A similar $50-million suit was filed in March 2008, by a different woman, who was represented by the same lawyer.<sup>[129]</sup> These and several similar lawsuits were dismissed.<sup>[130]</sup>

All other lawsuits have been settled by Epstein out of court.<sup>[131]</sup> Epstein made many out-of-court settlements with alleged victims.<sup>[130]</sup>

Victims' rights: Jane Does v. United States (2014)

A December 30, 2014, federal civil suit was filed in Florida by Jane Doe 1 (Courtney Wild) and Jane Doe 2 against the United States for violations of the Crime Victims' Rights Act by the U.S. Department of Justice's NPA with Epstein and his limited 2008 state plea. There was a later unsuccessful effort to add Virginia Roberts (Jane Doe 3) and another woman (Jane Doe 4) as plaintiffs to that case.<sup>[132]</sup> The addition accused Alan Dershowitz of sexually abusing a minor, Jane Doe 3, provided by Epstein.<sup>[133]</sup> The allegations against Dershowitz were stricken by the judge and eliminated from the case because he said they were outside the intent of the suit to re-open the plea agreement.<sup>[134][135]</sup> A document filed in court alleges that Epstein ran a "sexual abuse ring", and lent underage girls to "prominent American politicians, powerful business executives, foreign presidents, a well-known prime minister, and other world leaders".<sup>[136]</sup>

This long-running lawsuit is pending in federal court, aimed at vacating the federal plea agreement on the grounds that it violated victims' rights.<sup>[137]</sup> On April 7, 2015, Judge Kenneth Marra ruled that the allegations made by alleged victim Virginia Roberts against Prince Andrew had no bearing on the lawsuit by alleged victims seeking to reopen Epstein's non-prosecution plea agreement with the federal government; the judge ordered that allegation to be struck from the record.<sup>[134]</sup> Judge Marra made no ruling as to whether claims by Roberts are true or false. Though he did not allow Jane Does 3 and 4 to join the suit, Marra specifically said that Roberts may later give evidence when the case comes to court.<sup>[138]</sup>

On February 21, 2019, in the case of Two Jane Does v. United States, Senior Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida Kenneth Marra said federal prosecutors violated the law by failing to notify victims before they allowed him to plead guilty to only the two Florida offenses. The judge left open what the possible remedy could be.<sup>[139]</sup>

Virginia Giuffre v. Epstein (2015)

In a December 2014 Florida court filing by Bradley Edwards and Paul G. Cassell meant for inclusion in the Crime Victims Rights Act lawsuit,<sup>[140]</sup> Virginia Giuffre (then known as Virginia Roberts), alleged in a sworn affidavit that at age 17, she had been sexually trafficked by Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell for their own use and for use by several others, including Prince Andrew<sup>[141]</sup> and retired Harvard Law professor Alan Dershowitz.<sup>[8][142]</sup> Giuffre also claimed that Epstein, Maxwell and others had physically and sexually abused her.<sup>[143]</sup> She alleged that the FBI may have been involved in a cover-up.<sup>[144]</sup> She said she had served as Epstein's sex slave from 1999 to 2002, and had recruited other underage girls.<sup>[145]</sup> Prince Andrew, Epstein, and Dershowitz all denied having had sex with Giuffre. Dershowitz took legal action over the allegations.<sup>[146][147][148]</sup> Giuffre filed a defamation suit against Dershowitz,

Relationship with Jeffrey Epstein

TROMP - EPSTEIN .

Accounts differ on when Maxwell first met American financier Jeffrey Epstein. According to Epstein's former business partner, Steven Hoffenberg, Robert Maxwell introduced his daughter to Epstein in the late 1980s.<sup>[49]</sup> The Times reported that Maxwell met Epstein in the early 1990s at a New York party following "a difficult break-up with Count Gianfranco Cicogna Mozzoni" (1962–2012) of the CIGA Hotels clan.<sup>[50]</sup>

2006 mugshot of Epstein, by Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office

Maxwell had a romantic relationship with Epstein for several years in the early 1990s and remained closely associated with him for more than 25 years until his death in 2019.<sup>[22][48][51]</sup> The nature of their relationship remains unclear. In a 2009 deposition, several of Epstein's household employees testified that Epstein referred to her as his "main girlfriend" who also hired, fired, and supervised his staff, starting around 1992.<sup>[52]</sup> She has also been referred to as the "Lady of the House" by Epstein's staff and as his "aggressive assistant".<sup>[53]</sup> In a 2003 Vanity Fair profile on Epstein, author Vicky Ward said Epstein referred to Maxwell as "my best friend".<sup>[54]</sup> Ward also observed that Maxwell seemed "to organize much of his life".<sup>[54]</sup>

