Sarah Ransome v. Epstein and Maxwell (2017)

In 2017, Sarah Ransome filed a suit against Epstein and Maxwell, alleging that Maxwell had hired her to give massages to Epstein and later threatened to physically harm her or destroy her career prospects if she did not comply with their sexual demands at his mansion in New York City and on his private Caribbean island, Little Saint James. The suit was settled in 2018 under undisclosed terms. [161][162]

Bradley Edwards' defamation v. Epstein (2018)

A state civil lawsuit in Florida filed by attorney Bradley Edwards against Epstein was scheduled for trial in December 2018. The trial was expected to provide victims with their first opportunity to make their accusations in public. However, the case was settled on the first day of the trial, with Epstein publicly apologizing to Edwards; other terms of the settlement were confidential. [137][163]

Epstein was accused of sex trafficking of minors at his mansion at 9 East 71st Street.

Maria Farmer v. Epstein and Maxwell (2019)

TARGETED VICTIM - FIRST SEXUAL TARGETING - POLICE OFFICER - 16 YRS OLD - KADIN?

On April 16, 2019, Maria Farmer went public and filed a sworn affidavit in federal court in New York, alleging that she and her 15-year-old sister, Annie, had been sexually assaulted by Epstein and Maxwell in separate locations in 1996. Farmer met Epstein and Maxwell at her graduate art gallery reception at the New York Academy of Art in 1995. The following year, in the summer of 1996, they hired her to work on an art project in Leslie Wexner's Ohio mansion, where she was then sexually assaulted. [164] Farmer reported the incident to the New York City Police Department and the FBI. [165]

Farmer's affidavit also stated that during the same summer, Epstein flew her then-15-year-old sister to his New Mexico property where he and Maxwell sexually abused her on a massage table. [166]

Jennifer Araoz v. Epstein and Maxwell (2019)

On July 22, 2019, while in jail awaiting trial, Epstein was served with a petition regarding a pending state civil lawsuit filed by Jennifer Araoz. [167] She stated that an associate for Epstein had recruited her outside Talent Unlimited High School at age 14 and she was gradually groomed for over a year before Epstein raped her in his New York City mansion when she was 15. [168] Araoz filed her suit on August 14, 2019, when New York State law was updated to allow one year for adult survivors of child sexual abuse to sue for previous offenses, regardless of how long ago the abuse took place. [169] In October 2019, Araoz amended her complaint to include over 20 corporate entities associated with Epstein and named the additional individuals Lesley Groff and Kimberly Espinosa as enablers. SEXUAL ABUSE RING
PROMINENT POSITIONS

A December 30, 2014, federal civil suit was filed in Florida by Jane Doe 1 ([REDACTED]) and Jane Doe 2 against the United States for violations of the Crime Victims' Rights Act by the U.S. Department of Justice's NPA with Epstein and his limited 2008 state plea. There was a later unsuccessful effort to add [REDACTED] (Jane Doe 3) and another woman (Jane Doe 4) as plaintiffs to that case.^[132] The addition accused Alan Dershowitz of sexually abusing a minor, Jane Doe 3, provided by Epstein.^[133] The allegations against Dershowitz were stricken by the judge and eliminated from the case because he said they were outside the intent of the suit to re-open the plea agreement.^{[134][135]} A document filed in court alleges that Epstein ran a "sexual abuse ring", and lent underage girls to "prominent American politicians, powerful business executives, foreign presidents, a well-known prime minister, and other world leaders".^[136]

This long-running lawsuit is pending in federal court, aimed at vacating the federal plea agreement on the grounds that it violated victims' rights.^[137] On April 7, 2015, Judge Kenneth Marra ruled that the allegations made by alleged victim [REDACTED] against Prince Andrew had no bearing on the lawsuit by alleged victims seeking to reopen Epstein's non-prosecution plea agreement with the federal government; the judge ordered that allegation to be struck from the record.^[134] Judge Marra made no ruling as to whether claims by Roberts are true or false. Though he did not allow Jane Does 3 and 4 to join the suit, Marra specifically said that Roberts may later give evidence when the case comes to court.^[138]

On February 21, 2019, in the case of Two Jane Does v. United States, Senior Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida Kenneth Marra said federal prosecutors violated the law by failing to notify victims before they allowed him to plead guilty to only the two Florida offenses. The judge left open what the possible remedy could be.^[139]

Perversion of Justice, The Miami Herald, November 29, 2018.

