[REDACTED] there is so much stuff missing on Larry and Dave's, we are working on it. They didn't send any of the supporting documents.

They are at GIV training in Dallas..I would think they have access to computers or laptops...but you need them to do this today...don't wait for tomorrow. And I think because they are pilots, they would just use same letter, but I am not sure. Call Visa Central (they are Amex Centurian's recommended visa company) [REDACTED]. They will answer any and all questions...very helpful...but once again, do not wait until tomorrow. You should call today.

OK! :) I would let Jeffrey know where you are with this also..let him know his app was submitted and should be back Friday and hoping to submit Belarus Friday, Monday latest.
