, where the last AMEX transfer was debited from.

Thank you!

I am sending funds from the UK. I hope they will arrive tomorrow or the next day.
Meanwhile is it possible to send 130 from my cash savings to AmEx?

Hi Ghislaine,

Please note, we do not have the AMEX ACH/payment instructions on file, it appears the AMEX auto payments have been set up with your UBS account externally. In addition, there is not enough funds currently in your UBS accounts to meet the $250,000 transfer. Please see the current cash balances in your UBS accounts below.

UBS Accounts - Current Cash Balances

? Y1xx575 (Cash/Savings): $141,922.12
? Y1xx576 (Check/Card): $48,430.78
? Y1xx697 (Individual IRA): $58,994.06
? Y1xx680 (Ellmax LLC): $9,844.97

Appreciate. Thank you. Please confirm otherwise I will have to make a wire to the company instead of paying g by credit card. I'd prefer credit card for the points!

Thx