In a December 2014 Florida court filing by Bradley Edwards and Paul G. Cassell meant for inclusion in the Crime Victims Rights Act lawsuit,^[140] [REDACTED] (then known as [REDACTED]), alleged in a sworn affidavit that at age 17, she had been sexually trafficked by Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell for their own use and for use by several others, including Prince Andrew^[141] and retired Harvard Law professor Alan Dershowitz.^{[8][142]} [REDACTED] also claimed that Epstein, Maxwell and others had physically and sexually abused her.^[143] She alleged that the FBI may have been involved in a cover-up.^[144] She said she had served as Epstein's sex slave from 1999 to 2002, and had recruited other underage girls.^[145] Prince Andrew, Epstein, and Dershowitz all denied having had sex with [REDACTED]. Dershowitz took legal action over the allegations.^{[146][147][148]} [REDACTED] filed a defamation suit against Dershowitz,

Epstein attended local public schools, first attending Public School 188, and then Mark Twain Junior High School nearby.^[26] In 1967, Epstein attended the National Music Camp at the Interlochen Center for the Arts.^[29] He began playing the piano when he was five.^[30] He graduated in 1969 from Lafayette High School at age 16, having skipped two grades.^{[31][32]} Later that year, he attended classes at Cooper Union until he changed colleges in 1971.^[31] From September 1971, he attended the Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences at New York University, but left without receiving a degree in June 1974.^{[31][32]}

Career

Teaching

Epstein started working in September 1974 as a physics and mathematics teacher for teens at the Dalton School on the Upper East Side of Manhattan.^{[31][33]} Donald Barr, who served as the headmaster until June 1974,^{[34][35][36]} was known to have made several unconventional recruitments at the time, although it is unclear whether he had a direct role in hiring Epstein.^{[33][37][38]} Three months after Barr's departure, Epstein began to teach at the school, despite his lack of credentials.^[38] Epstein allegedly showed inappropriate behavior toward underage students at the time.^{[33][37]} He became acquainted with Alan Greenberg, the chief executive officer of Bear Stearns, whose son and daughter were attending the school. Greenberg's daughter, Lynne Koepfel, pointed to a parent-teacher conference where Epstein influenced another Dalton parent into advocating for him to Greenberg.^[35] In June 1976, after Epstein was dismissed from Dalton for "poor performance",^{[33][39][40]} Greenberg offered him a job at Bear Stearns.^{[30][41]}

Banking

Epstein joined Bear Stearns in 1976 as a low-level junior assistant to a floor trader.^[42] He swiftly moved up to become an options trader, working in the special products division, and then advised the bank's wealthiest clients, such as Seagram president Edgar Bronfman, on tax mitigation strategies.^{[32][43][44]} Jimmy Cayne, the bank's later chief executive officer, praised Epstein's skill with wealthy clients and complex products. In 1980, four years after joining Bear Stearns, Epstein became a limited partner.^[42]

In 1981, he was asked to leave Bear Stearns for, according to his sworn testimony, being guilty of a "Reg D violation".^{[45][32][30]} Even though Epstein departed abruptly, he remained close to Cayne and Greenberg and was a client of Bear Stearns until its collapse in 2008.^[42]

Financial consulting

* In August 1981, Epstein founded his own consulting firm, Intercontinental Assets Group Inc. (IAG),^[46] which assisted clients in recovering stolen money from fraudulent brokers and lawyers.^[30] Epstein described his work at this time as being a high-level bounty hunter. He told friends that he worked sometimes as a consultant for governments and the very wealthy to recover embezzled funds, while at other times he worked for clients who had embezzled funds.^{[30][47]} Spanish actress and heiress Ana Obregón was one such wealthy client, whom Epstein helped in 1982 to recover her father's millions in lost investments, which had disappeared when Drysdale Government Securities collapsed because of fraud.^[48]

*John Wayne Olsen, Liberal Party Premier of South Australia 1996–2001, served two years in the Senate from 7 May 1990, when he filled a casual vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Tony Messner.

*JOHN WAYNE OLSEN - KADINA - SOURCE

A colourful background in the Australian on 29 November 1996, the day after he became Premier of South Australia, argued that there was a defining moment in Olsen's life when he was eighteen and with his father when the latter suffered a massive heart attack and died while driving the family speedboat. Other defining moments revolved around his fortunes as a state politician; his two years in the Senate rated barely a mention. State politics was clearly the main game for John Olsen. *CONNECTED TO AMERICA AND

STEVEN MARSHALL, PREMIER OF SA.

