

What is a certificate signing request?

A certificate signing request (CSR) is information generated by the computer to identify the user requesting a certificate from a Certificate Authority. The CSR contains the public key of the user and is used to generate the certificate.