Thank you to Nicole and Lotten for working with the boys after the review today! I think with a little work on memorizing the routine and keeping the tempo, they're going to be a smash hit!

Our next practice will be Wednesday, April 15th, after school until 4:15. We can do it here, as long as someone can take a carload from school. I can take four boys.

Attached are two pics from today. Too cute!

Have a wonderful break and safe travels to those headed out of town!