*Born in Kadina in rural South Australia on 7 June 1945, Olsen was the son of Stanley John Olsen, owner of an agricultural machine and motor vehicle business, and his wife Joyce Rosalind, née Heath. He was educated at

*Kadina Memorial High School, studied accountancy at the South Australian School of Business Studies, spent a period from 1962 as a bank clerk with the SA Savings Bank, and by 1968 was managing director of the family business, J. R. Olsen & Sons Pty Ltd. His determination to be part of the political process and influence policy direction was inspired by what he saw as the need to address the neglect of small business interests under Don Dunstan, and 'the excesses of the Dunstan and Whitlam era'. Olsen became politically engaged first as *president of South Australia's Rural Youth (1970) and later as a Kadina town councillor from 1971, and mayor of

*from 1974 to 1976. In May 1968 he married Julie Abbott; they were to have two sons and a daughter.

*In 1976 Olsen was elected president of the South Australian division of the Liberal Party, an office which he held until 1979 when he was elected to the South Australian House of Assembly as the member for Rocky River; following a boundary redistribution in 1985 he became the member for Custance. Olsen served as Chief Secretary and Minister for Fisheries in the Tonkin Liberal Government from March 1982 until the ALP victory in the state election in November of that year. David Tonkin resigned from Parliament, and Olsen defeated Dean Brown in a ballot for leadership of the party. As Leader of the Opposition in the South Australian Parliament, he contested and lost the 1985 and 1989 state elections against Labor Premier John Bannon. Following the defeat of November 1989, in which his party obtained more than fifty per cent of the two-party preferred vote, Olsen indicated that he would accept nomination for the Senate vacancy to be caused by the impending resignation of Senator Tony Messner. He resigned as Leader in January 1990, and resigned his seat in the House of Assembly immediately before being chosen for the vacancy by a joint sitting of the Houses of the SA Parliament *

*on 7 May 1990, he was sworn in the Senate on the following day.[1]

*Olsen's first speech, delivered on 21 May 1990, called for increased unity for a 'fragmented and nervous nation'. He criticised the regulatory duplication that characterised federal and state administration of health, education and housing, and urged the restructuring of the economy through privatisation and the deregulation of financial and labour markets, to create an environment 'where freedom and incentive are the basics'.

He raised the issue of the maladministration of the Murray-Darling and the impact this was having on South Australia:

“ ... the heart of Australia is being left to die. Its main artery is clogged with the salinity and pollution of the States through which it passes, with my State of South Australia ... condemned by a political inertia to being in effect the sewer of Australia.

And he addressed immigration issues, arguing that migrants should be encouraged to settle in places other than the east coast, that they should be obliged to become citizens, and to take English language courses.[2]

An experienced parliamentarian, during his brief time in the Senate Olsen made 'articulate and forceful, and, at times, emotional' contributions to debate. He spoke often on the state of the economy, particularly its effect on small business and rural communities, and referring frequently to the situation in his home state.

Steven Marshall - Wikipedia

After the election, Marshall continued to lead the Liberals in opposition.^[20] Former Liberal leader Martin Hamilton-Smith became an independent two months after the election and indicated his support for the government.^[21] Following the death of Such and the subsequent 2014 Fisher by-election which Labor won by five votes from a 7.3% 2PP swing away from the Liberals, Labor went from minority to majority government. Brock and Hamilton-Smith maintained their confidence and supply support for the government which provided a 26 to 21 parliamentary majority.^[22]

*2018 state election STEVEN MARSHALL - 2018 VINCENT BULONE

The 2018 state election was held on 17 March. The July to September 2014 Newspoll had seen Labor begin to lead the Liberals on the two-party-preferred vote for the first time since 2009.^[23] The October to December 2015 Newspoll saw Marshall's leadership approval rating drop 11 points to 30%, the equal lowest Newspoll approval rating in history for a South Australian Opposition Leader since Dale Baker in 1990.^{[24][25][26]} At the election, Marshall again faced Weatherill and Labor which were seeking a record fifth term in office and the "wild card" centrist party, SA-Best, led by former Senator Nick Xenophon, who was seeking the balance of power in the Assembly. The 2016 electoral redistribution had given the Liberals an advantage of 27 seats to Labor's 20 seats heading into the election.

