Dear [REDACTED],

How are you doing?

I'm finally back to Paris after some traveling. A reminder in my agenda tells me Jeffrey should be visiting Paris soon (early October).

If we could get together here, I would love to see him!

But of course, if he's too busy or already left then please send him my best regards and let's keep in touch!

See you soon,

Thanks a lot! That would be great and easier for everybody.

As for me, there's no hurry! I will let you know about my next visit to nyc in advance, and we'll plan the dentist!

Thanks and we keep in touch from the "old-world"!

Jeffrey has a wonderful dentist here in NY if you wish to wait! I could make you the appointment and the bill could be sent straight to Jeffrey...but up to you! What ever you are more comfortable with...just let me know

Dear [REDACTED],

I will be back to Paris on October 3rd, so I will take an appointment with my dentist and see how could it be done (you imagine, I haven't thought of this for ages now). I will let you know.
Unless it is easier for you to get it done here in the USA then we could figure something out during my next visit (I'm back late November/December).

In anyway, please thank Jeffrey on my behalf and send him my best thoughts, I'm leaving to Amsterdam today.

We keep in touch,

[REDACTED] Jeffrey thinks you should have you front teeth fixed! and he will pay for it all! Simply forward the bills to [REDACTED] in our accounting department (she is cc'd here) or once you make your appt, she could call your denist with a credit card...what ever is easiest... thanks, [REDACTED]

Absolutely!! I don't even notice it anymore and people around me this of it as a sign of "identity" (like a scar on the cheek or whatever).

But if he thinks it should be better fixed for my image and career, then... who knows!

Please thank him deeply on my behalf!

Hi [REDACTED],

I just had a phone conversation with [REDACTED] regarding the managers' list you sent me last week. She's trying to figure out which ones are the best to contact. As usual, one always needs a very good and strong introduction in order to get them interested. She might write to Jeffrey about that also. I just wanted to give you the feedback.

Could you please thank Jeffrey and send him my best thoughts? I don't think I have his direct email.

I also hope I will get to meet you one day, on my next trip to New York maybe!

All best,

Hi [REDACTED]

You asked for my recommendation of some managers to whom [REDACTED] could speak. Here are some who might be of interest to him. It is really hard to get good representation these days—unlike the old days when managers nurtured talent, now they are only interested in stealing established stars from one another. This list include mostly veterans in NY and Europe who might be willing to talk with [REDACTED] and point him in a helpful direction. The last two are younger managers who may be hungrier than the older curmudgeons.
