I would be happy to buy one for us all. That might be fun one night to have steaks... I just don't know how to get to your Costco. It seemed like a long way off before. If there is anything we need, we can go to the store and buy it if we have a car... or we could even walk if it isn't too far. We're game as you know.

Yes, we will play with [REDACTED] for sure... we are very much looking forward to that, but... You mentioned hanging a picture or two or twenty? If you will let me know ahead of time, he can bring tools that he might need to do what ever... and I would be more than happy to do stuff too.
