oh my...I did have some good 80's poofy hair, that is for sure. Funny...I totally remember the concert as well...we were squished way up at the front of the stage...small venue...fun time...Nice of you to think of me! My family and I are all fantastic...loving life...hope yours is as well!!!
Take care, :) Les

Since I haven't been on FB in a couple of years,
I just wanted to drop a line and say hi.
I hope you and your family are doing well!

I thought of you this morning when I heard an Oingo Boingo song on my favorite Sirius XM nostalgia station, 1st Wave..

For some odd reason, I have this distinct memory of us going to see that band play live on lower Greenville, and you singing at the top of your lungs with your cute mini skirt & 80's poofy hair...

The brain/memory is a weird & wonderful thing.. I'm glad I still have any brain cells at all left over from that period of life - HAHA!

Anyway, I just wanted to let you know that I still think of you often, and look back fondly & gratefully on all those good times we shared.

xoxo,
dj