Politico reported that Maxwell and Epstein had friendships with several prominent individuals in elite circles of politics, academia, business and law, including former Presidents Donald Trump and Bill Clinton, attorney Alan Dershowitz, and Prince Andrew, Duke of York.<sup>[55]</sup>

Maxwell is known for her longstanding friendship<sup>[56]</sup> with Prince Andrew, and for having escorted him to a "hookers and pimps" social function in New York.<sup>[57]</sup> She introduced Epstein to Prince Andrew, and the three often socialised together.<sup>[58]</sup> In 2000, Maxwell and Epstein attended a party thrown by Prince Andrew at the Queen's Sandringham House estate in Norfolk, England, reportedly for Maxwell's 39th birthday.<sup>[59]</sup> In a November 2019 interview with the BBC, Prince Andrew confirmed that Maxwell and Epstein had attended an event at his invitation, but he denied that it was anything more than a "straightforward shooting weekend".<sup>[60]</sup>

In 1995, Epstein renamed one of his companies the Ghislaine Corporation; based in Palm Beach, Florida, the company was dissolved in 1998.<sup>[52]</sup> As a trained helicopter pilot, Maxwell also transported Epstein to his private Caribbean island.<sup>[61][6]</sup>

In 2008, Epstein was convicted of soliciting a minor for prostitution and served 13 months of an 18-month jail sentence. Following Epstein's release, although Maxwell continued to attend prominent social functions, she and Epstein were no longer seen together publicly.<sup>[9]</sup>

By late 2015, Maxwell had largely retreated from attending social functions.<sup>[9][62]</sup>

EPSTEIN - MAXWELL

Details of a civil lawsuit, made public in January 2015, contained a deposition from "Jane Doe 3" that accused Maxwell of recruiting her in 1999, when she was a minor, and grooming her to provide sexual services for Epstein.<sup>[22]</sup> A 2018 exposé by Julie K. Brown in the Miami Herald revealed Jane Doe 3 to be Virginia Giuffre, who was previously known as Virginia Roberts. Giuffre met Maxwell at Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, Florida, when Giuffre was a 16-year-old spa attendant.<sup>[22]</sup> She asserted that Maxwell had introduced her to Epstein, after which she was "groomed by the two [of them] for his pleasure, including lessons in Epstein's preferences during oral sex".<sup>[22][63]</sup>

Maxwell has repeatedly denied any involvement in Epstein's crimes.<sup>[51]</sup> In a 2015 statement, Maxwell rejected allegations that she has acted as a procurer for Epstein and denied that she had "facilitated Prince Andrew's [alleged] acts of sexual abuse". Her spokesperson said "the allegations made against Ghislaine Maxwell are untrue" and she "strongly denies allegations of an unsavoury nature, which have appeared in the British press and elsewhere, and reserves her right to seek redress at the repetition of such old defamatory claims".<sup>[58][64]</sup>

Giuffre asserted that Maxwell and Epstein had trafficked her and other underage girls, often at sex parties hosted by Epstein at his homes in New York, New Mexico, Palm Beach, and the United States Virgin Islands. Maxwell called her a liar. Giuffre sued Maxwell for defamation in federal court in the Southern District of New York in 2015. While details of the settlement have not been made public, in May 2017 the case was settled in Giuffre's favour,<sup>[65]</sup> with Maxwell paying Giuffre "millions".<sup>[66]</sup>

*Sarah Ransome v Epstein and Maxwell (2017) * - MAXWELL DESTRUCTION OF CAREER PROSPECTS - COMPLY.

