Peggy & Jeff

Are you ok with this email to Phil?

Phil,

Although I have not been involved since the beginning, the excuses have been endless. I find it hard to believe that Gary's accountants are too busy to provide a bank statement with the amount of money left in the trust and estate. For my own peace of mind, I reached out to Gary's accountants and they told me that the lawyers were handling this. It appears we're hearing conflicting stories. We want this resolved as much as you.

Our frustrations are growing as we have not yet seen any results. We have every intention of paying your bill in full. We're prepared to pay 50% of your outstanding invoice and will remit the remainder of your fee as well as any additional billing once a settlement has been reached and all parties have signed off.

Thanking you in advance.

L. Joshua Schmell, C.P.A.

Phil:
When can we expect some movement? Does this mean Gary's lawyer and his accountants just blew us off for another month. What is your assessment of this?

Please call back and get some hard news. Thanks you. Peggy Siegal

Philip....is this normal behavior? Accountants just blow off lawyers. Is there any law on our side. Are we to be continually dismissed indefinitely.
Thank you for all your efforts.

I just spoke with Jamie Dyce. She is having trouble with your brother's accountants in getting us the information that I requested. Because it is close to April 15th they say they are very busy.

Jamie is going to try to pressure them now and not wait until next month.

Thanks

Phil