JOHN OLSEN - KADINA - COMMENCEMENT OF TARGETING

Four hours after the close of polls on election day, at approximately 10pm ACDST, Weatherill telephoned Steven Marshall and conceded defeat. Marshall was introduced to the election day function by former Liberal Premier John Olsen and claimed victory. The SA Liberals had won the election with 25 seats to Labor's 19, a bare majority of two – the first time the Liberals had won a state election since Olsen's victory in 1997.^{[27][28][29][30]} Despite the outcome, there was actually a state-wide two-party-preferred swing away from the Liberals toward Labor.^[31]

*CONNECTED TO STEVEN MARSHALL - CONSPIRING AGAINST TARGETED VICTIM IN 2020 WITH VICKIE CHAPMAN, SA ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Two days after the election, with the result beyond doubt even though counting was still under way, Marshall had himself, deputy leader Vickie Chapman, and Father of the South Australian Parliament Rob Lucas sworn in as an interim three-person government by the Governor of South Australia, Hieu Van Le. Marshall became Premier, Chapman Deputy Premier and Attorney-General, and Lucas Treasurer. Lucas had previously served as Treasurer in the last Liberal government.^[32] The full ministry was sworn in on 22 March.^[33] In addition to serving as Premier, Marshall retained responsibility for portfolio areas of The Arts, Aboriginal Affairs and Reconciliation, Defence and Space Industries, Veterans' Affairs and Multicultural Affairs, although these were no longer named as ministries.^[34]

Miss [REDACTED]

Dear Miss [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter of 18 September 2009 about the establishment of a Specialist Medical Centre in Port Pirie.

SA Health recognises and encourages private medical services to be established within rural communities. SA Health and Country Health SA (CHSA) have a long established history of working collaboratively with private medical practitioners in the provision of health services to the residents of local communities.

Currently, CHSA and the local Health Advisory Council for Port Pirie are engaged in a 10 year health service needs and planning process. This process will identify the needs of the local community and support the planning of long term health services to meet those needs. You may wish to consider discussing your proposal to establish the Specialist Medical Centre in Port Pirie with Mr Roger Kirchner, Director Mid North Cluster, CHSA on telephone 8638 4575.

Thank you for bringing this matter to my attention and I trust this information will be of assistance to you.

Yours sincerely

Presenting Problem

She has suffered severe reactions to several medications previously, including Olanzapine, Escitalopram, penicillins and Champix.

Furthermore claims to have suffered anaphylaxis to a flu vaccine in 2014, and respiratory symptoms following an ADT vaccine in August 2020.

She is understandably concerned about having a serious reaction to the COVID-19 vaccines. As a consequence I referred her to the RAH for administration of the COVID-19 vaccine. She was administered the Pfizer vaccine, and 5-7 days alter developed facial swelling and urticarial rash and difficulty breathing. She was treated with a combination of prednisolone and anti-histamines.

I would appreciate your review and opinion to better understand the nature of these events and understand whether there is an allergy to possibly a preservative in the vaccine, and if so, her suitability for further COVID-19 vaccines.

Dear Dr Richard Harries,

I am contacting you in hope that you are the cosmetic surgeon that I have been looking for for 20 years. I am not sure if you remember me but I was one of your first patients of your career of which you conducted cosmetic surgery at the Wallaroo Hospital in the year 2001. My name is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] although at the time of the surgery I was married and was under my married name of McDiarmid.

At that time when I had the first consultation with you we discussed that you would be willing to do the surgery on the basis that I would allow you to take photographs of the surgery following the procedure as a basis for the beginning of your career to represent your work and expertise to your patients. Upon this basis I agreed and the procedure was preformed. I then attended two appointments following the procedure which you did take the photographs according to our agreement. Unfortunately due to the abusive man that I was married to at the time, who was also very controlling and ordered that I was not to attend the third and last appointment or I would be physically abused I did not attend the final appointment, and I was not able to complete our agreement.

I have been carrying this guilt of letting you down for the past 20 years and did not know how to find you following this event, as I'll be honest all paper work was destroyed containing your name by my husband, who was suspicious of a man, a doctor making this agreement with his wife and the reason I could not attend the final appointment, his jealousy of a man being nice to me, which this kind of treatment continued for the 17 years I was married to him resulting eventually in my isolation from society, until I divorced him in 2007, and got a restraining order against him.

I have recently been given your name on a medical record obtained from Dr Richard Daehn, Kadina Medical Association and could not believe my luck. I finally found you.

