██████████ ██████████, mother of ██████████ ██████████, telephone ██████████, was interviewed telephonically after she left a voice mail message on the undersigned agent's cellular telephone. ██████████ daughter ██████████ asked the case agents to contact her mother regarding private investigators who had visited ██████████ residence. ██████████ was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and purpose of the interview. ██████████ voluntarily provided the following information:

On November 2, 2007, private investigator Robert Myers and a Hispanic, well dressed female visited ██████████ residence. Initially Myers was asking for "██████████" and another name ██████████ could not recall, before he said ██████████. Myers was working on behalf of attorney's for Jeffrey Epstein. Myers asked ██████████ if the FBI or the original detectives ever said anything to her or her daughter about a monetary settlement. ██████████ told Myers that she and her daughter had not been approached by the FBI nor the original detectives regarding a monetary settlement.

Myers last remarks were, well you should get a lawyer and get one soon.
