I do not see what you are talking about? Is it possible to just type a quick list that states:

10B will receive:

Bed
Sofa
DR Table

11B will receive:

Bed
2 Bedside Tables
DR Table

11P Will receive:

Bed
Lamp
Sofa

Etc...I need a master list so I can give it to [REDACTED], [REDACTED], Lyn, Rich and whoever else...

Then we can work on getting the furniture out before the 27th...I do have a guest conning from Sweden that is supposed to stay in apt 11P from Dec. 27-Jan. 15...besides that, we should be able to get [REDACTED] out and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is to depart 11B on Dec. 28th...I know [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are both leaving on Dec. 28th for holiday, back on Jan. 7...not even sure they are getting furniture, but if they are!...

Confusion is how Artefacto works.
All the orders use 11J as the contact apartment and there was no way to change it!

If you look at my email I noted which furniture goes to which apartment and the files are named by the apartment number. Artefacto also noted it at the end of the item list to the left and above the total.
Hope that helps.

As far as storage, Anthony did mention that he had space but not sure if it can handle this amount all at once.

Also I was under the understanding that the remainder furniture was going to being donated since not much of it is worth trying to send it to the consignment shop.

I am confused...all the furniture states that it is for apt 11j? We need to know exactly what will go in each apartment (ie: bed, nightstand, dining room table, etc) so we know what will need to depart each apartment... can we get a master list so I can then share with [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and Lyn...

Really, I just need to know what will go from each apartment and let those know who may want something...

Another question that may be helpful...does Andrew/anthony have any storage space?
