Character Sketch

- J. Dennis has years of private service experience beyond the years he worked in the luxury hotel industry; he has worked in important roles such as the Director of Details for the Sea Island Company in the hotel realm, while also having experience working for 7 years as Bob Hope's Estate Manager and Personal Assistant
- He currently works as the general manager for a Silicon Valley entrepreneur on an entirely solar powered 30-acre island property in the British Virgin Islands; he maintains responsibility for maintenance of the fleet of boats as well as all buildings, beaches and docks
- J. Dennis is a true student of the service industry, with a degree in Travel Industry Management/Hotel and Restaurant Management as well as certification in household management and butler administration
- The references Mahler Private Staffing have obtained all remarked on his eye for detail; he has a desire to make everything "five star" quality and often sees what others miss.
- He has demonstrated confidence in working with foreign dignitaries and heads of state alike; J. Dennis has working knowledge of foreign protocol
- Some of his personal interests include motion picture arts, antiques, theatre, snow skiing and entertaining
