Hi [REDACTED]

I haven't nailed down my schedule with Itskov yet. I will make sure that they meet though.

I also have another friend here in NY that is radical out of the box thinker. He spent the last few years building a systems based model of the whole economy: <http://www.locus.org>. He made his fortune in Pharma: <http://www.royaltypharma.com/about-us/investment-committee>. I'm also seeing him tomorrow. Happy to introduce him to Jeffrey if there is interest.

Hi Lesley,
Dmitry is only in NY from the 15-17, but will be back mid-June. Any chance for meeting Jeffrey on the 15th?

Hi Jeffrey,
Thanks again for all. I'm seeing Dmitry Itskov who is a radical "out of the box" thinker: <http://2045.com/> next week. He's been funding radical work (keeping brains alive and interfaced to computers) and relocating from Moscow to NY. Let me know if you'd be interested in having a conversation with him.

Would love to continue our discussion regarding interpersonal and group dynamics in negotiation and collaboration and also the proposition. I'll be in NY again from Wednesday through Saturday if you have any free slots.

Thanks again for the hospitality!