I am contacting you to inform you of the circumstances of that event, and the fact that I always felt I had let you down and wanted to ask you if we could complete the agreement and take the last photograph of your brilliant work even though it is 20 years later, but as you stated then I would need to maintain the surgery repair and I have done just that with exercise over the last 20 years and the work that you performed is still brilliant and would be of great be I think to show your patients of the lasting effects of your brilliance.

Could you please contact me to inform me if you would like to proceed with this option of completing the photographs of your work and if you remember me and would like to , I will then proceed to make an appointment for the next available appointment at the Wallaroo Hospital if you are interested where it all began, as I have now relocated back to Kadina.

I would appreciate it if you would allow me to redeem myself by allowing me to complete the agreement as I felt terrible all these years for letting you down.

Yours Sincerely

Good morning Ms [REDACTED]

I refer to your complaint to the Office of the Health and Community Services Complaints Commissioner (HCSCC) about your experience at Wallaroo Hospital.

On 11 November 2022, the HCSCC commenced pre-conciliation inquiries into your complaint under section 30 of the Health and Community Services Complaints Act 2004 (SA) (the Act).

Yorke and Northern Local Health Network (YNLHN)'s response

On 24 January 2023, Mr Roger Kirchner from the Yorke and Northern Local Health Network provided a response to your complaint. In his response, Mr Kirchner stated:

- You attended the hospital three times on 18, 22 and 23 February 2022.
- On 18 February 2022, you attended the hospital at 09:05hs and a registered nurse reviewed you at 09:20am. All observations were normal. You were 10 days after a COVID-19 vaccine administration and the doctor prescribed cetirizine and antihistamine as a treatment for allergic reaction. The allergic reaction was thought to be due to a viral infection and the medication prescribed followed the clinical pathway.
- On 22 February 2022, you presented at 17:25hs and were seen at 18:34hs. Your observations were again within normal parameters, except for a slightly elevated pulse rate. An ECG was taken and shown to the doctor. The doctor was notified of your presence in the department at 19:00hs. At that time, the doctor had multiple patients waiting and it is up to the doctor to prioritise appropriately based on clinical need of all patients. You decided to leave at 19:45hs because you were feeling better. This was against clinical advice to stay. You were advised to return if concerned.
- On 23 February 2022, you arrived to the ED at 8:31hs and were seen by a nurse at 8:45hs and by a doctor at 8:52hs. Again, the observations were within normal parameters apart for a slightly elevated heart rate. Examinations showed a swollen face and rash with anxiety. The diagnosis of allergy was made again and a short, reducing course of steroids was prescribed following clinical pathway.
- There are four types of allergic reaction. The type IV reaction is a delayed reaction which takes up to 72 hours to develop. A longer time to develop reactions can occur but is a different type of reaction, such as a granulomatous reaction. This is why the first doctor made a diagnosis of an allergy due to viral infection and not the COVID-19 vaccination which was administered 10 days prior to the first attendance.
- There are no records of incidents or staff's poor behaviour or attitude during your presentations.
- Unfortunately, the hospital's Director for Nursing and Midwifery did not reply to your first letter.
- After an investigation into your complaint, YNLHN is confident that your treatment was appropriate.
- YNLHN acknowledges that the waiting time of your second visit was longer than the hospital would like. However, your observations were normal and you would have been seen by a doctor if you had chosen to stay.
- YNLHN also acknowledges that you felt your treatment could have been better.

On 13 February 2023, the HCSCC sought a response from YNLHN as to whether they would consider your request for compensation.

On 1 March 2023, YNLHN advised the HCSCC they decline to consider your compensation request because:

- The COVID-19 vaccine was not administered by them; and
- The care provided for the subsequent reaction was appropriate.

YNLHN further advised us consumers who have experienced harm from COVID-19 vaccine can seek compensation via the COVID-19 vaccine claims scheme: COVID-19 vaccine claims scheme - Services Australia.

HCSCC's preliminary views

The HCSCC is of the view YNLHN has provided appropriate information and explanation to address your complaint. The HCSCC's conciliation is a voluntary process and we are unable to seek compensation if YNLHN declines to participate in the process.

In light of the above, the HCSCC considers your complaint has been addressed to the extent it can be.

I would be grateful to receive your comments about YNLHN's response by close of business Monday 13 March 2023.

