Larry,

Please find attached a copy of the APA signed by the purchaser and a signed and dated copy of the Acceptance Certificate. Please countersign and return a fully executed copy back to us at your convenience so we can forward to the purchaser's broker.

Now lets hope there is an end to the government shutdown and we can get this transaction closed ASAP.

Larry,

Further to my conversation with Darren this morning please be advised that we expect to receive the signed APA today. The buyer's broker informed us late yesterday that the principal was traveling until today and was generally unreachable to obtain a signature. We will follow up with the buyers broker for another update and will forward you a copy of the signed APA as soon as we receive it.
