Hi [REDACTED]...you can speak with Jeffrey for sure...our problem is our available apartments are slim right now. I only have [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as proper apartments to offer Jeffrey's guests...we have guests coming to stay in these apartments throughout the month... [REDACTED] has moved into [REDACTED] (not sure for how long) [REDACTED] is livable from what I understand (there are some items in there that need to be sorted out...I know Karyna has removed the items she was storing in there) [REDACTED] is available now for you...We had a guest depart [REDACTED] yesterday and it is in need of cleaning. [REDACTED] is to clean that tomorrow. [REDACTED] leaves on Tues. and [REDACTED] can clean [REDACTED] that morning... We will have a place for you to stay temporarily for sure while your bathroom gets fixed...But as a solution for tonight, the only option is [REDACTED].

Have you let the building know of this!? You need repairs ASAP! Get them to come fix this for you! In interim, you can stay in [REDACTED]. Let me know if you need help with building. In fact, I will email them now and include you.

Oh oops! Sorry. You are correct! What happened to your bathroom in [REDACTED]? I believe [REDACTED] is up and running. There are some miscellaneous items in there but the bathroom works and there is a bed. Code [REDACTED]. Go have a look.
