Hi Janusz...so we will have to play this flight change for Florence and her team by ear...we need you to drive to Miami and be available to bring Florence and her 3 coworkers to Jeffrey's plane just in case they do not make the 5:55pm flight to STT! I am hoping they make it and all is well...but it is possible with all their luggage, the fact they are unaware of this change until they land and they have to go through customs they might not make it...

I will keep you posted once their first flight arrives Miami...They are due to arrive miami at 3:50pm...gives them 2 hours...hopefully they can make it!

Thanks, [REDACTED]
