Oh ok. I see thanks for explaining although I told her where what apt I am staying in earlier in the morning but that's ok if it was urgent :) she should have just ask me

Oh that's too bad to hear about internet.:((( That's why I spent all my weekend I school to study I hoped it will be by tonight :( hopefully tomorrow then. Thanks you and Bella for sorting these out.

Aww Thank you very much we also hope we find something soon. It is quiet annoying living on luggage and boxes but will be over soon)

I did not have an electronic version of the invoice but they gave me a paper based one. I really appreciate your help here too:)

I apologize for [REDACTED] She was having issues with her bathroom (which have now been fixed) but she was hoping to be able to stay in another apartment while her bathroom was being worked on...I'm not sure she knew at that you had moved in!

I don't have a problem with you changing the code...i believe you can look at the lock and find a make and model #(?) then find the directions on how to change the code on line...or send me the make and model of the lock and I can try to locate the directions for you!

Time Warner Cable went to [REDACTED] today to work on internet...[REDACTED] met up with them...unfortunately they must drill a hole in order to get the proper wires into the apartment...they could not do this today, so Bella has set up another appt for them to come back out tomorrow. They did not say what time they will come tomorrow. They have my phone number and [REDACTED] phone number and are to call before they get there.

I agree you shouldn't unpack too much if you are going to be leaving soon! I hope y'all can find a nice apartment asap :)

Did you get an invoice for your move? I can see if Jeffrey is willing to help you out...at least for the hour that I told you Jeffrey would pay for!

Hi Lesley,

All furniture ( which is only convertible bed and big painting ) I keep in apt. I was not able to reach [REDACTED] or anyone wake who has a key from the storage.

We haven't unpack anything besides clothes we wear bc we staying only for a month and will be moving again as so as we find a place , moving again basically :/

I haven't talked to JE about money I feel a bit awkward to do so...

[REDACTED] can you remind me the guys who supposed to come today, they were fixing an Internet ? Does it mean we should have an Internet tonight?

Also I wanted to ask is it possible to change passcode for our door till we move out ? My roommate don't feel comfortable that someone else have an access to the door. Between you and me, she told me that [REDACTED] was trying to get in yesterday during noon when my roommate was at apt but I was at school. I do not know why although I texted her that I am not home and won't be back till late evening. And even in this case I don't think it is right to walk into somebody's apt w/ o knocking Or warning ....

I'm glad in the end things worked out. You were able to put your furniture in a storage area at [REDACTED]? So now the unpacking begins! ugh... In a few weeks this will all be a distant me memory! Did you speak to JE about getting reimbursed for the move? I let him know about the need to put the move on hold for an hour while the elevators were being used for Trick or Treaters... :) [REDACTED]

Omg [REDACTED]! So sorry I just saw your email now?! I think I accidently opened w/ o reading it ...wow your move sounds a lot crazier ! Haha yeah such is life. You are right, nothing we can do but accept things and relax... You are the sweetest person I met, thank you for your support and organizing all:))) yes guys were a bit cranky but at the end all went well. But the worst part is that it isn't a final move yet so too early to relax :(

I don't know what Jeffrey were thinking of when he said that Jojo will help me to move all stuff in his car. Two of us had the way too much stuff that would never be delivered by JE's car il even by going a few rounds )) I know he tried to be nice ) those guys charged us $ 660 w tips which I think was quite a lot for the fact that we packed most stuff by ourself in our own boxes and I had a few furniture. Ahh I don't know. Anyway all is over for the moment :)thanks for checking on me . I hope you enjoyed the Halloween I definitely did lol

Morning [REDACTED] ...did everything turn out ok? Did the movers wait for the elevators to come back up? Moving is NEVER fun...and can be stressful that is for sure...just have to roll with the punches. I moved my entire house July 3rd and it was the most grueling day ever...and then at 8pm (as we were moving the big pieces of furniture in) it started pouring rain! What can you do!

Please let me know what happened and how much the guys charged you...if you need to call me please don't ever hesitate...
