Hi [REDACTED]~!

My office days are never the same! I am at JE's house when he is in town and come to the office every so often, but also work from home...so it is never the same thing! Just hit me up when you think you might have time..

Glad to hear things are going well for you...I've heard about the [REDACTED]...read about it not too long ago...can't remember why!? Fundraising can be hard! Asking people for money is never easy...Part time grad school is great! I'm happy you are still plugging away at it! Will be nice to have that under your belt.

Ordered from Just Salads! Makes me think of you...we will have our lunch in like 2 hours !!! need to order before 11am with them i think! Take care!!! :) [REDACTED] (oh, and [REDACTED] and his team just won the championship game this past Sat. for football! We are all very happy!)

Things are going well with me. I actually changed jobs recently. I'm working at the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] My official title is [REDACTED] so still doing fundraising. School is still going. Part-time Grad school will probably take another three semesters but it's ok, I'm in no rush!

Please tell Jeffery and the gang I said hello! I know I keep saying I want to come by and visit and never have but sometime soon I'll try and make that happen! When are you at the office?

Talk soon!

Hi [REDACTED]!

Just wanted to touch base and see if you had heard anything about the position. I received an email from Darren last week telling me he had not had a chance to speak to Jeffrey yet and asked how my other interviews went. I responded and never heard back so I emailed him yesterday but still nothing. Anyway, if you hear anything please do let me know! Hope all is well!

Hi [REDACTED]!

Just wanted to give you a heads up about my meeting with Darren. It went well and he is going to talk to Jeffrey and make his decision by next week I guess. I told him I preferred to work with him and learn something new rather than work in a position that doesn't offer me anything other than a job. Let's see what happens!

Can you please send me his email address so I can thank him for meeting with me!

Thank you again for thinking of me and hopefully it works out!

Sure I can bring a paper. I haven't written a paper by myself yet in my graduate program (only with a group) but Ill bring one from an undergraduate policy course.

I can also bring a copy of acknowledgements that I have done.

Thanks again [REDACTED]!

Hi [REDACTED]

It's so weird but your emails are getting lost! I wanted to email you and searched for our chain and realized I never saw your last email!

It's sad about Harry but he has been there so long!

I actually wanted to email you and put it out there incase Jeffery is looking for extra help or if you hear of anyone else looking for an assistant. As I mentioned I'm looking for a new job...something that pays better than what I am making now. Please let me know if you hear of anything!

Your new schedule sounds amazing! So good to have the opportunity to be home two days a week! I work until 5pm everyday and have class Wednesday and Thursday evenings so not sure if that works at all since I remember you used to leave at 4. If you're there later now I can come by at 5:30 to say hello on a Monday or Tues! Anyway let me know if that works!

Take care!

So sorry to hear about the BF...there are more men in the sea! ;)

You should try to come to the new office in the next couple of weeks as Harry is leaving! To be honest, Jeffrey had told him 2 years ago it was time for him to look for a new job...he had a very difficult time finding something and i have felt bad for him cause who wants to work in a place where you know the boss wants you gone! He will go to an accounting firm (all WAY jewish like him)...so it will be a perfect fit for him...I hope ...I am not in the office all the time cause I work from JE' s house and JE now lets me work from home 2 days a week if he is not here (which is SO very nice) Look at your schedule and lets see if something would work.. Bella, Rich and Darren are still around...

Anyway, the house is still under construction? I thought you guys were working on it when I was still working there! What sports does ██████████ play...time really flies. I feel like it was yesterday when I saw everyone!

I'm very impressed with myself too for finishing school let alone grad school haha but I guess getting older does that. I love the ██████████ but I've now decided to look for a position that is more challenging. I think I'm capable of more than I'm doing so we'll see how that goes. I'm also still not so "together" in the relationship department though. My bf and I recently broke up so back to square one! It's ok though, at least I have my new career and school to look forward to even though there's not too much work in the non-profit world these days...even for an entry level position!

I know I've been saying this for years but would love to come by and see you some time and say hello to everyone. Let's try to figure out the best time that you're not too busy and the office isn't crazy and I'll try to stop by before class!

Take care and keep in touch!

██████████...Jeffrey is doing super too...working and keeping busy. Our house is still under construction! We hope to move in maybe early April...its very nice and way too big for just the 3 of us...My parents were just here for a visit and I think were overwhelmed by the project..(they are flying home today....great...as far as I know they have only departed the gate...I hope it is not a miserable day for them)

I will tell everyone you say hello...keep in touch :) ██████████

How is [REDACTED]?

So I graduated last month and start grad school part time in September (you knew that I think). I've recently geared up my job search in the [REDACTED] and I came across an article about Jeffrey's foundation...I know it's based in the Virgin Islands but I was wondering if he did any work here in NY and looking for anyone to help out. I do more [REDACTED] rather than foundation work but any entry level in non-profit work would be great...even part-time! I would really love to expand my work experience as I've been at [REDACTED] for three years. Anyway, It was just a thought...let me know what you think!

Oh and I still haven't forgotten about stopping by and seeing you!

Thanks!
