A similar $50-million suit was filed in March 2008, by a different woman, who was represented by the same lawyer.<sup>[129]</sup> These and several similar lawsuits were dismissed.<sup>[130]</sup>

All other lawsuits have been settled by Epstein out of court.<sup>[131]</sup> Epstein made many out-of-court settlements with alleged victims.<sup>[130]</sup>

SEXUAL ABUSE RING
PREMINENT POSITIONS

A December 30, 2014, federal civil suit was filed in Florida by Jane Doe 1 (Courtney Wild) and Jane Doe 2 against the United States for violations of the Crime Victims' Rights Act by the U.S. Department of Justice's NPA with Epstein and his limited 2008 state plea. There was a later unsuccessful effort to add Virginia Roberts (Jane Doe 3) and another woman (Jane Doe 4) as plaintiffs to that case.<sup>[132]</sup> The addition accused Alan Dershowitz of sexually abusing a minor, Jane Doe 3, provided by Epstein.<sup>[133]</sup> The allegations against Dershowitz were stricken by the judge and eliminated from the case because he said they were outside the intent of the suit to re-open the plea agreement.<sup>[134][135]</sup> A document filed in court alleges that Epstein ran a "sexual abuse ring", and lent underage girls to "prominent American politicians, powerful business executives, foreign presidents, a well-known prime minister, and other world leaders".<sup>[136]</sup>

This long-running lawsuit is pending in federal court, aimed at vacating the federal plea agreement on the grounds that it violated victims' rights.<sup>[137]</sup> On April 7, 2015, Judge Kenneth Marra ruled that the allegations made by alleged victim Virginia Roberts against Prince Andrew had no bearing on the lawsuit by alleged victims seeking to reopen Epstein's non-prosecution plea agreement with the federal government; the judge ordered that allegation to be struck from the record.<sup>[134]</sup> Judge Marra made no ruling as to whether claims by Roberts are true or false. Though he did not allow Jane Does 3 and 4 to join the suit, Marra specifically said that Roberts may later give evidence when the case comes to court.<sup>[138]</sup>

On February 21, 2019, in the case of Two Jane Does v. United States, Senior Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida Kenneth Marra said federal prosecutors violated the law by failing to notify victims before they allowed him to plead guilty to only the two Florida offenses. The judge left open what the possible remedy could be.<sup>[139]</sup>

Virginia Giuffre v. Epstein* (2015)

In a December 2014 Florida court filing by Bradley Edwards and Paul G. Cassell meant for inclusion in the Crime Victims Rights Act lawsuit,<sup>[140]</sup> Virginia Giuffre (then known as Virginia Roberts), alleged in a sworn affidavit that at age 17, she had been sexually trafficked by Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell for their own use and for use by several others, including Prince Andrew<sup>[141]</sup> and retired Harvard Law professor Alan Dershowitz.<sup>[8][142]</sup> Giuffre also claimed that Epstein, Maxwell and others had physically and sexually abused her.<sup>[143]</sup> She alleged that the FBI may have been involved in a cover-up.<sup>[144]</sup> She said she had served as Epstein's sex slave from 1999 to 2002, and had recruited other underage girls.<sup>[145]</sup> Prince Andrew, Epstein, and Dershowitz all denied having had sex with Giuffre. Dershowitz took legal action over the allegations.<sup>[146][147][148]</sup> Giuffre filed a defamation suit against Dershowitz,

HUMAN RIGHTS CAMPAIGN

The 1996 United States campaign finance controversy was an alleged effort by China to influence the domestic policies of the United States, before and during the Clinton administration, and involved the fundraising practices of the administration itself.<sup>[146]</sup><sup>[147]</sup> Despite the evidence,<sup>[146]</sup><sup>[148]</sup> the Chinese government denied all accusations.<sup>[149]</sup>

"When I took office, only high energy physicists had ever heard of what is called the Worldwide Web ... Now even my cat has its own page."

Bill Clinton's announcement of Next Generation Internet initiative, October 1996.<sup>[145]</sup>

As part of a 1996 initiative to curb illegal immigration, Clinton signed the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act (IIRIRA) on September 30, 1996. Appointed by Clinton,<sup>[150]</sup> the U.S. Commission on Immigration Reform recommended reducing legal immigration from about 800,000 people a year to about 550,000.<sup>[151]</sup><sup>[152]</sup>

