 AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVEL

Dear Jeffrey Epstein:

As a valued American Express customer, your feedback is extremely important to us.

Our records indicate that you recently contacted American Express Centurion Travel Services on December 11, 2014 regarding a travel request to New York.

We would like to know how you felt about the service you received and would appreciate it if you would complete our survey to tell us what you think. We will use your responses together with existing data to improve our services.

If you have already completed the survey, thank you and please accept our apology for the second email.

The survey takes just a few minutes to complete.