In 2017, Sarah Ransome filed a suit, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, against Epstein and Maxwell, alleging that Maxwell hired her to give massages to Epstein and later threatened to physically harm her or destroy her career prospects if she did not comply with their sexual demands at his mansion in New York and on his private Caribbean island, Little Saint James. The suit was settled in 2018 under undisclosed terms.<sup>[9][48][67][68]</sup>

Affidavit filed by Maria Farmer (2019)

On 16 April 2019, Maria Farmer went public and filed a sworn affidavit in federal court in New York, alleging that she and her 15-year-old sister, Annie, had been sexually assaulted by Epstein and Maxwell in separate locations in 1996. Farmer's affidavit was filed in support of a defamation suit by Virginia Giuffre against Alan Dershowitz.<sup>[69]</sup> According to the affidavit, Farmer had met Maxwell and Epstein at a New York art gallery reception in 1995. The affidavit says that in the summer of the following year, they hired her to work on an art project in billionaire businessman Leslie Wexner's Ohio mansion, where she was then sexually assaulted by both Maxwell and Epstein.<sup>[70][71]</sup> Farmer reported the incident to the New York Police Department and the FBI.<sup>[52][72]</sup> Her affidavit also stated that during the same summer, Epstein flew her then 15-year-old sister, Annie, to his New Mexico property where he and Maxwell molested her on a massage table.<sup>[73][74]</sup>

Farmer was interviewed for CBS This Morning in November 2019 where she detailed the 1996 assault and alleged that Maxwell had threatened both her career and her life after the assault.<sup>[75]</sup>

Effects of EMR on

Amino Acid With the rapid development of electronic information in the past 30 years, technical achievements based on electromagnetism have been widely used in various fields pertaining to human production and life. Consequently, electromagnetic radiation (EMR) has become a substantial new pollution source in modern civilization. The biological effects of EMR have attracted considerable attention worldwide. The possible interaction of EMR with human organs, especially the brain, is currently where the most attention is focused. Many studies have shown that the nervous system is an important target organ system sensitive to EMR. In recent years, an increasing number of studies have focused on the neurobiological effects of EMR, including the metabolism and transport of neurotransmitters. As messengers of synaptic transmission, neurotransmitters play critical roles in cognitive and emotional behavior. Here, the effects of EMR on the metabolism and receptors of neurotransmitters in the brain are summarized.

Background

Funding Electromagnetic radiation (EMR) is closely related to human life and originates from various electrical systems, such as mobile phones, microwave ovens, communication base stations, high-voltage lines, electronic instruments and other electromagnetic equipment. EMR produces various electromagnetic waves of different frequencies, resulting in the increasing EMR intensity in human living spaces. The high-frequency waves such as cosmic, gamma and X-rays, have enough energy to cause ionization. Non-ionizing electromagnetic waves, including ultraviolet, visible region, infrared, microwave, and radio waves are frequently used in daily life, especially radiofrequency electromagnetic fields (RF-EMFs, 30 kHz-300 GHz) for communications, and extremely low-frequency EMFs (ELF-EMFs, 3 Hz-3 kHz) generated by electricity. RF is also commonly referred to as microwave (MW) radiation. The impact of EMR on human health has also gradually attracted attention, and the modulation of brain functional connectivity was observed in human body (1-3). This review summarizes the effects of RF-EMF on neurotransmitters in the brain.

The effects of EMR on body systems might depend on the frequency, intensity and power of radiation, so the parameters of EMR provide a challenge for a literature review. Specific absorption rate (SAR) measures the rate of energy absorbed by the human body when exposed to electromagnetic fields between 100 kHz and 10 GHz. With the unit of watt per kilogram (W/kg), SAR reflects the power absorbed per mass of tissue. The SAR value depends on the frequency, incident direction, E-polarization direction, and the structure of different tissues. So far, the SAR values range from 10<sup>-4</sup> to 35 W/kg in those reported studies on the bioeffects of microwave radiation. Numerous studies have shown that the nervous system is an important target organ system sensitive to EMR. Exposure to

MIND &amp; BRAIN

* Could certain frequencies of electromagnetic waves or radiation interfere with brain function? *

---

 April 24, 2006

Amin Raz, assistant professor of clinical neuroscience at Columbia University, offers the following answer.

* Definitely. Radiation is energy and research findings provide at least some information concerning how specific types may influence biological tissue, including that of the brain. In some cases the effect may be therapeutic. For example, transcranial magnetic stimulation (TMS) is a technique used to induce a short-term interruption of normal activity in a relatively restricted area of the brain by rapidly changing a strong magnetic field near the area of interest. Mark George provided a nice account of TMS in the September 2003 issue of Scientific American. In it he described how head-mounted wire coils can deliver powerful yet evanescent magnetic pulses directly into focal brain regions to painlessly modulate neural activity by inducing minute electric currents. Clinically, TMS may be helpful in alleviating certain symptoms, including those of depression.

