In relation to the above titled Part Three and Part Four:

The FOI Act provides a right of access to documents held by an agency.

Section 12 of the FOI Act relevantly states:

"A person has a legally enforceable right to be given access to an agency's documents in accordance with this Act."

Pursuant to section 12 of the FOI Act, there is no requirement for an agency to conduct enquires in order to create fresh document/s or answer questions. The right of access applies only to documents created or held by an agency.

I have considered your application and it is my opinion that in the above parts of your request you have not asked for documents. I therefore deem Part Three and Part Four of your application to be outside the scope of the FOI Act.

In relation to the above titled Part One and Part Two:

It is determined not to release any documents/information in relation to this matter pursuant to clause 4(1)(b) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act which states:

 "A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the fair trial of any person or the impartial adjudication of any case."

and

Clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act which states:

 "A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead)."

and

Clause 11(b) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act which states:

 "A document is an exempt document if it contains matter prepared for the purposes of proceedings (including any transcript of the proceedings) that are being heard or are to be heard before a court or tribunal."

Your request is also refused in accordance with section 20(1)(b) of the FOI Act. The information you have requested may be made available to you (or your solicitor) from the Criminal Justice Section who is handling this matter.

Section 20(1)(b) of the FOI Act states:

 "An agency may refuse access to a document if it is a document that is available for inspection at that or some other agency (whether as part of a public register or otherwise) in accordance with Part 2, or in accordance with a legislative instrument other than this Act, whether or not inspection of the document is subject to a fee or charge."

 The facts upon which this decision is based include:

1. The information you require may be made available through pre-trial under the provision of Rule 26 of the Magistrates Court Rules. A copy of Rule 26 can be downloaded from www.courts.sa.gov.au.
2. The matters are set for hearing at the Port Pirie Magistrates Court on 4 April, 2016 Offences: Disorderly Behaviour and Resist Police and on 20 May, 2016 Offences: Due Care, Fail To Give Personal Details To Officer On Request, Resist Police, Fail To Comply With Direction – Alcotest/Breath Analysis.
3. The documents contain information which concerns the personal affairs of other parties and the disclosure of such information is unreasonable. Consent has not been supplied for the release of such information.
4. The documents have been created for the purposes of proceedings before the Port Pirie Magistrates Court.

These facts have been considered in conjunction with the clauses referred to above. It is suggested that you liaise with Port Pirie Criminal Justice Section on telephone number 863 84032 in order to request a pre-trial conference.

Your rights to review and appeal

If you are dissatisfied with the determination for access to SAPOL records, you are entitled to exercise your right of internal review in accordance with section 29(1) of the FOI Act by completing a PD362 Application for Internal Review form which can be downloaded from <https://www.police.sa.gov.au/services-and-events/freedom-of-information> or available upon request at your nearest police station. Alternatively an application may be made in writing to the SAPOL Freedom of Information Unit. This application must be lodged within 30 days from the date of this determination with a fee of $33.00. Such a fee may be waived in the event of an exemption being claimed.

Ms Jacqueline Pearce

Dear Ms Pearce,

I refer to your complaint dated 23 March 2016.

* You complain about various interactions you have had with police, which you believe indicate police are targeting you and your sons. In particular you raise two instances where police took action against you in relation to driving with the prescribed concentration of alcohol in your blood. You also complain about your arrest on two occasions: 13 August 2015 and 5 February 2016, taking issue with the charges laid against you and the police account of events.

* I advise that from the information you provide, it appears the police officers involved in the incidents have engaged in routine police procedures in relation to their contact with you. This includes conducting random breath tests, responding to reports from the public, making an arrest based on a reasonable suspicion of an offence, compliance with custody procedures in relation to searches and use of cells. In my view there is no evidence of police misconduct in relation to the concerns you raise.

In relation to your complaint that the charges against you have no merit and your request to be supplied with evidence, these are issues that need to be addressed through the court process. In other words, if you dispute the charges, you will need to do so in court. This office does not become involved in matters which are before the court.

I have therefore made a determination pursuant to section 21(1)(d) of the Police (Complaints and Disciplinary Proceedings) Act 1985, not to refer your complaint for investigation, as in my view it would be unlikely to reveal evidence of misconduct on the part of a police officer and therefore such investigation is unjustifiable.

Dear Ms Pearce,

* I refer to your letter 14 April 2016 addressed to the Commissioner of Police.

This letter has been forwarded to my office for assessment.

After reading the letter, it appears to relate to the same incidents you raised in your complaint dated 23 March 2016.

* As I advised in my letter to you dated 6 April 2016, this office will not be referring your complaint for investigation. This is particularly because you have been charged in relation to the incidents you complain about. At this stage the circumstances of the incidents and any issues with the evidence relied on, is a matter to be canvassed in court and therefore not a matter for this office.

Dear Ms Pearce

Thank you for making your complaint to the Office for Public Integrity (OPI).

Your complaint has been registered and referred for assessment to the Internal Investigation Section (IIS) of the South Australia Police. The IIS is responsible for assessing and investigating the conduct of police officers.

