This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this case is still pending. However, if:

- You have timely filed to renew your current Form I-766 Employment Authorization Document (EAD); and
- Your EAD renewal is under a category that is eligible for an automatic 180-day extension (see www.uscis.gov/I-765 for a list of categories); and
- The Category on your current EAD matches the "Class Requested" listed on this Notice of Action; (Note: If you are a TPS beneficiary or applicant, your EAD and this Notice must contain either the A12 or C19 class, but they do not need to match each other.); and
- You do not receive your renewal EAD before your current EAD expires; and
- then this Notice of Action automatically extends the validity of your EAD for up to 180 days from the expiration date printed on the face of the card. If all of the above conditions apply with respect to your EAD renewal application, you may present this Notice of Action with your expired EAD to your employer for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes. If your renewal application is denied, the automatic extension immediately terminates, and you may not provide this Notice of Action with your expired EAD for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is a combo card, the automatic extension does not apply to advance parole. For more information, please visit our website at www.uscis.gov/I-765.