Researchers typically differentiate between the effects of ionizing radiation (such as far-ultraviolet, X-ray and gamma ray) and nonionizing radiation (including visible * light, microwave and radio). * The ionizing variety may be undesirable because it can cause DNA damage and mutations, thus we should all limit our exposure * to its sources--radioactive materials and solar radiation among them. However, given modern technology, nonionizing radiation from power lines, personal wireless devices, cell phone towers * and other sources is practically unavoidable. Extremely Replication of either the negative or positive effects of exposure on cognition is sorely lacking in the scientific literature and more work is required to verify and reconcile differences between studies. See Subscription Options no effects.

Unfortunately, at least some of these studies fail to meet many of the criteria for good research, thus weakening their scientific value further. Therefore, more well-controlled studies are required to validate conclusions as to whether exposure to cell phones influences cognition, especially in the long term. Nevertheless, most of the reported effects are small as long as the radiation intensity is within the reasonable nonthermal range and its duration does not exceed common exposure for users.

In 2002 the U.K. published a brochure recommending that children and young people should use cell phones as little as possible. A year later Thailand's interior minister considered a ban on their use by children. But in 2004 the Health Council of the Netherlands, unable to find convincing scientific data demonstrating a difference between children and adults in the absorption of electromagnetic energy, found no reason to recommend limiting child use.

I was unaware of solid scientific evidence to support such concerns, but given that my cell phone was one of my infant son's favorite toys, I let him play with it only after I made sure it had been switched off. A precautionary approach remains justifiable because detrimental effects cannot be ruled out completely. Now that my son has learned how to turn my phone back on, however, I remind myself that when these phones are used in public, the indirect health effects sustained by vexed passersby may well outweigh the direct neural disturbances on their users.

Still, a very recent report associates increased risk of malignant brain tumor with long-term cell phone use. This report does not represent a new study but is instead a combined analysis of two population-based case control studies published in 2003 and 2005. The findings from this report are difficult to interpret because the experimental design is notably different from that of previous studies of long-term cell phone use and brain cancer. For example, the exposure assessment was mostly performed using mailed questionnaires; multiple confounding factors were not addressed, and a single statistical adjustment corrected for the year of diagnosis only. In addition, a compelling mechanism of action is absent and it is unclear what

What happens next

* An amount of $5,303.56 remains owing on your running balance account. You need to pay this debt using one of the methods of payment provided with your Activity Statement. ***

25th June 2019

Dear Mr Gates,

I would like to introduce myself, my name is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and i am a resident of South Australia. I have resided in numerous small communities of South Australia and various city locations within Australia. While residing within these numerous locations i have been involved in submitting various suggestions of infrastructure changes and new ideas to make improvements to the districts communities facilities and established Infrastructures which has been recognised and implemented within the districts councils and development boards.

My qualifications include Small Business Management, Business Administration and i have developed numerous written business plans and proceeded to develop the concepts to the completed stages of establishment.

Registered businesses include :

[REDACTED] Woodcraft - 2003

J Moneguic - 2011

[REDACTED] - Current - 2019

I have also developed my skills into that of writing novels and currently have a publishing contract with Austin Macauley Publishing, London, U.K and the release of my first book will be this year, with two subsequent books to be submitted and published over the next couple of years.

I have been made aware of your remarkable interest and contributions to community projects, worldwide issues and scientific research through my partner who is currently a Professor and Director of Research at the University of Adelaide, South Australia.

I have contacted you to submit numerous business concepts / ideas and a scientific concept / development that I have developed and designed that addresses issues within various geographical locations within Australia and across the world, and of which may be of interest to you, and, or to be considered for development.

The Youth Housing Project, Port Pirie was submitted to the Port Pirie Council who proceeded to submit the project to the South Australian Housing Commission who then proceeded to submit it to the South Australian Government. It was then reviewed and considered but was rejected for funding and development by the South Australian Government, but i was not made aware of the reasons behind the project being rejected.

Although this development was designed for the region of Port Pirie to facilitate the resources available i do feel that there is insufficient resources available Australia and worldwide within this area of development for the public and feel that the concept can be used as a model to develop and construct this concept to facilitate the shortage of affordable housing for the youth who wish to relocate to different locations for employment or move out of home for various reasons and should be considered.

