Hey Lesley,

Hope all is well with you!

Could you let Jeffrey know that I completed the lectures as well as reviewed the documents that corresponded on iTunes University that he recommended me to. It is a wealth information and could be intimidating at first, but it did the complete opposite. I'm more determine now than when him and I spoke last. I know its a long road ahead, but I'm willing to take that road, because it's too important not to.

Please let him know that I really appreciate the guidance he's giving me and hope he's willing to continue to guide me in the right direction.

Thank you,

Good day Lesley,

Could you let Jeffrey know that I completed the courses that he recommended me to look into. They are very informative, which answered some questions I had pertaining to finance as well as refreshed some aspects I needed to brush up on. I will go back through most of them over the course of the following weeks to keep abreast on the topic until he communicates with me again.

Thank you,