The HCSCC will consider your comments together with YNLHN's response and determine whether further action is appropriate under the Act.

Kind regards

Marina Swinnen

Dear Fraser Ellis,MP,

I am contacting you to submit the final outcome of the medical complaint I submitted to the complaints commission concerning the Wallaroo Hospital.

As detailed in the forwarded email I received from the complaints commission the Wallaroo Hospital is under the influence and directorship of Mr Roger Kirchner of the Port Pirie district Hospital of which he is also director of. As we all know, and as a previous resident of Port Pirie the Port Pirie Hospital is operating at a proficiency not seen in the Wallaroo Hospital but are under the exact same leadership, influence and input of Mr Roger Kirchner, which does bring into question why there are so many issues concerning the operations of the Wallaroo Hospital and our community members are preferring to attend the Port Pirie Hospital.

I am submitting the received outcome of my complaint with the complaints commission containing Mr Roger Kirchners denied complaint involving the Wallaroo Hospital and the near fatal incident that I suffered due to the inefficiency of the Wallaroo Hospital emergency department that is under the directorship and influence of Mr Roger Kirchner, and submit this report in support of your medical government parliamentary petition to detach the Wallaroo Hospital from this influence and directorship and to reform and restructure the Hospital to be under the operations of our communities independent influence and directorship.

I submit this report in a 100% support of your office and the marvellous work you are achieving in getting this issue recognised and restructured to serve the members of our community in a proficient manner that will no longer suffer from the ongoing complaints and crucial issues regarding healthcare in our community.

Sincerely

Good morning [Redacted]

Thank you for sending our office HCSCC's final remarks in their investigation into your complaint with Wallaroo Hospital from early 2022.

Whilst the outcome may not have been the result you were hoping for, I hope you find their investigation to be thorough and complete.

If you are unsatisfied with this response, please ensure you contact the HCSCC Complaints Resolution Officer as named by the nominated due date of next Monday 13 March 2023 in order for HCSCC to determine if further action is warranted.

According to witnesses and sources on the day of his arrest, about a dozen FBI agents forced open the door to his Manhattan townhouse, the Herbert N. Straus House, with search warrants. The search of his townhouse turned up evidence of sex trafficking and also found "hundreds – and perhaps thousands – of sexually suggestive photographs of fully – or partially – nude females". Some of the photos were confirmed as those of underage females. Yes you have always believed in me, never doubted me at all. Can you tell that i'm very persistent and a determined women. You know some men find me a little confronting, even intimidating. I must admit though i am a strong women, not the shy type, lol!

Thats true what you said about the economy , but i'm not scared to venture out because, well have you ever heard of a broke doctor? The medical system doesnt go into recession. Think about it babe??!!

Thats soo cool about the IVF hun, i hope you really get your hopes and dreams this time babe.

I wish you both the best of luck with that. xxx
Thanks for sharing babe, that made me feel pretty special. Mwah!

Been getting ready to move again, same town but different part. So been packing again which really sucks but its necessary as well. Smaller place, less rent and in town more. Shaun recons i'm a city girl and like being around the middle of town better. I said yeah, closer to the shops, lol Hes a real country boy, loves bush camping and fore wheel driving, which i love to , i think i'm city / country, a good mix of both, what do you think??

STUFF THAT!!! I know its for a good cause babe which is such a nice thing to do. But personally between you and me, i'm glad thats you riding not me, i'd be so sore and worn out, lol!! You must be really fit hey??

* Adam, ive been doing lots of thinking and i think well, because i'm in a committed relationship and , well, now i find out this wonderful news about you and Nikki, i do think its time to let us go. We really do need to concentrate on our real lives, don't you think? I don't regret meeting you and / i will forever treasure and remember all our times together, i will always have a special place for you in my heart.
But i need to be true to Shaun and respect him and our relationship. I feel guilty about doing this and it gets that little bit harder all the time. I need to be a honest good women to shaun as he really is a good guy, kind hearted and loves me, just the way i am. But i need to give us a proper chance and give our relationship the full attention it deserves.
I hope you can understand this babe, i dont want to hurt you, i do love you. But i cant live with loving to men, like you said if we had have lived close to each other it would have been different. But this is the way it is.
I'm sorry we have to say goodbye honey, but it think for all its the right thing to do, dont you. (i want you to be completely honest with me cause this is last chance to be ok)

I have to be able to concentrate on my real life here babe, you know. So i think we should end it tonight ok.
