██, I am wondering whether we should first ask JE if we can use him. Did Je say we should?

Hello John! Thank you so very much for offering to go around to each apartment and creating a list of what all needs attention. I am cc'ing ██ on this mail as she should go around to each apartment with you. Below are the codes to our guest apartments:

8A: ████ (this apartment is currently being renovated, but please have a look)

10B: ████ (the apartment you are staying in!)

11P: ████ (a guest recently fell into the glass coffee table in this apartment..furniture, rug, all needs to go-██ can tell you more)

11B: ████

11J: █████ is currently staying here. This apt has been newly renovated and is the best we have. ██, I would speak to █████ about entering the apt first.

██ cell: █████████
John's cell: ██████████

We have no guests staying in any of the apartments other than █████ in 11J and you John, in 10B. Hoping you can coordinate getting together today on this. Thank you! ████