Your complaint has been given a reference number, which is contained above. Please quote this number if you contact us. The IIS will provide you with a different reference number to use if you contact the IIS.

Why has my complaint been referred to the IIS?

Complaints and reports about police conduct are dealt with under the Police Complaints and Discipline Act 2016 (PCD Act).

The PCD Act gives the IIS the primary responsibility for managing complaints and reports about police conduct and requires the OPI to refer complaints and reports to the IIS for assessment. The OPI will only refer a complaint or report about police to the Independent Commission Against Corruption in limited circumstances.

What happens next?

The IIS will assess your complaint and decide whether further action is required. The OPI oversees this process. Complaints and reports assessed by IIS may be re-assessed by the OPI.

Further action may be taken if the complaint or report is assessed as raising a potential issue of corruption, misconduct or maladministration in public administration, or a breach of discipline. For further explanation of how your complaint or report might be assessed, please refer to the factsheet.

The IIS will advise you of the outcome of its assessment. Should you wish to contact the IIS please email [REDACTED]

Can I tell people I have made a complaint?

The PCD Act prevents you from disclosing or publishing certain information about your complaint or report, and penalties may apply for unauthorised disclosures or publications (see sections 45 and 46 of the PCD Act).

Some examples about what you can and cannot disclose or publish are provided in the attached factsheet.

If you are unsure about what you can divulge about your complaint or report, or you want to seek permission to divulge information, please contact the OPI or seek independent legal advice.

Yours sincerely

Dear Ms Pearce

Thank you for your complaint to the Office for Public Integrity (OPI) of 3 February 2022 in which you allege that various government agencies and non-government organisations have engaged in money laundering, computer hacking, sexual crimes, intellectual property theft and corruption.

You also explain that you were detained at [REDACTED] based on a false diagnosis and that SACAT wrongly ordered you to take medication that caused severe side effects. You say that Members of Parliament were involved in or had influence over the SACAT order.

The OPI has reviewed the information you provided and assessed your complaint in accordance with the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 2012 (ICAC Act). The ICAC Act provides that the OPI may determine to refer a complaint or report to another agency for further assessment or to take no further action.

While I acknowledge that the experiences you describe have been distressing for you, I do not think that there is sufficient information available to support the allegations to justify a referral to another agency for further assessment.

In light of the above, I have determined to take no further action in respect of your complaint pursuant to section 18E(1)(c) of the ICAC Act.

As no further action will be taken, I will now close the file.

nice to me and stated that she quite often frequented the Portside tavern, Port Pirie to have coffee weekly with her friends.

When leaving the Portside Tavern, Port Pirie I got into my vehicle and discovered that it would not start. I sighted two younger men entering the Portside Tavern, Port Pirie and I followed them into the establishment seeking assistance to start my vehicle.

The two younger men encouraged me to sit with them to have a drink while I waited for them to assist me. I sat with the two younger men in the beer garden at the Portside Tavern. One of the younger men introduced himself as "Mat" and stated that he resided in Western Australia but was in Port Pirie on holidays. (Unusual destination for tourism)

Mat proceeded to make sexual advances and became rude in nature (arrogant and aggressive)

I became defensive and stated that I did not like his behaviour, course of conversation and that I was leaving. Mat then reached across the table and grabbed my wrist and stated "Don't you want this then" and reached down to his pants and undid his zipper and exposed himself indecently. Nudity of genitals.

I became angry with him and called him a rude pig and got up to leave. Mat stood up from the table and grabbed my arm. I reached out with my other hand to slap his face to make him let me go. Mat defended himself and slammed my hand down onto the table aggressively and would not let me go before pushing me backwards. I fell to the ground.

A woman that was sitting on the other table in the beer garden jumped on top of me and was going to fight me (hurt me). I grabbed the back of her hair and the woman froze. The woman's friend yelled at me "Let her go, let her go"

I let go of the woman that was on top of me and was rushed inside to the Portside Tavern and told to get in the Taxi that was waiting for me.

That evening I took photographs of the bruising I suffered to my hands and wrists from the conflict of the attack.

Two weeks later I entered the Port Pirie Police Station to report the incident and get police assistance.

I was taken into an interview room and spoke to Detective [REDACTED]

Detective [REDACTED] stated that he was not able to investigate this matter because ;

"I can't investigate as there's police officers involved"

Detective [REDACTED] informed me that he was unable to investigate the report I made on the incident at the Portside Tavern, Port Pirie as the Security Footage was not working that day (Repeated pattern of denied security footage at the Portside Tavern, Port Pirie)

Managers Brad and Janette - Knowledge

Detective [REDACTED] then proceeded to state two days after I reported the incident that the witness's he questioned in relation to this incident had conflicting stories to mine.

In question : Security footage was not obtained to know who was in the beer garden to question as witnesses.

I was in the beer garden not inside the establishment where the employee's of the establishment were working - no witnesses

Who did Detective [REDACTED] know who to question?

The only witnesses to this event were myself, Mat, his friend and the two other women sitting at the other table, not on security footage as it was not working on the day.