Ken Gormley, author of The Death of American Virtue: Clinton vs. Starr, reveals in his book that Clinton narrowly escaped possible assassination in the Philippines in November 1996. During his visit to the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) forum in Manila, while he was on his way to meet with a senior member of the Philippine government, Clinton was saved from danger minutes before his motorcade was scheduled to drive over a bridge charged with a timed improvised explosive device (IED).<sup>[153]</sup> According to officials, the IED was large enough to "blow up the entire presidential motorcade".<sup>[154]</sup> Details of the plot were revealed to Gormley by Lewis C. Merletti, former member of the presidential protection detail and Director of the Secret Service. Intelligence officers intercepted a radio transmission indicating there was a wedding cake under a bridge.<sup>[153]</sup> This alerted Merletti and others as Clinton's motorcade was scheduled to drive over a major bridge in downtown Manila.<sup>[154]</sup> Once more, the word "wedding" was the "code name" used by a terrorist group for a past "assassination attempt".<sup>[154]</sup> Merletti wanted to reroute the motorcade, but the alternate route would add forty-five minutes to the drive time. Clinton was very angry, as he was already late for the meeting, but following the advice of the secret service possibly saved his life. Two other bombs had been discovered in Manila earlier in the week so the threat level that day was high.<sup>[155]</sup> Security personnel at the Manila International Airport uncovered several grenades and a timing device in a travel bag.<sup>[156]</sup> Officials also discovered a bomb near a major U.S. naval base.<sup>[156]</sup> The president was scheduled to visit both these locations later in the week. An intense investigation took place into the events in Manila and it was discovered that the group behind the bridge bomb was a Saudi terrorist group in Afghanistan known as al-Qaeda and the plot was masterminded by Osama bin Laden.<sup>[154]</sup> Until recently, this thwarted assassination attempt was never made public and remained top secret. Only top members of the U.S. intelligence community were aware of these events.<sup>[154]</sup>

Non-prosecution agreement (NPA) (2006–2008)

In July 2006, the FBI began its own investigation of Epstein, nicknamed "Operation Leap Year".<sup>[110]</sup> It resulted in a 53-page indictment in June 2007.<sup>[71]</sup> Alexander Acosta, then the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida, agreed to a plea deal, which Alan Dershowitz helped to negotiate,<sup>[111]</sup> to grant immunity from all federal criminal charges to Epstein, along with four named co-conspirators and any unnamed "potential co-conspirators".* According to the Miami Herald, the non-prosecution agreement "essentially shut down an ongoing FBI probe into whether there were more victims and other powerful people who took part in Epstein's sex crimes". At the time, this halted the investigation and sealed the indictment. The Miami Herald said: "Acosta agreed, despite a federal law to the contrary, that the deal would be kept from the victims."<sup>[1]</sup>

The controversial non-prosecution agreement

Acosta later said he offered a lenient plea deal because he was told that Epstein "belonged to intelligence", was "above his pay grade" and to "leave it alone".<sup>[52][53][112]</sup> Epstein agreed to plead guilty in Florida state court to two felony prostitution charges, serve 18 months in prison, register as a sex offender, and pay restitution to three dozen victims identified by the FBI.<sup>[1][89]</sup> The plea deal was later described as a "sweetheart deal".<sup>[113]</sup>

A federal judge later found that the prosecutors had violated the victims' rights in that they had concealed the agreement from the victims and instead urged them to have "patience".<sup>[114][115]</sup>

According to an internal review conducted by the Department of Justice's Office of Professional Responsibility, which was released in November 2020, Acosta showed "poor judgment" in granting Epstein a non-prosecution agreement and failing to notify Epstein's alleged victims about this agreement.<sup>[116]</sup>

Conviction and sentencing (2008–2011)

On June 30, 2008, after Epstein pleaded guilty to a state charge (one of two) of procuring for prostitution a girl below age 18,<sup>[117]</sup> he was sentenced to 18 months in prison. While most convicted sex offenders in Florida are sent to state prison, Epstein was instead housed in a private wing of the Palm Beach County Stockade and, according to the sheriff's office, was after 3½ months allowed to leave the jail on "work release" for up to 12 hours a day, 6 days a week. This contravened the sheriff's own policies requiring a maximum remaining sentence of 10 months and making sex offenders ineligible for the privilege. He was allowed to come and go outside of specified release hours.<sup>[100]</sup>

Epstein's cell door was left unlocked, and he had access to the attorney room where a television was installed for him, before he was moved to the Stockade's previously unstaffed infirmary. He worked at the office of a foundation he had created shortly before reporting to jail; he dissolved it after he had served his time. The Sheriff's Office received $128,000 from Epstein's non-profit to pay for the costs of extra services being provided during his work release. His office was monitored by "permit deputies" whose overtime was paid by Epstein. They were required to wear suits, and checked in "welcomed guests" at the "front desk". Later the Sheriff's Office said these guest logs were destroyed per the department's "records retention" rules (although inexplicably the Stockade visitor logs were not).<sup>[118]</sup> He was allowed to use his own driver to drive him between jail and his office and other appointments.<sup>[100][118]</sup>

*of Adelaide public lecture 2019*

3 September 2019

Friends, I trust you will indulge me if I start by sneaking in a quick family acknowledgement of my niece Dr Jenna Malone, who is an academic at this university's Waite Research Institute and her great friend Judy Rathjen, who is an accomplished woman in her own right and, in a connected Adelaide kind of way, is our Vice Chancellor's sister.

