Hey girl...so sorry to hear about the troubles with your house...I think you are suppose to have some sort of warranty aren't you with Bob? I hope so.

We are leaving next week Thursday, November 20 for Detroit returning Sunday, November 23rd. Then we leave Tuesday, November 25th for FL returning Sunday, Dec 1st at 1PM. Then we are home I think until Christmas at which time we will fly to Detroit on December 23rd and return on the 28th(will drive to Ohio to be with Pat's family. John and Renee just purchased tickets to come here from December 30th - Jan 3rd.

I will send you a pic of the ball that Pat purchased...it is an indoor basketball called the Evolution and Henry is telling me it is the High School size...I am not sure if that is the size [REDACTED] will want or not...I doubt it...he purchased those for his AAU team he coached this past summer and they were High school players. You can ask him more this weekend.
