Dear Nick,

Thankyou for contacting me as quickly as possible.

I am in the middle of legalities involving the suspected sexual targeting orchestrated by a group of prominent people in prominent positions which include authority figures, governing officials, members of their families, members of the public, sporting positions and VIP's.

This targeting has resulted in financial hardship, physical assault, sexual assault, immobilization, isolation through fraudulent activity within the telecommunications systems and other organizations including online sites and internet connections.

I have come into contact with various men via your dating site and have had personal contact with one of the men whom without my knowledge of consent meet me with false intentions which has led to a series of false interactions with men via telephone contact , personal contact and internet services, including personal email.

I am requesting an extract of my profile and a complete history of contacts over the period of my profile being on your site for legal reasons.

The fraudulent and illegal activity within my life is under investigation as to the sources of the targeting and it is believed that my profile has been illegally downloaded off your dating site and uploaded onto an illegal sex trade site in operation by the above mentioned positions.

I am believed to be one of the victims of this illegal crime.

I would appreciate any information given in regards to my profile, what was written, a copy of my profile - all contacts including interests. -a copy of all email contacts and the contents written

Thank you for your understanding and co-operation regarding this matter.

Kind Regards

Jacqueline Pearce

Thank you very much for your reply.

It is of great concern as the computer of which I have reported as the suspected hacking of business files by MagicFM is a registered homebased business computer which has numerous business dealings and files contained within its contents.

I am requesting the office of the Australian Information commissioner in regards to the business dealings of the message contained within the active file of the Facebook account - Magic FM - to be extracted and a copy to be sent to myself via my email service in relation to a legal matter.

Thank you.

Dear Ms Pearce

Privacy complaint about UnitingCare Wesley Country SA

Thank you for your complaint to the Information Commissioner of 2 August 2016 about UnitingCare Wesley Country SA (UnitingCare) under s 36 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Act).

Section 41(1)(d) of the Act gives the Information Commissioner the discretion not to investigate a complaint if he is satisfied that the complaint is lacking in substance.

The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) has considered your complaint about UnitingCare and it appears that it is lacking in substance. The reasons for this view are explained below. You now have an opportunity to comment before I make a final decision.

Your allegations

You allege that UnitingCare has interfered with your privacy by sharing your personal information.

In addition to this, you make a number of allegations in relation to intellectual property theft and fraudulent activity with your banking institutions, telecommunication systems, and utility accounts.

The OAIC's view

The OAIC consider complaints to be lacking in substance when there is no basis to consider whether an act or practice that may be an interference with an individual's privacy has occurred, based on the information provided.

While I acknowledge that this matter has been distressing for you, you have not provided any information to support your claims about these organisations, and it is unclear from your complaint, what these allegations are based on other than your own assertions.

In the absence of any information to support your allegations, I intend to decline to investigate your complaint under s 41(1)(d) of the Act as lacking in substance.

* I also note that I am unable to consider your claims regarding the theft of your intellectual property as it does relate to the handling of your personal information. I am also unable to consider the issues you have raised regarding fraudulent or criminal activity as these issues are not covered by the Act and are therefore outside of our jurisdiction.

Next steps

As the alleged interference with your privacy appears to be lacking in substance. I intend to decline to investigate your complaint under s 41(1)(d).

However, before I make a final decision I invite you to provide a response to this letter, should you wish to do so. I would appreciate receiving your written response by 2 November 2016. If I do not hear from you by this date, I will make a decision based on the available information and close your complaint.

If you would like to discuss your complaint, I may be reached on [REDACTED] (local call cost – calls from mobiles or pay phones may incur higher charges) or [REDACTED] during business hours, by fax on [REDACTED] or email [REDACTED].

Dear Jacqueline,

Thank you for your interest in Walk Free.

Walk Free's vision is to end modern slavery in our generation. We approach this challenge by conducting research to improve our understanding of the nature and size of the issue and advocating for evidence-based action by government, business, and religious leaders.

Walk Free is not a service provider and we do not provide direct assistance to victims of modern slavery.

While we as an organisation deal more at a policy level, we do partner with civil society in target countries around the world to raise awareness and deal directly with the issue of modern slavery on the ground.

Thank you for your interest.
