Hi Larry...Jeffrey has had a severe allergic reaction to something and is not well...he wound up in the emergency room around 3am...he is on medication but his lips and chin are completely swollen (ballooned up!)...He is on his way to another doctor now, but he may be canceling this trip tomorrow! Giving the heads up

JE had wanted to speak with you, but you didn't pick up...I'm sure he will want to speak to you later on...

Please confirm back to me!
