

From: "[REDACTED]" on behalf of "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: LUNCH INVITE KEEP ON KEEPIN ON

Date: Fri, 02 Jan 2015 18:59:49 +0000

Attachments: FINAL_LUNCH_INVITE.pdf

Dear Mr. Jeffrey Epstein

Musical icon and documentary producer Quincy Jones invites you on behalf of his co-hosts Peter Duchin, Questlove, Nile Rodgers and Loren Schoenberg (Artistic Director The National Jazz Museum in Harlem) to a celebratory lunch for "KEEP ON, KEEPIN' ON" on Wednesday, January 7th at The Lotus Club.

The film has received numerous accolades from critics, festivals and The Golden Globes and is the now familiar heartwarming story about the mentoring of 93 year old jazz legend Clark Terry and 23 year old piano prodigy Justin Kauflin.

Clark has played alongside Duke Ellington and Count Basie; his pupils include Miles Davis and Quincy Jones, but his most unlikely friendship featured in the film is with Justin Kauflin, who prepares for a competition that could jump start his budding career.

As Quincy's holiday gift, he has arranged for Justin to perform at the lunch. In addition, Justin and director Alan Hicks will participate in an informal panel discussion from the piano. 🎹

Happy Holidays. Wishing you all a very healthy and prosperous New Year.

We all look forward to a sensational musical treat on Wednesday, January 7th.

xoxo
Peggy

Dear Mr. Jeffrey Epstein

Musical icon and documentary producer Quincy Jones invites you on behalf of his co-hosts Peter Duchin, Questlove, Nile Rodgers and Loren Schoenberg (Artistic Director The National Jazz Museum in Harlem) to a celebratory lunch for "KEEP ON, KEEPIN' ON" on Wednesday, January 7th at The Lotus Club.

The film has received numerous accolades from critics, festivals and The Golden Globes and is the now familiar heartwarming story about the mentoring of 93 year old jazz legend Clark Terry and 23 year old piano prodigy Justin Kauflin.

Clark has played alongside Duke Ellington and Count Basie; his pupils include Miles Davis and Quincy Jones, but his most unlikely friendship featured in the film is with Justin Kauflin, who prepares for a competition that could jump start his budding career.

As Quincy's holiday gift, he has arranged for Justin to perform at the lunch. In addition, Justin and director Alan Hicks will participate in an informal panel discussion from the piano.

Happy Holidays. Wishing you all a very healthy and prosperous New Year.

We all look forward to a sensational musical treat on Wednesday, January 7th.

xoxo

Peggy

Dear Mr. Jeffrey Epstein

Musical icon and documentary producer Quincy Jones invites you on behalf of his co-hosts Peter Duchin, Questlove, Nile Rodgers and Loren Schoenberg (Artistic Director The National Jazz Museum in Harlem) to a celebratory lunch for "KEEP ON, KEEPIN' ON" on Wednesday, January 7th at The Lotus Club.

The film has received numerous accolades from critics, festivals and The Golden Globes and is the now familiar heartwarming story about the mentoring of 93 year old jazz legend Clark Terry and 23 year old piano prodigy Justin Kauflin.

Clark has played alongside Duke Ellington and Count Basie; his pupils include Miles Davis and Quincy Jones, but his most unlikely friendship featured in the film is with Justin Kauflin, who prepares for a competition that could jump start his budding career.

As Quincy's holiday gift, he has arranged for Justin to perform at the lunch. In addition, Justin and director Alan Hicks will participate in an informal panel discussion from the piano.

Happy Holidays. Wishing you all a very healthy and prosperous New Year.

We all look forward to a sensational musical treat on Wednesday, January 7th.

xoxo

Peggy