Happy new year! I will find out about a private car. I would think you could ask the front desk people also. But I am calling Amex. Agree the traffic will be crazy and the time you will need to get from aspen to Denver will still be a long time. I am with friends in Michigan who used to own a house in aspen. She says even with a private car you should leave at least 5-6 hours in advance of your flight cause you don't want to miss it!!
