A. The Trustees, in their complete and uncontrolled discretion are authorized to distribute any part or all of the income or principal of the Trust (either outright or in further trust, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustees, acting jointly, shall determine in their sole and absolute discretion) to any one or more persons then living from a class consisting of:

1. All family members of the Grantor, whether by blood relationship, adoptive relationship or marital relationship, including, without limitation (a) the Grantor's spouse, (b) the ancestors of the Grantor or the Grantor's spouse, (c) the lineal descendants of the Grantor, the Grantor's spouse, or the ancestors of the Grantor or the Grantor's spouse, and (d) the spouse of any such lineal descendants. For purposes of this clause A1 of this Article THIRD, relations created by adoption or marriage, including, without limitation, step relations, shall be considered family members; and

2. All persons or entities that at any time during the five (5) years immediately preceding the date of this Trust Agreement have been recipients of gifts from the Grantor, as evidenced by the inclusion of such persons or entities on any federal gift tax return of the Grantor previously filed or to be filed hereafter in respect of any of the years during such five (5) year period; in such amounts and proportions and to the exclusion of any one or more of them as the Trustees, acting jointly, may determine. This power of distribution shall include the power to distribute all of the Trust assets, thereby terminating the Trust.

B. The foregoing notwithstanding, the Trustees (other than Leon Black) then acting (including the case where only one such Trustee other than Leon Black is then serving), acting jointly (or singly in the case of only one Trustee other than Leon Black then acting), shall have the right, during the lifetime of the Grantor, to delete or add beneficiaries under this Article THIRD by an acknowledged instrument delivered to the Grantor, provided that neither (1) the Grantor, nor (2) any Trustee then acting, nor (3) any member of the family of any Trustee (other than Leon Black), nor the estate, the creditors or the creditors of the estate of any Trustee may be added as a beneficiary under this Trust.

C. The Trustees shall not be accountable to any Court or any person regarding the exercise or nonexercise of this completely discretionary authority. Any income not distributed may be added to principal.

D. Unless terminated by the Trustees at an earlier date, this Trust shall terminate twenty-one years after the death of the last lineal descendant of the Grantor now in being, and any undistributed income and remaining principal will be distributed to any of the then surviving beneficiaries of this Trust as the Trustees shall determine, in such amounts and proportions and to the exclusion of any one or more of them as the Trustees, acting jointly, may determine.

E. The Trust created pursuant to this Trust Agreement may be referred to as "THE J. BLACK TRUST."

FOURTH

Governing Law; Claims or Charges Against Grantor or his Estate

A. This Trust Agreement and the trust created by it shall in all respects and for all purposes be governed and regulated by the laws of the State of

New York as they now exist and may from time to time be enacted, amended, or repealed. All questions regarding the validity, construction, and administration of this Trust Agreement, or any of its provisions, and of this Trust shall be determined solely by the laws of the State of New York.

B. No portion of the income or principal of this Trust shall be liable for the payment of any taxes, liabilities, debts or any other claims or charges against the Grantor or the estate of the Grantor.

FIFTH

Trustees

A. Each of the Trustees, acting singly, or the Grantor, is authorized to designate, at any time and from time to time, one or more additional or successor Trustees of the Trust by a written instrument duly acknowledged by the person designating such additional or successor Trustees.

B. Designations shall be in writing and may be revoked by a written instrument duly acknowledged by the person making such designation at any time prior to the qualification of the Trustee so designated.

C. Any Trustee may resign by giving notice to take effect on the date specified in said notice, except that if the resigning Trustee is the last acting Trustee, and no successor designated pursuant to the provisions of this Article is available to succeed him or her, then his or her resignation shall not be effective until he or she designates a successor and such successor qualifies to act.

D. A Trustee may resign or qualify only by a written instrument, duly acknowledged by the resigning or qualifying Trustee, mailed or delivered to a Trustee then acting or to the Grantor.

