INFANT SLEEP POSITIONER - AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

Since 1994, the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) has recommended babies be put on their backs to sleep to prevent sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS). Shortly after the "Back-to-Sleep" campaign began, a new product entered the market: an infant sleep positioner, designed to keep babies from rolling over onto their tummies while they are sleeping.

"And he will raise you up on eagle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn. Make you to shine like the sun and hold you in the palm of his hand."

Biden ended with this: "And now, together — on eagle's wings — we embark on the work that God and history have called upon us to do."

Earlier in his speech, given outside the Chase Center in Wilmington, Delaware, Biden quoted from the book of Ecclesiastes: "The Bible tells us that to everything there is a season * a time to build, a time to reap, a time to sow. And a time to heal. *

"This is the time to heal in America."

During the campaign, President Donald Trump accused Biden of being "against God" despite the devout Catholic's frequent references to his faith. Biden, who has often talked about how his Catholic faith helped him survive the death of his first wife and their daughter in a 1972 car crash, dismissed Trump's comments as an attempt at making a cynical appeal to religious conservatives.

As he wrapped his remarks on Saturday, Biden recalled his grandfather telling him to