I also acknowledge Judy's brother, Vice Chancellor, Mr Peter Rathjen, Professor Jenny Shaw, the Minister for Health, the Honourable Stephen Wade and the Shadow Minister for Health, the Honourable Chris Picton.

But most importantly of all, I acknowledge the traditional owners of the land on which we meet and in the spirit of reconciliation, pay my respects to Elders past and present. Yellaka, thank you for your warm Greeting to Country.

Introduction

The is the second time I have had the privilege of being so welcomed by Yellaka. The first time was at the recent South Australian State dinner to celebrate 125 years of women's suffrage in our State – a milestone to be inspired by.

fell.<sup>[32]</sup> Despite this, the government included funding for the Gawler railway line up to Dry Creek, a number of measures supporting small businesses and entrepreneurs, and promised a return to surplus by 2015–2016.<sup>[33]</sup>

During the 2013 Federal Election, both Liberal and Labor promised that the next round of the country's submarines (12) would be built in South Australia, however after the election it appeared that the Liberal Government had arranged to buy just eight submarines directly from Japan.<sup>[34]</sup> Following an organised campaign by Jay Weatherill and Labor, the Advertiser newspaper, workers at the Australian Submarine Corporation and the South Australian public, a "competitive evaluation process" was announced by the Federal Government, with the final contract for a South Australian build awarded to French company DCNS with majority of the work to take place in Osborne, South Australia.<sup>[35]</sup> Following the announcement, Jay Weatherill travelled to France to meet with DCNS and others in an attempt to maximise opportunities for South Australia.<sup>[36]</sup>

Weatherill also released the French Engagement Strategy, a plan to strengthen economic and business ties with France, also focusing on broader opportunities in areas such as education, tourism and the arts.<sup>[37]</sup>

In December 2013 Holden announced it would withdraw production from Australia. At the time Holden directly employed 1,600 people in its Elizabeth plant in South Australia, with a total of 3,000 job losses predicted through the supply chain.<sup>[38]</sup> While Liberal Shadow Treasurer Rob Lucas claimed South Australia was "careering toward double digit unemployment" after the closure,<sup>[39]</sup> strong support from the Weatherill Labor Government ensured the small business sector grew above trend after the closure<sup>[40]</sup> with unemployment at 6% in January 2017, three months after.<sup>[41]</sup>

The 2014 State election resulted in a hung parliament with 23 seats for Labor, 22 for the Liberals, and the balance of power resting with the two independents, Bob Such and Geoff Brock. After Such went on medical leave for a brain tumour without indicating his support, political commentators indicated that Brock would likely back Labor by reason of 'political stability'.<sup>[42]</sup> Brock did back Labor, giving Labor 24 seats and as a result Weatherill formed a minority government - giving Labor a total four terms in government.<sup>[43]</sup>

Second term

Weatherill joined with Liberal premiers proclaiming he would lead a national campaign against the then federal Abbott Government's 2014 federal budget.<sup>[44]</sup> Former Liberal Leader Martin Hamilton-Smith then defected, becoming an independent and entered the Weatherill cabinet. Hieu Van Le was announced on 26 June 2014 as the next Governor of South Australia to replace Kevin Scarce.<sup>[45]</sup> Following the death of Such, Labor won the 2014 Fisher by-election by nine votes from a 7.3 percent two-party swing in a hotly contested three-cornered contest. Weatherill nonetheless kept Brock and Hamilton-Smith in cabinet, giving the government a 26 to 21 parliamentary majority.<sup>[46]</sup>

In 2015, Weatherill initiated the Nuclear Fuel Cycle Royal Commission to investigate opportunities and risks associated with expanding the state's involvement in the nuclear fuel cycle. The Commission was headed by former Governor Kevin Scarce and delivered its final report and

Four hours after the close of polls, at approximately 10pm ACDST, incumbent Premier Jay Weatherill telephoned Steven Marshall and conceded defeat. Weatherill subsequently publicly announced that he had conceded, saying, "I'm sorry I couldn't bring home another victory, but I do feel like one of those horses that has won four Melbourne Cups and I think the handicap has caught up with us on this occasion."<sup>[77][78][79][80]</sup>

Peter Malinauskas became Leader of the Opposition and succeeded Weatherill who had resigned as Labor leader, with Susan Close as deputy, following a Labor caucus meeting on 9 April 2018.<sup>[81]</sup>

The scrub fire is uncontrolled and is burning in a northerly direction towards the coast between Middle River and Snug Cove. Conditions are continually changing.

