Hi [REDACTED]

My store manager spoke to another PPG person. Turns out, thankfully they will adjust things on their end. I don't need to return & re sell the fabric.

Lena is still out sick. Either Prince or his daughter should of called you this afternoon to schedule the picking. You and I had spoke of them taking half of the sectional at a time. Would you mind opening the bolts, or have Prince help you? I feel it would be wise to attach a pieces to the sofa & pillows so they know the correct side to use.

Thanks again [REDACTED] for your patience through all of this.

Sincerely, Katie
