Hi Jojo...Jeffrey says I can take the book case in this first photo and have you drive it to me in New Canaan in the Suburban! The book case is actually 3 coffee tables stacked on each other so they should fit fine...We need to get out of the apartment by Friday. Could you bring to me on Thurs or Fri of this week? Which day is better for you? I am in my new house next to the church that hosts the May Fair :)

I believe this is still located in apt 3B. Only Andrew has the key to 3B so will need to coordinate with him to let you in. Let me know what works! Lesley