SA Police will be undertaking assessments of damaged properties around Western River and Western River Cove today. Assessments of properties around Middle River cannot commence until fire conditions moderate * Crews on Sunday afternoon, December 22, are continuing to work on the Coopers Road, Duncan fire on Kangaroo Island where 13,000 hectares have been burnt.

Overnight back burning has secured part of the western edge of the Duncan fire, however the area between Snug Cove on the coast and Snug Cove Road approximately 2km south of the coast remains unsecured at this time.

The CFS is implementing its plans to secure the western edge of the fire using a retardant line, but due to smoke causing poor visibility this is proving to be difficult.

Plans are also being made to secure the southern edge of the fire, north of the Playford Highway.

Two teams of firefighters from the mainland are working with local crews, private farm firefighting units, the forestry industry and crews from the Department of Environment and Water.

To ensure your safety, and that of firefighters and other emergency personnel, please do not enter the area unless necessary. Hazards may include reduced visibility due to smoke, fallen trees blocking roads and emergency vehicles operating in the area.

Residents in the area are advised to remain vigilant and to continue checking and following your Bushfire Survival Plan.

GOU + POLICE TARGETING CONFIRMED TELECOMMUNICATION SYSTEMS - TELSTRA HEAD OFFICE

I reported the Fraudulent malicious Activity of the newly created business account to Joshua Adams, Business Consultant, Telstra Store, Kadina who proceeded to file a report to the Fraud Department and requested an investigation into the activity - Refer to Telstra Report dated 1/10/2020

I received no reply or response from this report.

The Fraudulent and malicious Activity continued and escalated.

On the 25/03/2021 I reported the activity again to Joshua Adams, Business Consultant, Telstra Store, Kadina and reported that I had not received any contact from the Fraud Department concerning the report that he had submitted. I requested a change of mobile phone number with the account still having Restricted Access applied. Joshua Adams proceeded to change the mobile phone number and did a check to ensure that the new number that I had been given was a newly created number that had not been circulated before my use, to ensure that the same activity would not occur and if it did would be seen as suspicious activity continued.

On the 25/03/2021 I reported the Fraudulent Malicious activity to Isobelle Oppeloar, Manager, Telstra Store, Kadina who proceeded to file a report to a higher authority, requesting an investigation with the higher authority of the Fraud Division or CEO of Telstra, due to ongoing issues over a 10 year period of continuous Fraudulent Activity. - Refer to Letter addressed to Isobelle Oppeloar, Manager - Refer to document filed report and Case ID number
I received contact from Telstra higher authority but missed the call and am waiting for the second contact, to ring me back as informed in the voice recorded message left on my mobile phone to discuss the issue.

On the 13th April 2021 I sent a letter addressed to the CEO of Telstra Head Office, Mr Andrew Penn, Melbourne, Victoria from the Norwood Post Office branch, Adelaide informing the CEO of the continuous Fraudulent Malicious Activity that had been occurring in my personal and newly created business account with Restricted Access, and requested a thorough investigation into the activity and provided the documented evidence of the activity that had been occurring in all servers and over a long period of time, and following re-location and change of details

Cyber_abuse_Resource Sheet.pdf

Dear

Thank you for your recent enquiry, and we are sorry to hear how this is affecting you.

eSafety and Adult Cyber Abuse

The eSafety Commissioner's (eSafety's) primary role in dealing with cyberbullying complaints is to assist with the rapid removal of cyberbullying material targeted at Australian children, on social media services.

Please be aware that eSafety, therefore, has no legislative power to investigate adult cyber abuse complaints, formally. However, we do work to guide people where we can and provide advice on what they can do themselves.

In the most serious cases, we will use our existing relationships and escalation pathways with social media services to effect take-down of harmful material that is considered to be serious cyber abuse in nature or, where required, we will refer the matter to law enforcement.

Digital surveillance - IDENTIFIED AS ILLEGAL SURVEILLANCE RESULTING IN ILLEGAL ACTIVITY

Your situation sounds like it may be digital surveillance, which is not an area we generally handle or have experience in. You may wish to approach your email (and any other relevant) service provider about the situation.

You may also wish engage an IT consultant to assist you in this matter or a cyber digital forensic expert to assist you further and we'd encourage you to consider doing this in the meantime.

Reporting to police

If you wish to pursue this or to make a formal report to police, the following steps may help you prepare:

- Prepare a timeline of what has taken place
- Place any screenshots you have in a word document (provide a summary below each image explaining what the screenshot relates to)
- Provide copies of any URL's you may have (you can obtain the URL by copying and pasting the URL address from your browser address bar)
- If you believe you know who the person is that is targeting you online, provide as much detail about the person.

I have attached our Adult Cyber Abuse Resource sheet which contains useful eSafety and support links. You may want to reach out to support services to help you in this difficult time.

We have now finalised your matter for now and hope the above information assists you.

Regards,

Cyber Abuse Team