E. The Grantor shall have the power at any time and from time to time to remove any Trustee of the Trust by a written instrument, duly acknowledged by the Grantor, mailed or delivered to the Trustees then acting, and such removal shall be effective on the date specified in such written instrument, or if no date is specified, on the date of such mailing or delivery.

F. If the last remaining Trustee dies, is unable to or unwilling to continue to act as Trustee of the Trust and if there is no successor Trustee designated pursuant to Section A of this Article FIFTH who is willing to act, the Grantor shall designate a successor by an instrument in writing, duly acknowledged by the Grantor. In the event the Grantor shall be unwilling, unable or unavailable to so designate a successor Trustee, the legally competent adult Beneficiary (or a majority in beneficial interest of the legally competent adult Beneficiaries if there are multiple Beneficiaries) then entitled or permitted to receive income from the Trust shall designate a successor Trustee by an instrument in writing delivered to the designated Trustee. If the legally competent adult Beneficiaries do not designate a successor Trustee within sixty days after receipt of notice of such vacancy or if there is no legally competent adult Beneficiary of such trust, then a successor Trustee shall be named by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. All of the fees and expenses of the Trustees (including attorneys' fees) attributable to the appointment of a successor Trustee of this Trust shall be paid from the assets of this Trust.

G. Anything contained in the foregoing provisions notwithstanding, no person who is a person described in Section 672(c) of the Code, in relation to the Grantor, shall hereafter be appointed as an additional Trustee or a successor Trustee of the Trust.

H. No Trustee at any time acting hereunder shall be required to give any bond, undertaking or other security for the faithful performance of his or her duties in any jurisdiction.

SIXTH

Settlement of Trustees' Accounts; Exoneration of Trustees

A. The Trustees shall not be required to file with or render to any Court, and the Grantor waives and excuses the filing with or rendering to any Court of, an account of their transactions with respect to the Trust or of inventories, accounts, statements or reports of principal and/or income in respect of the Trust. Nevertheless, the Trustees may at any time and from time to time render an account of their transactions with respect to the Trust. The Grantor shall have full power to settle finally any such account or to waive the same, and on the basis of such account or waiver, to release the Trustees, individually, and as Trustees, from all accountability, liability and responsibility for their acts or omissions as Trustees. Any such settlement and release or waiver and release shall be binding upon all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of the Trust and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of such an account in which action or proceeding jurisdiction was obtained over all necessary and proper parties. The expenses of any such accounting shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal or income of the Trust, or partly from each, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude the Trustees from having their accounts judicially settled, if they shall so desire, and the expenses of a judicial accounting shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal.

B. If any Trustee shall resign as a Trustee hereunder, the continuing Trustee or Trustees may deliver to the Trustee so resigning, an instrument whereby such resigning Trustee shall be released and discharged, to the extent stated therein, of and from any and all accountability, liability and responsibility for acts or omissions as Trustee. Any such release and discharge shall be binding upon all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of the Trust and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of the account of such Trustee, in which action or proceeding jurisdiction was obtained over all necessary and proper parties. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude any Trustee so resigning from having his, her or its account judicially settled. The expenses of any judicial accounting rendered by a Trustee who shall resign shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal or income of the Trust, or partly from each, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine.

C. In addition to the foregoing, the Trustees are hereby authorized, at any time and from time to time, with respect to the Trust, to settle the accounts of the Trustees by agreement between or among the Trustees and the then adult beneficiary of the income and the beneficiary or beneficiaries who would be entitled to the principal in case the Trust was to terminate at the time of such agreement, excluding any who are then incompetent, which agreement shall bind all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of the Trust. Any such settlement shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of such account, in which action or proceeding jurisdiction was obtained over all necessary and proper parties. The expenses of any such account shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal or income of the Trust, or partly from each, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine.

D. No Trustee shall be accountable, liable or responsible for any act, default, negligence or omission of any other Trustee.

E. No Trustee acting hereunder shall be liable for any loss or damage which may occur hereunder, unless due to willful default, deliberate wrongdoing or willful violation of an express provision hereof.
