I could get Reid to Fort Lauderdale slightly later by 5:28 pm on United, but that would be the only other option.

Sounds good. Jeffrey mentioned that he might also be willing to take us to Boston on his plane. Having been to St Thomas once, the only thing I would note is that there is a very funky exit process in the commercial terminal that had a 1 hr+ line just to get into the terminal regardless of class of travel.

Hi Everyone,

How about this itinerary?

November 28

- Reid to take a Virgin America Flight from SFO to Fort Lauderdale, departing at 8:20 am, landing at 4:40 pm
- Joi to take American Airlines Flight from Tokyo to Dallas to Fort Lauderdale, departing Tokyo at 11:30 am on 11/28, landing at 2 pm at Fort Lauderdale. There are other options, but this one seems to be best in terms of overall flight duration, number of stops and arrival at around the same time as Reid.
- Jeffrey's helicopter to transport Reid and Joi from Fort Lauderdale to the St. Thomas, departing at 5:30 pm

November 30

- Joi and Reid to fly private from St. Thomas to Boston (waiting on quotes)

Alternatively, Jet Blue offers the shortest flight with one stop (coach seats) (total travel time 5 hr 9 m):

- St. Thomas to San Juan, San Juan to Boston; Departing St. Thomas at 4:03 pm and landing in Boston at 8:12 pm

An option that would have first class seats is on US. Airways (total travel time 6 hr 47 min):

- St. Thomas to Philadelphia, Philadelphia to Boston; Departing St. Thomas at 3:40 pm and landing in Boston at 9:27 pm

I will run these options by Reid later today, but let me know if you have any feedback in the meantime.

Saida

Jeffrey says that he can pick us up in his helicopter from Fort Lauderdale if we want.
