I'll try if I can come tomorrow my body aches and sore and I'm walking like a zombie, been taking medication since yesterday. If not tomorrow be there on Friday morning.

About the apartment i know what you mean but last Friday i was there in 301 and clean [REDACTED] apartment and I went and check 11j, 11p and 11b and 10b and all of the apartment are clean. And I know I'm only schedule this week for 11p and next week are 11j, 11b and 10b and i checked my calendar that i clean 11b twice march 3&4. It's fine next I'll check every apartment when I'm schedule in apartment.

Thank you and apologize for this matter.

The current guest is scheduled to arrive on sat. But with the apartments we never know when there will be a surprise guest arrive! The rule with apartments is to clean the minute a guests departs. I have cc'd [REDACTED]! She can tell you about this I'm sure. You never know when Jeffrey will need/ want an apt. So we always try to keep every apt available if it is not currently being used. But this being said, if you are not feeling well, then you don't come in! Your health is important. Ok?

Hi [REDACTED] I had sent a mail saying you didn't have to clean on the 13th because the girl who was to stay on the 12th was no longer coming. I never cancelled the cleaning on Mon 10th. If you ever have a question please always ask me. This could get us in a lot of trouble if we screw up the cleaning g schedule.
