You have to fill out a resale cert for each vendor you use. It's a standard form you fill in all the info and is specific to the vendor you're ordering from.

I've attached blank form here. and screen shot of what to put. Just put the info of who you're buying from in the Name of Seller section. and please tell them you want to pay the tax on the order so we don't have to deal with later and give a copy of invoice to Rich K. thanks
