I will check on a studio for you starting Friday May 16th for a week or two

Hi [REDACTED],

Thank you so much again for letting my friends stay in the apartment. They will be leaving either this weekend or at the latest on Monday.

Next Friday I have a very close friend who needs to move out of her dorm at Columbia. She helps me a lot with the kids and I am trying to help her have a place to stay for a week or two. Any chance you have a small studio available for her?

Thanks.