The Housing Project, Glenside was developed and designed in consideration to the vacant and abandoned buildings that surrounded the grounds of the hospital and was submitted to the manager of the hospital in February 2017 for consideration but was rejected as I was informed that the vacant buildings were allocated to another development. I am unaware whether the development was submitted for consideration with any other department, including the South Australian Government, although I have been made aware that the concept was developed into the form of student housing / apartments that were developed in other locations after the dated submission of the project, of which I received no acknowledgment.

I would also like to raise the concern and awareness of which I feel is a worldwide issue and refers to the viewing material on Porn sites that is projected and marketed to society in the form of suggestions of committing illegal actions and immoral behavior, for example, to name a few :

Teachers with students

Family members conducting actions of incest

Animal sex

Older men engaging sexually with young girls and or taking their virginity

Rough / Violent / Abusive sex

Labelling women as sluts

I believe this raises the question of what impact this material may have Psychologically on the viewer, the public, which could manifest into that viewer conducting themselves in such behavior and illegal actions.

I also feel that in regards to the legal age of 18 of people who can enter into the sex trade should be scrutinized and reviewed as being too young. As a teenager, an under developed mind that does not yet have the experience or knowledge of life experience to make mature decisions or to be responsible within their actions and are denied the right to drink or acquire a licence in some countries based upon this evaluation until the age of 21, therefore how can they make or be capable of making this decision as a mature adult. I do feel that this is an issue within our society and is damaging to the youth, to society and is placing society in real danger, manifesting in sexual crimes and abuse being committed and the inexperienced youth being taken advantage of and being introduced to criminality in the form of alcohol abuse, drug use, violent, intimidating behaviour and crime figures which lead to Prostitution.

I feel that this issue needs to be urgently raised with governing figures and addressed seriously to be reformed, restructured which leads to the bill of decriminalizing Prostitution that opens the door to criminality and criminal figures to operate legally within this industry, to be denied and rejected to discourage this kind of practice within society and to protect society and the youth from criminal activity.

I am raising this concern, your awareness and offering my perspective as a concerned member of the public in the instance that you may have the same perspective and may be in a position or have influence to bring this issue into awareness within the public or the correct people and or governing figures which may result in action being taken.

Personal details and the business concepts / developments that have been provided are of a confidential nature and i would appreciate your confidentiality concerning this information.

I would appreciate your consideration concerning the developments / concepts and the information of which i have provided. Thank you.

Kind Regards

Dear Nicole Ross,

I am writing to attract your attention on a number of business concepts that i have prepared during the past years, for which i am seeking support, either financially or logistically, or both. All of these aim to address issues of our modern society and support disadvantaged communities as well as advancing other areas, including medical science and research.

Over the past decades, i have resided in numerous small communities of South Australia and various city locations within Australia. During that time, i have submitted various suggestions of infrastructure changes and new ideas to make improvements to the districts community facilities and established infrastructures.

In several instances, these suggestions have received positive feedback and, where possible, were implemented within the relevant district councils and development boards. However, several have not been submitted or received the attention they deserve and therefore remain open to development and implementation.

I am well aware of your remarkable interest and contributions to community projects, worldwide issues and scientific research and therefore upon your interest i am able to submit four concepts for your consideration, which have been constructed into executive summaries, taking advantage of my qualifications and expertise in the field of Small Business Management and Business Administration, hoping that they will be of interest to you and your foundation to the extent that you would consider them for development in Australia and/or other countries.

The projects include: a Youth Housing Project ; a Food Waste Management Project ; a Decontamination Project to prevent microbial infections ; and a Targeted Human Cell Administration Project with the objective of directly targeting cancer cell masses within the body, with the potential of advancement to address other medical issues.

As the proposed projects are of a Confidential nature, i will request your confidentiality on the concepts and information provided if considered for your review and upon submitting.

Some of us probably hadn't heard of Zoom or WhatsApp a few months ago, but now videoconferencing is more popular than Master Chef and toilet paper (and not necessarily in that order).

But what about connecting with new friends? Social distancing requirements have made it hard to strike up a conversation with the bloke behind the deli counter, let alone make an acquaintance. And what if you don't have access to, or simply aren't interested in using technology?

Thanks to the Letterbox Project, older Australians can now receive handwritten letters from likeminded people from across the nation.
