I am submitting this through a visa service company. No worries. Once we have everything we need I am sure that they will make the application proper for filing.

I recall reading when you fill out these applications that they want no spaces left blank...even if it is "not applicable"...I see that #18, 19 and 20 are blank...I think "N/A" should probably go in these spaces just in case...I could be wrong, but perhaps better to be safe than sorry...
