WOW! this email is so informative!! Congratulations on [REDACTED] graduation! You must be so proud!! All the best to her!

I am amazed no one will go with JE tonight? Not even [REDACTED]? I will ask around, as I have heard nothing. I have made no plans for JE in Geneva...I did book a flight for [REDACTED] (shhhhhh) to arrive Geneva at 10:45am...I have not forwarded the ticket to her yet because I'm still waiting for JE to approve me doing so! But I do think she will go and will send you the ticket just in case...The only other person I can think that he may meet there is that Alireza...he is the brokering the deal isn't he?

Then yes, I believe he will go straight away to Paris...and yes, I believe it is Marrakech that he wants to see a house...

If i can get any more info, I will pass along!
